Chapter 631 true and false Liu Chunmei (1)

The girl's howl was no less than dropping an atomic bomb in the art troupe, and the bombing made Head Yang and the political commissar unable to recover for a long time.

After so many years in the army, they have only seen ordinary soldiers being impostors, and they have never seen art soldiers being impersonated.

This is not to say that art troupes have no future and no one is interested in them. In fact, on the contrary, for lesbians in this era, being able to join an art troupe and become an art soldier is already the most honorable thing girls can choose. best job ever.

Not to mention anything else, just by wearing the energetic olive green, you can get envious eyes from everyone.

Even if you can't stay in the army after a few years, transfer to a local job, and have the experience of serving in the army, it is much easier to join the party than others.

The reason why it is said that the art soldiers are not easy to be replaced by impostors is because the recruitment process of the art soldiers is more stringent, and it is not easy to manipulate.

During conscription, the teachers of the art troupe will go to the place in person and recruit recruits through face-to-face assessments. Only after the recruits have passed the test of their own image and professional ability, and then pass the political review, can they get the notice of enlistment.

According to this process, there is almost no possibility of the literary and art soldiers being replaced by impostors. How did the fake Liu Chunmei in the army take advantage of the loopholes?

Seeing that no one got off the car for a long time, the girl stumbled and ran forward a few steps, her voice was almost hoarse with grief and anger:

"I'm Liu Chunmei! The Liu Chunmei in your army is called Liu Jinfeng, the daughter of the captain of our village! Liu Jinfeng and his family robbed me of my enlistment quota. They were also worried that my father would be framed if he found out that he was going to make trouble. My father has a feudal superstitious thought, dragged our whole family out to criticize, and wanted me and my father to die in the cowshed..."

Yun Chang couldn't help standing up, opened the canvas curtain, and turned to look at the girl in front of the truck.

At the age of sixteen or seventeen, it was probably because she had been on the road for a few days. The patched clothes on her body were wrinkled and ugly, her trouser legs were also covered with mud spots, and two of the cloth shoes on her feet were broken. hole, exposing the black toes.

Seeing Head Yang and the political commissar get out of the car, the girl raised her arm to wipe away the tears from her eyes, revealing her amazing eyes that were bright with anger.

Yun Chang took a look, and the girl who claimed to be Liu Chunmei looked somewhat similar to Liu Chunmei. However, the real Liu Chunmei has clear eyes, more dignified facial features, and a vigorous energy that is unique to girls in Gu village. She looks like an upright and straightforward girl

And she has beautiful eyes,

They are very beautiful phoenix eyes, bright and energetic, but unfortunately there is a little finger-long black scar from the end of the eye to the cheek, lying crookedly on her face like a centipede, ferocious and terrifying, abruptly destroying her good looks.

Seeing this, Yun Shang's heart immediately sank.

The real Liu Chunmei has been disfigured.

The reason for the disfigurement should be related to the enlistment quota that was impersonated.

Now even if the art troupe expelled the imposter Liu Chunmei from the army, it is impossible for the real Liu Chunmei to become an art soldier again.

As a solo artist, his face is ruined, and his future is also over.

Head Yang and the political commissar had already sent someone to inform the comrades in the political engineering department. When they got out of the car, they saw the scar on the girl's face. Nine times out of ten it is true.

The girl in front of her is Liu Chunmei, the one who stayed in the regiment for two months is a fake!

Outside, Head Yang and the political commissar were asking in low voices about the real Liu Chunmei being replaced by an impostor. The members of the art troupe in the car also gathered together in small groups to whisper about it, and looked at Liu Chunmei with strange eyes from time to time.

As for Liu Chunmei herself, to be precise, as for the fake Liu Chunmei herself, since the real Liu Chunmei appeared, she sat there paralyzed, shaking like a sieve, and kept trembling and muttering:

"I am Liu Chunmei, I am Liu Chunmei... She is talking nonsense, she is talking nonsense, she is talking nonsense! I am Liu Chunmei, I am not Liu Jinfeng! She is a bad person, how can you believe what a bad person says..."

Ever since Ye Li got a box of face oil stolen by the fake Liu Chunmei, she has always found fault with her. Every day in the dormitory when she has nothing to do, she can find all kinds of excuses to tickle her. Now I heard that Liu Chunmei is a fake , Immediately couldn't help shouting:

"Oh, how can there be such a bad person! Liu Jinfeng, you clearly know that Liu Chunmei is a bad person, so why are you pretending to be a bad person? Isn't this even worse than a bad person?"

As soon as the words fell, the captain of the dance team frowned immediately, suppressing Ye Li's nonsense, "Okay! The matter hasn't been investigated clearly, so don't talk nonsense."

Ye Li didn't have the guts to confront his immediate superior, so he pulled his face and groaned, then gave Liu Chunmei a hard look, and sat in the corner without saying a word.

Wu Xiang probably didn't expect to join the army at the same time as himself. Liu Chunmei, who lived in a dormitory for nearly half a year, turned out to be a counterfeit. Chang, do you think this is true? Liu Chunmei, she, she is really a fake...how dare she?"

Yun Shang shook Wu Xiang backhandedly, and said in a calm and steady voice, "This is not a trivial matter, and the comrades in the political engineering department will investigate it clearly."

"I know..." Wu Xiang's voice trembled slightly, and he lowered his voice again, "I just took a look, and that lesbian's face is disfigured, even if she is really Liu Chunmei, she probably won't be able to join the art troupe. "

Yao Ke on the side sighed, "If this is true, then Liu Chunmei's professional ability has not been up to standard, so it can be explained."

It was the real Liu Chunmei who was admitted to the art troupe at the beginning. Even if Liu Jinfeng entered the army instead of Liu Chunmei, he would not be able to gain a foothold in the art troupe without real skills.

While a few people were talking, comrades from the political engineering department led a line of soldiers from the guard battalion and ran over at a neat pace.

Head Yang went over and explained the matter in general, and the comrades of the political engineering department immediately brought two Liu Chunmei, one real and one fake, into the military division.

Probably because of being too angry, when the real Liu Chunmei saw Liu Jinfeng who was impersonating her, her thin body burst out with great strength, and she directly tore apart the two soldiers who were pulling Liu Jinfeng, and gave her two loud blows slap in the face.

Before everyone could react, they bent their fingers again and scratched Liu Jinfeng's face hard.

I don't know if it was intentional or a coincidence, but the position where she scratched was just from the end of the eye to the cheek.

Chapter 632 true and false Liu Chunmei (2)

Returning from the company's performance after a few days in a row, Yun Shang approached Guan Min full of questions, and under the pretense of picking up the music, she stayed in Guan Min's office with shamelessness.

In the past two months, Guan Min has given Yunshang a lot of trouble in business. After getting along for a long time, he also understands Yunshang's temperament more or less.

It was ridiculous to see her not leaving after finishing her business, groaning and groaning on the chair, inquiring about Liu Chunmei being replaced by an impostor. come out.

After all, it was the real Liu Chunmei who broke the news in front of the members of the Quanwen Group. Even if the members of the group didn't say anything publicly, they were all paying attention to the progress of this matter in private.

In view of the fact that this incident was too unimaginable and the impact was too bad, the political commissar and regimental leader Yang also decided to announce the results of the investigation at the regular meeting, so as to avoid more outrageous rumors from the regiment in private.

Guan Min poured a cup of hot water, warmed his cold fingers in the palm of his hand, and said with a smile, "You are also impatient, and you can't wait all night? The political commissar originally planned to talk about this at the regular meeting tomorrow."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she lay on the table, staring at Guan Min with burning eyes, "Teacher Guan, please tell me quickly, what's going on?"

"That lesbian didn't lie, and Liu Chunmei in the regiment is indeed a fake." Guan Min talked to Yun Shang about the investigation results of the political engineering department while drinking hot water slowly.

The real Liu Chunmei and Liu Jinfeng are both from Liujiagou, and the two families still don't have five clothes.

Liu Chunmei's father sang Qin opera before liberation, and was a famous figure in the local theater troupe. It is said that he offended the local gentry young master during a performance and was limped. , Became an authentic farmer.

It's probably because Liu Chunmei's father's genes are too good. After Liu Chunmei was born, his voice was even better than her father's back then.

