Chapter 681 Stripping the cocoon

According to Erya's words, because Linyang is too far away from Yicheng, the Bai family moved back to the capital. The reason for the big explosion in Yicheng back then was not known by many people in the Linyang Military Region.

Even if everyone heard that something happened to Yunshang, the gossip changed when it was passed back to Linyang. The truth that Erya knew from Chen Cuiqiao's mouth could at most have three or four points of credibility.

However, what is certain is that one of Yunshang and Gu Shinian was indeed stimulated by the explosion and had mental problems, and the other was also at the scene of the explosion and was directly seriously injured.

There were also rumors that Gu Shinian was crippled by the blast, and later, in order to compensate him, the organization transferred him from Yicheng back to the capital and was promoted to battalion commander.

Hearing Er Ya mention this rumor, Gu Shinian, who has always been calm and reserved, was also shocked by the thunder.

The person who said this is really ridiculous.

If there was no problem with his legs, it would be reasonable to transfer him back to the capital and be promoted to battalion commander.

But if his legs are really crippled, there are only two ways to go in the future. One is to transfer to a local job, and the other is to transfer to a clerical job and slowly work through the qualifications in the office.

After all, it is impossible for a lame battalion commander to follow his comrades on the training ground, let alone take his comrades out to perform various tasks. How could the organization issue such a ridiculous transfer order?

Gu Shinian was speechless for a while, and took a few steps back to avoid the wind blowing up from the bottom of the cliff, and then asked, "What happened afterwards? What happened to A-Shang and me afterwards?"

Erya tightly grasped the stone beside her with both hands, and continued tremblingly in the howling mountain wind:

"I, in my dream, my grades were not good, so I was admitted to a junior college. When I came back from the summer vacation in the second year, everyone in the Linyang Military Region said that you and Yunshang had an accident.

At that time, there were two rumors, one rumor was that the Bai family had offended someone, someone kidnapped Yun Shang in order to avenge the Bai family, when you went to rescue Yun Shang, something happened, and Yun Shang came back from the rescue, you..."

Having said this, Erya glanced at Gu Shinian timidly, met his expressionless gaze, subconsciously shuddered, and continued:

"There is also a rumor that the accident between you and Yunshang was related to some national treasure, that an enemy agent kidnapped Yunshang and asked the Bai family what treasure he wanted, and you were also implicated..."

I heard people say that after your accident, Deputy Political Commissar Gu rushed from Linyang to the capital. In order to seek justice for you, he took out a gun and slapped the leader on the table. "

Is it related to the national treasure?

Gu Shinian instantly thought of the antiques in the warehouse in Yunshang's space.

If the other party really took aim at Yunshang for this reason, it could only be that Yunshang accidentally took a cultural relic out of the space when he was in a daze.

As a result, Yun Shang's biggest hole card - space, was exposed!

In this way, it makes sense for Yunshang to be kidnapped in the capital and the Bai family's territory.

Money touches people's hearts, not to mention the space where antiques and cultural relics can be conjured up?

Who wouldn't be tempted to meet such a magical baby, and who wouldn't want to keep it for himself?

Gu Shinian's face was very gloomy, and there was a venomous sternness in his eyes.

He didn't care about his ending in Erya's life. At this moment, he was full of thoughts about what would happen to Yun Shang after he died? With such a big family in the Bai family, did they protect Yunshang? Or, facing the temptation of space, will the Bai family also be moved?

And Yunshang, after experiencing the kidnapping incident, was he in a daze, immersed in his own world all his life and unable to get out, or was he awakened by his death?

If Yunshang really wakes up, facing the news of his death, can she bear the blow? After waking up, did anyone come to ask about Yunshang's space?

"Where is A-Shang?" Gu Shinian paused, then asked, "How is A-Shang after my accident? Has she recovered?"

"I don't know." Erya shook her head reflexively, "The Bai family is in the capital, and they live in the compound where the heads live.

After Yunshang was tied up once, she must have been firmly protected by the Bai family, and no one could easily find out about Yunshang. "

This is true, the reason Erya was able to inquire about Yunshang and Gu Shinian was because Chen Cuiqiao's family lived in the compound of the Linyang Military Region.

And Bai Yancheng has served as the commander of the military region for more than ten years, even if he brought his whole family back to the capital, people in Linyang will still subconsciously pay attention to the news of the Bai family.

It is precisely because of this that Erya was able to learn about his and Yunshang's situation from other people in the military region.

But once the Bai family consciously protects Yunshang, people at the level of Erya will naturally not be able to find out about Yunshang.

Probably because Gu Shinian's aura was too cold and hard, Erya was silent for a moment, and then said flatteringly, "Comrade Gu, although I didn't dream about Yun Chang's later situation, I dreamed that after I graduated from junior college and was assigned to the unit, I met your sister.

Once again, I told your sister what happened when Yunshang and I were in Fenyang. Your sister seemed to mention that after your accident, Yunshang's illness gradually recovered, but she has been in poor health. spent most of the year in the hospital..."

When Gu Shinian heard this, his legs were so weak that he almost sat on the ground, his heart tightened suddenly, and his chest hurt.

Of course he understood what Erya meant by 'surviving the day'.

Yunshang did suffer from physical loss when she was a child, but there are materials in the space, and he took Yunshang to the northeast to find so many ginseng in the early years, and he has repaired Yunshang's body bit by bit.

It can be said that Yunshang's current body is definitely healthier than most people.

But Erya said that Yunshang spent every day in the hospital after waking up, which means that Yunshang had a thought of not wanting to live at the time, or that she didn't keep her space, which forced her to break her bones.

Otherwise, with the living standard of the Bai family, how could Yunshang stay in the hospital for more than half a year.

Gu Shinian's throat moved, and he wanted to continue asking questions, but found that his throat was blocked and he couldn't make any sound.

He raised his hand to cover his burning and painful eyes, wiped away the wetness from the corners of his eyes unconsciously, took several deep breaths, and finally suppressed the grief and hostility constantly churning in his heart.

"...Think about it carefully, who is it that tied A Chang?"

Seeing Erya shaking his head, Gu Shinian rubbed his face and continued hoarsely, "Think again, who was the person that Deputy Political Commissar Gu killed in the capital, and who was he punished for?"

As long as Erya can think of anyone who participated in Yunshang's attack, he can follow this clue to lock the enemy in his previous life.

No matter who the other party is, as long as one dares to attack Yun Shang, one counts as one, and no one can escape!

Chapter 682 Second clue

Gu Shinian was very emotionally turbulent, and Erya was cold and scared, and at the same time worried that something would happen to him again, and he would not be able to escape the fate of early death.

Even though she doesn't dare to like Gu Shinian any more now, and even fears Gu Shinian from the bottom of her heart, when she thinks that this is the man she has loved for two lifetimes, she still can't bear to watch him die because of Yun Shang again.

