Chapter 721: Behind the scenes

After talking to the old man about Bai Qingming's recent situation, Yun Shang's thoughts flew to Gu Shinian's side. Thinking that she hadn't called Gu Shinian this week, Yun Shang's small eyes glanced at the phone, and even The buttocks kept moving to the side of the coffee table.

When Bai Qingyue also finished dinner and came to report Han Chen's situation to the old man, Yun Shang finally couldn't help stretching out her claws, and quietly touched the phone...

"Cough, cough, cough..."

The old man coughed dryly, and Yun Chang immediately sat up straight, squeezed out a dry smile, and asked the old man, "Master, did Second Brother Gu call today?"

"Hit it!" The old man responded angrily, rubbed Qiuqiu's round head, and said, "It is said that he has gone on a mission, so don't keep thinking about him, and come back to talk to your grandfather when you have time. "

Yun Shang: "..."

Bai Qingyue: "..."

Yun Shang was so shocked by the old man's thick skin that he was speechless for a long time. After realizing it, he grabbed the ball from the old man's hand, shook the old man's arm and said, "Master, what else did Brother Gu say? Did you say anything about him?" When are you coming back?"

Ever since Yunshang fell ill, she had never been so close to her family, nor had she acted coquettishly with the old man. Now she was shaking the old man's arm, almost shaking half of the old man's bones.

"Oh, don't shake, don't shake, this old bone of my master can't stand you shaking like this."

The old man raised his arm, and quickly and honestly explained, "Your second brother Gu said he would be back next month, and asked you to wait for news. He will call you after he finishes his mission."

Unable to talk to Gu Shinian, Yun Shang's spirit suddenly became weak. Even the fur ball came in from outside the house and slammed on her body, but it didn't make Yun Shang feel better.

It's getting late now, the old man checked the time, and the sleeping Qiuqiu walked to his room with the ball in his arms. Before leaving, he didn't forget to tell his two granddaughters to go to bed early.

Yun Chang got carsick again when she came back, and she had to go to school early every morning, so she didn't dare to waste time, so she said hello to Bai Qingyue, stretched her waist and went back to the room to take a shower and sleep.

In the early morning, the sky was just getting brighter.

Yun Chang was wearing a beige thin windbreaker, with a long red scarf tied around her neck, pushing a newly bought dark green women's bicycle in her hand, and waved to the old man who got up early to exercise, and carried Bai Qingyue who jumped into the car, under her feet. With a kick, the car slid quickly and steadily into the street.

When they arrived at the state-run restaurant at the end of the street, the two sisters stopped the car, went in and ordered a tofu nao and two fried dough sticks. After breakfast, they walked in opposite directions at the entrance of the restaurant.

Among them, Bai Qingyue jumped on the bus that had just come over and headed towards the direction of Beijing Normal University, while Yunshang rode her beautiful and foreign-style bicycle, riding like a light swallow, towards Beijing Normal University not far away.

Capital University is not far from the courtyard. When Yunshang arrived at the gate of the school, it was not yet seven o'clock in the morning, but there were already people coming and going in the school. There were students who got up early and studied hard in the morning, and some students who, like Yunshang, left home early. Local students from the capital who came here.

Yun Shang was pushing the car and getting ready to go in. Out of the corner of her eye, she caught sight of Liu Min, who was in the same dormitory, standing diagonally across from the school, holding a child in her arms, and talking excitedly to a tall, mature-looking man.

It was not difficult to see that the two were having a conflict, and the child in Liu Min's arms was crying in fright.

Yun Chang thought about it, but she still didn't meddle in other people's business in the past. Instead, she told the doorman about Liu Min's identity, and identified Liu Min to the other party, then pushed her bicycle into the school.

If she remembered correctly, Liu Min said that when she was an educated youth, she settled down in the Northeast.

The man just now was probably Liu Min's husband. When the couple was having a conflict, her appearance would only embarrass Liu Min, and would not help Liu Min solve any problems.

If that man wasn't Liu Min's husband, and something bad happened to Liu Min, and the guard came forward with the school security, that man wouldn't dare to do anything to Liu Min.

She just needs to ensure that Liu Min and her children will not be in danger. She has no interest in intervening in Liu Min's private affairs.

When Yunshang returned to the dormitory, everyone in the dormitory was busy getting up. Seeing Yunshang coming in, Lin Wenhua said curiously, "Yunshang, you came home so early last night, what time did you get up in the morning?" bed, can you sleep well?"

"Six o'clock." Yun Chang responded with a smile, thought for a while, and then continued, "My house is not far from the school. After everyone is on vacation, you can go to my house to play."

Without waiting for everyone to reply, Qiao Yu poked her head out of the bed, "Well, no wonder you can come so early in two weeks. It seems that your home is really close. I will go to your home when I have free time."

Yun Shang raised her eyebrows slightly when she heard the words, smiled, and said, "Okay, it's only two stops, and it's convenient to walk there."

"That's great, no wonder you can go home for dinner every day." Lin Wenhua said enviously, raised his chin again, and nodded towards Liu Min's bed, "Yun Shang, you don't know, Liu Min rents a bed nearby. house, and brought her men and children to school."

Yun Chang really didn't know about this, and thinking of the scene she watched at the school gate just now, she felt more and more that her guess was correct.

That man is likely to be Liu Min's man.

It's just that they didn't know what happened between the couple, and they started arguing at the school gate.

Before Yun Shang could speak, Lin Wenhua lowered his voice and said, "Hey, that man Liu Min, tsk! I really can't say..."

Seeing that everyone in the dormitory looked over curiously, Lin Wenhua got excited, and while braiding in front of the mirror, he talked about Liu Min's personal affairs:

"Do you know that Liu Min's family is all supported by Liu Min now. Liu Min pays for the rent, and Liu Min takes care of the family's meals. We college students only have such a small subsidy every month, which is just enough to feed ourselves. How can we afford a family?" Let's eat together. Tell me, her man is in his thirties, how can she wait for Liu Min to support her with peace of mind..."

