Chapter 601 Defection

With the full support of the Gu family in the capital and the full support of the third grandfather, as long as Gu Shinian does not make mistakes, his future in the army will definitely not be bad.

He doesn't need and doesn't need the scattered contacts left by Gu Huaiking to make his future even better.

What's more, how good is the character of a person who can mix with a scum like Gu Huaiking?

On the surface, the connections that Gu Huaiking left for Gu Shinian were actually bombs that could detonate at any time. If Gu Shinian really used those connections, he might be blown to nothing at any time.

Yun Shang felt an urge to kill. The fact that Gu Shinian might be plotted against was even more unbearable than being plotted against herself.

Seeing that Yun Chang's face was very gloomy, and his eyes were dark and without any emotion, Gu Shinian sighed secretly, and while there was no one around, he gently pinched Yun Chang's nose.

"Ah Chang, think about it the other way around, this is not all a bad thing. If there is no secret letter, we don't know who is Gu Huaiking's person. If someone destroys me while I am on a mission, then my trouble will be big.

It's fine now, Gu Huaiking took the initiative to confess to his people, and with the Gu family watching, they couldn't make small moves. "

Hearing what Gu Shinian said, Yun Shang felt a little more at ease, and her face was not as ugly as before.

"Second Brother Gu, have you found out where Gu Huaiking is? The labor camp sent Gu Huaiking's body out, but it turned into someone else's body at the cremation ground. Check properly."

"It's not that easy." Gu Shinian shook his head, and lowered his voice again, "Gu Mingzhu's body was delivered by Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan himself, and no one handled it. Gu Huaqing's body was personally delivered by a deputy director of the labor camp. When Gu Guangzong arrived in the northwest, the deputy director happened to be on a business trip for a week with the person who dealt with Gu Huaqing's funeral.

The members of the Gu family later found out that the wife and child of the deputy director had left their hometown in September under the pretext of defecting to her husband to settle down in a labor camp. The other two were gangsters from the neighborhood. They had a bare-handed commander, and there was no one else in the family.

In this situation, it can be basically confirmed that Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu are cheating their deaths. The deputy director's family and those two gangsters were all involved in this matter, and they disappeared along with Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu..."

"Defected! They must have defected!" Yun Shang stopped, almost gritted her teeth and squeezed out a few words from between her teeth.

This Gu Huaqing, really damn it!

He has served as a political commissar of the military region, not to mention whether he will reveal the military secrets that need to be kept strictly confidential after defecting. Just because of his previous status, once he defected, the impact would be too bad .

Even Gu Guangzong, who had no contact with him for a long time, and Gu Shinian and Gu Pangui, who had severed ties long ago, might also be affected by his defection.

There is also the secret letter, compared to those people being the contacts Gu Huaqing left for Gu Shinian, Yun Shang now suspects that those people are people who are not under Gu Huaqing's control and have a different heart.

Leaving his connections to Gu Shinian was actually an attempt to kill people with a knife, using Gu Shinian to deal with those who turned a blind eye to his plight and were eager to draw a line with him when he was down and down.

After hearing Yun Shang's guess, Gu Shinian nodded in agreement, "That's why the Gu family only focused on these people and didn't move them for the time being."

At this moment, Yunshang was so worried that her intestines were knotted, and she asked worriedly, "Second brother Gu, how should we solve this matter? Will it affect you?"

"Don't worry, I have nothing to do with him for a long time, even if he really defected, it won't affect me."

Yun Chang had a headache for a while, Gu Er Ge said it easily, but once Gu Huaiqing and Gu Mingzhu really defected, how could it not affect him?

Even though he severed the father-son relationship with Gu Huaiqing ten years ago, Gu Huaiqing's flesh and blood still flowed through his body.

Especially Gu Huaiqing left him a so-called secret letter before feigning death,

A family drama in which a repentant old father loves his son and makes various plans for his son was staged.

This is simply picking up the shit bowl and punching Gu Shinian on the head abruptly.

Once people found out about the secret letter, even if Gu Shinian had a mouthful of mouth, he might not be able to prove his innocence.

"A-Shang, don't worry, no one will know about the secret letter. Once the matter of Gu Huaiqing's defection is concluded, Zhou Minghui's comrade-in-arms who helped Gu Huaiqing keep the relics, as well as Gu Guangzong, will become a bond with me." Fuck the grasshoppers, they dare not tell about the secret letter."

You know, passing information to bad guys who defected is a serious crime, and no one can afford it.

If they want to live well and not be implicated by Gu Guangzong's defection, they can only keep the secret letter secret from anyone.

As for Zhang Chunni and the Gu family, naturally they would not reveal the secret letter.

The cold wind blew past, and the damp, cold and gloomy air hit me head-on, like a pair of icy iron hooks, hanging on the person's body, heavy and cold, but I couldn't break free no matter what.

Yun Chang looked at the dark sky in the distance, like a huge cage, enveloping the whole city, no one can escape from this dreary caged world.

Sensing that Yun Shang was in a bad mood, Gu Shinian sighed secretly, quietly shook Yun Shang's hand, and rubbed it carefully in the palm of his hand, "Ah Chang, it will pass, trust me, this matter will pass."

Yun Shang nodded, and held Gu Shinian's hand tightly with her backhand, as if drawing the strength she felt at ease from his hand.

"Second Brother Gu, the northwest border is still uneasy, and Gu Huaqing will definitely not go out from the northwest border. The north is also in conflict with the country, and they can't go there even if they want to. After all the calculations, if they really want to go abroad, they can only go to the south.

Later, I will find a way to contact Lu Yunling and An Yunming, let them inquire about the news, and see if Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu have gone to Hong Kong City..."

"A Chang," Gu Shinian sighed, "Gu Huaqing's matter will be dealt with in the organization. Those of us who are related to Gu Huaqing need to avoid suspicion, do you understand?"

Yun Shang was startled, and it took a long time before she asked uncertainly, "Second Brother Gu, you mean, someone is staring at us?"

"Maybe. A Chang, you have to trust the organization. The Gu family and the Bai family are not without rivals. When Gu Huaqing disappeared, if someone found out that you were secretly contacting Hong Kong City, have you thought about the consequences?"

Yun Chang shivered abruptly in the cold wind.

Scared.

Second brother Gu is still sober, otherwise she might really have harmed the whole family of the Bai family.

Chapter 602 Performance opportunity

"A Chang, Grandpa Gu has made arrangements. Just pretend you don't know about it, and just wait for the result with peace of mind."

Even if I want to do something, I can't do it.

Yun Shang secretly complained, and nodded slightly, "I'll listen to you."

After thinking about it, he added, "Gu Huaiqing probably didn't expect that Gu Guangzong would go to the Northwest to deal with his funeral. Since he left a secret letter, he will definitely arrange for someone to deliver the letter to Aunt Zhang. Let Grandpa Gu Find this person as soon as possible. Also, tell Gu Guangzong again to let him know the seriousness of the matter, so that he won't make a fool of himself and tell the secret letter..."

"Don't worry, I mentioned something to Gu Guangzong, he dare not talk nonsense."

Yun Chang put on a fierce face, and said viciously, "That's good, if he dares to talk nonsense about you, I'll go to Qinghe County and beat him later!"

Gu Shinian responded with a smile, and felt that the way Yun Shang nagged and taught him looked like a nagging little wife, so cute.

It's getting late now, Gu Shinian only took a few hours off, and it's time to return to the station.

After sending Gu Shinian away, Yunshang put the lunch box containing the braised pork back in the dormitory, and hurried to the practice room with the violin in hand.

Deputy head Guan was standing outside the practice room, and when he saw Yunshang, he waved to her from a long distance away.

Yun Chang took a deep breath, trying to calm her slightly shortness of breath, and obediently stood in front of Deputy Head Guan, "Hello, Teacher Guan."

"Well, good." Guan Min nodded indiscriminately, and without a word, he dragged Yunshang to his office, and without waiting for Yunshang to ask, he told the reason why he was looking for Yunshang on the way.

This year's New Year's Day, the Propaganda Department of the district is planning to organize a large-scale cultural performance. In addition to the excellent programs selected by various units, the district hopes that the Military Art Troupe will also present several programs to participate in the performance to highlight the joy of the military and civilians. theme.

