Chapter 611 Irony

Yun Shang has absolute trust in Gu Shinian, knowing that he will definitely not talk to the female soldiers in the regiment.

If Wen Chengjie was to stay outside, he just wanted to know who really shamelessly attacked Gu Shinian.

It's just that she never expected that there would be Liu Chunmei among these people.

It was clear that Liu Chunmei had vowed before that she would join the party and be promoted, that she would work hard to stay in the army, that she would have a great future, and that she would bring glory to her family. As a result, in the blink of an eye, he forgot about his bright future and, like a loser, imitated the old soldier's violation of discipline and ran out to hook up with the officers and soldiers stationed there.

Didn't she think about her situation before doing these things?

A good soloist, because of her voice problem, she has been unable to perform on stage for a long time. If the leader of the regiment knows that she is not focused on improving her professional ability, but instead focuses on hooking up with the garrison officers, what future will she have in the future?

Seeing that Yunshang didn't speak, Wen Chengjie was inexplicably flustered. He poked Yunshang's arm with a trumpet, and said worriedly, "Hey! Bai Yunshang, I've already told you, your company commander Gu didn't pay attention to them, don't you. When you are in a hurry, you forget about my beef sauce."

Yun Shang "... This foodie!

Just about to speak, Wen Chengjie continued, "Let me tell you, some people in the regiment wanted to talk to Company Commander Gu, and others wanted to talk to Deputy Company Commander Kong. As a result, none of your company commander Gu Reasonable, what Deputy Company Commander Kong is talking about is in full swing, very lively! Look, compared to Deputy Company Commander Kong, how much better is your Company Commander Gu?"

Yun Chang frowned, and looked at Wen Chengjie with an indescribable expression on his face, "My Company Commander Gu?"

"That's right!" Wen Chengjie pursed his lips and clicked his tongue, "You really think my eyes are just a display! You have shown it so clearly, if I can't see it again, what is the difference between me and a fool?"

After concealing the matter for more than a month, Wen Chengjie told the truth, Yun Chang's face couldn't help but began to get hot, and even the tips of her ears turned red quietly.

She turned her back, reached into the army bag and fumbled for a long time, took out a bottle of beef sauce from the space, and threw it to Wen Chengjie angrily, "Hey, beef sauce! Be honest, remember what you can say and what you can't say ."

"I know, I know!" Wen Chengjie put the beef sauce in his pocket, dissatisfied, "What is the relationship between us, can I keep it secret for you? But you should pay attention in the future, there are many smart people in the group, I can help you If you keep it secret, other people's mouths may not be strict."

"It's okay if you know, our family has already agreed on our matter, and we are going to make a love report, and I never thought about keeping it a secret.

Yun Chang waved his hand lazily as he spoke, bid farewell to Wen Chengjie, and walked to the dormitory.

Well, after today, it seems that she will have another 'friend'.

Sure enough, as soon as Yunshang entered the dormitory, Liu Chunmei smiled and said, "Yunshang, the bathroom is closed, I just went to wash my face, and I brought you a pot of hot water by the way, you go and wash up."

Yun Shang weighed the thermos bottle, which was heavy, and then glanced at Liu Chunmei's pretendingly calm smiling face, suddenly feeling very boring.

He was clearly trying to curry favor with her, and wanted to get in touch with Gu Shinian through her, but he deliberately pretended to be calm. This hypocritical face is really boring.

Liu Chunmei was only one year older than her, and strictly speaking, she was still a child, and since she came from the countryside, it was inevitable that she would have a sense of inferiority, and she would not dare to get in touch with people on weekdays. In addition, her professional ability is not strong enough, so she has no sense of presence in the art troupe.

The reason why Yunshang has an impression of her is because they live in the same dormitory, and because they ate in the cafeteria before, when Liu Chunmei pretended to be stupid and stepped on her to show herself, Yunshang lost her good opinion of her.

At that time, she only thought that Liu Chunmei was a bit cautious, but not courageous, and her methods were very rough, but now it seems that Liu Chunmei's courage is not so courageous, it is simply daring.

She is not very courageous, and it is based on the lack of interests and temptation. If she has enough interests or enough temptation, Liu Chunmei will dare to poke a hole in the sky.

Just like this time, in order to be able to speak to Gu Shinian, she dared to run to the front of the stage at the risk of being punished and ruining her future.

Facing Liu Chunmei like this, Yun Chang didn't even bother to put on the least smile on her face, nodded at her lightly, turned around and went out to wash up with the washbasin.

Ye Li, who had finished washing and lying on the bed, sneered, and said in a weird way, "Some people are just cheap! Do things that put a hot face on a cold ass. I really think that other people's brains are stupid, can't see Do you know what she wants to do? Tsk! Want to hook up with a man who has a partner, how shameless!"

As soon as these words came out, Wu Xiang, who had just washed his face and entered the door, was shocked, while Liu Chunmei, who was already in a bad mood, was so frightened that her face turned pale.

"Wu Xiang, do you think it's funny! Bai Yunshang clearly said that Company Commander Gu has a partner, but there are still people in our regiment who like Company Commander Gu, and they want to go to the front to talk to Company Commander Gu at night, but Gu The company commander just ignored her and left. Oh, what a joke!"

Ye Li spoke so clearly, if Liu Chunmei didn't know her whereabouts at night fell into Ye Li's eyes, she would be really stupid.

Wu Xiang was originally a smart person, after hearing Ye Li's blunt words that almost named names, and seeing Liu Chunmei's expression of guilty conscience and frightened face, constantly breaking out in cold sweat, there was nothing unclear about it.

Thinking of the gentle and fiery light in Yun Shang's eyes that couldn't be concealed when he talked about Gu Shinian, and thinking of Gu Shinian's frequent visits to Yun Shang and taking her to the small cafeteria to beat teeth and improve her life, especially Yun Shang also mentioned Gu Shinian's actions to improve her life. If there is a partner at that time, there are indications that these two people are likely to be a couple.

After hearing Ye Li's words now, knowing that Liu Chunmei was thinking about Gu Shinian, and even sneaked out to talk to Gu Shinian at night, she suddenly had a bad feeling in her heart.

Yun Shang seems to be soft-tempered, but in fact he is a hard-headed master. If someone offends her, she will definitely fight back. Even if the timing is wrong, she will record the person who offended her in a small book, and turn it out from time to time to remind herself not to forget to seek revenge from the enemy.

As far as Liu Chunmei's simple idea is concerned, if she doesn't quickly stop her small thoughts, sooner or later Yun Shang will have to deal with it severely.

If she dared to show her head and play tricks to find Gu Shinian and annoy Yun Shang, her frame might be torn apart.

Thinking of this, Wu Xiang also put down the washbasin, and said meaningfully, "Don't talk nonsense about this, she will be unhappy if she finds out about it. Besides, Company Commander Gu agrees with Yun Shang's rumor that he has a partner, which means that the relationship between Gu Lianchang and his partner is very stable, and it should be time to make a love report." At this time, running to hook up with Gu Shinian, isn't it self-defeating?

Chapter 612 Take it without asking

Yun Chang didn't know how many people were making a fuss in the dormitory. After returning to the dormitory, seeing that the three of them were silent, she pretended to be extremely tired and pulled off the quilt and fell asleep directly.

The Tiger Company is the last company under the art troupe. After the performance, the troupe took a three-day vacation, which was a buffer time for everyone to perform ten days of high-intensity performances.

For the past month, Yunshang has been getting up at five o'clock in the morning to practice exercises, and has never slept in. In addition to performing on stage every day, she is very tired.

Lying on the bed right now, one second I could hear Ye Li's rustling sound while eating snacks, and the next second my consciousness had fallen into a coma.

This time, Yunshang slept very peacefully, and didn't even hear the little movement of everyone getting up the next morning. It wasn't until the dazzling sunlight came in through the window that she opened her sleepy eyes.

He took out the watch from under the pillow, rubbed his slightly swollen eyes vigorously, and checked the time. It was almost eleven o'clock.

Yun Chang stretched out her arm, tried the temperature outside the bed, and immediately shrank back from the cold.

In such a cold day, if you don't feel inseparable from the warm bed, you will be lingering and loving to the end of the world. I am really sorry for the three-day holiday given by the group.

Besides, she has been pretending to be a model worker for a month, and finally she can sleep in openly, and of course she has to sleep enough at a time.

Yun Chang stretched comfortably, pulled up the quilt to cover the glare of the sun, closed her eyes, and continued to pretend to sleep to let herself go.