Erya rummaged through every useful clue deep in her memory, hoping to help Gu Shinian find the murderer and change his fate.

Gu Shinian also knew that Erya would not lie to him about this matter.

After all, the third grandfather went to the capital to beat someone to death. In the final analysis, he was seeking justice for him. Now he is asking the name of the person who was beaten to death by the third grandfather. With Erya's brain, it is not difficult to guess that he wants to make preparations in advance to avoid His fate of early death.

Therefore, in this matter, even if Erya can't know everything without saying everything, she will not deliberately mislead him by using a fake name.

"...I heard from my uncle that the person who died was named Chen. He also said that Deputy Political Commissar Gu killed an enemy agent who had been lurking for many years. His death would be in vain. If Deputy Political Commissar Gu hadn't acted too quickly and affected the interrogation of the case handling team, The higher authorities will not just give him a mild punishment."

Gu Shinian mentally went through the number of families with the surname Chen in the capital, and felt that everyone was suspicious, and everyone looked like a murderer, so he simply put this matter aside and continued to ask Er Ya.

"When did you wake up from this dream?"

Cold sweat broke out on Erya's forehead.

This dream naturally ended with her death.

She died in her husband's domestic violence, and when she opened her eyes again, she was back in the dark and cramped private room in Fenyang. At that time, she was being bullied by He Aidang and Zhou Xiu's mother and daughter.

It was precisely because of this dream-like rebirth that she had thoughts that she shouldn't have, making her conceited that, once again, she could fall into Gu Shinian's eyes, replace Yun Shang, and become the one who was rejected. The person Gu Shinian held in his palm.

You know, every time she was beaten in the previous life, she would silently recall the scene of getting along with Gu Shinian when she was young.

The more you think about it, the more you miss Gu Shinian, and the more you miss Gu Shinian, the worse your relationship with your husband will be. This has almost become a vicious circle.

It wasn't until Erya was reborn that reality slapped her hard, and she realized that she only liked the perfect and powerful Gu Shinian that she imagined, not the cold and ruthless guy in front of her. Gu Shinian is a stern, flesh-and-blood Gu Shinian.

The cold wind from the bottom of the cliff blew up Xuan'er again, blowing Erya's whole body with a chill.

She shivered, moved inside, and said, "Every time I dream of getting married, I wake up."

Gu Shinian looked at Erya for a while, and after confirming that there was no question he wanted to ask, he moved his stiff fingers, turned around and walked towards the car.

Erya hurriedly picked up the revenge on the ground, almost scrambling away from the cliff, and followed to the side of the car.

"Gu, Comrade Gu, I don't know how to get down the mountain, I, I take the train every morning..."

"Sit in the back." Gu Shinian opened the car door, gave Er Ya a cold look, and said in a warning tone, "Chen Qian, this is the last time, don't appear in front of me and A Chang again."

Yun Shang couldn't concentrate on practicing kung fu all day long, and after finally staying up until the afternoon, she told Wu Xiang and Yao Ke that she would not go to dinner, and yawned to go back to the dormitory to catch up on sleep.

Tomorrow is the weekend, so I can sleep well and go to the small cafeteria to order two stir-fried vegetables when I wake up. Don't be too happy.

The quilt is so warm, and the stir-fry is so delicious, so she doesn't want to know what Gu Shinian said to Er Ya!

Gu Shinian was very emotionally turbulent, and Erya was cold and scared, and at the same time worried that something would happen to him again, and he would not be able to escape the fate of early death.

Even though she doesn't dare to like Gu Shinian any more now, and even fears Gu Shinian from the bottom of her heart, when she thinks that this is the man she has loved for two lifetimes, she still can't bear to watch him die because of Yun Shang again.

Yun Shang couldn't concentrate on practicing kung fu all day long, and after finally staying up until the afternoon, she told Wu Xiang and Yao Ke that she would not go to dinner, and yawned to go back to the dormitory to catch up on sleep.

Chapter 683 Forced interrogation

Gu Shinian was silent for a while, then slowly shook his head, "She only knew that there would be a big explosion, but she didn't know the exact time and place."

At this moment, Gu Shinian no longer kept the secret from Yun Shang, and talked about what Er Ya confessed to him, and what happened to him and Yun Shang, he also said it later. .

Yun Shang was not in a hurry to torture Gu Shinian, but was more interested in the few important things he said.

"The college entrance examination will be resumed in the second half of the year!? The college entrance examination in this world has been advanced four years?" Yun Shang blinked excitedly, poked Gu Shinian's arm and asked, "Second brother Gu, tell me, is it our fault? What about the batch of information provided?"

They handed in 800 to 900 books to the organization, including more than a dozen modern history books, and some materials they specially sorted out.

With the guidance and guidance of these historical materials, it is difficult for the historical process of the world not to jump.

In particular, countries in this world have retained high-end talents from all walks of life to the greatest extent while avoiding circles, which has laid the most solid foundation for the country's future development.

Thinking that all these changes might be brought about by the batch of materials she and Gu Shinian handed in, Yun Shang was filled with pride and excitement.

Even though she and Gu Shinian made contributions in public here, not many people knew about it.

Gu Shinian is also willing to discuss with Yun Shang the major events that will happen in the future, so that at least it can divert her attention and prevent her from constantly asking whether she was really crazy in the life she lived in Erya.

Gu Shinian responded in a low voice, holding Yun Shang's restless hand, "A Chang, the college entrance examination will resume in the second half of the year, which school do you want to take?"

"Whatever, as long as it's a school in the capital." Yun Shang said, frowning again, "It's just that if I go to college, the two of us will be separated, and it will be rare to see each other in the next year."

What's more, she originally planned to marry Second Brother Gu in the second half of the year. If she were to go to university, the marriage would have to be postponed until after she graduated from university.

Brother Gu is twenty-four years old this year. If he waits another four or five years to get married, won't he become what others call an old bachelor?

Gu Shinian didn't know that Yunshang's head was going wrong again, and whispered the news provided by Erya, "Listen to what Erya said, after the accident in Yicheng, I will be transferred back to the capital in the second half of the year..."

Before he finished speaking, another thought flashed through Gu Shinian's mind.

According to Erya, he was transferred back to the capital after he was discharged from the hospital for half a year. According to the development of Tiger Company, he was not allowed to let go of the company commander for several months.

This also means that during his hospitalization, someone took over his position and became the new company commander of the Tiger Company. That's why he was promoted two ranks after he was discharged from the hospital.

This is organizational compensation for him!

If he can avoid the big bang this time and rewrite his and Yunshang's fate, then he will not be transferred back to the capital because of his injury.

"A-Shang, it doesn't matter even if I'm in Yicheng, I'll call you whenever I'm free, and I'll try my best to take the time to go back and see you..."

The performance of the broken jeep was still very good, and it only took forty minutes from the military division to the Tiger Company's garrison.

