Chapter 701 illness

Bai Yancheng's face turned dark when he saw Gu Shinian, and he stared at Gu Shinian as if he wanted to beat him up.

At the beginning, he didn't agree with Yun Shang going to the Yicheng military sub-district, but he couldn't bear Gu Shinian's deep skill and made his family's Xiao Qi obsessed, so he was determined to go to Yicheng to join Gu Shinian.

It's better now, after only two years, there was a problem between the two of them, Xiao Qi was frightened, and he was almost useless.

Bai Yancheng already had a problem with Gu Shinian, and Yun Shang had an accident under Gu Shinian's care, how could Bai Yancheng have a good face when he saw him.

Gu Shinian also knew that since he established a relationship with Yunshang, he was no longer treated by Bai Yancheng, and he didn't want to provoke Bai Yancheng. After greeting the other party in a polite manner, he devoted all his energy to please Lin Wenlan .

He can't cure Bai Yancheng, the Bai family has plenty of people who can suppress Bai Yancheng.

As long as the prospective mother-in-law is dealt with, the old father-in-law will have to hold back no matter how angry he is.

Yun Shang saw the confrontation between the two in his eyes, and the scene that he thought was warm and funny before, now it seemed that there was a kind of sadness about the impermanence of the world.

Gu Shinian was sitting opposite Yun Shang and Lin Wenlan, and he was always paying attention to Yun Shang's emotions. Seeing that her expression was clouded and uneasy, and her face was not very good-looking, he hurriedly handed her a cup of hot tea.

Yun Chang's gaze fell on the cup of hot tea, and she stared at it for a while, before finally taking it with Gu Shinian's apprehension and worried eyes.

"Thank you, brother."

Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan frowned at Yun Shang's polite and unfamiliar words.

Although Bai Yancheng always looks down on Gu Shinian in various ways in his heart, and feels that Gu Shinian is not worthy of the Xiaoqi he holds in his hands, but he also knows better than anyone else that in this world, except for their parents and relatives, There is only one Gu Shinian who can treat Yun Shang well without asking for anything in return, and is willing to tolerate Yun Shang's various shortcomings.

If the two really broke up, whether Yunshang can find someone who treats her so well in the future is another matter.

Thinking of this, Bai Yancheng's anger towards Gu Shinian immediately disappeared a lot, and for the first time, he gave Gu Shinian an almost comforting smile.

Noticing that the two of them were still a little awkward when getting along, Lin Wenlan sighed secretly, feeling that they could no longer indulge the two of them like this, as time would affect their relationship.

She raised her wrist to check the time, gave Bai Yancheng a wink, and told Yunshang, "Xiao Qi, it's almost time, you and Shi Nian will go to the station to pick you up, Grandpa Yun and Grandma Yun, we haven't seen each other for a few years, let Grandpa Yun, Grandma Yun, take a good look at you."

Both Gu Shinian and Yun Shang understood Lin Wenlan's intentions, they glanced at each other, nodded in agreement one after the other.

Bai Qingming on the side wanted to follow, but before he could open his mouth, Gu Shinian stared back at him.

After the two left, Bai Yancheng kicked Bai Qingming angrily, said "follow me", turned around and walked out the door.

Bai Qingming exaggeratedly rubbed her buttocks, followed up and asked, "Dad, where are we going?"

"Pick up someone at the station." Bai Yancheng said, and added, "It's the first time for the Yun family to come to the door. It's impolite to ask Xiao Qi and Shi Nian to pick them up. Your mother and I have to go there no matter what. "

Otherwise, others thought that the Bai family didn't want to see Lao Yun's family, and spread the joke.

Worried about running into Yunshang and Gu Shinian on the road, Bai Yancheng even asked the guards to change the way and go to the train station by detour.

As soon as Gu Shinian went out, he took the backpack from Yunshang's body, passed by a place selling soda, and ran to buy a popsicle, and handed it to Yunshang.

Yun Chang was silent for a while, and finally reached out to take the popsicle, but she didn't forget to remind him, "Second brother, I'm not a child anymore."

Use delicious food to coax her, don't use it in the future, it will be a joke if people see it.

How could Gu Shinian not know Yun Shang's thoughts, raised his brows, and said in a very relaxed tone, "Well, Ah Chang is eighteen years old, and she is already a big girl."

Seeing that Yunshang kept her head down and didn't speak, Gu Shinian frowned and asked about Yunshang's condition, "Ah Chang, do you still feel uncomfortable when eating now?"

"Well, it's still a bit uncomfortable." Yun Chang nodded, holding up the popsicle and said, "The popsicles eaten by others are sweet, but I always feel that the aftertaste of the popsicle has a bloody smell. It's not strong, but it can still Taste it."

"What about sleeping? Do you still have nightmares?" Gu Shinian took the popsicle from Yunshang's hand and stuffed it into his mouth, then asked about Yunshang's sleeping condition.

"Sleeping is much better than before. After having a nightmare, I can sleep peacefully for an hour."

In front of Gu Shinian, Yun Shang didn't hide her situation. Although she still couldn't get over the hurdle in her heart, it is undeniable that even if the relationship between the two is not as close as before, Gu Shinian is still her. The most trustworthy relatives in my heart.

Gu Shinian was silent for a while, rubbed Yunshang's head tentatively, and comforted her, "A-Shang, I have discussed with Uncle Jin, and if the ministry has any missions to go to Hong Kong City, I will try my best to arrange them for you. Don't worry. ,everything will be fine."

Yun Chang's eyes fell on Gu Shinian's much thinner face, and she nodded slightly, "I see, thank you, second brother."

Facing Yun Shang's polite words, Gu Shinian smiled wryly, and asked straight to the point, "A Chang, are you still blaming Second Brother for lying to you?"

Yun Shang was silent for a long time, and said in a low voice, "I know that the second brother did this for my own good, and I shouldn't blame you... Actually, I don't blame you now, but I don't know how to get along with you now. "

Yun Shang felt like she was caught in a vicious circle now, on the one hand, she would unconsciously resist Gu Shinian's closeness, on the other hand, she was greedy for the warmth and love that Gu Shinian gave her.

She couldn't control the balance point, and that's why when she faced Gu Shinian, her heart was filled with all kinds of complicated and tangled emotions.

After hearing what Yun Shang meant, Gu Shinian felt a little numb for a while.

If it was said that Yun Shang just couldn't figure it out for a while and blamed him in his heart, then he could spend more time talking and slowly dispel the resentment towards him in Yun Shang's heart.

But the current situation is that Yun Chang knows in her heart that the fault is not on him, and she has repeatedly warned herself not to vent her anger on him, but subconsciously she is resisting his approach.

This is entirely a psychological problem, a problem that is difficult for Yunshang to self-regulate, not for Yunshang who couldn't figure it out for a while and got into a dead end.

Gu Shinian felt both aggrieved and frightened for a moment, but looking at Yun Shang, who had an equally ugly face, he still couldn't bear to put more pressure on her.

"A-Shang, it's okay. Uncle Jin is here. Let Uncle Jin arrange more missions for you and visit the doctor a few more times in the future. You will be fine soon."

Chapter 702 Reunion

After Yunshang got off the bus, she saw Bai Yancheng and Bai Qingming waiting outside the station at a glance. After being stunned for a moment, she immediately realized the profound meaning of Bai Yancheng's actions.

I have to say that Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan are very qualified parents. In this era when most people only care about their children's food and clothing, it is rare for them to pay attention to the most subtle emotions in their children's hearts. matter.

Yun Chang was both moved and amused in his heart, suppressing the moisture in his eyes, and quickly walked towards Bai Yancheng.

Bai Yancheng kept paying attention to the entrance of the train station, and when he saw Yunshang and Gu Shinian coming, he immediately put on a smiling face and waved to Yunshang, "Xiao Qi, come quickly, the train is coming in."

Yun Chang walked over, and after giving Bai Yancheng a rare smile, she obediently stood beside Bai Yancheng, looking like an obedient girl.

And the impatient Bai Qingming had already pulled Gu Shinian to inquire about the reason for his awkward relationship with Yun Shang in a low voice.

Of course, in the end, Gu Shinian pouted back with a big black face.

The train pulled into the station quickly, and the passengers got up in twos and threes to pack their luggage and were ready to get off the train at any time.

Shuanzi is sixteen years old this year, probably due to his nutrition. In the past two years, he has been catching up with Yun Erchuan in size, and he is already a young man when he goes out.

