Chapter 591 Roommate origin

Gu Shinian only took half a day off, and hurried back to the team after having dinner with Yunshang.

Of course, before leaving, he also brought a large jar of meat sauce and pickles that Yunshang had prepared early in the morning.

When they returned to the dormitory, the other three had already returned from dinner and were chatting lively.

Seeing Yunshang coming in, the three of them immediately fell silent. You looked at me and I looked at you, but no one greeted Yunshang.

Yao Ke has been paying attention to Yunshang's movements. Seeing her entering the dormitory, she hurried over from the next dormitory and called a few people together:

"Liu Chunmei, Ye Li, Wu Xiang, this is Comrade Bai Yunshang, who has just been transferred from the Linyang Military Region. You will be comrades in the same dormitory from now on. Everyone should get along well, help each other, and make progress together."

After speaking, he introduced the three girls in the same dormitory to Yunshang, "Yunshang, these three comrades are all new recruits recruited by the regiment this year, and they were assigned after the training camp last week. You will be roommates from now on, come on, Let's get to know everyone."

Hearing Yao Ke's words, Yun Chang immediately understood the reason why these three people didn't speak when they saw her, and they didn't take the initiative to say hello.

We are all new recruits, and it has been less than a week since we participated in the recruit training camp, and we have not yet adapted to the new environment. Seeing her, the legendary airborne veteran, all of a sudden, I feel a little bit shaken. It is normal not to dare to say hello.

Thinking of this, Yunshang immediately relaxed, smiled at several people, took out toffee and shared two pieces for each person, and opened the chatter box, "My name is Bai Yunshang, from Linyang Military Region, how about you? "

Holding the toffee in her hand, Yao Ke looked at Yun Shang's well-adapted appearance, smiled, turned around and backed out.

After spending several hours together during the day, no matter how blind she is, she can still see that this newcomer Bai Yunshang has a lot of background.

Not to mention the extravagant big suitcase she carried when she came here, when Company Commander Gu helped her put away her things, the suitcase was full of daily necessities and clothes that could only be bought at Shenshi Friendship Store high-end goods.

You can't buy these things in Yicheng Department Store.

And the violin she brought over, just the intricate and exquisite patterns carved on the violin case, all reveal a high-level atmosphere.

Yao Ke can guarantee that the violin in Bai Yunshang's hand must be of the highest quality.

Dare to show off so many eye-catching foreign things in an open and honest manner, and the company commander Gu who came over by air is waiting on her. How can such a character have a simple origin.

Yao Ke has made up his mind that even if he can't make friends with Yunshang, he must not provoke her.

At any time, food is the only magic weapon to draw in the relationship between people. Yun Shang took six toffees tightly, and narrowed the distance between her and her roommate.

The first person to respond to Yunshang was Ye Li who was sleeping on the bunk by the window, she peeled off the candy wrapper, stuffed a toffee into her mouth, and said with a smile, "My name is Ye Li, I am from Shen City, and I come from a cadre family. "

Ye Li raised his voice when he mentioned the words 'worker's family', and the smile on his face showed a hint of pride. However, she speaks Mandarin with a strong Shenshi taste, and her voice is very strong. After amplifying her voice, it sounds more or less weird.

The arc of Yun Shang's mouth did not even change, she nodded slightly, and turned her gaze to Wu Xiang who was on the bed opposite Ye Li, "Wu Xiang, what about you? Where are you from?"

"I'm from Yicheng." Wu Xiang raised his head and smiled at Yunshang, paused, and added following Ye Li's self-introduction template, "My family...is also a worker's family. I'm a dancer."

Yun Shang heard the hesitation in Wu Xiang's words, glanced at Wu Xiang's snow-white slender fingers on the table, raised his eyebrows slightly, but looked at the unusually simple Liu Chunmei with the same smile on his face.

"I, I, I'm from Anxi Province." Liu Chunmei wrung her fingers and said with a slightly flushed cheek, "My family is made up of poor peasants, and I, I am a singer."

Yun Chang was slightly surprised.

In the past two years, the personnel of the art troupes in each military region have been reduced a lot. The conditions for recruiting literary and art soldiers in the army are more stringent than before, and it is not an exaggeration to describe it as one in a million.

To be selected by the army to join the art troupe, the appearance and talent are both excellent, and if there are any shortcomings, they may be dismissed.

Like Ye Li and Wu Xiang, at least they are from the city. Even if the situation has not been good in the past few years, they still have the conditions to learn talents. It is not surprising that they can be selected into the art troupe.

Liu Chunmei is different.

From rural Anxi, or poor peasants.

The environment in which she lived since she was a child doomed her not to receive systematic training. Even if she was talented, how could she defeat countless girls in the city and become a literary soldier?

This is so strange.

Yun Chang showed a look of surprise on purpose, and asked curiously, "Are you a soloist? Then you must be very good at singing! How many years have you studied?"

Liu Chunmei blushed even more, "I didn't learn much. When I was young, I followed my father to herd sheep in the team, and I liked to sit on the ravine with my father and sing. Later, a few people came to our village... Uh, the town recommended me to go. I just learned a little from the county propaganda team."

Yun Chang smiled clearly.

If she guessed right, what Liu Chunmei didn't say just now should be: Later, some bad elements came to our village!

Although Liu Chunmei quickly changed her mind, Yun Shang also roughly knew where she learned this skill.

Satisfying her own curiosity, Yun Chang stretched her waist, went out to wash up with the washbasin, and quickly took off her clothes and went to bed.

Before it was time to turn off the lights, Ye Lizheng changed into a regular uniform brought from home, and showed Liu Chunmei on it.

"...Let me tell you, my clothes are so expensive. My mother bought them at the Friendship Store. Department stores don't even sell them."

Liu Chunmei went over to look carefully for a long time, praised Ye Li with sparkling eyes, and then sighed and talked about her life in the small village: Why is the city different from the village? To eat a big pot of rice, she can only do what the village does, and she can follow what she eats, and she can't cook small stoves for special things.

Why do people in the village have no industrial tickets? She grew up so much, and it was only after she joined the army that she realized that there is a better facial oil in this world than clam oil.

There are also many children in their family, and the whole family can only make one new dress all year round. In Beijing, the older sister wears it after she finishes wearing it, and then passes it on to the third and fourth younger sisters. Keep the soles of the shoes and so on.

After Li Cuiqin praised Ye Li, she belittled herself in front of everyone, comparing herself to a pitiful one.

Chapter 592 Rumor

The more Ye Li heard it, the more he felt that the new clothes on his body were hot, and finally he couldn't bear it anymore, his face darkened, and he took a small box of facial oil and stuffed it into Liu Chunmei's hand, which could be regarded as gagging her mouth.

Liu Chunmei took the facial oil, thanked Ye Li, and got into bed happily.

Yun Shang almost laughed out loud when she heard Ye Li's long hiss.

This Ye Li wanted to show off to Liu Chunmei, but Liu Chunmei didn't follow the routine and just took a box of facial oil from her hand.

These two roommates are gods.

Yunshang turned over, closed her eyes and was about to go to sleep, when Ye Li said again, "Yunshang, I saw you today! Is Company Commander Gu the one who brought you here? You two knew each other before? "

"Yeah." Yun Chang lazily replied, and said in a drawn-out voice, "We grew up together when we were young."

So, remember to help me promote it when I go out tomorrow, so that the little girls in the regiment are not allowed to think about Second Brother Gu.

Ye Li regained his energy, turned over from the bed and sat up, staring at Yunshang with sparkling eyes, "Hey~, those veterans in the regiment say that Company Commander Gu has a very mysterious background, is it true? "

"Fake." Yun Shang half-raised her body, looked at Ye Li, and was very serious in dispelling the rumors for Gu Shinian, "My second brother Gu came from an ordinary worker's family, and if he has a strong background, it is all rumors."

She wasn't lying.

Aunt Zhang Chunni is an ordinary worker, and Gu Pangui is also an ordinary worker. The only two relatives in Gu Shinian's household registration book are both workers. What is it not to be born in an ordinary worker's family?

As for Gu Huaiqing and Gu Guangzong, they had already separated from Gu Shinian, and they were not considered family members.

Ye Li let out an "ah" in disappointment, and even looked at Yun Shang with less eagerness than before.

According to Bai Yunshang's statement, Company Commander Gu came from an ordinary worker's family, and Bai Yunshang and Company Commander Gu grew up together. In this way, Bai Yunshang was also from a worker's family at best.

cut! Dressed like a capitalist lady, I thought she had some background, after a long time, isn't she also a child of an ordinary worker's family? What are you wearing!

Ye Li lay down disappointed, and muttered in his mouth, "They all said that Company Commander Gu's family has a big background, so they parachuted here and picked Deputy Company Commander Kong's peaches. So they are all fake."

