Chapter 58 Field Questions

The old village head also went to Lao Yun's house to deliver the letter of introduction, drank a bowl of boiling water, told the two of them to go to bed at night, lock the door and leave in a hurry.

Gu Shinian sent the village chief out of the house, stood at the gate and looked up at the sky. There was no moon in the sky, and there was no wind at night. The whole village was plunged into darkness.

After returning from the door, there was no sign of Widow Wang on the window sill. Yun Chang sat up from the head of the kang, lowered her voice and asked, "Second brother Gu, when are we going out?"

"Wait, it's still early."

After Gu Shinian finished speaking, he asked Yunshang to find a piece of ginger-colored cloth in the space, and then asked her to take out the flashlight, fold the cloth in half, wrap it around the top of the flashlight, and secure it with a rubber band. When the flashlight was turned on, the light became dim. of yellow.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and following Gu Shinian's practice, he also packed a flashlight.

"Second brother Gu, why do you have to take Sun Datou to the field for questioning? Like last time, can't we ask questions at home?"

"Not this time." Gu Shinian said, "Last time, Widow Wang didn't have the strength to call for help, but Sun Datou was different. He didn't suffer much. He was more spiritual than Widow Wang. already."

What Gu Shinian didn't say was that he took Sun Datou out for questioning was just an excuse, and the real purpose was to abolish Sun Datou.

It's just that these things are too bloody and violent. He doesn't want to do it in front of Yunshang in the place where she eats and sleeps, and he will not kill Sun Datou in the space that belongs to Yunshang alone.

Yun Chang didn't know Gu Shinian's plan, so he accompanied him to the firewood room, hugged the firewood and burned the kang, and then lay lazily on the head of the kang, consciousness entered the space, and turned the last bit of the ground with mental power.

Looking at the dark and fertile land in the space, Yunshang used his mental power again to water the entire space with spring water.

It's a pity that now is winter, not the season for sowing. The two of them couldn't find any grain seeds that could be sown, so they could only plant the two corn cobs that the original owner had brought in, and planted another piece of potatoes, still in the corner. I tried to grow some soybeans, mung beans, peanuts and other crops sold in the supermarket.

It wasn't until her head was swollen that Yun Chang turned over and fell asleep leaning on Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian saw that it was almost time, woke up Yun Chang, who was drowsy, put on a long down jacket that could cover her from head to toe, and helped her put on a hat, scarf, and mask until her whole body was covered. The package was tightly packed before pulling her out the door.

It was dark in the village, and the two of them flashed their flashlights, but no one was alerted to leave the village.

After walking for about ten minutes, Gu Shinian asked Yunshang to take out a child-like bicycle from the space, and then took out a flashlight without cloth, tied it in front of the car, and drove Yunshang forward quickly.

It was not until they left the range of Xinglin Village that the two stopped the car and entered a flat wheat field.

The snow has almost melted a few days ago, and with a flashlight, you can clearly see the sparse and thin wheat seedlings in the ground.

The two found a ditch for watering, Yun Chang threw Sun Datou into the ditch, took out a chair, sat on it, and flashed a flashlight on Sun Datou's face, as if ready to help Gu Shinian to deter Sun Datou. , and the look of the audition.

"Ah Chang, find me a few packs of desiccant and a bottle of water."

Yunshang quickly put down the flashlight, found the desiccant and mineral water and handed them over to Gu Shinian.

"A-shang, take another knife,

And baseball bats, and... axes. "

Sun Datou's mouth was gagged, his eyes were blindfolded, and he was bound to death. He could only perceive the icy and biting ground beneath him, but he didn't know where he was taken and what would happen to him.

Hearing now that Gu Shinian wanted a knife and an axe again, he was so frightened that he trembled, and he trembled on the ground.

"Sun Datou, let me ask, and you answer. If the answer makes me dissatisfied, I will remove an arm, and if I am not satisfied again, I will remove my limbs, cut my tongue, and gouge out my eyes..."

Before he finished speaking, there was a smell of urine in the air.

Gu Shinian paused, then walked back to Yun Chang's side, lifted her up with the chair, and placed her fifty meters away.

"A-shang, stay in the space, don't come out if I don't tell you to come out, understand?"

Yun Chang's little head drooped down, "Why? Why can't I listen in?"

"The scene of the questioning is not good. Dear, you go to the mall to choose fabrics, and I will make you a new smock when you go back in the evening. You can wear new clothes tomorrow."

Gu Shinian coaxed Yun Chang into the space, and left the chair in place to mark it before turning around and walking towards Sun Datou.

"Sun Datou, how much do you know about the widow Wang?"

Gu Shinian picked out the towel from Sun Datou's mouth and heard the sound of his teeth rattling.

The next moment, a sharp and miserable cry for help cut through the night sky.

"Help! Someone! Come on! Help..."

Gu Shinian immediately took out one of Sun Datou's arms, stepped on his wrist with his foot, raised the stick, and knocked it down without mercy.

"Sun Datou, I dare to take you out for questioning. Naturally, I am not afraid of you calling for help. If you are not afraid of suffering, just continue to shout!"

Sun Da's head was about to cry in pain. He felt that the arm that was hit by the stick was not his, it was wooden, and he was completely unconscious.

At this point, Sun Datou also realized that Gu Shinian wasn't trying to scare him, and if he didn't answer the question properly, his limbs would really be lost.

"Does Widow Wang have any other concubines besides Li Ermazi and Li Xiangqian?"

"...No, I don't know." Sun Datou said shiveringly, "I don't know much about Wang's Widow."

Gu Shinian had no expectations for this question, and he continued to ask:

"When you were beaten last night, who was Feng'er you said? Did this Feng'er know that you went to Widow Wang?"

"...It's my daughter-in-law, she, me, she suspects that I have a relationship outside. I didn't dare to admit it. I thought you were my daughter-in-law who came to arrest me."

"So, no one knew that you came to Widow Wang's house last night?"

"Well, no, no one knows."

Sun Datou was already afraid of being beaten at this moment, and he answered questions very honestly, and even explained the things he had blasphemed against 'Yunshang' in the past year.

Gu Shinian's face was ashen, his fingers holding the flashlight were almost deformed, and his eyes were fixed on Sun Datou's open and closed mouth, as if he was looking at a dead person.
