Chapter 551 When did you become perverted?

At dawn, Gu Shinian gently knocked on Yunshang's door, and asked in a low voice, "Ah Chang, what do you want for breakfast, do you want to take you out for morning tea?"

Yun Shang angrily opened the door, glared at Gu Shinian as if she was a pervert, snorted coldly, rolled her eyes and went downstairs.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was going out tomorrow, she would have designated a paw to scratch his face!

It's just so annoying!

She has relied on him as her elder brother for so many years, and he's so fucking playing with her! ? Shameless?

Big pervert!

Gu Shinian was not angry when Yun Shang gave him a cold face early in the morning, and with a smile on his lips, he followed Yun Shang downstairs without saying a word.

"A Chang, I'm going to country D tomorrow..."

"I don't want to talk to you!" As soon as Gu Shinian opened his mouth, Yun Shang interrupted him, "I don't even want to see you these days! You pervert!"

Gu Shinian was stunned, and the expression on his face unconsciously distorted for a moment.

What the hell did he do?

How did you get a perverted name?

Seeing Gu Shinian's bewildered look, Yun Shang became even more angry, turned her head, and almost poked her finger into Gu Shinian's eyes, "I treat you like a brother! But you treat me like a child bride and play with me Cultivation! What is it if you are not a pervert? Tell me! When did you become a pervert!"

No wonder you never found a girlfriend in your last life!

Ganqing was a pervert in her previous life, and she deserves to be scolded for being cold-hearted behind her back.

Gu Shinian: "..."

It's over, I can't say it clearly.

This perverted pot, he has to carry it today, and he has to carry it if he doesn't.

Gu Shinian frowned with a headache, took Yun Shang's hand, and pressed her restless body, which was about to jump up, on the sofa.

He wanted to coax Yun Shang, but he didn't know what to say when the words came to his lips.

He is good at coaxing younger sisters, but coaxing little ones...he has no experience at all!

What should I do?

Gu Shinian slowly squatted down in front of Yun Chang,

Looking at her swollen cheeks and red lips, I couldn't help but soften my heart, lowered my voice and said, "A-shang, what are you angry about? When I treat you as my younger sister, I will only love you alone, I am good to you alone. In the future... I will treat you better and love you more, and no one will divide my love for you in this life, is this not good? "

"How can it be the same!" Yun Chang retorted subconsciously, "If you find me a sister-in-law, one more person will love me in the future. But what are you doing like this? If I quarrel with you in the future, it will be less. Is my escort brother? And! And... you, you are my second brother Gu." How can you say that if you don't treat me as a brother, you won't be a brother? Then what can I do in the future?

The point is, she didn't think about it at all, brother becoming a lover? Is there anything more nonsense than this!

Yun Shang was sour and disappointed in the heart, always felt that if she agreed to Gu Shinian, then she would become a little pervert, but if she didn't agree to him, he would probably have nothing to do with her in the future...

At the end of Yun Shang's words, the corners of her eyes couldn't help turning red, and she turned her head angrily, not letting Gu Shinian see her awkward temper.

From the last life to this life, Gu Shinian has been with her for fifteen years and is the only solid support in her life. She couldn't even imagine how sad she would be if Gu Shinian had nothing to do with her in the future.

Gu Shinian sighed secretly, leaned forward, and lightly touched Yun Shang's forehead with her forehead. When she subconsciously wanted to avoid it, she straightened up again and smiled softly.

"A-Shang, do you want me to find you a sister-in-law from grandma's generation, and you to find a sister-in-law from grandpa's generation... Husband, we have become two families whose relationship is gradually becoming indifferent. You still want to get closer to me and become closer to me." How about a real family?"

Yun Shang moved her head slightly away, feeling that what Gu Shinian said made sense. She really didn't want to lose her relationship with Gu Shinian, and wanted to live with him as a family forever.

If Gu Shinian and her start their own families, the focus of their future relationship will be in their respective small families, and their relationship will naturally not be as good as it is now.

But if she and Gu Shinian changed from brother and sister to lovers, she couldn't get over the hurdle in her heart for a while. She always felt that this was wrong, but she couldn't tell what was wrong.

His surname is Gu, her surname is Yun, oh, their surname is Bai in this life, they are not biological siblings, even if the relationship changes, no one will gossip about them, but...it just feels wrong.

Gu Shinian patted her head, with a gentle smile on his face, and his voice was low and intoxicating, "A Chang, you used to be young and no one would gossip about us, but now you are a big girl, if you I still get close to you and take care of you as before, and people in the compound will gossip about you. After all, my surname is Gu, your surname is Bai, and we are not real brothers and sisters."

In the last life, Yunshang was alone, and he acted as Yunshang's guardian, taking care of Yunshang was a matter of course.

But in this life, Yunshang has his own family, coupled with the characteristics of the times, if he takes care of Yunshang as close as he did in the previous life, it will ruin Yunshang's reputation sooner or later.

He had kept her in his heart for fifteen years, so how could he bear to have her reputation damaged and be gossiped by outsiders?

The most important thing is, how could he just let go of the little girl he had loved for fifteen years, and hand over her life for the next few decades to another man!

It hurts his heart even to think about such a thing, let alone watching Yunshang live with other men.

Yun Chang's face gradually turned pale.

She knew what Gu Shinian meant, if she couldn't accept the change in the relationship between the two of them, probably after this mission was completed, he would gradually alienate her and gradually have a relationship with her.

Otherwise, her reputation will be in jeopardy.

If she can change her mentality and no longer treat him as a brother, but as a... object, they will be the same as before. Wherever he goes, she can follow him. Not only will she not be talked about, but she will A blessed life...

Seeing that Yun Shang lowered her head and stopped talking, Gu Shinian's eyes overflowed with a gentle smile, "A Chang, you don't have to think about anything, and you don't have to worry about anything, just listen to me, I promise you will not lose anything, and You will get more than before, you know?"

Yun Chang was silent for a while, then nodded, and gave another soft "hmm".

Gu Shinian laughed softly, as if his gaze fell on the top of Yunshang's head, he raised his hand after a while and rubbed the top of Yunshang's head, "Good boy!"

Yun Chang's face turned red, her head lowered a little, and she didn't know where to put the hand that was originally on her side.

Obviously Gu Shinian used to touch her head and praise her "good boy", but this time Gu Shinian made such a move again, and she felt extremely embarrassed.

Chapter 552: Intimacy

Seeing that Yun Chang's head was lowered, her neck was stained pink, and she was frozen on the sofa, unable to move for a long time, Gu Shinian knew that enough was enough, and he didn't dare to continue teasing her. If Yun Shang's mind that had been relaxed just now closed tightly to him under shame and anger, then he really would have no place to cry.

Seeing that it was getting late, Gu Shinian grabbed Yun Shang and gently pushed her upstairs, "A Chang, it's almost time, you go up and change, I'll take you out for morning tea."

As soon as Yunshang entered the room, she leaned against the door and let out a long sigh of relief. She listened to the movement outside the door, patted her hot cheeks, changed her clothes, and lightly acted like a little rabbit. Down the stairs.

Gu Shinian was waiting downstairs, and when he saw Yun Shang coming down, he shook her hand very naturally, and led her to the door.

Yun Chang secretly turned her head to look at Gu Shinian, seeing that he was full of energy, and there was obvious joy in his handsome brows, her heart jumped a few times, she quickly turned her head, and looked straight ahead.

Second Brother Gu is getting more flamboyant the longer he grows, and he is used to putting on a show. No wonder those women in his previous life wanted to throw him down one after another.

Gu Shinian took a look at Yun Chang's quietly red ear tips, and the corners of his lips curved a little more. He moved his hand holding her slightly, and wrapped Yun Chang's entire palm in his palm.

Perhaps because of the change of mood, Yun Shang's hands were wrapped in Gu Shinian's warm palms, and they were no longer as casual and natural as before. With slightly flushed cheeks, she asked out of words:

"...Second Brother Gu, how are Uncle Jin and Uncle Li doing over there? Is the operation going well?"

"It's okay, I've found the whereabouts of some of the cultural relics. I'll be there tomorrow, and I'll probably be back in a month. Remember to take care of yourself at home."

Yun Chang nodded and responded lightly.