Back in the bungalow, Yunshang caught the balls and fur balls that were flying over as usual, licked them, fed a few dried fish, and then entered the house with a cat in one hand.

There is a single sofa and a three-seater sofa in the living room. Yun Chang throws off her shoes and lays down on the sofa, pushes away the balls that keep licking her face, and asks Gu Shinian:

"Second brother Gu, what else did Erya say?"

Gu Shinian warmed up a glass of milk for Yun Shang and brought it over, teasing her jokingly, "Erya said you were friends with her, and that you took good care of her."

The expression on Yunshang's face froze. Looking at Gu Shinian, it took a long time to realize, "Erya said that? She must not be hysterical, how can I make friends with her!"

Not to mention that she and Erya have different views, it is impossible to be friends at all, even if she has been friends with Erya before,

Sooner or later there will be trouble.

What's more, this Erya also has other ideas about Gu Shinian, how blind is she to make friends with Erya?

Gu Shinian also felt that Erya's words were too ridiculous, even if she said that Yunshang was very kind to her because we were neighbors, it was more believable than when she said that Yunshang and her were friends.

No one knows Yun Shang better than Gu Shinian.

Yun Shang's temperament seems to be soft, she can get along with anyone, and can easily get along with others, but Gu Shinian knows better than anyone how defensive Yun Shang is.

After coming to this world for so many years, very few people can walk into Yunshang's heart and become her recognized friend.

In those few years in Hong Kong, although Lu Yunling and Xu Tian hang out with Yunshang every day, Gu Shinian clearly knows that Yunshang treats these two people as children and playmates, and doesn't really agree with them. These two people are her friends.

That is to say, after coming to the Yicheng military division, the lesbian named Wu Xiang fell into Yunshang's eyes. The two had similar temperaments and three views, so they became Yunshang's recognized friend.

As for the lesbian named Yao Ke, she seemed to go in and out with Yunshang every day, and treated Yunshang very warmly and thoughtfully, but Yunshang didn't treat her as close as Wu Xiang.

Yunshang has a beast-like intuition in feeling people's emotions. How could Yunshang make friends with a person like Erya who has a bad mind?

And I heard from Erya that she was bullied by He Aidang and Zhou Xiu's mother and daughter in her previous life, and her life was very hard.

Even if Yunshang came forward to help Erya a few times, it was because Yunshang was tortured by Widow Wang. Seeing Erya being abused by He Aidang, thinking of her situation when she first came to this world, she felt sympathetic to her, so she reached out to help Two ya one.

This doesn't mean that Yunshang regards Erya as a friend, and I don't know where Erya got the confidence to think that he and Yunshang are friends.

Yun Shang drank the hot milk in a few sips, went to close the door, dragged Gu Shinian into the space, then sat on the sofa with a straight face, looking at Gu Shinian without saying a word.

"A Chang..."

As soon as Gu Shinian opened his mouth, Yun Shang coolly interrupted him, "Gu Shinian, can you tell me why I am crazy now? Also, why did Erya say that I killed you? What did she explain?"

Yun Shang asked directly, and put on a posture of serious conversation, Gu Shinian knew that he couldn't fool this time.

He stared at Yunshang closely for a long time, finally heaved a long sigh, went over to hold Yunshang in his arms and spoke.

"A Chang, have you had any nightmares in recent years?"

Chapter 684 Confession

According to Erya's words, because Linyang is too far away from Yicheng, the Bai family moved back to the capital. The reason for the big explosion in Yicheng back then was not known by many people in the Linyang Military Region.

No matter who the other party is, as long as one dares to attack Yun Shang, one counts as one, and no one can escape! ,

Chapter 685 Knot

Yun Chang was so dizzy that she lay in the hospital for three days.

During this period, her consciousness was immersed in boundless blood, and she stood alone in the corner watching the big explosion repeatedly, helplessness, despair, heart-piercing pain, and boundless fear enveloped her whole body , how can not find a bright direction.

Gu Shinian stayed in the ward, not daring to touch Yunshang, who was terrified even in a coma, so he could only sit one meter away, thinking of the methods taught to him by the psychiatrist in his previous life, calling Yunshang's name over and over again , Talking to her, until the voice was hoarse to the point where she could only breathe out and did not dare to stop.

Guan Min led Wu Xiang, Yao Ke, and Wen Chengjie from the end of the corridor. Seeing the situation of the two of them through the glass on the door, he didn't dare to go in. He raised his hand and knocked on the door, motioning for Gu Shinian to come out and speak.

"Gu Lianchang, what did the doctor say, what's wrong with Yunshang? When will I wake up?" Wu Xiang asked Gu Shinian, frowning, as he stuffed the lunch box with millet porridge into Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian rubbed his unshaven chin, suppressed his voice, and answered irrelevantly, "A-Shang is just tired, and he will get over it after a few days of rest."

In fact, without a psychiatrist, Yunshang can only survive this level with her own will, and no one can help her.

Fortunately, even if Yunshang was in a coma, she still responded to external stimuli, and the situation was much better than Gu Shinian expected.

Looking at Yun Shang who had lost weight in just three days on the hospital bed and didn't know when she would wake up, Guan Min, who hadn't spoken since coming here, finally broke out, and kept beating Gu Shinian with a black face.

"Gu Lianchang, Yunshang is a member of our art troupe. You were fine when you took him away. Why did you go to the hospital in just a few hours! What's wrong with Yunshang!" What do you think of our art troupe? What did the little girl do! ?

Guan Min didn't say the last sentence, but Gu Shinian understood what Guan Min meant.

But he was not in the mood to argue with Guan Min at the moment, looked sideways at Yunshang in the ward, and said, "I told my family about Ashang's situation, Captain Lin got on the train yesterday, and he should be able to catch it tomorrow night Come here, if you have anything to say, wait for Captain Lin to come over and talk about it."

Knowing that Gu Shinian had notified Yunshang's family, Guan Min's tense heart relaxed a bit, and he no longer felt embarrassed about Gu Shinian. He asked the doctor about Yunshang's condition, but after asking no results, he finally returned to the hospital. He went back with a sigh.

Wu Xiang and Wen Chengjie, who stayed in the corridor, did not go in to disturb Yunshang, but just watched through the glass on the door for a long time, and when the training time was approaching, they left the hospital in a hurry.

Before Wen Chengjie left, he patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder, pointed to his stubble-covered chin, and his reddened eyes, and said, "Remember to take some time to sleep, don't wait for Yunshang to wake up, you can sleep on your own." Instead, he lay down."

Gu Shinian nodded at the other party, turned around and went back to the ward, put the lunch box aside, held the cup, and moistened Yun Shang's lips with a cotton swab little by little.

Yun Shang also knew that her current situation was not good, and her consciousness was wandering back and forth in the boundless blood, but she couldn't find an exit no matter what.