"Of course it's fake!" Yun Shang simply sat up, with a very serious expression to refute Gu Shinian's rumors, "My second brother Gu is a graduate of a military school, and he started to perform missions when he was a sophomore. He has made great achievements several times. With his academic qualifications and qualifications, he would have been able to serve as the company commander long ago. My second brother Gu became the company commander based on his ability, so he didn't pick other people's peaches!"

Not waiting for a few people to speak, Yunshang asked the origin of "Deputy Company Commander Kong" again, "Ye Li, who is the Deputy Company Commander Kong you mentioned just now?"

Speaking of the rumored 'victim', Ye Li regained his energy, lying on the pillow, and whispered to Yunshang, "Actually, I have never met Deputy Company Commander Kong. But I heard from the people in the regiment that Deputy Kong The company commander is the nephew of Commander Kong in the military area. Commander Kong and his wife have only one daughter, and they have been married for several years.

I heard from them that Mr. Kong and his wife were particularly fond of Deputy Company Commander Kong, calling him home for dinner every week, treating him like their own son. "

"Alas..." Ye Li looked at Yun Shang sympathetically, with a hint of schadenfreude in his tone, "This is Master Kong's territory, if Company Commander Gu has a background, he can secure the position of company commander , now... I don't see it."

After finishing speaking, he said "tsk tut" twice, turned over and lay back.

Chapter 593 Assessment

Just as Yunshang was about to lie down, Wu Xiang, who had been silent all this time, also spoke, "Yunshang, don't worry, the army is a place to speak on its own merits, as long as Company Commander Gu is capable, he will naturally be able to secure the position of company commander. Besides, Mr. Kong is an old revolutionary, so he should not do anything that violates discipline."

"Thank you Wu Xiang." Yun Shang smiled at Wu Xiang, turned over and closed her eyes.

She wasn't worried about Gu Shinian's position as company commander.

Gu Shinian needs education, qualifications, and background. If he can't secure the position of company commander, then he doesn't deserve the strength and determination of the Gu family in the capital to support him. Maybe he was played to death as early as when he crossed over to fight Gu Guangzong.

The only thing Yunshang was worried about was that Deputy Company Commander Kong couldn't compete with Gu Shinian on the surface, so he used Mr. Kong's name to play tricks behind his back.

It's easy to hide with a sharp spear, but it's hard to defend against a hidden arrow. No matter how powerful Gu Shinian is, he can't resist someone who has been secretly prodding and framing him for years.

Yun Chang sighed secretly, and secretly decided in her heart that she must go to the mountains a few more times in the future to help Gu Shinian keep an eye on Deputy Company Commander Kong.

Early the next morning, Yunshang was awakened by Wu Xianghuang in a daze. Hearing the sound of gathering outside, Yunshang turned over and sat up, dressed as quickly as possible, folded the quilt into tofu cubes, and followed everyone ran out.

Before Yunshang came over, Bai Yancheng trained Yunshang at home for several days, and she practiced countless times in private, and she was still able to keep up with everyone's speed in sorting out military affairs.

After finishing the morning exercises, Yunshang, under the direction of Head Yang, gave everyone a standard military salute, introduced herself, and officially joined the Yicheng Art Troupe.

Next is the time to practice morning skills. Head Yang asked the dance teacher to assess Yunshang's basic skills. Seeing that she has a good foundation in dancing, but not too good, he was slightly disappointed.

Yun Shang didn't justify herself. After practicing the blanket kung fu, she picked up the towel on the pole and wiped the sweat off her head. After taking a sip to recover, she took out her violin and walked towards Captain Yang.

"You brought the piano yourself?" Head Yang is a smart person, his eyes lit up when he saw Yunshang's piano case.

"Well," Yun Shang looked at her violin with a smile on her lips, "I've been using this violin for several years."

"Let's go to the practice room next door. I'll call Deputy Head Guan to come and listen."

Guan Min is the deputy head of the art troupe and the violin teacher in the troupe. Guan Min has the most say in how well Yunshang plays the violin.

When Yunshang walked out, she turned her head slightly to look at the whole rehearsal hall. Yao Ke had been paying attention to Yunshang's movements, and when she saw her looking over, she smiled at her and made a 'come on' mouth.

Of the three people in the same dormitory, only Wu Xiang noticed Yun Shang's movements, and smiled and nodded at Yun Shang as a sign of encouragement.

As for Ye Li and Liu Chunmei, one was gathering around a few veterans to share gossip about Yunshang and Gu Shinian, while the other was practicing basic skills while holding on to the pole.

Yun Chang followed Tuan Zhang Yang into the large practice room next door, and saw a beige piano in front of him at a glance. The shell was very old, and the wood underneath even had a circle of black stains.

Seeing that Yunshang's eyes fell on the piano, Head Yang smiled wryly, "Yicheng Military Region can't compare with Linyang Military Region. Over there is a large military region with strong strength. There are sixty or seventy musicians in the band alone." , The total number of our propaganda team here is only more than 50 people...the band has not enough musicians, and there are not enough instruments, only this old piano..."

Head Yang didn't say anything more.

Yun Chang knew in her heart that Captain Yang was telling her that even if she knew how to play the piano, if she didn't have real skills in the Yicheng Military Region, she might not be able to practice on this old piano.

Guan Min came over soon, seeing the violin in Yunshang's hand, his eyes were glued to it and he couldn't pull it out.

"This piano is not bad! Come on! Play a section and listen to it!"

Under Guan Min's urging voice, Yunshang touched the violin lightly with her chin, and after trying a few notes, a cheerful, bright and passionate piece of music resounded throughout the practice room.

Yunshang has learned the violin for fifteen years in total in her two lifetimes.

With skilled skills as the background, and then playing this emotional and cheerful song, it is like a huge wave hitting a rock, simple and rough, but firmly grasping people's ears.

Although Yang Hongying doesn't know much about the violin, she still has the basic appreciation ability.

Yunshang's piano sound is high-pitched and passionate without losing its mellowness, and its low and tactful without being dull. The tune is cheerful, and the sound of the piano is like a butterfly flying among the flowers, light and quick. The melody is melodious, and it is like a gurgling brook, which can slowly flow into people's hearts.

Although the sound of the violin is related to the quality of the violin, Yun Shang's skillful skills still add a lot to this violin.

Guan Min on the side was even more excited. When the sound of the piano stopped, he grabbed Yang Hongying's hand and said, "Old Yang! This level can completely perform solo on stage! It's a good material!"

This kind of good seedling must be cultivated emphatically! Talented, solid basic skills, and motivated, as long as you give the opportunity, you can win glory for the art troupe!

At this moment, Yang Hongying didn't feel disappointed when she watched Yunshang practice blanket skills. She suppressed her inner joy and asked Yunshang to play the piano again.

Yunshang has also been learning the piano for several years. When she came back from Hong Kong City, she bought two pianos and put them in the space, and practiced them on weekdays. As soon as they got started, Yang Hongying and Guan Min immediately realized that Yunshang's piano playing was no worse than her violin.

This is really a baby that fell from the sky!

Originally, the relationship household who was supposed to be transferred was a bronze, but who knew it turned out to be a hidden king.

Great!

In the future, their Yicheng military region will also have musicians who can perform solo on stage!

After Yunshang finished the assessment and left, Yang Hongying laughed so hard that she couldn't close her mouth from ear to ear, "Old Guan! I'll go find the political commissar right away! Such a good seedling, the regiment will have to pay more attention to her in the future. Military Propaganda Team Art Performance, this Bai Yunshang may bring glory to our Yicheng Military Region!"

Guan Min nodded, "Okay, I'll follow your arrangement." This business elite like Bai Yunshang has to put more burden on her! There is pressure to be motivated.

The two left the practice room, Guan Min watched Yang Hongying hurried upstairs, Guan Min was moved, and stopped Yang Hongying again.

"What's the matter?" Yang Hongying hurried upstairs, turned her head and asked hastily.

"I just thought of something!" Guan Min walked over a few steps and whispered, "Old Yang, I remember the surname of the commander of the Linyang Military Region is Bai, right? The information on Bai Yunshang given by the organization is also registered by a military family Origin, tell me...does this Bai Yunshang have anything to do with Commander Bai?"

Chapter 594 Can't Say

Yang Hongying frowned, "You mean, Bai Yunshang is probably Lin Wenlan's daughter?"

Guan Min didn't reply, but the expression on his face became more and more hesitant.

Yang Hongying thought about it for a long time, and thought of Gu Shinian who accompanied Yunshang to report, and said, "...you don't know about this matter. No matter what relationship Bai Yunshang has with Lin Tuan, she is a good material worth cultivating Commander Lin's willingness to let people go naturally has her reasons, so it's just us picking up the loopholes. The army is a place to cultivate talents, as long as they are good seedlings, they can't be wasted."

