Chapter 641 Persuasion

When I spoke, Bai Yancheng dared not refuse, coughed dryly, and said with a straight face: "Xiaoqi, you are only seventeen years old this year, and you are not yet dating. Besides, what's so good about that Gu?" ? Since he was a child, he has a smooth tongue and can coax people, and his skills are average, and he doesn't look as good-looking as I did when I was young. What do you like about him, huh?"

The tea in Mr. Bai's mouth almost spewed out, and he looked at Bai Yancheng inexplicably:

This dog thing!

What did I ask him to say, and what did he say?

Do you still look like a dad?

No wonder Xiao Qi is angry with him every day!

Yun Chang was also speechless.

Looking at Bai Yancheng's Chinese-character face that looks like a coffin board, I really can't imagine what relationship he had with the word "good-looking" when he was young. I don't know how Bai Yancheng had the nerve to say that he was prettier than Gu Shinian when he was young.

Even Bai Yancheng himself was a little confused, he just wanted to talk to Yun Shang about her dating report, but he unconsciously began to belittle Gu Shinian as soon as the words came out.

Yun Chang rubbed her cheeks with a headache, ignored Bai Yancheng, turned around and asked the old man very seriously, "Master, did you and my father come to me just to separate me from Second Brother Gu?"

Seeing that his granddaughter's eyes were wrong, the old man gave Bai Yancheng a hard look, and quickly shook his head in denial, "Don't listen to your father's nonsense! I just came here to ask about your situation in Yicheng."

Bai Yancheng accidentally boasted without bottom line in front of his daughter, and felt a little hot. Now that he was stared at by the old man again, he didn't dare to talk nonsense anymore. He rubbed his nose and asked in a low voice, "Xiaoqi, that... Your grandfather wants to ask you, can you join the party this year?"

The old man: "..."

You can shut up!

Whether one can join the party or not is determined after an organizational inspection, so can Xiao Qi decide?

What the hell are you talking about!

The old man resisted the urge to smash the teacup in his hand on Bai Yancheng's face, and took a deep breath, "Xiaoqi, don't talk to your dad. Tell me, are you still used to eating in Yicheng?"

"Get used to it!" Yunshang nodded, "The food in the big cafeteria tastes average. I eat in the small cafeteria every other day. Brother Gu often goes down the mountain to deliver delicious food to me. He even takes me out to eat out when there are holidays. I eat there. It's good to have dinner!"

"That's good....."

As soon as the old man opened his mouth with a smile on his face, he heard Bai Yancheng snorting coldly as if tearing down the stage, immediately pulled his face down, and couldn't help but smashed the tea box beside him, "Who are you humming! Ah ? Who are you humming in front of me?"

How could Yun Chang not know that Bai Yancheng was dissatisfied with her saying good things about Gu Shinian? Seeing that the old man had turned his face, he also added fuel to the fire by winking, "That's right, Dad, there are only three people in this room, are you Don't want to see your daughter, or don't want to see my grandfather?"

After smashing Bai Yancheng, the old man still hadn't calmed down. He was listening to Yun Shang's fire, and immediately slapped the table and continued to curse, "See if you still look like a father!? Where are you two girls! Why didn't you scold that kid from the Han family when Qingyue was dating? When it's Xiao Qi's turn, you always talk about Gu Shinian's incompetence? What do you make Xiao Qi think! Your father-in-law treated him the same way when you were dating yours?"

After finishing the work, he murmured, "It's not a thing to be old, I think you are the one who is the least thing."

Bai Yancheng was stunned by the scolding, looked at the old man, then at Yunshang, and found that both of them were staring at him angrily, their noses were not noses and mouths were not mouths, and they immediately huddled together.

have to! When I met this father and son, he was the one at the bottom of the food chain.

The old man scolded a few words, took a sip of tea to moisten his throat, and the moment he turned his head to look at Yunshang, the big black face stoppedwatch and smiled, and even his voice softened a lot, "Xiao Qi, actually your father didn't say anything. Wrong. You are only seventeen now, and you are still a child, why don't you just get along with Shi Nian first, and then make a love report when you feel that you can settle down?"

The smile on Yun Chang's face slowly disappeared, and asked the old man,

"Master, you don't want me to be with Brother Gu?"

"Your dad watched you grow up when you were young, and I can trust him..." The old man said this first, and after a long silence, he sighed again, "Oh, I think you are still young and have not It's qualitative. What if you make a love report and you see a boy who looks better than before."

Yun Shang was simply stunned by the old man's strange reason.

What does this mean that the old man can trust Gu Shinian, but not her?

The old man thinks that she is a pervert, and when she is with Second Brother Gu, is it because of that face of Second Brother Gu?

Second Brother Gu is indeed very good-looking, but the reason why she agreed to be with Second Brother Gu is because of the relationship between the two of them for two lifetimes together. The rest of my life was sold!

So angry!

Is she such a superficial person?

"Master! I'm angry! Have you ever said that to your granddaughter?"

Yun Chang puffed her cheeks, and the corners of her eyes were flushed with anger.

The old man's words are really insulting!

"That's right, Dad, Xiaoqi is still young, how can you say that about my daughter..."

As soon as Bai Yancheng opened his mouth, the old man's face turned dark again, and he interrupted Bai Yancheng without raising his head, "I'm talking to Xiaoqi, what's the matter with you!"

Bai Yancheng: "..."

"Xiao Qi, it's not that I don't trust you, but I just think you're still young, so I've settled down like this, and I'm worried that you will regret it in the future and it will be difficult to handle."

The old man explained with a guilty expression, and continued, "I have been friends with you, Grandpa Gu, for decades, and you and Shi Nian have been friends for more than ten years. If you want to deal with someone, you have to be more cautious. If you go out in the future If something goes wrong, it will hurt the relationship between the two families."

Yun Chang thought for a moment, nodded slightly, and accepted the old man's explanation without any difficulty.

"Master, what do you and Grandpa Gu mean now?"

The old man looked at Yun Shang's pure and clear black eyes, sighed secretly, and expressed his other concerns:

"Xiao Qi, the Gu family is not living well recently, and your grandpa Gu is very busy. He told me two days ago that he wanted you and Si Nian to make a love report later, saying that he was afraid that our family would be involved."

Worrying about Yun Chang's overthinking, the old man went on to explain, "Xiao Qi, there are a lot of people secretly watching the Gu family now, and your Grandpa Gu wants to use this incident to catch all the black hands hiding in the dark."

The fact that you and Shi Nian's love report was typed at this juncture means that our Bai family stood behind the Gu family with great fanfare, and your Grandpa Gu was worried that the people hiding in the dark would shrink back and hide their heads. "

Chapter 642: Back to Camp

The development of the Bai family has been smooth and smooth in recent years, especially when Bai Yancheng was transferred back to the capital this time, the commander of the military region jumped into the center.

It can be said that since Bai Yancheng was transferred back to the capital, countless people have been analyzing and speculating on his every move.

At this juncture, Bai Yancheng's own daughter fell in love with the son of a bad guy who defected outside, and made a love report. If it spread, it would cause a series of unexpected and unnecessary troubles.

At the same time, it will disrupt the Gu family's plan to catch the mastermind behind the scenes.

Yun Shang was speechless for a long time, and finally said helplessly, "Master, you can just talk about such a small matter, why do you have to make such a big detour? I am not an ignorant child."

The old man's face froze for a moment, and he gave Bai Yancheng a dark look again, and then Yun Shang said, "It's not a detour. It doesn't matter if our family is in line or not, what matters is that you are still young, just like the year Come down, will you regret it in a few years?"

Bai Yancheng hurriedly nodded beside him, "Your grandfather is right. Both your grandfather and I feel that it is too early for you to file a love report, and it will not be too late to date next year. Look at your sister, isn't that the same? You only get married when you're twenty-one."