Thinking that the two of them would be separated for a month just after he revealed his feelings, Gu Shinian felt very sad for a while, lowered his head, looked at the little hair on Yun Shang's head, and said in a low and gentle voice, "A Chang, I'm not at home. When you go to and from school, you go with An Yunming, and you don't usually go out alone. Also, Uncle An has found a few bodyguards for the family, so you don't have to be afraid when you sleep at night. If you are really scared, remember to call me. "

At the end, Gu Shinian paused, bent down, wrapped her tightly in the hot breath, stared at Yunshang's eyes, and added word by word: "Also, A-Shang, remember to think of me. ."

He looked at her with deep and gentle eyes, and there was deep reluctance in his voice, as well as a bit of undisguised joy and expectation.

Yun Shang has not adapted to the change in the relationship between the two for the time being.

Faced with Gu Shinian's more unrestrained and enthusiastic words and feelings than usual, he couldn't help but tighten his heart, and his cheeks became even hotter.

She nodded indiscriminately, she lowered her eyes and dared not look at him, her long eyelashes fluttered rapidly, like a frightened deer, pure and beautiful.

Gu Shinian felt that those two small fan-like eyelashes seemed to slap his heart every time, making his heart itchy and hot, and he couldn't bear to look away for a long time.

Being stared at by Gu Shinian's substantive eyes, Yun Shang became more and more uncomfortable. She moved her little hand, trying to pull it out of his hand, but he clenched it even harder.

"Gu, Second Brother Gu..."

"A-Shang, call me by my name in private from now on." Gu Shinian interrupted Yun Shang, sighed, reached out and rubbed the top of his head, "A-Shang, grow up quickly."

No matter what, he had to be eighteen years old in Bai's parents before he could find a way to marry him back.

If people knew that he had made up his mind with Yun Shang now, and started cultivating a relationship in advance, he would probably be arrested as a pervert.

The two of them had morning tea, and under the guise of buying new clothes for Yun Shang, Gu Shinian held her hand all the way, strolled around the department store, and then went to the movies until it got dark. The talent returned home after the first official date.

Early the next morning, Yun Shang opened her eyes early without using the alarm clock for the first time. After getting up and washing up, regardless of Gu Shinian's obstruction, he just ran up and down to pack his luggage for him, and when the sky was bright, he reluctantly sent Gu Shinian out of the house.

Gu Shinian put his luggage on the car, and when he was about to get in the car, he stopped suddenly, turned his head and strode towards Yun Shang, before Yun Shang could react, he closed the door with his backhand, and pulled Yun Shang against the door. He went up, and buckled her slender and soft body into his arms.

"A Chang, take care of yourself at home." When Gu Shinian spoke, he buried his face in Yun Shang's soft hair, his arms tightened slightly, wishing he could rub her into his arms.

This is not the first time he has hugged Yunshang, but this time it is the first time he has hugged her after expressing his feelings for her.

Feeling the soft and slender body in his arms trembling slightly, but still burying his head in his chest, trusting and relying on him with all his heart, Gu Shinian's heart was beating wildly almost uncontrollably, feeling joy and pity from the bottom of his heart. It overflowed all over his body, making him tremble even at his fingertips.

Feeling that Gu Shinian's arms were getting tighter and tighter, Yun Chang struggled uncomfortably. After feeling that she couldn't break free, she simply blushed and buried her head in Gu Shinian's chest, stretched out her hands, and timidly grabbed his waist placket.

Gu Shinian's body froze for a moment, sighed and lowered his head, kissed her hair gently and restrainedly, put down one hand, held her fist on his waist, and whispered in her ear. Said, "A Chang, you are still young, you can't mess around."

A deep, gentle, but narrow voice sounded in Yunshang's ears, and the fiery breath sprayed on her neck, making her heart tremble, her whole scalp was numb, and she couldn't even breathe smoothly.

Why didn't I realize that Brother Gu was so good at flirting before? This voice...was simply too foul.

Yun Chang tried hard to control her breathing, raised her head with a flushed face, and glared at him fiercely with her big moist and bright eyes.

When did she mess around! ?

He just grabbed his clothes and didn't even touch him, so why did he fumble around?

Gu Shinian was stunned by Yun Shang's stare, and then smiled softly, lowered his head and kissed her on the forehead, then took her fist, kissed her on the lips, and said, "Remember to miss me", turned and opened the door and walked out.

Suddenly there was no supporting strength in her waist, Yun Chang's legs softened, and she almost fell to the ground. She quickly reached out to support the door panel, held up the hand that Gu Shinian had kissed and looked at it for a long time, then rubbed her hot cheeks, quietly poked her head out of the door panel, watching the car carrying Gu Shinian move slowly far away, and finally slowly merged into the traffic flow.

Chapter 553 Are you going to country r?

When An Yunxi came back from the hospital, he didn't go back to his home, but ran to Yunshang's side with a terrified expression.

Seeing that Yunshang was doing her homework on the coffee table, An Yunxi threw her handbag on the sofa, squeezed over and sat down next to Yunshang: "Yunshang, I went to see Wen Baobao with my classmates today, she...she can... Scary."

An Yunxi's face turned pale, his voice was not high, and he was still trembling, obviously frightened by Wen Baobao's appearance.

Yunshang just heard Gu Shinian mention that Wen Baobao was disfigured, and she didn't know what she looks like now, but now she heard An Yunxi talking about Wen Baobao, and she immediately regained her spirits, "Sister, I heard that Wen Baobao The baby is disfigured, is it true?"

"It's true." An Yunxi nodded, took a sip of water from the cup, took a deep breath, suppressed the fear in his heart and continued, "When we went, we happened to meet Baby Wen who was changing her medicine. ..."

An Yunxi pointed to her cheekbones, "It's all gone now, which is very scary. There is also a piece of flesh missing from the tip of the nose."

Thinking of Wen Baobao's sunken cheeks showing bones, An Yunxi couldn't help retching twice, his complexion became paler, "Yunshang, you haven't seen Wen Baobao...it's too scary!"

A few days ago, Wen Baobao was the high school belle in the school and one of the most popular marriage partners in the Hong Kong business district. With a superior background and good looks, even many boys' school students would come to see Wen Baobao's beauty.

But in just a few days, Wen Baobao has changed from an object of envy to a terrifying existence that everyone can't avoid.

That face was completely ruined, like an evil spirit crawling out of hell, without the half beautiful posture it had before.

Especially Wen Baobao couldn't bear this kind of blow, and his spirit collapsed all of a sudden. No one can get close to her, otherwise he would struggle and scream violently. Even if the doctor changed her medicine, he had to use mental patients on her in advance. Tranquilizer.

In other words, Wen Baobao was not only destroyed by her face, but also her spirit and will.

Whether she can recover in the future depends on her own psychological endurance.

The corners of Yun Chang's lips curled quickly, and a smile flashed in his eyes.

Wen Baobao's situation is indeed miserable, but Yunshang doesn't sympathize with her at all.

In the final analysis, this matter is Wen Baobao's own fault, and he can't blame others.

After all, Wen Baobao spent a lot of money,

Those four people were going to kill her directly. If she hadn't had the space and mental strength to rely on, Gu Shinian would probably be busy helping her with the funeral right now. How could she sit here, listen to An Yunxi's story of Wen Baobao's tragedy, and then sneer in her heart that she deserved it?

The vengeance was avenged, Yun Chang was extremely comfortable in her heart, and took a sip of water from the teacup before asking An Yunxi, "Sister, have you met the Wen family in the past? Did they say how they plan to solve the baby Wen?" ?"

An Yunxi thought for a while, and said, "No encounter, only two nannies are guarding outside the ward. I heard from those two nannies that the Wen family has been fighting with people on the road recently, and their business has been ruined a lot. The family didn't have time to come and see Baby Wen, so they left her alone in the hospital and ignored her..."

"Are you fighting?" Yun Chang's eyes lit up, then she lowered her head and hid the smile on her lips, "Aren't the Wen family businessmen? Why can't they get along with the people on the road?"

"I don't know." An Yunxi sighed and shook his head, "The nannies don't know much about the business of the master's family. They probably heard a few gossips in private, so they can't take it seriously."

Yun Shang raised her eyebrows, and said with a smile, "Yes, the Wen family has a great career, even if people on the road make trouble, they can afford to lose money."