When she was a child, she tended sheep on the mountain, and she sang casually along with her father by the side of the ditch, and the small voice could be heard far away.

When Liu Chunmei was older, the head of the village propaganda team recruited her into the team, and let her perform with the propaganda team around the villages in the county during the off-season.

Once out of the village, the reputation of Liu Chunmei's good singing spread farther, even the people in the county propaganda team heard about it, and officially recruited Liu Chunmei as a full-time employee of the county propaganda team.

In this way, Liu Chunmei can be regarded as a daughter who inherited her father's career and took the path of literature and art.

and,

Liu Chunmei was more patient than her father. Her father could only hang out in the folk grassroots team at best, but Liu Chunmei joined the county propaganda team.

Thus, at a young age, Liu Chunmei became a legend in Liujiagou, an existence envied by every girl in the village.

Liu Jinfeng is about the same age as Liu Chunmei, and the two families belong to the same family, and the two girls have known each other since they were young.

After Liu Chunmei joined the county propaganda team, Liu Jinfeng felt very bad. After all, apart from her better voice, Liu Chunmei couldn't find any other advantages that could match her.

In terms of the family situation, her father is the captain, her mother is the women's director of the village, and there are three older brothers who work hard and love her. As the only daughter in the family, Liu Jinfeng lived a better life than many girls in the city. .

Among the big girls in Liujiagou, which one doesn't admire her? Liu Jinfeng was born in Fuwowo?

How can Liu Chunmei, a poor and accustomed person, be compared with her? Just relying on her lame father, that tired mother who can't straighten her waist, and that younger brother who is sick and can't get out of bed?

There are four members of the family, all of whom are old, weak, sick, and disabled. The daily income of the whole family is not as much as that of a strong laborer. The life is very tight and poor.

It was only later that Liu Chunmei joined the county propaganda team and became a city resident, and the family life gradually became more relaxed.

Seeing that my little friend who was not as good as me when I was a child sang a job quota with two voices, he sang himself from a poor mountain valley to the city, became a city resident, and got a lot of bills every month. And Qian, Liu Jinfeng is both admiring and jealous.

No matter how good and comfortable her life is in the village, how can people in the city live better?

As a village girl, she is at most more refined than the villagers in terms of food, but in terms of dress, she is far behind those city girls.

After all, her father is just a team leader in a poor valley, but there is no way to get her those colorful cloth tickets and property tickets.

However, Liu Chunmei's Story of a Country Girl Going to the City also opened up a new way of thinking for Liu Jinfeng.

Since Liu Chunmei can enter the city by singing, she can also enter the city by singing!

Even if she couldn't join the county propaganda team, she would still join the town's propaganda team. If not, wouldn't there be the village propaganda team to back her up.

Being able to sing along with the village propaganda team to several nearby villages, no matter what, is better than working in the fields.

Liu Jinfeng, who has a clear goal, is still very quick to move. On weekdays, she goes to the hillside when she has nothing to do, learns folk songs with Liu Jinmei and her father, and occasionally runs to the cowshed to learn from a music teacher who was sent to Liujiagou. Voice.

When Liu Chunmei came back from the county on weekdays, Liu Jinfeng would pester Liu Chunmei and ask her about the county propaganda team.

After going back and forth, the relationship between the two is better than before.

And Liu Jinfeng also has a little bit of talent. After two years of learning, he is still not as good as Liu Chunmei, but when compared with the people in the village propaganda team, the gap immediately becomes apparent.

Just when Liu Jinfeng and her father were eagerly looking for a way to send their daughter to the county propaganda team, the military art troupe happened to set up a recruiting point in the district, and Liu Chunmei was recommended as the face of the county propaganda team.

After the news spread to Liujiagou, everyone in the village was excited.

In the past, people in the village only knew that male soldiers would be recruited into the army, but this was the first time they heard that female soldiers were required in the army.

If Liu Chunmei can be selected, there will be a female soldier in Liujiagou!

What a rarity!

After Liu Jinfeng heard about this, her mind started to move. She spent most of the night thinking about it with her father. Early the next morning, the father and daughter went to the county with a letter of introduction. Taking Liu Jinfeng to try his luck, the two can be companions and give each other courage.

Just like that, the two girls, who were only seventeen years old, drove from the county to the conscription office in the district after taking a bus for a long time.

When signing up for the assessment, Liu Chunmei ranked ahead of Liu Jinfeng. After entering, she sang an Anxi folk song in front of the assessment teacher, and was hired on the spot.

This is also an important doubtful point for Liu Chunmei to suspect that she was replaced by Liu Jinfeng.

Chapter 633 true and false Liu Chunmei (3)

Knowing that Liu Chunmei had been hired, Liu Jinfeng felt sour. He absently listened to Liu Chunmei's experience in participating in the assessment, nodded indiscriminately, and went in to participate in the assessment.

Unlike Liu Chunmei's calm typhoon, Liu Jinfeng, who sang in front of so many big people for the first time, became nervous before entering the door. When he opened his throat after entering, all the breath that should have been sinking gathered in his throat, and the sound that came out was all its trembling.

Before finishing singing a song, the assessment teacher frowned and stopped immediately.

Regardless of the professional ability of the candidates who participate in the conscription, the art troupe will not want people who can't hold the stage on stage and show timidity when they take the stage.

There were only two of them, and Liu Jinfeng's voice trembled nervously. If she went to the army and performed in front of hundreds of officers and soldiers, she wouldn't be scared to pee on the stage.

Not being hired, Liu Jinfeng hated Liu Chunmei even more.

If Liu Chunmei didn't perform so well and was hired by the teacher of the art troupe on the spot, which caused pressure on her, she wouldn't be so nervous that she couldn't perform well, so that she was stopped by the assessment teacher halfway.

When Liu Jinfeng came out of the assessment, she met Liu Chunmei's eager gaze. For some reason, she didn't tell the truth, but nodded to him, indicating that she had also been hired by the art troupe.

The two little girls from the same family hugged happily outside. It's just that Liu Chunmei was really happy from the bottom of her heart, but Liu Jinfeng felt depressed and jealous, with a fake smile that couldn't be faked anymore.

The two were eager to let the villagers know the good news, and they didn't have time to rest. They went back to the village that night and informed them that they were hired by the art troupe and could enlist in the army after the political review.

As a result, the entire Liujiagou was boiling.

Two female soldiers came out of their Liujiagou at once, this is really two golden phoenixes flying out of the valley.

It really gave Liu Jiagou a lot of face!

In Liujiagou, 80% of the families have the surname Liu, and after a few generations, everyone still has the same ancestor!

It can be said that the people in Liujiagou Village are all relatives who beat around the bush.

This time, two golden phoenixes flew out of Liujiagou at once, which is the pride of the whole village.

If it wasn't for the fact that the two of them hadn't passed the political review and hadn't received the notice of enlistment yet, the people in Liujiagou might have wandered around the town beating drums and drums to promote it...

Liu Jinfeng dismissed the friends who came to congratulate with a strong smile,

He drooped his head and entered the main room, shaking off the good things he had done.

The team leader was stunned by his daughter's coquettish manipulation.

No matter what, he never imagined that Liu Jinfeng would be so courageous that he dared to make up a lie about being hired by the art troupe. After two days, when the people from the army's political review come over, won't they be exposed?

Where will he put his old face then? What face do you have to be the captain in the future?

Now that Liu Jinfeng has confessed honestly, she is naturally ready to be scolded by her father. Of course, she also believes that her father's ability will not let her overturn.

Things happened as Liu Jinfeng expected, after her father was furious, he still had to hold back his anger and dragged her mother to find a solution for her.

Liu Jinfeng explained the process of her assessment in detail, and then talked about the news she found outside.

"When Chunmei went in for the assessment, I asked the People's Liberation Army who registered to fill out the registration form. He said that yesterday was the last day for the army to recruit soldiers in our district, and he went back early this morning.

He also said that the singing teacher was from the Art Troupe of the Military District of He'an Province. She will be transferred to other provinces after participating in the recruitment. All should be arranged in the art troupes in each district.

Dad, those people are all members of the He'an Provincial Art Troupe. As long as I don't go to the provincial city art troupe, I will not reveal my secret if I ask to go to the military sub-district below!"

The captain immediately understood what Liu Jinfeng meant.