It wasn't until she heard Gu Shinian's voice in the dead silence that a ray of light appeared in front of her eyes, dispelling the ubiquitous bloody stickiness around her side like melting winter snow.

Seeing Yunshang's thin eyelids trembling slightly, Gu Shinian held his breath, retreated to a position where Yunshang felt safe, restrained all kinds of complicated and turbulent emotions in his heart, and called out to Yunshang again.

Yun Chang slowly opened her eyes, staring blankly at the yellowed roof for a long time, before finally falling on Gu Shinian who barely dared to breathe.

At this moment, Gu Shinian's image was definitely not good, his always neat and neat military uniform was wrinkled into dried plums, his complexion was ashen, his eyes were flushed, his chin was unshaven, and he looked haggard.

At this moment, he tightened his body and stood upright at the place farthest from Yunshang. Seeing Yunshang looking over, his fingertips holding the cup were trembling slightly.

"A Chang..." Gu Shinian put down his cup, tentatively approached Yun Shang,

"Are you hungry or not, I asked the master chef in the hospital to cook porridge for you..."

As Gu Shinian approached, Yun Chang's body tensed suddenly, she squeezed her bloodless lips tightly, clenched her small fist that was almost transparent in white, and could see the blue blood vessels, and looked at Gu Shi steadily. Years ago, there was still unconcealable panic in his eyes, and an imperceptible alienation.

Feeling the change in Yun Chang's mood, Gu Shinian felt as if someone had punched his chest hard, and for a moment he was so painful that he couldn't breathe at all.

But after the pain passed, Gu Shinian felt a wave of joy in his heart.

A Chang knew that she hated him and knew to blame him, which showed that she was fully conscious. The inner anger has a way to vent, which also shows that she no longer closes herself up.

Gu Shinian stood there in a daze, not daring to move, looking at Yun Shang with restrained and forbearing eyes, his heart full of contradictory emotions of both joy and sadness.

Yun Shang has survived this test, and will no longer be stimulated by this incident, and will no longer close himself up and dare not see people. He should be happy for Yun Shang.

But while Yunshang survived this hurdle, she still had a gap with him in her heart. He is no longer her trusted relative and lover, but the son of the murderer who lied to her for more than ten years and killed her family.

It is undeniable that even though that man had murderous intentions towards him at the beginning, the blood of that man is still flowing on his body. This kind of blood relationship will be a thorn between him and Yunshang, he can't erase it, and he can't speak confidently to make Yunshang forgive him.

The girl on the bed was so weak that she could barely hear her breathing, but to Gu Shinian at this moment, she was so powerful, so powerful that she could control his destiny.

Whether his future life will be heaven or hell is all in her mind.

There was a moment of silence in the ward, neither of them spoke, only breathing lightly and heavily.

I don't know how long it took, Gu Shinian moved his slightly stiff legs, tugged at the corners of his lips, and said tentatively, "A Chang, can I let my second brother hug you?"

Yun Chang's fingertips resting on the bedside trembled slightly, then immediately retracted, hiding her urge to raise her arms, and silently looked out the window.

The truth of the matter is so cruel, how did she embrace Gu Shinian through three lives?

Even Gu Shinian was also a victim, even though she knew that she shouldn't be angry with Gu Shinian, but the blood of her parents and relatives was shining in front of her eyes, and thinking that she had been cheated like a fool for more than ten years, she could no longer get close to him like before.

At least, she can't do that yet.

Chapter 686 Accountability

Lin Wenlan hurried to the hospital as soon as she got off the train. When she turned into the corridor, she immediately saw Gu Shinian standing at the door of the ward, looking inside through the glass on the door.

It could be seen that he hadn't rested for several days, his whole body was very haggard, his tall body was tense to the limit, as if he would fall down if he pushed casually.

Seeing such a bad image of Gu Shinian, Lin Wenlan couldn't express any amount of anger.

"Aunt Lin," seeing Lin Wenlan approaching, Gu Shinian pulled up the corners of his mouth and forced a dry smile, "A-Shang woke up for a while, go in and take a look."

Lin Wenlan didn't care to ask Gu Shinian about the cause and effect of Yun Shang's illness, so she nodded coldly, pushed the door past Gu Shinian and walked in.

Yun Chang was turning her head to the side, looking at the big tree with a crooked neck outside the window. It was March at this time, and the tree was full of new buds and leaves, and the window was full of tender green, which made people feel happy when they saw it.

Hearing the sound of the door opening of the ward, Yun Shang thought it was Gu Shinian who sent the little nurse in to bring things in again, and without looking back, she turned over silently, showing that she didn't want to pay attention to the other party's attitude.

Gu Shinian naturally saw this scene through the glass on the door, and his eyes dimmed again.

Ever since Yunshang woke up, he was never allowed to enter the ward again, and he didn't even touch the food he entrusted the nurse to bring in. His attitude was very decisive.

Lin Wenlan didn't realize that there was a gap between Yunshang and Gu Shinian, seeing Yunshang's snow-white and slender wrists on the quilt, her eyes immediately became wet.

Her little seven lost a lot of weight.

"Xiaoqi, mom is here." Lin Wenlan dropped her burden, strode over and hugged Yunshang, "What's wrong with you, you scared mom to death."

Yun Chang froze, turned her head in disbelief, and saw that the person who came was really Lin Wenlan, her eyes turned red immediately, and she hugged Lin Wenlan with her backhand, "...Mom, I want to go home."

Lin Wenlan froze for a moment, then quickly nodded and said, "Okay, I'll ask you for a leave later, let's go home and recuperate."

After returning to the capital, take Xiao Qi to the hospital for a good checkup, to see what is wrong with Xiao Qi's body, how could he be unconscious if he is fine?

Knowing that Lin Wenlan had misunderstood, Yun Shang shook her head buried in Lin Wenlan's arms, and said again, "Mom, I want to go home to be with you and my dad, I don't want to stay in Yicheng anymore."

Lin Wenlan recalled it now, frowned suddenly, and asked in a very cold tone, "Xiaoqi, tell mom, did Gu Shinian bully you?" Otherwise, how could you be willing to abandon Gu? Back then, ran back to the capital to accompany us?

"No." Yunshang took a deep breath, suppressing all kinds of complicated emotions in her heart, "Mom, I just miss home, miss my father, miss you, miss my dad, I just want to go home and spend a few days with you year."

Even a three-year-old child could not be fooled by this excuse, how could he fool Lin Wenlan.

Besides, Yunshang has been with Gu Shinian since she was a child, and has always regarded Gu Shinian as more important than the Bai family, but now she suddenly cried and shouted to go home, without even mentioning Gu Shinian.

Obviously, something went wrong between the two, and it was a big problem with a clean break.

Wanting to understand this, Lin Wenlan's pent-up anger broke out completely. Looking at Yun Shang's red eye circles, her face was gloomy and frightening.

"Xiaoqi, don't cry, you have a mother, and no one can bully you with your mother here."