"Bang!"

Before Lin Wenhua finished speaking, the door of the dormitory was kicked from the outside. Liu Min stood at the door of the dormitory, with red eye circles, staring at Lin Wenhua like fire.

When Yun Shang looked into Liu Min's eyes, she knew that she had cried before, but now Lin Wenhua bumped into Liu Min's hand directly, and with Liu Min's wrist, she would have to suffer for her in the future.

Behind the scenes, it was said that the person was caught by the righteous master, Lin Wenhua felt guilty and embarrassed, and his face turned into a big red cloth.

Although she is also doing Liu Min's worthless, this is Liu Min's private matter after all, she should not publicize it in the dormitory.

Chapter 722: Student Union

The atmosphere in the dormitory seemed to be stagnant. Yun Chang looked at Liu Min, then at Lin Wenhua, and finally at her little arms and legs. She felt that it was better not to get involved in the dispute between the two.

After Liu Min entered the door with a cold face, Yun Chang quickly took the textbook, and slipped out cowardly against the door.

From the back view, there is quite a feeling of fleeing.

Seeing Yun Chang slipping away like this, Liu Min was stunned for a moment, and hurriedly chased after Lin Wenhua, ignoring the trouble.

"Yunshang, wait a minute." After Yunshang stopped and looked over in surprise, Liu Min quickly walked a few steps and whispered, "Thank you just now."

Yun Chang was stunned, "Thank me for what?"

Such a powerful person came up to thank me without thinking, and I was afraid of being polite.

Liu Min smiled, "I've heard from the comrades in the guard room, you asked them to help me, right?"

Yun Shang secretly breathed a sigh of relief, smiled and said politely to Liu Min, "Everyone is in the same dormitory, so there is nothing to thank. Besides, I didn't help you with anything, I just brought a sentence, the one who helped you was the guard room Comrades,"

Liu Min is also a generous person. Seeing that Yun Shang didn't care about it, she didn't worry about it anymore, "I made an appointment with two students from the student union. They will be my recommenders and help recommend me to join the student union... Fortunately, you saw me just now, otherwise I would be late today."

Thinking of her being entangled at the school gate, Liu Min was still afraid for a while.

If Yunshang hadn't notified the guard, and the guard rushed over with a few security guards in time, she might be late today, and if her entry into the student union was delayed, there would be no place to cry .

After listening to Liu Min's heart-to-heart words, Yun Shang smiled and didn't say anything.

She wasn't even interested in being a class leader, and naturally she wasn't interested in knowing how Liu Min managed to get in touch with people from the student union in such a short period of time.

Anyway, she is just an ordinary little citizen in her heart, and she has no interest in making a big career. As long as she can finish college smoothly, she will be satisfied with Gu Shinian for the rest of her life.

Of course, she still admires Liu Min very much in her heart. Whether she was admitted to university with her children, or after she was admitted to university, she did not choose to divorce her husband in the countryside and instead took on the burden of supporting the family. A strong heart like steel hammering iron, without a firm upward belief, cannot do this.

Yun Shang knew that she was lazy and would never become a tough person like Liu Min, but this did not prevent her from looking at Liu Min with appreciation.

Liu Min was in a hurry to go to the student union, and separated from Yun Shang at the fork in the road.

It's not time for class yet, and Yunshang is not in a hurry to go to the classroom. She holds a book and reads the promotional documents on the side of the bulletin board.

A few minutes later, Qiao Yu came over with a few books. When she saw Yunshang, she turned around and walked straight over.

"Yunshang, have you seen it too?"

"What did you see?" Qiao Yu's thoughtless words stunned Yun Chang.

"This..." Qiao Yu clicked on the document on the far side of the bulletin board, "The student union posted a notice to recruit new recruits last week."

It was only then that Yunshang noticed that there was a document posted by the student union on the side. It only said that the internal adjustment of the student union had vacated a few positions, and it was necessary to absorb fresh blood from the freshmen. I hope everyone can actively join.

Probably seeing that Yun Shang really didn't know about it, Qiao Yu curled her lips and said, "You know how to go home for dinner every day after class, and you always stay in the library until the lights are about to turn off when you're hungry at night. What about writing the application in the dormitory?"

What a weird person, after other people go to college, either they concentrate on their studies, or they actively approach the organization through various channels after studying.

Let's say she is withdrawn, she can't find any faults in dealing with people, but if she is easy to get along with, she is indifferent to everyone,

I don't mean to make friends with everyone.

It's like withdrawing from the world and adopting an onlooker attitude towards everyone and everything.

Yun Shang didn't know that she had become a strange person in Qiao Yu's eyes. Hearing what she said, she asked curiously, "Have all the people in our dormitory written their applications?"

"That's not true. I wrote it, Liu Min also wrote it, and Lin Wenhua also wrote it..."

"Lin Wenhua?" Yun Shang was stunned for a moment, "She also wants to join the student union?"

"Of course." Qiao Yu sneered, "Otherwise, why do you think she was trying to trick Liu Min in the dormitory? Liu Min caught Lin Wenhua talking about her family behind her back, so why didn't she bother with Lin Wenhua? "

Yun Shang: "..."

From Qiao Yu's voice, she could tell that she just didn't like Liu Min, but she didn't like Lin Wenhua from the bottom of her heart.

Yun Chang felt that her head was about to explode.

What's the matter? There are only a few people in a dormitory, and everyone finally got admitted to the best university. Not to mention studying hard, they will contribute to the construction of the country in the future, but they have sharpened their heads and staged scheming.

