Chapter 691 Farewell

"Hey, old Gu, tell me, how did you smell it?" Old Kong was really interested in Gu Shinian's sensitive nose, and he almost jumped up in a hurry.

The aura on Gu Shinian's body became darker and darker, his eyes were obscured, he didn't answer Kong Changzheng's question, turned around and walked towards Yunshang.

He was not born with a keen sense of smell. The reason why he could smell the faint smell of gunpowder was because he had watched his relatives die in a big explosion.

In the following ten years, every time he dreamed back at midnight, he was always struggling in the hell filled with the smell of blood and gunpowder, and he could naturally smell the tingling smell engraved in his soul.

"A-shang, it's almost time for people to arrive. You go to the front to accompany Aunt Lin." After he paused, he continued, "I'll send him back to the military region. You and Aunt Lin will wait for me here. Aunt Lin has a meal."

Yun Chang rubbed her sore temple, looked at the almost full audience in the auditorium, confirmed that there would be no third enemy agent, and nodded in agreement.

The performance ended smoothly. Except for a few leaders, almost no one in the audience knew that the scene was almost attacked by enemy agents.

Yun Shang leaned on Lin Wenlan, half-closed her eyes, watching the smiling audience come out in twos and threes, a ray of light flashed through her dull heart, and she finally managed to steal a moment of relaxation and joy.

When Gu Shinian rushed over, he immediately saw the mother and daughter cuddling together by the side of the road.

Lin Wenlan tilted her head, looked at the top of Yunshang's head with a gentle expression, and gently smoothed the hair on Yunshang's cheeks with her hands, while Yunshang was lazily leaning on Lin Wenlan's shoulder, her eyes were slightly closed, her expression was peaceful and peaceful, beautiful It's like a painting.

Gu Shinian couldn't help but stare in awe, and slowly lowered his raised foot, not daring to disturb the two of them for a long time. In the end, it was Lin Wenlan who heard the sound of the brakes, and then woke up Yun Shang, and the group went straight to the hotel.

Yun Chang rested for a while, and her headache improved a lot. After arriving at the hotel, while Lin Wenlan was washing her hands, she whispered about the enemy agent.

"Can the police agree to take people back to the military region for interrogation?"

"People are caught by fierce tigers, and the targets they want to attack include several heads of the military sub-district. The public security has no control over the affairs of the military."

No matter how many reasons the police have, they can't take away the credit of Tiger Company.

Yun Chang nodded, lowered her head and stopped talking, the atmosphere was quiet and awkward.

Gu Shinian seemed unaffected, poured a glass of water for Yunshang and handed it over, fixed his eyes on her slightly pale face, and continued, "A-shang, Aunt Lin said when you will return to the capital ?"

"My mother asked for sick leave for me and the regiment, and I will go back with my mother when things are packed. If the transfer procedures are changed, it should be May."

Seeing Lin Wenlan approaching from the opposite side, Yun Chang spoke faster, "Didn't Erya say that the college entrance examination will be resumed in the second half of the year? After I go back, I want to see if I can change jobs and slowly prepare for the college entrance examination."

Gu Shinian frowned, disapproving of the authenticity, "You can only believe five points in Erya's words, and the college entrance examination may not be reliable. You should transfer the procedures back first, and see the situation in a few months."

"I know Erya's words are unreliable." Yun Shang showed a faint smile, "Even if there is no college entrance examination, I still want to change jobs. If I stay in the art troupe, I won't be able to go home every day to accompany my parents."

Gu Shinian paused for a moment while holding the teacup, and fell silent for the first time.

After Lin Wenlan came over, the corners of Yunshang's mouth curved a little, poured Lin Wenlan a cup of hot water, and introduced the restaurant's signature dishes in detail.

"...The stir-fried three silks here are delicious, the hot and sour soup is also delicious, and the tofu soup is very fresh."

Lin Wenlan nodded while watching the faces of the two of them. Seeing that the two were not in high spirits, and there was no trace of joy in their eyes, she couldn't help sighing secretly, and temporarily put aside the idea of matching the two.

Forget it, it's not urgent, Xiao Qi is not feeling well right now, so let's go back to the capital for a while.

Yun Chang can't get meaty now, so a few people ordered a few vegetarian dishes,

Fortunately, the master chef of the restaurant is good at cooking, even if it is a vegetarian dish, it is very tasty.

Lin Wenlan is now trying her best to make Yunshang eat more food, and if she thinks it tastes good, she will put it in Yunshang's bowl.

And Yunshang couldn't bear to brush off Lin Wenlan's kindness, even the simplest vegetarian dishes could smell bloody, so she forced herself to swallow it.

In the end, it was Gu Shinian who saw that the circles of Yun Shang's eyes were red, and couldn't bear to let her suffer, so he stopped Lin Wenlan and took away Yun Shang's leftovers to eat.

After Gu Shinian applied for a small bungalow, the clothes that Yunshang put on the bottom of the dormitory cabinets were moved over one after another. There were only one or two changes of clothes left by the art troupe, and some small items for daily use. It was packed in an hour.

Wu Xiang sat on the bed, looked at the packed luggage on the bare bed opposite, and kept wiping away his tears.

Although Ye Li's performance was not as exaggerated as Wu Xiang's, but his expression was equally unsightly.

She is not a fool. At the beginning, Guan Jincheng and Wang Zhenhua teamed up to bully her. She only told Yunshang and Wu Xiang about it. As a result, within a week, the two people who bullied her broke into a scandal and were arrested. Sentenced away.

How can there be such a coincidence in this world.

Even if it was a coincidence, if something bad happened to those two people, how could such a ridiculous scandal break out?

Reminiscent of the methods Guan Jincheng and Wang Zhenhua used to plot her, it was obvious that someone used the same method to retaliate against them.

Only the three of them know about this matter, she has no ability or means to retaliate back, Wu Xiang is calm, like a little adult, can't think of such evil ideas, the rest is only weird and unwilling Yun Shang is at a disadvantage.

And Yunshang also has Gu Shinian who is obedient to her. With Gu Shinian's ability and means, isn't it easy to plan and control Jincheng and Wang Zhenhua?

Although Yunshang never mentioned that matter, she knew in her heart that it was Yunshang who secretly sought justice for her back then.

Thinking of Yun Shang's departure for several months, Ye Li didn't say anything, but felt equally sad in his heart.

Yun Shang knew that the two were reluctant to part with each other, but she was in no mood to make them happy, so she divided the things they didn't need between them, and asked Wu Xiang to leave two boxes of face cream for Yao Ke, and walked out with her luggage.

Wu Xiang guessed that Yunshang would not come back again, wiped away tears and chased him out, and solemnly assured Yunshang, "Yunshang, don't worry, I will practice hard and strive to enter the general administration. We can be together again."

Chapter 692 Distressed

Yun Chang froze for a moment, then smiled gently, "Xiang Xiang, you know everything?"

"Well, I guessed it." Wu Xiang nodded, twitching his red nose, "You are so sick and scary, Captain Lin and Commander Bai must not worry about you being here alone... Yunshang, take care of your illness when you go back, come back when you have time, and remember to write to me."

Wu Xiang has a clear mind, and it's normal to guess this. Yun Shang generously admitted it, hugged Wu Xiang, and left her home phone number.

Lin Wenlan is also packing Yunshang's things at the bungalow right now. Except for some heavy winter clothes, everything else is neatly packed into the big suitcase.

Qiuqiu and Maoqiu can also feel that the atmosphere at home is not good recently, and Yunshang hasn't come here for a while, the two cats lie on the chair honestly every day, and they don't make any noise at all. How cute.