Several of the most famous shows produced by the Art Troupe in the past few years have all been performed in the district, and the freshness has long since disappeared.

After discussing with Head Yang, Guan Min decided to give newcomers a chance this year and let Yunshang also participate in the art performance in the district.

There are two purposes for doing this. One is to let Yunshang perform on stage as much as possible, so as to accumulate experience for the military art performance in March next year, and the other is to increase the sense of freshness. In case outsiders talk about the military art troupe, they can only think of a few fixed programs.

After listening to Guan Min's words, Yun Shang didn't feel too excited, but unconsciously clenched the violin in her hand, feeling a sense of ritual that she was about to embark on a new journey.

Seeing that Yun Chang's breathing was still steady, and the expression on her face did not show timidity, or lost her sense of excitement, Guan Min felt more and more satisfied.

"The performance is on the afternoon of the 30th, and there are only three days left. This is your first time on stage after arriving in Yicheng. It is such a big stage, and it is true that the requirements are very high. However, Director Yang and I both think that you Okay, I want to give you this chance, do you have the confidence?"

Yun Chang immediately straightened her back, and nodded solemnly at Guan Min, with a dazzling light in her eyes, "Teacher Guan, don't worry, I will perform well and live up to the expectations of you and Captain Yang."

Of course she would not let go of such a good opportunity to appear on stage!

Since she came to the Yicheng military division, both Guan Min and Yang Hongying have given her too much support and attention, even if it is for these two leaders who are particularly fond of her, she will give her all strength, to win glory for the leader.

For the next two days, Yunshang stopped practicing morning exercises with the members of the troupe, and ran to the small practice room early every day. Under Guan Min's guidance, accompanied by the piano accompaniment, she picked out the repertoire she was going to perform in the cultural performance one sentence at a time .

The fact that Guan Min gave Yunshang a small treatment in private could not be hidden from everyone's eyes, and the people in the group soon found out that Yunshang was going to perform a violin solo on the stage of the regional art festival.

Faced with all kinds of curious, envious, jealous, or disdainful gazes from the crowd, Yun Shang still remained calm, keeping herself out of the crowd,

Familiarize yourself with the repertoire you want to perform over and over again.

Compared with the veterans in the regiment, the three recruits in the dormitory have more feelings. Wu Xiang was really happy for Yunshang, even when he went to the cafeteria to eat, he and Yao Ke took turns buying food for Yunshang, just wanting her to spend more time practicing piano.

Although Ye Li is also quite jealous of Yun Shang's good luck, she and Wu Xiang are both members of the dance team, and unless she is particularly talented, she will only have the opportunity to lead or solo dance.

Therefore, even if Ye Li felt uncomfortable in his heart, and only occasionally said a few sour words, it would not be difficult for Yun Shang.

Only Liu Chunmei, the sour water in her heart almost drowned her.

She is a solo performer, and the troupe wants to add new programs. Logically speaking, her chances of appearing on stage are much higher than Yun Shang's. However, Head Yang and Deputy Head

Guan seemed to have forgotten her, and only asked her to rehearse with the dance team and choir, without mentioning her performance on stage.

She is a singer, but in the eyes of Head Yang and Deputy Head Guan, she is no better than a wood sawer?

What's wrong with the people in this city.

However, Liu Chunmei was frightened by Yun Shang's previous cleaning up. Even if her heart was sour, she would at most whisper a few words to others in private, but she didn't dare to attack Yun Shang again.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye, and soon it was the 30th.

The location of the art performance was in the auditorium of the district government. The performance started at one o'clock in the afternoon and ended at six o'clock in the evening, a total of five hours.

The Art Troupe has three programs, one solo, one model play of "Red Detachment of Women", and one is Yunshang's violin solo.

The backstage of the auditorium is very simple. The space of about 200 square meters is divided into several small spaces with wooden boards. There are a few wooden tables and benches inside, which are the dressing rooms for the performers of all units.

Yun Shang noticed that many people's performance costumes were piled up on the tables and stools in a mess, and people came and went. After rubbing past, the things on the table would fall off a corner, and then the people around didn't notice, just like that in the performance costumes. Step on it.

Fortunately, there is a special dressing room in the art troupe of the military region. With the thin wooden door closed, it seems to form an independent small space in the noisy world.

The members of the art troupe participate in many performances every year, and they have long been familiar with the performance process. The cast and crew perform their duties, busy but not chaotic, quickly put on makeup and change into performance costumes in an orderly and noisy manner.

Yun Chang's makeup is Guan Minhua's. She only lightly traced her eyebrows and applied a thin layer of rouge, and her face immediately became bright and beautiful. Guan Min looked at her carefully, and finally gave up on the idea of putting on her red lipstick under Yun Shang's strong protest.

Chapter 603 Four Brilliance

The model play of the art troupe was the first program, and Yao Ke, as a group dancer, was going to perform on stage immediately.

Yun Shang hadn't watched the official performance of the troupe yet, but when she saw the dance team walking forward, she said something to Guan Min, and followed her with her violin in her arms, planning to get behind the curtain to watch the excitement.

Coming all the way from the backstage, looking at the unified big thick eyebrows and bright red faces of the performers of all units, Yun Chang was so thundered that he almost dared not look up and walk.

It's too spicy for the eyes.

Well, the ladies and sisters of the art troupe still look good. Although it is a bit retro, at least the makeup is appropriate, and it won't give people the feeling of looking at a monkey's butt.

Yao Ke looked at Yun Shang's small face wrinkled together, as if he couldn't bear to look directly at her, and couldn't help but burst out laughing.

He reached out and pinched her soft and greasy face, pulled her across the backstage, found a stick to put behind the curtain, and pressed her to sit on the stick.

"Okay, I'll watch the excitement here later, and I'll accompany you to the backstage after I step down."

Yun Shang nodded happily, feeling that Miss Yao Ke was as caring as a little angel. Knowing that she is very curious and likes to watch the excitement, she even got a special seat for her to watch the excitement.

Such a good young lady belongs to her, she is so happy.

Yun Chang hugged the violin tightly, turned her head and looked down the stage. The audience was full of audiences, and in front were all leading cadres from various departments who were invited to watch the performance. Yunshang noticed that among these cadres were sitting a few straight military officers wearing military caps...

At one o'clock, the lights in the auditorium were dimmed, and the audience immediately fell silent.

A beam of bright lights hit the corner of the stage, and the announcer went up from the backstage, stood in the middle of the lights and began to announce the curtain.

Yun Shang thought that the announcement in this era is very simple, just like talking, usually: Please listen to the female solo, "Praise of Red Plums". Please enjoy the dance, "Laundry Song" and so on.

The Art Troupe's "Red Detachment of Women" model play is a masterpiece. As soon as the announcer's voice fell, there was thunderous applause from below.

As soon as the music started, the group dancers came onto the stage full of energy, and then the lead dancer leaped onto the stage with a light body like a dancing butterfly.

Under the chase of the lights, the red dance clothes on the lead dancer's body are bright and eye-catching, and every movement is smooth and flowing, which firmly attracts the audience's attention to the stage.

Different from the focus of the audience below, Yunshang's eyes were rounded at the moment, trying to find Yao Ke's figure in the group dance.

Such a caring little angel, although she is only a group dancer on stage, is the best lead dancer in her mind...

Evidently, Yunshang was not the only one who liked to watch the excitement. After the performance started, a few girls from the unit below soon came behind the curtain. Unlike Yunshang who focused on watching Miss Yao Ke dance, this group of little girls obviously focused on the leaders in the audience. A group of people hid behind the curtain and gossiped about the leaders in the audience.

Yun Chang listened to these girls chattering about which leader was majestic and good-looking, which leader was full of bookishness, and which leader was full of momentum, and wrinkled her little nose unhappy.

Where are these people?

In terms of prestige, he can't compare with her family's majestic Commander Bai, and in terms of good looks, he can't compare with Gu Erge, who is so handsome that he has no friends. There is nothing to gossip about.

After the pride passed, Yun Shang was like an eggplant beaten by Shuang, and soon withered away.

Today is her first performance on stage, but Gu Er Ge couldn't come to the scene to cheer her on, it's really a pity.