After lying down under the quilt for about ten minutes, the door of the dormitory was pushed open from the outside, and someone walked in very lightly.

"Yunshang, Yunshang?" Yunshang heard Liu Chunmei's voice, probably seeing that she didn't respond, so she reached out and gently pushed her quilt, "Yunshang, don't sleep, I bought you white rice porridge, get up and eat something."

Yun Chang frowned impatiently, and was about to turn over and continue pretending to sleep, but it felt like Liu Chunmei bent over and took something from her pillow.

Yun Chang's heart skipped a beat, and she yanked off the quilt just in time to see Liu Chunmei wrapping her wrist with her watch in her hand.

"what are you doing?"

Probably due to sleeping for a long time, Yunshang's nasal voice was a bit heavy and her voice was hoarse, but she did not hide the coldness in her tone at all.

Of course Yunshang didn't think that Liu Chunmei wanted to steal her watch, but simply hated her self-indulgent and overly familiar behavior.

Liu Chunmei didn't expect that Yunshang would suddenly open her eyes. Fortunately, she happened to see the scene where she put a watch on her wrist. After realizing how misleading her actions were, Liu Chunmei hurriedly explained with a look of embarrassment:

"Yun, Yunshang, I, I just check, what time is it..."

Yun Chang put on her coat, and stretched out her hand towards Liu Chunmei, "Bring it."

This watch was a birthday present for her when Gu Shinian went to the three largest department stores in Hong Kong City for her birthday last year. It cost nearly 700 yuan to buy it.

During the time in the group, Yunshang rarely took out this watch. One is that the dial of this watch is inlaid with a circle of diamonds. Anyone with a little discernment can see that this watch is worth a lot. Yun Shang doesn't want to be in the limelight because of a watch.

The second is that this is a birthday gift from Gu Shinian. Yunshang cherishes it very much. She keeps it in the space on weekdays, and puts it together with the birthday gifts she received in the past few years. If she didn't see Gu Shinian yesterday, she would not Will wear this watch out.

Seeing that the watch that Gu Shinian gave her as a birthday present was put on Liu Chunmei's wrist, Yun Shang felt really uncomfortable.

Probably because of Yun Shang's complexion, Liu Chunmei hurriedly put the watch next to Yun Shang's pillow, Qiqi Ai Ai said, "Yun Shang, I, I just want to see what time it is, there is no other meaning."

Yunshang didn't speak, took out a handkerchief, wiped the watch carefully, put it on her hand, then raised her head, and said in a cold voice, "Liu Chunmei, if you want to see me in the future, remember to say hello to me, you have to say hello first." Only with my consent." Don't ask about self-collection, what's the difference between stealing and stealing?

These words can be regarded as very rude, Liu Chunmei is a sensitive person, she couldn't stand these words, her face turned red immediately.

Seeing Liu Chunmei standing by the bed helplessly, with a look of humiliation in her eyes, Yun Chang secretly sighed, after all, she couldn't bear to embarrass her too much.

After all, he is only seventeen years old, and in future generations, he is only a half-grown child.

"Liu Chunmei, I didn't mean to target you. This watch is my birthday present from Second Brother Gu. I usually don't want to wear it... Do you know what I mean?"

Liu Chunmei lowered her head, nodded after a long while, tried her best to put on a smile, and said, "Yunshang, I didn't know this was your birthday present. I, people in our village are like this. When I see something rare I want to go up to see Qiqi, there is no other meaning, that, don't be as knowledgeable as me."

Seeing that Liu Chunmei kept silent about her misbehavior and used her identity as a villager, Yunshang felt irritable and powerless, and lost the patience to continue talking with her, and stretched out her hand to grab the clothes off the bed Put it on, and asked in a cold tone again, "I see, what else do you need?"

"It's nothing, I just saw that you didn't get up for dinner in the morning, and I was afraid that you would be hungry, so I bought some porridge for you."

As Liu Chunmei said, she opened the still warm lunch box and pushed it in front of Yunshang.

Yun Chang looked at the bowl of white porridge that could count rice grains like clear water, and was speechless for a while, "Liu Chunmei, did you go to the cafeteria to buy this porridge?"

She also often goes to the cafeteria to buy white porridge for breakfast. The porridge she buys doesn't mean that the chopsticks stand upright, and there is at least half a bowl of rice missing in a bowl of porridge. When did you buy such a foolish white porridge?

This Liu Chunmei, was the chef in the big dining hall fooling her, or did she do something about it herself after buying the porridge, and then brought it to her for favors?

Yun Chang was suspicious in her heart, but she didn't show it on her face. She pushed the porridge back to her, sat at the table and combed her hair while saying, "You can keep this porridge for yourself. It's almost time. I'll go to the cafeteria to eat it after washing up." lunch."

Seeing Liu Chunmei still wanted to talk, Yun Shang interrupted her again and asked, "By the way, where is Wu Xiang? Why didn't you see her and Ye Li?"

"Wu Xiang was talking to Yao Ke in the dormitory next door. Ye Li went out with the dance team early in the morning. He was wearing casual clothes. He seemed to have greeted the group and went to the city to play."

Yun Chang frowned slightly, "Can you still go out to play?"

Liu Chunmei nodded, and just about to speak, the door of the dormitory was pushed open again, and Wu Xiang and Yao Ke walked in one after the other.

Seeing Yunshang got up, Wu Xiang sat down with a smile and said, "Yunshang, I told my mother in the morning to invite two comrades home for dinner at noon. You pack up quickly, we have to leave quickly."

Chapter 613 Beat

"Have you greeted Commander Yang?"

While Yunshang was asking questions, she took out the key of the cabinet from the drawer, and in front of several people, opened the lock on the bottom floor of the cabinet that had never been opened before, and carried out the lock that she had brought from home and was neatly tidied by Gu Shinian. Put all the clothes at the bottom.

Isn't there a saying in later generations that when you go out to meet guests, it is polite to them to wear appropriate light makeup.

She is going to be a guest at Wu Xiang's house, and she will meet the elders, so she must be polite.

You can't make up, but you can always dress better and make yourself look good, shouldn't that be okay?

Yun Shang resolutely refused to admit that she was Aimei, and refused to admit that she had worn military uniforms for more than a month. She couldn't help but want to wear beautiful clothes once.

As for whether her and Gu Shinian's family background will be exposed, Yunshang said that anyway, during the military performance in March, her relationship with Lin Wenlan could not be hidden from the eyes of the rest of the group, even if it is exposed in advance now. It doesn't matter.

It happened to take this opportunity to stimulate Liu Chunmei, who is bullying and fearful, so that she will act more cautiously in the future, and don't be short-sighted to provoke and plot against her again.

Yunshang spread out the clothes one by one on the bed and carefully selected them, and finally changed into a beige cashmere coat with a fur collar and a pair of brown platform leather shoes.

Yao Ke had already seen these personal belongings of Yunshang when Gu Shinian was helping Yunshang to tidy up the internal affairs, and now she just looked at them again with envy, and had no other emotions.

But Wu Xiang and Liu Chunmei, who were on the side, were dumbfounded when they saw the big pile of brand new clothes on Yunshang's bed.

Each of these clothes is 100% new, and they are all high-quality clothes that cannot be seen in department stores and can only be bought in Friendship Stores.

And the pair of leather shoes that Yun Shang just put on are different from the ordinary small round-toed leather shoes that are popular nowadays.

The toe of her leather shoes is also round, but there is an obvious upturned arc, and the instep is specially pressed with a thick line, which makes the shoes a little bit playful and rough in their delicacy. Wearing it on the feet is really handsome and good-looking.

Especially after Yunshang changed her clothes, she carried a small brown bag across her shoulders, and put the watch that was shining brightly in the sun on her wrist. When she turned around again, her whole temperament changed, like It's like a different person.

Wu Xiang opened his mouth, walked around Yunshang twice, and said with admiration, "Yunshang! You, you look like... so beautiful! You really look so handsome in this dress!"

In fact, what Wu Xiang wanted to say was that wearing Yun Chang like this was as good-looking as Miss Qianjin in the movie, but she didn't dare to say such words in front of Yao Ke and Liu Chunmei.

Yun Chang looked down at herself, and said with a smile, "Does it look good? My mother and my aunt bought it for me when they were free."

"It's beautiful!" Wu Xiang nodded again and again, and then pulled Yun Shang's wrist, glanced at the watch she just put on, and boasted, "This watch is also beautiful! Did your mother buy it for you? Is it expensive?"