Now I saw Lin Wenlan packed up Yunshang's things, realized that Yunshang was going to move again, needless to say, followed Lin Wenlan with a good step and meowed, for fear that Lin Wenlan would take Yunshang's things away, and dropped them both again.

Fortunately, Lin Wenlan remembered the two big babies like Yunshang. After Gu Shinian put the big suitcase into the car, Lin Wenlan also carried the two cats into the car.

The jeep got off the bumpy mountain road, quickly entered the city, picked up Yunshang, and galloped all the way to the train station.

Lin Wenlan booked a sleeper ticket in advance, Gu Shinian put the luggage in the car and put it away, and made the bed for Yunshang, and finally looked at the window leaning against the window, holding the ball in his arms, staring blankly at it. Looking at Yun Chang outside the window, a heart seems to have fallen into icy water, tingling with cold numbness.

"At that time, I will drive in a while. You stay here with Xiao Qi, and I'll get a pot of hot water."

Lin Wenlan raised the thermos in his hand, looked at Yunshang worriedly, sighed secretly, turned around and closed the door of the box to give the two of them room to talk.

Gu Shinian naturally knew what Lin Wenlan meant, and threw the ball in Yunshang's arms to the opposite bed, and sat beside her with a gentle and tolerant smile under Yunshang's calm eyes.

"A-Shang, I told Aunt Lin that Aunt Cheng will take you to see a Chinese medicine doctor after I go back."

Yun Shang avoided Gu Shinian's gaze, and said calmly, "Second brother, you know that what I need is a psychologist, not a Chinese medicine doctor. There is no need to bother my aunt and make my family worry."

"Be obedient, if you don't eat or see a doctor, your family will be more worried about you." Gu Shinian raised his hand and rubbed Yunshang's head, and said with a gentle but firm attitude, "I'll also ask Uncle Jin to bring An Shu If so, ask him to help find a doctor in Hong Kong City, if there is any news, I will contact Uncle Bai."

Yun Chang was silent for a long time, and finally nodded slightly, "...Okay, thank you, second brother."

Gu Shinian didn't expect Yunshang to be so polite to him, the expression on his face stiffened for a moment, he turned his head and looked at Yunshang's almost transparent side face, as if he couldn't believe it, even the expression on his face was somewhat sluggish.

Yun Chang pursed her lips, raised her head, looked bravely into Gu Shinian's eyes, and said politely, "Second brother, you have a lot of missions, so be careful when you go out on missions and pay attention to safety."

"... I remember, thank you, A-Shang." Gu Shinian sighed for a long time before replying, and hugged Yunshang without any ambiguity, "A-Shang, you have to be good, eat more, sleep more , the second brother will go back to the capital to see you when he is free."

It has to be said that Gu Shinian's deliberate relaxation at this moment made Yunshang much more comfortable, her emotions were no longer so tense, and she would not feel a faint smell of blood in the air as soon as she saw Gu Shinian.

The melancholy between Yunshang's brows faded a little, she raised her wrist to check the time, and silently urged Gu Shinian to get out of the car.

Gu Shinian sighed secretly, stuffed Qiuqiu, who was snoring on the bed, into Yunshang's hands, got up and said goodbye to Yunshang, "Ashang, remember to listen to Aunt Lin on the way, and call your second brother when you get home. "

Seeing Yun Shang nodding, Gu Shinian waited at the door of the box until Lin Wenlan came back before getting off the train.

Then he stood on the platform and watched the train slowly leave the station.

.....

Ever since Yunshang arrived home, Mr. Bai and Bai Yancheng have been so worried that their hair has grown a few gray hairs.

Who can tell them why their lively and lovely Xiaoqi even changed his temperament after being ill?

Xiao Qi was so eccentric in the past, her small eyebrows were flying, her temperament was lively and agile, and her whole person was energetic like a new flower bud on a branch in early spring, blooming all the vitality accumulated in the winter, festive and lively, It makes people happy just looking at it.

The current Xiaoqi is like a different person. The girl who is only eighteen years old has the stagnation that middle-aged and elderly people would have on her body. The most thing she does every day is to sit there in a daze, and her temper suddenly becomes quiet. scary.

This is the most beloved and funniest pistachio in their family. This dull temperament is simply worse than that of the oldest old man in the family.

Especially seeing that Yunshang has become so skinny that she can't even touch meat. Even if she eats vegetarian food, her eye circles will turn red if she eats too much. The old man and Bai Yancheng are rough men who have been father and son for decades Almost wiped tears face to face.

Lin Wenlan lightly carried the bowl upstairs, and after a few minutes, sighed and returned the same way.

"How is it, Xiao Qi has eaten yet?" The old man stood up from the sofa, stretched his neck and looked at the bowl in Lin Wenlan's hand.

"No." Lin Wenlan shook her head, put the bowl on the tea table, and sat down next to Bai Yancheng, "I looked at Xiaoqi a little dazed, so I didn't dare to go in, let the child sleep first and then talk."

"What? Didn't sleep last night?"

After the old man asked, he felt so distressed that he wanted to cry.

His good granddaughter really suffered a great crime. I can't eat, and I have nightmares every night and can't sleep. I keep my eyes open all night until dawn. If this continues, how can my body bear it.

Bai Yancheng was also very distressed, and once again beat Gu Shinian a hundred times in his heart, and turned around to urge Lin Wenlan, "Call sister-in-law again and ask if Mr. Yu is back."

Lin Wenlan was about to nod, when Bai Yancheng rubbed his face, pulled the phone and dialed out, "Forget it, I'll call, if Mr. Yu doesn't come back, I will take Xiao Qi to find Mr. Yu, Xiao Qi can't delay any longer It's..."

The old man hurriedly nodded in agreement, "Yes! Let everyone remind the old man, and say that if he doesn't come back, he won't be able to see me for the last time!"

Lin Wenlan: "... Dad, don't curse yourself like that!

Chapter 693: Home

When Cheng Guo heard the old man asking her to tell Yu Lao over the phone, his reaction was the same as Lin Wenlan's.

Mr. Yu went to Shenshi last week. You just arrived home the night before. Even if Mr. Yu rushed home when he received the call, he would not be able to get off the train until tomorrow morning. City fly back to the capital ah.

While complaining that the old man is an old child, Cheng Guo called Shenshi, knowing that Mr. Yu really put down the phone and got on the train, he was really relieved.

If Mr. Yu doesn't come back again, the old man is really capable of torturing himself and threatening Mr. Yu.

Cheng Guo rubbed the center of his brows, thinking of Yun Chang's skinny appearance, he didn't have the mood to go to work, so he took a leave of absence, went out to get two bags of milk powder, and hurried home.

Yun Chang got up after squinting for half an hour, squinting her eyes and leaning against the head of the bed, slowly tidying up the space mentally.

The few acres of land Yunshang has not planted crops for a long time. Over the years, it has been filled with fruit trees one after another, leaving only one acre of land, half an acre of which is turned into a small fish pond, and half an acre of some fruits and vegetables, and occasionally enters the space for itself. Burn a dish and beat the teeth.

The entire parking lot has been opened up into ten large warehouses, of which three warehouses are occupied by fruits and grains alone, and two warehouses store the national treasures she brought back from various countries. There are only two vacant warehouses in the entire parking lot. The warehouse is full, and it can only hold seven or eight stubbles of fruit.

There are so many fruits piled up in the space that they can't finish eating, and there is no place to sell them. Yunshang was thinking about brewing some fruit wine before, but she has lost interest recently.

When the space was tidied up, it was almost time for dinner. Yun Chang rubbed her cheeks, smiled forcefully from the corner of her mouth, changed her clothes, and went downstairs with her smile on her face.