His daughter wants him to find a way to snatch Liu Chunmei's enlistment quota.

If he is caught, he will be jailed!

But if he didn't do that, and his daughter spread all the big words, how could he still raise his head in the village in the future?

The team leader really didn't want to admit that after knowing that Liu Chunmei was admitted to the army and his daughter failed the examination, for a moment he felt malicious towards that family.

After all, in the eyes of the captain, his daughter is a thousand times better than Liu Chunmei.

Now that Liu Jinfeng proposed to replace Liu Chunmei, although the team leader was tempted, he hesitated for a while when he thought of the consequences of this incident being exposed, and slowly pondered in his heart whether it was feasible.

Seeing her father sinking into deep thought while smoking a pipe, Liu Jinmei continued, "Father, don't people in the village always say that I look like Chunmei? Besides, Liu Chunmei's father used to sing for landlords, so he would definitely not pass the political examination, so we can't watch the number of enlistment numbers fly away, right?"

It has to be said that Liu Jinfeng's last words completely concentrated the captain's heart and made his wavering mind completely settle down.

For the next two days, the captain and Liu Jinfeng stood guard at the gate of the town and the village, respectively, and finally waited for the comrades who came down for political review.

When the team leader brought the political review staff into the village, it was the time for the villagers to go to work, and all the commune members went to work in the fields. Except for a few children playing at the entrance of the village, no one in the village knew that the military reviewers had come down. up.

So, a few staff members who were supposed to go to Liu Chunmei's family for financial interrogation were brought to Liu Jinfeng's home in such a daze.

In this way, the enlistment notice that should have been sent to Liu Chunmei fell into Liu Jinfeng's hands.

After the staff of the political review left, the team leader announced that Liu Jinfeng had passed the political review and was going to report to the army tomorrow, and he still sighed in front of the commune members to feel sorry for Liu Chunmei, saying that Liu Chunmei hadn't received the notice of enlistment , it's her father's background.

He also said that the people in the army had already found out that Liu Chunmei's father sang operas for the landlord, and that Qin Opera was still a feudal remnant. With such a questionable father, the army ordered that Liu Chunmei not be allowed.

Didn't you see that the comrade in the political trial didn't even go to Liu Chunmei's house?

That was because someone had already inquired about Liu Chunmei's background in the town.

After Liu Jinfeng left with the notice of enlistment, the team leader was worried that the matter would be exposed, so he simply excused Liu Chunmei's family status not being good enough and failed the political review, and dragged the whole family into the town to fight, wishing to let the family die in the cowshed, and then the good deeds he did will not be exposed.

Chapter 634 Debunking the Conspiracy

The team leader had a very good idea, thinking that Liu Chunmei's family disappeared, and no one would suspect and investigate Liu Jinfeng's impersonation of Liu Chunmei.

But he never expected that it was because of his behavior of suppressing Liu Chunmei's family that the good deeds of their father and daughter were exposed.

Liu Chunmei is not an ordinary rural girl, she is an official employee of the county's cultural propaganda team.

The team leader criticized the four members of the Liu family on the pretext that Liu Chunmei failed the political review. The news spread to the work unit, and the county cultural propaganda team also became chaotic.

The vice-captain of the Propaganda Team took advantage of Liu Chunmei's denunciation to label the captain who recruited Liu Chunmei into the county Propaganda Team as a cover-up for harboring bad elements, and directly sent the Propaganda Team Captain to the Revolutionary Committee.

Even the comrades in the army thought there was something wrong with Liu Chunmei's background, so Liu Chunmei's family must be bad elements.

The leader of the propaganda team recruited a bad element into the unit, and actively recommended her to participate in the army recruitment. He wanted to mix the bad element into the revolutionary team. What was he thinking?

It would be an understatement to say that he is a counter-revolutionary careerist!

The vice-captain was in trouble, and the team of the captain couldn't sit still. They turned the whole thing upside down and thought about it over and over again, thinking that this matter still had to be solved from the source.

The cause of the incident was that the comrades in the army's political review decided that Liu Chunmei's background was problematic. If everyone could take off the big hats on Liu Chunmei's family, then the captain's hat would fall off without taking it off.

Besides, the charges on the captain's body are much higher than those of Liu Chunmei's family, so everyone can only start from Liu Chunmei's side.

Everyone thought about it carefully, Liu Chunmei failed the political trial because her father's identity was questionable, but what did Liu Chunmei's father do?

Just because Liu Chunmei's father sang for the landlord? This just shows that Liu Chunmei's father was a poor man who was oppressed and exploited by the landlord class. What's wrong with his identity?

It is said that Liu Chunmei's Qin Opera sung by her father is a remnant of feudalism, but her father's leg was lame before liberation, and then he returned to the village and became a real farmer. He never sang Qin Opera on stage again.

After discussing it, everyone felt that there was something wrong with the result of the political review.

According to the normal procedure, the comrades of the military political review would go to the recruits' units and families to investigate the rectification of the recruits. The county propaganda team had prepared all kinds of materials for Liu Chunmei, but they did not wait for the comrades of the political review to come.

The comrades in the army did not come to the unit to investigate,

They didn't even go to Liu Chunmei's house to investigate. Where did they learn about Liu Chunmei's situation? They didn't even go through the normal procedures, and directly judged Liu Chunmei's political review as unqualified?

Ordinarily, the comrades who go up and down the political review in the army will not be so hasty.

If Liu Chunmei's political trial really has ulterior motives, there must be someone playing tricks.

The reason for the other party's troubles may be that they have enmity with Liu Chunmei's family, or they may benefit from it.

Everyone checked Liu Chunmei's family situation, and found that the Liu family were all honest people and had never had any feud with anyone.

At the same time, the family of Captain Liujiagou jumped into the eyes of everyone in the propaganda team.

This time, Liu Jinfeng, the daughter of the captain's family, went to the district to participate in the conscription together with Liu Chunmei. Liu Chunmei, the business leader of the county propaganda team, was dismissed, and Liu Jinfeng, who had never been on stage before, was recruited by the military art troupe. Are you sure this is not a joke? ?

Also, the fact that Liu Chunmei failed the political review came from the head of the brigade, and it was the brigade captain of Liujiagou who took the lead in criticizing Liu Chunmei's family this time.

Before this, the two families got along well, and they were still in the same family. Even if Liu Chunmei failed the political review, the captain didn't need to fight the brothers and family of the same family to death.

No matter how you look at it, it looks like killing people under the guise of revolution.

What on earth did Liu Chunmei's family hinder the captain, so that he wanted to be so cruel to his brothers?

No matter how dull you are, you now associate Liu Chunmei's failure in the political trial with Liu Jinfeng's smooth joining of the army.

When in doubt, everyone acted immediately.

He first went to the county and town to inquire, and knew that the comrades in the army's political review had not reviewed Liu Jinfeng's family situation, so he immediately confirmed that Liu Jinfeng had not passed the recruitment assessment in the district.

Later, they arranged for people to meet Liu Chunmei, who was locked up in the cowshed and was almost dying. I learned from Liu Chunmei that when she was participating in the assessment, the teachers in the army hired her on the spot, so they robbed Liu Jinfeng of her spot in the army, and revealed that the team leader's family had tampered with her in the political examination.

Liu Chunmei has been in the propaganda team for several years, and her vision and brain have long been tempered. Knowing that the captain wanted the lives of their family, he took the initiative to draw a line with her father before the other party made the final move, and justifiably shook off the hat of a bad guy on his head.

Before the vice-captain of the publicity team could react, they took the letter of introduction secretly opened by their colleagues and drove overnight to the Yicheng Military Division thousands of miles away.

I have to say that the girl Liu Chunmei really has a lot of ruthlessness in her body. She spent three days and three nights on the train relying on three buns, and then walked from the train station to the military division abruptly. Han Fengxuezi waited outside for several hours, and finally stopped the car of the lower company of the art troupe.

Liu Chunmei knew better than anyone else that the only way to clean up the dirty water that was poured on their family was to find the army leader and expose Liu Jinfeng as a counterfeit.

The recruit recruited by the army at the beginning was Liu Chunmei, and she was Liu Chunmei herself, which shows that her political trial was not a problem, and her father was not a bad person.

And the leader of the propaganda team who was implicated because of her was naturally not a counter-revolutionary harboring bad elements.