"The price is not bad, less than 700 yuan. But it wasn't my mother who bought it. It was my birthday present from Second Brother Gu last year."

While Yunshang was speaking, her meaningful eyes fell on Liu Chunmei, and when she said the last sentence, she deliberately emphasized her tone.

Liu Chunmei was in a daze at the moment. He stared straight at the cashmere coat and small leather shoes on Yunshang, and the words "less than seven hundred yuan" and "brother Gu gave me a birthday present" kept echoing in his mind.

No matter how stupid she is, she knows that Yun Shang's words are for her.

If it is said that Gu Shinian came to see Yunshang from time to time, took her to the small cafeteria for dinner, etc., it was taking care of the acquaintances he had known since childhood. Then he gave such an expensive watch to Yunshang, it was far from simply taking care of acquaintances.

Their relationship is definitely much closer than she imagined!

Also, the family backgrounds of these two people are by no means as ordinary as Bai Yunshang said.

How could Bai Yunshang come from an ordinary worker's family with a bed full of new clothes bought from the Friendship Store?

And Gu Shinian, who gave a watch worth 700 yuan as a birthday gift as soon as he made a move, how could it be possible for Yunshang to have a normal family background as he said before.

Liu Chunmei still remembered that on the day Yunshang reported for duty, Ye Li showed off her new dress bought from the Friendship Store in the dormitory at night. At that time, she only thought the dress was beautiful and foreign, and envied Ye Lishen's identity as a city resident.

But now after seeing these clothes of Yunshang, she can know what real good clothes are. Compared with Yun Shang's clothes, Ye Li's clothes were forcibly set off as a defective product, both in style and fabric.

Ye Li brags all day about how good her family's conditions are, bragging which of her relatives is a high-ranking official, which relative is a leader, and which relative is in charge of exchanging foreign currency for the country. That's why she has foreign exchange certificates to shop for new clothes in the Friendship Store.

Even Ye Li, who has such a powerful family background, can own a piece of clothing bought in the Friendship Store, and he takes it out to look at it like a treasure all day long, shows it off, and then carefully puts it away.

But this Bai Yunshang, she actually has 20 or 30 good clothes that ordinary people have never seen before, and they are all new clothes, and they are just thrown under the cabinet so casually, without even looking at them on weekdays.

Compared with Ye Li with a decent family background, how terrifying is Bai Yunshang's family background?

And she also said that Gu Shinian and she grew up together. Since Bai Yunshang's family background is unusual, Gu Shinian's family background is definitely not bad either.

At least Gu Shinian is no longer someone she thought she could cling to at will.

Sitting there, Liu Chunmei thought of how she went to talk to Gu Shinian privately yesterday, but he ignored it like nothing, and thought of Ye Li's sarcasm last night, and couldn't lift her head in embarrassment for a while.

With Ye Li around, she couldn't hide the fact that she was secretly looking for Gu Shinian from the people in the regiment, so what if it got to Yun Shang's ears?

Yun Shang beat Liu Chunmei, and didn't care about her awkward little thoughts. She wrapped her head and face with a scarf, dragged Yao Ke and Wu Xiang, and was about to go out.

When he walked to the door, Yao Ke looked back at the white rice porridge on the table, and then at Liu Chunmei who kept her head down and said nothing. After thinking for a while, she said, "Liu Chunmei, it's best to eat in the cafeteria after eating. Go back to the dormitory after you're done, don't bring back the leftovers halfway through eating."

As he spoke, he pointed to the bowl of clear water porridge that could reflect the silhouette of a person.

Yun Chang was stunned.

That bowl of porridge was left over by Liu Chunmei?

No, to be precise, it should be that the rice in the porridge was taken away by Liu Chunmei, and the leftover porridge was brought back to curry favor with her.

Chapter 614 Visit

According to Liu Chunmei's character, she can do such a thing.

Yun Chang was immediately annoyed, and didn't look at Liu Chunmei standing there awkwardly, wanting to explain, turned around and slammed the door and walked out.

Living in a dormitory with this kind of irritating thing is simply bad luck for eight lifetimes.

Seeing Yun Shang being so angry, Wu Xiang and Yao Ke also roughly guessed the reason, and couldn't laugh or cry for a while, not knowing how to comfort Yun Shang.

When meeting such a wonderful roommate, there is no other way than to consider yourself unlucky and stay away from her in the future.

Food is so precious these days, no one is willing to waste it.

Not to mention the clear porridge that has been scooped up until it is so thick, it is just a handful of wild vegetable leaves in the wild, rolled in water, and a little salt, and it is a ready-made wild vegetable soup.

That bowl of clear porridge that can reflect the silhouette of a person is at least made of pure white rice, which is much more expensive than wild vegetable soup.

Besides, Liu Chunmei had a good intention. She was worried that her comrades would be hungry, and she was reluctant to finish the porridge she bought, so she saved half of it for her comrades to bring back. Who can say that she did something wrong?

That is to say, in the army, if you put it in the countryside where you can't eat fine grains all the year round, the bowl of clear porridge served out is full of people rushing to drink it.

If Yunshang really wanted to make a fuss over this matter, and if he said it, he would have to be labeled as hypocritical.

Therefore, this boring loss, even if it is irritating, Yun Chang can only endure it forcefully.

When they got out of the military division, the three of them got on the bus to the city center, Yun Shang was still so angry that her fingers were trembling, and she was making one ghost idea after another in her heart, ready to toss Liu Chunmei to vent her anger.

An hour later, the bus stopped steadily at the gate of the courtyard of the family of the district government. Wu Xiang took the two of them into the gate with a familiar road, and greeted the acquaintance with a smile all the way, and walked towards the innermost two-story small western-style building.

When Yunshang saw Wu Xiang's soft hands like green onions, she guessed that she was not a child from a worker's family, but she didn't expect Wu Xiang to be the daughter of Deputy District Chief Wu in Yicheng District.

Sitting in the small living room of Wu's house, which is not too big but tidy and tidy, Yun Chang couldn't help but give Wu Xiang a sneaky look, then straightened her back and sat on the sofa with Yao Ke , accepting the 'review' of Deputy District Chief Wu in a serious manner.

Well, in order to retaliate against Wu Xiang for being dishonest like her, the narrow-minded Yun Shang often dug holes for Wu Xiang when answering questions.

Anyway, Deputy District Chief Wu was able to let go of his identity, despite Wu Xiang's repeated driving, he was very serious about helping his daughter entertain the two little soldier friends, which showed that he attached great importance to Wu Xiang's daughter, and the relationship between the father and daughter was also very good.

Even if Yunshang dug a big hole for Wu Xiang, I don't worry that Deputy District Chief Wu will really deal with Wu Xiang ruthlessly.

And Yunshang also said that she was looking forward to Wu Xiang being taken care of by the old father at home.

As for whether Wu Xiang will use the same method to retaliate back in the future, Yunshang feels that there must be a way for the car to reach the mountain, and at most, she will ask the old man at home to come forward to suppress Commander Bai.

Wu Xiang has not been home for half a year. This time, he said hello in advance and wanted to bring two friends back as a guest. The Wu family attached great importance to it. Not only did Wu Xiang's mother prepare a table full of delicious food, but she even brought Wu Xiang back to the army Three servings of snacks are prepared.

Yunshang slept until almost noon, and was already hungry, especially since there were several stir-fried dishes that suited her taste on the Wu family's dining table, she couldn't even lift her head.

In addition, she has a sweet mouth, knowing that Wu Xiang's mother cooked all the dishes on this table, she even praised her culinary skills to the sky, and Wu Xiang's mother was so happy that she kept putting them in Yunshang's bowl. Vegetables, for fear that she will not have enough to eat.

Wu Xiang took a bite of the duck meat, stared at Yunshang, and yelled that Yunshang came to snatch her mother from her, and next time he would only bring Yao Ke back, and he would not bring Yunshang home to eat delicious food.

Yun Shang made a funny face at Wu Xiang, not afraid of her at all, and threatened in turn, anyway, she has a good relationship with Wu's mother, and next time Wu Xiang will not lead the way,

She herself will come over to eat delicious food.

Wu Xiang was so angry that he kept rolling his eyes.

After dinner, Wu's mother called Wu Xiang into the room, brought her some new clothes, and then took advantage of Wu Xiang's fitting, and whispered to her, "Wu Xiang, you two comrades-in-arms are good. Come and see more."

