Chapter 64 Routines

Yun Erchuan was full of anger in the county, and before he got home, he was torn apart by the two sisters of the Wang family, and his heart was already on fire.

Hearing Wang Tonghua's question, he immediately took out the train ticket and the indistinct letter of introduction in his pocket, and threw them on Wang Tonghua's face:

"This is the train ticket to the provincial capital that I bought yesterday, and the letter of introduction from the village to see a doctor in the provincial capital! Even if our old Yun family is not rich, we still have money to buy a train ticket to the provincial capital. The money for Wang Guihua's medical treatment was borrowed by Comrade Gu Xiao, if you don't believe it, go to the provincial hospital to ask!"

After Yun Erchuan finished speaking, Yun Shuilian immediately continued by the side:

"My sister-in-law made Xu Dalan mad. No matter whether her illness can be cured in the provincial capital, the compensation from your old Wang family will not run away! When my sister-in-law comes back from the provincial capital, how much money will be spent on medical treatment, our family will pay for it. I'll figure it out with you, and I'll ask for a lot of money back. Don't say that your family is weak, you can't get it!"

Old Man Wang's expression changed, "Why don't you just say what you said? You touched your mouth up and down, saying that my daughter is our madness or we are mad? I also said that your old Yun family forced my daughter Crazy!"

What else could Yun Shuilian say, but Mr. Yun stopped her directly, "Shuilian! Don't argue about this! When Comrade Gu Xiao and the others come back from the provincial capital, let's talk with the medical certificate!"

The two fell out again. Not finding Widow Wang, Old Man Wang couldn't stay any longer, and left Lao Yun's house with his two scolding daughters.

In the provincial capital, after Gu Shinian and Yun Chang had a good rest, they went downstairs and asked the waiter with big braids about the route to the city hospital, and then boarded the tram and staggered to the city center.

Linyang City Hospital is located on a street full of plane trees. In winter, the leaves of the plane trees have already fallen, leaving only the thin branches swaying in the wind.

The leaves are all falling, the cold wind is blowing, coupled with the gray and cold cement exterior of the hospital, it should be full of desolation, and it is a desolate picture, but it is lively because of the crowds entering and leaving the hospital gate.

Standing beside Gu Shinian, Yun Chang glanced at the white wooden sign hanging by the door of the hospital and the five big characters 'Linyang City Hospital' on the sign. Then she looked at the four-story building directly opposite the gate and asked. :

"Second brother Gu, shall we go in directly to find Zhou Mingjuan?"

Gu Shinian lowered his head, stroked the small red mole at the corner of Fu Yunshang's eyes, dragged her into the hospital, and turned behind a row of tall cypress trees.

"Second Brother Gu..."

"A-shang, cover the red mole on the corner of your eye."

The red mole at the corner of Yunshang's eyes is too conspicuous. People who have seen her once, even if they don't remember her face a few years later, can still recognize her with the red mole.

When the two came to the hospital this time, it was likely that they would meet Zhou Mingjuan. Gu Shinian didn't want Yun Chang to impress Zhou Mingjuan too deeply, so he had to make her face a little embellishment.

"Second Brother Gu!" Yun Chang covered the red mole with concealer, turned out from behind the cypress tree, and raised her head proudly at Gu Shinian, "Look, it's gone! Does it look good?"

Gu Shinian pinched Yunshang's increasingly round face and boasted:

"Good-looking! My A-Shang is the most beautiful."

Being praised by Gu Shinian for her beauty, Yun Chang felt so happy, as if a spring was attached to her feet, she jumped and jumped when she walked.

"Second brother Gu, what are you doing now?"

"Go in and find an opportunity to put the recording pen in Zhou Mingjuan's bag." Gu Shinian took Yun Chang a few steps forward, and then asked, "Is the miniature recording pen prepared last night fully charged?"

"It's full, both are full."

Zhou Mingjuan's office was on the fourth floor. At this time, she was standing in front of the window with an irritable face, watching the crowds coming and going at the gate.

It has been seven years since she was transferred from the Military Region Hospital to Linyang City Hospital. Some time ago, under the operation of her husband Gu Huaqing,

He finally became the director of the hospital.

The doctors and nurses in the hospital, no matter how dissatisfied they were with her, did not dare to talk about her in the hospital. Even if they met on the road, they had to flatter her with smiling faces.

The work is going well, her husband is one of the best figures in the military region, and her daughter is lively and lovely. It stands to reason that Zhou Mingjuan should have a good life, but she feels that everything is not satisfactory.

Especially recently, Gu Huaqing didn't even discuss with her, and went to Qinghe County without permission, wanting to bring home the evil seed of that woman.

Thinking of this, Zhou Mingjuan felt extremely resentful and aggrieved, and unconsciously touched her lower abdomen with her hand.

When will she be able to conceive and give birth to a son for Gu Huaqing?

In this way, Gu Huaqing doesn't have to worry about bringing one of the two evil species home all day long. Gu family's network resources will be able to nurture her children in the future. Her daughter Gu Mingzhu will also have her parents' family to support her in the rest of her life...

"Bang bang bang..."

A nurse knocked on the door outside, and said through the thin door, "Director Zhou, the patient in bed 11 of ward 309 has a high fever again. Dr. Chen asked you to come and take a look..."

As soon as the words fell, Zhou Mingjuan came out of the office with a cold face, and while closing the door, she reprimanded the nurse, "How do you take care of the patients? Why do you have a high fever? What kind of doctor is in the hospital? It's not as useful as a barefoot doctor in the country..."

Yun Chang saw that the nurse who was following Zhou Mingjuan pouted, with a look of ridicule and disgust on her face, and she knew in her heart that this nurse hated Zhou Mingjuan extremely.

When Zhou Mingjuan went downstairs unhurriedly, Yun Chang quickly grabbed Gu Shinian's jacket and pressed him against the corner, saying:

"Second brother Gu, I'm young, I'll go!"

After speaking, without waiting for Gu Shinian to reply, he turned the corner, jumped in front of the nurse in three steps, blinked his head sideways, and then said with a smile:

"Sister Nurse, you are so energetic in dressing up like this! You are even more energetic than that Director Zhou Mingjuan just now!"

The two small braids only reach to the shoulders, and two white handkerchiefs are tied in the braids, which looks really energetic.

The nurse thought that Yun Chang was the child of a family member of a patient. Seeing that she was born Yuxue cute, her mouth was sweet, she couldn't help but be in a good mood when she said it, and she couldn't help but crooked her eyes and smiled.

"Kid, do you still know Director Zhou?"

"I've seen Director Zhou swear at people a few times, but she's fierce! I don't like her, but I like Sister Nurse, who smiles amiably to patients!"

The nurse in front of her was not good-looking enough, so Yun Chang praised her for her good looks and her good attitude towards patients, but she must not be conscientious about her beauty.

Otherwise, if you encounter someone with a sensitive and delicate mind, they are likely to take her compliment as a sarcasm. If the other party doesn't scold her at that time, it will be light, how can she smile and let her talk.