The old man's wrinkled face burst into laughter the moment he saw Yunshang, and he said in a loud and authentic voice, "Oh, Xiao Qi, did you sleep well in the afternoon? Come and see, your aunt just brought you milk powder. Now, remember to make a drink before going to bed."

Yun Chang looked around the room, but didn't see Cheng Guo, so she walked over slowly and sat down beside the old man, "Master, is aunt home?"

"It took half an hour to walk." The old man slapped the milk powder bag, "You were sleeping when you came down, and your aunt didn't go up. Hey, I got you two bags of milk powder and said it was for your supplements." body."

Yun Chang's heart warmed, thinking that both the first and second cousins had children, and the third sister-in-law was also pregnant, so she put the milk powder in a bag and said to the old man, "Master, I'm an adult now. Milk powder is for children, so let's save it for my cousin's little nephew."

There is a lot of milk powder in the space, some for children, some for pregnant women, some for adults, and some for the elderly, she really has no shortage of these things.

Besides, she was eighteen, so how could she compete with two nephews who were under three years old for food.

Yun Chang didn't want to drink it, but the old man became impatient, stared at him, and said with a tiger's face, "You are an adult and a child! You are also my granddaughter at eighty, why are you an adult? This milk powder can be drunk! No one can steal it from me Granddaughter drink milk powder!"

He has only two granddaughters, and it hurts if he doesn't hold his hands. Could it be that he hurts those brats?

snort! The two boys in Qingze Qingyuan's family are loved by their own grandpa. It's not his turn to be loved by his grandpa. It's enough for him to love his own eldest granddaughter.

Yun Shang knew that she couldn't beat the old man, so she didn't argue, and decided to go back and search for something suitable for children and pregnant women from the space to send to the uncle's house.

While the two were talking, the family members came back from get off work one after another, but seeing Yun Shang who was so thin that made people feel distressed, no one dared to speak loudly in front of her, for fear that the voice would blow people away in one breath up.

Bai Yancheng sat across from Yunshang, looking at her daughter's arm that looked like a reed stick, her eyes sparkled.

He knew that Gu Shinian was unreliable!

Look, it's only been a few days, and Xiao Qi has been taken care of with only a handful of bones left. He didn't know how to live and die and made Xiao Qi unhappy. When he turned around, he had to persuade the five young men in the family to beat him to death.

The old man inadvertently saw Bai Yancheng's black face, and almost threw the tea mug in his hand at his face.

He and Xiao Qi are sitting on the sofa here, who is this old bastard trying to embarrass himself! ?

If it wasn't for his own son, he would have knocked out all his teeth with a board!

"Go away! What do you want to do with a coffin face? Scare my granddaughter that I won't clean you up!"

Just as the old man smashed Bai Yancheng away with walnuts with a straight face, he immediately put on a smiling face and said to Hong Yunshang with a smile on his face, "Xiao Qi, go to bed early after dinner, and I will take you to receive the gift tomorrow morning."

Yun Shang: "..."

Lord, I am no longer a child!

You should do what you should do at any age. She is already a person who can earn money by participating in the work. If she is like when she was a child, scraping land everywhere to receive gifts, she will be ashamed to face people if the news spreads.

When Bai Qingyue heard the word accepting the gift, she quickly took out a new light blue dress from her bag, put it on Yun Chang for comparison, and nodded with satisfaction, "The color is very good, and it suits Xiao Qi's face." Bai Jing, it's just a bit too big, so I can wear it after I get someone to change it."

Yun Shang quite liked this new dress, touched the fabric, and asked Bai Qingyue, "Sister, did you just buy this dress?"

"Well, how about it, do you like it?"

"I like it, the color is beautiful."

Bai Qingyue was very satisfied with her sister's approval, "I'm going out today, and I know you look good when I see this dress, but you are too thin, you need to change your clothes to wear it..."

He touched Yunshang's head while talking, and said earnestly, "Xiao Qi, eat an extra bowl of rice later, and quickly raise the meat back, or you will have to use scissors to wear all the new clothes you buy in the future, too Pity."

How could Yun Shang not know what Bai Qingyue was thinking, and nodded with a smile, "Okay, I will try to eat as much as possible later."

Lin Wenlan had just helped Aunt Wu bring out the food, and was about to call everyone to eat when the phone in the living room rang.

Bai Qingyue picked up the phone conveniently, and when she heard Gu Shinian's voice over there, she didn't speak, and passed the phone directly to Yun Shang, "Gu Shinian is calling."

Bai Yancheng's face darkened in an instant, and he deliberately went over to listen to what the person on the other end said, but in front of the old man, he still couldn't do such a shameless thing.

He had no choice but to look at Yun Chang eagerly, hoping that she could say a few more words so that he could deduce what Gu Shinian had said.

Gu Shinian looked at the remittance slip he had just filled out in his hand, and asked worriedly, "Ah Chang, did you ask Auntie Cheng to take you to see a doctor?"

"Not yet. Doctor Yu won't be back until tomorrow. I'll go to the hospital tomorrow afternoon."

Chapter 694: Yu Lao

"A Chang, after seeing the doctor tomorrow, remember to ask Uncle Jin about the situation and see if there is any news from Uncle An."

According to Yunshang's current situation, traditional Chinese medicine can at most relieve her a little. In the final analysis, she still needs to see a psychologist to get out.

It's a pity that there is no psychiatrist in China so far. If Yunshang wants to recover, she can only seek help from An Guosheng who is far away in Hong Kong City.

Yun Chang also knew that relying on her own perseverance alone would not be able to solve her psychological problems. Looking at Bai Yancheng's eyes that were about to spurt sparks, Yun Chang turned sideways and responded, "I see, thank you, second brother."

Bai Yancheng's face darkened, and he walked around to Yun Chang's side on purpose, and gave a cold "hum" to make sure that Gu Shinian could hear it clearly, then he walked slowly to the dining table and waited. Let's have dinner.

Facing Bai Yancheng's childish behavior, Yun Shang was speechless for a long time, and didn't know what to say for a while.

People who are almost fifty years old, why are they getting more and more childish?

When I get older in the future, shouldn't I be more noisy than the old man?

Gu Shinian did hear Bai Yancheng's cold snort of dissatisfaction, but his relationship with Yunshang is currently in a state of neither embarrassment nor embarrassment, and he has no intention of fighting with Bai Yancheng, so he can only pretend not to listen. Come on, move on to something else.

"A Chang, I just sent you the salary of these few months, please pay attention to check it."

Yun Chang held the phone tightly, and refused, "I have money to spend, so keep your salary for yourself..."

"A-Shang, I don't have any land here to pay wages. You keep it for the second brother first, and I will ask you for the money later when I need it."

After Gu Shinian finished speaking, he didn't give Yun Shang a chance to refuse, so he found an excuse and hurriedly hung up the phone.

Yun Chang got up before dawn, went out to the training ground and walked slowly around, and when he got home, the old man was already up.

Seeing Yun Shang enter the door, the old man waved happily and pushed Aunt Wu's freshly ground soybean milk over.

"Xiao Qi, come and have breakfast, Master will take you to find old man Yu to receive gifts!"

Faced with the old man's kindness, although Yun Chang had no appetite, she still took the bowl of soy milk, endured the nausea, and forced herself to drink it down in one gulp.

Seeing this, the old man nodded in satisfaction, and passed the freshly fried dough sticks to Yunshang, "Xiao Qi, come on, eat another fried dough stick. The freshly fried dough sticks are delicious and fragrant. ."

After drinking the soy milk, Yun Shang really couldn't eat anything else, but she still took the fried dough stick obediently, and went upstairs with the fried dough stick under the pretext that she needed to change clothes.

After entering the room, Yun Chang immediately threw the fried sticks into the space, washed her hands, changed into the new clothes that Bai Qingyue bought yesterday, and changed into a pair of small leather shoes. After confirming that there was nothing wrong with her body, she carried her bag went downstairs.