"Well, Yao Ke is a veteran of the regiment, and usually helps us a few new recruits. Yunshang was transferred from another military region. She has strong professional skills and is a good person. She usually gets along with me better."

"That's good. Your brother is coming back soon. It's rare for you to come back. You can return to the army after seeing your brother later."

Wu Xiang responded, looking back and forth at her new clothes in the mirror.

Mother Wu smiled, stretched out her hand to help Wu Xiang stretch her skirt, and said casually, "Xiangxiang, Bai Yunshang's family conditions are pretty good, right? The outfit she is wearing today is even the first one in our courtyard." "Mingzhu' can't even afford to wear it. Besides, he is also good-looking, and he knows how to deal with things. He is not at all afraid to talk to your father, and he looks like he is talking to an official."

Wu Xiang's face darkened slightly, and after thinking for a while, he said, "Mom, I haven't asked about the background of Yunshang's family. The one she wore today is the most common one among the clothes she brought. Her wrist That watch costs about seven hundred yuan.

These days, people who dare to wear clothes like this are usually those whose family background is so deep that no one dares to provoke them at will.

Mom, don't try to match my brother and Yunshang. My dad is a small deputy head of Yicheng District, and our family can't afford a daughter-in-law from a family with a big background like this.

Mama Wu asked Wu Xiang to speak directly to her face, and was a little embarrassed for a while, "Look at you child, that's just what I said, how can you match your brother?"

These words were more or less against his will, and Wu Xiang didn't expose it. After all, he was his own mother, so he still had to save some face.

However, what should be said, Wu Xiang must make it clear.

"Mom, it's too late even if you want to match up. Yunshang is going to make a love report with the organization after the Chinese New Year. The object is that the family is optimistic about it early in the morning. She is good-looking and capable. How can my brother compare himself to others when he is an officer? It's too far away."

Mother Wu was really disappointed at the moment, the brilliance in her eyes faded, and she didn't bother to say any more intimate words to Wu Xiang, so she stuffed a few clothes into her bag, and pushed them out with the person and the bag.

"Let's go, let's go! Go quickly! Don't you want to go back to the army, go quickly! There will be no buses any later."

A few people really wanted to return to the group before dinner. After Wu Xiang came down, he stuffed some snacks prepared at home into Yunshang and Yao Ke's hands respectively, greeted Wu's mother and prepared to go back.

Just before a few people reached the door, the door was pushed open from the outside, and there was a burst of calm but slightly hasty footsteps coming in.

Chapter 615: Phone

The person who came in was wearing a 70% new military uniform. He was tall and handsome, and his facial features were somewhat similar to Wu Xiang. Before he could stand still, he hurriedly called out Wu Xiang's name.

Seeing Wu Xiang greet him with a face of surprise, Yun Shang and Yao Ke looked at each other, and put down the things they just picked up in their hands with interest.

"Yunshang, Yao Ke, this is my elder brother Wu Hongyu, who is also a soldier. He is going home to visit relatives on vacation these days."

While Wu Xiang was speaking, he secretly pinched Wu Hongyu who was looking straight at Yunshang, and after glancing at him secretly, he continued to introduce to several people.

"Brother, these two are my comrades in the art troupe. This is Yao Ke, and this is Bai Yunshang. They live in a dormitory with me."

Wu Hongyu calmly rubbed the arm that was pinched by Wu Xiang, smiled at the two of them, and stepped forward to say hello generously, but when he looked at Yunshang, his gaze was fixed between her eyebrows and eyes, and there was a lot of pain in her eyes. A bit of looking and exploring.

Yun Shang also noticed that Wu Hongyu looked at her with unusual eyes, but she didn't feel offended, as if Wu Hongyu was looking at someone through her.

Fortunately, Wu Hongyu quickly looked away, looking at a table of packed luggage and snacks, the smile on his face faded, "Are you planning to go back to the army directly, and you don't plan to wait for me to come back?"

The smile on Wu Xiang's face froze for a moment, and he sneaked a glance at Yun Shang, trying to fool him with a haha, "Well, brother, we just took a few hours off..."

Can she still not know his brother? When he was young, he saw pretty little girls crying and shouting to take him home and raise him as a younger sister. The good-looking problems have not been corrected.

With Yun Chang's appearance, her foolish brother will lose his soul after seeing it.

If she had known that her brother had not returned to the army, she would not have taken Yunshang and Yao Ke home today.

Wu Hongyu didn't let go of Wu Xiang's excuse of not being distracted, he put his things on his back, said hello to Wu's mother, and pushed Wu Xiang to the door, "Let's go. You girls are hard to take things, I'll take you back."

After leaving the family courtyard, a group of people stood on the side of the road waiting for the bus. Yunshang raised her wrist to check the time, and said to Yao Ke and Wu Xiang, "There is still some time, I remember there is a post office in front, go and call home first."

He pointed to the direction of the intersection ahead.

Yao Ke was not familiar with this area, so she turned her head to look at Wu Xiang, and when she saw her nodding, she immediately responded, "All right,

I also called home, and when I got home, I had to limit the time for calling, so I couldn't say a few words."

After hearing what the two said, Wu Hongyu smiled and gave Wu Xiang a headache, "You are really confused, there is a phone at home, why didn't you remind your friend that you can call?"

Wu Xiang covered his head and rolled his eyes at Wu Hongyu angrily.

Can this matter depend on her?

No one mentioned the matter of calling home, how could she lean over and ask someone to call?

Isn't that sick?

But now they had already come out of the compound, and they didn't bother to turn around and go back. They walked down the street and arrived at the post office in about ten minutes.

When Yunshang made the phone call, Wu Hongyu was standing beside her, and when she heard her say "receive Linyang Military Region", he frowned slightly, and his eyes fell on Yunshang's somewhat familiar eyebrows again.

Yunshang didn't notice Wu Hongyu's gaze. He was listening to the voice on the other end of the phone, with a joyful smile on his face.

Bai Yancheng hadn't received a call from Yunshang for a while, and now he received a call from Yunshang as soon as he returned to the office. His irritable mood improved a lot. He waved away the guards and asked Yunshang a series of questions. current situation.

"Dad, I've been very busy recently. Like my mother and my sister, I have to go to the company to perform every day..."

"Second brother Gu came to see me in the military sub-district whenever he was free, and took me to the small cafeteria to eat delicious food when he didn't come back. I only had two meals for a month's allowance..."

"Our deputy group leader Guan thinks highly of me. Let me practice the piano well and prepare for the performance in March. Then I can still fight in the ring with the people brought by my mother."

After Yun Shang explained her situation here in a few words, she asked about the family affairs.

Bai Yancheng will be transferred back to the capital after the next year, and he is preparing to hand over the work at hand recently. Lin Wenlan, as the head of the art troupe, will return to the capital with Bai Yancheng, so he has to start preparing for the handover.

However, due to the military performance in March, Lin Wenlan decided to wait two more months and return after finishing the last shift.

On the phone, it was difficult for Bai Yancheng to explain many things clearly, but a few cryptic remarks let Yun Shang know that Bai Yancheng's transfer back to the capital had touched the interests of others, and the Bai family was not stable now.

However, the Gu family recently encountered the defection of Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu. They were afraid of being noticed and caused a major incident, so they did not dare to jump out to help the Bai family clean up like before.

But generally speaking, the Bai family's own strength is strong enough, and all the in-laws around them are also reliable. In addition, all members of the Bai family are in their most suitable positions, and there are no prodigal sons among the descendants, so there is no need to worry about someone dismantling the Bai family from within.

Even if there is temporary trouble, with Mr. Bai standing in front, no one dares to blatantly oppose the Bai family.

After all, the Bai family's contributions over the years have been too great.

First, he cooperated with the Gu family to hand over hundreds of precious materials half a century ahead of the times to the organization, and then worked with the Gu family to take charge of establishing a large secret research base. So far, the experts in the base have started to produce results one after another.

This is still the responsibility of Mr. Bai. Yunshang, the youngest and most inconspicuous member of the Bai family, has made great contributions in recent years.

Not to mention anything else, just the information she brought back from the steel factory and automobile factory in R country can save domestic manufacturers a few years of detours.

Outsiders don't know about these credits that cannot be publicized, but those at the top of the organization can remember them clearly, and even recorded them in the secret files.

In this case, if someone wants to move the Bai family, unless they can find evidence to overthrow the Bai family with a stick, the only one who will suffer is themselves.