It has to be said that Liu Chunmei's mind is indeed sober. With one trick to get rid of the shell, and one trick to get rid of the fire, the big conspiracy that had been raised on their family and the head of the propaganda team for several months was completely shattered.

Guan Min has the potential to tell stories, and she told the whole story vividly, which almost fascinated Yun Chang.

After listening to the story, he still asked unwillingly, "Teacher Guan, what happened next? How will the organization plan to solve this matter? What will Liu Jinfeng do? Can the wound on Liu Chunmei's face be healed, and can she still join the army?"

Guan Min sighed, shook his head and said, "The impact of this incident is too bad. The troops will contact the local government to send Liu Jinfeng back, and the local government will handle this matter publicly. The scar on Liu Chunmei's face is too deep. Well, I guess there will be scars too.

The political commissar discussed Liu Chunmei's affairs with Head Yang. If she wants to stay in the troupe, she can only stay in the stage beauty group for the time being. Whether she can perform on stage in the future depends on the recovery of the wound on her face. "

Chapter 635 Follow-up

Yunshang stretched her head forward again, and asked mysteriously, "Ms. Guan, is Liu Chunmei really strong in business? Did the team leader ask her to say something?"

Guan Min was amused by Yun Shang's little gossip, poked her head open with her finger, and said with a smile, "I heard a few words yesterday, and in terms of professional ability, none of the singing team can catch up." It's just a pity that the scar on the face.

Yun Shang tilted her body following Guan Min's strength, and moved towards him in another direction, "Teacher Guan, what's Liu Chunmei's opinion? Does she want to stay in the army?"

Compared to Liu Jinfeng, Liu Chunmei, who was treated unfairly but was able to fight back swiftly and wiped out those two gangs, was really much more favorable.

Moreover, the girl has a heroic look in her eyebrows and eyes, and she looks like a refreshing person. This kind of temperament really suits Yunshang's appetite.

Yunshang felt that if Liu Jinfeng hadn't impersonated Liu Chunmei, she would have become friends with the real Liu Chunmei.

Guan Min let out a long sigh, and said regretfully, "The political commissar talked to Liu Chunmei about this, but what Liu Chunmei meant was that she wanted to sing on stage. In the county propaganda team."

The publicity team in the small county usually performed in various communes below, and the audience was all familiar faces. Whether Liu Chunmei had a scar on her face really didn't matter much.

Unfortunately for Guan Min, Liu Chunmei is already eighteen years old this year, and compared to the fifteen or sixteen recruits recruited in previous years, she is considered older.

If she chooses to go back to the county propaganda team, even if her face can be restored in the future, it is impossible for her to join the military art troupe in the future.

It can be said that this is the only time in Liu Chunmei's life, and it is also the last chance to be a soldier.

Yunshang was not surprised by Liu Chunmei's choice at all. While feeling sorry for her, she also felt that Liu Chunmei's choice was not smart enough.

The county's propaganda team is raging right now, and Liu Chunmei, as the leader of the propaganda team, has single-handedly picked up a leader who is a thorn in the side of the vice-captain's faction.

This time, she sneaked into the army to dismantle Liu Jinfeng's family's plot, and invisibly made the deputy captain's plan to suppress the captain come to naught.

The other party finally waited for such a good opportunity to seize power, but Liu Chunmei ruined it. How could the vice captain's faction let her go?

Besides, even if the deputy captain can't move the captain for the time being, wouldn't it be easy to deal with Liu Chunmei, an ordinary employee?

don't say anything else,

As long as the vice-captain says that Liu Chunmei is disfigured and unsuitable for the stage, her future in the propaganda team will be cut off.

If the other party was more ruthless and made some small moves, Liu Chunmei could easily be labeled as a villain and expelled from the propaganda team.

If Liu Chunmei wants to be on stage and sing songs for a lifetime, staying in the army is the best choice.

The little girls in the art troupe may have their own petty thoughts, and occasionally have conflicts with each other, but at most, everyone has a little verbal quarrel, and it's really useless to be a life-threatening existence.

Compared with the county propaganda team, the Yicheng Military District Art Troupe is almost a piece of pure land. It was much safer for Liu Chunmei to stay in the army than to return to the county propaganda team.

Another point is that even if Liu Chunmei can't perform on stage in the troupe for a few years, after she changes jobs and returns to the local area, she has the experience of serving in the military art troupe, so her identity can be more guaranteed.

Even if someone doesn't have the eyes to touch Liu Chunmei, they still have to weigh the contacts she has accumulated in the army over the years.

Moreover, she performed on stage as a veteran, and no one dared to say anything easily. Retired soldiers are also very respected in this era.

Hearing Yun Shang whispering there, a look of surprise flashed in Guan Min's eyes, he didn't expect that the great horse she caught in her eyes was still a beautiful little girl.

The brain is smart, and when encountering things, they can distinguish the seriousness from the seriousness.

"Okay, Liu Chunmei's affairs will be handled by the political commissar and regimental leader Yang, so don't worry about other people's affairs. It's almost the end of February, and you should pay more attention to your business recently."

Seeing that Guan Min was talking about business, Yun Chang nodded quickly, and after making some guarantees for Guan Min, she went back to the dormitory with the violin in her arms.

In the dormitory, Liu Jinfeng's bunk was already empty, Ye Li was leaning on the bed, rubbing his calves, and cursing Liu Jinfeng's family viciously at the only audience, Wu Xiang.

"...My eyes are bright, and I can tell at a glance that Liu Jinfeng is not a good person! He snatched Liu Chunmei's enlistment quota, and even dragged her family out to criticize her. How heartless!"

Wu Xiang is lying on the bed right now practicing legwork, fixing her legs to the side of her head, echoing Ye Li's words, "I thought she just wanted to get ahead so much that she always wanted to step on us." How could she know that her thoughts would be so vicious. Hey, I think the real Liu Chunmei is not bad, better than Liu Jinfeng..."

Seeing Yunshang coming in, Wu Xiang put down his legs, sat on the bed and pointed to Liu Jinfeng's bed, "Yunshang, Liu Jinfeng's bunk has been vacated, you can sleep on this bed. Your position is easy to be ventilated, we sleep here Right next to each other."

Knowing that Liu Chunmei might not stay in the army, Yun Chang was not hypocritical, rolled up the quilt and moved it over, and quickly moved the things in the cabinet over.

Ye Li also sat up from the bed and asked, "Hey Yunshang, guess who I saw when I came back?"

Yun Chang blinked her eyes, and said firmly in Ye Li's gossiping eyes, "Have you seen the real Liu Chunmei, or have you seen Liu Jinfeng?"

Anyway, Gu Shinian hadn't come back from the capital yet, no matter how long Ye Li's eyes were, the person he saw couldn't possibly be Gu Shinian.

"That's right, that's right, I saw Liu Jinfeng!" Seeing that Yun Shang had guessed right, Ye Li regained his energy immediately, and gestured excitedly, "She was wearing a big red flower cotton jacket, a pair of black cotton trousers, Someone escorted them into a car and dragged the art troupe out. I inquired about it, and they said that the higher-ups were going to lock Liu Jinfeng into a small dark room, and asked someone from her hometown to escort her back for sentencing!"

Yun Shang nodded, and then asked her, "Then have you seen Liu Chunmei? How is she now?"

"I see, I see!" Speaking of Liu Chunmei, Ye Li became even more excited. He simply knelt on the bed and talked about the scene when he saw Liu Chunmei. He stood at the gate of the regiment with a smile, watching Liu Jinfeng being taken away. Also, Liu Jinfeng had several finger prints on his face, which were bloody, and must have been scratched by Liu Chunmei!"

Oops, it's a good scratch!

So relieved.

Ye Li smacked his lips unsatisfied, secretly praising Liu Chunmei for doing a good job in his heart.

Chapter 636 come back

The farce of true and false Liu Chunmei ended with Liu Jinfeng being repatriated back to her hometown. After Liu Chunmei argued hard, the regiment handled the retirement procedures for her and returned to her original unit.

It has to be said that Liu Chunmei knew the situation when she went back. Because of this, she asked the regiment to go through the formalities of retiring due to illness on the pretext of the negligence of several comrades in the army's political review, so that her file had an additional record of enlisting in the army.