Guan Min nodded, and replied, "You're right. We cultivate talents based on ability and opportunities, not on family background. There is really no need to delve into Bai Yunshang's background."

After Yang Hongying went upstairs, Guan Min smiled, turned around and left in a hurry.

Yun Chang drank a small bowl of multigrain porridge for breakfast, danced with the dance team for two hours, and then went to a separate assessment. The little thing in her stomach had already been digested.

Coming out of the practice room, he was about to find a corner outside to eat some snacks to fill his stomach, but the sharp-eyed Ye Li stopped him, "Yunshang! Come here."

Yun Shang turned her head and saw Ye Li standing next to the girls of dance team A and waving at her.

"What's the matter?" Yun Shang rubbed her flat stomach regretfully, stuffed the chocolate she just took out into her pocket, and walked over.

Before Ye Li could speak, the tallest girl in the crowd smiled and said, "It's nothing serious. We will be comrades in arms from now on. You will officially return to the team in the morning. Let's get to know each other."

After finishing speaking, he pulled the girls around him and introduced Yun Shang one by one.

Reach out and don't hit the smiling face. When the other party released goodwill, Yun Shang would naturally not be ignorant of good and bad to destroy the atmosphere, especially if the other party was a group of beautiful and outrageous young ladies.

Yun Chang turned around, smiled at the other party very politely, her eyes were shining, and she greeted her comrades one by one very well-behaved.

It has to be said that the recruiting standards of the Art Troupe are really high. At the very least, the girls standing here are all in good order, and they are taken out alone, not to mention one in a thousand, at least they can be called one in a thousand.

Yun Shang has a big heart, and she likes to look at beautiful people. Standing among the beauties at this moment, he pretended to be very calm on the surface, secretly commenting on each girl in his heart.

This girl's eyes are so beautiful, watery, I like to look at them!

Although the girl on the far side is a little shorter, she has a very predictable figure, that chest! that ass! Blessed is her future man!

Well, the lady on the opposite side has such pretty hands! I have a good temperament, and I have a fairy spirit. When I think of such a good-looking young lady eating boiled cabbage in the big cafeteria, she feels very uncomfortable...

Yun Chang was like a pervert, drooling secretly at a group of beauties, and several female soldiers of team A on the opposite side were also secretly looking at Yun Chang.

To be able to enter the art troupe, the appearance is naturally the best. This Bai Yunshang was not the best in the group, but her arms and legs were long, and her figure was terribly good, which made her tall and slender.

The facial features are just right and delicate, the snow-white skin on the face can be broken by blows, smooth and without a trace of blemish, the eyes are black and bright, like washed obsidian, bright like stars.

Especially the small cinnabar moles at the corners of her eyes, dotted around the ends of her eyes, giving her delicate and pure temperament a touch of special style, making people reluctant to look away.

Probably because of her young age, she still has baby fat on her face, she is chubby, her movements are slightly bigger, and the soft flesh on her face can tremble a few times, she is so cute.

Everyone knew that she was good-looking before, but now that they got closer, they could see clearly the small mole in the corner of her eye, and her skin that was so fair and almost transparent under the sun, that they stopped talking all of a sudden.

Her current facial features haven't fully grown yet. In two years, when the baby fat on her face fades,

The facial features are opened, and then, how beautiful her appearance will be! ?

What a flower in the regiment, what the No. 1 pearl of the Yicheng District Party Committee, they were all compared!

After a long time, the tall girl who introduced Yunshang coughed dryly, squeezed out a dry smile, and said, "Yunshang, what did Captain Yang say? Are you going to join the dance team or the band?"

Yun Shang thought for a while, then said in an uncertain tone, "It should be the band."

My family knows my own affairs. She dances just to put on a show, and it's okay to fool outsiders. In the eyes of insiders, she is completely a show, and she is not useful.

Besides, she didn't like to join the dance team. Not to mention bouncing around all day long, and she has to practice blankets for two hours every morning. She is too tired, so she doesn't want to suffer.

Quietly playing the violin and playing the piano, this is the most suitable job for her.

"That's it, then we can't practice morning exercises together in the future."

The girl sighed regretfully, and then looked at Yunshang with burning eyes, "I heard that you and Company Commander Gu of the Tiger Company grew up together? Then you must know a lot about Company Commander Gu, hurry up Tell us, does Company Commander Gu have a date?"

I'm coming! Finally a bright spot!

Yun Chang muttered excitedly in her heart, but she pretended to be embarrassed, and said reluctantly, "No, Second Brother Gu won't let me talk nonsense."

After finishing speaking, she glanced out of the window with a guilty conscience, as if worried that Gu Shinian would suddenly appear to supervise her speech.

The tall girl choked and didn't know what to say for a while.

Isn't this Bai Yunshang stupid?

What is the difference between her saying that and the three hundred taels of silver here?

Now even a fool would know that Company Commander Gu, who came over by air, already has a date.

However, who is Company Commander Gu's target? When did the two fall in love with each other, and what did they look like?

Everyone just met Yun Shang, so it's not good to continue to ask, the tall girl had no choice but to wink at Ye Li who was at the side.

Ye Li pursed his lips unhappily, feeling very puzzled in his heart.

What is going on with this group of people, she obviously said it all, that company commander Gu came from a worker's family, and his family background is very ordinary. Why do these people want to inquire about Company Commander Gu? Could it be that they are all fools?

It's just that Ye Li complained, she still had to do what the veterans told her.

Stretching out his hand to grab Yunshang's arm, with a smile on his face, he pretended to be surprised and asked, "Yunshang, so Company Commander Gu has a date, do you know him too?"

Yun Chang's eyes swept over everyone's faces, the corners of her mouth curled up a little, and she shook her head firmly, "You will find out next year. I can't say it now, Second Brother Gu will be angry!"

Chapter 595 Who is bullying whom?

Of course not!

She is only sixteen years old, if Gu Shinian sends a love report now, what will the leader think of him?

A pervert who abducts an underage girl?

Pedophile?

At that time, not to mention that the organization agrees to their dating, the higher-ups might give Gu Shinian a big punishment first.

She will be seventeen next year, barely considered a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl. When Gu Shinian sends a love report, no one will think that he is too beastly.

In addition, the family also recognized their relationship, and after the approval of the organization, even if she and Gu Shinian had passed the Ming Road, no one could compete with her for Second Brother Gu.

However, before that, she had to let out a little word and vaccinate the little girls in the regiment, so as not to have any short-sighted ones appearing to violate her taboo.

Yun Shang is very cautious when it comes to matters related to Gu Shinian. It seems that he completely regards Gu Shinian as his own property, wishing to mark his face as belonging to her, so that everyone can know that Gu Shinian belongs to her alone.

The girls in the dance team don't know Yunshang's little thoughts. Hearing what she said, they all think too much.

Wait until next year to know?

Does this mean that Company Commander Gu's target will also be transferred to the Yicheng Military Region next year? Or, next year, Company Commander Gu will make an application report to the organization and disclose his object? Or, Lianchang Gu is going to marry his partner next year...

Anyway, no matter what the situation is, it has been confirmed that Company Commander Gu has a partner.

Seeing that it was almost lunch time, Yun Shang told a few people, and left with a violin in a good mood.

The sky and the earth are big, and the food is the biggest.

No one can delay her going to dinner!

Through brief contact, Yunshang also roughly understood the temperament of several people in the dormitory. Ye Li's IQ is not enough, but he has a lot of careful thoughts. He always pretends to casually mention his identity as a member of Shenshi. While he is proud, he also faintly reveals his disdain for Liu Chunmei, who was born in the countryside.

Liu Chunmei's mind is deeper than Ye Li's, she is soft and honest on the surface, but she is not at a disadvantage in her heart. This point can be seen from the fact that she cheated Ye Li of a box of facial oil yesterday with a few words, which made Ye Li suffer.

The remaining Wu Xiang is the one with the highest dual quotient among the three, and the one who is the most low-key and considerate in his actions.

Her family conditions should be good and well-educated. When dealing with people, her sense of proportion will be just right, neither far nor near, and she will be very comfortable to get along with.

Yun Shang likes to deal with smart people like Wu Xiang, and knows what to say and what not to say.

When getting along with her, you don't have to deal with all kinds of gossip all day long like dealing with others.

Back in the dormitory, Wu Xiang and Liu Chunmei had already returned.

Seeing Yun Shang enter the door, Wu Xiang smiled and said, "You are back! Yao Ke just came here and called you to eat in the cafeteria."

Yun Shang put the violin into the cabinet and said with a smile, "It's just right, I'm hungry too, I'll call Yao Ke, let's go to the cafeteria together."

