Chapter 63 Hand over my sister's family!

The last time Anna Mae overheard Yun Shuilian's conversation with Han Weihong, she found the old lady's ward, and in front of everyone in the old Wang family, told the truth about Widow Wang's madness.

Her life is soft and weak, she speaks softly and slowly, even if she exaggerates a little in her words, no one will suspect that she is lying, let alone that she will blatantly stumble upon Xu Dalan.

Old Mrs. Wang heard that Widow Wang was ill after being scolded and couldn't say anything back. She was stimulated and suffocated for several days, and then she became crazy. Seriously, he passed away on the spot.

When she woke up again, Mrs. Wang didn't care that her bones had just been connected, she grabbed the tea jar, rice bowl, and chopsticks at hand and smashed it on Xu Dalan's head, and even scolded the boss of the Wang family to divorce Xu Dalan. , and drove her back to Houyashan as a common wife.

This smashing made the bones that Mrs. Wang had just connected out of place again. When the bones were connected again, Mrs. Wang was so in pain that she couldn't even speak, so she could only lie on the bed and snort softly.

Mrs. Wang can't move herself, and it's not easy for the old man to beat Xu Dalan, while the eldest son is squatting outside the ward with his head in his arms. The whole family couldn't find anyone who could vent her anger for her.

After finally waiting for the two daughters who married out to hear Xin'er and rushed to the hospital, Mrs. Wang was considered a thug, lying on the bed and instructing the two daughters to put Xu Dalan in front of the hospital bed and beat him up, and then pulled the two. With the hands of a girl, with tears in their eyes, they asked them to pull the widow Wang and run to Xinglin Village with old man Wang to see how their little girl was doing.

In this way, Yun Erchuan returned to Xinglin Village with the father and daughter of the Wang family.

Before Yun Erchuan could explain the matter to the Yun family elders, the old man Wang brought his two daughters to the door.

The queen of the Wang family, Lotus, entered the door and asked Yun Erchuan if she took her sister and niece to the county town yesterday. Seeing Yun Erchuan nod, she grabbed Yun Erchuan by the collar and howled:

"You old Yun family have lost their conscience! Seeing that my sister is crazy, they even coaxed and deceived my sister and niece to the county town and sold it! You are trying to occupy my sister's house! Yun Erchuan, if you are today If you don't bring my sister back, I'll go to town and sue you for abducting women!"

The second child, Wang Tonghua, didn't show weakness, and went up to scratch Yun Erchuan's paw first, and then grabbed Yun Erchuan's dignitaries while crying and howling.

The old Yun family was completely stunned by this change, and when they reacted, Yun Erchuan had already suffered the two sisters of the Wang family several times.

Li Hongmei was the first to react, and she rushed over and grabbed Wang Tonghua with a sound of 'Ow', scolding while beating, "Bitch! You dare to hit my man! I'll let you hit my man! You black-hearted eyes are my family. What are you talking about, Xu Dalan made Wang Guihua mad and you don't care, our family paid to go to the provincial capital to see Wang Guihua's madness, and you came to be a monster again! I feel so sorry for your sister, why don't you bring it home to make offerings..."

Yun Shuilian couldn't learn how to fight shrew. Seeing that Yun Erchuan was caught by Wang Hehua and couldn't break free, she snapped her mouth in a hurry.

Within thirty seconds of the Wang family entering the door, they fought with Lao Yun's family in the courtyard.

The old man Yun was so angry that his face was blue, and he pointed at the old man Wang. In the end, he was really angry and went forward and punched him twice.

So bullying!

The Lao Wang family is going to ride wildly on the head of the Lao Yun family!

After a few people in the yard were separated by the surrounding neighbors, the old man Yun held on to the old man to death, "The surname is Wang, I won't explain this matter today, don't even think about going out of the door of my old Yun's house!"

"What to explain? I also want to ask you to explain! Where did Yun Erchuan send my daughter and my granddaughter? What about people now? My daughter is so crazy..."

"Pooh!"

Before the old man Wang finished speaking, he was spit on the face by the old man Yun.

"How dare you ask our family how crazy your daughter is? Why don't you ask Xu Dalan? Your daughter has left our Lao Yun family,

Can you ask us? "

Yun Shuilian also went over to make up for it: "My sister-in-law has broken off with your family, what qualifications do you have to ask about my sister-in-law?"

The old man Wang was blocked and speechless, holding his breath in his throat, unable to go up or down for a long time.

The two sisters of the Wang family jumped again when they saw Old Man Wang being scolded.

Wang Hehua pulled Old Man Wang behind him, pointed at Old Man Yun, and said:

"Wang Guihua's divorce from her mother's family is also the seed of our old Wang family! The embryo can be broken if you say it is broken? It's your old Yun family, who are separated from my sister, and come to meddle in my sister's affairs. What do you want to do? ? Let me tell you, even if my sister is really crazy, that big tiled house doesn't belong to your Lao Yun family! Even if it's about the horizon, it should belong to our Lao Wang family!"

Wang Tonghua's eyes quickly grunted a few times, and she quickly looked at the Lao Yun family. Seeing that the Lao Yun family was really poor, she immediately took Wang Hehua's words and continued:

"It's not just the house, but also my sister's family background! Who doesn't know that your old Yun's family is in a bad situation in the surrounding ten miles and eight villages, where did you get the money to go to the provincial capital to see a doctor for my sister? It must be secretly ignoring my sister's family background. It's gone!"

"Yes! Where is the money my sister has saved in the past few years? Where is the money? You hand over my sister's family background!"

The old lady Yun was so angry that her face turned pale, she shook her body, and she held on to the wall so that she did not fall down:

"You old Wang family are still shameless? Do you know if Wang Guihua has worked in recent years? She is not enough centimeters every year and owes money to the village, do you know? You say she is rich, then tell me, Wang Guihua's Where did the money come from, and how much money did our family take from her?"

"That's not my sister, she's good-looking, she lives..." Wang Hehua opened her mouth subconsciously, and immediately closed her mouth again.

No matter which concubine gave the money to Widow Wang, in front of the crowd at the moment, she couldn't say anything that would ruin her sister's reputation.

Otherwise, she doesn't look good on her face.

Her mother can also tear her alive.

Wang Tonghua's mind turned faster, and immediately put aside the question of whether the old Yun family had any possessions of Widow Wang's family, and directly asked Yun Erchuan.

"Yun Erchuan, your daughter-in-law said that your family paid to send my sister to the provincial capital to see a doctor. Is it true or false? If it is true, with your old Yun family background, where can you find money to see a doctor for my sister? If you didn't borrow money from the village, where did the money for my sister's medical treatment come from?"

For the sake of the two sisters of the Wang family, whoever was present didn't know that they were beating Widow Wang's house and the idea of Widow Wang's family. Even Old Man Wang could see it, but he deliberately didn't. Make a sound, silently indulge the behavior of the two girls.