For Liu Chunmei, this is more or less a guarantee that no one will make an excuse for her failure in the political examination in the future.

But Yunshang didn't have the heart to feel sorry for Liu Chunmei at the moment. She was standing at the train station, wrapping her head and face tightly with a scarf, staring at the exit without blinking.

Gu Shinian was supposed to get off the train at four o'clock in the afternoon, but now it's past six o'clock, and the train from the direction of the capital hasn't arrived yet.

Yun Shang walked around the platform again, and couldn't wait any longer, so she left the station and walked to the nearest post office.

Her family Bai Siling was officially transferred to the capital during the Chinese New Year. Gu Shinian should have met Bai Yancheng during the period when Gu Shinian returned to the capital. She had to call and ask Bai Siling if Gu Shinian really got in the car. And...how did the Gu family handle the defection of Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu.

Bai Yancheng has only been transferred back to the capital for a week. He has been busy handing over work these few days. He is so busy that he is in a hurry to eat, let alone get home from get off work on time.

Knowing that Bai Yancheng had to work overtime again today, the guard automatically went to the small cafeteria to order a stir-fried dish, and quietly placed it on Bai Yancheng's table.

When Yunshang called, Bai Yancheng was eating with a spoon in one hand, and holding a document that was just delivered below in the other.

After receiving the call from the little girl, Bai Yancheng immediately relaxed his frown, swallowed the food in his mouth, and asked repeatedly about Yunshang's situation in Yicheng.

"Dad, I'm fine!" Yun Shang finished Bai Yancheng's perfunctory words, and then asked, "Dad, where is my second brother Gu? Did he get on the train the day before yesterday?"

Bai Yancheng: "... " This little girl of his really becomes unlovable the older she gets, she really doesn't like girls.

Wronged and angry.

After getting angry, Bai Yancheng was still reluctant to scold his daughter, so he had to vent all his anger on Gu Shinian, scolding Gu Shinian in his heart.

"Xiao Qi,

I remember you were obedient and obedient when you were a child, and you always liked to play with your dad. Now that you have grown up and your wings are hardened, you just miss you, Second Brother Gu, and don't you like me, a bad old man? "

Bai Yancheng went all out and didn't want to lose his old face. He was in his decades, and he complained aggrievedly to his daughter on the phone.

Yun Chang could smell that sour smell through the phone line.

"Dad, why don't I miss you?" Yun Shang was helpless and funny, "Didn't I just call you two days ago, why did I ignore you?"

Thinking of the day he first arrived in the capital, Yunshang called him for fifteen minutes, and Bai Yancheng's complaints rushed down his throat, and he couldn't speak.

It seems to be oh. The girl only called him that day, not her mother, which shows that in the girl's heart, he is more important than Lin Wenlan.

Bai Yancheng subconsciously put Lin Wenlan's work in the troupe every day for the military performance in March to the back of his mind, and also forgot that even if Yunshang had time to call Lin Wenlan, Lin Wenlan didn't have so much time to chat with Yunshang Ten minutes.

At this moment, the little sourness in my heart was shaken off, and he said cheerfully, "It was the train in the afternoon the other day, so it should be here by now, haven't you seen anyone?"

"The train is late, and it hasn't arrived at the station yet." Yunshang replied wearily, and then asked pointedly, "Dad, I want to eat Bozai Cake, did Grandpa Gu arrange for someone to bring it to me?" Do you want to eat the authentic bowl cake?"

Bozai cake is the most common snack on the streets of Hong Kong City. Before Yun Shang came back from Hong Kong City, she put a lot of stock in the space, and Bai Yancheng also followed suit.

Hearing Yun Shang mention Bozai Cake at this moment, she immediately realized that Yun Shang was asking the Gu family about their arrangements for Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu, whether they would send someone to bring them back to Hong Kong City.

"You girl, why are you so greedy? Your grandpa Gu is busy with business every day, so how can he find time for you to find bowl cakes to eat. When the time comes, let him take you out to eat something delicious, you Let's have a good talk."

Yun Shang understood what Bai Yancheng meant. The Gu family did not arrange for anyone to go to Hong Kong City. The specific reason made her avoid asking Gu Shinian alone.

After inquiring no more information, Yunshang realized that her conscience was ordinary, and told Bai Yancheng to eat on time and pay attention to her body. After coaxing the last trace of sourness in Bai Yancheng's heart to disappear, she wiped the cold sweat on her head and hanged herself. phone.

Her family's Commander Bai really got bigger and harder to coax.

Especially in the past two years, after she and Bai Qingyue both found a partner, Bai Yancheng also had a habit of being jealous with his son-in-law, and his sourness came up, and he was even more naive than a child.

After returning to the station and waiting for half an hour, Gu Shinian finally got off the train and strode towards Yunshang against the cold wind.

"A-Shang! Wait a minute, have you eaten yet?" Gu Shinian helped Yun Shang pull up the scarf that fell off her shoulders, and protected her all the way out of the station among the crowd.

With her hands in her pockets, Yunshang followed Gu Shinian, talking non-stop about what happened in the military region recently.

Knowing that Liu Chunmei in the army was a fake, and was scratched by the rightful owner from her hometown, Gu Shinian was also taken aback.

He also planned to come back this time and find a way to get Zhou Chunmei away, but he didn't expect Zhou Chunmei to be trampled to the bottom of the ditch in just a few days.

Gu Shinian just got out of the car, Yun Shang didn't eat, and the two of them had a lot to say, so they simply found a place where no one was around and went straight into the space.

Fortunately, there were still a few servings of eight-treasure rice and stir-fried vegetables packed in the restaurant before, and the two of them didn't need to cook. They just sat in front of the building and talked about things in the capital while eating.

"Second Brother Gu, what does Grandpa Gu plan to do with Gu Huaqing?" Yun Shang asked anxiously after taking a sip of soup.

"The Gu family can't interfere with this matter." Gu Shinian put a piece of chopsticks meat into Yunshang's bowl, watched her eat it, and then continued, "Grandpa arranged for someone to report Gu Huaqing's affairs, how to deal with this matter, it all depends on the meaning of the above."

Yun Shang was startled, put down the bowl and asked, "Then did the organization talk to you when you went back this time?"

Gu Shinian didn't answer right away. After thinking for a while, he sighed secretly and said, "A-Shang, this time the matter is more difficult. If the person arranged by Grandpa hadn't been a step ahead, the Gu family might be in big trouble now." .”

Chapter 637: Dangerous and Dangerous

Mr. Gu secretly reported the case of Gu Huaqing's father and daughter's defection and defection a few years ago, and is waiting for the organization to investigate and give specific advice on how to deal with it.

Gu Huaqing was a political commissar of the military region at any rate, even if he was later sent down, the brand of a high-ranking military official on him would not disappear easily.

Because of this, once the news of Gu Huaqing's defection spread, it would be a shocking scandal.

Coupled with the fact that the defection of Gu Huaqing's father and daughter is still in the investigation and evidence collection stage in the organization, the matter has been pressed down and nothing has been made public. As a result, many people don't even know about Gu Huaqing's defection.

On the day when Gu Shinian arrived in the capital, Mr. Gu received news that someone had written a report letter to the organization, reporting that the Gu family and Gu Shinian had concealed Gu Huaqing's fraudulent death and defection. sent a secret letter.

If Mr. Gu hadn't reported this matter long ago, that report letter would have caught the Gu family by surprise.

The other party pointed out that when Gu Shinian took the initiative to sever the father-son relationship with Gu Huaqing, there was an uproar. Everyone thought that the two fathers and sons had nothing to do with each other. is fake.

It is very likely that Gu Shinian has been secretly in touch with Gu Huaqing all these years, and even the Gu family has kept in touch with Gu Huaqing through Gu Shinian.

Otherwise, how can it be explained that the Gu family has been vigorously cultivating Gu Shinian over the years, and the treatment is no worse than that of the children of the Gu family in the capital?

After all, no matter how old Gu Huaiqing and the Gu family were from Wufu, they were still the same ancestors before.

Besides, where is it not good for Gu Huaiqing and his daughter to defect, why did they defect to Hong Kong City where Gu Shinian stayed for three years?

This report letter made a lot of fallacies, and directly placed Gu Huaiqing's defection on the Gu family and Gu Shinian's heads, and even pointed out that the defection of Gu Huaiqing's father and daughter was the result of the efforts of the Gu family and Gu Shinian.