Thinking about it this way, Yunshang lost all motivation to watch the excitement, and after the first performance of the art troupe, she followed everyone back to the dressing room.

Her show is in the middle, and she will be on stage around four o'clock. At 3:30, Guan Min took out two rice balls from her bag and asked Yun Shang and her steel accompanist to eat them to fill their stomachs and prepare for the performance.

Worried that Yunshang was nervous, Guan Min did not blindly emphasize how to behave after going on stage, but patted Yunshang on the shoulder with a relaxed expression, and said with a smile, "Perform well, I will invite you to the small cafeteria after the performance. Eat small stove.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up immediately, and even the white rice balls in his mouth smelled like beef, "Mr. Guan, is there any beef in the cafeteria?"

The corner of Guan Min's mouth twitched, and after a long silence, he said, "I can order in advance. You have behaved well, and I will treat you to a sauced beef."

Yun Chang immediately cheered up, clenched the violin tightly, and looked at the steel partner with burning eyes, as if she had put the burden of whether she could eat beef with sauce on the steel partner.

Seeing this, Guan Min stretched his brows and smiled, raised his wrist to check the time, and motioned for the two to go to the front and prepare to go on stage.

Yunshang stood beside the curtain, watching the performers of various units shuttle back and forth, breathing slowly and deeply, adjusting her best state.

After the announcer announced her program and name, she held the violin and took her position under the two beams of light in the middle of the stage with her piano companion, ready to perform.

She has long hands and long legs, she is a natural hanger, and her skin is very good. Those two black eyes seem to have absorbed the only two beams of light on the stage, which are amazingly bright.

Just standing there in a rising posture is so dazzling that people can't take their eyes off it.

After the piano prelude, the cheerful and bright voice of the violin resounded throughout the auditorium.

The music is enthusiastic and passionate, with an indescribable sense of joy and pride, which makes people want to dance along with the sound of the piano.

This is a piece of ethnic minority music. Yunshang uses very expressive skills - throwing the bow with the right hand, and alternately plucking the strings with the left and right hands, playing a fifth-degree harmony. .

This kind of passionate and fast-paced piece is very contagious. In just ten seconds or so, the audience below spontaneously clapped their hands to the beat.

The sound of the piano interacted with the audience, Yunshang opened up more and more on the stage, the theme before the variation was lighter and cheerful, and even the sound of the piano was more dynamic than usual.

Guan Min was standing behind the curtain, the nervous look on his face was gone, replaced by a relaxed and joyful smile.

At the end, she clasped her hands in front of her chest, and even followed the applause from the audience to beat on her elbows.

The teacher of the dance team leader on the side also smiled and sighed, "Head Guan, this little comrade is amazing."

"That's natural." Guan Min raised his chin proudly, "Bai Yunshang's piano sound is very contagious."

Infection, a fantasy thing, can only be understood but cannot be expressed in words, and it cannot be made up for by skilled skills.

The so-called savvy, the so-called aura, in the final analysis, all serve the appeal of the stage.

Looking at the radiant Yun Chang on the stage, Guan Min was filled with an inexplicable emotion. He was obviously very happy, but his eyes were inexplicably sour.

Chapter 604 Heart-to-heart talk

Looking at the radiant Yun Chang on the stage, Guan Min was filled with an inexplicable emotion. He was obviously very happy, but his eyes were inexplicably sour.

It is the luck of the horse that Bole discovered the Chollima, but why is it not the luck of Bole?

As the violin teacher of the Art Troupe, I can see Yunshang's talent at a glance, and boldly gave Yunshang the opportunity to let her shine the brightest on the stage. This feeling of pride is hard to describe in words.

If Yunshang is lucky enough to win a good ranking in next year's military performance, then as the Bole who discovered and insisted on giving Yunshang a chance, she will also have a bright face.

The thunderous applause from the audience interrupted Guan Min's thoughts. She stood behind the curtain, watched Yun Shang put away the violin, and saluted the audience with a standard military salute with the steel companion, and then looked at her in high spirits. come.

Guan Min immediately gave Yunshang a hug, smiling all over his face, seeing Yunshang staring at her with blinking eyes and swallowing a little, Guan Min couldn't help laughing, and patted her shoulder said:

"Don't worry! The teacher keeps his word, and I'll treat you to beef later when the show is over."

After getting the answer she wanted, the upturned corner of Yunshang's mouth deepened a bit.

Guan Min kept his word, and after the performance, he really took Yunshang to the small cafeteria to order some fried food.

It's a pity that it wasn't the sauced beef that Yunshang was thinking about, but a plate of fried beef.

Guan Min didn't put down his chopsticks until Yun Shang was almost done eating, and talked about the recent arrangements in the group.

"The troupe will start to perform in a company tomorrow. I have discussed with Captain Yang that you will be allowed to play the violin solo as long as there are performances in the past few months. After you go back, practice hard and master as many pieces as possible."

Yunshang chewed on the white steamed buns, and responded inarticulately, "Okay, I will practice the piano for one more hour every day starting tomorrow."

Guan Min was very satisfied with Yun Shang's willingness to bear hardships, and her attitude became more and more amiable, "Today's performance was good. Go back tonight and think about your performance on stage, remember this state, and maintain today's level in every performance in the future. "

Yun Chang likes to hear people praise her. Hearing what Guan Min said, she knew that her performance today was in line with Guan Min's expectations, and she immediately felt a little elated.

"Teacher Guan, don't worry, I will perform well and live up to your expectations. I will win glory for our art troupe and the military region."

As soon as the big words came out, Yun Chang immediately woke up.

It's over! What did she say?

To win glory for the art troupe? Glory to the military region? Isn't this putting herself on the wall!

As an art soldier, if she wants to win glory for the art troupe and the military region, the only way is to get a good ranking in the military art show next year. With her current level, is it possible?

In case she doesn't behave well then, deputy head Guan will have to laugh at her for bragging.

Thinking about it this way, Yun Shang was so worried that she couldn't even swallow the delicious beef in her mouth.

This bull has been blown out, how can he come back by then.

Guan Min didn't know that Yun Shang's mind was about to turn to the horizon. After talking about Yun Shang's performance, he talked about the situation of the other three people in the dormitory:

"I've observed that you took Wu Xiang to walk very close to Yao Ke and Wen Chengjie recently. This is very good. The new recruits have just arrived in the army, and you veterans need to take more of you to integrate into the group as soon as possible. It's just that there are three in your dormitory. Recruits, as veterans, you should treat them equally and not take the lead in splitting. Otherwise, when you are suitable for joining the party, these things are likely to affect the organization's judgment on you."

Yun Chang's face suddenly became serious, and she replied very seriously, "Mr. Guan, you are right to criticize, and I will correct this problem. After returning, treat the three recruits in the united dormitory equally, and help them integrate into the group as soon as possible."

Although she is also a serious recruit, she is a veteran in her information, so she should pay attention to it. If she can't join the party, the brothers and sisters at home don't know how to laugh at her.

Worried that Yun Shang only remembered the matter of bringing the recruits into the group, which would delay her piano practice, Guan Min worriedly reminded her, "We'll talk about this matter when you come back from the company. At this stage, your business is the most important thing." , and other things can be put later."

Yun Chang nodded, put down her chopsticks, got up and gave Guan Min a military salute, then sucked her nose and said, "Mr. Guan, I know you are planning for me. Don't worry, I am not a person who doesn't know what to do."

If she hadn't really taken a fancy to her, how could Guan Min, as the deputy head of the art troupe and a dignified cadre in four pockets, would mention her so much, both overtly and secretly.

She had to keep this favor in her heart, and she had to do her best to report Guan Min's kindness to her.

After returning to the dormitory at night, Yunshang participated in the bedtime sleep meeting in the dormitory for the first time. She didn't use the pretext of going to bed as usual, and entered the space to busy herself with her own affairs.

As the last person among the four to report to the troupe, but the first to perform on stage, Yunshang was dragged by the three in the dormitory to ask a lot of questions about the performance.

She patiently answered all kinds of questions raised by several people over and over again, until she had explained every detail of participating in the performance, and the three of them lay back on the bed contentedly.