Yun Shang: "..."

Dad, you just look at my sister who is twenty-one to get married, why do you forget what my mother is worrying about behind her back? If you don't sleep well night after night, you are afraid that your eldest daughter will become an old girl who cannot be married.

"Master, don't worry, I get along well with Second Brother Gu now, and I won't regret it in the future."

Yun Shang glanced at Bai Yancheng after finishing speaking, then deliberately raised her voice and continued, "Master, I will discuss it with Second Brother Gu when I go back, and we will make a love report after the Gu family's affairs are over."

Bai Yancheng's face darkened again.

After hearing Yun Chang's words, the old man saw her firm expression and serious attitude, so he nodded lightly, which was considered to be his agreement.

"Okay, you don't regret it in the future. As for when to make a love report, you can discuss it with Shi Nian."

Anyway, that brat Gu Shinian had already reported this matter to him when he came back a few days ago, as long as the two children are willing, they will not interfere in being that evil elder.

Anyway, with Bai Yancheng watching, Gu Shinian would not dare to bully Xiao Qi in the future, so let's make a decision.

Gu Shinian grew up under the noses of the Bai family. Compared to others, at least Gu Shinian's conduct is trustworthy.

Early the next morning, Bai Yancheng deliberately spared time to send his daughter-in-law and two daughters back to the camp, and first sent Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue back to their residences, watching Lin Wenlan go into intense work as soon as he entered the camp, he even took a look at Bai Yancheng. There was no time, Bai Yancheng was very disappointed and sent Yunshang to the camp of the Hui'an team.

Bai Yancheng reluctantly rushed to work until he confirmed that Yunshang's bed was properly made and that he could sleep comfortably and warm enough at night.

"Bai Yunshang, did your father send you back specifically?" As soon as Bai Yancheng left, someone in the dormitory asked.

Yun Chang turned her head and found that the questioner was a female soldier from the small chorus of the regiment, she nodded with a smile, "That's right."

Before everyone could continue to ask questions, Yao Ke straightened the military cap on his head, and pulled Yunshang to go out, "Yunshang, Captain Yang is in the camp right now, I will accompany you there to sell your leave."

Yun Shang responded, and hurried out following Yao Ke. After seeing Captain Yang come back, Yunshang put the candy brought from home and a large bag of red dates and peanuts smuggled out of the space on the table, and distributed them to everyone one by one.

Coming to the capital to participate in the performance this time is a trip away for everyone, but it is home for her. As the host, and as the only one who went home for a reunion dinner and stayed at home for a night, no matter what, he had to bring some snacks to the other people in the dormitory to express his gratitude.

As soon as Wen Chengjie heard that Yunshang was back, he ran towards the female soldier's tent, and didn't go in when he reached the door. As soon as he pursed his lips a few times, Yunshang was holding the bulging army bag, with a speechless expression on his face out.

"Stop yelling, you can hear your halazi in the tent.

"Yun Shang said angrily, stuffed the army bag into Wen Chengjie's arms, and continued, "It contains melon seeds and peanuts, as well as some dates and persimmons. Take it back and share it with the male soldiers in the regiment. "

Wen Chengjie took the bag, first took a bite of a dried persimmon, and asked vaguely, "How is it? Are you happy to go home yesterday?" The key is what delicious food did you eat?

Yunshang raised her brows, and a smirk appeared on the corner of her mouth, "Of course I'm happy to go back to eat delicious food! Last night, my grandfather had someone stew duck soup for me, made meat buns, and cooked a table full of hard vegetables, the taste is even better than the stir-fried dishes in the small cafeteria of our military division. Tell me, are you happy to let you eat such a big meal?"

The more Wen Chengjie listened, the more greedy he became. The saliva in his mouth was about to flow into a waterfall. He stuffed the persimmon cake in his hand into his mouth, took a few bites and swallowed it, "Yunshang, the two of us said that on the train. Well, when you are free, you want to take me out to eat out, so don't take your word for it."

This guy is too greedy!

There are ducks, meat buns, and hard dishes on the table. This must be the standard of his family's New Year's Eve dinner.

No, I must go to a restaurant to satisfy my cravings later.

Yun Shang nodded, and took Wen Chengjie a few steps aside, "Is there any clue about the news I asked you to inquire about yesterday?"

"Yes, I went to ask Commander Yang, but as a result, Commander Yang and the political commissar were so tired of seeing you because of you."

Wen Chengjie sighed, motioned Yunshang to come over, and said in a low voice, "Yesterday, the political commissar did not know where to get the program list of each representative team. We roughly went through it, and you have a total of 13 violin solo programs.", and the other is from the General Political Department. Head Yang said that the General Political Department is almost 30 years old and has very strong professional skills. He has a great hope of winning this time. Yun Shang, you have met your opponent."

The expression on Yun Chang's face also became serious, thanked Wen Chengjie, and was about to go back to the tent, but out of the corner of his eye, he saw Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue entering the camp here.

Yun Chang was overjoyed, left Wen Chengjie behind, ran over to hug Lin Wenlan and did not let go, "Mom! Are you and my sister here to see me?"

"Well, let's see how your side is doing." Lin Wenlan enjoyed her daughter's dependence very much, and the smile on her face became warmer and warmer.

Bai Qingyue also pinched Yun Chang's face beside her, and said with a smile, "Let's go, take me to your dormitory, Mom still needs to talk to your leaders about something."

Yun Chang stood up straight, holding Bai Qingyue with one hand, and Lin Wenlan's clothes with the other, "Ask for a discussion with our leader? Which leader?"

Chapter 643 Opinion

Lin Wenlan came here to talk to the person in charge of the He'an representative team. Of course, he also wanted to meet Yunshang's current leader by the way, and inquire about Yunshang's performance in the team.

Fortunately, Yunshang has performed well in the past few months. The political commissar and head Yang had a good impression of Yunshang. Now that they met Lin Wenlan, they even praised Yunshang without hesitation, and they almost killed her. Touted as the business model of the whole regiment.

Yun Chang didn't know that the leader was flattering her in front of Lin Wenlan, and at this moment, she was holding a large bag of dried fruits and stuffing them into Bai Qingyue's hands, asking her to take them back as snacks to satisfy her cravings.

Bai Qingyue has eaten all kinds of snacks that Yunshang stuffed her for these years, and she is not polite to her. When she took them, she asked in a firm tone, "It was Gu Shinian who found it for you again?"

Yun Chang nodded.

These dried fruits were all made for her by Second Brother Gu using the fruits in the space, so it could be considered that Second Brother Gu searched for her for her. It is not a lie for her to say so.

Bai Qingyue stuffed a piece of dried apple into her mouth, looked up at the tent where Yunshang was staying, and then at the other female soldiers in the tent who looked up at the two sisters from time to time, and smiled at everyone, very natural. The acquaintances stepped forward to chat with everyone.

Knowing that Yao Ke and the female soldiers of the small chorus and Yun Shang are comrades-in-arms of an art troupe, Bai Qingyue even shared the dried fruit that she just got with everyone, generously asking everyone to take care of the Bai family at ordinary times. It seems that it is still a child's Yunshang.

Yunshang didn't expect that her sister would still treat her like a child and bribe her comrades with delicious food to take care of her. Facing everyone's mocking eyes from time to time, Yunshang's face was flushed with embarrassment, and she hurriedly grabbed her. Qing Yue walked outside the tent.

"Sister, the people in our group are very nice..."

Before Yun Shang finished speaking, Bai Qingyue nodded and said, "Well, the members of your chorus look pretty good, and everyone gets along very well."

Compared with the bad things she encountered in the art troupe, the female soldiers in the Yicheng art troupe where Yunshang works are really good.

Maybe it's because there are few people in the group and the competition is not fierce enough.

"Xiaoqi, my mother and I are going back to the capital after this show, how about you? Do you really plan to stay in Yicheng?"