When Yun Shang heard this, her nose almost twisted in anger, "Fuck the fuck! Who wrote the report letter?" I put a sack on him and beat him to death!

Seeing that Yun Shang was so angry that she uttered obscenities, Gu Shinian rubbed her head amusedly, "Be good, don't be angry, I'm fine."

Yun Shang turned her head angrily, and then asked, "Also, the matter of our mission to Hong Kong City was kept confidential. How did the person who wrote the report know?"

Except for the members of the Gu family and the Bai family, who knew that the two were going to Hong Kong City to perform missions,

There are only a few people in the organization, who revealed this matter?

"I went to see Uncle Jin and Uncle Li two days ago, please ask them to look into this matter in private."

Yun Chang bent down and took a big mouthful of eight-treasure rice, and asked with a wrinkled face, "Second Brother Gu, did the higher-ups ask you about secret letters?"

"I found it." Gu Shinian took a sip of the soup slowly and said with a smile, "But I have severed ties with Gu Huaiqing long ago, and I have never received a secret letter. The letter Gu Huaiqing left was written to Zhang Comrade Gu Guangzong also sent it to Comrade Zhang, and I have not seen that letter."

Gu Shinian opened his eyes and talked nonsense, but with the touch of his mouth, he completely wiped himself out, and dragged Gu Guangzong into trouble again.

Yun Chang was overjoyed when he heard it, and bent his eyes to look at Gu Shinian, motioning for him to continue talking.

"Comrade Zhang has only been in literacy classes for a few days, and he doesn't know many characters. It is difficult to read the 'suicide note', and she can't tell if it is a secret letter. She only read half of the letter when she received it. She didn't read it. After that, they stuffed it into the stove and burned it. To her, Gu Huaiqing's suicide note is a disguised bomb, and she will not be fooled."

Yun Shang: "...". Is this Aunt Zhang Chunni who came forward to resist the matter?

Also, only if the secret letter falls into the hands of Zhang Chunni will nothing happen.

The whistleblower can slander that Gu Shinian and Gu Huaiqing did not sever their father-son relationship, but he can't slander that Zhang Chunni and Gu Huaiqing still have a husband and wife relationship, right?

If there was real love between husband and wife, Gu Huaiqing would not have driven the pregnant Zhang Chunni and her children out of the house for Zhou Mingjuan back then, and then let his wife and children almost freeze to death on the street.

If there is really a relationship between husband and wife, Zhang Chunni will not bring people from the Linyang Women's Federation to the military sub-district, take away Gu Huaiqing's savings for more than ten years, and then abruptly remove Gu Huaiqing from the position of political commissar down.

These two people are simply endless enemies. People who meet each other can play their brains like dogs. Where does the love between husband and wife come from?

In the eyes of outsiders, Gu Huaiqing's "suicide note" to Zhang Chunni is not so much a secret letter as it is a ticking time bomb, which is more credible.

As for Gu Guangzong, as long as he is not too stupid, he dare not reveal the contents of the secret letter.

It is not a mistake to help Gu Huaiqing deliver a harmless 'suicide note' to Zhang Chunni, but if he dares to help Gu Huaiqing deliver a secret letter, he is an accomplice of a traitor! It's a traitor! It's a lackey!

No matter how big Gu Guangzong's head was, he couldn't afford such a crime.

Yun Chang was really relieved now, and leaned on the sofa with a look of fear, "That is to say, after the organization received the report letter, did they really arrange for someone to go to Linyang to find Aunt Zhang to investigate the situation?"

"Well, it's a ticking time bomb after all. Gu Huaiqing left a suicide note to Comrade Zhang at the beginning, so he must have arranged for a follower. This report letter should be done by Gu Huaiqing's people."

Gu Shinian handed Yun Shang a cup of hot water, and then said, "Comrade Zhang has no contact with the Gu family, and she doesn't believe in Gu Huaiqing's character, so naturally she won't take the suicide note to heart. It's normal that the matter was not told to me and not let the Gu family know."

The affairs between Gu Huaiqing and Zhang Chunni's family were very troubled back then. From outsiders' point of view, Zhang Chunni hated Gu Huaiqing, how could she allow her only son with a bright future to get involved in Gu Huaiqing's mess?

What's more, Gu Huaiqing was wearing the hat of a villain at that time.

Even if the 'suicide note' that Zhang Chunni received was a secret letter, based on her understanding of Gu Huaiqing, she would only feel that Gu Huaiqing had sinister intentions, so she kept the fact that Gu Shinian received Gu Huaiqing's suicide note from herself.

Therefore, the fact that Gu's family and Gu Shinian didn't know about the secret letter is completely plausible.

In addition, the Gu family took the initiative to report and track down the whereabouts of Gu Huaiqing and Gu Mingzhu. This can also prove that the Gu family has nothing to do with the defection of Gu Huaiqing's father and daughter.

Yun Shang felt relieved, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second Brother Gu, is this incident over now? Does it have any effect on you?"

"It's safe for the time being."

Gu Shinian was also afraid for a while. If Mr. Gu hadn't made a time difference with the informant and reported the matter a few days in advance, the Gu family would have been in serious trouble.

Chapter 638: Art Performance

Gu Shinian didn't mention the matter of making love reports along the way, and when the two were about to enter the division, Yun Shang finally couldn't help asking the question she was most concerned about.

"Second Brother Gu, when will we make a love report?"

How could the woman ask this kind of thing?

What a dork!

It's a pity that the second brother is looking for her, so he doesn't care so much about him, if it is another girl, he will definitely lose his temper with him.

Gu Shinian sighed secretly, shook Yun Chang's hand, and under the cover of night, lowered his head and gently pecked her lips.

If there was no report letter, Gu Shinian planned to apply for a love report as soon as he came back, but now the Gu family and he have been reported anonymously because of Gu Huaiqing's defection. Let Yun Shang be involved.

In case Gu Huaiqing had other arrangements, or if the organization said something unfavorable to him after he was brought back from Hong Kong City, Yun Shang would inevitably be implicated by him.

Gu Shinian knew Yun Shang's temperament best. If he asked the truth to delay the submission of the love report, Yun Shang would definitely not agree, and maybe he would submit the love report behind his back.

Thinking of this, Gu Shinian felt his brain hurt even more, and his lips became more tender and lingering. He tried in vain to send Yun Shang in while she was dazed by the kiss, and then fooled around with this matter.

Yun Shang had stumbled several times with Gu Shinian's trick, how could she be fooled again, pushed Gu Shinian away, covered her mouth, and stared at him fiercely.

Gu Shinian was helpless, hugged Yunshang in his arms, groped her forehead lightly with his chin, half-discussing and half-pleading:

"A-Shang, you are going to go out to participate in the art performance in two days. You don't have enough time to practice the piano every day. How can you have time to make a love report? Can we talk about this after your art performance is over? How long will you take time off? God, Second Brother will take you out to play."

There will be about 50 or 60 performances in the military art show, and it will be almost the end of April when Yunshang comes back.

More than a month is enough to deal with Gu Huaqing's defection in the organization. Only when Gu Huaqing's so-called successors are all scrapped can he safely disclose his relationship with Yunshang.

After thinking about Gu Shinian's words, Yun Shang also felt that she was a little impatient.

Guan Min can't wait to tie her up in the practice room every day for the past two days.

As the company commander of the Tiger Company, Gu Shinian had just returned from a ten-day vacation, and he must have had a lot of work to do. Both of them were so busy that they didn't have time to think about the love report.

Yun Shang pouted regretfully, and said, "That's all right, you wait for me to come back and report to the organization... By the way, did you go back and tell my dad about it this time? What's wrong with my dad? That said, he didn't embarrass you, did he?"

"Don't worry, I mentioned this to Uncle Bai the first day he returned to the capital." Thinking of Bai Yancheng's posture of wanting to drag him and beat him up violently, Gu Shinian said helplessly, "Uncle Bai sees that I am quite It's pleasing to the eye. He thinks you are still young and wants us to settle down two years later."

"That won't work!" Yun Shang frowned when she heard that, "Isn't he delaying my search for a partner! Don't worry about this matter. If he disagrees, I'll ask my mother to tell him."