This is a school play, not a Gongdou show!

Of course, most of the students are still good. For example, Liu Min, although he is a bit of an official fan, but his mind is fairly straight, and he didn't play any tricks on the people in the same dormitory.

This Qiao Yu was not forgiving, and she was a little arrogant, but I didn't see her playing tricks behind her back.

Among these three people, only Lin Wenhua is thoughtful and can't get on the stage. No wonder Qiao Yu looked down on her.

Qiao Yu doesn't like Liu Min because she treats Liu Min as a competitor, so she naturally doesn't like her, but she doesn't like Lin Wenhua, that's because she doesn't like Lin Wenhua's character, and treats her like a villain.

"Yunshang, didn't you stay in the art troupe before, or you can also write an application, so you can join the Cultural and Propaganda Department. In case I can also enter the student union, we will have companions in the future."

Yun Chang shook her head and said with a smile, "My ability is limited, so I don't want to join in the fun."

What a joke, there are only a few places, and there is almost a palace fight in the dormitory. If she gets involved again, then Lin Wenhua will become a black-eyed chicken.

She'd better just be a nerd honestly, she had wasted free time in the student union, and she wanted to go out and have a phone conversation with Gu Shinian.

Seeing that Yun Chang wasn't interested, Qiao Yu continued to persuade her. Instead, she waved the neatly folded paper in her hand in a good mood, and said with a smile, "Alright, forget it if you're not interested, I'll hand in the application."

After speaking, he ran away in the direction Liu Min left.

Chapter 723 new official takes office

During the few days when everyone handed in their application forms and waited for the result, the atmosphere in the dormitory was oppressive and embarrassing. Kuangsha Literature Network

The main conflict centered on Qiao Yu and Lin Wenhua. Liu Min was a few years older, and his behavior was far more mature than the two of them. Even if Lin Wenhua was caught talking about her sex behind her back, she never had a confrontation with Lin Wenhua.

Of course, I don't know if Lin Wenhua will be secretly tripped up in the future.

Qiao Yu is a typical little girl in Shen City. She is shrewd and her mouth is not forgiving. Once Lin Wenhua dares to play tricks in the dormitory and say something to provoke Liu Min and Qiao Yu, Qiao Yu will be able to expose her on the spot. Lin Wenhua saved face.

And Lin Wenhua wanted to join the student union, so he didn't dare to confront Qiao Yu at this juncture. Even if he was furious, he could only pretend that he didn't care about Qiao Yu, to show his generosity.

Yun Shang never thought about joining the student union, and enjoyed watching movies with other people in the dormitory every day, and even went home for dinner less often, which made the old man mutter about her in private.

On Friday, the student union's recruitment list was finally posted on the bulletin board. As Yunshang expected, Liu Min joined the student union, while Qiao Yu and Lin Wenhua were dismissed.

Now not only Lin Wenhua couldn't fight anymore, even Qiao Yu seemed to be wilting, and she often rolled her eyes angrily with her back to Liu Min.

Just when Yunshang thought that the matter of joining the student union had come to an end, and the dormitory could return to tranquility, Liu Min's first fire as a new official turned out to be on her.

It was already mid-April at this time, and Yun Shang had just received the first call from Gu Shinian after he finished his mission, and his heart was still in his stomach, and he was silently flipping through the calendar, wanting to see May Day I received a notice from Liu Min asking if I could go to Yicheng to visit my relatives or something, and asked her to prepare to participate in the cultural activities organized by the student union on May 1st.

Yun Chang had a black question mark face on the spot.

What does the activities of the student union have to do with her?

She's not from the student union!

Besides, even if she wants to participate in the event, she has to sign up in her class, representing the economics department to participate in the event, so what does it have to do with her, Liu Min, who is from a foreign department?

The most important thing is that she plans to leave school early on May Day and go to Yicheng to take care of Gu Shinian. Isn't Liu Min coming to affect her date with Gu Shinian? It's really disappointing.

"Student Bai Yunshang, don't underestimate yourself. You used to be a member of a serious art troupe and a professional. If you can participate in the May Day event, you will definitely be able to give the audience the best quality program."

Yun Shang: "..."

When did I belittle myself, I'm just tired of going on stage, and I don't want to delay my date with Second Brother Gu.

Also, what's going on with Liu Min?

Didn't she just join the student union? It was as if she had been beaten to death, and her spirit became more and more excited every day. If this continued, the student dormitory would not be able to accommodate such a big shot like her.

With a straight face, Yun Chang said very seriously, "Student Liu Min, did you forget two things?"

Liu Min was stunned, "What did I forget?"

"Forget that I am not a member of the student union. To participate in any activities, I have to sign up voluntarily, instead of your student union directly notifying me to participate in the activities. Another point, you forgot that I am from the Department of Economics, and I am not in the same department as you. If you want to participate in the event, it is because our Economics Department has a program, and it has nothing to do with your Chinese Department and the Student Union."

You want me to be a foreign aid for your student union, just to show off?

Sorry, you don't have that big face yet.

Liu Min seemed to have been hit with a stick, his face froze with excitement, and the corners of his mouth twitched visibly.

"...Well, if you don't mention it, I really forgot about it."

There are mainly eight people in a dormitory, only three are from foreign departments, of which two are from the English department, and only Yunshang is from the economics department. I don't usually mention it, but I really forgot that Yunshang is not a student of their Chinese department.

Facing Shang Yunshang's eyes that seemed to be smiling but not smiling, Liu Min was extremely embarrassed,

But thinking of the May 1st activities and the pressure the student union was facing, Liu Min bit the bullet and continued to speak.

"Student Yunshang, the thing is like this. On May 1st this year, the city's Propaganda Department is going to organize various units to hold a publicity party praising the working people. People from our student union are currently in contact with the student unions of several other universities in the capital. Let's unite and select the best programs from each school, and participate in the activities organized by the Municipal Propaganda Department..."