Seeing the people from the old Han's family packing up the passengers in the same car, they all started to move. They didn't need to be reminded by the Han family and the old couple, so they hurriedly told Xiao Heiwa, who was eating there, to pack up, so as not to get off the car in a hurry and leave something behind. in the car.

"Grandma! Grandma! Look, my sister is outside!"

Little Heiwa stuck her head out of the car window, and when she saw Yunshang, she was so excited, she tugged on the old lady's clothes and shouted non-stop, and waved to Yunshang from a distance after she finished.

The old lady just got up and was about to get out of the car. After hearing Xiao Heiwa's call, she quickly lay down on the car window and looked outside.

As a result, with just one glance, the old lady's eye circles turned red.

"Oh, why is my Changnan so thin..."

Yun Chang was already prepared for the old lady to cry, but she was still a little embarrassed when she was held by the old lady and wiped away tears one by one.

Because of her affairs, the elders in the family were worried, and the old lady shed tears of distress when she came to the capital. It was really inappropriate.

It was the first time for Bai Yancheng to see the old lady's crying skills, and it took him a long time to react in a daze.

From the moment she got off the train and saw Yunshang, she started to cry, until she got out of the train station and got on the jeep, the tears of the old lady were still falling, as if the faucet was broken and couldn't be turned off.

The old man looked at Yunshang, then at the old lady, heaved a long sigh, and turned his head to chat with Bai Yancheng slowly.

Of course, the first thing to do is to inquire about the reason for Yun Shang's sudden weight loss.

"Xiao Qi fell ill a few days ago, and Wen Lan and I were thinking of transferring the child back to the capital to recuperate. No, Wen Lan transferred Xiao Qi to work in the library, so that he can go home to eat every day, and his body will slowly recover. OK."

The old man sighed, picked up the dry pipe, did not light the fire, smoked a few times, then turned to the old lady and said, "Have you brought the millet at home, and I will make millet porridge for Changnan later, millet is good for people. "

The old lady quickly wiped away her tears and said, "I brought it. I watched Shui Lian take care of it. I brought all the five catties of millet, which is enough for our daughter-in-law to drink for a few days."

"Well." The old man nodded in satisfaction, and said to Yunshang, "Shangnan, from now on, let the aunt at home get up early every day to cook a bowl of millet porridge for you, and call the master after drinking, and the master will return to the village for you Find and touch."

The little Heiwa on the side jumped out not to be outdone, patted her small chest and promised, "Sister! I will go back to the village to get you red dates in August! Red dates can also raise people! There are jujube trees in the back of our village. Don't worry, I'll get them all for you."

Yun Shang was about to nod, when Shuan Zi also said with a distressed face, "Sister, I went back to the village with my grandfather to find some wild game for you two days ago. It's hot now, and the things will be put away soon. Remember to hurry up when you go back." Finish eating." Everyone said that what you eat will make up for what you eat, eat more meat,

You can also grow some meat on your body.

Hearing the word 'game', Yun Chang's face froze for a moment, and then tried to nod with the corners of her mouth, which was accepted by Shuan Zi's kindness.

While talking, the car quickly drove into the courtyard, and a group of people got off the car in front of the small western-style building in the second room of the Bai family.

While Bai Yancheng explained the layout of the small courtyard to everyone, he led everyone in. Gu Shinian and Bai Qingming acted as coolies, each carrying a few large bags and following behind.

Hearing the commotion outside, Lin Wenlan hurriedly put down the kitchen knife in his hand to welcome them out. He warmly greeted everyone to sit down and rest, and directed Bai Qingming, who had just entered the room, to get a thermos to pour tea, and personally poured tea for the twelve-year-old little Heiwa. Taking all kinds of snacks to eat, Xiao Heiwa was so ashamed that he almost retreated from the living room to the yard.

The old man happily took a sip of tea, and directed Shuanzi to bring the luggage and send the special food to the kitchen.

The old lady sat on the sofa, looked at the layout of the house, took Yunshang's hand, and said happily, "Shangnan, your dad is right, it's better to go to work in the library, no matter what, it's better than sleeping with you." The dorm is comfortable."

Changnan loved to be clean since she was a child, and she lived a very particular life. The bed she slept on was too hard, the quilt was dirty, or the room was not clean, so she couldn't sleep well.

After changing jobs, Changnan can sleep soundly every day.

This job change is good, really good!

At this time, Yunshang naturally nodded along with the old lady's words, "Grandma, my mother said the same thing, she said she was going to work at the door of the house, so if there is anything, the family can take care of it."

The old lady frowned, looked back at Gu Shinian, then lowered her voice and asked Yunshang, "Shangnan, tell grandma the truth, is it true that Shinianwazi bullied you?" Speak out the words that protect you at home?

She said that there was something wrong between Changnan and Shinianwazi, how sticky they were before, but now, the two children don't talk much anymore.

It was specified that there was a quarrel.

"Grandma, Brother Gu and I are fine." Afraid that the old lady would be worried, Yunshang quickly explained, "It's because my mother is worried that if we get far away, someone in the unit will bully me."

"That's good, that's good..." The old lady wiped Yun Shang's bone-thin hands, her voice paused, and she continued, "As long as you both work well, you are better than anything else."

Lin Wenlan poured tea for the old lady, and sat down next to her with a smile, "Aunt Yun, Xiao Qi stays at home and talks about you and my uncle every day. Xiao Qi and I will also take you to have a good time around the capital."

The old lady readily agreed, and said boldly, "Okay, this time I will stay for three or five days, and have a good talk with my Changnan."

Chapter 703 Lin Dani

Lin Wenlan thought that Lao Yun's family would stay in the capital for at least ten days and a half a month, but the old lady agreed very happily, but finally said that she would only stay for three to five days, which was far from Lin Wenlan's idea of ten days and a half months for some days.

This made Lin Wenlan wonder for a moment whether the old lady was serious or joking with her, and she was stunned for a moment.

Yunshang was also taken aback by the old lady's words, and after realizing it, she persuaded the old lady, "Grandma, it's summer vacation now, Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa don't need to rush to school, it doesn't matter if you stay with my grandfather for ten days and a half a month, why are you in a hurry to go back?"

"That's impossible. If your master and I are not at home, then Luo Qiulan will have to go to hell!" The old lady said, glanced at Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa, and added in a low voice, "Your second uncle can't be suppressed by that bastard!" Stay with Luo Qiulan."

Yun Shang: "..."

This is really a real mother, and she is really steady and ruthless when she complains about her own son.

Lin Wenlan also listened to the old lady's words, laughed a few times, and helped Yunshang persuade the old lady, "Aunt Yun, don't worry, nothing will happen at home in just ten days. Just listen Xiaoqi, stay in the capital for more time with peace of mind. If you find it troublesome to get in and out of living in a large courtyard, our family has a small courtyard in the city, which is cleaned up, and you and my uncle can also take it with you. Xiao Qi went to live for a few days."

When the old lady heard it, she was instantly tempted.

The reason why she wanted to go back to Fenyang after attending Bai Qingyue's wedding was that apart from worrying about her family, the main reason was that she felt uncomfortable living in the compound.

No matter how good the Bai family is, it's not someone else's house. As a guest, I always feel restrained. In addition, all the heads of the army live in this compound, and the access control is very strict. As guests, they have to register every time they enter and exit. This is too troublesome for the illiterate old couple.

At this moment, Lin Wenlan mentioned the matter of the courtyard house, and agreed that Yun Shang would accompany them to their residence, so the old lady would not be willing to go back early.

If she stays in the capital for a few more days, she can spend a few more days with her granddaughter, so she must stay more!

The old lady agreed, and the old man naturally wouldn't object. Even Shuan Zi, who has always been steady and sensible, had a look of joy in his eyes.

As for Xiao Hei Wa, she had already hugged Qiu Qiu and smiled widely.

...

Bai Qingyue and Han Chen's wedding was held in a low-key but grand manner, and it was only at this time that the relatives knew that Yun Shang had returned to the capital to recuperate from illness.

Several uncles gave Lin Wenlan a good meal, and when they were done, they searched for a lot of nutritional supplements and sent them to Yunshang to replenish her body.

Lin Dani and his wife had two children in the past few years, the older one was five years old, and the younger one just turned one year old. This time they came to the wedding, and when they saw Yunshang when they entered the door, they were so shocked that the child in their hands almost threw it to the ground.