Mr. Bai is a really smart person. Even though the status of the Bai family is still stable, he still requires the Bai family to keep a low profile so as not to be too ostentatious and annoying.

After Bai Yancheng mentioned Yunshang, he still didn't forget to tell her, "Xiaoqi, your grandfather called yesterday and asked if you called home, and I will remember to call your grandfather later, I understand. ?"

Yunshang responded, and hurriedly asked about Bai Qingzheng and Bai Qingming's recent situation. After finishing the matter, she hung up the phone, talked to the staff, and dialed the number of the Bai family in the capital.

Chapter 616 Coaxing

When Yun Shang called, she didn't deliberately avoid Wu Xiang and the others. After talking with the old man, she turned her head and met Wu Xiang and Yao Ke's surprised eyes.

It's not that these two people are too rare and weird, it's that Yunshang's two phone calls are too bluffing.

The first call was from the Linyang Military Region, or it was directly to the office. These days, those who can have an independent office in the army and have a telephone on the desk are at least director-level figures.

This shows that Yunshang's father is working in the Linyang Military Region, and his position is not low.

And her other call was to the military compound in Beijing, and the voice sounded like she was calling her grandfather. This also shows in a disguised form that Yunshang's grandfather is also an old revolutionary.

It has just been twenty years since liberation, and no one knows better than Yao Ke and Wu Xiang what the three words "old revolution" mean in this era.

Grandpa is an old revolutionary, and his father is the head of the military region. Yunshang's family background is far better than what they thought.

Compared with Wu Xiang and Yao Ke, Wu Hongyu on the side seemed much calmer. If you look carefully, you can still find a vague smile in his eyes.

At this moment, he has completely confirmed Yun Shang's identity, but because his sister Wu Xiang is guarding him like a wolf guard, it is not easy to go forward and say more to Yun Shang.

After a few people got off the car at the gate of the military division, Wu Xiang protected Yunshang behind him, and hurriedly urged Wu Hongyu to go back quickly, Wu Hongyu finally couldn't help pinching Wu Xiang's face and twisting it half a circle, and then moved closer to Yunshang approached him and asked very familiarly, "Yunshang, I'm going back to the southern military region in two days, do you want to bring a letter to your elder brother?"

Yun Chang's eyes widened suddenly, "Do you know my elder brother?"

As soon as the question was finished, Yun Chang frowned suddenly, looked at Wu Hongyu defensively, and quietly took two steps back.

No, she didn't even mention Bai Qingzheng on the phone just now, nor did she mention that she has a big brother. How did Wu Hongyu know that she had a big brother? How did he know about Bai Qingzheng's relationship with her?

Wu Hongyu didn't seem to notice Yun Shang's guarded posture, he still curled his mouth and smiled like a fox, "Is your elder brother Bai Qingzheng?"

Yun Chang thought for a while, nodded, and asked, "How do you know that Bai Qingzheng is my elder brother?"

"I saw a group photo of the four of you brothers and sisters at your elder brother's place." Wu Hongyu said, stretching out his hand to gesture,

"But you were young at that time. Now that you've grown up, your eyebrows and eyes have changed a little bit." It's become more beautiful.

Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief, Bai Qingzheng did have a group photo of the four of them in her wallet, and it was taken when Lin Wenlan took her family to take a family portrait on her twelfth birthday.

Wu Hongyu was able to recognize her eyebrows and eyes from a photo taken a few years ago, and he was able to confirm her identity by the words "Linyang Military Region" and "Beijing Army Compound", which shows that he often looks at his elder brother's hands. From that photo, I roughly knew their family's family background from the elder brother's mouth.

This also shows that the relationship between Wu Hongyu and Bai Qingzheng is really good, at least they are friends that Bai Qingzheng recognizes and trusts.

The two confirmed their identities here in a few words, and Wu Xiang on the side was stunned.

Her brother knows Brother Yunshang? Good relationship?

Otherwise, brother Yunshang couldn't show her brother the photos of his family.

And she and Yunshang were assigned to a dormitory by coincidence, and they got along well. Is there anything more coincidental than this in this world?

However, according to Yunshang's family background, her eldest brother should have a good future, so how could he get along so well with her brother?

It's not that she is self-effacing, her elder brother can't do a lot of small business, but he has crooked ideas one after another.

The other young men joined the army, wishing they could go to the front a few more times and make more military exploits to gain a firm foothold in the army.

Only her brother, who is so big and tall, didn't want to join the party early, tried to avoid training all day long, and then he insisted on changing to a civilian job, saying that this way he wouldn't have to train hard every day like others, and the civilian job was also difficult. Safety.

Listen, is this what a young man in his twenties should say?

How blind did Yun Shang's elder brother have to be to be friends with her lazy brother?

Wu Hongyu didn't know that his sister was criticizing him bloody and useless in his heart. He was wearing a polite and harmless smile at the moment, and suggested that Yunshang write a letter to Bai Qingzheng, preferably with two photos in the letter. It is said that Yun Shang in the photo in Bai Qingzheng's wallet is too small, and it is completely two people now, so it is time to replace Bai Qingzheng with a new photo.

Wu Xiang was so angry that he kept covering his face, and he didn't even see Wu Hongyu's wolf grandma coaxing Little Red Riding Hood.

Really, what a shame!

She is really unlucky for eight lifetimes, to have such a brother who is like the second generation ancestor!

He's in his twenties, he doesn't care at all, it's okay to bully his own sister at home, but this time he even tricked his own sister's friend and friend's own sister, he is simply inhuman!

Wu Hongyu has a nice face. When people smile, they look warm and reliable. How could Yun Shang know that his roommate brother is a hungry wolf in sheep's clothing? After knowing that Wu Hongyu and Bai Qingzheng have a good relationship, he immediately gave him advice
Heartbroken.

A letter must be written!

Those messy snacks in the space, as well as the meat sauce that I made before, I also want to bring some to the elder brother.

As for the photos, well, after she came back from Hong Kong City, she took a lot of photos with Second Brother Gu in the capital, and after arriving in Yicheng, she wore military uniforms and performed on stage. You can choose two of these photos for your elder brother to take. In case he doesn't even know what his own sister looks like now.

After making a decision, Yun Shang didn't have time to say anything to Wu Xiang and Yao Ke, so she ran back in a hurry and quickly packed a large package, which contained a large jar of meat sauce, some snacks, and a brief greeting letter , and a photo of her playing the violin in a military uniform, and a photo of her with Gu Shinian.

Wu Hongyu was waiting outside the military division, and when his ears were about to be numb by his sister, Yun Chang finally came out with a package.

Wu Xiang watched Yun Shang hand things over to his unreliable brother, and watched Wu Hongyu laugh like a fool, jump on the bus and slip away with two long legs.

After Wu Hongyu left, he looked at Shang Yunshang full of trust and gratitude, and Wu Xiang couldn't bear to expose her brother's true colors to her.

Forget it, her brother is now a soldier anyway, and he can do such a thing as stealing his comrades' snacks, but he should not be able to do such a dirty thing as stealing his comrades' family letters.

Chapter 617 Is going to practice

As soon as Wu Hongyu jumped into the car, he reached into the big package and fumbled around. After taking out the letter written by Yunshang to Bai Qingzheng, he first glanced at the beautiful small characters on the envelope, and then took out the letter from his pocket. He took out a knife from inside and scraped off the seal where the glue hadn't completely dried. Without reading the letter, he took out the photos inside and looked at it.

The first photo is a one-inch portrait. The little girl in the photo is wearing a brand-new military uniform, with two braids under the military cap, and her eyebrows are crooked with a smile. Even if it is the most ordinary black and white photo, the person in the photo It's also very good-looking, just like a movie star.

Wu Hongyu looked at this photo for a long time, and finally stuffed it carefully into his breast pocket, and then looked at the two large photos in his hand.

The above photo was taken when Yunshang was performing a violin solo on stage. It was probably a little far away. The eyebrows and eyes of Yunshang were not particularly clear, but the large horizontal characters on the banner on the top of the stage were clearly photographed.

This is the scene of the district-wide art joint performance organized by the Propaganda Department of Yicheng District, and it is also the photo of Yunshang when she performed on stage for the first time.

In the photo, Yun Chang has long hands and long feet, standing on the stage like a flexible pruning bamboo, slender but tough, and looks very energetic.

The little girl gave Bai Qingzheng this photo, more or less showing off the good news, presumably she wanted Bai Qing to praise her for growing up, for being able to be on such a big stage, and to hold the stage.