Having said that, Yun Shang immediately understood what Liu Min meant.

To put it bluntly, the people in the student union were worried that the activities they organized would not be able to produce a decent program. After going out, they let several other universities watch the jokes, and then they hit her on the head.

Of course, the reason why the students from the student union noticed her was due to Liu Min's propaganda.

There is still a violin hanging on the head of her dormitory, and she has never concealed that she used to stay in the art troupe. With such a useful knife, Liu Min will naturally not let it go.

After all, in the eyes of everyone, it is a very honorable thing to be able to represent the school to participate in activities organized by the city and to win honor for the school. Such a good opportunity, she has no reason to refuse.

Liu Min spoke so clearly that she even put Yun Chang on the fire.

Follow the student union's wishes and go out to participate in activities, then she won't have time to go to Yicheng to take care of Shinian.

But if she refuses the student union's invitation, in case the student union can't come up with a decent program, it means that she has no sense of collective honor and doesn't take the school's honor seriously.

Yun Chang rubbed her forehead with a headache, and didn't know what to say for a while.

"Student Liu Min, I originally had arrangements for May Day. How about this? I'll think about it and see if the time can be coordinated during May Day."

In fact, Yun Shang already had a decision in her heart at this time, but she didn't want Liu Min to succeed so easily.

She is not a real ten-year-old girl. She can see through some things and understand some methods of the other party, but it does not mean that she is willing to use such methods on herself.

She can compromise on this matter, but if Liu Min plotted against her, she must be prepared to be bitten.

Liu Min also saw that Yun Shang was still a little bit resistant in her heart, and really didn't understand why Yun Shang was so unprogressive.

After all, people in this era are good at doing everything, especially when it comes to matters related to collective honor, they really have endless energy.

Yun Shang's performance can be said to be out of tune with the entire era.

However, as Yun Shang said, whether she wants to participate in the event is Yun Shang's freedom. She can tell Yun Shang clearly, and she can kidnap Yun Shang in a calm and moral way, but she can't force her Yun Shang performed on stage.

Now Liu Min can only hope that Yun Shang can coordinate the time and give her an accurate statement earlier.

Chapter 724 The daughter is badly raised

When Lin Wenlan came back from get off work, she immediately saw Yunshang lying on the sofa with her face drooping, and she didn't even respond to Qiuqiu rubbing against her.

"Dad, what's wrong with Xiaoqi?" Lin Wenlan didn't enter the door, but retreated into the yard, and asked the old man who was watering the flowers.

"Nothing, haha, isn't that good!" The old man seemed to think of something extremely funny, laughed a few times, and continued gloatingly, "Finally someone can cure her lazy bones, it's great!"

Lin Wenlan: "..."

Is the old man... making fun of Xiaoqi?

Tsk! Turn around and Xiaoqi turns against you, don't follow behind begging for mercy with a bitter face.

Unable to get an answer from the old man, Lin Wenlan went directly into the room and asked Yun Shang, who did not hide it from Lin Wenlan, and very unexpectedly told about Liu Mindao's kidnapping of her, then looked at Lin Wenlan eagerly, trying to Get some comfort from Lin Wenlan.

Unexpectedly, after listening to Yun Shang's words, Lin Wenlan not only did not comfort her, but also looked at her with worried, guilty, and distressed eyes for a long time, then raised her hand to smooth her bangs, sighed, and walked back to the room with heavy steps .

Yun Chang was immediately stunned.

What's wrong with her mother?

The most beloved little girl was bullied outside, shouldn't the mother comfort her and persuade her? Why did you leave without saying a word, and still look shocked?

Could it be that he felt that she was too useless and was disappointed in her?

Yun Shang was struggling with all kinds of grievances outside, and Lin Wenlan in the room was also worried and uneasy, and her heart was in a mess.

After Bai Yancheng came back at night, as soon as he entered the room, Lin Wenlan's eyes were red, and he asked in a low voice, "Old Bai, do you think I really don't know how to raise children?"

Lin Wenlan, as an old revolutionary who has been on the battlefield, has always said the same thing no matter at work or at home, and rarely shows her vulnerable side.

At this moment, Lin Wenlan's eyes were red, and he asked such an inexplicable question in confusion and helplessness, which really shocked Bai Yancheng.

"What's the matter?" Bai Yancheng hurriedly put down his bag, and touched Lin Wenlan's forehead with the back of his hand nervously, "I don't have a fever, why are you asking such a good question?"

Lin Wenlan turned her head away from Bai Yancheng's hand, her voice became weaker, "Old Bai, I seem to have spoiled our little Qi."

Bai Yancheng: "..."

What the hell is going on with this good thing?

How wonderful my daughter is!

Good looking, filial, capable, sweet mouth, the key is smart, decent in everything, where can I find such a good girl? Why did it go bad? The fastest updated Qiqi novel

If Xiaoqi's behavior is considered bad, then hurry up and raise Xiaoliuzi too!

Without waiting for Bai Yancheng to speak, Lin Wenlan recounted what happened to Yunshang, and then heaved a long sigh and said:

"Tell me, if such an honorable thing were left on someone else's shoulders, people's brains would have been smashed because of this opportunity, but what about our Xiao Qi? If we have the ability, others will eagerly hold it up to us." , she is still not happy, annoyed, and boring. Our Xiao Qi has never been like this before. Tell me, is Xiao Qi's illness still not cured? How can this nineteen-year-old girl live like an old man in his seventies and eighties? Like an old lady."