In Lin Dani's impression, Yunshang always had a cute and chubby appearance. It was so horrifying that she suddenly became skinny to the bone.

After all, the conditions of the Bai family are good, and Lin Wenlan and Bai Yancheng love their daughter the most. No matter how hard Yun Chang is, it is impossible for her to have enough to eat.

After Yunshang used illness as an excuse to fool him, he asked about Dacheng's situation in the army, "... Auntie, little six likes to brag, I can't hear the truth from his mouth, so you should tell me about Dacheng's situation Bar."

"Dacheng is very good!" Lin Dani also knew Bai Qingming's temperament, and said with a smile, "Dacheng said that he and Xiaoliuzi are both platoon leaders now, and the two platoons usually do everything together, and the leader even praised them. People who want to learn from the spirit of solidarity and mutual assistance and mutual progress between the two. These two guys are quite ghosts."

Yun Chang nodded in agreement.

It's really spooky.

Little Liu is a naughty person, look, he was praised by the leader just because he hangs out with Dacheng every day.

This is simply an anecdote.

If it is said that Xiaoliuzi hooked up with Dacheng to dig holes everywhere, Yunshang still believed it, but if it was said that the two of them studied together and made progress together, Yunshang would not believe it to death.

If Little Six could take the initiative to study, he would have gone to university in the first place, so why would he need to be a soldier after graduating from high school?

Yunshang pinched Qiuqiu's swollen belly,

Then he said, "Auntie, have you seen my grandpa and my grandma?"

"Fenyang's grandpa and grandma?" Seeing Yunshang nodding, Lin Dani smiled and said, "I see, the house was chaotic yesterday, and I didn't say a few words to your grandma. No, I just wanted to ask Your grandpa and grandma's whereabouts..."

"My grandma and the others live in the courtyard, and they say it's clean." Yunshang pointed to the bundle on the bed, "I also live with my grandma and the others these days, and I'm here to pick up clothes."

Lin Dani looked at the lively living room, but couldn't stay still any longer. She handed her fat son to Bai Qingming, picked up the burden on the bed, turned around and walked downstairs.

"Come on, there are quite a few guests at home right now, I'll take you to your grandma's side, and talk to your grandma by the way."

Seeing that Lin Dani left as soon as she said, Yun Shang didn't even want her son, so she quickly changed her shoes, picked up the small leather bag on the table, and chased after her.

Lin Wenlan was talking with the guests in the living room, Yun Shang hurriedly greeted Lin Wenlan, and followed Lin Dani out of the house.

"Xiaoqi, why did I hear your mother say yesterday that you are going to work in the library now. How is it? Did you get used to it just now?"

As soon as she went out, Lin Dani asked about Yun Shang's work in the new unit. Yun Shang smiled and said, "It's pretty good, the work is not hard, and I have time to read."

"Are your colleagues easy to get along with? Is anyone bullying you?" Lin Dani was worried about whether some old employees would bully Yunshang, who was a newcomer, and deliberately pushed all the work into Yunshang's hands.

Back then, when she first arrived at the unit after graduating from university, she was squeezed out by a few lesbians in the office for a long time.

It wasn't until she married He Zhonghua, that she was no longer a divorced single woman, that those people had a good face for her.

Yunshang has just been ill, her body has not recovered well, and she is so thin that she can be bullied at first glance. Colleagues in the library should not ask Yunshang to do any heavy work.

Yunshang has always reported good news but not bad news to her family. Naturally, she would not say that she was rejected by everyone as soon as she passed by. She said in a calm and authentic tone, "My colleagues are very enthusiastic, and no one bullies me. Besides, our book The museum is not big, there are only two floors, and there is not much work."

Even if I have a job, I'm not a soft persimmon, and it's impossible for people to really bully me.

Lin Dani breathed a sigh of relief, and taught Yun Shang her experience as someone who had been there, "That's good. There must be an adaptation period for changing to a new unit. I used to adapt to the unit for a whole year."

The courtyard house was not too far from the military compound, and the two of them talked all the way, and arrived soon.

Gu Shinian was digging the ground with Shuanzi in the small garden, preparing to get some green plants in the yard, when he looked up, he saw Yun Shang and Lin Dani walking in.

Chapter 704

"A-Shang, have you found out why those two people targeted you?" Gu Shinian put the shovel into Shuan Zi's hand, strode over, took a drink from the cup Yun Shang handed over, and asked.

"I got it clear. Zhong Hongying originally wanted to arrange for her niece to enter the library, and she had already agreed with the leader, but the higher-ups suddenly arranged for me. The job that Zhong Hongying's niece promised was gone, and she felt uncomfortable. Pick things up."

Gu Shinian frowned, his eyes fell on Yun Shang's face, and he asked, "A Chang, what are you planning?"

"No plan." Yunshang pointed to the stool beside her and motioned for Gu Shinian to sit down and talk, "Didn't Erya say that the college entrance examination will resume in the second half of the year? It's already July, and I can stay in the library for three or four at most months, there is no need to argue with those people."

Complaining with those people consumes brain cells and affects emotions, which is really useless.

Besides, this job is a transitional period for her, and she doesn't need to keep in mind those strangers who are destined to be passers-by.

If you don't distract yourself, you won't be really angry, and you won't bother to make friends with those people.

Seeing that Yunshang was thinking about it, and he didn't put his mind on those trivial matters, Gu Shinian's heart fell, and he rubbed Yunshang's head with a smile, "Ah Chang, it's good for you to think like this, we can't do it." Because other people are in a bad mood."

Yunshang nodded, and nodded her chin towards Shuanzi who was working hard, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother, I only live in this yard for a few days, what are you and Shuanzi talking about?"

"Get you a small flower pond." Seeing Yun Shang looking over in surprise, Gu Shinian moved out a few flower and tree branches with roots from under the eaves, with a smile on his lips, "Don't you want to be admitted to Beijing University? Capital University is near, and you can use this place as a foothold after you go to school."

The little girl in his family used to pay more attention to being alone, but in this day and age, the little girl's life is too rough, so he has to try to make the little girl's life as refined as possible.

Although it is still rough to plant some flowers in the yard, but in this era, this is already a very delicate life.

Looking at the row of vigorous flower and tree roots in front of her, Yun Shang also became interested, and squatted beside Gu Shinian, identifying the species of flowers and trees one by one.

Gu Shinian turned his head and looked at Yunshang with inclusive and doting eyes, mixed with a little distress, "I and Shuanzi exchanged food with others, don't you have fruit trees there, I will help you next time I come back Move two fruit trees."

Yun Shang heard the meaning in Gu Shinian's voice, and asked calmly, "Are you going back to Yicheng?"

Gu Shinian responded, and said with great reluctance, "A-Shang, I just took a few days off this time, and I have to catch the train back at night."

Yun Chang was silent for a while, and asked in a low voice, "What time is the train, I will see you off."

"I made an agreement with Qingzheng to go with him at night. Don't go out. It's too late and it's not safe outside. Don't let me worry about you."

Seeing that Yunshang lowered her head and said nothing, her mood was clearly depressed, a smile flashed in Gu Shinian's eyes, and he changed the subject and said, "A Chang, Uncle Jin and Uncle Li also came to attend the wedding yesterday. I heard from Uncle Jin Meaning, next month you may be assigned a task, remember to see a doctor then."

"I see. You should also pay attention to safety when you go back to the mission, and don't always get hurt."

While the two were talking together, Shuanzi turned over the ground alone, and even dug a few holes around the flower bed.

Yun Chang hurriedly helped Gu Shinian move the branches of the flowers and trees over there, and called Xiao Hei Wa to come out to help with watering. Several people worked for half an hour, and finally planted all the flowers and trees.

Gu Shinian had to catch the train at night, so he didn't stay here for dinner, he greeted the old couple and Lin Dani, and hurried back to the courtyard to pack his things.

Yun Chang hadn't exercised for a long time, and followed a few people to work in the yard for a while, sweating all over, and after running to take a bath, her body was rare and relaxed, and even her face was rosier than before.

The old lady looked at Yunshang's flushed face, blinked her eyes, and said surprisingly, "Shangnan,

Why does grandma think that you are more energetic when you work than if you don't work, or you get up early every day to sweep the yard and alleys to see if you can feel better. "

It's over, isn't Chang Nan suffering from the disease of wealth?

Why do you look so comfortable after work!

Yun Shang: "... " This is really a kiss!