It is said that the sooner the mother-in-law looks at the son-in-law, the more she likes it.

Head Lin of her family likes Second Brother Gu the most.

It was getting late now, and Yun Chang didn't delay Gu Shinian. After finishing his business, he stuffed a large bag of snacks that he had prepared early in the morning into Gu Shinian's hand, urging him to return to the station as soon as possible.

.....

On March 5th, Yunshang and several veterans in the regiment, led by the political commissar and two regiment leaders, drove to the He'an Army Division in the provincial capital by car.

In the next few days, everyone will first participate in the preliminary selection in the He'an Military Division. The leaders of the Provincial Military Region will select a few of the most outstanding programs to form a representative team. And the top performance teams toured in various military divisions and selected excellent programs.

Yunshang has learned the violin for fifteen years in total in her two lifetimes. She has a solid foundation and a lot of emotions. Guan Min has never worried about whether Yunshang can be selected for the representative team.

Of course, Yunshang did not disappoint Guan Min either. When she performed on stage in the first round, she was confirmed on the spot by more than 20 assessment teachers to become a member of the representative team.

In addition to Yunshang, a small chorus was also selected for the Yicheng Military District Art Troupe. Yao Ke is also a member of the chorus, and Wen Chengjie is a member of the band. Yunshang has a partner in the delegation. Not alone anymore.

Yun Chang did some calculations, and there are more than 100 representatives in the He'an Military Region team alone. This time, there are 19 teams in the entire army, and there are also several amateur performance teams, which add up to at least 2,000 people.

This battle is really too big!

On the day the representative team set off for the capital, Yunshang called Lin Wenlan, knowing that Bai Qingyue would also participate in the art performance, and that Lin Wenlan would bring the group to the capital, she happily sat on her seat and counted herself with her fingers Time to meet family members.

Wen Chengjie saw that the smile on her mouth hadn't stopped since she got in the car, and after holding back for a long time, she couldn't help asking, "Bai Yunshang, what happy event happened to you, why are you so happy?"

"Of course I'm happy!" Yun Shang teased Wen Chengjie like the second idiot, "We're going to the capital, where the leader lives! Can I be unhappy!"

Yao Ke had heard that Yunshang had called Mr. Bai in Beijing before, so she naturally knew why she was so happy. Seeing Yunshang teasing Wen Chengjie in a serious manner, it was quite lively to sit here with a smile on her face.

"Yeah, Yunshang told me yesterday that when I'm back in the capital, I must go to Tiananmen Square to have a look."

Wen Chengjie: "..."

real or fake?

Are these two people coaxing fools?

However, it is indeed a good thing to be able to go to the capital, especially since they are still members of the representative team, and they will have to perform for the chiefs at that time!

I was really nervous and looking forward to it, and a little bit excited.

Yun Shang grabbed a handful of steamed buns from her bag, distributed some to Yao Ke and Wen Chengjie, and motioned for them to come over, "You two first think about whether there is anything you want to eat. When we arrive in the capital, I will take you two to eat." Food! They are all cheap and delicious restaurants!"

"Really?" Seeing Yun Shang nodding, Wen Chengjie was overjoyed, and said again and again, "I don't pick anything, as long as it's delicious!"

Before Yun Shang could speak, Yao Ke gave Wen Chengjie a white look, and said, "I don't have anything to eat, I just want to go shopping in department stores and buy some gifts for my family. By the way, isn't there a friendship store in Beijing? I went to the Friendship Store to open my eyes."

Chapter 639 what background

These days, visiting the Friendship Store may be an embarrassing thing for ordinary people. Mobile terminal After all, not everyone has foreign exchange certificates, and they can enter the door of the Friendship Store.

But Yao Ke, who knows Yunshang's background well, knows that Yunshang really has no shortage of foreign exchange certificates, and she can afford those expensive imported products.

Yao Ke didn't mean to ask Yunshang to pay for her, but just wanted to use the foreign exchange certificate in Yunshang's hand to see the world in the Friendship Store.

"Okay, I'll let someone find a few foreign exchange certificates later, and we'll go see the world together." Yao Ke's request was not too much, and Yunshang agreed without hesitation.

Wen Chengjie on the side really couldn't understand the behavior of lesbians who love to go shopping, so he shrank to the side and complained in a low voice, "Lesbians are troublesome! What's there to shop in the Friendship Store? I don't have a chance to wear clothes after buying them. If I have that money, I might as well spend it on food." Something delicious."

Yun Shang was completely speechless to this foodie, took out two oranges from her bag and threw them at them, and said angrily, "Shut up! If you dare to say that lesbians are troublesome, be careful, I will take you to eat pig food every day!"

On the issue of eating, Wen Chengjie has always been able to admit his cowardice, but now he was threatened by Yunshang, and immediately shrank in a corner and said nothing.

The train wobbled on the road for nearly three days. When getting off the train, Yun Chang finally felt liberated.

Since she returned to Bai's house, every time she went out, Bai Yancheng would arrange a sleeper for her. Even if she stayed in the car for a week, Yun Shang would not feel too tired.

This time I sat in the hard-seat car with the comrades of the representative team for a few days, and she was mentally excited, but her body was indeed exhausted to the extreme, and even her calves and feet were swollen.

After leaving the station, under the arrangement of the team leader, the delegation lined up in a long line, boarded the truck arranged by the organization, and drove towards the military area all the way.

It wasn't too early for the He'an team to get off the car. When the big guys settled down in the temporary camp set up by the Beijing Military Region, it was already dark outside.

There are more than 20 people living in the tent where Yunshang lives. In addition to the female soldiers in the regiment, there are more than a dozen people from other military divisions. Worried that there would be problems with the violin in the camp, after Yunshang packed her luggage, she took the violin into the space under the cover of the violin case.

Everyone is a representative team, but after all, they come from different military divisions.

Before going to the battlefield, Yun Shang never used her weapons to test human nature.

The big guys had cleaned up their housework and were about to go to eat when the political commissar and head Yang came here with a tall man.

Before a few people approached, the man grabbed the hat off his head, grinned, and ran towards this side with great strides, "Xiaoqi! Xiaoqi! Haha, you are back, my grandfather just called to ask you!"

Yun Chang turned her head and saw Bai Qingjie running towards her like a fool, with a silly smile on her face that she couldn't bear to look at.

"Third cousin, how do you know I'm here today!" Yun Shang's mouth twitched when stimulated by Bai Qingjie's stupidity, covering her face,

Reluctantly, she walked towards Bai Qingjie.

Really, too spicy eyes!

"I don't know, it was Bai Qingze who said you'd come here today." While speaking, Bai Qingjie didn't forget to grab Yunshang's arm to make her turn around twice, and then nodded with satisfaction, "That's right, I've grown taller again. My grandfather will definitely like it when he reads it later!"

At this time, Head Yang and the political commissar also came over, probably because someone had greeted them in advance, and the two simply gave Yun Chang a night's leave and asked her to go home and stay for the night.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up immediately, and she spoke to Yao Ke and Wen Chengjie who were waiting not far away, put the lunch box back into the tent, and ran out with her own violin box.

"Third cousin, has the team led by my mother arrived yet? Where's the big hall brother?" As soon as he left the camp, Yunshang stuffed the violin case in Bai Qingjie's hand and asked a series of questions.

"Second aunt just arrived in the afternoon, and she and Qingyue are resting at home right now. Bai Qingze is in a meeting and doesn't have time to come over. No, he sent me to pick you up!" After finishing speaking, she raised her eyebrows proudly

Yun Shang pretended not to see the little smug expression on Bai Qingjie's face, and continued to ask, "What about my dad? Is he busy recently?"

Seeing that his cousin asked all the family members, but didn't ask him, Bai Qingjie felt a little disappointed, rubbed his nose, and sighed authentically, "Your father is never busy. But the second aunt is coming back today. Your father should hurry back now."

"Then..." Yun Shang intentionally elongated her voice, and when Bai Qingjie couldn't help but look back, she asked with a smirk, "Third cousin, did third sister-in-law conceive a little nephew for me?"

Bai Qingjie: "..."

This girl is really scarier than his mother!

In the past, he was urging him to have a date, but now he is urging him to have a baby. Is this a cousin or a mother?

"Xiaoqi, don't talk anymore, I won't even dare to enter the house anymore."