Listening to Lin Wenlan's words of covering up without asking why, Yun Shang seemed to have returned to her previous life.

The same is true of her mother in the previous life. Every time she cried and felt wronged, her mother would always protect her and pamper her regardless of the reason.

And her father, who was so serious and serious in the news media, was willing to coax her to play and ride her as a horse when he got home.

Such good parents, once a happy family that could ooze honey, were ruined just like that.

Ruined in a game of derailment, ruined in the ambition of a mistress to get ahead.

What's even more hateful is that what happened to the Gu family actually ruined their Yun family.

Why!

Gu Shinian did raise her for several years,

He did give her an extremely warm home again, and she shouldn't hate him.

However, if there were no such things that the Gu family did, her parents and elder brother were still alive, and their Yun family was still there, so where would it be Gu Shinian's turn to support her? Where is it his turn to show favor to her?

Even if the world is changed now, even if she has parents who love her again, in Yunshang's heart, her surname will always be Yun, and she is a child of the Yun family.

Even if Gu Shinian was innocent, she couldn't hate him, but in front of the three lives of the Yun family, she couldn't love him anymore.

The only thing she can do now is stay away from him.

Lin Wenlan didn't know what happened between Yunshang and Gu Shinian, but seeing her crying so hard, she knew that she must have been greatly wronged.

It's just that before finding out what happened to Yun Chang, Lin Wenlan still suppressed his anger, and bit by bit the usual words from Yun Chang's mouth.

"Xiaoqi, why do you still feel uncomfortable? What did the doctor say, why did you pass out after a good time?"

Yun Chang shook her head, "I'm fine, but my head hurts a little, I'll be fine after a few days of rest." After speaking, she urged Lin Wenlan, "Mom, I want to be discharged from the hospital, and I want to go home as soon as possible."

Lin Wenlan sighed, smoothed Yunshang's messy sleeping hair, and asked tentatively, "Xiao Qi, think clearly, you will not be able to meet with Gu Shinian every other day after you return to the capital, are you willing?" ?"

The tears that Yun Chang had just stopped came out again, and she nodded with difficulty, "I... think it through, I want to go home."

Seeing Yun Shang's performance, Lin Wenlan was unclear about anything.

Her Xiao Qi was indeed bullied by this Gu.

Lin Wenlan coaxed Yunshang distressedly and angrily, finally waited for her to fall asleep, tiptoed out of the ward, raised her hand and slapped Gu Shinian who was guarding the door.

"Gu Shinian, what did you tell me when you came to ask for marriage! This is what you said that you won't let Xiao Qi be wronged, and you will treat Xiao Qi well for the rest of your life!?"

Faced with Lin Wenlan's questioning, Gu Shinian received Lin Wenlan's slap without hesitation, and apologized in a hoarse voice, "Aunt Lin, I'm sorry, it's my fault, I didn't take good care of A-Shang..."

At this moment, Lin Wenlan wanted to kill Gu Shinian, "Is it just that you didn't take good care of Xiao Qi!? Why was Xiao Qi hospitalized, and how much did you make Xiao Qi suffer?"

Gu Shinian didn't speak, he lowered his head and fell silent for a long time.

Seeing that Gu Shinian couldn't even utter a single word of defense, in Lin Wenlan's view, it was acquiescing. While he was angry, he couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

Gu Shinian was the child she had seen since she was a child, but she didn't expect her to miss him.

Chapter 687 The last conversation

Since Gu Shinian couldn't tell the truth, and Yun Shang vaguely didn't mention the reason for her illness, Lin Wenlan was angry and distressed, so she could only temporarily put aside her thoughts of settling accounts with Gu Shinian, and ran to the doctor to ask Yun Shang physical condition.

Knowing that Yunshang's body has recovered, there is nothing serious for the time being, and after a day or two of rest and she will be discharged from the hospital, Lin Wenlan can be regarded as relieved.

However, facing Lin Wenlan's idea of staying in bed with her, Yun Shang firmly opposed it.

After all, Lin Wenlan was in her late forties and almost fifty years old, and she had to catch the train for several days in a row with anxiety and worry. If she didn't take a good rest, her body would definitely not be able to carry it.

Besides, there is no guest house in the hospital where she can live comfortably, and her body is fine, so she doesn't need to accompany the bed at all, it is better for Lin Wenlan to go to the guest house to have a good rest.

Lin Wenlan couldn't hold back Yunshang, and finally found a guest house near the hospital to live in.

It was late at night, and the empty corridor was completely quiet.

When the lights in the ward were turned off, Gu Shinian moved his stiff body, took a few steps back and leaned against the wall, took out a cigarette from his pocket and lit it, and stared at the dark glass on the door without blinking. .

Thinking of Lin Wenlan's words that the Bai family would transfer Yunshang back to the capital, Gu Shinian's heart felt as if it had been gouged out, and the pain was so painful that he couldn't feel it.

He clenched his jaw, looked at the door of Yunshang's ward with forbearance and stubbornness, the cigarette in his hand came to an end little by little, and he seemed to feel no pain, letting the cigarette between his fingers Little by little.

I don't know how long it took, but Gu Shinian finally seemed unable to hold on anymore, slid on the ground against the wall, covered his face with his hands, his shoulders trembled violently, tears fell drop by drop down the ground between his fingers.

The door of the ward opened a gap at some point, Yun Chang stood in the dark place inside the door, looking at Gu Shinian who was crying silently in the corridor, tears also rolled down her cheeks and fell to the ground.

This is the relative and lover she once thought would depend on each other for two lifetimes...

Yun Chang clutched her painful chest, opened her mouth several times, and finally called Gu Shinian, "Second Brother..."

Gu Shinian's body froze suddenly, thinking he was hallucinating.

It wasn't until Yunshang shook his voice and called Gu Shinian again that he suddenly put down his hands and looked up at Yunshang, his eyes were astonishingly wide, and they were full of anxious and hopeful light.

"A Chang, it's so late, why haven't you rested yet..."

After guarding Yunshang in the hospital for four days without sleep, plus four days of psychological torture, Gu Shinian's whole body was stretched to the limit, so that when he stood up from the ground, he had to stretch out his hands to support the wall.

Even so, the first words he said when he got up were still concerned about Yunshang.

Yun Shang felt even more uncomfortable when she heard it. She lowered her head, took a deep breath, turned around and opened the door of the ward, motioning for Gu Shinian to come in and talk.

"I have something to ask you."

".....it is good."

The light in Gu Shinian's eyes dimmed, and he responded in a low voice.

He already had a premonition of what Yun Shang was going to ask, and he also had a premonition that after this questioning, he would never have the opportunity to talk face to face with Yun Shang so closely.

His A Chang...wouldn't want him anymore.

After realizing this, Gu Shinian thoughtfully opened the door of the ward, turned on the light, pulled up a chair and sat down three meters away from Yunshang.