Yun Chang was speechless for a long time, and finally shook her head resolutely and refused, "Grandma, I'm under the sun." In fact, I was quite tired after finishing the work, and I was not energetic at all.

Lin Dani was amused by the old lady's words, and she laughed for a long time before she opened her mouth to help Yun Shang, "Aunt Yun, just ask Chang Nan to take you to the street more, and you don't need Shang Nan to sweep the streets outside." Come on, there are people who sweep the streets."

"Oh, it's so hot today, the department store is crowded with people, and you can't even see the counter, so we don't need to spend money to make trouble."

Thinking of how excited I was to follow my granddaughter to the largest department store in the capital, and when I took it in, I was almost squeezed into a photo, and almost suffocated from the heat, the old lady shook her head like a rattle, with a look of fear on her face. .

This city is good, there are tall buildings, mansions, several department stores, and the Friendship Store that sells things for foreign devils. It seems quite lively, but it's not as comfortable as the countryside.

In the countryside, big guys can sit and chat in any field, or roll around on the spacious floor.

But in the city, if you want to visit a department store on Sunday, you can't squeeze in. The place with a bigger butt is too aggrieved.

How could Yun Chang not know that the old lady had left a shadow in her heart when she was shopping, she smiled helplessly, and explained to the old lady, "Grandma, the last time we went out, it happened to be Sunday, and it happened to be a holiday. In the department store There are only so many people involved in activities, and it's usually similar to our Fenyang Department Store, not crowded."

Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa also took a shower and came in. Hearing Yun Shang's words, Xiao Hei Wa nodded in agreement, "Grandma, my sister didn't coax you, I went out to play yesterday, and there are not many people in the department store! Grandma, if you really don't want to go shopping, just tell me what you want to buy, and I'll run errands for you."

Shuanzi patted Xiao Heiwa angrily, sat down beside Yunshang, and said with a smile, "Grandma, my sister just said in the yard that I will take you to see Tiananmen Square tomorrow, and then I will take you shopping again." Go around the Friendship Store, these two places are designated not to be crowded."

As soon as the words were finished, the old lady's eyes lit up, and even the old man forgot to smoke the pipe in his hand, and stared at Yunshang excitedly.

"Shangnan, is what Shuanzi said true? Can your grandma and I visit the place where the leader lives?"

Chapter 705: College Entrance Examination

In the next few days, Yunshang took the old couple, Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa all over the capital when she was not at work. Except that she couldn't eat meat, everyone owed her a lot in terms of food in order to accommodate her. One point aside, this trip to the capital couldn't have been more satisfying.

The family stayed in the capital for half a month. In the end, the old lady really missed her family. Even though Yunshang's mouth was worn out, she didn't stay any longer. The family packed up and returned to Fenyang before August.

Yunshang's life suddenly became normal, she got up early every day, walked around the training ground, went to the library to get off work after breakfast, and didn't stay outside after work, always coming back to accompany Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan as soon as possible Have a meal.

It's just that after Bai Qingyue got married, there was one less person at the dinner table every day. Whenever Yun Chang saw the empty chair opposite, she was always in a bad mood.

Yun Chang was in a bad mood, and the performance of Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan was even more obvious.

Lin Wenlan was a little better, but only inadvertently called "Qingyue" at home, and when no one answered, she realized that Bai Qingyue was married, and from now on she would live in the Han's family and become someone else's daughter-in-law.

Whenever this happens, Lin Wenlan will always sigh a few times, and then talk to Yun Shang about Bai Qingyue's life in the Han family, worrying whether she will not be used to the Han family's food, and whether she will not get along with the Han family , Worried about whether she would be bullied and so on.

As for Bai Yancheng, his performance was much more exaggerated than that of Lin Wenlan. Yun Shang saw him sneaking into Bai Qingyue's room several times and sitting there for a long time. When eating, seeing the empty chair opposite, she would sigh and be unable to eat. A few times, Bai Yancheng deliberately took a long way to pass by the door of Han's house when he was going to work, just to see if he could meet Bai Qingyue, and to know how Bai Qingyue was doing in Han's house...

Seeing Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan's distraught appearance every day, Yun Shang felt distressed, but strangely felt a little bit interested in watching the theater, and even Bai Qingyue felt much better after getting married.

Life has returned to calm again, and Yunshang's performance in the unit is also mediocre. She neither stands out nor backs down in everything. Even if she is rejected by her old comrades, she has no intention of fighting back with anger. After doing things well every day, I just hid in a corner with a book and read it slowly, without any intention of pleasing everyone and blending into the group.

Yun Chang refused to accept the move, and let the group of people punch the cotton, hanging there, and the uncomfortable one became himself.

Gradually, everyone also felt that this kind of one-sided rivalry was really boring. Moreover, Yunshang didn't seem to be what Zhong Hongying said, she snatched Zhong Hongying's niece's job by flattering her.

Just such a person who can't tell a fart with three sticks, who can't say a word in a dull day, will go to flatter?

Isn't this nonsense!

After a long time, the weird atmosphere in the library dissipated in such a silent manner, not even a single wave was set off.

In September, Lao Jin arranged two consecutive jobs for Yunshang that needed to go to Hong Kong City. With the help of An Guosheng, Yunshang went to see a doctor several times, and the mental pressure eased a lot. It also has such a trace of freshness.

Just when Yunshang finished reporting to Lao Jin, rested at home for two days, and was about to go to work, the documents for resuming the college entrance examination came down.

At that time, Yunshang was on her way to work. When she heard the radio, she didn't even go to work. She immediately turned around and went home, preparing to study hard and take the college entrance examination in two months.

For Yunshang's decision, all members of the Bai family expressed their support, and even the old man mobilized the four grandsons in the family except Bai Qingming to ask everyone to ask people they knew to get useful information for Yunshang from major cities.

Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan couldn't care less about Bai Qingyue at the moment, and the couple circled around Yunshang every day, fearing that what they didn't do enough would affect Yunshang's study.

Fortunately, Bai Qingyue also decided to take the college entrance examination. When Han Chen was not at home when he returned to the army, he simply moved back to Bai's house and studied with Yun Shang every day.

It's just that at this moment Yunshang looked at a table full of study materials,

I feel like my brain is getting bigger.

She had read many novels in her previous life. In the novels, the students who took the first college entrance examination could be admitted to the best universities by reading only one "Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry Series". But when they came to her, why did they have so many review materials to read? Woolen cloth?

However, although there are a lot of these materials, they are all the wishes of the family members. Yun Shang and Bai Qingyue don't want to favor one another, so they can only bite the bullet and read each one one by one.

Later, when calling Gu Shinian and Wu Xiang, Yunshang inevitably complained.

Gu Shinian was very distressed when he heard that Yun Shang had worked so hard, and in the end he could only comfort her to persevere for two months, and after these two months, she would be able to rest well.

On the other hand, Wu Xiang criticized Yunshang over the phone, saying that there are people all over the country who lack study materials, and Yunshang has collected so many materials by herself, not to mention having fun, and dare to complain to her that the materials are too There are many, I can't finish reading before the college entrance examination.

I just don't know what is good or bad!

In the end, he complained that Yunshang was not complaining to her, but showing off to her in different ways. His conscience is too bad.

Yun Shang is not a fuel-efficient lamp either, after hearing Wu Xiang's complaints, she immediately sent Wu Xiang a copy of the same information on her desk.

Anyway, Wu Xiang is also going to take the college entrance examination. Since she complains that she doesn't know the blessings in the blessings, she will divide the blessings into half for Wu Xiang, so that Wu Xiang can also enjoy the blessings.

When Wu Xiang received a big bag full of study materials and various papers, he was so shocked that he couldn't close his mouth.

Is Yun Shang taking revenge on her?

This information is too much!

However, thinking that Yun Shang had also read so many materials, Wu Xiang couldn't sit still, and happily carried the big bag back to the dormitory, preparing to work overtime and study.

She is preparing to take the university entrance examination in Beijing, and she will be an alumni with Yunshang in the future. If you don't study hard, what will you do if you are left far behind by Yunshang.

The days passed day by day, and December entered in a blink of an eye. When the first snow fell, Yun Chang walked into the examination room full of energy, wearing a thick cotton coat.

On this day, Bai Yancheng did not go to work for the first time, and together with Lin Wenlan sent the two daughters into the examination room, and then, like the parents of later generations, insisted on waiting outside the examination room for the two daughters to come out in the cold weather .