Loss is the beginning of loss, but the real headache for the Wen family is yet to come.

People on the road in Hong Kong City are the most difficult to mess with at this time. If the Wen family came back after causing such a big trouble, if they could not eradicate the members of this gang at one time, the Wen family would inevitably be punished when they went out or in business. Stumble.

It's a pity that the Wen family are businessmen after all, and it's not easy to eradicate a gang based on their connections in the Tao.

Even if the Wen family spends huge sums of money to unite two old gangs to attack the emerging gangs, who can guarantee that no one will slip through the net?

Who can guarantee that those who slipped through the net will not trouble the Wen family again in the future?

Thinking about these things clearly, Yun Shang's emotions that had been silent because of Gu Shinian's departure suddenly rose.

The person who met An Yunxi wentssipped for a long time, and when it got dark, he went to the next door to An's house for dinner, and then went back to his room to sleep.

Early the next morning, as soon as Yun Chang entered the classroom, she was dragged out by Xu Tian and Lu Yunling before she could put down her schoolbag.

"What are you two doing? What's the happy event?" Yunshang asked with her schoolbag in one hand and the skirt that was tightly held by the two of them in the other.

Xu Tian looked excited, and looked at Yunshang with sparkling eyes, "Do you want to go to Country R?"

"Going to Country R?" Yun Shang was stunned for a moment, then looked at Lu Yunling who was beside her, "You two are going to Country R?"

Lu Yunling nodded and said, "My fourth uncle is going to country R to participate in the Asian Film Festival. I pestered my parents to let go. They promised to let me go to country R with fourth uncle to play for a few days."

Yun Chang was even more surprised, and asked with rounded eyes, "Your fourth uncle makes movies?"

"Yeah." It was probably the first time talking about her family, Lu Yunling felt a little embarrassed, she lowered her voice and said to Yunshang, "Xu Tian knows, my family runs a commercial firm, and Lu's commercial firm belongs to my family. My father He and my second and third uncles all work in the firm, only my fourth uncle... In my grandfather's words, my fourth uncle is out of business and went out to act in an opera."

Yun Shang: "...???"

Lu Family Firm! ! !

Every year I go to the mainland to participate in the Canton Fair, and the Lu's firm that is covering for Lao Li is actually owned by Lu Yunling's family! ?

What a coincidence!

Seeing that Yun Shang was still in a daze, staring straight at Lu Yunling, Xu Tian couldn't help it, and quickly grabbed Yun Shang's arm and shook it a few times:

"Yunshang, what Yun Ling said is true, this opportunity is rare, let's go to country R with Yun Ling! Anyway, we will be back in a few days."

This is the first time Xu Tian has the opportunity to go abroad, so he naturally wants to go out with Lu Yunling to see him.

It's just that the people in country R are unfamiliar with the place, and the crew would not easily talk to her, a child's house. If they can take Yunshang to go there together, they can also have a companion for shopping and chatting.

Yunshang also came to his senses at this moment. Thinking of Lao Li pretending to be an employee of Lu's Commercial Bank and sending cultural relics back, and thinking of the last time when he went to country R with the crew, the director and the person in charge of the props team secretly took care of them. The doubts in Chang's heart were all solved at once.

Chapter 554 Looting 1 Empty

The last time I went to country r, Yunshang had the idea of robbing the museum, but the time was not ripe, and Yunshang could only suppress the little flame that was throbbing in her heart. Now that he has the opportunity to go to country r again, Yunshang, who has always been regretful in his heart, how could he refuse.

Seeing that Yun Chang agreed immediately, Xu Tian cheered, and dragged the two of them to mutter about the clothes they would wear when they were going to country r.

After all, they will stay in country r for at least three days this time, and they will go with the crew, so they can't lose face in dressing up.

Yun Shang smiled and watched Xu Tian and Lu Yunling arguing endlessly over what clothes to wear, her thoughts had already flown to country r, calculating the shortest route between the storage room and the exhibition hall in the museum in her mind.

Before returning to China, she probably only had the chance to go to country r this time. In any case, she had to take back a lot of things that belonged to her ancestors in the museum.

A week later, Yunshang Tomei Yingxue went to school to ask for a leave of absence. Together with her two friends, she followed the crew and boarded the plane to country r again.

Xu Tian was flying for the first time, and he was seriously airsick. During the whole flight, the sky was dark and the sky was dark. When he got off the plane, he was so wobbly that he could hardly stand up.

Fortunately, the film crew had already made arrangements, and a car came to pick them up as soon as they left the airport, and quickly sent the group to the hotel where they were staying.

Thanks to Lu Yunling's blessing, Fourth Uncle Lu arranged a big suite for the three of them. Pushing open the wooden door, you can see a small living room inside, with a small wooden table on the floor, a telephone, four teacups, and a purple clay teapot on it.

There is a bedroom on each side of the living room. When the sliding door is opened, there are all empty rooms with wooden floors inside. There is no bed or quilt, only the small lamp on the wall emits orange light.

Xu Tian's face was pale, and he leaned against the barrier door and frowned, "Why is there nothing in this hotel? They said this is the best room, not even a bed or a quilt."

Lu Yunling also looked at the empty room in bewilderment, opened the barrier door on the opposite side to take a look, and said with a frown, "There is no bed or quilt in this room either! Wait a minute, I'll ask my fourth uncle. "He said and walked outside.

"Wait, Yunling!" Yunshang called to stop Lu Yunling, "I'm worried about making the quilt ourselves, so I'll look for it first."

After speaking, he took off his shoes, went to open the closet in the room, and found two quilts inside.

Lu Yunling suddenly realized, and while helping Yunshang spread the quilt, she said to the two of them, "My fourth uncle said that our room is the best, with air conditioning.

The area is also large, and the scenery outside the window is also the most beautiful. "

Xu Tian went over to open the window, and saw outside was a rockery in the shape of a small bridge and flowing water, with carved stone tables and chairs beside it, a path surrounded by cobblestones on the ground, and a bamboo around it, the bamboo leaves rustled when the wind blew , looks really seductive.

Lu Yunling was probably used to seeing such scenes, and didn't think there was anything unusual about these small bridges, flowing water, and fake mangosteen forests, so she lowered her head and continued to make the bed after just one glance.

Xu Tian was fine. Seeing such a quaint little courtyard, he was so excited that even his cheeks, which were pale from airsickness, flushed a little, bluntly saying that he finally had the happiness of vacation.

The three little girls slept in a suite, and it was not appropriate for anyone to sleep in a room alone. After discussing with each other, they decided to move the quilt from the opposite bedroom to one bed, so that the three of them could sleep in one room.

After the bed was made, a few people took a quick bath and were thinking about going out for something to eat when the phone rang in the room.

It was Uncle Lu who called the group down for supper.

After going downstairs, a large group of people from the crew were waiting for them. Uncle Lu Si who was standing at the front nodded at Yunshang with a smile, and told Lu Yunling to follow closely and not to fall behind. He did not introduce the three of them to the crew. the meaning of.

Yun Chang felt that this was a good idea. The three of them just came here to learn more, and they didn't make friends with the crew. We are not in the same circle, so there is no need to deal with them.

After getting off the plane, I ate a lot of snacks. I don't feel hungry at the moment. I only put down my chopsticks after eating a few chopsticks of udon noodles.

Not only did Xu Tian not eat on the plane, but he also vomited out all the food in his stomach, holding a bowl that was bigger than his face, he could barely lift his head.

After supper, it was almost eleven o'clock, and the crew had to attend the awards ceremony the next day, but they didn't continue to play, and all went back to the hotel honestly.

Lu Yunling and Xu Tian were really tired. When they returned to their room, they almost fell asleep as soon as they touched the pillows.

Yunshang lay on the bunk next to the bed, covered her head with a quilt, entered the space, took advantage of the time difference, and after resting in the space for a few hours, carried the quilt to the opposite room amidst the slight snoring of the two, Use the space to get out of the hotel.

At one o'clock in the morning, there are almost no pedestrians on the street, only a few lights are left to decorate the silent night of the whole city.

Yunshang avoided the street lights, moved out of the car in the space, quickly started the car, stepped on the accelerator, and galloped towards the museum.

Tomorrow night is the awards ceremony. After everyone participates in the evening awards ceremony, there will be a small celebration party for the crew. What if those people come back at two or three o'clock in the middle of the night and wake up Lu Yunling and Xu Tian? trouble.