Yun Shang understood what Gu Shinian meant by doing this.

Open the door, turn on the lights, and sit that far away talking to her.

Gu Shinian knew that it was impossible for her to be with him anymore, and for the sake of her reputation, he had already deliberately distanced himself from her in action.

After realizing this, Yun Chang's heart ached, and tears almost fell out again.

She has never realized so clearly that when the cruel past was revealed, not only did Gu Shinian lose her, but she also lost Gu Shinian forever.

Seeing Yun Shang sitting on the hospital bed and not talking, Gu Shinian got up and poured a cup of hot water on the bedside,

Sitting back on the chair again, he spoke in a dull voice.

"Ah Chang, what do you want to know?"

Yun Shang took a deep breath, held the cup, took a sip of hot water, swallowed it slowly, looked up at Gu Shinian, "...I want to know what happened to that woman."

"Dead." Gu Shinian sat upright, with his hands on his knees, as straight as a primary school student answering a question, "The family member died on the day they were buried."

A previously forgotten image suddenly flashed in Yunshang's mind. She was slightly autistic at the time. Gu Shinian took her to see a psychiatrist. An elderly couple suddenly rushed over and punched and kicked Gu Shinian. Gu Shinian is the murderer, scolding Gu Shinian for killing his daughter and grandson...

She remembered that when Gu Shinian held her in his arms and quickly sent her to the car, she had no memory of what happened after that.

Thinking of this, Yun Shang suddenly realized one thing, that woman's death had something to do with Gu Shinian.

She looked at Gu Shinian in a daze, and asked after a moment of silence, "How did that woman die?"

Gu Shinian clenched his hands on his knees, lowered his eyes, and answered after a long time, "...I beat her up, and after she was sent to the hospital, she bled heavily and died on the operating table."

After a while, Gu Shinian added, "She was pregnant at the time, but none of us knew about her pregnancy."

Yun Shang nodded, not feeling at all that Gu Shinian did something wrong, nor did she feel that it was a pity that the woman was beaten and had a miscarriage.

That was a murderer. She deliberately murdered Aunt Gu and the two elder brothers of the Gu family, and ended up killing the Yun family by accident.

A total of five lives!

For such a vicious woman, it would be too cheap for her to die on the operating table.

As for the child who died in vain in her womb, it was all the result of her own sins.

If it wasn't for her wanting to be in charge and planning the bombing, why would Gu Shinian find someone to beat her up?

"Where is that person?" At the same time as she asked this, Yunshang unconsciously squeezed her teacup hand tightly. She ignored Shi Nian's embarrassing face and asked stubbornly, "What happened to that person, did he, did he?" die?"

Gu Shinian's face turned pale in an instant, and he opened his mouth a few times, but he couldn't make a sound, until Yun Chang raised his head impatiently, and he spoke hoarsely.

"He... the police have investigated it, the matter was planned by that woman, and he didn't know..."

Seeing that Yun Chang's eyes changed suddenly, and the hand holding the cup couldn't help shaking, Gu Shinian subconsciously wanted to hug her, but when he got up, he remembered that he had nothing to do with Yun Chang now, and sat stiffly again. down.

"A-Shang, don't be angry, he's not going to end." Facing Shang Yunshang's cold and hateful eyes, Gu Shinian paused, and then continued, "Grandpa kicked him out of the Gu family. After we settled down in Nancheng, I arranged for someone... to abolish him."

Chapter 688 Suffering

"Is it the condition you made with Grandpa Gu?" Yunshang put down the teacup, looked straight at Gu Shinian, and continued to ask, "In order to keep that person, Grandpa Gu had to agree to your condition and drive that person out of the Gu family. "

Gu Shinian did not expect that Yunshang would be so transparent, and he could deduce the agreement he reached with the old man back then only through the outcome of the incident.

After a moment of silence, he nodded slowly, "At that time, he really didn't know that woman would do anything, and he only became suspicious after the incident. However, he did wipe away the grievances left by that woman..."

Yun Shang knew it well, and also understood Gu Shinian's promise to Grandpa Gu that he would not pursue the responsibility of the old scumbag.

It was Xiao San who did the killing, and the old scumbag was clean, at most it was a cover-up crime, even if he really went to court, he would not be sentenced for a few years.

Under the conditions of the Gu family's family being ruined, Grandpa Gu naturally couldn't just watch another prisoner appear in the family and discredit the disgraceful lintel of the Gu family.

At the same time, it is impossible for Grandpa Gu to let Second Brother Gu have a father who is in prison and cut off his future career.

Based on these two points, Grandpa Gu negotiated terms with Gu Shinian and saved the cover-up criminal.

As for Gu Shinian's conditions for agreeing to Grandpa Gu, on the one hand, he was not yet eighteen years old at the time, a student who had just graduated from high school, and had not yet had access to the resources and connections of the Gu family, so he wanted to hire the top psychiatrist to help her see a doctor , is bound to turn to Grandpa Gu for help.

On the one hand, it is because his surname is Gu, and he will live under the surname of Gu in the future, and has the responsibility and obligation to protect the only remaining face of the Gu family and Mr. Gu.

Of course, the most important point is that Gu Shinian felt that the old scumbag should bear the main responsibility for the tragedy back then.

If it wasn't for his cheating in marriage and conniving at that woman's ambition, she wouldn't have dared to kill the two sons of the legitimate Mrs. Gu's family.

If that woman is the murderer, then the old scumbag is the main culprit who instigated the murderer!

After such a big incident happened, the final result was that the murderer died on the operating table without a verdict, but the biggest culprit was clean, only committing a harmless cover-up crime.

The five closest people, five lives!

An old scumbag who spends a few years in prison alone counts as atonement, how does Gu Shinian accept this?

Gu Shinian agreed to Grandpa Gu's conditions, while using the Gu family's connections and power to find a doctor to treat her, and at the same time using the Gu family's name to gather the property under the mother's name as quickly as possible.

After he had a certain amount of ability, he arranged for someone to depose the old scumbag. After he left the protection of the Gu family, he was completely degraded and his life was worse than that of a prison prisoner. Let him make atonement for the five lives of the Gu family and the Yun family.

Probably because his father in his previous life was so scumbag that he broke all fantasies and admiration for the role of father in Gu Shinian's heart, so when he met the scumbag father in this life, he cleaned up so neatly and without leaving any room .

After trying to understand this, the resentment and anger that Yun Shang had nowhere to vent dissipated a lot, and she was finally able to calm down and consider the issue from Gu Shinian's standpoint.

Encountering such a thing, the second brother Gu must have been in great pain at that time, right?

No, he didn't even have time for pain!

He had to deal with his mother's brother and the Yun family's funeral, and he also had to take care of her who was stimulated to autistic tendencies.

At the same time, he had to endure the torment in his heart, had to agree to the conditions proposed by Grandpa Gu, and watched helplessly that the culprit who killed several of his relatives was at large.