Gu Shinian has no holidays this year, so he can't go back to accompany Yunshang for the exam, so he can only cheer Yunshang up over the phone.

Yun Chang's mentality is quite relaxed, and the knowledge points on the test papers are all reviewed by her on weekdays. After several tests, she answered the questions very smoothly.

Chapter 706: Selling a job

After the exam, Yunshang and Bai Qingyue got the answers right, and felt that she did well in the exam, and her nerves were relieved after two months of tension.

Lin Wenlan watched Yun Shang drink the last sip of white fungus soup, and asked in a deliberative manner, "Xiaoqi, you won't be able to go to work after this year, what do you plan to do with the library work, does anyone in your unit want to buy it?"

"Yes." Yun Shang wiped her mouth with a handkerchief, and said seriously, "Comrade Zhong Hongying from our unit wants to buy a job for her niece. I'll ask her later to see if she wants to buy it."

After jumping up and down as a shit stick for so long, it's time to charge interest.

She swallowed her anger and raised the sheep for so long, isn't it just to get a handful of thick wool!

"That's fine, you can just go to work for a few more days, and wait until the notice arrives to discuss this matter."

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, her mouth shrunk, and she acted coquettishly in a soft voice, "Mom, the Chinese New Year will be one month away, and the school will definitely not start until the end of the year. I can't just sell my job quota now and rest at home for a few days?"

It is very tiring to study hard for two months, and it is so cold, I need to recuperate at home with my small body, and I need to make up for it.

Lin Wenlan was speechless for a while, and finally squeezed the corner of Yunshang's slightly drooping mouth, and said dumbfoundedly, "Why did Yicheng raise a whole body of lazy bones after returning? You can do the math yourself. You have been working in the library for half a year. How many days did An Ansheng work? This is the last few days, and you are starting to be lazy again?"

This girl is good in everything, but she has a lazy body and a delicate temper. When she gets married in the future, there is no elder around to watch her. How can she live a small life.

Yun Chang didn't know that Lin Wenlan was thinking so far, and she really counted her working hours with her fingers.

Well, counting from the day when she reported to the library, she first asked for leave to send Bai Qingyue out of the house, and then Lao Jin arranged a task to go to Hong Kong City. She didn't go to work for 40 days. After half a month's vacation, I also worked for four months.

Thinking about it now, she was really decadent, she didn't look like she was going to work at all.

Yun Chang blushed, and didn't say that she would sell her job now. She lowered her eyes and asked Lin Wenlan in a low voice, "Mom, it's going to be the twelfth lunar month, and it's cold. You can buy some thick clothes."

In such a cold day, she has to go to work so early every day, so she has to wear thicker clothes and protect herself well.

Otherwise, the one who suffers is himself.

This is the first time that Yunshang invited Lin Wenlan to the streets after returning from Yicheng. Although the purpose is to spend the money in Lin Wenlan's pocket, Yunshang's temper is far more lively than when she first came back. Lin Wenlan can only see it happily. Son, how can I pierce Yun Shang's little thoughts.

Besides, Bai Qing, the first four children in the family, is settling down in the southern military region, and they don't come back once a year. Bai Qingyue is also married, and she will become the daughter-in-law of the Han family in the future, so she can't stay at her mother's house all the time. The little six is just a fool, he's always having fun when he goes out, he doesn't even remember to go home, and now only the youngest daughter stays with Lin Wenlan at home, her mouth is sweet and caring, Lin Wenlan and Bai Yancheng can't hold it in their hands, it hurts. Well, that's really picking the stars and not giving the moon, so what's the point of spending some money?

Seeing Lin Wenlan counting her closet with great interest, and kept talking about what things she was missing, and what to buy for her when she was shopping, Yun Shang helplessly covered her head and stopped talking.

Thanks to the fact that she has always been an adult at heart, the three views have already been formed, otherwise she would have been spoiled by her parents in this life long ago.

After resting at home for two days, Yun Shang wore the new padded jacket that Lin Wenlan had just bought, a brand new hat and gloves, and went out to work again full of energy.

After sitting on the bus for half an hour, I got off diagonally opposite the library, and then ran into the library with my back bent against the whistling northwest wind.

Zhong Hongying was arranging books in the library area. When she saw Yunshang came back to work, her eyes slanted, and she said in a strange way, "Hey! Isn't this a prospective college student in our unit! Why, the exam is not good,

Are you going to go to work safely in the future? "

Yun Chang raised her hand to wipe off the snow that had just fallen from her hat, then took off her gloves and scarf, and glanced at Zhong Hongying sideways, with a calm expression on her face and said calmly, "Comrade Zhong just joked, I have to stand on the last shift no matter what. Gang isn't it?"

This was the first time that Yunshang confronted Zhong Hongying tit-for-tat. Not only was Zhong Hongying not angry, but she felt a little honored in her heart: this little girl finally saw her in her eyes! Finally don't treat her like air!

Seeing Zhong Hongying froze there without answering, Yun Chang turned her gaze and said to the other two, "I guess I will go out to school after the next year, go back and ask your relatives and friends to see if anyone wants a job in the library. If someone wants it, I won't pass it on to outsiders."

It's troublesome to find fat sheep outside, so it's better to sharpen your knife and pick the fattest sheep at home.

"You don't work here anymore!?"

"Comrade Xiaoyun has been admitted to university?"

The two lesbians asked in unison, and before Yunshang could reply, Zhong Hongying almost jumped up after reacting, and jumped over in a few steps, staring at Yunshang, and asked excitedly, "Really! You Are you telling the truth? Do you really want to sell this job index? I want it! How much is it, I want it!"

A smile flashed across Yunshang's eyes, but she deliberately lowered her face, looked at Zhong Hongying coldly and said, "What is Comrade Zhong saying? I'm not a person who doesn't know what to do. Comrade Yang and Comrade Li usually take good care of me. For me, this work index is naturally followed by the two comrades first, and I took what Comrade Zhong said just now as a joke."

After hearing this, Zhong Hongying was angry and regretful, and she wanted to ridicule Yun Shang a few words as before, but now she asked Yun Shang again, so she could only suppress her anger and blushed to speak nicely to Yun Shang.

How can Yun Shang talk to Zhong Hongying, let her talk badly, anyway, just one sentence: this job must first be followed by people who are good to her from the unit, if no one wants it, she will go out and sell it to outsiders. She is Zhong Hongying!

Unless, Zhong Hongying can find a reason to persuade her.

Now that we've talked about it, how can Zhong Hongying not know that Yun Shang is a lion who is opening his mouth, and is going to kill her fiercely.

Give it up if you want to, but thinking about the situation of your niece, you really can't bear to part with this leisurely and decent job. After fidgeting all morning, Zhong Hongying didn't even have time to eat, stepped her bicycle out of the speed of a jeep, and hurried back to her mother's house to discuss about buying a job.

Yun Shang was very satisfied with Zhong Hongying's performance, sat by the stove, happily ate the love lunch brought by Lin Wenlan, and waited for Zhong Hongying's good news.

Chapter 707: Slaughtering the Fat Sheep

Zhong Hongying told her natal family about the matter, and sure enough, everyone in her natal family was tempted. Everyone asked Zhong Hongying to speak nice words to Yunshang, to improve relationships, and it would be best to spend two to three hundred yuan to get the job.

Hearing what her natal family took for granted, Zhong Hongying's head exploded, she dropped her chopsticks, and said unexpectedly, "What are you thinking! This is a regular job in the library! In the first half of the year, this job will cost 600 yuan. Now that the college entrance examination is resumed, you still want to spend 300 yuan to buy a job in the library? Isn't this a dream!"

"What's the matter? It's not okay to have a relationship with that little girl surnamed Bai?"

Mrs. Zhong Hongying asked with a straight face. Seeing Zhong Hongying nodded, she pouted her lips and said, "Three hundred yuan is a lot, and it is worth your brother's salary for a year. You can talk to that little girl and see if you can get the work done first." Get it."

What a brain a little girl can have. Say a few good words to make you happy, first get the job into your hands, and whether or not you will be paid when the work is done, and how much you will be paid, is up to their family to decide.

Zhong Hongying was so aggrieved that she couldn't swallow the dry corn bread in her mouth. She didn't even have time to eat at noon. Attention to coaxing others to work.

Do you really think that girl is a fool?

Even if Bai Yunshang is a fool, there must be a smart person in that person's family. If this kind of coaxing a child can coax Bai Yunshang, is it possible that he can also coax Bai Yunshang's family?