The old man also finished his meal now, and when he saw Yunshang coming down, he quickly walked towards the door with his crutches, "Xiao Qi, hurry up, let's go find old man Yu now, don't wait for your father to come down, but also follow him. "

Yu always got off the train at six o'clock in the morning, didn't even go home, ate some breakfast outside, and went straight to the hospital.

When the old man came over with Yunshang, Mr. Yu was leaning on the chair and taking a nap. When he saw the old man entering the door, he let out an angry "hum", and his eyes fell on Yunshang behind.

"Huh?" The moment he saw Yunshang, Yu Lao sat up straight and waved at Yunshang, "Girl, come here, Grandpa Yu will give you a pulse."

Chapter 695 Six hundred and ninetieth chapters see a doctor

As soon as Yu Lao got started, his brows frowned, "Little girl, there is nothing she can't think about at such a young age. If this continues, no matter how strong her body is, she won't be able to bear it."

The old man was taken aback by Yu Lao's words, rubbed his hands, and walked around again and again, as if he wanted to ask but didn't dare to ask.

In the end, Old Man Yu thought the old man was giving him a headache, and he glanced at him with disgust and said, "Can you calm down a bit, and let me take the girl's pulse!"

Walking around the room like an old monkey, I don't feel dizzy.

The old man glared, and was about to quarrel with Yu Lao, but when he saw Yun Shang who was sitting quietly at the side, he immediately woke up again, endured the unhappiness in his stomach, and swallowed the fuss.

Forget it, Xiao Qi's illness is still pointing to this old bastard, he can't bully this old guy like before, lest this guy quit and delay Xiao Qi's illness.

As long as Xiao Qi is healthy, it's fine for him to let this old thing point his nose and scold him, anyway, he won't lose his flesh when scolded.

The old man didn't answer, and Mr. Yu didn't continue to irritate him with words. After finishing his pulse, he spent ten minutes filling in and subtracting and prescribing a prescription, and sent Yunshang out to get the medicine.

Seeing that Yu Lao pushed Yun Shang away, the old man finally couldn't help but leaned over and asked, "Old Yu, how is it, is my granddaughter okay?"

Yu Lao took a sip of tea, shook his head and sighed, "Oh, I can't even eat and sleep, so how can I be fine? It's a big deal!"

"Then what should I do?" The old man's claws were really numb now, his face was wrinkled into a ball, and even the creases on his face were a little deeper, "Old man, don't you call it 'in one dose', what troublesome disease?" A dose of medicine can work, so what, are you going to smash your own brand today?"

Old man Yu almost sprayed tea on the old man's face, and put the tea mug heavily on the table, "Old man Bai, don't provoke me with words, others are really sick when they see a doctor, and your girl is really sick! Come on, come on, Tell me, what medicine can cure heart disease?"

The old man understood Yu Lao's meaning in an instant, and he was not in the mood to quarrel anymore. He stared and asked uncertainly, "Old man, you mean... you can't cure it either?"

"I've said it all. It's a heart disease. The child has been frightened. If he can get over it on his own and figure it out, he won't need to take medicine..."

Seeing that the old man's distressed eyes were red, Mr. Yu paused, and comforted him, "I look at the little girl very calmly, so don't worry too much, maybe the child will be fine by herself in a few months. gone."

The old man nodded and sighed, "The second daughter-in-law stayed in Yicheng for several days and didn't ask what happened to Xiao Qi, and no one dared to ask after we came back. Sigh... this child looks like a It's noisy, but it's actually very thoughtful when you're careful, and I'm worried that she's getting into a dead end."

"Don't worry, I prescribed the medicine. The child should be able to sleep better after returning home. Besides, let Xiaolin take the child out for a walk when he is free. After he sleeps well, he will feel at ease in his heart and his mind will be clear. Big things can be figured out..."

The old man felt that what Mr. Yu said was quite reasonable, nodded, took out a small bag of tea from his pocket, threw it on the table, and said, "Hey, this is the consultation fee from my granddaughter."

Mr. Yu opened the tea and smelled it, and then his eyes narrowed, "This tea is not bad! The surname is Bai, your granddaughter is better than you."

"That's it!" The old man raised his chin proudly, his eyes slanted towards the old man, "I have received such a good tea from my granddaughter, and I will have a meeting gift later!"

Yu Lao: "..."

How shameless!

He knew that this old bastard didn't hold his fart well!

When you come to see a doctor, just take a small bag of tea as a consultation fee, and ask him for a meeting gift when you are done. Is he posting something to someone to see a doctor today?

How could the old man not know what Mr. Yu was thinking, his eyelids rolled up, and he said confidently, "My Xiaoqi likes to receive gifts from meeting, and she will be happy to receive gifts!"

My granddaughter is now a patient, and you are a doctor and an elder. If you dare to make my granddaughter happy, I will appoint you to fight!

Yu Lao was speechless again.

While rubbing his teeth and scolding the old man for nothing, he flipped through the luggage bag and found a new pen from the bottom, preparing to give it to Yun Shang as a meeting gift.

The old man only needs to give Yun Chang a meeting gift from Lao Yu, and he doesn't care at all as to what to give.

Anyway, his goal is to make his granddaughter happy, as long as the goal is achieved, he will be happy.

When Yun Shang came back from taking the medicine, under the hint of the old man winking, he reluctantly accepted the pen handed over by the old man.

Really tired.

When you go back, you must tell the old man well that she is already a big girl, so you can't keep coaxing her like a child, and spread the joke.

It was still early to come back from the hospital, Yunshang made an excuse to go out for a walk, told the old man, and went out with her bag to find Lao Jin.

Thinking that she almost crushed the ball when she had a nightmare last night, Yun Shang knew that her situation could not be delayed any longer, otherwise, her condition would get worse and worse.

When Lao Jin received Gu Shinian's call, he was really taken aback. He really couldn't figure out how the lively and cheerful Yun Shang got so desperate that he needed to see a psychiatrist.

During the three years in Hong Kong City, Lao Jin often took Gu Shinian's Lao Li around in various countries, and his horizons were much wider than many people in China. Naturally, he didn't think it was so strange for Yunshang to see a psychiatrist. things.

It's just that there is no psychiatrist in China who said that if Yunshang wants to recover, she must go to Hong Kong City again.

It's just that the domestic situation is still unclear, and there is no legitimate reason. Even if An Guosheng can find a good psychologist, Yunshang can't go to Hong Kong City to see a doctor.

Lao Jin stood at the door of the unit, frowning tightly, raised his wrist from time to time to check the time, and then looked at the end of the street.

When Yunshang got off the bus and walked slowly towards this side, Lao Jin's brows relaxed a little, and he hurried up to meet her.

"Yunshang? We've lost so much weight!" Lao Jinbian asked as he looked Yunshang up and down, the concern in his eyes was undisguised, "I heard Shi Nian said that you have a physical problem, what's going on?"

After not seeing Lao Jin for a long time, Yun Chang was also very happy in her heart. The corners of her mouth were bent, and she called "Uncle Jin" in a very friendly and natural manner, and then asked about Lao Jin and Lao Li's situation in the past two years.

"I'm fine. You, Uncle Li, have also been promoted to a higher level. You went abroad again two days ago. Otherwise, you can meet someone today."

After getting along for three years, Yunshang knew Lao Jin, the superior, very well, and didn't play tricks with him, and directly talked about her own difficulties.

"Uncle Jin, Second Brother Gu is right. I'm sick and need to see a psychiatrist. Is there any mission in the Ministry that needs to go to Hong Kong City recently?"