"I think Yicheng is very good. The competition in the small military area is not fierce, and I have more opportunities there."

What Yun Chang said made her feel a little guilty, she lowered her head, not daring to look at Bai Qingyue for a long time.

Bai Qingyue's eyes almost turned to the sky, she patted Yun Shang's head angrily, and unceremoniously exposed her, "Why are you looking at Yicheng? I think you are just running for Gu Shinian go!"

What's so good about Gu Shinian? He's seduced her family's little seven souls. For him, he'd rather stay in that corner and go home.

And Xiaoqi, she really has no conscience, for the sake of a man, she even gave up her family and future, it's really annoying.

With a cheeky face, Yun Chang hugged Bai Qingyue's arm, and admitted with a bachelor's mouth, "Sister, I don't want face! It's good that you know, why do you have to expose me? I just ran to Gu Second brother went! Second brother Gu is so good-looking, I don't want to see him in prison, what if second brother Gu gets snatched away by other lesbians!"

Bai Qingyue: "..."

This is too bold!

Xiaoqi's face is built by the city wall, right?

Yun Shang snorted twice, hugged Bai Qingyue and continued to act like a baby, "Sister, you just say what I said is right? Brother Gu is so popular, shouldn't it be right for me to guard him?"

Bai Qingyue was so tortured by Yun Shang that she couldn't do anything, she couldn't move her arm when she wanted to move, so she could only nod her head helplessly to coax her, "Yes, you are right, you should stick to Gu Shinian from now on."

Yun Shang laughed softly, let go of Bai Qingyue, and changed the subject, "Sister, which unit is Mom planning to transfer back to the capital this time? Is it an art troupe?"

"It hasn't been decided yet." Bai Qingyue responded, dragging Yunshang while walking, "I heard what Dad said, this time when Mom is transferred back to the capital, she should be able to move up a promotion, and then see if she can stay in the art troupe. "

"What about you? Are you still going to the art troupe then?"

"Me?" Bai Qingyue frowned,

With a low sigh, he asked in a low voice, "Xiao Qi, do you think it's too late for me to go to college now?"

At the same time as she asked this sentence, Bai Qingyue's eyes revealed a confused look, with a hesitant expression on her face, like a child standing at a cross street, not knowing which way to go.

Yunshang was startled, and quickly shook Bai Qingyue's hand, saying in a very positive tone, "It's not too late! Sister, those workers in their forties and fifties are rushing to go to Ye University, you have only graduated from high school for a few years, it's not too late to go to college now."

Besides, all units can choose to go to college now, and if Bai Qingyue wants to go to college, it is very feasible with a little manipulation.

However, if Bai Qingyue really went to college, her marriage to Han Chen would either have to be held before the start of college, or it would have to wait until five years later, after Bai Qingyue graduated from college.

If it's the latter, I don't know if Han Chen can bear to wait for Bai Qingyue for five years.

"Sister, have you discussed this matter with Dad? Brother Han Chen, does he have any objections?"

"Dad has a lot of things these past few months, and I didn't mention it to him. But I mentioned it to Mom, and Mom meant that I would tell my grandfather and Dad about it after the show."

"As for Han Chen..." Bai Qingyue hesitated for a moment, and said with some uncertainty, "I want to talk to him after listening to my grandfather and dad's opinions."

Yun Chang's eyes widened, and she looked at Bai Qingyue very puzzled, "Sister, this is your own business, you can decide on your own, why do you have to listen to the opinions of your family? Don't tell me that if our father and father disagree, you will Not going to college anymore?"

Bai Qingyue frowned, "But..."

"Sister, don't forget, Brother Han Chen graduated from a military academy, and he is also a college student. You are better than Brother Han Chen in terms of family background and appearance, so you can't lose to him in terms of academic qualifications, right?"

Bai Qingyue: "..."

Yun Shang wanted to continue persuading Bai Qingyue, but suddenly thought of this year's year, she twitched what was on her lips, and swallowed it back.

In this world, with the information provided by her and Gu Shinian, the time for resuming the college entrance examination is very likely to be earlier than the established track in history.

If Bai Qingyue is in college now, maybe the college entrance examination will resume before she graduates from college.

At that time, those college students including Bai Qingyue will be embarrassed.

How about... persuade Bai Qingyue to wait a few more years and take the college entrance examination with her in the future?

"Sister, actually, you can marry Brother Han Chen first, and then you can go to college later. At your age, it is a time when you have a bright future in the art troupe. It would be a pity to just give up and go to college..."

Chapter 644 Performance

Yun Chang changed her previous excitement of encouraging Bai Qingyue, and began to rack her brains to dispel her idea of going to college this year.

Bai Qingyue was stunned.

So, does Xiaoqi want her to go to college, or does she not want her to go to college?

"Sister, is that guy Han Chen treating you well? If he dares to treat you badly, just tell me, and Brother Gu and I will clean him up for you!"

一想到白清玥有一天会嫁给韩晨，搬到韩家去生活，云裳就有种暴揍韩晨的冲动，也终于能理解白宴诚为什么每每提起顾时年就恨得牙痒痒 look like.

While Bai Qingyue's cheeks were flushed, she couldn't help laughing, "Don't worry, Han Chen grew up under my grandfather's watch. His character is trustworthy. Besides... he doesn't dare to treat me badly."

Yun Shang glanced at Bai Qingyue suspiciously, always feeling that her last sentence contained a bit too much information.

Could it be that Han Chen was the one being bullied in their relationship?

Bai Qingyue felt uncomfortable at Yun Chang's glance, raised her hand to touch her face, and changed the subject, "Xiao Qi, do you know about elder brother's dating?"

"Bai Qing is dating?" Yun Chang's eyes widened suddenly, and he was stunned for a long time before he realized, "Why didn't I know when it happened?"

Fortunately, she ordered so many delicious food for Bai Qingzheng a few days ago, but this guy didn't notify her when he fell in love. It's so embarrassing!

"I only found out about it two days ago." When Bai Qingyue mentioned this, she was also a little depressed, and said in a dull tone, "Two days ago, my elder brother called my mother and said that he knew a female doctor and wanted to try to talk to her. Look around."

Bai Qingyue's tone was not quite right, and Yun Chang had a bad premonition in her heart, and then asked, "Sister, is there any problem with the lesbian?"

"It's not that the lesbian has a problem, it's that my elder brother has a problem." Bai Qingyue sighed, and continued, "Every time Mom calls elder brother, she always urges him to find a partner. Fooled the elder brother and said that if he doesn't find a partner, I can't marry Han Chen here, and I can't be the boss not to get married. I, a girl, should marry first."

I was worried that my elder brother would really believe the nonsense my mother said, so in order not to delay me and Han Chen, I found a random lesbian to settle down. "

Yun Chang was speechless, she counted the days with her fingers, and it took only one month from the New Year to the present. Bai Qingzheng is such a picky person, how could it be such a coincidence that after Lin Wenlan's various fancy urges to get married, he found someone he wanted to try to get along with in just one month?

Therefore, it is really possible that the female doctor was chosen by Bai Qingzheng out of impatience.

"Sister, have you told Mom about this?"

"It's useless to talk to mom." Bai Qingyue shook her head and said with lingering fear, "Mom has been looking forward to my eldest brother's marriage since last year, let alone that lesbian is a military doctor, as long as she is a woman and alive, Mom has no objection. Besides, the eldest brother can make do with that lesbian, which means that he doesn't hate that lesbian in his heart, and Mom will definitely not care about it."

Yun Chang fell into a deep silence.

She felt that her mother might have really cheated her son this time, and it was still a deep pit, a huge pit.

This time, Yun Chang was silent for a few minutes before rubbing his brows and said, "I'll call my brother later to ask about the situation."