It's a photo of Yun Shang with a man who looks better than him!

So angry! Who is this person who is even prettier than him? A big man with such a face, isn't he afraid that his future daughter-in-law will feel inferior?

Wu Hongyu first complained about Gu Shinian's appearance in the photo, and then rubbed his teeth and looked at the hands of Yun Shang clinging to Gu Shinian's arm in the photo. After seeing it, he suddenly felt that the intimate gesture of the two was an eyesore Extremely.

He grew up so big, and the first time he saw it, his heart was moved. The little girl who wanted to pursue him seriously seemed to have someone?

Although this subject looks... well, looks a little better than him.

But with this kind of appearance, it is easy to attract women's liking at first glance. After following this man, Yun Shang doesn't know how much she will suffer in the future. How can she be reliable if she follows him?

Besides, based on his relationship with Bai Qingzheng, and Yunshang's relationship with his family Wu Xiang, he would never dare to treat Yunshang badly for the rest of his life. Can this person do it?

And he's also... not as unprincipled as he appears. Changing to a clerical job is also a job requirement, but it's not that he is not motivated.

He is such an outstanding young man, how hard is it to find a wife he likes?

Now that I have a goal, if I don't try to get it back, I will regret it for the rest of my life.

Wu Hongyu shook his head, stuffed the unsightly photo back into the envelope, and sat on the chair thinking about the matter of 'grabbing a wife'.

Yun Shang is young now, and he probably can't tell what he likes and what is a habit. Later, he will find a way to contact her a few more times, first to make the little girl happy and trust him, so that he can slowly fall into the trap.

Now, of course, through the relationship between Bai Qingzheng and his sister, he first got to know Yunshang.

When he was about to get off the car, Wu Hongyu let out a long sigh, reluctantly took out the small photo of Yunshang from his chest, and stuffed it back into the envelope with his eyes closed.

Forget it, give Bai Qingzheng the photo first, lest he find out that there are few photos and try to torment him again.

Wait until later to find a chance to get a group of people to drink Bai Qingzheng, and steal the photos when he is too drunk.

Yun Shang didn't know that she was being targeted by her roommate's warm-hearted brother. On the second day after returning to the dormitory, she ended her vacation early and started a busy life of getting up early and returning home late.

Both Yao Ke and Wu Xiang are people who know the importance. After returning, they did not mention Yun Shang's identity to the outside world. After the initial shock and surprise, they also calmed down and followed Yun Shang's efforts to practice.

On the other hand, Ye Li and Liu Chunmei in the dormitory, who were already impetuous and a little vain, took advantage of the three-day rest time to follow some veterans who had no hope of staying in the army to go around the city of Yicheng and bought a lot of worthless change. Bits and pieces for dressing up.

The other one didn't dare to take Gu Shinian's idea anymore, but Yunshang turned a blind eye to her flattery, treated her like air, and refused to even have a word with her, which caused Liu Chunmei to be alone all day now, It looks more and more pitiful.

Yun Shang is also a grudge, and she will not let Liu Chunmei go just because she looks pitiful. If she does not deal with her now, it is an excellent opportunity to wait to deal with her.

Soon, this opportunity will come.

According to the usual practice, the army has a tradition of conducting field training every once in a while, which is used to enhance the willpower and cohesion of soldiers, and can also enhance the soldiers' field combat capabilities.

Even if the members of the art troupe do not participate in every field training, they must participate in the two training sessions in summer and winter every year.

After all, art soldiers are also soldiers, and we can't always be special in everything.

Ever since Regiment Leader Yang issued the notice for the field training, most of the female soldiers in the regiment have been sluggish. After all, the female soldiers are too disadvantaged in terms of physiology and physical strength. Die once makes no difference.

Let's not talk about how hard it is to walk tens of miles of mountain roads on the feet used for dancing on weekdays, nor whether the heavy backpack can be carried on the back. I can't help but feel chills when I think about it.

Except for Yunshang in the dormitory, the other three recruits all regarded training as a new thing, and they looked forward to the day when they went out for training. ,

Seeing this, Yun Chang couldn't help pouring cold water on them: Why do you walk to the soles of your feet to soak, and pull off a piece of skin as soon as you take off your socks? The throat is singing, and I can't rest if I accidentally sprained my ankle. After the accompanying military doctor has finished rectifying his bones, he has to endure the pain to keep up with the large army, etc.

Since she was a child, she was used to seeing the scenes of the training of large troops in the Linyang Military Region. After Bai Qingyue joined the art troupe, Yunshang also saw her miserable appearance after participating in the training. Now when talking about the training, don't exaggerate. Just telling the truth frightened the three recruits so that they no longer dared to treat training as a game.

At six o'clock in the morning, the loud bugle sounded on time, and under the hazy sky, the quiet barracks instantly became lively. rebirth sixty good times

Chapter 618 Open a small stove

Yunshang got up before the wake-up call sounded, and while putting on her clothes, violently kicked the other three people awake one by one, "Get up quickly! You will have to queue up to wash up when you get up late. You can't be late for today's training."

The washroom in the barracks is rectangular, with a water faucet built along the wall. Below the faucet is a square trough plastered with cement, which serves as a washing table.

There are a lot of people in the army, so just a few faucets are far from enough. If you get up late, and during the rush hour for washing, you have to wait in a long line outside to wash.

After Yun Chang got dressed, she hurried out to wash up with a washbasin, toothbrush and towel. When she came back from wiping the wet hair on her forehead, Wu Xiang and the others had already dressed and were about to go out to wash up.

Taking advantage of the fact that there was no one in the dormitory for the time being, Yun Chang locked the door of the dormitory, entered the space, quickly changed into a set of thermal clothes, put warm babies on the waist, abdomen and knees, and poured a bottle of water into the military water bottle. After the pot of glucose that replenished his strength, he left the space and climbed onto the bed to pack his rucksack.

The quilt has to be folded first, and the underwear for changing is put inside. The water on the washbasin and tooth bowl needs to be wiped dry, and it will be fastened together with the quilt later. You also need to bring raincoats and rain boots, which must be neatly tied to the quilt.

When the three of Wu Xiang came back, Yun Chang had almost packed her backpack and was about to go to the cafeteria for breakfast.

Seeing that Yunshang was about to go out with a backpack on her back, Liu Chunmei hurriedly said, "Yunshang, are you going to the cafeteria to eat? Wait for us, today's training, it's better for us in the dormitory to act together."

Yun Shang didn't want to talk to Liu Chunmei at first, but when she thought of her plan, she replied in a stiff tone, "I ordered shredded pork porridge in advance in the small cafeteria yesterday, do you want to go to the small cafeteria to order food too?"

Liu Chunmei stopped talking immediately.

She was reluctant to eat the better food in the big cafeteria, let alone order food in the small cafeteria.

With her monthly allowance, she can eat in the small cafeteria for a week at most. How can she sit leisurely in a small cafeteria full of officers like Yunshang, who is watching from time to time under the gaze of a group of officers? Teeth fighting festival.

Not to mention whether he could afford it, Liu Chunmei couldn't help panicking just thinking about sitting and eating with a group of officers.

When Yunshang arrived at the small cafeteria, the porridge ordered yesterday was already ready. Seeing Yunshang stretching out her slender arms and putting the bulging backpack on the table, the master hurriedly put the crock pot containing the porridge on the tray and handed it over to her. Go out, then lie on the window and say:

"Girl,

It takes 50 kilometers to go out for training. You can eat more later, and you will have the strength to walk when you are full! "

After finishing the work, he quietly put a plate of dried radish and a rice ball with vegetables on the tray.

"I kept this rice ball in my pocket, and ate it quietly when I was hungry on the road."

It's no wonder that he loves this little girl, it's really a small cafeteria to eat, and there are a bunch of old men who can only yell, how can a little girl be so polite.

Besides, since this girl went to the small cafeteria to eat twice in three days, the compliments he heard throughout the year were not as many as these days combined.

Those officers all ran away in a hurry after finishing their rice bowls, and no one gave him some advice or praised him for the good cooking. ,

Only Comrade Bai, every time he came to pick up the food, he would always praise him first, "It's delicious", and sometimes after the meal, he would come over to praise his delicious food, which warmed people's hearts.

As a cook, isn't it the greatest affirmation for him to say that it smells delicious?

Their chefs also have pursuits!

The master laughed cheerfully a few times.