After all the calculations, only tonight is the best time.

After all, everyone sat on the plane for several hours today, and went back to rest after tossing around in the middle of the night, and they were almost exhausted. In addition, Lu Yunling and Xu Tian were growing their bodies, so if they fell asleep this time, it would be dawn She can only open her eyes, and she doesn't have to worry about those two people finding out that she ran out in the middle of the night.

When approaching the museum, Yunshang put away the car and entered the museum along the best route she had planned long ago. In the thick night like ink splashing, she silently collected the cultural relics belonging to the country one by one. The space is placed in the large warehouse that he has opened up a long time ago.

From the storage room to the exhibition hall, Yunshang collected hundreds of shelves and dozens of display cabinets. After confirming that they were cultural relics left by her ancestors, Yunshang didn't let go of any of them, and those with doubts, she was not sure of the source, also unceremoniously put them away.

This gang of robbers stole more than a thousand boxes of cultural relics from the country back then, at least tens of thousands of them. The cultural relics she took away today accounted for at most half of the cultural relics that were robbed.

Even if she got it wrong and took the wrong things from country r, it would be a tit for tat, let alone thousands of treasures belonging to her ancestors wandering in this country.

After coming out of the museum, Yun Shang almost grinned all the way back to the hotel.

Chapter 555: Going Home

Lying in the quilt, Yunshang's mental power entered the space, and neatly placed all the cultural relics brought out from the museum on the shelf, and also sorted out the cultural relics that she had found in private before, and put them all in the On the shelf, ready to be handed over to the state in the future.

Probably thousands of cultural relics suddenly appeared in the space, which stimulated Yunshang. This night, in her sleep, she repeatedly looted various museums in country R until the space was so full that nothing could be squeezed in, so she panicked. Woke up from sleep.

Looking at the bright sky outside the window, Yun Chang breathed a long sigh of relief, wiped the cold sweat from her head, fell back softly under the quilt again, bent her eyes and laughed.

She is really a demon, and she never forgets to retrieve the lost cultural relics even in her dreams.

Yun Shang covered her face and smiled for a while, looked at the clock hand pointing to six, and was thinking whether to get up, when she heard Lu Yunling and Xu Tian screaming from the opposite side.

Before she had time to think about it, Yun Chang quickly got up and opened the door to go out, and saw the two people with pale faces, rushing towards the phone on the small square table one after the other.

Yun Shang leaned against the shoji door and asked curiously, "What happened, what happened to you two?"

"Ah!" Lu Yunling cried out in shock, sat down on the ground, turned her head to look at Yunshang, stroked her chest as if in fear and asked, "Yun, Yunshang! Did you live in this room last night?"

Xu Tian also yelled with fear, "Yunshang! You scared us to death! You didn't say anything about changing rooms, making us think you lost it!"

There were still three people before going to bed at night, and when I woke up, there was one person missing in the room out of thin air, even the quilt was gone, so no one would be afraid!

Yunshang was dragged here by her and Lu Yunling, if she messed with him, how would she explain to An Yunming and Yunshang's family later on.

It was only then that Yun Chang figured out what the two were afraid of early in the morning. He first smiled and apologized to the two, then curled his lips, looked around the two, and said, "It's mainly the two of you that night I would snore when I was sleeping, like a meeting, it was so noisy that I couldn't sleep, so I had to change rooms in the middle of the night."

For girls, snoring is definitely unladylike behavior, so as soon as Yun Shang finished speaking, Lu Yunling and Xu Tian immediately blushed.

Xu Tian was more lively. After blushing, he jumped over and hugged Yunshang and tickled her, "Yunshang, you are so bad! Even if I snore, can't you bear it? Why did you tell me? Embarrassed!"

Seeing this, Lu Yunling also came over to help Xu Tian tidy up Yunshang, who made her not save face for them.

After they had been arguing for a while, Fourth Uncle Lu came and knocked on the door, urged them to wash up, then took the three of them out to eat traditional running water noodles, and then took them to the department store.

Yun Shang followed Gu Shinian to the department store in country R, and when she went in again, she only looked at what was new and didn't have anything she wanted to buy.

Lu Yunling's family runs a business, and apart from the clothing section, she doesn't have much interest in other merchandise sections.

On the contrary, Xu Tian enjoyed his shopping and bought a lot of small and practical things in the department store, which can be said to be quite rewarding.

Yun Chang wandered all the way, waiting for the government of country R to announce that the museum was looted. From morning to afternoon, she still didn't hear any news about the theft of the museum. On the contrary, there are many more uniformed and solemn-looking policemen on the street, which makes the whole city a little more depressing amidst the hustle and bustle.

Lu Yunling was very curious about why there are so many policemen on the streets of Country R. Uncle Lu thought for a while, and gave a perfect and practical answer: "The Asian Film Festival awards ceremony will be held tonight, and crews from various countries will come and arrange for the police to come out." Patrols are supposed to maintain order."

The corners of Yun Shang's mouth twitched when she heard the words, and she probed into the space with mental strength, and scanned over the cultural relics in a large warehouse, feeling very happy and very comfortable.

It seems that the government of country R is also afraid of losing face.

Also, just how loose the guards are, which can make the museum, which is known as the largest and most strictly guarded in the country, be moved to mid-air overnight?

This is simply the biggest joke in the world, and it is also the performance of Country R **.

Of course, this is not the worst. Once the government spreads the news about the loss of thousands of cultural relics in the museum, unless the large number of cultural relics are recovered as soon as possible, if they cannot be found, the image of the government of country R will be shattered. .

It is no wonder that the government wanted to suppress the matter, arranged for the police to patrol the whole process, and secretly searched.

Wanting to understand this, Yun Chang's original heart immediately let go.

She is not afraid of the country R government arranging unannounced visits to the whereabouts of cultural relics. After all, for such a large number of items, country R will only work hard on the freight line, and no one can suspect her.

What Yunshang is worried about is that if the gang of politicians get frustrated and close the airport and port directly, it will be troublesome if they are trapped here and cannot go back.

Gu Shinian will be back in a week, and if he knows that she is trapped in country R and cannot return, he still doesn't know how to deal with her.

Yun Shang pondered for a while, and felt that she was still in the light of this Asian Film Festival.

Those who came to participate in the award ceremony were all celebrities who were active under the lens of various Asian countries. No matter how stupid the government of country R was, they would not dare to shut down the airliner and passenger ship, trapping stars from various countries in country R.

It has been spread, but there will be international disputes. Country R has no guts to hold so many countries accountable at the same time.

Yun Shang's guess was right. After the awards ceremony, Fourth Uncle Lu held a celebration banquet to celebrate that the crew had won two awards. They didn't come to accompany the whole crew as Hong Kong media expected.

The crew was completely overjoyed, they played outside until after two o'clock, and then they all walked back to the hotel staggeringly.

Yun Chang fell asleep early at night, but now she was woken up by the movement of the crew in the corridor. Hearing the voice of Lu Yunling opening the door to talk to Fourth Uncle Lu, Yun Chang covered her ears and turned over, secretly thanking herself yesterday I went to the museum in the evening, if it was scheduled to be done tonight, maybe Lu Yunling and Xu Tian would really find out about her running out in the middle of the night.

Probably because of the excitement after winning the award, everyone in the crew got up early in the morning even though they didn't go back to bed until two or three o'clock at night, left the hotel in twos and threes, and went to the streets to buy gifts for relatives and friends.

Yun Shang was not interested in going shopping at first, but in order to inquire about the news of the theft from the museum, she patiently went out shopping with Lu Yunling and Xu Tian for a day.

Fortunately, the situation outside was similar to what she had expected. The government of country R was still under pressure and adopted a method of loosening the outside and tightening the inside to track down the whereabouts of the cultural relics.

Compared with the tranquility of the city center, the airport and port have stepped up patrols and inspections. Even if they knew that the group was here to attend the awards ceremony, Country R checked and checked everyone's information, checked and checked the luggage, and only allowed the group to board the plane back to Hong Kong City after confirming that there was no problem.

Chapter 556 Picking up the plane

As soon as Gu Shinian returned to Hong Kong City, he heard that Yun Shang had gone to Country R with the crew. The moment Gu Shinian heard the news, Gu Shinian's first reaction was that Yun Shang went to mess with it again! And it's still a big event that shocked the world!