"Well," Bai Qingyue responded in a low voice, "I called my eldest brother yesterday and told him about it, and you can check his tone later, so don't do stupid things just because of Mom's nonsense."

The two sisters talked outside for a long time before Lin Wenlan finished talking and came out of the office area, gave Yunshang a few words, and then led Bai Qingyue back to the Linyang representative team under Yunshang's indescribable eyes.

After the various representative teams arrived and settled down one after another, the military cultural performance officially kicked off.

Yun Chang was lucky, and was scheduled to appear on the second show of the first show. The time was relatively early, so she didn't have to sit in the backstage and wait for several hours to get on stage.

After the end of the first choral program,

Yun Shang entered the stage in the most energetic state amidst the calm voice of Commander Yang.

This is the first time that Yunshang has stepped on such a big stage in this world. Amidst the warm applause, Yunshang passed through the thick dark green curtain and stood firmly on the place where the stage lights gathered most.

After the introduction of the first section of the piano, Yunshang's fingers danced quickly, and the passionate and bright voice of the violin instantly resounded through the audience.

There is no smooth transition period, and the opening is the climax of the whole song. The style of the song is cheerful and bright, full of emotions, and the audience is not given any time to prepare. It is like a thunder on the ground, which instantly mobilizes the emotions of the audience stand up.

Knowing that his granddaughter was going to be on stage today, Mr. Bai, who never liked to join in the excitement, also came to watch the performance, and sat in the middle of the first row below the stage.

As soon as Yun Chang came to the stage, old man Bai couldn't help grinning, showing off to the people around him proudly:

"Old man Li! Look! My Xiaoqi, my granddaughter!"

"Liang! Why are you standing there? Clap your hands! This is my granddaughter!"

"Old Zhang, look, my granddaughter plays the piano well?"

"Wu Datou, that's my Xiao Qi..."

Under Mr. Bai's unremitting clapping, the group of old men with gray hair and various medals pinned to their bodies in the front row applauded each other more happily like a competition.

Except for the Bai family and a few educated youths, no one knew why the old chiefs were so excited.

However, since the old chiefs applauded so enthusiastically, they should just follow suit, which should be right.

Besides, the little girl on the stage is really good at playing the piano, hearing the goosebumps on their bodies, I can't wait to stand up on the spot and dance a few times to the sound of the piano to feel comfortable.

Yun Chang's performance this time was not distracted at all, her eyes were slightly squinted, and she was completely integrated into the music. She didn't even notice that her father was sitting in the first row, and the two brothers Bai Yancheng and Bai Yanming were sitting in the second row. In the row, two brothers, Bai Qingze and Bai Qingjie, were sitting in the crowd behind. Even Lin Wenlan stood behind the curtain to watch her daughter's performance.

When the last note of the piano sound fell, Yunshang slowly put down the violin, and gave a standard military salute to the audience. The moment she turned around and stepped off the stage, she saw her old man grinning from the corner of his eyes, clapping his hands on his forehead vigorously. There is also a group of familiar old men doing the same action.

Yun Chang's feet softened and almost fell on the stage.

Didn't her father say that he doesn't watch the show?

Who is that old urchin off stage?

Chapter 645

The old man didn't know that his strong appearance almost scared his granddaughter to the stage. He turned his head and waved to the guard who was standing by the side of the stage with a camera in his hand. "Have you captured everything?"

The guard nodded quickly, and shook the camera in his hand, "Don't worry, chief, I've taken them all, and I took more than a dozen pictures!" And they were still wandering around the hall to take pictures, with all kinds of angles, long-range and close-ups.

Satisfied, the old man took the camera from the guard, got up and walked outside, and at the same time did not forget to show off to the old acquaintances around him, "Yes! Take a look, I will go back and develop photos for my little seven go!"

It was the first time for my granddaughter to take part in an all-army art performance, so I had to take pictures of them all with a camera, and pick a few good ones, enlarge them and hang them in the living room, so that the guests would be able to see them at a glance when they came.

Yun Chang didn't know that the old man ran out to develop photos after watching her show, and when he saw Lin Wenlan after stepping off the stage, he ran over and hugged Lin Wenlan coquettishly and begged for praise for a long time. Knowing that the Linyang Military Region representative team had a model play to be played later, he greeted Commander Yang and followed Lin Wenlan to the Linyang delegation's dressing room.

"Mom, I just saw my grandfather, and I sat in the first row." Probably because of over-excitement, Yun Shang walked like a spring on her feet, jumping and jumping, and her voice also carried. There was a wave of joy and joy.

Lin Wenlan thought of Yunshang's soft feet when she stepped down from the stage, so she suppressed a smile and said, "You only saw your grandfather, but didn't you see your uncle and your father sitting in the second row? Yesterday Qingze and Qingjie also said that they would come. Watching the performance, I guess he is also in the audience."

Yun Shang: "..."

So, my whole family saw the frightened dog on stage?

Yun Chang was silent for a while, tugging at Lin Wenlan's skirt and asked, "Mom, what show is my sister's show tomorrow? Let my dad get me a ticket later, and I will sit down and applaud my sister tomorrow!"

Didn't the whole family come to see her performance today? There will be one more of her in the performance line tomorrow, and then the whole family will clap for Bai Qingyue hard, trying to scare Bai Qingyue's feet soft.

After being an older sister for so many years, no matter what, I have to embarrass myself with my younger sister!

How could Lin Wenlan not know Yun Shang's careful thinking, and said with a smile, "Xiaoqi, your sister will be on the show tomorrow with a chorus."

The implication is that there is strength in numbers, and you can't stand against the entire chorus by yourself. If you want to see your sister's jokes, there is no way!

Yun Shang was so overwhelmed, she pouted, hugged Lin Wenlan's arm, and murmured coquettishly, "Mom, you prefer my sister..."

This unconscionable remark made Lin Wenlan angry and funny. If the two of them hadn't arrived at the door of the dressing room, Lin Wenlan would have to take Yunshang to reprimand her.

After participating in the first performance, there was no Yunshang show for the next few days. Taking advantage of this time, Yunshang took Yao Ke and Wen Chengjie to stroll around the streets and alleys of the capital, satisfying Wen Chengjie's appetite. It also satisfied Yao Ke's wish to visit the Friendship Store, so he stayed in the camp with peace of mind and waited for the next opportunity to appear on stage.

It's just that the momentum of the whole army's cultural performance is really great. All the cast members add up to more than 3,000 people. Until some of the representative teams took the train to other large military districts to perform in parts, Yunshang's Opportunities to appear on the stage are intensive.

Due to discipline, the old man didn't ask Yunshang and Bai Qingyue to go home for dinner every three days, but asked the nanny to cook the meals they liked, and sent guards to send them to the camp every day.

Yunshang is not a stingy person either, she often takes the opportunity of food delivery at home to smuggle some side dishes from the space to make tooth offerings for the members of the group.

During the time in the capital, some people in the regiment also inquired about Yun Shang's identity with the comrades of the Linyang representative team. As time went by, when everyone faced Yun Shang, their attitudes were more or less uncomfortable.

Fortunately, Wen Chengjie and Yao Ke still treat Yunshang the same way, and Yunshang also has a big heart,

He didn't take this trivial matter to heart.

By the end of April, the literary and artistic event on the army finally came to an end, and Yun Shang also bid farewell to the family with tears in her eyes, and went south again by train.

It took too long to go out this time. Everyone wore thick winter clothes and boarded the car. When the car returned to Yicheng Railway Station, everyone had already changed into thin spring clothes.

Yun Chang was thinking about the bad things that happened to Gu Shinian, and couldn't care less about looking at the new clothes Lin Wenlan bought for her. After returning home, she quickly took a combat bath, and then hurried to the gate of the sub-military area.

Sure enough, Tiger even stopped at the door with the broken jeep that was beeping everywhere except for the horn. Seeing Yunshang running out, Gu Shinian hurriedly opened the door and dragged Yunshang into the car.