Zhong Hongying took a deep breath, tried to slow down her tone, and analyzed the current situation with her natal family:

"...Everyone in our unit knows that Bai Yunshang wants to transfer his job in the past year, and everyone is focusing on this job indicator. The relationship between me and Bai Yunshang was weak before. If there are not many people in our family If you get some money, the job assignment will be passed on to the little girl to an acquaintance."

Brother Zhong Hongying swallowed the steamed bread in his mouth in a few gulps, took another sip from the bowl, hiccupped, and said lazily, "Hongying, how much more money do you mean? With only 20 or 30 yuan salary, the household expenses are not enough, where can I find money?"

"Then what should we do about this matter?" Zhong Hongying sneered at her elder brother with a dark face, and then said, "You want to work if you don't want to pay, what good thing do you want to do? When you ran this job in the first half of the year, it cost 600 yuan. Now that the college entrance examination has resumed, those who have candidates at home all want to curry favor with the comrades in the library and get some review materials for the candidates at home.

Let me tell you the truth, this job can't be taken for less than 1,000 yuan. If you offer 300 yuan, Bai Yunshang will sell the job to someone else without even looking at it. "

"The work of reading books is so popular now?" Mrs. Zhong was startled and subconsciously asked.

"That's not true. Don't think that those salesmen are popular on weekdays, but when they go out, the people from the cadre's family really look down on them. Why? Don't you think the salesman is tacky and have no ink in their stomachs?"

If you look at those little girls who work in the library, they are all gentle and cultured when they go out, and they look educated. Those who have enough food and clothing at home like such little girls. What is it, what are the genes, the children raised in the future will have quality, and they will also study. "

The whole family was taken aback by Zhong Hongying's words, but after thinking about it carefully, there was some truth to what Zhong Hongying said.

Those who want to find a salesperson in a department store are mostly people who are living a tight life. Even if such a family gets married, their life may not be easy.

These days, the only people who can go in and out of the library frequently are those cultural people who have enough food and clothing at home, and who have money and leisure, except for the errands who help the work unit buy books and order newspapers.

Cultural people are good! Cultural people are thin-skinned, love face, and don't say anything even if they suffer a loss. Isn't such a family a good place to marry a daughter!

This job can be bought!

Seeing that her eldest brother and old lady's expressions had softened, Zhong Hongying knew that there was something to this matter, and she could continue to work hard on it.

"Mother, big brother, if our Mao Ya leaves the library for work,

I usually read more books, I have ink in my stomach, and I may find a good family in the future. Even if you can't find a suitable one for a while, but the work in the library is more popular now, you can take this opportunity to meet someone with better conditions.

Besides, the salary in our unit is not low, and the work is still idle. Maoya can earn back the thousand yuan after working for two years. What are you worried about? "

Under Zhong Hongying's earnest persuasion, the natal family finally decided to spend a lot of money to buy Yunshang's work quota.

Of course, her natal family couldn't afford so much money for the time being, so Zhong Hongying inevitably had to borrow a few hundred yuan out of her own pocket. After two days of hard work, she finally managed to scrape together a thousand yuan.

While Zhong Hongying and his family were busy collecting money, other comrades in the library also took action.

After all, the work in the library in the past two months is really popular, such a good job, if there are idlers at home, of course they want to take it.

Therefore, under the secret promotion of Yunshang, a group of people competed for this work target in private.

In addition to comparing each other to raise more money, they also privately tried to get in touch with Yun Shang in order to get some favors from her.

Yun Shang is so smart, doing these small tricks in the library is just to kill Zhong Hongying, a fat sheep, so at this time, she has to do a show for Zhong Hongying.

There is no need for Yun Shang to intervene in the subsequent affairs. Zhong Hongying saw that Yun Shang was able to fight with everyone, but she was indifferent to her. Brazenly mobilized the family to collect money everywhere, trying to beat everyone in terms of money, and get this job target for my niece.

It wasn't until halfway through the twelfth lunar month that Yunshang finally let go, and her job was transferred to Zhong Hongying's niece, and she would not come to work after the new year.

So, all the comrades in the library knew that Yun Shang finally succumbed to Comrade Zhong Hongying's money offensive.

Just when everyone was secretly guessing how much Zhong Hongying spent to buy this job index, Yun Shang put a stack of tickets in front of Lin Wenlan, and raised her chin triumphantly.

"Xiao Qi, why is there so much money, where did it come from?"

"Mom, I sold my job for 1,350 yuan! It's 300 yuan more than I expected."

Lin Wenlan was taken aback, counted the thick stack of tickets, and asked in silence for a while, "Xiao Qi, tell mom the truth, who did you sell this job index to?" How can you be so deceitful?

Seeing that Lin Wenlan was about to get angry, Yun Chang quickly explained in a low voice, "Mom, I said at work that I would not go to work after the new year, and my colleagues bid in private..."

Chapter 708: Friend News

Lin Wenlan was speechless for a long time, and finally poked Yunshang's forehead helplessly, gave Yunshang the money, and returned to her room with a tired face.

When my daughter didn't talk all day long ago, she looked distressed, but now she has a lively temper and talks a lot, why did she start to have a headache again?

Yun Chang didn't know what Lin Wenlan was thinking, and the small treasury had more than a thousand dollars, and she was so happy that she even had the energy to go to work.

When the end of the new year was approaching, Yun Shang finally received the notification letter from Capital University that he had been thinking about, and Bai Qingyue also received the notification letter from Normal University.

After the old man heard the news, he was very excited to visit the courtyard. In just two hours, the news that the two sisters of the Bai family were admitted to college spread throughout the courtyard.

Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan were also overjoyed, and bought candy specially for their colleagues in the unit to eat.

After reporting the good news to Gu Shinian and Lao Yun's family, Yun Shang went to the unit to complete the handover procedures, and then stayed at home peacefully, waiting to start her college life after the Chinese New Year.

Both granddaughters of the Bai family were admitted to the university, which can be regarded as double happiness, so even if the two brothers Bai Qingzheng and Bai Qingming did not come back for the New Year, this year of the Bai family will be prosperous and full of enthusiasm.

For the first time, the old man took out his treasured ginseng wine and had a few glasses with Bai Yancheng. When he was in a good mood, he even patted the table and sang a few amazing Peking opera songs, which made Yunshang almost close his jaw.

After the old man's interest passed, Bai Yancheng took a piece of cabbage heart with his chopsticks, and then waved his hand, asking Yunshang to get the violin, and also played a section for everyone to listen to.

The Chinese New Year is to be lively.

Yunshang felt guilty because her family followed her to be a vegetarian during the New Year's Eve dinner. After listening to Bai Yancheng's request, without saying a word, she took out the violin and played a cheerful and festive "Spring Festival Overture" "to cheer everyone up.

On the morning of the first day of the new year, Yun Chang received three big red envelopes when she woke up together. Thinking that she is nineteen years old now, Yun Chang's hand holding the red envelopes couldn't help but feel a little weak, and even her cheeky face turned red.

"Master, Dad, Mom, I'm nineteen today, and I'm already earning a salary. It would be a joke if I collected lucky money."

Although she really wanted to accept these red envelopes, but thinking about the consequences of spreading this matter, Yun Chang didn't have the courage to challenge the bottom line.

After all, the face is his own, and it's not worth it to lose face for a little New Year's money.

The old man got up early in the morning and was about to go upstairs to catch up on sleep. Seeing Yun Chang looking at the big red envelope with a tangled face, wanting to accept it but not daring to accept it, he couldn't help laughing.

"Take it, our girl will get the New Year's money before she gets married. Besides, with the master here, who dares to laugh at my granddaughter."

Alas, it's not fun when the child grows up. How cute he was when he was a child, the people who followed him to rob a whole yard didn't know how to blush, but now they are bothering to collect the New Year's money.

Yun Chang didn't know that the old man was complaining about her, so he took the red envelopes according to the old man's wishes, and happily went upstairs to check his small warehouse.

Bai Qingyue went back to her natal home alone on the second day of junior high school. Han Chen had no holidays, so he could only call the elders from the Bai family to pay New Year's greetings.

The members of the Bai family, all of whom are soldiers, naturally wouldn't offend Han Chen over such trivial matters, but they insisted on keeping Bai Qingyue at home for a few days on the pretext that Han Chen was not at home.

On the seventh day of the lunar new year, Yun Chang came back from a walk with the old man, and received a call from Wu Xiang as soon as he entered the house.