Knowing that Yunshang came back on the same day as him, Gu Shinian ignored his rest, threw his luggage into the room, drove the car, and returned to the airport again.

It was already eight o'clock in the evening when the plane landed in Hong Kong City.

Yun Chang followed the crew out of the airport, and saw a very familiar tall and thin figure standing under the neon lights in front of him at a glance.

It's Gu Shinian!

Even if it was just a back view, Yun Chang recognized it at a glance.

Yun Chang's eyelids twitched suddenly, and her heart started beating wildly. She didn't care to say hello to Lu Yunling and Xu Tian, and ran over with her luggage.

"Second brother!"

Gu Shinian turned his head, and suddenly the flashing red light hit him, dispelling the shadows on his face, revealing his handsome and extraordinary features.

"Ah Chang."

Seeing Yun Shang, Gu Shinian's eyes unconsciously overflowed with a gentle smile, and even the deep voice calling her name had a lingering and sentimental flavor.

Facing Gu Shinian's eyes with a deep smile, Yun Shang's mind went blank, and she threw herself into his arms without thinking.

It was only a month apart, and he was standing in front of her right now, but the thoughts in her heart surged like a frenzy at this moment, and even her eyes couldn't help getting hot.

"Second Brother Gu, I miss you so much!"

Yun Shang hugged Gu Shinian, rubbed her head on his chest, wiped the tears overflowing from the corners of her eyes on his chest, then raised her head, grinning at him.

Well, Brother Gu is still so good-looking! The eyebrows, the corners of the eyes, the nose, the mouth, there is nothing unsightly, it really killed her.

Gu Shinian put his arms around Yun Shang, resisting the urge to kiss her, looked down at her carefully for a long time, then wrapped her tightly in his arms, and responded to Yun Shang's miss with practical actions.

Seeing Yun Shang raised her head in his arms, staring at him desperately, Gu Shinian resisted the heat on his face, coughed dryly, and asked, "A Chang, what are you looking at?"

"Second brother Gu looks good!"

the voice fell,

Gu Shinian's arm holding Yunshang froze, then his chin rested on her forehead, and he laughed softly.

The little girl of his family has very high eyesight, being praised by her for being good-looking, it means that she has eaten his face, so there is no need to worry about her despising his face in the future.

However, he is several years older than her, so he still has to take care of himself in the future, otherwise it will be troublesome for the little girl to dislike his rough skin.

Yun Shang leaned against Gu Shinian's arms, feeling his chest vibrating slightly, and his deep and mellow laughter echoed in her ears, her heart was filled with sweet warmth, and she couldn't help but smile with her eyebrows bent.

Seeing Yun Shang take the initiative to run over and hug a handsome man, Xu Tian covered his mouth all of a sudden, held Lu Yunling tightly with one hand, and said excitedly:

"Yunling Yunling! Did you see that! Yunshang, she, who is that person! Oh my god! Look so good!"

Lu Yunling also looked at Jiyan curiously, and said, "It should be brother Yunshang, I remember An Yunming said that Yunshang also has a brother."

"Brother Yunshang is so pretty..." Xu Tian murmured as he looked at Yunshang and Gu Shinian who were walking towards him.

Fourth Uncle Lu recognized Gu Shinian at a glance. Seeing him pulling Yun Shang over, he also pulled Lu Yunling and Xu Tian to welcome him.

Gu Shinian pretended to see Fourth Uncle Lu for the first time, thanked the crew for taking care of Yun Shang when he was in country R, and watched Yun Shang say hello to Lu Yunling and Xu Tian before he got into the car with his arms around her. Leave the airport soon.

On the way back, Gu Shinian held the steering wheel with one hand and tightly held Yunshang's hand with the other. He didn't speak, but the joyful aura emanating from his body still filled the entire carriage.

Yun Shang knew that she couldn't hide from Gu Shinian what she was doing in Country R, seeing that he was in a good mood at the moment, she tactfully confessed: "Second Brother Gu, I have something to tell you."

The breath on Gu Shinian's body suddenly cooled down, he pressed his thumb heavily on the back of Yunshang's hand, and asked in a cold tone, "Is it about you robbing the museum?"

Frightened by Gu Shinian, Yun Chang gulped nervously, pursed her lips, and whispered, "Second, Second Brother..."

"What did you call me?" Gu Shinian interrupted Yun Shang, his tone became even colder.

"Gu, Gu Er... Gu Shinian!"

Yun Shang had a ghost in her heart, and her strong desire to survive forced her to look at Gu Shinian's face and constantly adjust the address she called him.

Until she called out the words "Gu Shinian" and saw the smile flickering across his mouth, she knew she had made the right bet.

Yun Shang immediately turned around, held Gu Shinian's hand instead, and said flatteringly, "Gu Shinian, I have something to tell you."

Gu Shinian's face remained unchanged, but the smile in his eyes became more intense. He coughed lightly and said, "Tell me, what's the situation in Country R?"

"I went to the museum on the first night, and put away more than 5,000 pieces of cultural relics in several storage rooms and exhibition halls. The government of country R didn't dare to publicize it, and only arranged for the police to patrol outside and make unannounced visits. We When I came back, I heard that all the cargo ships in several ports were out of service, and the airport was also very strict. If Uncle Lu's crew had participated in the awards ceremony in the past, it would easily attract the attention of the media, and it would not be so easy to come back with scruples. "

This is not an exaggeration at all. Compared with the crew, every one of the scattered passengers who are about to board the plane will be carefully interrogated by the R country police. Once there is anything suspicious, they will be temporarily detained by the R team at the airport for repeated interrogation, and they will not be allowed to board the plane until it is confirmed that there is no problem.

After hearing Yun Shang's words, Gu Shinian wished he could beat Yun Shang again.

This girl is really courageous!

He did such a big thing without saying a word.

If he hadn't come back early, she probably wouldn't have taken the initiative to confess to him.

It's so annoying.

Seeing that Gu Shinian remained silent with a cold face, and his jaw moved slightly, as if he was grinding his teeth, Yun Shang hurriedly hugged Gu Shinian's arm, leaned over and asked, "Gu Er... Gu Shinian, are you still angry?"

It's a good thing I did this, why are you angry?

Besides, I've already called you Gu Shinian, could it be that this trick isn't working?

Gu Shinian was both angry and wanting to be happy, he was almost lost his temper by Yun Shang. Withdrawing his arm, he rubbed her head vigorously with his big hand, grinding his teeth, "We'll talk about this when we go back."

He was driving, and even if he wanted to clean up her, he couldn't. After going back, take a look in the space first, and then press her to clean up, otherwise she will dare to do these scary 'big things' in the future.

Chapter 557 Seeking praise

Gu Shinian looked at the rows of ebony shelves neatly arranged in the space, like a dragon, and could not make a sound for a long time.

Even though he was mentally prepared, he was still overwhelmed by Yun Shang's generous hand.

What is the concept of more than 100 large shelves and more than 70 display cabinets lined up one by one?

That can take up most of the parking lot!

Coupled with the dazzling array of antiques and cultural relics on the shelves, standing at the end of the parking lot and looking at it at a glance, you can see people's eyes.

Yunshang looked at Gu Shinian's face, and said in a very second-guess way, "Gu Shinian! Look, this is the family business I laid down for you!"

The antiques and cultural relics in this warehouse are stored in later generations, and any piece of it can be exchanged for a suite. Not to mention that hundreds of them are priceless rare treasures!

Gu Shinian: "..."

Yun Shang continued to work hard, holding Gu Shinian's arm and continuing to sell well, "Gu Shinian, look, you, Uncle Jin, Uncle Li, and Uncle An have been tossing outside for more than a year, only to find forty or fifty cultural relics. I just went out and wandered around, and I was able to retrieve thousands of cultural relics, do you want to praise me?"

Gu Shinian was defeated by Yun Shang's thick skin. After doing such a big thing behind his back, don't you feel that you are too courageous and lawless, and you still want him to praise her verbally?

If he really opens his mouth to praise, next time she will jump to the sky and poke a hole in the sky!

"You still want to praise?" Gu Shinian pinched Yun Shang's still baby-fat face, and asked angrily, "A Chang, why don't you have an explanation for acting alone behind my back?"