"Second Brother Gu, when did you come?" Yun Shang asked with a smile on her face, took out a dry towel from the space and wiped her wet hair.

Gu Shinian took the towel from Yunshang's hand, wiped her hair gently, and replied warmly, "I just arrived. How is it going, is the show going well?"

Yun Chang responded, and stared straight at Gu Shinian's face. Seeing that he had lost weight, his long eyebrows slanted, and the facial features on his face became more three-dimensional and handsome, he couldn't help reaching out to touch Gu Shi with distress. Year's Chin.

"Second brother Gu, are you busy recently? Or is the food in your company not good?" How did you lose so much weight?

The corners of Gu Shinian's lips curled up, the smile in his eyes became more gentle, he turned his head, clamped Yun Shang's hand with his chin, and kissed her in the palm of her hand.

"A Chang, I went out to perform a mission a few days ago, and I just came back yesterday."

When it came to the task, Yunshang immediately realized that she couldn't care less about Gu Shinian, so she quickly withdrew her hand and said seriously, "Second Brother Gu, I have something to tell you about Gu Huaqing and Gu Mingzhu matter."

Hearing the words, Gu Shinian also sat up straight, looking closely at Yunshang, "I just came back yesterday, and I haven't had time to call the capital yet... Ah Chang, how are the higher-ups going to deal with this matter?"

"I heard from my grandfather that the higher-ups arranged for Uncle Jin to take people to Hong Kong City. Also, the person who wrote the report letter was found."

The old man didn't know that his strong appearance almost scared his granddaughter to the stage. He turned his head and waved to the guard who was standing by the side of the stage with a camera in his hand. "Have you captured everything?"

The guard nodded quickly, and shook the camera in his hand, "Don't worry, chief, I've taken them all, and I took more than a dozen pictures!" And they were still wandering around the hall to take pictures, with all kinds of angles, long-range and close-ups.

Chapter 646 Embarrassment

"A Chang, if that person is really a branch of the Yu family, he can't just attack the Gu family, and he might also be targeting your Bai family." After all, it was the Bai family who exposed the usury of the Yu family back then.

Yun Chang nodded obediently, and responded, "My grandfather also said so, and asked someone to check the surname Yu, but no problem has been found yet."

Thinking of what Bai Yancheng said about giving Gu Shinian eye drops at home, Yun Shang paused for a moment, but still confessed honestly.

"Second brother Gu, my dad said that the man must have seen him just transferred to the capital, and wanted to get to me through you, and then to our Bai family through me. He told you to be careful in doing things recently, so as not to be inappropriate." Be careful of following other people's ways."

After Yun Shang finished speaking, she blinked her eyes and looked at Gu Shinian. She looked as cute as she wanted, as if Bai Yancheng had said so in the original words, without any words of dissatisfaction and reprimand against Gu Shinian. .

Gu Shinian smiled softly, thinking of the last time he went to Bai's house, when Bai Yancheng saw him, he slapped him like a dog, wishing to slap him to death, the dog who didn't scold him in front of Yunshang It's good to be bloody, so how could Yun Shang mention him with such a good attitude?

Yun Shang should have processed and beautified these words in private.

"A Chang, Uncle Bai cares about me so much, I will call and thank Uncle Bai later."

Gu Shinian's expression can be as sincere as it is, his tone can be as sincere as it is, pure and innocent like a little white rabbit, as if he just called to thank Bai Yancheng for his offer To the point, there was no intention of flaunting to offend Bai Yancheng at all.

Yun Chang knows Gu Shinian so well. Seeing the clear smile in his eyes, how could he not know his plan, so he glared at him and punched Gu Shinian angrily, "Gu Shinian! You Was it intentional? What good does it do you to be angry with my dad? Do you still want to call him old man in the future?"

Brother Gu is really getting more and more arrogant, he didn't even make a love report, he just wanted to fight with the old man, isn't he afraid that the old man will change his son-in-law if he gets angry?

After Gu Shinian honestly took a few punches, he shook Yun Shang's hand with a smile and coaxed him a few words before going on to talk about business, "A Chang, when did Uncle Jin go to Hong Kong City?"

"... half a month ago." Yun Shang calculated the time, "If things go well, I should be back soon."

"With the help of Uncle An in Hong Kong City, there should be no mistakes."

Yunshang frowned, and said a little uneasy, "I just don't know how the higher-ups will deal with this matter after Uncle Jin brings him back. Also, what if Gu Huaiqing gets involved with you and Aunt Zhang?"

Gu Huaqing directed and acted in such a wonderful drama, after the incident was revealed, he had to struggle to the death, what if the other party went all out and poured a basin of dirty water on Gu Shinian and Zhang Chunni's heads?

"It's okay, the Gu family and the third grandfather have made arrangements." Gu Shinian rubbed Yunshang's head reassuringly, "Besides, there is Uncle Jin. The organization arranged for Uncle Jin to go to Hong Kong City, which means that Gu Huaqing's defection case Uncle Jin and his unit have taken over, with Uncle Jin and Uncle Li around, Gu Huaqing can't afford to make waves."

"That's good." Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief, sat up straight, rubbed her flat belly, and signaled Gu Shinian to drive quickly, "Second brother Gu, I want to eat eight-treasure rice."

My little girl has already ordered food, so Gu Shinian dares to waste no time, seeing her rubbing her belly non-stop, he immediately wished he could drive the broken jeep out of the speed of a sports car.

After entering the restaurant, Yunshang picked up half a bowl of eight-treasure rice in one go, then slowed down the speed of eating, and gossiped about the embarrassing things about her unscrupulous elder brother with Gu Shinian.

"Second Brother Gu, do you know that in order to deal with my mother, my eldest brother randomly recruited a military doctor to deal with him?"

When Gu Shinian heard this, the soup in his mouth almost spewed out. He put down the spoon, wiped the corner of his mouth, and asked with a strange expression, "Ah Chang, did your elder brother say this?"

"My sister said so."

Yun Shang briefly explained Bai Qingyue's remarks, and then said that when she called Bai Qingzheng,

Bai Qing was describing the embarrassing incident on the phone:

"He said that he had nothing to do with the female military doctor, and he didn't mention the matter of having sex with her. It was just that when we met in the cafeteria, we sat down and ate a few times together. Later, their military region didn't know what to say. He and the female military doctor are having sex.

During the Chinese New Year this year, my mother urged my elder brother to find someone with the excuse that my sister was very worried about Han Chen's marriage. At that time, he couldn't bear my mother's daily urging to get married, so he told me about the female military doctor on the phone.

Originally, I wanted to find an excuse to fool my mother so that she would not call every day to urge the marriage. But he was unlucky, he didn't notice someone beside him when he was on the phone, and the rumor that he had sex with the female military doctor was immediately confirmed.

Now it's all right, he can't clarify it even if he wants to clarify it, and he doesn't know who to clarify it with, and the female military doctor is also very skilled. Every time she sees him and doesn't speak, she always smiles at him with a blushing face. Then he ran away shyly, making it seem like something really happened to the two of them. "

Gu Shinian was speechless after listening.

He really didn't expect that Bai Qingzheng, who had always been slick and thoughtful, could do such an embarrassing thing as shooting himself in the foot.

He wanted to pull up a pretense to fool the mother who was urging the marriage, but found that the pretense was not a simple pretense, but a black and big black pot that could deform, or the kind of black pot that couldn't be shaken off when it was buckled.

Gu Shinian was speechless at first, but he couldn't help laughing when he thought that Bai Qingzheng had made him feel aggrieved and helpless.

It's not funny to put this matter on others, but it's ridiculous to put it on Bai Qingzheng.

Yun Shang glared at Gu Shinian angrily, "You're still laughing! My elder brother is being stalked by a scheming bitch, and you don't say you're helping to find a way, but you're still laughing at him here! Are you still a friend?" Brother's?