Can it be bad?

He specially made this porridge with broth that had been hung overnight, and added a couple of shredded pork to it.

Under the eyes of all the officers who were either surprised or surprised, Yunshang sat in the middle of the small cafeteria and drank the shredded pork porridge one mouthful after another.

Well, a little bit of sweetness is just a touch of light.

Look, it's only been a while before the master chef in the small canteen quietly gave her extra meals.

Yunshang was drinking the porridge happily, and suddenly looked up, seeing Deputy Head Guan and the political commissar talking, while opening the thick door curtain and walking in.

Seeing the officers in the cafeteria secretly looking at Yunshang, Guan Min twitched the corners of his mouth, held back the smile, told the political commissar, went over to get a bowl of porridge, and sat down beside Yunshang.

Looking at the white porcelain bowl and white porridge in Guan Min's hand, and then at the crock pot with shredded pork porridge in front of her, Yun Shang finally realized that she felt a little uncomfortable.

She, a soldier in the art troupe, eats better than the deputy head, it seems... a little embarrassing.

Thinking of this, Yunshang pushed the dried radish on his hand to Guan Min, and smiled flatteringly, "Head Guan, this dried radish is delicious. You can try it for dinner."

Guan Min was also polite, picked up the dried radish and tasted it, nodded in agreement, "Yeah, it tastes good."

Before Yun Chang could speak, Guan Min continued, "The weather is bad today, so be careful not to get your gloves wet on the way, so as not to get frostbite on your hands."

I have chilblains on my hands, and now I'm too busy scratching them, how can I practice piano?

Yun Shang understood the unfinished meaning in Guan Min's words, and nodded obediently, "Captain Guan, I will pay attention."

Guan Min glanced at Yun Chang's slender wrist again, thought for a while, and said, "The last time I went to the Tiger Company to perform, Company Commander Gu mentioned something about you to me and Team Leader Yang, saying that you were physically weak when you were young. It's amazing... If you really can't hold on to the training today, you can give the rucksack to the comrades in the regiment, and walk slowly behind by yourself, understand?"

She just mentioned the issue of Yunshang's joining the party with the political commissar two days ago. It can be said that the organization is still in the stage of testing and observing whether Yunshang can join the party.

If Yunshang performs well in the training this time, it will also give her extra points for joining the party, so, no matter what, Yunshang must persevere.

Yun Shang didn't expect that Gu Shinian would mention her to Yang Hongying and Guan Min in private, so she was taken aback for a moment, then nodded again in agreement.

According to what Guan Min said, he had to go through this training no matter what, and he could fall behind, but he was determined not to quit.

Fortunately, she has the blessing of mental power, but she is not afraid of being unable to keep up with the large army.

Besides, she had other plans for today, and she didn't intend to be lazy.

At exactly seven o'clock, the training team assembled at the training ground, and then a long line started to set off.

Yunshang walked behind Liu Chunmei, using the space, stuffed the two bricks that she had prepared early in the morning into Liu Chunmei's backpack, added a handful of salt to her kettle, and waited for the show with a smile on her face. rebirth sixty good times

Chapter 619 Who put the salt

Liu Chunmei came from the countryside, and her physical strength is relatively better than that of Ye Li and Wu Xiang. If she doesn't add a little burden to Liu Chunmei and make her physically exhausted, how will her plans for today be carried out?

Besides, salt water can replenish physical strength when sweating a lot. She added a handful of salt to take care of Liu Chunmei and love her comrades. What's wrong?

There is room to cheat, the weight of the backpack on Yunshang's back is completely negligible, and she followed the large army to the suburbs in one breath, without even panting.

When they entered the undulating mountainous area, Ye Li and Wu Xiang couldn't hold on and slowly fell behind. Although Liu Chunmei was a little out of breath, she still kept up with the large army.

Yun Chang had room to cheat, but after walking on the mountain road for two or three hours in a row, her feet couldn't stand it anymore. The heels should have been blistered with blood, and when they landed, they hurt like needles.

In addition, after a long journey, everyone felt a little sweaty on their bodies. There was an evil wind on the mountain, and the cold and damp air came from all directions. The hot air in the clothes could be blown away in a blink of an eye, and the underwear was cold and sticky. Wrapped greasy on the body, the taste is really indescribably uncomfortable.

However, with the baby warmer on Yunshang's body, she could still feel a little warmth on her back and stomach, which was undoubtedly much better than other female soldiers in the regiment whose lips were blue from the cold and their hands and feet were numb.

Just when Yunshang was thinking about whether to stop and look at her feet, the large army stopped and played songs on the spot for a temporary rest.

Seeing Liu Chunmei walking towards her with shaking legs, Yunshang regained her spirits immediately, unscrewed the kettle and took a sip of glucose to replenish her strength, then watched Liu Chunmei sit down beside her, unscrewed the lid of the kettle, took a sip of water, and then frowning tightly, he almost spit out the salty salt water in his mouth.

Liu Chunmei was really dumbfounded. She didn't know why the boiled water she just boiled in the morning suddenly turned into salt water, and it was still so salty.

How can I drink this thing?

The throat is already so dry that it smokes, and if you drink salt water, doesn't the more you drink, the thirstier you become?

Besides, the water was too salty, if she really drank it like this, her throat couldn't stand it!

Yunshang sneered slightly, and in Liu Chunmei's increasingly ugly face, raised her neck and poured it into the space, wasting most of the pot of glucose in one go.

Now that she has only walked less than half of the way, she only has a pot of glucose left. If Liu Chunmei doesn't want to drink the salty and bitter salt water, she can only borrow water from her with the cheek.

After all, apart from her, Liu Chunmei has no acquaintances around here.

Of course, she would also lend water to Liu Chunmei, not only to borrow it, but also to borrow it in front of everyone, so everyone around her must know that she lent all the pot of bottom water she had left to Liu Chunmei to drink. up.

Didn't Liu Chunmei want to push her to express herself in the cafeteria? Then she will use the same method to deal with Liu Chunmei today, so that Liu Chunmei can also taste what it is like to be a stepping stone for others.

Sure enough, Liu Chunmei walked to the side of the road, poured out the water in the jug, looked around, hesitated for a while, lowered her head and moved to the opposite side of Yunshang, pinched the jug tightly with her fingers, and asked to borrow water with a blushing face .

Yun Chang's eyes widened pretending to be surprised, and she raised her voice and said, "What's the matter? You borrowed water from someone after walking less than half the way? Did you drink up your own water?"

Seeing everyone around her looking over, Liu Chunmei quickly explained, "No, someone added a handful of salt to my water, so I can't drink it..."

Before Liu Chunmei finished speaking,

Yun Shang almost couldn't help laughing out, "Liu Chunmei, what are you kidding? Your kettle has never left, who can put a handful of salt in it in front of you? Let's talk about all of us They are all comrades-in-arms as close as a family, who would make life difficult for you?"

What Yunshang asked was exactly what Liu Chunmei was confused about. In addition, she had already poured out the water in the kettle. Even if she wanted to prove that she was telling the truth, there was no evidence, and she didn't know how to answer Yunshang for a while. clothes problem.

Seeing Liu Chunmei lowered her head and said nothing, Yun Chang sighed helplessly, lowered her head and untied the strap of her water bottle, "Okay, there is only one bottom of my water bottle left, let me lend you all of it. I want to drink water later. Go borrow it from someone else."

Under the deliberate guidance of Yun Shang, the conversation between the two did not hide the truth from the veterans around them. Seeing that Yun Shang lent Liu Chunmei the little water she had left, several old members of the band who were familiar with Yun Shang were not happy , especially Wen Chengjie, whose face was almost pulled into a donkey's face.

"Comrade Liu Chunmei, I heard from the doctor before that salt water is a good thing to replenish physical strength. Did you borrow salt from the cafeteria in the morning and wanted to get some salt water to replenish physical strength for yourself, but you accidentally added too much salt?"

Yun Shang: "... Old Wen, God's assist!

Liu Chunmei was dumbfounded after hearing Wen Chengjie's words.

After all, how did she put the salt herself?

She came from a rural area, how could she know that salt water can also replenish physical strength.

Wen Chengjie was considered a leader in the regiment, and when he spoke, everyone's thoughts went astray.

It's not that the veterans in the regiment are bullying the students, it's that what Liu Chunmei said is too unbelievable.

Liu Chunmei is not a dead person, the kettle has not left her body from beginning to end, even if someone wants to put salt in it, how could Liu Chunmei not find out?