"It hurts! It hurts! Hiss...it hurts!"

Yun Shang puffed her cheeks, turned her head to the side, screaming exaggeratedly in pain, and secretly observed Gu Shinian's face with small eyes, noticing that the strength in his hands had loosened, and quickly hugged Gu Shinian's waist, buried her head in his chest and acted coquettishly, "Gu Er... Gu Shinian, I know I was wrong, and I will discuss it with you next time, so I don't dare to act alone again."

Let's get this thing out of the way first, and when I get the chance next time, she'll do it again!

At worst, he was beaten up by Brother Gu afterwards. Anyway, she has rough skin and thick flesh, so she is not afraid of pain.

Yun Chang's soft body was pressed against Gu Shinian's arms, and when he spoke, his warm breath breathed gently on his chest through the shirt, and the numb itching immediately flowed from the heart to the blood all over the body, a strange feeling. The heat and abnormality also spread throughout the body.

Gu Shinian's fingers holding Yun Chang trembled, his throat moved, and he covered his face with one hand, and sighed softly, "A Chang, stand up and talk."

Although he said so, the strength of his arm around Yunshang remained undiminished, and he was reluctant to let go of her soft and thin shoulders for a long time.

At this moment, Yun Shang only wanted to act coquettishly to get through the reprimand, and when Gu Shinian asked her to stand up, she thought he was going to scold her with a cold face again, so she burrowed into his arms even harder, There is a posture that he will never let go unless he praises her.

"Second brother Gu, I was wrong~" Yunshang elongated her voice, her voice was soft and waxy, "I will listen to you from now on, don't be angry with me, okay..."

It must have been a long time since she had acted coquettishly with Gu Shinian. After Yun Chang finished speaking, she felt a little hot on her face, rubbed her head against Gu Shinian's chest, and muttered softly, "...I'm so embarrassed."

Gu Shinian was so helpless after being attacked by Yun Shang one after another, he opened his mouth, unable to utter a single word that he wanted to teach her a lesson, in the end he could only tighten his arms, using forbearance and silence The voice said one word: "Good."

Thinking of Yun Shang asking him to praise him at the beginning, Gu Shinian hesitated for a moment, but followed Yun Shang's mind and praised her, "A Shang is very good at recovering so many cultural relics."

To be able to retrieve so many cultural relics by one person without missing a trace, his little girl is indeed very powerful.

The most important thing is that the little girl has upright views and a firm heart. Even after staying outside for more than a year, her love for the country has not diminished in the slightest.

Upon hearing this, Yun Shang immediately got out of Gu Shinian's arms, stood up straight, and proudly straightened out Xiao He's small, pointed chest.

Indeed, she is really powerful!

Not to mention the cultural relics in the museum, as long as there is a definite target, even if it is a treasure hidden in a Swiss bank, she can find a way to get it out!

Gu Shinian took Yunshang back to the front of the building, and the two sat down on the sofa and talked to each other about the past month.

Knowing that Wen Baobao had a mental breakdown and dared not see anyone, and that the Wen family was still in a stalemate with the people on the road, Gu Shinian breathed a sigh of relief for a while.

As long as the two parties continue to bite dogs, it will be fine, so that the Wen family will not look suspiciously at Yunshang.

"Second Brother Gu, how many cultural relics did you bring back this time? Is Uncle Li going back again?"

"This time, I found two buyers and brought back seven cultural relics. The last destination of these items was not in Hong Kong City. They are temporarily safe at home, and there is no need to send them back.

Uncle Jin has already arranged for people to trace the whereabouts of other cultural relics. Once we have news, we will go abroad again immediately.

A-Shang, in the second half of the year, you will probably be alone in Hong Kong City again. "

Yun Chang looked at Gu Shinian, feeling dissatisfied.

She came out to help Gu Shinian and the others with their missions. As a result, Lao Jin, Lao Li, and Gu Shinian left her alone in Hong Kong City and went out to complete the mission by themselves. What's the use of her as a walking warehouse? ?

If she wants to stay in Hong Kong City alone to go to school, she might as well go home and play with the old man directly!

Yun Chang was unhappy in his heart, but didn't show it on his face. After thinking for a while, he asked, "Second Brother Gu, can your actions really be foolproof? In case you meet a heavily guarded buyer, you won't be able to get the cultural relics, or you will be exposed. What should I do?"

No matter how good your kung fu is, you are afraid of bricks!

No matter how powerful Lao Jin's physical attack is, can it be stronger than her who can attack with magic?

Gu Shinian fell silent for a while. Thinking of the fact that Lao Jin was discovered during his last action, and the three of them were chased for hundreds of kilometers before he managed to get rid of the pursuers, abandon the plane, sneak into the passenger ship and return to Hong Kong City, Gu Shinian couldn't help it. Going against conscience, saying that their next action will be as unrevealed as before.

In the matter of recovering cultural relics, except for Yunshang, a big bug in walking, no one can guarantee that the operation will go smoothly and the cultural relics will be successfully sent back to China.

"A Chang, don't worry, Uncle Jin and Uncle Li are both elite talents carefully selected by the organization, and the operation will definitely go smoothly."

What Gu Shinian said was nice, but Yun Shang saw the clue from his slightly frowned brows, curled his lips, and continued pestering Gu Shinian, "Second Brother Gu, take me with you next time you go out. Otherwise, I won't be able to stay in Hong Kong City by myself, and maybe I'll have to go out to 'do big things' again."

Chapter 558: Petting Her

"Ah Chang, the organization has also given funds to buy cultural relics. If we really can't get cultural relics, we can still come to buy them with money."

Yun Shang frowned, and said very unhappy, "It's our stuff, why spend money to buy it back? What if others don't sell it? Besides, the organization's funds are so tight, don't be a prodigal!"

Although a few people were planning to steal it if they couldn't get it, and buy it if they couldn't get it, but it wasn't a last resort, why did they have to expose their purpose to the public and let people know that a group of overseas Chinese were looking for cultural relics everywhere?

What if a few people take actions in the future and attract others' suspicion?

After all, wherever they go, cultural relics will be lost, and the details are too difficult to withstand investigation.

Gu Shinian was stunned by Yun Shang, and it was hard to continue arguing with her for a while, and was about to change the subject, when Yun Shang continued, "Second brother Gu, it's okay if I don't go out with you, but you have to promise me , if your actions are not going well, just call me, and then I will sneak over to help, just like the time in country R, just don't let Uncle Jin and Uncle Li know that I will help."

Gu Shinian knew Yun Shang's stubborn nature better than anyone else, and seeing that she was willing to take a step back, he nodded in agreement.

Anyway, whether the operation goes well or not is up to him to decide, unless it is a last resort, he just doesn't disclose it to Yun Shang.

Yun Shang was brought up by Gu Shinian in both her lifetimes, so how could she not know his plan, she didn't show it on the surface, but she was already thinking about going abroad to check posts at any time in the future, and "doing work" by the way.

The wind outside the window blows in softly through the window, blowing on the face, soft like a mother's hand.

Yun Chang leaned against the head of the bed, the hair beside her ear fluttered with the wind, brushed against her porcelain-white cheeks, and then fell on her slender and fair collarbone. .

Gu Shinian's fingers on his side stiffened for a moment, he lowered his head, and carefully pulled the strap of the pajamas that had slipped off his shoulders for her. Just as he was about to say something, he saw her raise her small, white face, and said aggrievedly:

"Second brother, I want to go home."

Under the light, Yunshang's sparkling eyes were like washed obsidian, black and translucent, without a trace of impurities, but with a little bit of grievance and tenderness inside, which instantly softened Gu Shinian's heart lump.

He was full of suppressed emotions, and suddenly poked a small hole, which instantly filled his entire chest, and even his heartbeat slowed down by half a beat. And the big hand that originally gathered the belt of Yunshang's pajamas unconsciously caressed her cheeks, pinned the naughty hair on the tip of her nose behind her ears, supported the back of her head with her big hands, and lowered her head to kiss the pair of lips that almost made him lose control. Eye.

Yun Shang froze for a moment, moved her head uncomfortably, and was about to find something to divert Gu Shinian's attention, but as if he had sensed her resistance, he let go of his hand and distanced himself from her, and immediately He sighed softly: His little girl is still not enlightened.