Gu Shinian hurriedly picked a rib for Yun Chang, and said with a smile, "Don't worry, your elder brother knows it well. Besides, it's just a rumor, so Bai Qingzheng will be fine if he ignores it."

Like this kind of romantic scandal, the more serious it is, the farther the rumor will spread. Sometimes I don't care about it and don't ask and don't do anything, but no one takes it seriously.

Yun Chang nodded, thinking of Bai Qingzheng's current situation, he couldn't laugh or cry, "My elder brother is quite depressed, he said that those people only dare to gossip in private, but no one asked him face to face, otherwise he wouldn't be able to clarify everything. There was no opportunity for clarification."

You can't be like an idiot, and when you meet someone in the military area, you can pull the other person and say that he has nothing to do with that female military doctor, right?

Chapter 647

"A-Shang, don't you have a week off to go to the provincial capital to hold the commendation meeting in two days? Anyway, it only takes one day and one night train from He'an to the southern military region. If you are really worried about Bai Qingzheng, go there to see it in a few days To see him."

The little girl in his family loves to watch the show so much, no matter what, she has to watch Bai Qingzheng's embarrassing things nearby.

Besides, A Chang looks so good-looking, you don't need to say anything at that time, just follow Bai Qingzheng around the military area, and make sure no one will spread rumors about Bai Qingzheng and that female military doctor.

It can not only watch Bai Qingzheng's excitement, but also solve Bai Qingzheng's troubles.

The most important thing is that if Yunshang is in a hurry to go to the southern military region to watch the excitement of Bai Qingzheng, she won't have time to think about writing a love report.

Yun Shang didn't know Gu Shinian's careful thinking, after hearing his suggestion, his eyes lit up immediately, and his whole body immediately became energetic.

"That's right! I'm on vacation for a week, so I can just go and see my elder brother! Then I'll meet that female military doctor and find out what she's up to." The most important thing is that she can laugh at Bai Qingzheng face to face, and in the future You might even make fun of him for the rest of your life with this stalk!

"Ah Choo!"

Bai Qingzheng didn't know that his little devil was about to come over and laugh at him face to face. After he sneezed, he subconsciously touched his cool back, went to close the window, and kept out the drizzle that was blowing into the house with the wind. .

Wu Hongyu took a few steps up the stairs, put away the umbrella in his hand, shook off the raindrops on the umbrella, glanced in the direction of the infirmary, and knocked on the door of Bai Qingzheng's office. The door went in.

"I said, Liang Meichen is standing at the door of the infirmary and looking at you again. If you don't go out to show your face, Comrade Xiao Liang will stand like a watchdog."

Before he finished speaking, the ruler in Bai Qingzheng's hand flew past Wu Hongyu's ear.

Wu Hongyu shrank his neck, looked at the ruler that fell on the ground with a look of fear, and continued to yell, "Hey! Old Bai! Even if I say something wrong, you can't kill me! Tsk tsk! Really, a man's heart is a needle in the sea." Nah."

"Have you finished preparing the materials?" Bai Qing asked in a cold tone without raising his head.

"Don't mention it, the information the boss gave me is missing a part, and I'm wondering where to fill it up."

Wu Hongyu walked over rubbing his shoulders, slumped on the chair directly opposite Bai Qing, with one leg still on the stool beside him, looking like a bandit.

Bai Qingzheng slanted his eyes to the extra leg on the stool, and while picking up the teacup to drink tea, he stretched out his left foot and kicked the stool. Wu Hongyu was caught off guard and almost staggered off the chair.

"I find that you are not boring, and I don't know why Comrade Xiaoliang has taken a fancy to you as a piece of wood."

Of course Wu Hongyu knew that Bai Qingzheng had nothing to do with Liang Meichen, but he couldn't compete with Bai Qingzheng in terms of force, so of course he had to use the "object" stalk to provoke Bai Qingzheng a few words.

Otherwise, wouldn't he be sure of the dark loss of being almost kicked off the chair by Bai Qingzheng?

Bai Qing's face darkened again, and he gave Wu Hongyu a gloomy look, "I have nothing to do with Liang Meichen."

Wu Hongyu waved his hand, and stopped flirting with Bai Qingzheng. He sat up straight and asked, "Then what is your plan? The rumors of this matter became more and more outrageous, and even the military wives in the compound knew about it." , if you don't clarify, be careful that Liang Meichen will stick to it."

Bai Qing paused while drinking tea, as if thinking of something, the corners of his mouth quickly turned up, then he put down his teacup and asked, "You usually deal with those military wives in the courtyard a lot, do you know which military wives are more popular? "

Wu Hongyu didn't know what kind of medicine Bai Qingzheng was selling in his gourd, so he gave him a hesitant look, and asked in a very uncertain tone, "Why are you asking this?"

Bai Qingzheng smiled, then said with a serious face, "Ask someone to match me."

Didn't Liang Meichen pretend to be dating him every day? Since he couldn't clarify this matter, he asked the military wives in the compound to help him find a suitable partner.

At that time, he doesn't need to clarify, and no one will bring him and Liang Meichen together.

Wu Hongyu was stunned by Bai Qingzheng's coquettish operation. After realizing it, he patted the table and laughed non-stop.

"It's really you! You do this... Liang Meichen must be so angry that he vomits blood."

What Bai Qingzheng did was no different from slapping Liang Meichen face to face, and I don't know if Liang Meichen can continue to stay in the military area with the cheek after the news gets out.

"I told Liang Meichen a long time ago that the matter of dating is a misunderstanding." Since Liang Meichen didn't listen to persuasion and insisted on acting like a disgusting person with him, he would have to bear the consequences of being slapped in the face.

"Okay, it's up to me." Wu Hongyu smiled and poured himself a glass of water. After taking a sip, he began to send messages to Bai Qingzheng's wives, "The daughter-in-law of our regiment leader is in the courtyard. She is quite popular, and she is a representative of the military wives in the city, and she is very popular in the compound, so just leave it to her."

"The daughter-in-law of the third battalion commander has clairvoyant eyes and good ears. If there is a trouble in the house on weekdays, the third battalion commander's daughter-in-law is the first to know the reason. If you want to completely clean up your relationship with Liang Meichen, you can leak it to the third battalion commander's wife later. Take a breath."

"By the way, you can also ask Mr. Qin's lover to match you. Although the daughter-in-law of the head of the first regiment is from the city, her social circle is all in her hometown. The matchmaker will probably find a suitable matchmaker for you from her hometown. Mr. Qin The lover is from here, you must entrust her with this matter!"

Although Bai Qingzheng is already the battalion commander, he is not married yet and lives in the dormitory on weekdays, so he really doesn't know the military wives in the family area.

Now that Wu Hongyu told him about the situation of the military wives, he had a rough plan in mind.

This matter can indeed be entrusted to Mr. Qin's lover, no matter whether the blind date can be successful in the end, at least the big trouble of Liang Meichen can be solved first.

Otherwise, he was really worried that the spread of this matter would become more and more outrageous, and in the end he would have to marry Liang Meichen.

"Okay, I'm going to see Mr. Qin right now, you go back to your office to play!"

While Bai Qing was talking, he picked up his military cap, pushed Wu Hongyu out forcefully, locked the door of the office with his backhand, and went straight upstairs.

Wu Hongyu didn't care about Bai Qingzheng's behavior of crossing the river and demolishing the bridge, he smiled and tugged Bai Qingzheng, pointed to the direction of the opposite infirmary, "Hey, Comrade Xiaoliang is here."

Bai Qingzheng subconsciously looked back and saw that Liang Meichen was indeed walking towards this side, his expression changed immediately, he pushed Wu Hongyu away, and quickly ran upstairs with big strides.