"Yunshang! I passed the exam! I also passed the exam..."

Hearing Wu Xiang's voice that was so excited that it was distorted, Yunshang's eyes lit up and asked quickly, "Which school! Which school did you get admitted to?"

"Normal University! Capital Normal University! I just received the notice today." At the end of Wu Xiang's speech, the ending sound was filled with tears, "Yunshang, thank you, if it weren't for the materials you sent me, I would definitely I couldn't get into the capital. It's a pity that I didn't get into the capital university, so I can't be your classmate."

"Normal University is also very good. My sister was admitted to this school. It just so happens that you can be my sister's classmate.

Wu Xiang didn't come to the capital to participate in the cultural activities of the whole army last time, nor did he meet Bai Qingyue, but knowing that Yunshang's sister was a classmate with her, he immediately had support in his heart.

After the two finished talking about their recent situation on the phone, Wu Xiang talked about the news of other people in the group.

"...Only four members of the group took the college entrance examination this time. This guy Wen Chengjie also took the exam this time. It turned out that he didn't know how to do most of the questions, and handed in the papers before finishing the questions. He also said that he was not the material. , from now on, listen to the words of the family members, stay in the army with peace of mind, and stop messing around, "

"Yao Ke stayed in the army wholeheartedly. She was commended again a year ago. The political commissar and regimental leader valued her quite a bit. They probably trained her to go into administration..."

"I don't even know what to say about Ye Li. She talks loudly on weekdays, and her goals are very clear. Every day, she shouts that she is not in a relationship and wants to make a career in the army. As a result, I am preparing for the college entrance examination." I didn't pay attention in those two months, and Ye Li secretly had sex..."

Yun Chang froze for a moment, "Who is she dating, do you think it's reliable?"

"A small officer in the regiment."

Wu Xiang's tone sounded like he hated iron for being weak, "I only found out when I came back late from practicing two days ago, and I heard Ye Li talking to someone near the flower bed near the dormitory. Where the two of them stood... ..I'm not afraid of being punished if someone sees it! By the way, that person is from your musical instrument team. He often hangs out with Wen Chengjie, and his character should be passable."

Being able to mix with Wen Chengjie shows that there is no major problem in character.

Besides, Ye Li has encountered disgusting things like Guan Jincheng and Wang Zhenhua plotting against her, this time the target is better than those two scumbags no matter how unreliable they are.

The relationship between Yun Shang and Ye Li has always been indifferent, and now she just listened to Ye Li's gossip as gossip, and didn't take it seriously.

Feeling that the time is almost up, when Yunshang was about to hang up the phone, Wu Xiang squeaked and revealed a piece of news, and Yunshang's originally good mood sank to the bottom of the valley.

Gu Shinian, this unscrupulous person, actually attracts others and attracts lesbians to pursue him!

Isn't this blatantly poaching her corner?

Yun Shang instantly became lemon essence.

Sensing that Yunshang's mood was wrong, Wu Xiang said timidly, "Yunshang, someone in the regiment asked me about the situation between you and Company Commander Gu two days ago. It seems that someone said in private that you and Company Commander Gu are breaking up. It's..."

Hearing this, Yun Chang's mind instantly sobered up.

Yes, why is she angry?

She is still breaking up with Gu Shinian, and the two haven't reconciled yet.

Chapter 709 Sao operation

After Wu Xiang put down the phone, he looked at Gu Shinian who was standing beside him with a strange expression, wondering what kind of medicine this man was selling in his gourd.

Ever since she was a child, she has seen someone who poured dirty water on other people's heads after having a dispute, but she has never seen someone who poured dirty water on her own head.

What kind of showmanship is Gu Shinian doing?

"Gu Lianchang, I told Yun Shang as you taught me."

Gu Shinian turned his head, glanced at the phone, and asked Wu Xiangdao, "Did A-Shang say anything?"

"It's not that you don't know Yunshang's temperament. She will definitely not talk nonsense outside about things related to you."

Seeing that Gu Shinian was about to leave, Wu Xiang chased him two more steps and asked, "Company Commander Gu, after I finished speaking, Yunshang seemed a little angry. What's going on with you two? Didn't you both make love reports?" ? Do you not want to date Yunshang anymore, so you let me make up nonsense to lie to Yunshang so that she will break up with you on her own initiative?"

Otherwise, why did you find me and let me act as a bad guy and inform Yunshang, saying that there are several lesbians in the military division who want to hook you up?

Gu Shinian paused for a moment, with a faint joy on his face, "Ah Chang is really angry?"

Wu Xiang: "..."

Is this man mentally ill?

He was quite happy to make the object angry.

Wu Xiang's face turned dark, and he was very upset for Yunshang, "I'm a little unhappy anyway, what's the matter with you two? If you don't tell the truth, I'll call Yunshang to expose you immediately!"

"There are indeed two lesbians who always come to me recently, and those words are not deceiving A-Shang." After finishing speaking, Gu Shinian paused, and then continued, "A-Shang has been having a little trouble with me recently. , I have to find something to divert A-Shang's attention."

If there is no sense of crisis, his little girl will only take him less and less seriously.

Besides, if there is no way to stimulate Yunshang, the situation of the two of them will only continue in such a tepid way.

Yunshang is recovering well now, he has to push Yunshang at the right time, and he can't let her hide in the shell all the time.

Wu Xiang didn't know the inside story, and was stunned by the reason Gu Shinian gave.

Can you still do this?

Because the subject lost his temper, he poured dirty water on his head to divert the subject's attention?

You coax ghosts!

In the future, if my partner dares to flirt with other lesbians during my temper tantrum, I can tear him alive and divert my attention, I am a ghost!

Both of them couldn't get rid of their anger when they were beaten together!

"Thank you for today's matter. When we return to the capital, I will treat you to dinner with A-shang."

Gu Shinian was in a hurry to go back and wait for Yunshang's call, and strode away after speaking, leaving only Wu Xiang standing where he was, confused and confused about the situation.

...

The capital, the Bai family.

The old man made a cup of tea, took a sip happily, took a newspaper and went into the study.

After Yunshang answered the phone, her beaming face drooped, her eyes were fixed on the phone, as if she could stare at a flower.

She knew that Gu Shinian was dishonest!

That bewitching face unexpectedly attracted the little girls who ran to the Tiger Company's garrison to look for him.

Yun Chang closed her eyes, took a few deep breaths, and kept telling herself in her heart:

Don't be angry, don't be angry, can't be angry... I, don't be angry, what a ghost! I'm so pissed off! I want to call and scold Gu Shinian to death!

Gu Shinian stepped on the accelerator to the bottom, returned to the company almost at the speed of a sports car, and ran to the office in a hurry.

As soon as he turned into the corridor, he heard the phone ringing. Seeing Kong Changzheng ready to answer the phone from a distance, Gu Shinian's face darkened, and he ran over a few steps, snatched the phone from Kong Changzheng, and pushed him out of the office, and then closed the door, a series of actions were done in one go, simply and swiftly.

Kong Changzheng was pushed out by Gu Shinian before he could react. He raised his hand and pushed the door of the office, only to find that the door was closed from the inside, so he jumped up and down and cursed outside, "Old Gu, you bastard!" Son! My clothes are still inside! You want to freeze me to death..."

Before he finished speaking, a ball of green things flew out of the window and landed on the green plants beside the corridor.

Kong Changzheng picked it up and saw that it was his cotton jacket, his face turned green with anger.

"Okay, Gu Shinian! Just wait, I'll have to sue your kid later..."

Gu Shinian couldn't care less about talking to Kong Changzheng at this moment, listening to Yun Shang's angry voice on the other end of the phone, he couldn't hide the smile on his face.

"Gu Shinian, I heard that lesbians always come to Tiger Company to look for you recently, is it true?"

The corners of Gu Shinian's lips curled up, "...I said that no matter where I go recently, I can meet familiar lesbians."

Yun Shang: "... Shameless!

Yun Shang cursed secretly, and then started talking nonsense sourly, "Gu Shinian, I heard you told people everywhere that we broke up!"

"Nothing!"

Gu Shinian was taken aback, and quickly denied it. After rubbing the center of his brows with a headache, he lowered his voice and continued, "Ah Chang, don't talk nonsense about these words, let Uncle Bai know, and he will trouble me again."

"Then tell me what happened to those lesbians who came to you."