Ye Li and Wu Xiang are a little better, as dancers, they will soon dance with the next company. Although they envy Yun Shang, they will not be too anxious.

On the contrary, Liu Chunmei, who was a solo performer, let out a small sob after lying on the bed.

Ye Li frowned immediately, and asked impatiently, "Liu Chunmei, the lights are going to be turned off, why are you crying so hard?" It's really bad luck.

"I'm just anxious. You can all perform on stage. The troupe hasn't arranged for me yet. Do you think the troupe is dissatisfied with me and wants to send me back?"

Liu Chunmei sobbed, raised her hand to wipe her nose, and continued in a low voice, "I'm different from you. You are all from the city, and your family background is good, so you don't have to worry about anything. I came from the village. I hope that I will be able to help my family if I am promising in the future, if the regiment sends me back, how can I have the face to see my family?"

Although everyone usually can't understand Liu Chunmei's behavior of pretending to be crazy, selling fools and stepping on others to climb up, but now hearing her very sad talk about her difficulties, they can't help feeling a little bit of pity for her.

Even Yunshang did not dislike Liu Chunmei for the first time, but patiently helped Liu Chunmei analyze her situation.

"Liu Chunmei, the troupe didn't arrange for you to perform on stage, have you ever thought that this is your own reason?"

Chapter 605 Big Fudge

"You said it yourself. You came from the village. You haven't systematically learned how to vocalize or sing. Naturally, your skills are not as good as those of the veterans in the regiment. But you have been in the regiment for almost a month. Except for group practice every morning During the morning work, did you even talk in private?

The singing instructor said that you have a problem with your voice. Have you asked the instructor or other veterans in the regiment how to vocalize after the morning class?

Do you know that these days I go out to practice the piano before morning exercises, and I can meet other soloists in the troupe practicing their voices in the practice room every day. What were you doing at that time? You are still sleeping in bed.

You said that the regiment doesn't value you and doesn't give you a chance. Based on your performance after joining the regiment, do you think the leaders should give you a chance? Those veterans in the regiment are no worse than you in terms of voice, knowledge, and diligence. If you were the leader, who would you give the chance to be on stage? "

Yun Chang's words were very blunt, Liu Chunmei's face turned pale when she heard it, and even Ye Li and Wu Xiang, who were on the side, stared for a long time and didn't know what to say.

Thinking of Yunshang getting up at five o'clock every day to practice the piano these days, the three originally thought that Yunshang was about to perform on stage, and they were under a lot of pressure, so they got up early and worked harder to avoid embarrassment after going on stage.

But they never expected that Yunshang was not alone in getting up early to practice kung fu, and many veterans in the regiment had worked as hard as Yunshang for years.

Knowing this situation, several people couldn't calm down. After a while, Wu Xiang asked, "Yunshang, is what you said true? Many people in the regiment practice morning kung fu before morning exercises?"

"Yeah." Yun Shang responded, and told a few people what she had seen in the past few days.

"The veterans in the regiment not only get up early to practice morning exercises, but even the rehearsal hall and the practice room are cleaned by the veterans every day, otherwise the rehearsal hall and the practice room will not always be kept so clean.

Also, I heard from Yao Ke that many comrades in the troupe would also help the comrades in the choreography group clean the curtains and props, organize the performance costumes, or go out to help clean the pigsty, and some people took time to help the cooking class. In short, we art soldiers are also soldiers, and our tasks can be leisurely, but people can't really relax. "

Ye Li was dumbfounded when he heard that, and asked curiously, "Then we all went to help others, how can we have time to practice?"

Before Yunshang could answer, Wu Xiang sighed and said, "This kind of thing depends on self-awareness, and time is up to you. Yunshang told us this because he wanted us to get up early and practice morning exercises. It doesn't matter whether you improve your business level or help clean the rehearsal room, in short, you can't be as lazy as before."

Wu Xiang is so transparent,

Yun Chang was very satisfied, and felt that this little girl was almost half as clever as her.

"Wu Xiang is right. Since you are in the army, you are a soldier, and you must look like a soldier in every word and deed."

Yunshang said, turned her head, and said to Liu Chunmei earnestly, "Liu Chunmei, didn't you say that the whole family pointed at you to get along well in the army, can you help the family in the future? Have you ever thought about how to do it?" Is it a good mix?"

"Join the party and be promoted." Liu Chunmei said firmly.

"Hey~!" Ye Li laughed disdainfully, and said with his lips curled up, "Let's think about whether you can perform on stage first! Do you really think it's so easy to join the party?"

Yun Shang: "..."

Ye Li is really a mouthful!

Liu Chunmei was so stunned by Ye Li's words that she couldn't speak for a long time, she wanted to get angry, but she didn't have the guts to tear Ye Li face to face, so she turned around angrily, and lay down facing the wall.

Ye Li usually showed off her family background in front of Liu Chunmei. She would tell her about the alleys and taverns in Shenshi, the beautiful European-style buildings near the river, and the bustling No. 1 Department Store. Of course, the words will naturally point out the powerful relatives in her family.

Facing the 'profound' family background deliberately created by Ye Li, Liu Chunmei would naturally show timidity, otherwise she would not be slapped in the face, and would not even dare to say a word of rebuttal.

Yun Shang sighed secretly, ignored Ye Li, and continued to say to Liu Chunmei, "Liu Chunmei, if you want to join the party and be promoted, you must first figure out what the criteria for joining the party are. Look at the party members in our regiment. Li is willing to help others and make selfless dedication. He regards himself as a brick and a person who moves wherever it is needed. Either he is a top business person with good business ability, seriousness, hard work, and hard work.

If you want to join the party and be promoted, you have to strictly demand yourself according to this standard. Not to mention anything else, get up at five o'clock every morning, help clean the rehearsal hall or practice vocals, you can always do these things, right? Everyone's daily performance can be seen in the organization. As long as you make progress steadily, the organization will not let down your dedication and hard work. "

Liu Chunmei realized. Turning over and looking at Yunshang, she whispered, "I know, I will get up early every morning to practice my voice, and strive to perform on stage earlier."

Yun Chang wiped the sweat that didn't exist on her forehead, and she was really relieved.

Now, Liu Chunmei has the hope of joining the party and being promoted. From now on, she will only work in the regiment all day long or practice exercises to show to the leaders, so that she won't be jumping up and down all day to make trouble for others.

Guan Min asked her to bring the three girls in the same dormitory with her, but Ye Li and Liu Chunmei were arrogant and vain, and the other was narrow-minded.

Not to mention whether she can carry these two heavy things, if she runs over excitedly to help others, but is accidentally tricked, then she really has no place to cry.

Just these two little girls with the potential to be white-eyed wolves, even if she wants to bring newcomers, she has to find a way to drag them away, and hang a carrot in front of them to let them go forward by themselves.

This not only completes the task assigned by Guan Min, but also finds something for these two restless guys to do, preventing them from fighting and fighting all day long.

After solving Liu Chunmei's problem, Yun Shang rubbed her sour cheeks again, and looked at Ye Li, who was humming a little tune with her legs crossed diagonally across from her.

Fortunately, this is really silly and sweet, so foolish.

Yun Shang cleared her throat, and asked Ye Li with the appearance of a caring big sister, "Ye Li, you can also be on stage now, what are your plans in the future?"

"What's the plan?" Ye Li was stunned for a moment, "Isn't it just dancing and participating in the performance, I can be on stage now."

Yun Shang was speechless for a while, and continued to ask, "Aside from participating in the performance? Dancing is a youthful meal, what if you can't dance anymore?"

With Ye Li's temperament, joining the party and being a leader is out of the question. When the age comes, there is only one way to recover.

Chapter 606 The So-Called Good Husband

Ye Li also knew what kind of virtue he was, and he didn't say that he wanted to join the party. He yawned delicately and said vaguely, "I know what you mean. I've thought about it a long time ago. Find a good husband and marry me, so I can stay in the army."

Yun Shang knew that the so-called 'good husband' standard in Ye Li's mouth must at least be the son of the head of the army. Even if there are more wolves and less flesh, and you can't be the chief's daughter-in-law, you still have to find a job and a decent position to marry.

If it doesn't work, find those young officers in the army who have not yet emerged, who are highly valued by the leaders and have promising futures.