"A Chang, I'll discuss it with Uncle Jin and Uncle Li later, and see if I can go back while Uncle Li is handing in the task." After Gu Shinian finished speaking, he rubbed Yun Shang's head and closed the window for her. Turned and left the room.

Yun Chang looked at the tightly closed door, and raised her hand to touch the eyes he had kissed. After a while, her cheeks suddenly became warm, and she lay down embarrassingly covering her face. Wrap yourself tightly with a quilt.

Brother Gu is really...too flirtatious!

Her little heart can't take it.

.....

The news of the theft of the museum in country R finally came out. While shocking the world, newspapers and magazines from various countries rushed to report on the theft of the museum, and actively speculated on the origin of the criminal gang that stole a large number of cultural relics.

The newspapers in Hong Kong City will naturally not be left behind. Even the school teacher mentioned this shocking case that shocked the world during class, which made Yun Chang go into the space every night to check the cultural relics on the shelves.

Just as rumors about the theft of the R country museum were spreading, the writers in Hong Kong City once again broke the big news.

All of a sudden, it attracted the attention of the people in Hong Kong City.

It is said that those gangsters who ruined Miss Wen's appearance were killed by someone from Wen's family.

It is said that in order to avenge his younger brother, the gang leader set fire to a large shopping mall and three factories of the Wen family in the middle of the night. The Wen family suffered heavy losses and almost fell out of the upper circle.

It is said that the Wen family spent a large amount of money to hire people on the road to deal with the emerging gangs, and abruptly broke up the gangs, and the territory was divided up!

It is said that when the old man of the Wen family went out to participate in the Chamber of Commerce, he was almost shot in the head, and finally saved his life only under the cover of bodyguards.

It is said that several grandchildren of the Wen family have recently stayed at home and dare not go out for fear of being hacked with a knife. Even Baby Wen is no longer hospitalized, and was taken home by the Wen family to recuperate. However, because Baobao Wen couldn't bear the blow of disfigurement, he was already insane, and the Wen family lost a valuable marriage tool...

When the rumors of the gang dispute between Wen's family and Dao Shang gradually disappeared, the time also passed the New Year's Eve one by one, and it was time for the Canton Fair to be held again in China.

In the past six months, Yunshang managed to mix up several identity certificates, sneaked out to help Gu Shinian and Lao Jin and Lao Li do two big things, and when Gu Shinian realized that his hands were itching with hatred, he patted The ass slipped back to Hong Kong City, making him angry even if he wanted to find no place to get angry.

By the time he finished his mission and returned to Hong Kong City, the anger aroused by Yunshang had dissipated over time, and when she stretched out his voice and acted like a spoiled child, he could no longer clap his high-raised hands.

It's one thing for Gu Shinian not to have the heart to punish Yun Shang, but it's another thing to warn Yun Shang in private, but this warning falls on Yun Shang's ears, and all of them fall on deaf ears.

"A Chang, next time you dare to act privately, I will propose to Grandpa Bai that you finish your mission early and return home this time."

"Yeah, okay, I see." Yun Shang sat on the head of the bed, watching Gu Shinian pack her luggage, while nodding obediently, as if you were right and I listened to you.

Faced with Yun Shang's petite appearance, Gu Shinian really couldn't stand it anymore.

When the two were still in a pure brother-sister relationship, every time he could straighten Yun Shangxun's eyes with a straight face, and even force her to burst into tears when it was serious, although she would always find ways to get revenge afterwards, but he If she reprimanded, she will always remember it in her heart and try not to do it again.

But ever since he showed his intentions and coaxed her to change the relationship with him, she was like a turned serf singing, always confronting him, but he couldn't bear to teach her a lesson, so he pampered her even more lawlessly.

Chapter 559 The old bachelor has a master!

Gu Shinian was speechless for a while, looking at Yun Shang's deliberately raised small face, he bent down, and when Yun Shang subconsciously leaned back, he turned his head and gnawed on her face as if punishing.

The rascal appearance of the little girl was all because of his pampering, so he had no choice but to continue pampering her.

Being taken advantage of by Gu Shinian, Yunshang was very dissatisfied, pouted her lips, scolded "stinky rascal" angrily, then sat on the bedside, like a black-hearted landlord Lao Cai, took Gu Shinian Branches make circles around.

In the capital city in April, it is the season of warm spring and flowers blooming. The trees in the courtyard, which have been dry all winter, are also blooming tender leaves on the branches, exuding vitality in the spring breeze.

At this time, the gate of Bai's house was opened, and there was a group of young soldiers wearing military uniforms, laughing and playing with each other. restaurant.

With a small leather bag on her shoulder and a bag of snacks in her hand, Yun Chang stood beside Gu Shinian, who had big bags and small bags, and was dumbfounded when she saw Bai Qingjie wearing a big red flower in the crowd.

"...Gu, second brother Gu, that's it, third cousin, right? He's getting married today?" Yun Shang was stunned for a long time before stammering and asking.

When I left the capital last time, the eldest family of the Bai family was still talking about three old bachelors who were not married. It has only been a year, how come the youngest bachelor of the eldest family of the Bai family got married?

What about the eldest Bai Qingze and the second eldest Bai Qingyuan? Are they also married? If the eldest and second child were not married, would it be Bai Qingjie's turn to get married today?

The most important thing is, if both the first cousin and the second cousin are married, when did they date and when did they get married, and who is the newly married sister-in-law? Whether you are filial to your elders, and...how is your character?

Yun Chang suddenly felt that she hadn't come back for a year, so why did she feel like she had been wandering outside for more than ten years? When she came back, she felt that the whole world had changed.

Gu Shinian was also stunned for a moment, and after recognizing Bai Qingjie in the crowd, he shook Yun Shang's hand behind his back and strode towards Bai's house.

Yun Shang came back to her senses, stuffed the snack bag into Gu Shinian's hand, ran over with puffy cheeks, and said while grinding her back molars, "Bai Qingjie! How dare you marry behind my back!"

That sour tone, the small appearance of gnashing teeth, just like how could you betray me.

As soon as these words came out, not only the group of people at the door were dumbfounded, but even the blue veins on Gu Shinian's forehead couldn't stop jumping up and down. Pass your mind when you speak, and don't dare to be so outspoken again.

Obviously he was angry that Bai Qingjie didn't inform her, but after she said this, it seemed that she was betrayed and called on the door to find the little wife of a heartless man.

What you said is really ambiguous!

Bai Qingjie was also dumbfounded. Faced with Yun Chang falling from the sky, he subconsciously rubbed his eyes. After realizing it, he laughed and raised Yun Chang and threw it a few times.

"Xiaoqi! Xiaoqi! You're a bad girl! My grandpa is still talking about you in the morning, hurry up! Hurry up and make our grandpa happy!"

Gu Shinian hurriedly dropped his luggage, snatched Yun Shang from Bai Qingjie's arms, fixed his eyes on the big red flower on his chest, and asked with a smile, "Brother Qingjie, are you getting married today?"

"Yes! You and Xiaoqi happened to be getting married just in time for me! Later, the eldest brother and the second child will envy me again!" Bai Qingjie patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder proudly, and said with a smile, "Good boy, you are more energetic than before! "

As soon as Yun Shang heard this, she knew that the other two cousins were also married, and she was secretly speechless.

The speed of the eldest aunt is really fast. The last time I came back to see her, I was still worried that my three bachelors could not find a partner. It has only been a year, and the three bachelors have been solved.

When she comes back next time, will she be an aunt?

Yun Chang entered the door in a daze, and was still in a daze when she stood in front of Mr. Bai.

Seeing the return of the little granddaughter whom he had been thinking about so much, Mr. Bai immediately put aside a few old comrades who played well in the compound, and he had no choice but to let go while holding Yunshang.

It's only been a year, and the little granddaughter has grown taller again, and her eyebrows and eyes have also grown. Standing there, she looks slim and graceful, as if she can shine, and she compares with all the big girls and young wives in the room.

"Master, I'm back to see you." Yun Chang greeted the old man, then turned her head, looking for Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan all over the room.

She hasn't been back for a year, she really misses the old man, and Bai Yancheng and his wife.

"Don't look, your dad has a mission and can't come back in time, your mother came back with Qingyue and Xiaoliuzi. Now go to the hotel with your aunt and the others to make arrangements."