Chapter 696: Letter

"There are no tasks you can do right now..." Lao Jin said, and looked at Yunshang very worriedly, "I just contacted Comrade An Guosheng this morning, and they said that there are not many psychiatrists in Hong Kong City. I will try my best to find the right doctor for you."

Lao Jin emphasized the word 'suitable', and Yunshang understood Lao Jin's meaning in seconds, fell silent for a moment, and said, "Uncle Jin, I am in good condition now, please tell Uncle An not to worry, you have to find someone you can trust." a doctor."

"That's what I mean too. Don't worry, I've discussed it with Shi Nian. I'll let you do translation work in the future. You'll have to change planes in Hong Kong City to and fro. Comrade An Guosheng can just take you to see a doctor. "

With Lao Jin's permission, Yun Chang didn't get entangled anymore, told Lao Jin about the situation in the past two years, and returned home before dark.

The medicine prescribed by Yu Lao was still very effective, and Yun Chang's sleep was much better than before. In addition, Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue took Yun Chang to go shopping every now and then, and the family deliberately ignored the fact that she was a patient. After time, Yun Shang's overall condition is indeed better than before.

After May, the weather became hotter day by day. Yunshang picked a good weather, cleaned all the summer clothes, and dried the whole yard.

Bai Qingyue looked at the more than 20 bragi in different colors, and rubbed her eyes in shock, "Xiao Qi, where did you get so many skirts?"

"They were all added in the past two years. The ones on the left were bought by my aunt, the ones on this side were bought by my mother, these were bought by you, and the others were bought by me when I was in Hong Kong. ..."

After Yun Chang finished speaking, she also felt that she had too many skirts. She didn't dare to say that there were more than a dozen more in the space, and said softly, "These clothes can still be worn for many years. I won't fill in new clothes this year."

Bai Qingyue disagreed and said, "You're going to report to your new unit in two days, so why don't you add two new clothes that fit well." You can't report to your unit wearing these baggy old clothes in the yard, right?

Yunshang took a long vacation before, and at the end of May, Lin Wenlan handled the job change procedures for Yunshang, and arranged for her to work in the library closest to her home, so that Yunshang could go home early every day and work easily.

Yun Chang feels that her new job is quite good. Anyway, the college entrance examination will be in the second half of the year. She will not stay in any unit for a long time. She works in the library and has less work. It will be easy to hand over work in the future, and she can leave at any time.

And this job is not only satisfactory to Yunshang, but also to the whole family.

The work in the library is so good, the people who come in and out are all cultural people, the quality is basically passable, and it is easy for no one to make trouble in the library.

Yun Chang can still read books when she is free every day, and if her mind does not rest, she has no time to think about it.

Besides, the more books you read, the more sensible you will become. After a long time, Yun Shang will naturally stop digging into the dead end. Where can I find such a good thing that kills two birds with one stone?

So, with the unanimous consent of the family, it was decided that Yunshang went to work in the library.

Just as Bai Qingyue was thinking about going to the Friendship Store on the weekend to buy two new clothes for Yun Shang, Han Chen walked in with a big bag in his hand.

Seeing the two sisters chatting in the yard, each on a reclining chair, Han Chen's mouth twitched, he turned his feet, and strode over.

When Bai Qingyue saw that someone who was supposed to be in the army came back suddenly, she screamed, turned over and sat up suddenly, and looked at Han Chen as if she had seen a ghost, "Why are you back!"

Han Chen paused, and said with black lines, "It's June now, didn't we agree to get married in July?" I saved up two months of vacation to come back to get married, but you forgot about the wedding ?

Bai Qingyue also forgot about getting married, not only Bai Qingyue forgot, even the old man, and Bai Yancheng and his wife also forgot about it.

Ever since Yunshang came back to recuperate from illness, all the members of the Bai family circled around Yunshang, so they couldn't remember anything else.

Besides, it's only June now, and there's still one month left before the promised day, even if everyone still remembers,

It would not be so early to discuss the matter of marriage, it is normal for Bai Qingyue to be unable to recover for a while.

Yun Shang greeted Han Chen, looked at Bai Qingyue with a guilty face, got up from the reclining chair with great interest, and prepared to give the two of them room to talk.

"Yunshang, wait a minute." Seeing that Yunshang was about to leave, Han Chen quickly took out two letters from his pocket and handed them over, "I just saw your letter at the door of the mail room, and I brought it in for you."

"Thank you, Brother Han Chen." Yun Chang thanked with a smile. After receiving the letter, she went upstairs directly, preparing to go back to her room to read the letter slowly.

Both letters were sent from the Yicheng Military Division. Judging from the handwriting, one was sent by Wu Xiang, and the other was sent by Wen Chengjie.

The letter Wu Xiang sent was very thick, and Yun Shang knew that apart from Wu Xiang's letter, there might also be letters from Ye Li and Yao Ke, anyway, it wasn't the first time these two had done this.

Yun Shang leaned against the head of the bed and picked Wu Xiang's letter to read first.

At the beginning of the letter, she asked about Yunshang's condition, and then asked Yunshang to take good care of her illness and take good care of her body.

After talking about these things, Wu Xiang explained his recent situation with heavy brush strokes.

Since Yunshang changed jobs, she and Ye Li were the only four recruited in the regiment the previous year. In addition, several veterans changed jobs this year, and the political commissar decided to recruit a few more recruits this year.

Wu Xiang is under a lot of pressure. She has practiced hard recently, just to lead the dance. If the regiment recruits new recruits this year, she will have a few more competitors who don't know the details.

Moreover, she is already eighteen years old, if she can't lead the dance this year, she probably won't have a chance in the future.

After all, the recruits are young and have great potential. Under the same conditions, the regiment leaders are definitely willing to train new recruits with great potential and talents.

Fortunately, Wu Xiang is very open-minded, and he didn't lose his sense of normalcy because of the pressure, and he didn't need Yun Shang to worry about it.

The letters between Ye Li and Yao Ke were simple. The two asked about Yun Shang's physical condition as usual. After that, they were both surprised that Yun Shang suddenly changed jobs. They felt that Yun Shang's business ability is so good, so it is a pity to leave the stage like this.

After all, with Yunshang's professional ability, it is not too difficult to enter the general administration.

I have to say that Yunshang was very happy to receive the letters from her friends. It is better to be remembered and cared for than to be forgotten.

Wen Chengjie's letter was simple, strongly condemning Yun Shang's unjust behavior of changing jobs and running away without saying a word, and emphasizing with thick and heavy strokes that because of Yun Shang's unjust behavior, he was so angry that he didn't eat food for three days .

When Yun Shang saw this, the corners of her mouth curved slightly unconsciously.

Chapter 697 Going to Hong Kong City Again

Yunshang felt that the reason why Wen Chengjie hadn't eaten food for three days was probably that the food in the big cafeteria was not to his taste, and he was greedy for the snacks she often stuffed, but she could still see the hidden care and concern from his strong resentment.

Although, this care and concern is probably for snacks, but Yun Shang still accepts Wen Chengjie's affection.

However, when she saw the last few words, Yun Chang's face changed suddenly, and she sat up straight.

Gu Shinian was injured on a mission!

No wonder he didn't call this week.

Knowing that Gu Shinian was injured, Yun Shang couldn't sit still, so she hurried downstairs and dialed Tiger Company, wanting to inquire about Gu Shinian's situation.

It was Kong Changzheng who answered the phone. Hearing Yunshang's voice, his throat was so frightened that his voice almost split, "Child!? You, you, why are you calling at this time?"

Gu Sinian had repeatedly urged Yun Shang not to let Yun Shang know the news of his injury. Now that he received a call from Yun Shang, the upright Kong Changzheng felt guilty subconsciously.

What's wrong with this?