Even if the culprit is his biological father.

A boy who is not yet eighteen years old, how did he struggle and survive that difficult time?

With what kind of apprehension and complicated mood did he take her to leave Gu's house and leave Nancheng?

Thinking of the many hardships that Gu Shinian suffered in those two years, Yun Chang unconsciously clenched her fists, feeling so stuffy that she could hardly breathe.

She lowered her head and waited for a while before asking in a low voice, "...Why didn't you abandon me back then."

Gu Shinian froze for a moment,

After thinking for a while, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and he gave Yun Shang an answer.

"A-Shang, at that time I only thought that as long as you were still here, I would still have a family." Without you, I wouldn't even know why I was alive.

Yun Shang didn't expect Gu Shinian to give such an answer. Various emotions in her heart were constantly surging, complicated and difficult to distinguish. After a long silence, she forcibly changed the subject and asked about the cultural performance in a few days.

"It is very likely that enemy agents sabotaged things on the day of the show. Have you reported it to the organization?"

"No." Gu Shinian sighed, and continued, "We are not sure about this matter, and it is difficult to report it for the time being. Don't worry, I will arrange people from the Tiger Company to investigate one by one at the performance site, and nothing will happen. ."

"I will be discharged from the hospital tomorrow, and I will go to the scene to help when the time comes. I have mental strength, so it is more convenient than you to check."

Gu Shinian's eyes fell on Yun Chang's thin face, and he frowned in disapproval, "You haven't had a good rest these days, and you'll be discharged from the hospital in a few days. People from Tiger Company came forward to investigate at the performance site. Something will happen."

Gu Shinian's words are not nonsense, Yunshang seems to have fallen asleep on the bed for a few days, but during these few days, her spirit has been in a tense state, even lying on the bed, her head would break out in cold sweat from time to time , the body trembled.

When she woke up, she broke with Gu Shinian because of what happened back then, and her emotions almost collapsed. She hasn't closed her eyes since she woke up, so Gu Shinian naturally disagreed with her being discharged from the hospital.

Yun Shang had made up her mind, and didn't want to entangle Gu Shinian on this issue, so she looked up at him and said in a low voice, "I'm sleepy."

Gu Shinian's face froze for a moment, bitterness appeared in his eyes, he got up and put the chair by the wall, gave Yun Shang a few words, turned and walked outside.

Yun Shang looked at Gu Shinian's back, and the moment he left the house, he said again, "Go back to the company tomorrow, my mother will stay and take care of me for a while, and return to the capital after the cultural performance is over."

Gu Shinian paused, turned his head, and stared fixedly at Yunshang for a while, and the moment she lowered her head, she replied in a low voice, "Okay."

The sky is just getting bright, and the crisp sound of birdsong sounds outside the window, waking people up to start another busy day.

Gu Shinian went to two restaurants to buy Yunshang's favorite breakfast, hurried back to the hospital, and met Lin Wenlan who was also carrying breakfast at the entrance of the corridor.

Seeing the lean meat porridge in Lin Wenlan's hand, Gu Shinian's expression changed, and he quickly stopped her, "Aunt Lin! Ah Chang can't eat meat now!"

No, to be precise, Yun Chang is no longer meaty.

Chapter 689 investigation

The genius remembers the address of this site in a second: [February Tian Novels Network] The fastest update! No ads!

No, to be precise, Yun Chang is no longer meaty.

Any meat, as long as Yun Chang takes a look at it, his eyes will instantly become bloodshot, and he can even vomit upside down.

After hearing Gu Shinian's explanation, Lin Wenlan was stunned.

What! ?

Xiao Qi vomited upside down whenever he saw meat?

This, this... What did Gu Shinian, a bastard, do to her little Qi!

Lin Wenlan was trembling with anger, and looked around in a circle, trying to find a tool that could kill Gu Shinian immediately.

brute! Stinking rogue!

Xiaoqi has not yet passed her seventeenth birthday, and she is still a child! This bastard dared to touch Xiao Qi and made Xiao Qi pregnant with a child!

No wonder Xiao Qi was crying so sad!

No wonder Xiaoqi broke with this bastard decisively!

This dog thing, really damn it!

Gu Shinian stared blankly at Lin Wenlan, wondering why he was so angry because he said something wrong.

"Aunt Lin, you..."

Lin Wenlan's eyes were red with anger, and as soon as Gu Shinian opened his mouth, he couldn't help but smashed the lunch box in his hand. Before Gu Shinian could react, he grabbed him by the collar and dragged him out of the hospital.

"Gu Shinian, Xiaoqi is young and ignorant, so are you ignorant too!"

"You have been calm and thoughtful since you were a child. Your Uncle Bai and I handed over Xiao Qi to you. Is this how you repay me and your Uncle Bai?"

"How old is Xiao Qi! How dare you...you don't want to die! If people know Xiao Qi's life will be ruined..."

Lin Wenlan was so angry that his hands were trembling, Gu Shinian listened for a long time before he realized, "Mi Mu?"

"Aunt Lin, Aunt Lin, it's not what you think. A-shang is really sick. She, she is... She saw blood and was stimulated. She can't see the meat anymore."

Lin Wenlan was stunned, and before she could put her heart back into her stomach, it suddenly pulled into a ball again.

"What's the matter? What happened to you, where did Xiao Qi see blood!"

Yunshang is going back to the capital soon, she can't see that the Bai family can't hide the nasty things, some things should be selectively revealed to Lin Wenlan, so that the family members don't know and violate Yunshang's taboo.

"Aunt Lin, it was because I didn't think carefully that something bad happened to A-Shang." Gu Shinian paused, then continued without guilt, "As for what happened, there are disciplines in the organization. , A-Shang and I can't say..."

Lin Wenlan was stunned, thinking of the other identities of the two, it was hard to ask any further.

Don't look at Yunshang and Gu Shinian as small literary soldiers and small company commanders of the Yicheng Military Division on the surface, in fact, they still get double salaries now.

Yun Chang's appearance can only be explained as going out to perform a task and encountering something.

Looking at Gu Shinian's clothes that were ruined by a bowl of porridge, Lin Wenlan felt guilty and embarrassed, but at the same time felt very distressed.

After all, this is the child she watched grow up, and it is no worse than her two biological sons. Now that the child has suffered such a big grievance for no reason, how can she not feel distressed.

After getting along for many years, how could Gu Shinian not know Lin Wenlan's temperament.

Anyway, no matter what it is, as long as Yunshang and Bai Qing are involved, Lin Wenlan has always been unable to calm down.

But the starting point of the other party is also out of love for Yun Shang, and he is a close elder, so Gu Shinian will naturally not be offended.

At this moment, Gu Shinian's image is really not good, and since Yunshang doesn't want to see him these two days, Gu Shinian is also not good.