Yun Shang took a sip of the sugar water that Aunt Jiang just brought over, blinked her eyes and asked the old man, "Master, is it suitable for my cousin to get married in a restaurant?" It's only 70 years now, married in a restaurant, aren't you afraid of being talked about?

"Appropriate! Why isn't it appropriate?" The old man smiled and waved his hands, "Our family has a lot of guests. It's not easy to worry about the noisy wedding at home. It's more convenient to put it in a restaurant."

The Bai family has three generals, and they are highly valued by the leaders. In addition, the grandchildren under them are all promising and seeing a bright future. I will also come over to join in the fun and get acquainted with each other.

In addition to Mr. Bai's guests, Dafang Bai Yanming's and his wife's guests, Bai Qingjie's own friends and comrades-in-arms, and real relatives of the Bai family... After all, there are quite a lot of guests.

Let's not talk about whether the small bungalow of the Bai family can accommodate so many guests. Just because there are people coming and going on the day of the wedding, there is a lot of noise. All have to follow the bad luck.

After all the calculations, it is more worry-free to hold the wedding in a hotel.

Yun Chang's mind turned quickly, and she quickly figured out the old man's concerns and his intentions for such an arrangement.

Seeing that Yunshang and Gu Shinian had put down their teacups, the old man kept urging them to wash up and change their clothes before going to the hotel to attend the wedding.

Yun Chang walked a few steps in response, then ran back and asked the old man in a low voice, "Master, when did my first cousin and second cousin get married? Which girls are the two sister-in-laws? Are they good looking?"

Thinking that she suddenly had two more sister-in-laws, Yun Chang felt like scratching her heart. She wanted to know where these two sister-in-laws came from, and how they could have such great abilities in just a few months. It will be able to subdue a few young talents with extremely high vision in the compound of the entire military region.

Chapter 560 wedding (a)

"Your lobby sister-in-law, you have seen it before, she is the girl from the old Li's family, and now she is in the same military area as your lobby brother..."

Before the old man finished speaking, Yunshang asked with a look of surprise, "Master! Is that the sister of the Li family from our family that year!? Is that the handsome and good-looking sister of the Li family?"

"Yes, it's Huiwen girl!" The old man shook his head amusedly, and said, "It's a nice name, Huiwen Huiwen, a quiet and quiet girl, but she has a very straightforward temper, and she is a good girl."

Yun Chang was satisfied at once. Back then, when the eldest aunt gave blind dates to the three bachelors in the family, she saw that the four girls were all good, and she especially liked the girl from the Li family who had a sharp temper and a heroic look in her eyes.

Unexpectedly, Bai Qingze's black-bellied fox had a good eye, and immediately brought back the most straightforward girl from the Li family.

Yun Shang was very skeptical. The eldest brother found a daughter-in-law with a straightforward personality out of a complementary mentality.

I probably know that I am a cunning and black-bellied person. When I am looking for a partner, I want to find something simpler. After returning home, I can rest my mind and don't have to listen to a sentence and wonder for a long time what the other party means. , live with peace of mind.

After thinking about the matter of the boss, Yun Chang asked about the identity of Bai Qingyuan's daughter-in-law, "Master, what about the second sister-in-law, which family's girl is it?"

The old man looked around, lowered his voice, and said in Yunshang's ear, "Your second cousin is from the research base, named Wu Di, the daughter and assistant of Expert Wu.

Your second cousin's marriage can't be a big deal, so he filed an application report with the organization, the two received a marriage certificate, the two families had a private meal, recognized the family, and the marriage was considered a marriage. "

Speaking of this, the old man shook his head regretfully, "Your second cousin has treated his wife badly. When the situation permits in a few years, we have to make up for your second cousin's wife's wedding. People get married once in a lifetime." Back to marriage, what is going on without a wedding..."

Yun Shang agreed with the old man's thoughts very much, nodded, and gave the old man an idea, "Master, when the time comes, let the second cousin's baby be a sedan chair baby for his parents, and get out of bed for his parents!"

"Yes, just do it! Later, I have to urge your second cousin to give birth to a baby, or he won't even have a baby in bed in the future."

The old and the young got together head-to-head, thinking about making up for Bai Qingyuan's wedding in a very unscrupulous manner, and then talking about Bai Qingjie's marriage partner.

"Xiaoqi, your third cousin's partner is a girl from the Zhou family, the Zhou family whom the family had a blind date two years ago..."

Seeing Yun Chang's eyes rounded, the old man quickly patted her on the head and said, "Don't worry, it's not the girl from the Zhou family who had a blind date with your hall brother last time. That girl got married last year. The one who married our family is The third room of the Zhou family. Your third cousin's sister-in-law is called Zhou Yuerong, she works in the planning committee, she is good-looking and good at work, she is good enough for your third cousin and that dog...well, it is more than enough for your third cousin!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Lord, that's your grandson! Pro grandson! How much do you want to see your grandson?

The corners of Yunshang's mouth twitched a few times, and he said dryly to Bai Qingjie, "Master, my third cousin is pretty good, and he's a pompous young man when he goes out, he's very popular."

This is really not Yun Shang's nonsense. Let's not talk about Bai Qingjie's family background, just his height and appearance, and his military status, how many big girls out there want to marry. How did it get into the mouth of the old man, and why did it become a dog who couldn't find a partner?

Probably because today is a good day for Bai Qingjie to get married. Although the old man didn't agree with Yun Shang's praise of Bai Qingjie, he was tactful and didn't continue to belittle him. Instead, he waved his hand and sent Yun Shang to go upstairs to wash up. Hotel for weddings.

Bai Qingjie's wedding was considered to be one of the largest weddings in the capital in recent years. It didn't mean how big the wedding was or how good the banquet was, but that the guests who came to the wedding were all important.

Not to mention the identity of old man Bai as the founding general, just the status of the two brothers Bai Yanming and Bai Yancheng in the army,

No one who can be invited to the wedding is a simple person.

Not to mention there are in-laws of the Bai family, and guests of the Zhou family whose status is no worse than that of the Bai family... Looking around, the hall is full of leaders from both the military and political circles of the capital. like existence.

Fortunately, the wedding was supervised by Mr. Bai. Although the guests were not young, the Bai family knew the truth of being a big tree. Although the wedding was held grandly, it was not ostentatious at all. It was strictly controlled within the simple and simple scope of a revolutionary wedding. It fits the identities of the Bai family and the Zhou family very well.

Yun Chang has already greeted several cousins of her aunt's house at this moment, and she is clinging to Lin Wenlan's side like a little tail, even Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming can't call her away.

After Gu Shinian confirmed that Yunshang was staying safely by Lin Wenlan's side, he didn't even bother to take a break. He carried Bai Qingming and followed Bai Yanming and Bai Qingze to help guide the guests to sit down, and then passed a cigarette or poured some tea or something, hands and feet are very diligent.

Officialdom is the place where seniority is the most important, and even the small seating order includes university knowledge. After fighting behind Bai Yanming and his son, Gu Shinian also recognized all the people in the hall, and he had a rough idea of the Bai family's network.

Taking note of these connections is not because Gu Shinian wants to make money for himself, but because he thinks that the Bai family will be his Yue family sooner or later. He has to identify the relatives and friends of the Bai family first, so as not to be confused when he returns to work in the future. Collided with his own family.

Yun Chang didn't know that Gu Shinian was wandering around the venue to 'admit relatives', and now she was hugging Lin Wenlan's arm, with her mouth open, eating the food that Lin Wenlan fed her one bite at a time.

Obviously it was food from the same plate, but what Lin Wenlan fed was more delicious than what she picked up by herself.

Bai Qingyue rolled her eyes to the sky at the side, but seeing Yun Shang's thin face, she still disliked it, and at the same time, like Lin Wenlan, the table was full of delicious food for Yun Shang.

My sister has lost so much weight this time, it can be seen that she has suffered outside, and she has to make up for her.

Fortunately, Yunshang's family sat at the same table with two or two aunts. They haven't seen Yunshang every year when they come back for the past two years. The two aunts can also guess in private that Yunshang is out to do a task. Seeing Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue's precious Yunshang now, they didn't laugh at her. Instead, they pushed the table full of meat dishes towards Yunshang, and kept persuading Yunshang to eat more.