Bai Yancheng was stunned for a moment, and after a long silence, he said faintly, "It's a new society now, and the old men and women are all energetic. Look at our dad, his body is getting better every day in the past two years, and he is more energetic than me when he walks and punches every day. "

Look at those old men and old ladies in the compound, all of them are in their seventies and eighties, and those who pat the table every day to make revolution, aren't they more energetic than Xiaoqi!

Lin Wenlan glared at Bai Yancheng.

Do you want to lose it so much?

Anyway, I just say that Xiaoqi is like an old man and old lady, and she can't keep her spirits up when encountering anything. It's good for you, as soon as you open your mouth, you say that Xiao

Qi's life is not as good as that of the old man and the old lady. Is there any father who says that about his daughter?

However, what Lao Bai said is correct, the old men and old ladies are not willing to admit defeat, and each of them has put in a lot of positive performance,

It's not like her Xiaoqi, who is depressed, just like the old society who is numb and old-fashioned, doesn't care about anything, and doesn't like to deal with people.

hiss! It's over! She has raised her daughter to be a little old-fashioned in the old society, what can I do...

Lin Wenlan was so worried that her intestines were almost knotted, and Bai Yancheng was grinding her molars, and then took Gu Shinian out to scold him, and said indignantly after the incident:

"I knew this kid was unreliable! Hmph, my little seven used to live a lot and love to be a lively kid, this kid just took care of me like this... and wants to marry our little seven, so get out of here!"

If it wasn't for that bastard Gu Shinian, would Xiaoqi of his family have traveled all the way to that mountain corner in Yicheng?

If he hadn't gone to Yicheng, would Xiao Qi have such a serious illness?

If it wasn't for this serious illness, his Xiao Qi would still be a lively and caring little cotton-padded jacket, how could he suddenly become a staid little old lady!

In the final analysis, it's that brat with the strange surname Gu!

Lin Wenlan couldn't sit still any longer, walked around the room a few times, opened the door abruptly and walked out, "No, I have to have a good talk with Xiaoqi, you go to bed first, don't wait for me."

Early the next morning, when Yun Chang got dressed and came out of the house, she was still in a daze. When she saw Lin Wenlan, she even heard a buzzing sound in her ears.

Who would have imagined that Lin Wenlan, who is so beautiful outside, has also learned to act. Last night, he talked to her for several hours in a frightening way. Qiqi's novels are first published on the Internet

If she hadn't yawned again and again at the end, and kept making sure that she would behave positively in the future when encountering matters related to collective honor, win glory for herself and the school, and never shirk away, Lin Wenlan would not let it go so easily she.

No wonder everyone is afraid of the nagging of middle-aged women, it's really, it's too powerful!

When Yunshang had breakfast and was pushing her bicycle to go to school, Lin Wenlan called to Yunshang again, and told her, "Xiaoqi, do you remember what Mom said yesterday? You need to deal with people more To make a few friends, you have to be in a group, or you will be in trouble if you are labeled as not active..."

Yun Chang was speechless for a long time, nodded quickly, and sprinted out on the car.

It's scary.

She had heard these words 800 times last night, and what she even dreamed of at night was the scene of Lin Wenlan holding a small stick and knocking on the blackboard to ask her to remember these words.

Nagging like this again in the morning can really drive people crazy.

Liu Min stood at the school gate waiting for Yunshang early in the morning, saw Yunshang coming on a bicycle from a distance, and quickly greeted her with a smile, "Yunshang, you...you didn't sleep well yesterday? "Why is your face so ugly?

Chapter 725 Inside Story

"It's classmate Liu Min..." Yun Shang nodded to Liu Min wearily, before she could continue asking, she said directly, "I agree to what you said yesterday."

Liu Min thought that Yunshang would delay for a few days before agreeing to this matter, and originally prepared a lot of arguments to persuade Yunshang, who knew that Yunshang gave her such a big surprise as soon as they met, making Liu Min think carefully All night long words are useless.

However, Liu Min was very happy to be able to get Yun Shang done so quickly, even the smile on his face stretched a bit.

"That's good, so I can explain to the students. With you as a professional, we don't have to worry about being compared."

Yun Shang locked the bicycle, and while walking towards the teaching building with Liu Min, she said chatingly, "I'm not a member of the student union, so I'll sign up in class later, it's a program from our economics department."

Liu Min readily agreed, her purpose was just to get Yunshang to take the stage and represent the school to participate in the activities organized by the Municipal Propaganda Department. As for how Yunshang signed up, she didn't care.

When I arrived at the Chinese Department, Liu Min looked back at Yun Shang's calm but slightly alienated eyes, hesitated for a moment, and asked tentatively, "Yun Shang, have you ever thought about joining the student union?"

Yun Shang was stunned, "Join the student union? Can you make the decision?"

If I remember correctly, Liu Min has only joined the student union for more than a month. In such a short period of time, Liu Min, a freshman, has become an influential figure in the student union?

Could it be that she underestimated Liu Min's ability?

Yun Chang asked directly, Liu Min shook his head in embarrassment, but his eyes were full of anger, making those eyes more and more charming.

"There are only three freshmen in the student union, and they are all assigned to do odd jobs, so how can they have the right to speak?"

Seeing gossip, Yun Chang immediately became interested, pointed to the flower bed next to her, and signaled Liu Min to go over and talk.

Liu Min was trying to win Yun Shang over, so naturally he was eager to tell Yun Shang more about the student union. The two sat by the flower bed, and Liu Min said ironically:

"We are the first group of college students after the resumption of the college entrance examination. We were admitted to the university based on our own real skills. Compared with our current class of students, those workers, peasants and soldiers in the school who only know a few words and then recommend them to go to college are embarrassed. How could they have a good face to us."

"Just like this time, why did the students from the student union jump up and down to participate in the activities organized by the city's propaganda department? Didn't they want to use this to swear sovereignty to us freshmen and show off their wide connections?"