This is also the main reason why a few girls in the art troupe still have a good impression of Gu Shinian after Yunshang deliberately released the news that Gu Shinian's family background is ordinary and he has no background.

The twenty-two-year-old company commander is still the company commander of the special forces. Even if he comes from an average family background, his own abilities and qualifications are enough for him to have a good future in the army.

What's more, Gu Shinian's appearance is really good, even just looking at his face, there are many girls with love brains who are willing to 'marry'.

Yunshang grew up in the compound of the military region, and she often heard Lin Wenlan talk about the art troupe on weekdays. Through Lin Wenlan's narration, Yunshang found that many girls in the art troupe seemed to think this way, and also regarded getting married during the art troupe as a best way out.

After all, the art troupe is a place where youth eats. If they can't arrange the rest of their lives while their aura is in full swing, they will be no different from other ordinary city girls when they are discharged from the army and their aura of being a soldier fades away.

It is said that getting married is a woman's second reincarnation. The same group of art soldiers who enlisted in the army are all good-looking, but their prospects after a few years are very different.

Some people can marry into the chief executive's family, some can marry a good job officer, and some can marry a potential stock, but the rest can only care for their husband and raise their children in the cramped life circle of their hometown.

Who can be reconciled?

Ye Li thought so, even though Yun Shang disagreed, she didn't have any thoughts of looking down on her.

In fact, many highly educated women in later generations, even though they also have the ability to take care of themselves, are influenced by the environment and family, and they will still choose to marry a good family to gain a foothold in society, just like the dodder.

Yun Chang's thoughts drifted away for a while, and she didn't speak for a long time.

Wu Xiang on the side put forward a different opinion, "I think it is more reliable to stay in the army through joining the party. Think about it, we are soldiers recruited by the army in a serious way. Only by getting married can we stay in the army superior,

In the future, you will have to bow your head down. Not even a job. In the future, I can only stay at home to take care of my husband and children, and circle around the pot all day.

Instead of this, it is better to change jobs and go to work in a local area, at least to have a decent job.

Ye Li curled his lips, disapproving of Wu Xiang's words, "That's because you didn't find the right husband! If I want to marry, I have to marry the head of the house, and I have a nanny to do the food and laundry, so I don't need to go around the pot. ."

Yun Shang was speechless, stared at Ye Li silently for a long time, and asked quietly, "There are so many people in the art troupe. You are not the most beautiful girl in the troupe, nor are you the most conspicuous lead dancer on the stage. How good it is to be able to see you at a glance in the middle of a group of dancers who can't tell the difference between eyebrows and eyes?"

Even if he has surprisingly good eyesight and sees you in the crowd, but there are girls around who are prettier and better than you, why should the son of the Chief Chief take a look at you? "

Seeing Ye Li's unconvinced face and wanting to refute, Yun Shang continued to ask, "You want to say that you will approach the children of the Chief Chief's family in private? Have you ever thought that there are many people in the regiment who hold the same love as you?" A thoughtful person. You are not more beautiful than others, and your business ability is not better than others. Even if you want to choose the child of the chief executive's family, you should choose the best one. What do you use to compete with others?"

Ye Li was silent.

I don't know how long it took before Ye Li turned over and asked in a hesitant tone, "Yunshang, you said... If I can't marry the Chief Chief's family, can I find a husband with a high position? Or find a promising young man?" Officer, it's like... just like Company Commander Gu."

Yun Shang: "...!!!"

Yun Shang almost spat out a mouthful of old blood, but when he realized it, the sharp knife almost pierced Ye Li into a blood gourd.

I'm trying my best to motivate you here, but you're secretly poking behind my back to tear me down?

Go dreaming!

See if I can scare you to death!

"Don't even think about it!"

Yun Shang's cold words were like a basin of ice water, pouring down on Ye Li's forehead.

"No one is a fool. The two types of people you mentioned, even if they want to find a literary soldier, they will also find someone who can join the party and be promoted and stay in the army to work in the future. In this way, the couple can earn wages together and live together. It can also be more relaxed.

You can't join the party and get promoted. Even if you stay in the army through marriage, you can only be an ordinary military wife and hang around the pot all day long. "

"Also, the so-called potential stock husband you selected may shoulder the heavy responsibility of supporting a large family! Two-thirds of your monthly salary must be sent back to support your family, and the remaining one-third is for you to live on. Expenses. If there are a few comrades who died or were injured and retired, he will have to send some money to the comrades' families every few months.

You are from Dashen City, your family conditions are good, and you have no shortage of food and clothing since you were a child. Can you survive this kind of tight search life? "

When Yun Shang said these words, not only Ye Li was shocked, but even Wu Xiang and Liu Chunmei were shocked.

Before, they always listened to the female soldiers in the regiment discuss which staff officer had a high salary, which officer was a civilian, and which young officer had a bright future and was worth considering as a marriage partner.

But they have never thought about what kind of life they will live in the future if they really marry these so-called 'good husbands'.

At this moment, Yunshang tore off the veil, and described in detail the realistic and cruel daily life after marriage, which made these young girls a little more calm about those unrealistic married life, and less Very naive longing.

Ye Li was shocked by the cruel reality. After a long time, she sat up and slapped the quilt, "From tomorrow onwards, I will get up early to practice morning exercises! I want to join the party and be promoted. You must stay in the army in the future! Yunshang! You must call me when you get up in the morning!"

Yunshang suppressed the corners of her mouth that were constantly upturned, and encouraged her sincerely, "It's right to think so. First, improve your professional ability, and when you join the party and get promoted, maybe the children of the chief executive's family can do it at a glance. I fell in love with you. At that time, you will have a job yourself, and you will marry a decent family, so great."

Chapter 607: The Lower Company

To deal with Ye Li, you have to draw her big cakes that are fragrant and round, and make her feel that if she doesn't work hard, she will have to live in poverty, so that she can calm down and think about various ways to improve.

As long as Liu Chunmei and Ye Li are dealt with, so that they don't have time or dare to wander around and make trouble, her task of leading the recruits to progress together will be considered complete.

As for Wu Xiang, she is a good girl who is diligent and motivated, and there is no need for Yunshang to go out of her way to encourage her.

After a straight-to-heart talk, Liu Chunmei and Ye Li seemed to have been beaten to death, completely changed people. Get up early every day, wash up like a competition, and run to the regiment to scramble to find a job.

These two people were too diligent and motivated, and rushed to do all the work of the veterans in the regiment, which caused the unknowing veterans to praise the quality of this year's recruits.

Starting from New Year's Day, Yunshang performed with the members of the troupe every day, and then counted the days on her fingers to see when it would be the turn of the Tiger Company that Gu Shinian was in.

Fortunately, the Yicheng military division is not large, Yunshang only stayed up for a week, and the art troupe went to the Tiger Company's garrison collectively.

Probably the reason for the newly formed company, the living and training conditions of the Tiger Company resident are very simple. The barracks training camp is built on the hillside, the red bricks are exposed, and small drops of water can still be seen on the walls.

The canteen is not very big, there are only a dozen large round tables in the empty room, just enough to squeeze the entire company.

The stage for the art troupe to perform at night was set up in front of the small cafeteria. Below it was a large wooden box containing military supplies neatly stacked, and a layer of thick wooden boards was laid on it to become a temporary stage.

The small canteen has become a temporary dressing room for the cast and crew.

When Yunshang got out of the car, she looked towards the green ocean opposite, and with just one glance, she saw Gu Shinian standing at the front.

It's not that Yun Chang has sharp eyes, it's that Gu Shinian's appearance is too good, standing out from the crowd as if he stands out from the crowd, it's too conspicuous.

The teacher who led the team shouted "Assemble" as soon as they got out of the car, Yunshang waved to Gu Shinian from a distance, hugged the violin, and quickly stood in his place.

Just when the leading teacher recounted the performance process again, Gu Shinian had already brought Kong Changzheng over, and was discussing with Head Yang about the evening performance by the car.

Yun Shang clearly felt that after Gu Shinian walked over,

There was a small commotion in the ranks behind.