"Okay." Wu Xiang responded, took out the lunch box, and called Liu Chunmei, and they went to the next door to call Yao Ke, and walked to the cafeteria together.

No one in the group mentioned Ye Li, and everyone silently ignored her.

"Yunshang, didn't those members of team A make things difficult for you in the morning?" Yao Ke walked a few steps behind the narrow concrete road and asked Yunshang in a low voice.

Probably because she was worried about her overthinking, Yao Ke continued, "Don't worry, you were transferred from the Great Military Region, and everyone is just curious about the reason why you were transferred. After all, the conditions in Yicheng are not as good as those in Linyang."

"It's okay, everyone is very enthusiastic, and no one is embarrassing me." After Yunshang finished speaking, she lowered her voice and said, "They mainly want to inquire about Company Commander Gu through me."

Yao Ke smiled knowingly.

Yicheng is located in the south of the central part, and the staple food is mostly rice, supplemented by pasta. Yun Shang first went to make a piece of yellowed rice, and then looked at the piles of boiled vegetables and black pickle lumps on the ocean porcelain basin in the window,

Intuitively, my mouth is panting acid.

She wanted to taste the army's pickled vegetables yesterday, but she choked on the sour and bitter taste as soon as she got close to it.

Not to mention eating this thing, just smelling it makes me want to vomit. But this thing is a side dish that is not served in the cafeteria all the year round. How will I live in the future?

Seeing that Liu Chunmei was already holding a big steamed bun, gnawing on a mouthful of steamed buns and pickles, Yun Shang hesitated for a while, took half a portion of green vegetables, and stowed a boiled egg and some portions of beef jerky from the space into his pocket. Put it on the table brightly and eat it.

She just reported for duty yesterday, and it's normal for her to have snacks on her body, no one would doubt it.

With companions around, Yun Shang certainly wouldn't eat alone. There is only one egg that is difficult to divide, but each person has several pieces of beef jerky.

Wu Xiang almost gobbled down the beef jerky, and let out a long and comfortable sigh, "Oh, I've come back to life! Yunshang, listen to me, save some of these snacks, or you will regret it in the future."

Thinking of the large bag of snacks she brought from home, she finished eating it in only half a month. Wu Xiang, as someone who came here, sent a warning from the soul to Yun Shang.

Yao Ke also nodded repeatedly, "I've been living on the occasional snacks sent by my family these past few years, Wu Xiang is right."

"It's okay." Yun Shang smiled and winked at Wu Xiang, "I'll ask Second Brother Gu to find a way for me after the snacks are finished."

The art troupe has been busy with New Year's Day performances and performances during the Chinese New Year. Immediately after the work is over, it has to prepare for the military art performance in March. It is estimated that there will be no holidays for several months in a row. She can't go out, so I have to trouble Gu Shinian to come over look at her.

With so many materials in the space, she can use Gu Shinian's hands to take them out, so naturally she won't lose her belly.

Hearing what Yun Shang said, Yao Ke and Wu Xiang looked at each other, and Qi Qi was so jealous that he didn't want to talk anymore.

On the other hand, Liu Chunmei raised her head while biting the jerky, and asked in surprise, "You still can't eat such a good meal, so what do you want to eat? This big steamed bun is fine grain! We can't eat it once a year in our hometown. Now Isn't it enough to eat big steamed buns every day?"

After finishing speaking, she shook her head in disapproval, "We art soldiers are also soldiers, we must be strict with ourselves like real soldiers, and resolutely put an end to coquettishness and arrogance!" I don't even want to buy this pickle lump, and the money I save every month is enough to send my family back for half a year.

Yun Shang looked at the unfinished beef jerky in Liu Chunmei's hand, and the corners of her mouth twitched slightly, not knowing what to say for a while.

How big a face is it to make her act like eating her food while accusing her of eating too well and being coquettish?

Others pick up the bowl to eat, put down their chopsticks and scold their mothers. This Liu Chunmei, with the bowl still in her hand, started pointing and wanting to scold her.

Especially this kind of behavior of deliberately pretending to be stupid and labeling others is really a stupid and bad example.

Yao Ke and Wu Xiang's expressions turned ugly.

Li Chunmei's words blamed both of them. ,

Since everyone joined the army, they all came here with a bright future. If they were accused of being arrogant and arrogant, how would they join the party in the future, and how would they be promoted?

Although everyone has some background in their families, but joining the party with their own ability is also glorious, isn't it? Not to mention the obvious difference in promotion between party members and non-party members in the army.

On the same starting line, who doesn't want to run at the forefront and let others look up to them?

Yun Shang was immediately annoyed by Liu Chunmei, and did not quarrel with her. With a polite and alienated smile on her face, she took Liu Chunmei's lunch box, and slowly took back the few pieces of beef jerky left in it.

"This big steamed bun is a fine grain. Since you only need to eat big steamed buns, I will leave these beef jerky to comrades in need. In case you eat too well, you will not be tainted with coquettishness."

"Pfft!"

"puff!"

"Ha ha....."

As soon as Yun Chang's coquettish operation came out, not only Wu Xiang and Yao Ke couldn't help laughing, but even the soldiers at the next table were amused.

A gay man with peach blossom eyes simply came over and said with a smile, "Comrade Bai Yunshang, me! I am the comrade who needs beef jerky! If she doesn't eat it, I will eat it!"

These beef jerky passed through Liu Chunmei's lunch box, and Yun Shang naturally refused to eat them. Seeing someone jumping out to set up a ladder for her and helping her slap Liu Chunmei in the face, naturally they wanted to fulfill the other party.

Yun Shang put the beef jerky he had picked up into the gay man's bowl, worried that he wouldn't have enough to eat, and even took some from his own bowl.

"Thank you, Comrade Bai Yunshang!" After getting so much beef jerky at once, the gay man's peach blossom eyes almost cracked into a smile, and he said in a hearty voice, "By the way, my name is Wen Chengjie, and I play the trumpet! I will meet you in the team later." Tell me what's going on, I've got you covered!"

Knowing that the other party is also a member of the art troupe, the smile on Yunshang's face was a little real, and she nodded generously in response.

Well, this is another friend I made.

Liu Chunmei didn't expect that Yun Shang, who seemed soft and easy to talk, acted so resolutely and relentlessly. Hearing the laughter of the crowd, her cheeks that were slightly red in the plateau turned into a big red cloth.

She put down her chopsticks and looked at Yun Shang at a loss, as if she didn't know what she did wrong.

What Yun Shang hated most was that someone put on this hypocritical white lotus pose in front of her, as if she had done something heinous.

Obviously it was Liu Chunmei who was careful and thoughtful. Seeing that she was tender-skinned and young, unlike Ye Li who came from a big city, she pretended to be a heartless and silly elder sister and stepped on her to climb up. After the car overturned, But he pretended to be pitiful with a simple and honest face, and assumed a posture of being bullied.

Who the hell is bullying whom!

Yun Shang deliberately ignored Liu Chunmei, and said to Yao Ke and Wu Xiang, "I've finished eating, you guys eat slowly, I'll go back to the dormitory first."

Chapter 596 Peace

Yun Shang deliberately ignored Liu Chunmei, and said to Yao Ke and Wu Xiang, "I've finished eating, you guys eat slowly, I'll go back to the dormitory first."

"Wait! We're done eating too, let's go back together." Yao Ke said as he poked Wu Xiang, put the last bite of rice into his mouth, picked up the lunch box and followed.

On the way back, Yao Ke patted Yunshang on the shoulder and said with a smile, "Are you okay? You are also a veteran, don't be as knowledgeable as a newcomer who hasn't participated in political studies a few times."

The army conscripts every year, and the recruits have just come out of the house, and they have more or less minor problems. After being smelted in the melting pot of the army, some people can transform into better ones and thrive in the army. Some thoughtful people can't position themselves correctly, and those who lose their direction will be eliminated sooner or later.

Yao Ke has been in the army for six years, and it is not surprising to see a lot of newcomers like Liu Chunmei who are eager to express themselves all day long, not thinking about business, but only thinking about how to step on others to climb up.

After all, people with bad minds like Liu Chunmei often have limited prospects, so there is really no need to waste energy on such people.

Yun Shang is a veteran on resume, but inside he is a complete new recruit.

Strictly speaking, she is not even as good as the other three people in the dormitory. At least the three of them have participated in the recruit training camp for several months. She is just Bai Yancheng's private tricks, and she is just a show to fool people.

However, although Yunshang did not participate in the recruit training camp, she grew up in the military compound anyway. Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue often told her about the behind-the-scenes tricks of the little girls in the art troupe.

As for Liu Chunmei's little trick, Yun Chang really didn't notice it.

Seeing that Wu Xiang followed Yao Ke's words to comfort her nervously, Yun Shang waved her hand indifferently, and said with a smile: "Why should I be angry with her? If we don't get along, just stay away. Save me snacks!"