Ah! The student union, instead of trying to do something serious for the students, has become a tool for those workers, peasants and soldiers to make friends with people in the city..."

The more Yun Shang listened, her eyes widened. She didn't expect that a simple student union could stage a gang fight.

Also, after the resumption of the college entrance examination, after the first batch of college students enrolled, wouldn't it be embarrassing for those in the school who were selected by the unit to go to college.

In terms of knowledge, they can't compare to freshman juniors. In terms of prospects, these highly educated college students are all treasures. In the future, there will be some units vying for them, and their prospects are not worse than them at all.

The most important thing is that after the resumption of the college entrance examination, you have to take the exam based on your own ability in college, and there will be no more workers, peasants, and soldiers college students in the future.

This also means that these people are a group of people who have been eliminated by the organization. Even if they return to the unit after graduation, they will not be competitive at all compared with the real educated college students who graduated next to them. How will these people get a foothold in the unit in the future?

This group of people from the Student Union managed to get in touch with the Municipal Propaganda Department, and participated in activities with various units in the city. It may be that they got acquainted with the leaders of each unit, and showed that they are capable and successful in the school. thoughts.

At the same time, it can also suppress a few outstanding freshmen who have just joined the student union, and control the right to speak in the student union in the hands of the workers, peasants and soldiers.

As for the school leaders, they naturally don't have the guts to meddle in the affairs of the student union.

After all, under the influence of the general environment, students in various schools have been fighting against teachers in recent years. Even if the school leaders have opinions, they dare not get angry and meddle in the affairs of the student union at will.

Wanting to understand this, Yunshang asked Liu Min again, "Then what about this time, was it the result of a game between you and those seniors who pulled me out to top the bag, or did the other party give you the power to find a good program? Leave it to you, deliberately embarrassing you?"

"You guessed it too?" Liu Min smiled, "It's the result of a game. The three of us naturally hope that our class of students will go out to participate in activities on behalf of the school. The other party wants to use their people, and finally fought. Being a soldier helped us a lot."

Yun Shang: "..."

These official fans are really interesting.

Sesame mung bean big things, they fight like a black-eyed chicken, and even she, an outsider, is also brought into the game, so they are not afraid that her copper pea will bite their teeth.

"Student Yunshang, if our students want to get ahead in school, they have to start from the student union. I know you are not bad, and now the Cultural and Propaganda Department can still recruit people. Are you interested in joining the student union?"

Liu Min turned her head to look at Yun Shang, her eyes sparkled, exuding a bewitching light, as if bewitching Yun Shang: Come on! Let's make trouble together and rebel together!

Yun Shang didn't know whether to be angry or to laugh at this moment, pointing to the watch on her wrist, showing a polite and distant smile, "It's getting late, I have to go to class."

Seeing Yun Shang patted her butt and left, Liu Min showed a disappointed look on her face. The other party had no interest in connecting. Obviously, she didn't want to join the student union. It's a pity that such a good seed was lost.

Yun Chang walked a few steps, thinking of Liu Min's calculation of her, stopped, turned around and showed Liu Min a malicious smile.

"Student Liu Min, you may need to make more preparations for my participation in cultural activities. I injured my hand a few days ago and fell ill again. I have not been in good spirits. In case I get nervous after going on stage, If the hand shakes and the performance is abnormal, then it is not very good."

Liu Min is also a smart person, how could he fail to understand Yunshang's subtext, and asked very speechlessly, "Student Yunshang, did you see a doctor when you were sick? What did the doctor say?"

"The doctor said, let me eat more nutritious things, or my hands will tremble easily. It's just that this nutritional product is hard to find. I can't buy some sick milk powder if I want to drink..."

Liu Min: "..."

Bai Yunshang, where's your face?

A girl who is nineteen years old wants to drink Xiaoyuewazi's rations, and she is not afraid of being laughed at if it spreads.

In order to get revenge on her, this girl even lost face.

Chapter 726 May Day Audio Novel Listen Online

Yun Shang returned to the dormitory with the book in her arms, and just about to go to bed, Liu Min took out a pack of milk powder from the drawer, and handed it to Yun Shang reluctantly.

Since Liu Min was admitted to university, the whole family followed her to the capital from the Northeast, and lived on her little university student subsidy every month.

It's a pity that the state subsidies for college students are just enough to support Liu Min alone, and how can they support a family of five? Still had a hard time.

It was precisely because of this that Yun Shang directly asked Liu Min for milk powder. For Liu Min, who was living in a very difficult life, a bag of milk powder could be regarded as hemorrhage.

You know, even Liu Min's youngest son, who just turned one year old, is not qualified to drink milk powder, but now because he is plotting against her, he has to pinch his nose and ask her to blackmail him. Distressed for half a year.

Yun Shang was right in thinking, Liu Min's distressed liver was trembling at the moment, and he had to squeeze out a smile on his face, pretending to be generous, "I asked my classmates to find the high-priced milk powder. , but it's nutritious, try it."

"Just one bag?" Yunshang took the milk powder, asked lightly, and threw it into the cabinet without even looking at it, muttering in a dissatisfied voice, "I have to keep a bag of milk powder anyway." Three months..."

Liu Min: "..."

Isn't one bag enough?

Her three children have grown so big that they have never even smelled the smell of milk powder. She found a bag of milk powder for Yunshang, but she is still not satisfied?

hiss! This girl is too narrow-minded. In order to get revenge on her, she didn't even want face.

The other people in the dormitory saw that the poorest person was delivering milk powder to the richest person, and they all looked at each other in blank dismay, not knowing what kind of medicine they were selling in their gourds.

Yun Shang didn't mean to tell everyone, humming a little tune in a good mood, and went out with an empty kettle.

Well, hurry up to fetch water, make a cup of milk powder and taste it.

Things that come in vain must taste good.