Even Yao Ke, who had seen Gu Shinian by his side, couldn't help poking Yun Shang's arm, and asked with admiration, "Yun Shang, what does Company Commander Gu's partner look like? Listen, the regiment This group of people are so anxious to swallow!"

Fortunately, Company Commander Gu has a partner, otherwise, the girls in the regiment would have rushed over.

Yun Chang raised her brows and raised her chin, "Just like me! How about it, isn't it a good match?"

The Chinese New Year will be one month away, and after the New Year's Eve, she will be seventeen years old, and she can barely make a love report.

Now is a good time to scare Yao Ke, lest she be as dull as the old lady all day long.

Sure enough, Yao Ke's face was so frightened by Yun Shang's bold words that he almost covered her mouth with his hand, "Don't talk nonsense! Then Company Commander Gu has a date, so you can't talk nonsense!"

It's not uncommon to fall in love secretly in art troupes. As long as no one reports and exposes it, nothing will happen.

But this guy Yunshang is clearly talking nonsense!

Then Company Commander Gu and her have grown up together since they were young. Besides, everyone has a partner. If Yun Shang's words are spread, will his reputation still be lost?

Even if no one laughed at her, what if it got to the leader's ears? At least one punishment cannot escape!

Yun Shang didn't know Yao Ke's concerns, so she turned to Yao Ke with a smile on her side, and asked, "Sister Yao Ke, you should first say whether you are a good match or not."

Yao Ke fixed his eyes on Yunshang's bright eyebrows, and then turned his head to look at Gu Shinian who was not far away. Even though he thought Yunshang and Gu Shinian were impossible in his heart, he had to admit that the two people were very different from their appearance. From the looks of it, it really couldn't be more suitable.

"Good match. That's what I don't dare to talk nonsense in the future. If it is spread, I will be punished."

Yun Chang blinked, said "oh", stood up straight, and listened to the mutterings of other people in the group:

"Then it's the company commander Gu who came down from the air, right? Sure enough... he looks good-looking!"

"What's the use of looking good? I don't think it's as majestic as Deputy Company Commander Kong next to me!"

"He's good-looking and capable, so why is it useless? If there is no support from Mr. Kong, can you see if Deputy Company Commander Kong is still awe-inspiring?"

"Exactly! It's been a few months, and Deputy Company Commander Kong is so imposing, why hasn't he become a company commander yet?"

...

Liu Chunmei opened her mouth, stared at Gu Shinian in a daze, and after listening to the discussions of the people around her, she finally realized that the handsome man in front of her was the legendary Company Commander Gu.

Especially seeing Gu Shinian turning his head to look at Yun Shang in the team from time to time, smiling tenderly and dotingly, Liu Chunmei's heart beat uncontrollably and crazily.

She has never seen such a good-looking man since she was a child!

No wonder the female soldiers in the regiment took such good care of Yun Shang on weekdays. With such a good-looking company commander Gu hanging in front, who wouldn't want to have a good relationship with Yun Shang.

Liu Chunmei clutched her chest, which was jumping too fast, and looked at Yunshang with burning eyes.

This is her chance!

As long as you coax Yunshang well and let Yunshang say a few good words for her in front of Company Commander Gu, this handsome officer with a bright future might belong to her.

What happened to the general family background? She still came from the countryside.

She didn't dare to think about the position of the chief's daughter-in-law, but for a young military officer like Gu Shinian who came from an ordinary family background, she was still qualified to compete.

Liu Chunmei took a deep breath, and was about to say something to Yun Shang in front of her, but she saw Captain Yang beckoning in this direction, and then Yun Chang ran over like a little rabbit.

Yun Shang is really happy now.

The troupe has been really busy recently, and she has not seen Gu Shinian for almost ten days.

If it weren't for the concern that this is the company's resident, Yun Chang would have asked for hugs and kisses as soon as she came over.

"Second Brother Gu! You haven't watched me recently." Yun Shang pouted and complained dissatisfiedly, "I have a performance every day recently, and you haven't watched it once."

There was a smile in the corner of Gu Shinian's eyes, and the hand hanging by his side tightened, he couldn't hold it back, and raised his hand to rub Yun Shang's head under the eyes of everyone.

"Hey, the second brother must watch carefully today, and I will cheer for you from the bottom."

Yun Chang nodded, and turned to look at Kong Changzheng, who was watching the interaction between the two in a daze, with as much disgust as he wanted on his face.

This person is too blind to see, doesn't he know how to avoid it?

Chapter 608: Obstacle

Kong Changzheng wasn't so stupid, he quickly found an excuse to slip away under Yun Shang's continuous slams.

The smile in Gu Shinian's eyes deepened, he raised his wrist to check the time, and took Yunshang to the direction of the barracks, "I asked someone to prepare delicious food for you in the morning. Let's go, there is still time, I will take you Go and have a taste."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up immediately, rubbed her still swollen belly, and asked, "What's delicious?"

"Beef dumplings." Gu Shinian did not forget to drag her to avoid the small puddles on the ground while speaking, "I made about a hundred of them, I will taste them first, and let the rest be eaten slowly later ."

What Gu Shinian didn't say was that he spent a whole morning making these dumplings slowly.

For this dumpling meal, he spent all his time in the cafeteria after work these days.

From making dumpling wrappers to adjusting stuffing, I learned everything from the canteen master stumbled.

It's a pity that the chef in the cafeteria is from the south, and his skill in making dumplings is a bit poor, and the stuffing of dumplings is also not adjusted to the right taste.

After all, the beef dumplings made by Aunt Wu at home are delicious, and Yunshang loved to eat this since she was a child. If the taste of his dumplings is too bad, let alone whether Yunshang can eat it, even he himself is not happy with Yunshang Eat leftovers.

In desperation, Gu Shinian could only do it himself, adjusting the dumpling stuffing over and over again, just to make out the flavor that Yun Shang loved to eat.

The consequence of this was that Gu Shinian spent half of his monthly allowance on beef. The scrapped beef stuffing is all cheaper than the old men in the company. Coaxed those soldiers who didn't know the truth to say that Company Commander Gu was righteous and even paid for their food improvement at their own expense, everyone was so moved that they wished they could give their lives to the training ground.

Yun Chang really missed the beef dumplings made by Aunt Wu.

When I was at home, I could eat beef dumplings made by Aunt Wu every Chinese New Year.

Even though she had been in Hong Kong City for three years, the first meal she ate after returning to Linyang was still juicy beef dumplings.

Looking at the table full of white and fat dumplings at this moment, even though Yun Shang is not hungry, she still swallows uncontrollably.

There was a small stove in Gu Shinian's dormitory that could heat hot water. Yun Shang felt that the stove was too small, so she simply asked Gu Shinian to close the door, and entered the space with the table and cooked a bowl full of dumplings on the induction cooker.

The dumplings made by Gu Shinian are big.

Yun Chang froze her head and ate a dozen or so and couldn't take it anymore. Her little face was rosy and hot, and small beads of sweat were still oozing from the tip of her nose. She was so cute.

"Second brother Gu, your canteen masters are really skilled, you are almost catching up with Aunt Wu." Yun Shang reluctantly glanced at the leftover dumplings in the bowl, rubbed her belly, and pushed the bowl to Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian didn't dislike it, took the bowl, and asked while eating, "Is it delicious? I learned how to make dumplings from the canteen master, and I also made the dumpling fillings myself."

"You made it?" Yun Shang's eyeballs almost popped out. Seeing Gu Shinian nodding, he stretched out his hand to squeeze a dumpling from the bowl and ate it. He raised his thumb and boasted firmly, "It's delicious! Second Brother Gu, this is the best dumpling I've ever eaten, even better than Aunt Wu's!"

Gu Shinian: "..."

This girl's voice changed really quickly, and now he made better buns than Aunt Wu.

However, with this compliment, he can often make dumplings for her in the future.

"Second Brother Gu, why do you really want to learn how to make dumplings?"

Yun Chang endured it for a long time, but still couldn't help asking.

Tiger Company is a newly formed company, even if you don't ask, Yun Shang knows how busy Gu Shinian is on weekdays. Where did he find the time and leisure to learn how to make dumplings?

Besides, Gu Shinian is not a greedy person, how come he wants to learn how to cook?