"It's right to think so. Although we are art soldiers, we still have to run exercises and practice exercises every day. We also often hold class meetings, participate in political studies, and listen to various documents passed down from above. We also participate in Collective rehearsals and performances in the lower company are no more leisurely than other arms. If you have that free time, you should still think about business matters. The leaders usually see how individual performance is."

Yao Ke really likes Yun Shang's open-minded temperament at the moment, and these words can be regarded as heart-to-heart, without the previous politeness to cover up.

Both Yunshang and Wu Xiang are smart people, so they can naturally hear the deep meaning in Yao Ke's words. After thanking each other, the three girls looked at each other and smiled, and tacitly revealed the topic.

When she was about to arrive at the dormitory, Yunshang rubbed her stomach that was only sixty percent full, and sighed, "Sister Yao Ke, does the canteen only have boiled vegetables and pickles every day? I remember that the food in the canteen of Linyang Military Region is pretty good. I can still eat braised pork once a week."

Well, in addition to braised pork, the big canteen will also serve beef, pig's trotters, fried crispy meat and so on in turn, which is no worse than the food in the small canteen.

It is also a large canteen, why is the food in Linyang Military Region so good, while Yicheng Military Region can only eat pickles and boiled vegetables?

Wu Xiang is also a glutton. Hearing what Yun Shang said, he couldn't help swallowing, and then looked at Yao Ke eagerly.

Yes! The food in other military regions is so good, why is the Yicheng Military Region acting like this?

Yao Ke laughed a few times, and said with a smile, "These days are special circumstances, it's called remembering bitterness and thinking about sweet rice, it will be fine after this week.

Although the food in our canteen is not as good as that of the Linyang Military Region, we can still see meat twice a week. At that time, if you don't like to eat in the big cafeteria, you can also order food in the small cafeteria, but the price is a bit expensive, and the allowance for us little soldiers is not enough. No one dares to eat easily. "

Most of those who came out to serve as soldiers have a large family behind them. Meals in the small cafeteria are also cheaper than eating out. When the food in the big cafeteria is decent, how many people are willing to go to the small cafeteria to squander their own wages to support their families?

Moreover,

Those who can occasionally go to the small cafeteria to improve their meals are mostly officers with high enough salaries and allowances. A few ordinary soldiers dare to go over and squeeze in a bunch of officers to eat and drink, leaving the impression of "foodies" on the leaders. ?

As soon as Wu Xiang heard this, he shrunk his neck and gave up the idea of going to the small cafeteria to eat.

Yun Shang is a thick-skinned one. She had robbed the pockets of the founding generals when she was a child, so she would not be afraid of these small officers in the Yicheng Military Division.

In addition, every new year and festival, as a family member of the commander of the military region, she often followed Bai Yancheng to the army for reunion dinners, and she didn't think there was anything wrong with eating among a group of officers.

Hearing Yao Ke's words, his mouth was drooling immediately, and he began to think about the food in the small cafeteria.

As a girl, she still needs some face, and she can't leave the impression that everyone is greedy. Even if you can't go to the small cafeteria seven days a week, you can always eat once every two days, right?

In Yicheng in December, the cold wind is mixed with damp and cold water vapor, hitting people's bodies, and the chill can penetrate the skin and penetrate into the bones of people.

After the class meeting at night, Yun Chang wrapped the big scarf around her neck tightly, only showing two eyes, and dragged Wu Xiang to the dormitory quickly.

Liu Chunmei subconsciously ran a few steps, seeing that neither of them looked back, she clenched her lips in embarrassment, stood where she was, and waited for Ye Li to come out before following Ye Li to the dormitory.

Ye Li still didn't know what happened in the cafeteria during the day. Seeing that Liu Chunmei was not attached to Yunshang and Wu Xiang, but stuck to her, he glanced at Liu Chunmei from the corner of his eyes, curled his lips in disgust, held his head up, and followed the arrogant Like a small peacock, it rattled ahead.

Liu Chunmei followed Ye Li silently all the way, and when she was about to reach the dormitory, Liu Chunmei stretched out her hand to hold Ye Li, and said in a low voice, "Ye Li, can you do me a favor?"

Ye Li has a little vanity in her temper, and she likes to be supported by others. At this moment, Liu Chunmei's posture is extremely low, Ye Li feels much more at ease, and doesn't care about being tricked by her into taking a box of facial oil.

She turned around, raised her chin, and asked emphatically, "What do you want me to do for you? Let me tell you first, I don't do everything!"

"Don't worry, I won't make things difficult for you." Liu Chunmei glanced around, told Ye Li what happened in the cafeteria during the day, and said annoyedly after finishing the matter, "People in our village speak straight, I call I used to talk like this when I was young, say whatever you want, I can't learn to twist around.

Tell Yun Shang for me, I just said that at the time, I didn't mean to target her, you can say something nice for me, so that she won't be angry with me. "

Chapter 597 Drama

Like a fool, Ye Li stared at Liu Chunmei for a long time, and finally couldn't help but burst out laughing.

"People in your village are all idiots, right? Eating beef jerky is coquettish, so the last time you ate my chocolate was bourgeois hedonism? Oh, you really laughed me to death, your brain is not four-four Stupid?"

Ye Li rubbed his chest and laughed, and taunted Liu Chunmei without hesitation, "You're still eating Bai Yunshang's beef jerky, and if you say Bai Yunshang is arrogant, isn't that scolding you too? Oh, how can there be such a funny person!"

The two were standing at the door of the dormitory right now, Ye Li didn't deliberately lower his voice, Yun Shang and Wu Xiang naturally listened to their conversation.

"Yunshang, Liu Chunmei wants to make peace with you." Wu Xiang cherished the apple that Yunshang gave her bit by bit, and whispered.

"I know." Yun Shang asked Wu Xiang with a sarcastic smile on his face, "Don't you think Liu Chunmei did it on purpose?"

Liu Chunmei, Ye Li, and Wu Xiang were recruited from the same group, and the three of them participated in the recruit training together.

Having been together day and night for several months, Liu Chunmei has already figured out Ye Li's temperament. The reason why I chose to talk to Ye Li at the door of the dormitory was because I wanted to use Ye Li's mouth to point out that she didn't intend to target Yun Shang, and then yelled out her attitude of taking the initiative to give in to Yun Shang.

If Yunshang forgives her, this matter will be turned over, and the rest of the art troupe will not be able to talk about this matter again.

After all, Yunshang, who was the party involved, forgave Liu Chunmei for her unintentional mistakes, and if other people persisted in this matter, they might be suspected of instigating and bullying the newcomers.

If Yunshang refuses to reconcile with Liu Chunmei, it will appear that Yunshang is not generous enough and too aggressive in the eyes of other members of the art troupe.

After all, Liu Chunmei's honest and honest silly elder sister is too good at bluffing. Now what are they talking about, the people in their village talk straight and straight, and don't know how to twist and turn. How can Yun Shang have the nerve to care about such a simple and silly local girl? .

At that time, a series of big hats will be buckled from Yunshang if she has a small stomach, does not unite with her comrades, and cannot make progress together with her comrades. How can she join the party? How to dry it?

In the words of later generations, Liu Chunmei used public opinion to morally kidnap Yunshang.

And the real silly big sister Ye Li was tricked by Liu Chunmei again unconsciously.

When Yunshang mentioned it a little bit, Wu Xiang immediately came to his senses, and immediately widened his eyes, "...She, she, did she really come out of a ravine?"

Liu Chunmei's brains are almost catching up with her father who is the deputy head of the district.

It's a pity that it was not used on the right path.

Yunshang took a bite of the apple, and said in a calm tone, "Liu Chunmei is a smart person. If she had no means, she would have married and had children like other women in the village. How could she fly out of the valley and become a literary soldier? "

These days, it is much more difficult to become a female soldier than a male soldier, and the number of female soldiers can be filled before the news of conscription reaches the countryside.

Liu Chunmei, a country girl, can become a soldier of literature and art. One can imagine how difficult it is.

Wu Xiang's gnawing on the apple slowed down, and he frowned unconsciously, "You're right, this Liu Chunmei is really... what are you going to do now? Do you agree to make up with her?"

Yun Chang frowned slightly, stretched out her long legs, hooked her toes to the door and pulled it open. Seeing people from other dormitories passing by the door, she turned her head and said aggrievedly:

"Wu Xiang, what do you think happened to Comrade Liu Chunmei? I didn't quarrel with her, and I didn't say what she said was wrong. Why does she have to ask Ye Li to help her speak nicely to me? We are not in the same dormitory. Comrades?"

snort! Isn't it just pretending?

It's like who can't.