Chapter 648 mention dry

In this year's military art performance, three programs in the regiment were selected into the He'an representative team. After more than a month of fierce competition, Yunshang's violin solo stood out among more than 300 programs and became one of the gold medal winners .

The chorus of Yao Ke and the others also won the Excellence Award.

The Yicheng Art Troupe won two awards in only three programs, and the scenery was endless for a while. Several leaders in the troupe recently walked with their feet floating.

After Yunshang and Yao Ke received the commendation from their superiors, several leaders of the Yicheng Military Division held another commendation meeting in the military region. In addition to praising the leaders of the regiment for their teaching, Yunshang and others won the honor for the military division. In addition, several comrades who won the prize were also promoted.

This also means that Yunshang officially became a national cadre on the bright side, holding an iron rice bowl in his hands.

Although she had secretly been a state cadre when she went to Hong Kong City, but due to the particularity of that job, no one knew Yun Shang's identity and her identity except for a few people in the department. those contributions made. .

This time, Yunshang stood on the stage as a national cadre to accept the commendation, and felt a sense of satisfaction that all her efforts were rewarded. The kind of heartfelt joy cannot be described in words.

Back in the regiment, the excited Yunshang spent an afternoon, after several revisions, finally wrote an application for joining the party and handed it in, and then rushed to the southern military region to laugh at Bai Qingzheng in person.

After the train whistle blew and slowly left the platform, Gu Shinian turned around and left the train station, went to the nearest post office and called Bai Qingzheng.

Knowing that Yunshang came here by train alone, and would stay with him for three or four days, Bai Qingzheng panicked.

I was worried about Yunshang's safety on the road, and I was afraid that Yunshang would find out about his blind date when he came over. At the same time, he was also worried that he was in such a mess recently. Spectrum.

Yunshang didn't know that her elder brother was conflicted and entangled in his heart. When the train stopped at the terminal, he took the opportunity to go to the toilet to wash up in a hurry, changed into a brand new military uniform, and prepared to meet Bai with the most energetic appearance. upright.

After getting out of the car, Yun Chang saw Bai Qingzheng on the platform at a glance.

It's not how good her eyes are, but Bai Qing's upright figure, handsome face, and the upright and brand-new military uniform are too conspicuous in the gray crowd, like standing out from the crowd. One had to notice him at a glance.

"Brother!"

Yun Chang called Bai Qingzheng, watched him stride over, first rubbed her forehead fiercely, and then mentioned the heavy bag she had just packed that weighed fifty or sixty catties, and protected it with one hand. She walked out of the station.

"Brother! Quickly see if I've grown taller again?"

Yun Chang's feet seemed to be fitted with springs, jumping and jumping to match Bai Qing's height, even though the siblings hadn't seen each other for several years, they didn't feel a little strange.

After receiving Yun Shang, Bai Qing was finally relieved after talking about it all day and night, and was about to speak to teach Yun Shang a few words, but her thoughts were distracted by her childish question.

"Let me see." With a straight face, Bai Qing raised his hand to rub Yun Shang's neatly combed hair, and nodded solemnly, "Well, she has grown taller, Xiao Qi has become a big girl."

Indeed, his Xiaoqi was still a half-grown child when he went to Hong Kong City. Now he is nearly 1.7 meters tall, and wearing this straight military uniform, he looks like a spirited little soldier, without any childish feeling .

After the two got into the car, Bai Qingzheng wiped the sweat from his forehead, and asked Yun Shang, "Xiao Qi, why did you come here alone? Gu Shinian was relieved to let you come here alone?"

"I'm an adult, why can't I come here alone?" Yun Shang muttered dissatisfiedly, and continued, "Besides, I'm wearing a military uniform, so why don't you worry about coming here alone?"

Bai Qingzheng was not angry when Yun Shang said a word, instead he quickly succumbed to Yun Shang's words,

"Okay, okay, you are an adult, you can go out alone."

"Hmph!" Yunshang raised her chin in dissatisfaction, her eyes slanted at Bai Qingzheng at forty-five degrees, "Brother, I've done it! I'm a state official now, please correct your attitude and don't fool the country with tricks like coaxing children cadre!"

"Are you committed?" Bai Qingzheng was really pleasantly surprised at this time. Lao Gao unconsciously grinned at the corner of his mouth, and even a faint line of smile appeared in the corner of his eyes, "When did you get promoted? Have you joined the party?"

Yun Chang nodded proudly, "The leader of the military division announced the list of nominees at the commendation meeting the day before yesterday. After the commendation meeting was held, I handed in the application for joining the party. Our political commissar said that I have great hopes of joining the party this time."

"Xiaoqi is really amazing!" Bai Qingzheng praised Yunshang sincerely, and then talked about what Lin Wenlan called him, "...Mom called and said that your program won the gold award, and Qingyue's program won the gold medal." He won the silver award. He also said that my grandfather was so happy that he showed off in the courtyard every day, and invited Grandpa Li and the others to drink several times."

nonsense! My sister and I have made the old man look good, can the old man be unhappy!

Yun Chang slandered, feeling even more proud, and the corners of her mouth kept rising, "I have been on the stage so many times in the capital, and my grandfather sat down to watch my performance every time, and let Xiao Liu I took a photo of my performance, enlarged it and hung it in the living room at home, it's amazing!"

Bai Qingzheng: "... " Why do I think you are more shy than my grandfather?

Bai Qingzheng coughed dryly, stopped the smile on his lips, and then asked, "Is my grandfather okay this time?"

"Very good." Yun Shang nodded, "My grandfather has to go to the training ground for a few laps every morning, and his body is quite strong."

"What about dad? Do you still work overtime every day?"

"Not really. When I first came back, I often worked overtime. In April, commuting to and from get off work became normal, and I was in a good mood every day." Except when scolding Gu Shinian.

The military district was not very far from the station. The two drove there and stopped at the entrance of the military guest house opposite the military district in only half an hour.

"Fortunately, Gu Shinian called me and asked me to reserve a room for you in advance, otherwise you would have to share a room with someone else today."

Yun Chang froze for a moment, looked at the tall green brick gatehouse of the guest house, and asked Bai Qingzheng, "Brother, are there a lot of people visiting relatives in your military region recently?" Otherwise, why is there no room in the guest house?

"...the military area has activities recently." Bai Qingzheng replied vaguely, then carried the big bag and took Yunshang to the room on the top floor of the guest house.

Chapter 649 gossip object

Mr. Ergeng is working hard in the little black house, everyone go to bed first, and you will see the lovely Mr. Ergeng tomorrow morning.

"A-Shang, don't you have a week off to go to the provincial capital to hold the commendation meeting in two days? "Okay, I'll take care of this." Wu Hongyu smiled and poured himself a glass of water. After taking a sip, he began to send messages to Bai Qingzheng's wives, "The daughter-in-law of our regiment leader is in the courtyard. She is quite popular, and she is a representative of the military wives in the city, and she is very popular in the compound, so just leave it to her."

"The daughter-in-law of the third battalion commander has clairvoyant eyes and good ears. If there is a trouble in the house on weekdays, the third battalion commander's daughter-in-law is the first to know the reason. If you want to completely clean up your relationship with Liang Meichen, you can leak it to the third battalion commander's wife later. Take a breath."

"By the way, you can also ask Mr. Qin's lover to match you. Although the daughter-in-law of the head of the first regiment is from the city, her social circle is all in her hometown. The matchmaker will probably find a suitable matchmaker for you from her hometown. Mr. Qin The lover is from here, you must entrust her with this matter!"

Although Bai Qingzheng is already the battalion commander, he is not married yet and lives in the dormitory on weekdays, so he really doesn't know the military wives in the family area.

Now that Wu Hongyu told him about the situation of the military wives, he had a rough plan in mind.

This matter can indeed be entrusted to Mr. Qin's lover, no matter whether the blind date can be successful in the end, at least the big trouble of Liang Meichen can be solved first.