If there was really salt water in her kettle, there was only one possibility, and that was that Liu Chunmei put the salt in by herself.

Otherwise, who could play tricks under Liu Chunmei's nose?

Seeing that Yunshang unscrewed the lid of the kettle and poured all the little water left in the kettle into Liu Chunmei's kettle, Wen Chengjie pulled his face, grabbed Yunshang's kettle, poured half of the water in his own kettle for Yunshang, and then used He glared at her with hateful eyes, turned his head back to his seat and sat down.

Yun Shang didn't think there was anything wrong with Wen Chengjie's attitude, so she thanked him with a smile, turned her head, and asked very understandingly, "Liu Chunmei, is the water I just gave you enough to drink? I said, Comrade Wen Chengjie just lent me water."

As soon as these words came out, Wen Chengjie almost jumped in anger.

Is this Bai Yunshang a fool?

Then Liu Chunmei was obviously bullying her, she couldn't bear to lose face and refused to borrow water, couldn't she see it?

Even if you want to join the party and show off, you can't be like a fool and send people to your door again and again to be bullied.

Liu Chunmei on the side couldn't lift her head in embarrassment, her face turned green and pale, and she felt aggrieved and aggrieved.

Her water bottle is really tricky, why don't these people believe her?

Also, Wen Chengjie can take the initiative to give Yunshang half a pot of water, why didn't he just say that he offered to lend her water?

Chapter 620: Strange Lolita

This Wen Chengjie had to wait for Yunshang to give her the remaining sip of water, and to be a good person in front of her before he came out to lend the water to Yunshang. Isn't this slapping her in the face?

But Liu Chunmei also knew that after what happened just now, all the veterans around thought she added the salt herself, and they didn't like her very well. If she dared to ask Yunshang to borrow water again, these people would definitely publicize what happened today, and by then, it would be even more difficult for her to integrate into the art troupe.

Resisting the tears in her eyes, Liu Chunmei brought the kettle to her mouth to moisten her throat a little, then tightened the lid tightly, and held it on her chest cherishingly.

At most, a small glass of water can be poured out of the kettle, and there is still more than half of the way to go. If she doesn't drink sparingly, she may not reach her destination.

After a short rest, the team set off again soon. Yun Chang endured the pain in her feet, and under the dragging of the veterans in the band, she followed the big team in a daze and lazily.

Liu Chunmei's throat was dry and smoking, and her rucksack was a few kilograms heavier than others. Halfway through the journey, she finally fell behind panting heavily.

Seeing this, Yun Chang refused Wen Chengjie's request to help her carry her rucksack, and slowly fell behind as if she couldn't walk.

When the dust brought up by the large troops passed by, Yunshang simply sat on the small dirt bag by the side of the road, waiting for Liu Chunmei and the others who were behind to catch up.

After resting for a while, Liu Chunmei stooped first and followed panting. Wu Xiang and Ye Li, who were dragged by Yao Kelian, were left a few hundred meters behind.

Seeing Yun Shang resting on the dirt bag, Liu Chunmei couldn't even speak, so she came over and sat down on the ground, wiping the sweat from her head and gasping for breath.

"How is it? Can you still hold on?" Yun Shang asked Liu Chunmei with a smile after drinking her saliva.

Liu Chunmei pursed her chapped lips, swallowed with difficulty, and said hoarsely, "Hold on, hold on."

"That's good. It's too difficult for Yao Ke to pull Wu Xiang and Ye Li by himself. We will help them later. They are in a dormitory, and no one can be left behind."

Yun Shang said it easily, but Liu Chunmei was dumbfounded.

I don't know what's going on today, her backpack is very heavy, and she lacks water, and she can't even bear to moisten her throat. Her legs are numb from the exhaustion of walking alone. How can she still have the ability to help Wu Xiang and Ye Li? ?

Yun Shang said so, are you sure you are not embarrassing her?

Resisting the urge to curse, Liu Chunmei fixed her eyes on Yunshang's slender body, and asked in a hoarse voice, "Yun, Yunshang, aren't you tired?"

"Tired!" Yunshang let out a long breath, kneading her two sore legs and said, "My two legs are almost not my own, and the soles of my feet are full of blood blisters, how can I not be tired? ."

Before Liu Chunmei could speak, Yun Chang smiled again and said, "But I'm a veteran, no matter how tired I am, I have to take you recruits with me, and I can't let anyone fall behind."

Liu Chunmei: "..."

While talking, Yao Ke dragged a person with one hand and rushed over. Seeing Yunshang from a distance, he asked, "Yunshang, how are you? Are you still able to bear it?"

"It's okay, I can persist!" Yun Shang replied, and went to take Wu Xiang from Yao Ke's hand to help her reduce the burden, "Wu Xiang, hold on a little longer, and we will be there soon."

"Yunshang, I, I can't do it!" Wu Xiang panted heavily when he saw Yunshang, and started to cry, "I think I'm going to die, my heart hurts, my chest is tight, I'm panting. Don't be angry!"

Let's not talk about Ye Li's family background. Wu Xiang grew up in a honey pot. When did he suffer from this kind of crime? , I almost cried with Yun Chang in my arms.

As soon as Wu Xiang shed tears, Yun Chang felt that her legs hurt even more, and couldn't help but want to drop a few golden beans.

However, the face-saving Yunshang kept in mind that her character could not fail, tried her best to hold back her tears, sniffed and persuaded, "It's coming soon, bear with it, and we'll be there in another ten kilometers."

When Ye Li heard this, his pale face became even more lifeless, and he almost collapsed on the ground, complaining in a low voice, "We have traveled so far, why are there still ten kilometers..."

Fortunately, the two of them knew that complaining was useless, and after taking a rest, under the urging of Yunshang and Yao Ke, they got up again and dragged their legs on their way.

Liu Chunmei hadn't rested yet, she carried her backpack a few times and didn't put it on her back. Seeing Yunshang turned her head to look at her with an ugly smile on her face, she said, "Yunshang, I really can't do it anymore. It's hard for me to go on my own. I can't help Ye. Li and Wu Xiang."

Yun Chang nodded, and pointed to the rucksack in Liu Chunmei's hand, "I think you look bad, do you want me to carry the rucksack for you?"

As soon as these words came out, Liu Chunmei's heart was moved immediately, while Yao Ke at the side disagreed, "Is your small body able to bear it? If Liu Chunmei persists, someone will definitely come before the meeting."

Liu Chunmei was about to nod, but Yun Chang had already turned the backpack on her back to the front of her body, picked up Liu Chunmei's backpack, and carried it directly behind her back, "No, we have too many people left behind, and people will come ahead later, let them Help Wu Xiang and Ye Li on their way."

Seeing that Yao Ke was struggling to drag Wu Xiang and Ye Li by himself, Yun Shang went over and forcibly took off Yao Ke's backpack, held it in his hand, and dragged Liu Chunmei forward with the other hand.

Seeing Yun Shang carrying three backpacks on her body like a strong man, and holding a tall Liu Chunmei in her hand, the others were stunned.

If in later generations, these people would definitely use one word to describe Yunshang, that would be - Weili Lolita.

It's a pity that now everyone can only praise Yunshang dryly for being "warm-hearted", "really strong" and so on.

The few people didn't go far, when someone came in front, it was Wen Chengjie and a gay man named Wang Zhiyuan from the dance team.

Seeing Yun Chang from a distance carrying three backpacks and Liu Chunmei, who was like a dead pig, Wen Chengjie's lungs were about to explode.

He rushed over a few steps, and was about to poke Yun Shang's nose and curse, but she kept winking at him, and ordered him very rudely, "Wen Chengjie, hurry up! Yao Ke dragged Wu Xiang and Ye Li has been away for a long time, you go and help Wu Xiang and Ye Li, I am fine here!"

Wen Chengjie is also a ghostly spirit. After receiving the signal from Yunshang, seeing that her complexion was indeed okay, he and Wang Zhiyuan took Wu Xiang and Ye Li from Yao Ke one by one, and hurried towards the direction of the large army .

Yao Ke was liberated, took her own backpack, and wanted to help Liu Chunmei walk with Yun Shang, but was rejected by Yun Shang. He had no choice but to follow Yun Shang and help her support Liu Chunmei from time to time.

In fact, Liu Chunmei had already rested at this moment, but because of the shameful thoughts in her heart, she pretended to be stupid, and forced Yunshang to carry her backpack for her while helping her on the way.