"A Chang, when you said you were going home, you went home, and you seldom called me. You said that you got married at the end of last year and there was no news. You said that there was no problem between us. Do you think others will believe it? "

When I applied for housing, everyone in the Tiger Company knew that we were going to get married. After you returned to the capital, news of our breakup spread. "

"So there are lesbians running to find you?" Yun Shang continued to ask.

Gu Shinian responded, and continued, "I just said that the lesbians from the health team are always hanging around outside recently! Ah Chang, don't worry, I will definitely stay away from lesbians in the future."

The access control in the company should also be tightened, otherwise the small vinegar jar at home would be easily knocked over.

Gu Shinian's attitude was good, Yun Shang felt more at ease, and her voice softened unconsciously, "Second Brother Gu, I will start school in ten days or so, have you had any vacation recently?"

It was the first time in two lives that she was going to college, and it would be a pity if Gu Shinian didn't come to send her to school.

Gu Shinian glanced at the calendar, and sighed secretly, "A Chang, the second brother will be busy soon, and I may not have time to go back to take you to school..."

Hearing Yun Shang's breath on the other end of the phone, Gu Shinian immediately changed the subject and asked, "A Chang, you have been admitted to university, do you want to come back and have a look? There are many people in the art troupe who miss you." The key is I miss you too.

I have to admit that when Gu Shinian said this, Yun Chang's heart was moved instantly.

When she left Yicheng in a hurry, she didn't say goodbye to the people in the group, especially Guan Min, who had high expectations for her at the beginning, but when she suddenly fell ill and left, Guan Min was the most disappointed and regretful.

Of course, the most important thing is that after going back this time, she can still go around the Tiger Company and swear her sovereignty. rebirth sixty good times

Chapter 710 Returning to Yicheng

When Yunshang got off the train, it was already six o'clock in the afternoon. Gu Shinian didn't dare to waste time, and told Yunshang to sit down. The car quickly drove out of Yicheng and entered the winding and rugged mountain road. uctxt

When the two arrived at the Tiger Company's station, the sky was completely dark, and there was only a yellowish street lamp near the bungalow to guide pedestrians.

Gu Shinian carried the luggage in one hand, and held Yun Shang's shoulder with the other, protecting her and entering the door.

There should be something cooking in the kitchen. As soon as Yunshang entered the yard, she smelled a scent of rice. Her belly, which had no appetite, almost started a revolution at this moment.

"Second Brother Gu, what delicious food did you cook?" Yunshang wrinkled her nose and asked after sniffing hard.

"I cooked eight-treasure porridge for you when I went out in the afternoon. Now the time is just right, go wash your face quickly, and I will serve you porridge."

Yun Shang was feeling hungry, and she didn't even bother to talk when she heard the words. After washing her hands and feet quickly, she came out and sat at the dining table to drink porridge.

Not to mention, Gu Shinian's skill in cooking eight-treasure porridge is really good. All kinds of beans are boiled, and the bean paste is full of mouthfuls. Even the peanuts are cooked just right, soft and sweet. There is a lot of white sugar, and every bite reveals a strong sweet fragrance, not to mention how good the taste is.

Yunshang stayed on the train for three days. Although she didn't feel too tired in the sleeper, she really suffered from the food. uctxt

The food on the train tasted so-so, and Yunshang was a naughty one. There were so many taboos in recent months, and she really didn't eat much on the way.

Now I see porridge that suits my appetite, and even the appetite is bigger than usual.

Gu Shinian didn't feel hungry at first, but seeing Yun Shang's delicious food, he couldn't help but eat a big bowl with Yun Shang.

After eating, Yunshang narrowed her eyes, her eyes flicked back and forth on Gu Shinian's face, and then quietly started to talk, wanting to know about Gu Shinian's situation in recent months.

And Gu Shinian managed to abduct Yun Shang over with great difficulty, and now that she has almost recovered, it is a good opportunity to reclaim her status, so how dare she continue to die.

Immediately put down the bowl, looked at Yunshang with a sincere face, and answered Yunshang's question honestly. Looking for a peerless good man.

Yun Chang's expression became weirder the more she heard it, and finally couldn't help pinching Gu Shinian's face and twisting it half a circle, "Gu Shinian, your skin is getting thicker and thicker!"

Gu Shinian's eyes twitched when he heard a simple joke, and he had mixed feelings in his heart.

His A Chang hasn't been so peaceful and relaxed to get close to him for a long time.

Fortunately, he waited for nearly a year, and A Chang finally came back. uctxt

Gu Shinian took advantage of the situation and shook Yun Shang's hand that was pinching his face. He tried his best to smile, and said in a trembling voice, "A Chang, can I let my second brother hug you?"

This was what Gu Shinian asked Yun Shang after she woke up in the hospital.

At that time Yunshang avoided it, but now faced with the same sentence, Yunshang frowned after a brief moment of daze, and nestled into Gu Shinian's arms like a swallow entering a nest.

"Second brother, I'm sorry..."

Thinking of her previous attitude of avoiding Gu Shinian, Yun Shang blushed and apologized.

She was innocent and pitiful in the tragedy that happened to the two families in her previous life, but compared to her, Gu Shinian was the one who suffered more and suffered more.

No, at that time, Gu Shinian didn't even have time to suffer. He has to take care of her who is sick, build a new home for her, deal with the offspring of the two families, and face the tragic reality, standing on the opposite side of his only relatives.

Yun Shang still can't imagine what kind of mood Gu Shinian had in dealing with the offspring of the two families in his last life, and what kind of mood he was in to support her with a family that was no less than what his parents and relatives gave her. love and affection.

She didn't even dare to imagine how Gu Shinian, who was not yet eighteen years old at the time, negotiated with her own grandfather,

Grandpa Gu was forced to make a concession, driving that scumbag son out of the Gu family, and allowed Gu Shinian to take revenge on him a few years later.

His mother and eldest brother died indirectly at the hands of his biological father, and he took revenge on his own biological father. How painful must Gu Shinian be at that time?

Compared to Gu Shinian, how lucky she would be if she lost that memory, didn't have to live in resentment, and could slowly walk out of her self-enclosed world.

In that matter, she could resent everyone in the Gu family, even Grandpa Gu who helped Gu Shinian find her a doctor, but she could not resent Gu Shinian who gave her a new life.

What's more, when Gu Shinian finally gave up hope of escaping during the great earthquake in his previous life and tried his best to protect her, he had already paid off all the debts he owed to the Yun family and to her with his own life.

They were cleared up in their previous lives.

Gu Shinian in this life no longer owes her anything.

Gu Shinian didn't know that Yun Shang thought so much in a flash, with the warmth and soft jade in his arms, and only the joy of the rest of his life in his heart, how could he be willing to blame her.

The two embrace each other quietly, the picture is beautiful and warm, as if there has never been a gap between the two.

...

When the sky was getting dark, the sound of bugles sounded loud and clear in the mountains. Yun Chang stretched her waist and got out of bed, and found that Gu Shinian had gotten up early to go to the army. There was a small iron pot sitting on the stove in the kitchen, and breakfast was gurgling hot in it.

Yun Shang was thinking about the swearing of sovereignty, so she ate a few mouthfuls of breakfast before sneaking into the space, and took a lot of effort to pick out a cashmere jacket with bright colors and a foreign style to serve as her battle robe.

This is her reappearance in the Tiger Company after being silent for nearly a year. She must be able to meet everyone with the most energetic appearance. She must crush those little fairies who covet Gu Shinian in all aspects, and compare them to scum in every way. , so that those people would no longer dare to dig her corner with their claws.

So, when Gu Shinian didn't know, Yun Chang dressed like a movie star, wandered around the health team with her chin held high, and said in front of the two lesbians with the most uncomfortable faces After a few specious words, the faces of the two lesbians who spoke bluntly turned blue and red for a while, and then they stepped on brand new half-heeled leather shoes, turned around and left with a click.

When Gu Shinian returned to the office after training, everyone in the company knew that Company Commander Gu's little partner had come to the capital, and they went to the infirmary in a fair manner, and pissed off the two lesbians who were interested in Company Commander Gu. face!

When Kong Changzheng heard about this, he was taken aback for a moment, then he patted the table and laughed non-stop, and went to ask Gu Shinian meanly, "Did your kid clean you up too? Tell me quickly, How did you deal with you? Tsk tsk! Didn't you hear that the two lesbians in the infirmary were cleaned up and cried by your children haha..."