Liu Chunmei's personality has always been a heartless and silly big sister character. She didn't turn against Liu Chunmei at noon, and even after Liu Chunmei said that inappropriate sentence, she smiled and took the beef jerky back. Why did Liu Chunmei insist that she was angry?

Do you have to drag Ye Li to make peace with her in the middle of the night with great fanfare?

How can a person with such an exquisite mind be so straightforward as to be stupid?

After hearing Yun Shang's complaints about her grievances, Wu Xiang almost burst out laughing, and quietly gave her a thumbs up.

This trick is really high.

This sentence was not angry at all, but it directly embarrassed Liu Chunmei who was jumping up and down looking for trouble.

Lower your posture and perform hard for most of the day, but the person involved doesn't know the reason for her apology at all. Is there anything more embarrassing than this?

If it gets out, others will only say that Yunshang is generous.

As another person involved, Liu Chunmei had to be ridiculed for being petty and unable to get on the stage.

Ye Li outside the door laughed again, almost bending over to go back to the dormitory.

Yun Shang took an apple from the cabinet and threw it to Ye Li, and said very speechlessly, "I brought it from home, eat it quickly."

Ye Li didn't think it was dirty either. He wiped the skin of the apple with his hands and took a bite, "Oh, this apple is not bad. It's big and sweet. What kind of apple is this? Did you buy it from the Friendship Store?" ?"

Wu Xiang froze for a moment, looked at the apple in his hand, and then looked up at Yunshang.

"How is it possible?" Yun Shang smiled as if hearing some funny joke, "The relatives in my hometown gave it to me, saying it was the fruit from the fruit trees in the yard."

Well, the space is her backyard, and the apples were indeed picked in the yard. She wasn't lying.

At this moment Liu Chunmei also came in from the outside, smelling the tempting sweet smell of apples in the dormitory, she couldn't help swallowing, and looked at Yunshang timidly, as if she wanted to speak but dared not.

Yun Chang turned her head to the side, with an apologetic smile on her face, "Comrade Liu Chunmei, apples are fruits, not a staple food. If you eat them, you will be contaminated with arrogance and arrogance. In order to urge you to become more outstanding and motivated, I will not give you apples." You ate."

snort! White-eyed wolf, never try to take a bite out of her hand again!

Liu Chunmei: "..."

Wu Xiang was stunned for a moment, then turned sideways quickly, Ren Xiaoren's shoulders almost twitched, while Ye Li, who was at the side, laughed unceremoniously, and deliberately chewed the apple crisply.

Liu Chunmei's eye circles turned red instantly, and Ye Li, who was laughing bitterly, gave Ye Li a hard look, and stopped talking to Yun Shang, and picked up the washbasin to go out to wash up.

"Liu Chunmei, wait a minute!" Yunshang called to stop Liu Chunmei, after eating a few bites of apples, she also picked up the washbasin and walked outside, "I want to wash up too, let's go together."

She is a broad-minded, open-minded person, and of course she will not quarrel with her comrades over trivial matters.

Besides, living in the same dormitory with such a motivated comrade-in-arms, she has the responsibility to urge his comrades to be better, and must train their will to be as tough as steel.

Therefore, in the days to come, she will keep a close eye on Liu Chunmei, and discard all food and clothing items that may make her feel arrogant, but she will inherit the fine traditions of the older generation of revolutionaries, Make great contributions to the construction of socialism.

Yes, she is such a generous and kind person.

During the short walk to the water room, Liu Chunmei walked in fear.

Before, she thought that Yunshang made a mistake and was driven here from the military region, and her background was also average, at most a worker's family.

But now it seems that she is completely wrong.

Children from working families may be able to take out toffee as a gift, but children from working families cannot easily eat such good apples.

There are several orchards in their commune. She grew up in the village since she was a child, and the entire commune, no, their entire county, couldn't find such good apples.

It is red and big, and has a good appearance, and the candy center can be soaked around the core.

She has never even heard of this kind of apple. How could it be grown in a small yard of an ordinary farm?

Apples of this quality must have come from the Friendship Store in the city.

Bai Yunshang has products from the Friendship Store in his hand, what does this mean?

These days, how many ordinary people with no background can have foreign exchange certificates in their hands?

A chill ran down Liu Chunmei's back, and her heart sank slowly.

"Yunshang, I was wrong about what happened today. I came from the village and have little experience. Don't take offense..."

"Today? What's the matter today?" Yun Chang asked deliberately pretending to be stupid, and then waved her hand indifferently, "Hey, everyone is a comrade-in-arms. I did something wrong. You correct me for me. I appreciate your return." If it's too late, why would I offend you?"

Seeing that Liu Chunmei was about to speak again, Yunshang spoke again, "Comrade Liu Chunmei, I really didn't offend you. Don't worry, we will always be good comrades-in-arms." I will definitely supervise my comrades-in-arms and not let you have any errands Opportunity to step on the wrong foot.

Liu Chunmei: "..."

What on earth does she mean?

Did he really not offend her, or did he forgive her on the surface, but secretly planned to trip her up?

The two of them returned to the dormitory after washing, and Yun Chang got into bed humming a little tune in a good mood. Liu Chunmei went to bed with a pale face and tossed and turned all night without sleeping well.

In the next few days, Yun Shang will still greet Liu Chunmei affectionately, and every time he goes to have a meal, he will also call Liu Chunmei to join him.

After arriving at the cafeteria, all kinds of snacks in Yunshang's hands will only be distributed to Wu Xiang, Ye Li, and Yao Ke, not Liu Chunmei at all.

And every time when Liu Chunmei was angry and angry, with a silly and sweet smile on her face, she justly said that it was for Liu Chunmei's good that she didn't give Liu Chunmei anything to eat. Contaminated with arrogance and arrogance.

Liu Chunmei was obviously terribly angry in her heart, but she had to hold back her temper and thank Yun Shang verbally.

After all, Yunshang did this for her own good, and accepted Yunshang's kindness, how could she not thank her.

On the weekend, when Gu Shinian came to see Yun Shang, he was directly amused by her coquettish manipulation.

Chapter 598 jealous

Seeing that there was no one around the car, Gu Shinian stretched out his hand and rubbed Yunshang's head, "Just teach me a lesson, and if you continue targeting Liu Chunmei, it won't do you any good."

No one is really a fool.

Yun Shang's method against Liu Chunmei is not very clever, it can even be called a little joke between girls, even if the leaders know it, they will at most smile and say 'naughty' and it's over.

But if Yunshang has been relentlessly targeting Liu Chunmei, even if it is a harmless little joke, after a long time, it will be tiresome to watch, and feel that she is too small-minded and has nothing to do with it.

This is just right now, Yunshang didn't turn against Liu Chunmei and hurt the harmony among comrades-in-arms, but also taught Liu Chunmei a lesson, so that she can't tell her bitterness, so she won't dare to provoke Yunshang at will in the future. At the same time, it will make the leaders feel that Yunshang has general knowledge, even if he is bullied and wants to fight back, it is this kind of harmless little joke to remind his comrades, and the matter was resolved in private very satisfactorily, without causing any bad effects.

Yun Shang handled this matter very well, and her sense of proportion was just right.

It was only now that Gu Shinian really realized that the little sister he had been protecting behind had really grown up before he knew it.

Yun Shang stroked Gu Shinian's messy bangs, bumped him dissatisfied, and muttered, "I didn't want to keep targeting her, I planned to toss her for a few days and stop."

Just torment Liu Chunmei for a week so that she will not dare to provoke her again. If she continued to torment, she was worried that Liu Chunmei would be forced to fight back.

Seeing that Yun Shang had a sense of proportion, Gu Shinian felt relieved, and then asked about her situation in the art troupe these days.

"It's pretty good. Head Yang and Deputy Head Guan think highly of me, let me practice the piano well, and give me a chance to play solo on stage when the next company performs on New Year's Day! Head Yang also said that if I show myself, the group The Li will list me as a key training target. If the art performance in March next year can bring glory to the Yicheng Military Division, she will ask the political commissar to introduce me to the party..."

Speaking of the life in the art troupe, Yun Chang suddenly became energetic, her face was full of spirits, and even the hair on her head was full of vigor and upward energy.

Seeing Yun Shang's small red mouth opening and closing and talking non-stop, coupled with the small dimples that appeared from time to time at the corners of her mouth, Gu Shinian could no longer suppress the longing in his heart, bent down, and hugged his lips. The red lips of the night.

Yun Shang is like a brave warrior who refuses to admit defeat. When someone captures a city, her first reaction is not to avoid it, but to rush forward bravely and take back her own city.

Her face was flushed red, but her arms boldly wrapped around Gu Shinian's neck, and her slender body blocked Gu Shinian's pressed chest, defending her territory.