Otherwise, he was really worried that the spread of this matter would become more outrageous, and finally he would have to marry Liang Meichen.

"Okay, I'm going to see Mr. Qin right now, you go back to your office to play!"

While Bai Qing was talking, he picked up his military cap, pushed Wu Hongyu out forcefully, locked the door of the office with his backhand, and went straight upstairs.

Wu Hongyu didn't care about Bai Qingzheng's behavior of crossing the river and demolishing the bridge, he smiled and tugged Bai Qingzheng, pointed to the direction of the opposite infirmary, "Hey, Comrade Xiaoliang is here."

Subconsciously, Bai Qing looked back and saw that Liang Meichen was indeed walking towards this side, his expression changed immediately, he pushed Wu Hongyu away, and strode upstairs.

Chapter 650 Questioning

As soon as Yun Chang opened her mouth, Bai Qingzheng's scalp began to tingle: Is Xiao Qi trying to make trouble?

Without giving Bai Qingzheng time to react, Yunshang picked up a chicken leg and put it in Bai Qingzheng's bowl, and with the corner of her mouth curled up, she showed him a gentle and bright smile, "You train too hard every day, eat a chicken leg and make up for it."

Bai Qingzheng: "..."

This is black chicken!

Xiao Qi asked him to eat black-bone chicken in front of his comrades in the cafeteria! !

He is shameless!

Bai Qing was grinding his teeth, with a dry smile on his face, he put the chicken leg in the bowl back into Yunshang's bowl, "Xiao Qi, you must be tired from the car ride all day and night, eat more black-bone chicken. "After finishing the work, he moved the plate of steamed ribs on the table to Yun Shang's eyes.

The surrounding people stared straight at him.

Is this black-bone chicken something that most people can eat if they want it? And that plate of steamed pork ribs, that basket of shrimp dumplings, just these three dishes are enough for an ordinary person's food expenses for half a month! Bai Qingzheng just went on a blind date, and ordered so many delicious dishes for the other party. How much does he want to find someone?

Also, Bai Qingzheng has always been cold and indifferent, and he rarely talks to lesbians. When has he been so friendly to give food to others?

But it was his first blind date today, so how satisfied should he be with his blind date just by giving him food so affectionately?

Moreover, although Bai Qingzheng's blind date is also wearing a military uniform, the shiny watch that she revealed when she raised her wrist, and the new pair of fashionable leather shoes under her feet, which are so bright that they can illuminate the figure, are enough to show her The family background is not bad.

The man's future is bright, the woman's face is good-looking, and the family conditions are also superior. They are simply a talented man and a woman, a perfect match!

Yun Shang looked at Liang Meichen's darker and darker complexion, played more vigorously, picked up the last shrimp dumpling and sent it to Bai Qingzheng's bowl with high spirits, and said softly with threatening eyes, "Bai Qingzheng, there is one shrimp dumpling left. Dumplings, I can't eat any more."

Bai Qingzheng was just about to take away the bowl, but when he saw the little flames called threats in Yunshang's eyes, the 'Pet Sister Crazy Devil' froze, and immediately handed over the bowl, catching the alluring shrimp dumpling.

Seeing the interaction between the two, several military officers who were familiar with Bai Qingzheng went over to say hello, and after a few words, they chatted with Yunshang.

There was a lively tentative joke about the relationship between the two, but just as Bai Qingzheng denied it, Yunshang broke the stage beside him, with a bright smile on his face, asking everyone to help take care of Bai Qingzheng in the future work and life, as if She regards herself as a white and upright housekeeper.

Liang Meichen froze, her hands clenched tightly unconsciously, her fingernails dug into her palms hard, leaving a few bloody marks.

Reason told her that she would be laughed at by people in the cafeteria after she entered, and she should turn around and leave immediately, but Liang Meichen couldn't move for a long time looking at the couple in the middle of the hall.

She and Bai Qing are a couple recognized by the military region, why should she leave? Even if he had to leave, it should be that woman who left!

Facing the strange gazes of everyone in the small cafeteria, Liang Meichen braced himself up, ordered a meal at the window with heavy steps, and sat down at the table next to Yunshang and Gu Shinian.

The people in the cafeteria didn't expect that Liang Meichen would choose this position. They all slowed down their eating speed and stretched their necks to watch the show.

In this weird atmosphere, the people who were originally surrounded by Bai Qingzheng and Yunshang also left the 'battlefield circle' with their shoulders shrunk.

While eating slowly, Yun Shang stared at Liang Meichen generously. When her eyes occasionally fell on the fried potato shreds and fried vegetables in Liang Meichen's lunch box, a slight smile would overflow from the corner of her eyes.

There was no contempt in that smile, but Liang Meichen's hand holding the lunch box was hurt by Yun Shang's plain gaze, and she unconsciously clenched the chopsticks tightly, tears of embarrassment almost fell down.

What does that woman mean by looking at her like that?

Are you showing off that Bai Qing is buying so many sumptuous meals for her?

Or are you mocking her shabby food?

But no matter how shabby she ate, she spent her own money! No other man's money was spent!

Under the watchful eyes of everyone, consciously or unconsciously,

Liang Meichen clenched her fists, thinking about what she should do next.

Everyone in the military region thought that she and Bai Qing were the perfect couple, and Bai Qingzheng himself agreed by default.

She had been waiting for him to take the initiative to discuss with her about making a love report, but she waited and waited until Bai Qing was on a 'blind date' with someone and brought his 'blind date' to the cafeteria for dinner.

What did he take her for? What's the difference between him doing this and hitting her in the face? How will she behave in the future, and how will she stay in the military region?

Thinking of this, Liang Meichen felt aggrieved and angry, as well as uncontrollable disappointment after being let down. She put the chopsticks in her hand heavily on the table, raised her head, and looked straight at Bai Qingzheng, trying in vain to ask Bai Qingzheng to give her a Satisfied confession.

Since Liang Meichen sat at the next table, Bai Qingzheng's complexion darkened, without even looking at Liang Meichen, he kept picking up vegetables for Yunshang with chopsticks, scolding her to eat well and not to look around.

Any performance needs an audience.

Yun Shang's audience is Liang Meichen, and the audience Liang Meichen wants is Bai Qingzheng.

It's a pity that as an audience, Bai Qingzheng was not dedicated enough, and he treated Liang Meichen like air from beginning to end, so Liang Meichen's pretentious performance was all thrown to the blind.

"Hurry up and eat. I'll take you back to rest when you're full. I'll take you to the city tomorrow."

Hearing Bai Qingzheng's gentle and mellow voice, Liang Meichen couldn't bear the stimulation anymore, took the lunch box and stood up abruptly, took a deep breath, facing Bai Qingzheng's black face, and the eyes of Yunshang and the people around, He sat down beside Bai Qingzheng.

"Battlemaster Bai, I have something to ask you."

Bai Qing was sitting steadily without moving, but his dark complexion and the indifference between his eyebrows and eyes gave people a sense of impatient resistance.

"What's the matter?"

Liang Meichen could hear the indifference in Bai Qingzheng's words, and stared blankly at Bai Qingzheng, the corners of his eyes quickly turned sour.

Bai Qingzheng frowned, his expression became even more impatient, "Comrade Liang, we are having dinner, what do you want?"

"... Battalion Commander Bai, have you heard the rumors about the two of us?"

"What rumor?" Bai Qingzheng pretended to be stupid at first, then sneered, and said in a voice that everyone could hear, "You also said that it is a rumor, and rumors are not credible. There is no need for Comrade Liang to take rumors seriously."

Liang Meichen didn't expect that Bai Qingzheng would pretend to be stupid. After a long while, as if he was greatly stimulated, he stood up abruptly and asked with an unbelievable expression, "You said that the rumors are not credible, so why didn't you tell me sooner?" clear!"