On May 1st, under the organization of the Student Union, the Auditorium of Capital University planned to hold a grand cultural event in the auditorium.

A group of people from the student union were busy going around early in the morning, ordering the students to help arrange the venue, and arranging people to meet the leaders of the city's publicity department who were implicated in participating in the event.

After the event started, the student union also arranged for two female students to serve tea and water to the leaders sitting in the front row, not to mention how thoughtful the arrangement was.

In terms of program content, in addition to paying attention to praising the glory of the working people, several recitation programs were also arranged, all kinds of confession. It was hard to deal with Liu Min and the other two freshman student union members.

Yun Chang looked funny from the side, and felt that these people were getting more and more naive as they fought, just like chickens pecking at each other, and they could get angry for a long time even a little bit.

Seeing that it was time for Yun Chang to take the stage, Liu Min came over and said nervously:

"Student Yunshang, let's watch yours next. It's about the programs that are sent to the city, it's about the face of our freshmen... I believe you can do it."

Yun Shang: "..."

Doesn't this chicken soup for the soul have any ingredients?

Dry and tasteless.

Also, I'm not nervous when I'm on stage, but you, who is watching the show with two eyeballs, wipe your sweat nervously, how much you don't trust her.

If it weren't for being in the background and people coming and going around, Yun Shang really wanted to give Liu Min a supercilious look.

After the previous program ended, amidst a burst of warm applause, Yun Chang came onto the stage with her chest up and her head up.

With the prelude, Liu Min's heart was put back in his stomach.

Listen, this passionate rhythm, and this cheerful tune, have a festive atmosphere from the very beginning.

The more Liu Min listened, the more excited she became, and even her heart surged with enormous energy.

I have endless energy all over my body.

What is a job change?

This is called changing jobs!

Those workers, peasants, and soldiers who were recommended to go to college after graduating from primary school, do they know what a violin is?

Today, let our class of serious college students open their eyes to them!

Yunshang has a steady typhoon and a calm momentum. Standing in the middle of the stage, when her fingers are dancing on the cheerful strings, she is like a little sun, firmly attracting the audience below.

The students in the Department of Economics were extremely proud. Their department had finally produced a backbone of literature and art, and it was from the military art troupe, and it was a professional level.

There was even gossip that Bai Yunshang once won the Army Gold Medal for his violin.

What is this concept?

Isn't this stuffing a king-level boss into a kindergarten to crush a bunch of rookie kids!

It's just too inhumane!

After the performance, Yunshang met with the students from the student union, and after deciding on a time to go to the city to participate in the activities, she headed back to her class with her head down.

As soon as she entered the classroom, she was greeted with warm applause.

After all, it is an honor and a very honorable thing to be able to represent the school to participate in activities in the city.

Now this glorious task falls to Yunshang, and everyone in the class is proud of Yunshang.

Yun Chang has been on stage many times, and she doesn't feel too much when hearing applause on the stage. Now hearing the spontaneous applause from the class, and seeing everyone's bright and proud smiling faces, I can't help feeling a little touched in my heart.

These old men in the class are actually quite cute.

You know, when Yunshang came to the school to report to school, she felt awkward for a long time when she knew that there was only her and another lesbian who had married and had children in the class, and the rest were all gay men.

If she hadn't chosen this job change herself, Yunshang would have almost asked the old man to entrust her with the job change.

Later, although she didn't change careers, Yunshang didn't stay in the class for a long time. She came to the classroom every day except during class time, and left as soon as get out of class time was over. She usually stayed in the library and dormitory, and rarely followed her classmates. touch.

Now it seems that the students in their class are quite united, much more than she thought.

"Student Yunshang, I didn't expect you to have such a hand! When I asked the monitor to sign up, I couldn't believe it."

The only female student in the class came over and talked to Yun Shang, her tone full of surprise.

Yun Shang asked curiously, "Why can't you believe it?"

The female classmate looked Yun Chang up and down, and laughed, "Just...you are too thin, and you don't seem like someone who can pull that thing well."

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, and after realizing it, she burst out laughing "puchi".

Chapter 727 Meeting

When people in this era are dating, or communicating with people, the first thing they see at first sight is their face.

Those people with big faces and fleshy faces must have a solid family background. On the contrary, those who are thin and thin, with a dry face and no flesh, must be from a family whose conditions are not very good and there is a shortage of food.

This is also the main reason why people in this era like to find rich girls or guys. After all, whether a person has a family background is all obvious on his face.

Because of her illness, Yunshang was so thin that she became a bone. Although after seeing a psychiatrist, her mental state has basically recovered, but because she still can't touch meat, the meat that fell has not been replenished.

At the beginning of school, Yunshang came to report with this thin body. Even though she was a top-notch person in appearance, in most people's eyes, Yunshang's appearance was unlucky. Insufficient food for the head.

Although Yun Chang was dressed well at the time, her body was not enough to deceive people. Besides, who is the big girl now without a dress for meeting guests?

Those girls from urban families are even more particular about their clothes, and it is normal to have a few sets of decent clothes.

What's more, this is Beijing University, which is the best university in the capital. Most people get admitted to such a good university, which is a matter of embarrassment to the family. Wear decent clothes.

In addition, Yunshang didn't have much contact with the people in the get out of class. She often came to the classroom just before the class started. Every time she came, she sat in an inconspicuous position, and left quickly after class. She basically had no contact with the people in the class.

And the economics department is full of rough men, and it is even more impossible to get in touch with the girls in the Chinese department as soon as the school starts. I know the details of Yunshang from the people in Yunshang's dormitory.

It can be said that except for the monitor in Yunshang's class, no one really knows that Yunshang's family background is good.

This is also the reason why most of the students in the class couldn't believe it when Yunshang signed up to participate in the school's May Day event, and when it was a violin solo.