It's just that the power gap between the two parties was too great. Like many times before, Yun Chang soon collapsed limply in Gu Shinian's arms, passively accepting his tender and lingering kiss.

Fortunately, Gu Shinian still remembered that the car was parked not far from the military area, so he quickly let go of Yunshang and straightened her slightly messy hair.

"A-Shang, are the rest of the group easy to get along with? Are there any friends who get along better?" Gu Shinian shook Yun Shang's hand, rubbing her cold and delicate fingers, and asked.

"Well, there are a few people who get along pretty well. Like Wu Xiang in our dormitory, Yao Ke who introduced me to the military division last time, and a male soldier named Wen Chengjie, they are all easy to get along with.

I'm not familiar with the others, and I don't know much about them. However, several female soldiers in our art troupe have approached me in private, wanting to inquire about you from me. "

At the end, Yun Chang squinted at Gu Shinian, and flung the knives one after another, almost twisting Gu Shinian's ears and cursing the word "flower butterfly".

Gu Shinian felt wronged. He obviously didn't do anything, so why did it become his fault when others took the initiative to inquire about him?

Logically speaking, he is coveted by so many people, as a girlfriend, Yunshang, shouldn't she be more nervous and put him in prison? Why doesn't his little girl seem worried at all?

Yun Shang pinched Gu Shinian's face,

He squeezed hard, grinding his back molars to extract a confession, "Tell me honestly, did you hook up with the little girl in our group behind my back?"

"Well, we hooked up." With a warm smile on Gu Shinian's face, he held Yun Shang's little hand pinching his face, and kissed her palm, "Isn't this hooking you up?"

Yun Shang: "... " Why is Second Brother Gu getting more and more angry?

Yun Shang was about to withdraw his hand, but Gu Shinian suddenly withdrew the smile on his face, played with Yun Shang's fingers and asked, "A Chang, who is Wen Chengjie you mentioned just now, do you have a good relationship with him? "

Gu Shinian spoke in a calm tone, but Yunshang could hear a sour taste from it. He was amused in his heart, but pretended not to understand, nodded obediently, and said:

"It's the band leader in our regiment, who plays the trumpet. The last time Liu Chunmei provoked me, it was Wen Chengjie who helped me hit Liu Chunmei in the face with a ladder. Brother Gu, Wen Chengjie is a righteous man, with a good temper and good looks. There are several girls here who like him."

She wasn't lying.

Wen Chengjie is really good-looking, has a good temper, and has a good family background. There are really a few girls in the regiment who are eager to attack him.

Gu Shinian's heart was so sore that his face darkened uncontrollably, "Ah Chang, you can't trust a good-looking man. Besides, a good-looking face can't be eaten as food, you have to have skills."

Good looking? Isn't that just a little boy, what's so good about it? Could it be that Ah Shang likes the boyish type?

Gu Shinian touched his much rougher skin, and secretly decided that he must take good care of his face later, so as not to make the little girl run away ugly.

Yun Shang stared at Gu Shinian for a long time, and couldn't help but burst out laughing. While laughing a little out of breath, she poked Gu Shinian and asked, "Are you talking about yourself?"

The person who has fascinated the little girls in the art troupe with his face, even said that even good-looking people are unreliable because he is jealous of other good looks.

Before he said this, didn't he think that he had a monstrous face?

Gu Shinian was generalized by Yunshang, and his mood improved. He frowned slightly, pinched Yunshang's soft cheek and said, "Isn't that good? You like to see good-looking people, so you can just look at me in the future." .”

Like that guy named Wen Jie, he is definitely not as good-looking as he is. It is enough for A Chang to look at him, so why does he need to look at others.

It was the first time Yun Shang saw Gu Shinian so emotionally sour, and while it was novel and funny, a corner of her heart also softened.

It turns out that the omnipotent and indestructible Second Brother Gu in her impression also sometimes lacks self-confidence.

Chapter 599: Deputy Company Commander Kong

It's lunch time now, Yunshang filled two military bags with all kinds of snacks and food that had been prepared in the space, one in the car and the other in Gu Shinian's arms, urging him to get out of the car quickly, So take her to the small cafeteria to eat delicious food.

After eating boiled vegetables and pickled vegetables for a week, her face turned green, and she was finally liberated today.

Gu Shinian left the bulging bag behind him, seeing that Yun Chang's feet seemed to be fitted with springs, and she wanted to rush out when she was walking. She was amused, but more than that, she felt distressed.

The belly of his little girl has really suffered a lot in the past few days, otherwise she wouldn't be so greedy.

"A Chang, you go to the dormitory to get a bowl first, how can you eat without a bowl?" Gu Shinian grabbed Yunshang and shook the bulging military bag on his back, "There are still these meals, which have to be put in the dormitory first. "

Yun Shang was looking forward to the food in the small cafeteria at the moment, and realized that she had made a joke, so she quickly changed direction and urged Gu Shinian to follow quickly.

At the door of the dormitory, Yun Shang grabbed the military bag in Gu Shinian's hand and hurried in. She had no idea how eye-catching the rumored airborne company commander appeared near the female soldiers' dormitory of the art troupe.

In the dormitory, the other three people had come back from dinner, and when they saw Yunshang entering the door with a big bag full of things, they all looked over curiously.

Ye Li put down the cream in his hand, looked at Yunshang, with a weird smile on his face, "Yunshang, didn't Company Commander Gu come to see you, why didn't you go to the cafeteria to eat? There is carrot fried meat in the big cafeteria today, It's a shame you didn't get it."

Yunshang put the bag in the cabinet, took out the lunch box from the cloth bag, and responded casually, "I'm going to eat now, come back and get the lunch box."

"Oh, it's so late, the fried pork with radish must be sold out, you used to only eat boiled cabbage." Ye Li sighed exaggeratedly, "It's a good thing that the platoon leader Zhou helped me line up today, otherwise Wu Xiang and I can't eat radish fried meat anymore."

Yun Chang's eyebrows twitched, and she glanced at Ye Li speechlessly.

She was so naive, she thought Ye Li was really worried that she wouldn't be able to eat meat dishes, and was pity for her.

After doing it for a long time, it turned out that they were showing off to her that someone was queuing up to cook for her.

Yun Chang really didn't know what to say, so she smiled at Wu Xiang who was also speechless, and hurried out with the lunch box.

What's so delicious about fried pork with radish? Right now, she's going to go to the small cafeteria with Gu Erge and order all kinds of fried food! Is she proud? Is she pissed off?

snort! Little girls are full of vanity.

Seeing Yun Shang running towards him like a cheerful bird, Gu Shinian unconsciously put on a smile on his face, and the icy breath on his body warmed up, like a handsome young man, so dazzling that people couldn't move their eyes away.

Yun Chang hummed softly, muttering the words "Flower Butterfly" in her mouth, but unceremoniously stuffed the lunch box to Gu Shinian, and kept urging him to walk faster, with a look of I can't wait to hide him in my pocket so that no one can see it.

After the two left, people who came and went had to discuss a few words.

Some people thought that Gu Shinian accompanied Yunshang to report to the regiment because of the elders' orders. Seeing that Gu Shinian came to the art troupe to see Yunshang only a week later, they all clearly realized that Gu Shinian really valued Yunshang, and the relationship between the two was much closer than everyone imagined.

For a while, the minds of several female soldiers floated again.

Yun Shang didn't know that Gu Shinian's visit this time would bring her many so-called 'good friends', and she was laying down in front of the blackboard in the small cafeteria, swallowing and ordering food.

Well, I haven't eaten the sweet lipstick roasted pork in the south for many years, I must order one! There are even fresh shrimps! dot dot dot! Must order! Pork with pickled vegetables is also very good with rice, why don't you order it and try it? ah! They even serve lamb casserole! Mutton is best eaten in winter. Add some pepper, and a bowl will warm you up. By the way, I have to order a soup at the end. The southern tofu is tender, and the green vegetable tofu soup is the most delicious.

I want to have a bowl too...

Yun Shang wanted to eat any kind of food, and finally realized that she and Gu Shinian were only two people, so after choosing and choosing for a long time, she finally ordered braised pork and mutton, plus a stir-fried vegetable and tofu soup.

The two were tall, with outstanding looks, and they were unfamiliar faces. They suddenly appeared in the small cafeteria, and ordered a few of the most expensive stir-fry without any hesitation, which was very eye-catching for a while.

These two people seem to be unfamiliar, what is their background?

The man's clothes have four pockets at least, so it can be seen that he is an officer, but the little female soldier is wearing the most common two-pocket military uniform, her face is still tender and covered with baby fat, she looks like a child, To be able to order snacks among a bunch of officers without changing his face, where did this tiger girl come from?

It's okay to order braised pork. In the past two years, small cafeterias have often made it, and everyone will occasionally buy a toothpaste. It's not too rare. But is mutton affordable for ordinary people?