He had never lied before, if Yun Shang knew about Gu Shinian's injury, Gu Shinian would have to dismantle his frame.

"Deputy Company Commander Kong, is Company Commander Gu seriously injured? What did the doctor say?"

Kong Changzheng: "..."

Well, there's no need to bother trying to deceive people now, the kid just called after he knew about it.

Afraid that Yunshang would be worried, Kong Changzheng raised his voice, pretending to be relaxed and said, "It's not heavy or heavy, just accidentally scratch the skin, just take care of it."

Yun Shang naturally didn't believe this kind of nonsense to coax children, and asked again, "When will Company Commander Gu be discharged from the hospital?"

Kong Changzheng felt that Yunshang was too difficult to deal with, and said with a bitter face, "I didn't need to be hospitalized, isn't it hot? Old Gu's wound was inflamed and he had a little fever, so he stayed in the hospital for a few days. Don't worry, the doctor said that he will be discharged in a week at most."

Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief, as long as nothing major happened, the tiger company has heavy tasks, and bumps and bumps are indispensable at ordinary times. It's really not a big deal for someone like this to be discharged from the hospital in three to five days.

However, it's not okay for Gu Shinian to go on like this. He is still young, and it doesn't matter if he suffers some minor injuries, but these injuries will overdraw his future health every time. If it accumulates into a big problem, it will be him who suffers at that time.

Yun Shang couldn't persuade Gu Shinian to change his unit, he could only hope that the higher-ups would expand the Tiger Company sooner, and Gu Shinian would be upgraded by two levels, so he wouldn't have to go on missions so frequently in the future.

Han Chen came back for vacation suddenly, and the Bai family finally realized that Bai Qingyue would be going out in another month.

Thinking that his granddaughter was going to belong to someone else, the old man didn't like to laugh these days, and sighed every day with his face drooping, so he saw that Yunshang could give him a good face.

Bai Yancheng even turned into a Tyrannosaurus. Seeing Tian'er tormenting Han Chen, he either dragged Han Chen to the training ground to practice, beat Han Chen violently with excuses, or asked Han Chen to cross half of the capital before dawn and buy it for Bai Qingyue. breakfast.

All kinds of greetings came together, and the tossing Han Chen was so miserable that when he found time to call Gu Shinian, he gloated and said that Gu Shinian would definitely suffer twice as much in the future as he was suffering now.

Who made Yunshang the youngest in the family, who suffered so much when he was a child, and the whole family loves Yunshang the most.

Gu Shinian had never been a good tempered person, his relationship with Yunshang was on the verge of freezing, and Han Chen actually showed him that he was going to marry Bai Qingyue.

This kind of behavior is like pointing at a monk and scolding a bald man, how can Gu Shinian spare him.

Even though Han Chen didn't know that there was a problem between Yunshang and Gu Shinian, Gu Shinian didn't show mercy to Han Chen because of this.

In the past, it was easy and convenient for Gu Shinian to torment Han Chen with Yunshang as the internal response, but now without Yunshang's cooperation, Gu Shinian turned his ideas on Bai Qingming.

As a result, Han Chen had a tragedy.

After Little Six angrily called home,

Bai Yancheng almost jumped up and hit Han's house.

Buying a breakfast for Qingyue and going out to talk nonsense, what does he want to do, want everyone in the compound to say that Qingyue has a temper and deliberately tormented him, the groom-to-be?

Isn't it just to tell him to go to the training ground to do a few tricks, to see his skills, and to teach Gu Shinian his experience so bitterly, is this to say that he bullies others by virtue of his status as an old father-in-law?

He knew that Han Chen was unreliable!

After hearing a few words, Yun Shang knew that this must be Gu Shinian's handwriting.

These two people were good buddies on the same front a few years ago, and after their relationship was established, the two would secretly poke at each other from time to time.

This time, Han Chen must have called to show off and annoyed Gu Shinian, but he was tricked by the narrow-minded Gu Shinian.

Bai Yancheng was so angry that he jumped up and down. The old man didn't persuade him after he entered the door, but directly called Yun Shang into the study, and talked about business. .

"Xiao Qi, Minister Jin just called me and said he wanted to arrange for you to go abroad. What do you think?"

"Master, I will follow the arrangement of the organization."

The old man frowned and said disapprovingly, "Xiaoqi, it's not that I'm holding you back. It takes more than ten hours to take a plane to go out. How can you take the plane with your body. Be obedient, we won't go back this time, Is it okay to go to work after taking care of your body?"

This is an opportunity that Yunshang took so hard to get, how could she miss it, and said again, "Master, since the organization has arranged for me to go on a mission, there must be work that needs to be completed by me. I am healthy, so I must be able to bear it."

The old man paused for a moment, his brows furrowed even tighter, "But Qingyue will get married in half a month, you don't know when you'll be back after going out this time, what if you don't catch up with Qingyue's marriage."

"Father, work is important."

The old man: "..."

The fact that my granddaughter is so motivated makes me look like a backward person.

Yun Shang made up her mind to go on a mission, but the old man persuaded her for a long time to no avail, so she could only nod her head in agreement.

The matter of going abroad was settled, Yun Chang thought about it for a while, and told Gu Shinian, lest he call and be caught and scolded by Bai Yancheng again.

Bai Yancheng originally had a big opinion on Gu Shinian because of her illness, and Bai Qingyue was getting married, if Gu Shinian called at this time, there would be no good results.

Lao Jin's task schedule was very tight, and Yunshang joined the main force on the third day after receiving the notice, and a group of people boarded the train going south, preparing to transfer to the port city.

After waiting for two months, Yunshang finally met the psychiatrist An Guosheng contacted her in Hong Kong City, a very amiable lady.

Chapter 698 Return to Beijing

Yunshang was mainly responsible for translation work when she went abroad this time. Taking advantage of the opportunity of waiting for a connecting flight in Hong Kong City, she briefly chatted with the psychiatrist.

I have to say that the person An Guosheng found was quite reliable, and after just a few simple chats, the other party made a fuss about Yunshang's situation.

Targetedly eased Yunshang's emotions, and prescribed some symptomatic medicines. When Yunshang came back from a business trip abroad and went to Hong Kong City for another flight, her condition had improved a lot.

Although my mood is still depressed, I don't feel like before when I eat, I feel that any food is filled with a strong smell of blood, and my sleeping situation is much better than before.

Yunshang believes that if she can receive treatment normally, she will be able to return to normal within half a year at most.

It's a pity that she can only take advantage of two chances to receive treatment. After returning to China, she has to adjust her mood by herself, relying on drugs and willpower to recover slowly.

Lao Jin was very concerned about Yunshang's situation. As soon as Yunshang and his party passed the customs in the port city, Lao Jin learned about Yunshang's situation from An Guosheng, and then sent the news to Gu Shinian without stopping.

Knowing that Yunshang could eat and sleep better than before, Gu Shinian was as happy as it was during the New Year, and turned around and let the rough guys in the company run an extra five kilometers to celebrate.

After finishing the work, I did not forget to tell Lao Jin that I have a mission to go abroad in the future, try to win for Yunshang, and let her go to Hong Kong as much as possible.

Yun Shang didn't know that she would be a trapeze person in the next year, and she was sitting in the living room at this moment, sharing the gifts she brought back from abroad with her family.

Seeing that Yun Shang went out for a trip, her spirits improved a lot, and the old man and Bai Yancheng's resentment towards Lao Jin had disappeared.

Not to mention anything else, just seeing that Yunshang went abroad for a trip, and when she came back, she no longer had tears in her eyes when she ate, it was worth going abroad this time.

Although Yunshang still can't touch meat and doesn't eat much, but as long as she can eat something, it's a good sign.