Gu Shinian swallowed the last dumpling, motioned for Yunshang to take him out of the space, and then dragged her to sit down at the desk and asked, "A Chang, can you cook?"

Yun Chang shook her head, paused, and nodded again, "I can cook dumplings, croquettes and porridge, but I can't stir-fry vegetables."

"Ah Chang, I will learn more of your favorite dishes from the cafeteria master in the future. We will get married in a year, and the couple must live at home with one person who can cook. If you always eat in the cafeteria, your nutrition will not be able to keep up." People will laugh at the hostess for being unvirtuous.

Yun Shang: "..."

Second Brother Gu, is he determined to be a housewife?

Also, she won't be seventeen in more than a month. Brother Gu is now worrying about life after marriage, isn't it a bit...too beastly?

Gu Shinian didn't know that his image in Yun Shang's heart was about to collapse, so he pulled up a chair and sat opposite Yun Shang, and told her about his next plan with a serious face.

"A-Shang, you will be seventeen after this year. I will take time to go back to see Uncle Bai in a few days, and I will make a love report when I come back. Also, the company's resident will build a family area for the New Year. After we get married, there will be place to live..."

Yun Shang was stunned, her eyelids couldn't stop jumping, she felt that she almost didn't know Gu Shinian anymore.

Counting the days, hoping that she would grow up quickly, I will not talk about it, but she can still put down her face to learn how to cook from the canteen master to prepare for the day after marriage, and now she has even thought about where she will live after marriage. People are simply bewildered.

For the time being, Yun Shang, who only wants to fall in love and doesn't want to get married, doesn't know how to deal with these things Gu Shinian said, so he had to divert his attention, "Second brother Gu, it's getting late, don't you go to the company to watch the show?" something?"

How could Gu Shinian not see that Yun Shang was changing the subject, he frowned slightly, but after all he didn't say anything, he dragged her up, lowered his head and kissed her forehead, and led her to the cafeteria.

When the two arrived at the cafeteria, the dance team was busy setting up the curtain scene, and many resident soldiers were helping.

In the cafeteria lobby, the female soldiers were playing and laughing at each other and putting makeup on each other. The voice spread out, attracting many stationed soldiers to lean over with red ears and necks.

Gu Shinian sent Yun Shang to the entrance of the cafeteria and left in a hurry. Yun Shang slipped into the cafeteria against the wall, trying to find a place to put on makeup, but was stopped in a blink of an eye.

"Bai Yunshang! Did you go to visit the station with Company Commander Gu just now?" Yunshang turned her head and recognized that the questioner was calling her in the rehearsal hall and introducing her to the dancers of Team A whom the people in the group knew.

Probably because the word "Company Commander Gu" was too powerful, the attention of the female soldiers around who had a good impression of Gu Shinian was suddenly attracted, and all of them looked at Yunshang with sparkling eyes.

Being stared at by so many beautiful young ladies, Yun Shang couldn't help but feel a little hairy, and quickly took out a handful of dried fruit from his pocket, and replied, "No, Second Brother Gu took me to get snacks."

Chapter 609 Applause to Death

"Yunshang, I heard that Company Commander Gu has a date, is it true?"

Obviously, these girls are not interested in the dried fruit in Yunshang's hands, they are more interested in Gu Shinian's personal problems.

Yun Chang glanced at the female soldier who was asking questions behind the crowd, the smile on her face faded a bit, she nodded, and said in a serious tone, "It's true, Company Commander Gu will make a love report to the organization after he has been busy for a while "Gu Shinian is a man with a master, don't worry about any of you!

The faces of the female soldiers around showed obvious disappointment, and soon a voice from the crowd asked, "Hey Yunshang, have you seen Company Commander Gu's partner, what does his partner do?"

Yun Chang thought for a while, then nodded honestly, "Yes, Company Commander Gu's target is also a literary soldier."

Well, it looks pretty good.

Yun Chang silently added in her heart.

"It's also a literary soldier." A thin female voice came from the crowd, with a faintly excited tone, "So, Company Commander Gu does not reject dating the literary soldier, and he hasn't made a love report yet..."

The following words were not finished, but everyone present heard what she wanted to say.

If you don't reject dating the art soldiers, it means that these art soldiers in the art troupe have opportunities.

There is no love report with the organization yet, which also means that on the bright side, Gu Shinian is still single. Before he makes a love report, everyone still has a chance to take down this handsome young officer without making mistakes.

After realizing this, some lively female soldiers immediately pulled Yunshang, eager to help her put on makeup, and someone stuffed a military kettle filled with hot water to warm Yunshang's hands. Basically, everyone has the goal of establishing a good relationship with Yun Shang, so that she can say something nice to them in front of Gu Shinian.

Yun Chang's face turned dark, and even the sweet dried fruit in her mouth had a sour taste.

This group of people, coveting her object in front of her, really think she is dead?

Looking back, when Gu Shinian made a love report, she must go around in front of them one by one, and she must be ashamed of these people!

Just when Yunshang was surrounded by a group of people and couldn't get away, Wen Chengjie came in from the outside with a trumpet, pushed through the crowd and pulled Yunshang out, "You are back! Come on, Yao Ke and Wu Xiang are waiting I'm doing your makeup."

"Thank you! I almost got eaten by the dance team." Yun Shang patted Wen Chengjie's arm and said with a look of fear.

"Hi~! Which one of us is with who!" Wen Chengjie rolled his peach blossom eyes, squinted his eyes and moved to Yunshang, sucking his saliva, "If you really want to thank me, I will share half of the dried fruit in your pocket. You I know, I like this one."

If it wasn't for the dried fruit in your pocket, I wouldn't be able to risk being beaten by the dance team female soldiers to rescue you from their clutches.

After knowing each other for a month, Yunshang naturally understood how greedy Wen Chengjie was, and immediately stuffed all the dried fruits in his pocket into Wen Chengjie's hands, and stuffed him with a few pieces of chocolate when he was done.

"Wen Chengjie, help me pay attention to their movements today. Don't let those people approach my second brother Gu. I'll give you a bottle of meat sauce when I go back."

"Really?" Wen Chengjie's eyes lit up, and he drooled, "Okay! Leave it to me! Take care of your second brother Gu."

I don't know how the sauce in Bai Yunshang's hand was made.

The red oil is fragrant, and there are shiitake mushrooms and small diced meat in it. When eating, dig a spoonful and pour it on the hot rice, not to mention how fragrant it is.

Ever since he got acquainted with Yunshang and got acquainted quickly, Wen Chengjie often came to Yunshang to eat, and the most appetizing ones were these meat sauces for dinner.

Yun Chang glanced at Wen Chengjie up and down, and leaned to the side in disgust, "You are really promising! You are such an adult, and you can still drool greedily, tsk!"

The people inside were busy making the final preparations before the performance, and the officers and soldiers stationed outside also sat down in order, stretching their necks and waiting to watch the performance.

Kong Changzheng took a look at the performance list for a long time, then suddenly stretched out his elbow and poked Gu Shinian, and asked in surprise, "I said, Xiao Gu, our kid is going to perform a violin solo? I thought the kid was The band accompanies..."

"Who is with your family?" Gu Shinian tilted Kong Changzheng, and turned back shamelessly, "That's my A-shang, what does it have to do with you?"

"Why not? The comrades-in-arms of our Tiger Company are all brothers, and we are brothers. Isn't your child also my child? Tsk, I said Xiao Gu, you are good at everything, but you are too out of touch. gone."

Gu Shinian glanced at Kong Changzheng like he was looking at a stick, and said, "Other things, I can keep away from you. It's about my child, so I have to keep away from you."

Kong Changzheng's two eyebrows were almost twisted into earthworms. Seeing that he couldn't understand Gu Shinian, he rubbed his teeth and turned around to harass the instructor.

"Instructor, tell the bastards in the company, the third program is the violin solo of the little Gu family children, and everyone will applaud to death!"

Gu Shinian: "... This big stick!

However, thinking that the beneficiary of everyone doing this is Yun Shang, Gu Shinian still pretended not to hear Kong Changzheng's words.

Anyway, the little girl in his family is really good at playing the violin and deserves the applause.