There is already a mother in the family who wants to urge him to conceive from time to time, if there is another girl who urges him, how will he live?

Seeing Bai Qingjie deflated, Yun Chang felt relieved, bent her lips, hummed a little song and walked forward slowly.

Here, the brothers and sisters left the camp noisily, and everyone in the Yicheng Art Troupe also whispered about Yun Chang going home to live at night.

Everyone knows that Yao Ke and Wen Chengjie have a good relationship with Yun Shang, so it is inevitable to ask them a few more questions.

It's just that Wen Chengjie is a foodie, and everyone stares at him when he speaks the first sentence.

"I don't know the origin of Bai Yunshang, I only know that Yunshang promised to take me to the best restaurant in the capital for dinner!"

Yao Ke knew Yunshang's family background well, seeing that she didn't intend to cover up when she came to the capital this time, she knew that she was ready to lose her horse.

In fact, Yun Shang's identity really cannot be concealed.

Everyone in the regiment knew that Yunshang was transferred from the Linyang Military Division. If everyone wanted to find out her identity, just ask anyone from the Linyang Art Troupe to find out.

What's more, with the uncle Bai Yanming here in the capital military region, and the two brothers Bai Qingze and Bai Qingjie, plus Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue, no matter how stupid you are, you can guess that Yunshang is from the family of the head of the army.

However, Yao Ke is not a talkative person. Even if she knew that Yunshang had not deliberately concealed her identity, she didn't want to talk about her family background behind her back. "This is the first time I know that Yunshang and her family are in the Beijing military area. What do you want to know? When Yunshang comes back, ask yourself, or ask someone from the Linyang Military Region representative team."

The female soldier sitting on the farthest side nodded, and then said, "Actually, there is nothing to ask, and everyone is not blind. You can more or less tell the difference in the face oil Yun Chang uses on weekdays."

Chapter 640

"I just think that Yunshang is a low-key person with good qualities. Look at that Ye Li in the regiment, she talks about her identity as a member of Shenshi all day long, and always mentions who her relatives are. Tsk! It seems that the people of Shenshi are superior to us, and it seems that Shenshi has wronged her in this small place of Yicheng!"

"That's true. But Ye Li is still a recruit, so it's understandable."

"It wasn't like this when we were recruits! Who doesn't join the army and is busy practicing kungfu all day long, eager to improve their professional ability? The four recruits this year are really not bad except Yunshang and Wu Xiang. It's a pity for Liu Chunmei. The remaining Ye Li, if she doesn't change her temperament, she will be discharged from the army when she reaches the age."

The people at the table wandered away while talking, and no one mentioned Yunshang for a while, but Yunshang, who had returned to the courtyard, was telling everyone about her recent times. The situation in the Yicheng Military Division in July.

The old man felt very distressed when he heard that, his Xiaoqi is such a well-behaved child, and he was bullied as soon as he went to the Yicheng Military Division.

The one named Liu Chunmei, no, the one named Liu Jinfeng, just wanted to step on Xiaoqi to show off himself when they ate together for the first time, and later wanted to rob his grandson-in-law, and tried to push Xiaoqi into the ditch during the training, little girl My family is young and has a very bad heart.

Also, how did the Yicheng Army distinguish those leaders? Good talents can't be protected, and the bad elements are forced to be hustled.

This time it was Liu Chunmei who came out by herself to expose the conspiracy of Liu Jinfeng's family. If Liu Chunmei was a softie who couldn't stand up, that bad guy named Liu Jinfeng wouldn't really be able to sneak into the revolutionary ranks.

How annoying!

Bai Yancheng's face was not good-looking, and while feeling sorry for Yunshang, he scolded Gu Shinian bloody in his heart.

It's not a good thing for him to look at Gu Shinian early in the morning!

If it wasn't for being with Gu Shinian, would his daughter not choose such good places as the Linyang Military Region and the Beijing Military Region, and go to that corner of Yicheng to suffer?

His little Qi was only five or six years old back then, and this kid sneaked up on him like a wolf cub. He ate alone by his side for more than ten years, and kept other wolf cubs from getting close to Xiao Qi. In the name of his family, he abducted Xiao Qi to Hong Kong City to support him for three years, and took this opportunity to coax away Xiao Qi, who had not yet grown up in his family.

Look, what's the difference between his Xiaoqi and the child bride-in-law in the old society?

Bai Yancheng repeated a series of national curses back and forth in his heart, demoting Gu Shinian to nothing.

On the contrary, Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue's emotions were much more relaxed. Lin Wenlan felt that the little girl she was most worried about had really grown up. She could calmly deal with Liu Jinfeng and at the same time sell herself well in front of the regiment and the leaders. You won't suffer.

Coupled with Gu Shinian's protection by his side, Xiao Qi's life will only get better and better in the future.

"Mom, what programs did your team prepare this time? Did you compete with me for awards?"

Lin Wenlan poked Yunshang's forehead amusedly, and handed over the soup bowl in his hand, "How do you know that the award must be yours? There are people out there, even if no one on our team competes with you, there are other two There are a dozen representative teams."

Bai Qingyue also seriously persuaded Yunshang not to aim too high, the goal was set too high, the final result was not good, and Yunshang herself was the one who was disappointed.

Yun Chang didn't expect that Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue would take turns preaching with a random joke, and their good mood sank.

She turned her head slightly, and looked at Bai Yancheng aggrievedly, seeing Bai Yancheng sitting with the old man, watching her excitement with a smile, immediately puffed up her cheeks and said angrily: "Old Bai, take care of your wife! Is there such a thing as a blow to the enthusiasm of my daughter!"

Bai Yancheng: "" You're angry, you don't even call your dad anymore?

Lin Wenlan was also amused, and hurriedly put a big bun on Yunshang, and said with a smile, "Okay, I won't discourage my daughter's enthusiasm. You should perform well in this performance, and try to win an award to make me and your dad happy!"

The old man also nodded beside him,

With a face full of approval, she said, "Your mother is right, perform well, and get a few more awards. When I come back, I can show off to old man Li and make him look hot."

If his granddaughter can be selected into the representative team to participate in the military art performance, it is already a credit to him. If he can win another award, all the old men in the courtyard will envy him!

Lin Wenlan didn't believe that she could win the prize, and Yun Chang felt that her family didn't understand her well and didn't think highly of her, so she felt uncomfortable.

But at this moment, the old man and Lin Wenlan followed her wishes, saying that she would definitely win the prize and bring glory to the family, and Yun Shang suddenly felt that the task was a bit difficult, and it seemed that her small shoulders could not carry it.

She lowered her head and gnawed on the buns for a while, and finally came to her senses: She accidentally dug a hole for herself!

It would be fine if she could get the award, the family and the group would be happy, but if she couldn't get the award, wouldn't that be a slap in the face for herself?

Thinking about it this way, Yun Shang was so worried that she couldn't swallow the delicious big meat buns in her mouth.

However, Bai Qingjie was still on the sidelines to join in the fun, happily telling the family what he had heard from Captain Yang.

"Master, second uncle and second aunt, don't worry. I asked Captain Yang of the Yicheng team today, and she said that our little seven is very capable in business and is a sign in their regiment! He was selected in the He'an Military Region preliminaries. He made it to the representative team in the first round. He also said that as long as Xiao Qi performed normally during the performance, he would definitely win an award."

No matter how narcissistic Yun Shang is, she still has a bottom line. Facing Bai Qingjie's mindless flattery, she blushes in embarrassment

The whole family had a lively dinner, the old man and Bai Yancheng glanced at each other, got up and greeted Yun Chang into the study.

"Xiao Qi, sit down."

The old man took the teacup that Yunshang handed over, took a sip slowly, looked at Yunshang who was sitting obediently across the desk, and sighed, "Xiao Qi, how are you and Shinianwazi?"

"Very good." Yun Shang nodded, glanced at the serious old man and Bai Yancheng, and then asked, "Master, do you want to ask me about the love report between me and Second Brother Gu?" There was a big battle, and those who didn't know thought they were going to interrogate the criminals.

The old man paused while holding the teacup, met Shang Yunshang's dark eyes, and couldn't speak when the words reached his throat, turned his head, and gave Bai Yancheng who was pretending to be stupid at the side a wink, and then Pretending to be nonchalant, he drank his tea slowly.