Lin Wenlan put away the cosmetics that Yunshang brought back, and said happily, "I was worried that you would not be able to catch up with Qingyue to get married, but now it's better, and finally caught up."

Yun Shang held the cup, sipped the milk, and asked Lin Wenlan, "Mom, my little brother didn't say when he would come back? He didn't come back when the big brother got married, so he should be able to come back this time, right?"

"I just called Little Six yesterday and said that I would be back in three to five days."

Lin Wenlan kicked Bai Yancheng's arm, and said in an unquestionable tone, "Qingzheng called today and said that he and An'an will be home next week, and our family is reunited this time. Go and call Shinian, see Can he ask for leave, while the children are at home, we have to take a family portrait, and I don't know when we will have to wait next time."

Bai Yancheng's face darkened, and he muttered unhappily, "When you take a family portrait, you take a family portrait, why call an outsider?"

After hearing Lin Wenlan and Bai Yancheng's words, Yunshang paused for a while while drinking milk, and remained silent for a long time, after all, she had no intention of stopping Lin Wenlan.

Second brother Gu also grew up in Bai's family. Apart from her relationship, the family has long regarded him as a member of the Bai family. Taking family photos and calling him second brother is out of line.

Seeing that Bai Yancheng called Gu Shinian aggrievedly, Yunshang put down the milk cup and asked Lin Wenlan, "Mom, after my sister gets married, I want to go back to Fenyang, the library... Can I report in later?"

Chapter 699 Gathering

Yunshang's condition was really bad before, and she didn't dare to go back to Fenyang for fear that the old couple of the Yun family would be anxious.

Now her physical condition is much better, and she can finally eat and sleep for three to five hours a day. Yunshang just wants to go back for a few days and have a good talk with the old couple.

It's just that Yunshang feels that she is in good health, but in the eyes of Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan, she still looks so weak. In addition, Yunshang just took a plane for more than ten hours, plus a train for four days and three nights, how could the couple be willing to run around on the road again for Yunshang.

Lin Wenlan thought about it, and discussed with Yun Shang, "Xiaoqi, your Grandpa Yun and Grandma Yun haven't been to our house yet, why don't you take your Grandpa Yun and Grandma Yun over to stay for a few days while your sister is getting married this time?" Just in time, when the time comes, you will take your grandpa and grandma to have a good time in the capital."

Yun Chang lowered her eyes to hide the astringency in her eyes, "Mom, will it embarrass you?"

Ever since Bai Yancheng knew that Widow Wang wanted to torture and kill her, but the Yun family did not come forward to protect her due to various reasons, the couple have not been so close to Lao Yun's family.

This is also the main reason why Yunshang has often called, written, and sent things to the old couple over the years, and occasionally went back to have a look, but never mentioned that the old couple came to visit the house.

On the one hand, Yunshang is really busy, and on the other hand, she is also worried about Lin Wenlan's feelings.

At this moment, Lin Wenlan took the initiative to ask the old couple to come to the house as guests. Yun Shang naturally knew that Lin Wenlan was making concessions for her, so she couldn't help but feel a little moved.

Lin Wenlan sighed, and said, "Your Uncle Han's hometown is also in Qinghe County. I heard that the old man of the Han family gets along well with your Grandpa Yun. This time when your sister gets married, the old couple of the Han family will also come over. When the time comes, I will let you Grandpa Yun and grandma just come here with the Han family, and you can have a companion on the way back and forth."

Yun Chang really didn't expect this. Hearing Lin Wenlan mention it, he also felt that this opportunity was rare. After thinking about it, he agreed.

"Okay, I'll call Fenyang later and ask my grandpa and grandma to come over with Grandpa Han."

"Well, our family has a small courtyard house in the city. When you, Grandpa Yun, and the others come over, if you are not used to living in a large courtyard, you can live in the city. It is also convenient for shopping."

Lin Wenlan was so thoughtful, Yun Shang was naturally satisfied with everything, thanked Lin Wenlan, turned around and called Yunshuilian's unit, inviting the whole family to the capital to attend Bai Qingyue's wedding.

The old couple of the Yun family haven't seen Yunshang for two years. Recently, they were talking about going back to the village to find some wild game, packing up and sending it to Yunshang.

Unexpectedly, before the two left to return to the village, Yun Shuilian dragged the twins back to the small mansion one by one, and brought them the news that Bai Qingyue was going to get married and that the Bai family invited them to the capital.

Knowing that it was Yunshang who made the call, Lin Wenlan personally sent the invitation, and the old lady wiped her tears happily, "Shangnan can be considered to have a rest. I used to make calls, and every time I came back, I was practicing and participating in performances. It was hard to listen. This time I don't have to be a soldier anymore, so I don't have to suffer so much."

The old man thinks more than the old lady, and his brows are frowned tightly, "Didn't Chang Nan say why she changed jobs? It would be nice to leave the art troupe. Can Chief Bai agree with Chang Nan's change of job?"

The Bai family has a large family of soldiers, and they can only send their children to the army. It is impossible for them to change jobs halfway and leave the army.

Yun Chang had only been a soldier for two years before changing jobs, which seemed abnormal no matter how you looked at it.

As soon as the old man said that, the old lady came to her senses, her eyes widened suddenly, and she asked Yun Shuilian, "Shui Lian! Is Chang Nan hurt somewhere? Otherwise, how can I change jobs properly?"

Yun Shang didn't elaborate on the phone, and Yun Shuilian really didn't know about it. Seeing that the old couple were anxious, they hurriedly comforted:

"Our Changnan's body is weak when she is young, and Chief Bai loves children. I guess Chief Bai has other arrangements."

Seeing that the old lady couldn't sit still in a hurry, Yun Shuilian continued, "Mother, didn't Captain Lin tell you to go to the capital to attend the wedding? You and my father will go to see Chang Nan,

If you have any questions, ask Chang Nan face to face. "

The old lady looked distressed, "Would it be too troublesome to Chief Bai? Our family is not related to the Bai family. Is it appropriate for me to go there with your father? What can I do if I cause trouble to Changnan?"

The old man also nodded in agreement.

"Father, mother, Captain Lin is asking you to go to the capital to have a banquet. Our family will follow the party when the time comes, so why is it inappropriate?

Our Changnan said that Qingyue married Uncle Han's grandson in the capital, and Uncle Han and Aunt Han will also go to the capital, so you can go there with Uncle Han and come back together when you are done. "

When Yun Shuilian said this, the old couple were instantly tempted. They looked at each other and nodded in agreement.

The old lady was also very aggressive and asked Yun Shuilian to call Yun Erchuan's factory, and asked Yun Erchuan to bring Shuanzi back to the village immediately, and find more game for the Bai family.

Everything is going well with Lao Yun's family, but it is difficult for Gu Shinian to ask for leave.

The Tiger Company captured two enemy agents who were in the government and interrogated them overnight. They really found out a lot of useful things.

As the direct person in charge of arresting the enemy agents, Gu Shinian has been following the vines for the past few months, and locked on a few more targets. Recently, he is planning to catch the few people the enemy agents handed over. At this juncture, Gu Shinian is still It's too bad to walk away.

Fortunately, the months of hard work of the members of the Tiger Company were not in vain. At the beginning of July, the army and the provincial police jointly took action to pull out the fish that had slipped through the net in several districts and cities in the province.

Afterwards, it was not Gu Shinian's turn to intervene, and because he was obsessed with Yunshang, he simply prepaid an extra week's vacation, and boarded the train back to the capital that night.

It was also because of Gu Shinian's timing that he and Bai Qingming got home one after another.

Yun Chang was lying on the bed with her eyes closed, when she heard the sudden commotion downstairs, and vaguely heard the voices of Bai Qingming and Gu Shinian, her eyelids trembled a few times, and soon calmed down again.