The deputy company commander had spoken, and he was about to applaud the children of the company commander's family desperately later, and the rough guys in the company cheered up one by one, waiting for Yunshang to appear on the stage, ready to overwhelm her with the warmest applause.

After all, eating people has a soft mouth, and eating so much beef from the company commander, of course he has to find a way to return it back.

Besides, isn't it just applause, no matter how hard you try, you will get red hands at most, what a big deal.

So, when the first two programs were finished and the announcer announced Yun Shang's program and name in a mechanical tone, the applause roared like a gust of wind.

Caught off guard, but extremely enthusiastic, even the mechanical voice of the announcer was so frightened that it was a little out of tune.

Amidst the unusually enthusiastic applause, Yun Shang entered the stage with a dazed expression.

The little girl stood on the stage and gave everyone a standard military salute generously. Her little face was rosy and tender, and when her dark eyes looked towards the middle of the stage, she subconsciously smiled. It's like the delicate flower buds on the branches in spring, suddenly blooming to the extreme, stunning and shocking.

There was a slight smile on the corner of Gu Shinian's mouth, and he looked at Yun Shang on the stage with gentle and focused eyes, his eyes were full of pride and encouragement.

Even though I saw Yun Shang playing the violin on stage in my whole life, when the relationship between the two changed and she stood on the shabby stage, wearing the simplest military uniform, smiling at him in the audience, Gu Shinian's The heart was still beating wildly uncontrollably.

Chapter 610 Do you still want beef sauce?

At this moment, the smile on her face was the most beautiful costume, the shabby stage, and the plain military uniform, which did not hide her elegance at all, but instead had a strange beauty of contrast.

Yun Shang still performed the cheerful minority song. As soon as the prelude started, the rough guys who didn't know art under the leadership of Kong Changzheng beat the rhythm with chaotic and loud applause.

Yun Shang on the stage was almost amused.

Is this Kong Changzheng trying to exaggerate the atmosphere for her, or is he here to make trouble?

If it wasn't for her own steady rhythm, she might have been led astray by the chaotic rhythm of the gang below.

However, the piano accompaniment next to it seems... is it a little bit off?

Yun Chang held back her laughter, tapped her toes, and gave the steel partner the rhythm one by one, trying to pull back the rhythm of his deviation.

Attracted by the warm atmosphere on and off the stage before, several female soldiers hid behind the curtain to watch the excitement. Seeing that the atmosphere of the scene was so lively, and seeing that the rhythm of the steel companions was distracted by the audience, they all snickered at the same time. , I am also very envious.

Everyone is not a fool. Looking at Gu Shinian who was sitting at the front of the stage, he naturally knew why the atmosphere of the scene was so good after Yun Shang came on stage.

This is Yunshang's natural advantage, and no one in the group envies it.

A few minutes later, Yun Shang ended with a gorgeous and complicated tune, and the performance ended perfectly with thunderous applause.

Gu Shinian got up calmly and walked backstage. Sure enough, as soon as he walked along the corner of the stage to the entrance of the cafeteria, Yun Shang hurried out from inside.

Her face was flushed, with a smile that couldn't help but smile. The moment he saw him, his eyes suddenly lit up, and his bright black pupils shone brightly under the light.

"Second brother Gu! How about it, am I very good? Am I even better than before!"

Gu Shinian stepped in front of Yun Chang with a few steps, his throat trembled, his hands clenched into fists behind his back, resisting the urge to hug her, and praised her very positively: "It's amazing! It's better than any time you've ever been on stage before." You pulled it well!"

Yun Shang knew that when Gu Shinian was talking about going on stage, she was referring to the activities she participated in in her previous life.

However, what Gu Shinian said was correct, after learning the violin for another three years in Hong Kong City, she is indeed much better at the technical level than in her previous life.

performed better than before,

It is also normal.

Thinking of the officers and soldiers in the audience helping her beat the beat before, Yunshang asked amusedly and angrily, "Second brother Gu, did Kong Changzheng arrange for someone to applaud me? That's too bad! He took the lead in beating the beat and knocked my The rhythm of the steel companion has gone astray!"

Speaking of this, Gu Shinian also showed embarrassment on his face, put his fist on his lips and coughed dryly, and nodded uncomfortably, "Old Kong is messing around, I will punish him later to vent your anger."

It's up to him too. If he came forward to ask the people in the company to restrain themselves, the big guys would not follow Kong Changzheng and applaud blindly, almost ruining Yunshang's position.

Fortunately, his family's A-Shang was stable and did not cause any accidents during the performance.

The previous performance was still going on. As the company commander, Gu Shinian couldn't leave for a long time, so he hurriedly told Yun Shang a few words, and turned back to the auditorium.

Yun Shang happily went backstage to remove her makeup, and ran into Wen Chengjie head-on.

After the performance, Wen Chengjie was about to go to the edge of the stage and guard the passage from the backstage to the auditorium to see which female soldiers in the regiment ran forward.

"Okay, a bottle of beef sauce!" Worried that Yun Shang would regret it, Wen Chengjie went to Yun Shang to emphasize it before leaving.

Yun Chang nodded, and then emphasized, "I won't lie to you, a bottle of beef sauce. Keep me safe, and I'll ask someone to put a lot of beef for you!"

Wen Chengjie was satisfied, and went out energetically like a fighter who was about to enter the arena. His arrogant and gorgeous walking posture had the aura of being in charge of one's husband.

At eight o'clock in the evening, the show officially ends. Yun Shang took another look at Gu Shinian who was in the audience when she took the stage for the curtain call, and didn't find a chance to talk to him alone until she returned to the group.

As soon as Wen Chengjie got out of the car, he searched for Yunshang all over the yard. Seeing her walking in front with Yao Ke and Wu Xiang, he hurried to catch up. After coughing twice, Yunshang understood and slowed down.

"How is it? Is there anyone going to the front at night?"

"Yes, not old or young." Wen Chengjie pursed his lips and clicked his tongue, "I can't tell, that Company Commander Gu is quite popular. Isn't it because he looks better..."

"Is my second brother Gu better-looking? He is obviously so much better-looking than everyone else! He still has skills, isn't it normal to be popular?"

Yun Shang coldly interrupted Wen Chengjie, and threatened him openly after the incident, "What are you talking about! Do you still want beef sauce?"

As a foodie, Wen Chengjie interpreted the word "Second Counseling" very well. Almost the moment Yun Shang's words fell, his disgusted and jealous face instantly turned into a complimenting one, and he followed Yun Shang's words to praise Gu Shinian in a very spineless manner.

"Yes, yes, yes, you are right! Company Commander Gu is indeed much prettier than the others. He has the ability to surpass Kong Longzheng at a young age and secure the position of Company Commander. He is so capable! He ...Your second brother Gu deserves to be popular, those female soldiers in the regiment are so discerning!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Do the female soldiers in the regiment have eyesight? ? ?

Why does this sound so shocking.

Yun Chang looked back at the stupid and cute Wen Chengjie, the expression on his face was indescribable, "Wen Chengjie, although you are flattering my second brother Gu, I still want to regret not giving you the beef sauce."

"Don't!" Wen Chengjie was in a hurry, and stopped Yunshang, "You want me to guard Company Commander Gu for you, and I will, but you want me to praise Company Commander Gu out of conscience, and I did too. How can you say nothing? , Temporary repentance?"

unacceptable!

Aren't you all close friends? Deprivation of the food that fans rely on for survival will result in retribution.

The violin in Yunshang's hand almost fell on Wen Chengjie's forehead, and he asked him almost grinding his molars, "What did you just say? Praising Company Commander Gu without conscience?"

Wen Chengjie: "..."! ! !

It's over, what did I say?

This is really over, the beef sauce is completely out of play.

"Well, Yunshang, don't you want to know who went to look for Company Commander Gu at night?"

Yun Chang let out an angry "hum", pressed her chin down slightly, and said, "Tell me, who are they all?"

"There are three from the dance team and one from the singing team. By the way, that person is Liu Chunmei from your dormitory."

Wen Chengjie smiled gloatingly, "I originally wanted to stop these people, but then they slipped out from the opposite side. But I saw that Lianchang Gu was quite honest, and when he went to the bathroom in the middle, he was stopped by someone, and he stopped him without saying a word." Hurry up and run away."