Passing some lunch boxes in his hand to Lin Wenlan, he hurriedly jumped into the car and rushed out of the hospital on the pretext that it was almost time for training.

Holding the lunch box in her hands, Lin Wenlan watched the jeep crookedly leaving the hospital and galloping away. She let out a long sigh, turned around and walked to Yunshang's ward.

She was not blind, so she could naturally see the tangled and painful expressions in the eyes of her daughter and Gu Shinian.

There is really a big problem between these two children.

Yun Chang has already got up at this moment, her thin back is sunken in the quilt, under the golden morning light from the window, it seems that she can disappear at any time.

Lin Wenlan felt palpitations at the door, quickly pushed the door open, put the lunch box on the bedside table, and said in a gentle tone, "Xiao Qi, I came from the company early in the morning and bought you egg custard and green onion pancakes And fried dough sticks, it's still hot, hurry up and have breakfast."

Yun Chang turned her head, stared at the lunch box by the bed for a long time, finally turned around, opened the lunch box and started to eat slowly.

"Mom, this egg custard is filled with sesame oil, it is very fragrant, you should try it too."

"And this scallion pancake. The shallots are not the ones we ate in Linyang. They are very delicious. You can also eat a piece..."

Lin Wenlan wanted Yun Chang to say a few more words. Seeing her trying to tease herself with the corners of her mouth, she felt both distressed and sad. She quickly lowered her head to hide the wetness in her eyes, took the scallion pancake that Yun Shang handed over, took a bite, and ate again and again. He echoed, "Well, yes, it's really delicious. Let Aunt Wu learn to bake this kind of cake when I go back."

Yun Chang resisted the urge to vomit, tried hard to swallow the custard in her mouth, and gave Lin Wenlan a smile, "Mom, after dinner, you can go and discharge me from the hospital. There will be a performance in the area next week. I want to wait until the show is over before returning to the capital."

"Okay, I'll ask the doctor later, if the doctor agrees, I'll go through the discharge procedures for you."

Yun Chang knew that she had a psychological problem, not a physical problem, and she was not worried at all that the doctor would not let her go from the hospital.

Sure enough, as soon as Lin Wenlan asked to be discharged from the hospital in the past, the doctor agreed, and it took only fifteen minutes to complete the discharge procedures.

Lin Wenlan was quite dissatisfied.

Xiao Qi became so skinny in just a few days, why did these doctors insist that Xiao Qi was in good health, but that he was lacking in nutrition, and he could make up for it by eating something good at home.

Isn't this fooling a three-year-old child!

When did her Xiaoqi lack food and clothing? How could it be malnutrition?

These quack doctors are all for nothing!

After returning to the capital, he had to find an old doctor to take Xiao Qi's pulse.

On the day of the performance, Yun Shang obediently climbed into the truck after lunch, and followed everyone in the troupe to prepare for the performance.

When the car arrived at the meeting place, there were already two rows of soldiers neatly lined up outside, standing on both sides of the aisle in high spirits. At the end of the passage, several police officers were checking the invitation letters one by one and letting people into the venue one by one.

Yun Chang saw that Gu Shinian was also at the scene from a distance, walked to the front of the truck, greeted Guan Min and Lin Wenlan who were talking, and walked quickly towards Gu Shinian.

"Second brother, let me help you."

Yun Shang called Gu Shinian, ignored the other's ugly face, followed behind him, released much weaker mental power, and swept across the auditorium one by one.

Chapter 690 Arrest

After checking the auditorium, everything was normal, Yun Shang followed Gu Shinian to the entrance, hid at the back, and checked the audience one by one.

Seeing that it was almost time for the performance, more than half of the audience was seated at the scene, Yun Shang and Gu Shinian still did not find any clues.

Just when the two suspected that their guess was wrong, and that the big explosion that Erya said did not happen today, or at the scene of a cultural performance, Yun Shang's mental power swept over two suspicious characters.

The other party came behind several district leaders. Judging by the way they were dressed and how they behaved, one of them should be the inconspicuous little secretary of the secretariat, and the other was talking to the staff who arranged the entrance. Like a small officer in the Propaganda Department.

When it was found that both of them had something on them, Yun Shang's heart skipped a beat.

If the big explosion that Er Ya mentioned was caused by these two people, it is conceivable that all the leaders present at the scene today are in danger, including Gu Shinian.

You know, these secretaries sit next to the leader or in the row behind after entering the arena. Who can escape the big bang at such a close distance?

Erya said that she was frightened by the explosion, and Yunshang suspected that she was not frightened by the big explosion, but that she saw the moment Gu Shinian was injured by the explosion with her own eyes, and remembered the scene of her parents and elder brother having an accident in her previous life.

Under the impact of the two cruelest scenes at the same time, watching the same miserable end for four of his closest relatives, he couldn't bear the stimulation, and directly suffered mental problems.

Yun Chang wiped off the cold sweat that appeared on her forehead at an unknown time, and saw that Gu Shinian was talking to Kong Changzheng in a low voice. After Kong Changzheng left, Yun Chang went over and tore off the corner of his clothes, and said in a low voice:

"Second brother, the one with the glasses, and the crew cut guy behind, they have something on them."

"Well, I see, I just asked Lao Kong to arrest people." Gu Shinian responded, looked back at Yun Shang's slightly pale face, and frowned, "Does your head hurt again? Didn't I tell you to rest, is it my fault here?"

Yun Shang shook her head stubbornly, "It's not a trivial matter, if something slips through the net, it will be troublesome, I don't worry if I don't check it myself."

When the soldiers check again, they can at most visually see if there is anything wrong with the other party, and they can't search one by one. No matter how bright a soldier is, he can't guarantee that he has not misread.

Yunshang is different. With spiritual power to cheat, the audience entering the arena is like going through the security gate in the later generations. After a check, no one can bring in private goods.

There is such a big bug in walking, which of the fighters present can compare?

Seeing that while Gu Shinian was staring at the entrance, she turned her head to observe her face from time to time, Yun Shang quietly stepped back a few steps, hiding herself behind the crowd.

Kong Changzheng had just taken the two enemy agents away with private goods quietly. When he came back, he patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder excitedly, and said in a low voice, "That's right! Both grandsons are tied up. something!"

There was no joy in Gu Shinian's brows, and he turned around and asked, "Is everything under control?"

"The warehouse is tied up, Laoqian and the others are guarding behind, they can't escape!"

Seeing Gu Shinian nodding his head and turning his gaze to the entrance again, Kong Changzheng scratched his head and asked curiously, "Hey, tell me, how did you find out?"

Could it be that this guy really has clairvoyant eyes, so he doesn't need to search by hand, and he can tell if there are any private goods with just a glance?

"I smell it." Gu Shinian's eyes darkened, and he continued, "Those two people smell like gunpowder."

Kong Changzheng was dumbfounded, and it took a long time before he complained, "...you have a dog's nose! Why didn't I smell anything?"