The weather was hot at the moment, Bai Qingming ran to wash his face, wiped off the sweat beads from his head, and while talking to Gu Shinian about the military affairs with great interest, he drank a cold drink for nothing.

Gu Shinian was much more refined. When he came out after washing his face, he first said hello to Lin Wenlan, and then looked around the room, trying to find Yunshang.

Bai Qingming also noticed that Yunshang was not there, but she took a few sips of water, wiped the corners of her mouth, and asked Lin Wenlan, "Mom, where is Xiao Qi, why didn't Xiao Qi come out to greet me?"

Lin Wenlan's palms itch instantly, "Why? How much merit have you done, and you even asked Xiao Qi to welcome you by name. How shameless are you?"

Chapter 700: Laozi Disciplines His Son

Seeing that Bai Qingming stopped talking with a sad face, Lin Wenlan said angrily, "Xiaoqi is not feeling well, she is going to catch up on sleep upstairs, don't go up and quarrel with Xiaoqi, she will go to the station to pick up Lao Yun's family later ."

Knowing that this was also for him, Gu Shinian raised his wrist to check the time, and found that it was not yet two o'clock in the afternoon, so he patiently talked with Lin Wenlan for a long time, inquiring about Yun Shang's current physical condition. Only then did he return to Gu's house with his luggage.

When Yun Chang came down from the stairs, Bai Qingming had already passed the excitement of going home, and was harassing the sleeping Qiuqiu with his two paws, and he was still skillfully responding to Lin Wenlan's words. Urge marriage.

Seeing Yun Shang, Bai Qingming's eyes lit up as if seeing a savior. But before Yun Chang came over, Bai Qingming opened his mouth wide in shock, and asked stupidly, "Xiaoqi! What's wrong with you? Why are you so thin?"

After speaking, he jumped over in disbelief, and pinched Yun Chang's dry and fleshless face with his hands.

Bai Qingming had been in the army for a few years, his hands were full of calluses, and his hands were strong, plus he was careless, his hands were not serious, and Yun Chang's face turned red instantly.

Bai Yancheng just opened the door and came in. Seeing Xiao Liu who hadn't come back for a few years, he bullied Xiao Qi as soon as he entered the door. He didn't even have time to put the purse in his hand, so he pulled out the bamboo stick that had been prepared by the door, and raised his hand to beat him.

"You need a beating! I let you bully Xiaoqi, and if you haven't been beaten for a few years, your skin is itchy, isn't it!"

Bai Qingming yelled "Aww" from the pump, Yun Chang was startled, and quickly stopped in front to prevent Bai Yancheng from continuing to do anything.

"Dad, stop beating, brother didn't bully me."

Bai Yancheng looked at the red finger prints on Yunshang's face, feeling extremely distressed.

When he was in front of Xiao Qi, he was reluctant to speak loudly. The bastard, Xiao Liu, dared to attack Xiao Qi, and it was because he beat him too little.

Seeing Bai Qingming shrinking his tall body into a ball and hiding behind Yun Chang tremblingly, Bai Yancheng became even more angry.

He wanted to continue smoking Bai Qingming a few times to satisfy his addiction, but with Yunshang in front, he really couldn't continue to do it, so he could only give Bai Qingming a hard look, and put the stick away angrily.

Yun Shang looked at the stick with thick fingers, and didn't know what to say for a while.

If she remembers correctly, there was no stick behind the door two days ago. Could this stick be specially prepared by her father for Bai Qingming?

How much I want to beat my son, I haven't seen him for a few years, and I even have a stick ready in advance.

Seeing Bai Yancheng leave, Bai Qingming came back to life in an instant, slapped Yunshang's shoulders behind him, and while leading her to the sofa, asked with a sigh, "Xiao Qi, tell me, is it right?" Didn't Gu Shinian make you so angry?"

How sticky Xiao Qi was with Gu Shinian before, if he knew that Gu Shinian was coming back today, he would go to the station to pick him up. Unlike today, when Gu Shinian came back home, Xiao Qi was still sleeping upstairs, not seeming to take Gu Shinian to heart at all.

This is too abnormal.

Bai Qingming was making too much noise, and Yun Chang felt a headache from hearing it, so she broke away Bai Qingming's hand, and sat obediently beside Lin Wenlan, as if she didn't want to talk to Bai Qingming.

Lin Wenlan sighed, looked carefully at Yunshang's face, and said to Bai Qingming, "Xiao Qi has been unwell for the past few months and has been recuperating at home. Be quiet at home recently, Xiao Qi doesn't have the energy to make trouble with you."

"Have you been sick for several months?" Bai Qingming opened his mouth wide, leaned close to Yunshang and looked at her carefully for a long time, finally rubbed her head, and said, "Wait, little brother will go out to find something delicious for you tomorrow. Raise you fat and white."

As soon as the words fell, Bai Yancheng pushed open the door of the study and walked over. While holding his shirt cuffs, he sat opposite Bai Qingming and asked, "How are you doing in the army recently?"

"It's pretty good. I'm in the same camp as Dacheng. We usually do everything according to our opinions. We won't cause trouble."

Bai Yancheng nodded slightly, the expression on his face was still serious,

"You've been staying there for three years, so you don't have any ideas?"

"What do you think?" Bai Qingming looked at Bai Yancheng blankly, with a puzzled expression on his face, "Dad, do you want me to make a fuss?"

Bai Yancheng's face darkened, and he said angrily, "What can you do? After three years, you still look like a ball. Are you planning to just hang around like this, be the leader for a few years and then be swept out of the army? It's just you Semi-literate, what good job can they get after changing jobs!"

Bai Qingming: "..."

Anyway, he is already a platoon leader, and he is considered an official, so why is Lao Tzu still so ruthless when he is trained.

"Dad, then I will try my best to stay in the army and not change jobs..."

"After I go back, I will pay attention to the cultural courses and see if I can go to university for further study in the second half of the year. Your high school diploma will be eliminated sooner or later."

Bai Qingming had been in the army for three years, so he naturally knew the importance of education and family status. When Bai Yancheng said this, he didn't refute it, and agreed honestly.

The son's attitude was good, and Bai Yancheng had passed his addiction for a while, took a sip of tea slowly, and then continued to talk about Bai Qingming's personal problems.

"When are you going to date? Your elder brother and Qingyue are both married. If you don't find a date, Xiao Qi won't be able to go out. When are you going to delay Xiao Qi?"

Bai Qingming: "..."! ! !

Are you a devil?

In other families, mothers are urging marriages, but it is completely reversed here, and you have become fathers urging marriages with their sons.

With a bitter face, Bai Qingming said miserably, "There are no people in our area for dozens of miles. Where can I meet lesbians? Besides, even if there are lesbians in the camp, they are all as tanned as black donkeys." Like, can the children born in the future still look at it?"

The most important thing is that he doesn't know happiness when he lives alone.

There is no one to control your life, you don't have to pay your salary to the family, you can spend it however you want, why do you have to find someone to take care of yourself.

He is not skinny.

Yun Chang looked at Bai Qingming's rather handsome and lively eyebrows, thought for a moment, and felt that he and Wu Xiang were quite suitable.

One is jumping, the other is calm, the other is careless, and the other is careful and thoughtful. It has to be said that the temperaments of the two complement each other perfectly.

It's a pity that the two are not in the same military region, they are too far away, even if they are dating, they don't have time to spend together.

Just when Bai Yancheng was about to make Bai Qingming cry, Gu Shinian came to the door with a gift. As soon as he came in, his eyes fell on Yunshang's face. Although she was thin, she was in a state of mind and had a complexion on her face. Everything is fine, and the heart that has been mentioned for more than two months is finally relieved.