No one raises sheep in this area of Yicheng, and one serving of mutton is enough for half a month's food expenses for an ordinary family! These two people bought it after they said they would buy it?

This is too prodigal!

In the corner of the small cafeteria, Kong Changzheng saw Gu Shinian bringing a tender-faced female soldier to the small cafeteria for dinner. The bowl almost fell on the table.

Isn't this the black-faced company commander who came down from the air and pressed his head with a straight face all day long!

Why didn't he eat at the station, but also ran to the canteen of the military region to eat? There is also a little girl with him, this guy will not come to the military area to deal with him, right?

The beast! It's not a thing to actually attack a child!

Kong Changzheng wiped the corner of his mouth, and while the young officers were staring at him vaguely, he came over with a bowl, and Da Lala sat down beside Gu Shinian.

"Isn't this Company Commander Gu? I really didn't expect it! Why did you go down the mountain today? It's because the food in the resident is not good. Come to the small cafeteria for a change?"

Gu Shinian sat still, picked up a piece of mutton and put it in Yunshang's bowl, urging her to eat it quickly, and then turned to look at Kong Changzheng with a distant smile on his face, "Deputy Company Commander Kong, Revolutionary soldiers must strictly abide by the discipline of the army. My rank and position are higher than yours, and according to the regulations, you have no right to inquire about my whereabouts."

As a subordinate, I came to the small cafeteria of the military region to eat delicious food and drink spicy food, but ran to question my immediate boss because Mao also wanted to go down the mountain, because Mao also wanted to come to the small cafeteria to eat, are you sure you are not sick?

Kong Changzheng was rebuked by Gu Shinian, but he didn't get angry. He put the bowl on the table with a "pat" on the table, his eyes slanted towards Yunshang, "Aren't I afraid that you will make a mistake! No matter how much you are a company commander, you can't use it well." You are cheating children by eating them."

Chapter 600 Missing

This little girl looked to be fifteen or sixteen years old at most. How could Gu Shinian, a beast, dare to attack such a young girl?

Hearing the deep meaning in Kong Changzheng's words, Gu Shinian's face darkened and he almost dropped his chopsticks.

Why did he lie to the child after having a meal with his partner?

Even if he lied to the children, what delicious food or fun has he never eaten in his family? A plate of braised pork and a plate of mutton are trying to trick A-Shang away. Does this mean that they look down on him, or are they out of favor with A-Shang?

It is not without reason that some people can be crushed by outsiders in their own territory.

Lack of the most basic vision, who is not to blame?

Knowing that the stupid big guy who came over was the legendary nephew of Mr. Kong—the deputy company commander Kong of Tiger Company, Yun Chang looked over curiously.

With a big black face and thick eyebrows, he sat astride a big horse with a golden knife, with a simple and straightforward face.

Yun Chang glanced at it and then lowered his head.

For an outspoken idiot like Deputy Company Commander Kong, Second Brother Gu can beat a car by himself without her taking action.

Well, it seems that for the time being, there is no need to worry about someone playing tricks on Second Brother Gu behind his back.

Gu Shinian was too lazy to talk to Kong Changzheng, seeing that Yunshang had eaten half a bowl of rice, he served her a bowl of soup, "Ah Chang, drink some hot soup first."

Yun Shang swallowed the braised pork in her mouth, took out a handkerchief and wiped her oily mouth, and while taking the soup bowl, she still cared about Gu Shinian, "Second Brother Gu, this tofu soup looks good , you drink a bowl too."

"Okay." Gu Shinian responded, and also filled a bowl of soup and drank it slowly.

The two care about each other as if no one else is around, and the way they get along is close and natural, like a small world of their own, and no one can get in.

Kong Changzheng's face darkened, and he suddenly felt that sitting here was unnecessary.

Gu Shinian took a big sip of soup, and seeing Yun Chang glance at Kong Changzheng from the corner of his eyes from time to time, he turned around and asked impatiently, "Deputy Company Commander Kong, what else do you want from me?" I really have no eyesight to see, a large group of people sitting here disturbed Ah Chang from eating.

Kong Changzheng also saw that the relationship between Yunshang and Gu Shinian was unusual at this moment, and he no longer had the idea that Gu Shinian was coaxing children before.

Seeing that Gu Shinian's face was so gloomy, the muscles on Kong Changzheng's face couldn't help shaking a few times.

It's over!

He accidentally sneezed again.

When I get back to the station, this guy is going to make trouble for him, and he will do it badly!

Thinking of this, Kong Changzheng suddenly felt that all the bones in his body began to ache.

"It's okay... Gu, Company Commander Gu, so you and this little comrade are old acquaintances? Well, take your time, I'll go back to the station first."

As Kong Changzheng said, he picked up the remaining half bowl of rice, finished it in a few mouthfuls, and sprinted out of the small cafeteria with the empty bowl in his hands, as if he was being chased by a hungry wolf.

Yunshang nodded her chin in the direction where Kong Changzheng disappeared, and asked Gu Shinian in a low voice, "Is this Master Kong's nephew, the deputy company commander of your company?"

Hearing that Yunshang took the initiative to mention Kong Changzheng, Gu Shinian understood it in his heart, responded in a low voice, and asked her, "You also heard that Kong Changzheng didn't get along with me?"

"Yeah." Yunshang nodded, "Everyone in our art troupe said so. Brother Gu, is this true? Did Kong Changzheng trouble you?"

"It's all rumors, don't take it seriously." Gu Shinian smiled, and said while adding vegetables to Yunshang's bowl, "Kong Changzheng is quite an upright person. After I transferred here, I played tricks with him a few times. It's working very well for me now."

When you encounter a prickly head, you don't need to say anything, just hit your fist.

One can't be beaten twice, twice can't be beaten three times, no matter how rebellious the prickly head is, there will be a day when it will be beaten.

Yun Chang could hear the deep meaning of Gu Shinian's words at once.

"Now he is very cooperative with me at work", that is to say, when Gu Shinian first came here, Kong Changzheng did make trouble for him.

However, after being dealt with several times by Gu Shinian, Kong Changzheng calmed down.

Yun Chang looked at Gu Shinian's face for a long time, wrinkled her little nose and asked,

"Did you suffer?"

Gu Shinian shook his head, as if thinking of something funny, he suddenly laughed, "I didn't suffer. Kong Changzheng has been injured a lot these past few months, and he's almost become a frequent visitor to the infirmary."

Yunshang breathed a sigh of relief, seeing that there was no one around, and then asked about something she had been thinking about for several days, "Second brother Gu, is there any news about the incident in the northwest? The third grandpa called me and took several Can the photos of Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu be used?"

Speaking of Gu Huaqing's family of three, Gu Shinian's mood obviously sank. Seeing Yun Shang staring at him with a good look, he sighed and said, "This matter is very complicated. Let's eat first, and wait until we finish eating." I'll tell you again."

I was eating, and this was a cremation ground, a grave bag, and a corpse, which affected my appetite.

As soon as she heard that there were gossips, Yun Shang hurriedly finished the sumptuous lunch as quickly as possible, put the unfinished braised pork on the table into the lunch box, and then stood in front of the table and looked eagerly at Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian put away the bowls and chopsticks on the table, took Yunshang out of the small cafeteria, was silent for a while before talking about the Northwest, "The Gu family arranged for someone to go to the Northwest, and let the crematorium carefully look at the photos Finally, it was confirmed that it was not Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu who were cremated."

Yun Chang was so shocked that the lunch box in her hand almost fell to the ground, and it took a long time before she asked with a trembling voice, "...Then, who was burned?"

The names of Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu were registered at the cremation site, but the bodies of Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu were not cremated in the end, so where are Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu? Are they dead or alive now? Who hid them? Also, where did the two corpses cremated in the cremation ground come from?

"Ah Chang, there is a secret letter in Gu Huaqing's belongings, which was written to Comrade Zhang, saying that he left me a group of contacts and asked me to find a way to get around with those people..."

The more Yun Shang heard it, the more strange it became. Gu Huaqing's current situation can be said to be inseparable from Gu Shinian and Zhang Chunni.

According to Gu Huaqing's temperament, even if he didn't hate Zhang Chunni and Gu Shinian, he wouldn't be so generous that he would hand over his remaining contacts to Zhang Chunni and Gu Shinian regardless of the previous suspicions.

But before he was 'dying', he left such a suicide note that seemed to be a confession, which seemed weird no matter how you looked at it.

"Second Brother Gu, do you believe it?" Will Gu Huaqing really repent?

"I don't believe it." Gu Shinian shook his head, with a sarcastic smile in his eyes, "How can a person who can treat his wife and children without conscience, after the two sides have completely torn each other to the death, repent and want to make up for the enemy? And , even if he really repents, I don't need the contacts he left behind."