It wasn't until Yunshang was about to take the stage that the people in the class knew from the squad leader that Yunshang had been a soldier, and when he was in the military art troupe, he won the gold medal of the army with his outstanding piano skills!

What surprised everyone the most was that classmate Yunshang turned out to be a party member!

This time, all the students in the class were stunned.

It turned out that the thin and small girl in their class,

The little girl who was always silent, turned out to be so capable.

It's just incredible!

After the school activities were over, Yunshang went home and made a phone call with Gu Shinian, and then went back to the room early to wash and sleep, preparing to participate in the activities organized by the Municipal Propaganda Department in the most energetic state.

Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan were also very busy this May Day, they didn't have time to watch Yunshang's performance, and Bai Qingyue went to the army to watch Han Chen as soon as the holiday was off, and couldn't go to see Yunshang's performance live.

Only the old man is a loyal audience of Yunshang. He took reading glasses early in the morning and asked the guards to send him to the scene early, preparing to go low-key to cheer for his granddaughter.

Yun Chang didn't know that the old man was here too. Seeing that the program presented by the Normal University was Wu Xiang's program, she raised her eyebrows and kept laughing.

The smile is very meaningful.

"Bai Yunshang, why do I think you're smiling so sinisterly?" Wu Xiang grabbed Yunshang as he spoke, and twisted her face with his hands, "Say! What are you laughing at?"

"Haha, laughing, you've jumped to the lead dance!" Yun Shang avoided Wu Xiang's hand, and quickly slipped away after speaking.

"Bai Yunshang! Stop for me, and see if I don't tear your mouth!"

Wu Xiang was so angry that he stomped his feet, and while chasing Yunshang, he cursed from behind, "Don't think that I don't know what you're thinking! Don't you just want to say that there are no tigers and monkeys in the mountains to call me king? You call me a monkey! "

Yun Chang turned around and made a grimace, and yelled with a smile, "Xiangxiang, I found that you have become smarter, and you have learned to call yourself a nickname!"

Wu Xiang: "..."

"Yunshang, don't run away, I have something to tell you."

The two quarreled for a while, Wu Xiang waved to Yunshang, and pointed outside.

Yun Chang straightened her messy hair, took the violin, and followed out.

"What's the matter, Xiangxiang, what's the matter?"

Wu Xiang turned his head and looked at Yunshang firmly, and asked with a serious expression, "Yunshang, did my elder brother write to you before?"

Yun Chang froze for a moment, nodded, and said, "Well, I wrote a few letters before, and then I fell ill, so I never wrote back to your elder brother... Did your elder brother complain to you?"

During that time, she was completely in a daze, and she didn't even want to say a word day by day, let alone reply to Wu Hongyu, whom she didn't know well at all.

Later, after her condition improved, she had already returned to the capital, and because it had been too long, she had no interest in replying to Wu Hongyu's letter.

Besides, before she communicated with Wu Hongyu, she mainly wanted to know how Bai Qing was doing in the southern military region and if there was a suitable partner. And Wu Hongyu wrote to her because he wanted to know about Wu Xiang's situation in the Yicheng Military Division.

After she returned to the capital, she was no longer in the same unit as Wu Xiang, so naturally she couldn't give Wu Hongyu any useful information.

In addition, Bai Qingzheng is also married, so she doesn't need to care about Bai Qingzheng's lifelong affairs, and she is not a voyeur, so naturally she is not interested in knowing the daily life of Bai Qingzheng and his wife.

In this case, the agreement between the two is considered to be over, and naturally there is no need for communication.

It's just that Wu Hongyu mentioned her meaning to Wu Xiang in a good manner. Could it be that she felt that she had crossed the river and demolished the bridge, turned her face and refused to recognize anyone?

Seeing Yun Chang's ignorant face, completely ignorant of his elder brother's wolf ambition, Wu Xiang secretly sighed, and said:

"That's not true. I received a package from my elder brother a while ago. He sent me a lot of things. He asked me to send half of them to you. He said it was a gift to celebrate your admission to college. He also said that he got it from your elder brother. Knowing that you were ill for a while, let me greet you and hope that you will recover soon."

The most important thing is that my elder brother is so heartless and still thinking about you. He wants me to inquire about it. You are clearly back to health, so why haven't you written back to him.

"I've been fine a long time ago, please help me later, thank you big brother."

Yunshang didn't know that Wu Xiang was worrying about her elder brother. After thanking her with a smile, she stared at Wu Xiang for a long time, and asked abruptly, "Xiangxiang, do you have a date at school?"

The topic suddenly came to him, and Wu Xiang was confused for a long time before subconsciously shaking his head, "...No."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and then asked, "Then what kind of partner do you want to find?"

Chapter 728 Damaged Moves Audio Novel Listen Online

The event organized by the city was grand and grand, with many city leaders sitting in the front row, and more than a dozen factory leaders sitting in the back.

Mr. Bai acted as an ordinary audience, sitting in an inconspicuous position very low-key, clapping hard for Yun Chang on the stage, with as proud an expression as he wanted.

Yun Chang didn't know that the old man was under the stage, and after stepping down, he didn't join Liu Min and the others, but instead chased after Wu Xiang's ass, asking Wu Xiang what kind of partner he was looking for.

Wu Xiang's face turned into a big red cloth, he changed into his performance costume angrily, turned around, and didn't even want to look at Yun Shang.

Have you ever seen such a shameless and annoying lesbian, is it easy to talk about this kind of thing in front of so many people?

Besides, she has never been in a relationship before, so how would she know what kind of relationship she is looking for?

Yun Shang didn't necessarily want to get the answer from Wu Xiang's mouth, but she blushed when she heard the topic, and thought it was fun, so she just teased Wu Xiang.

As for the matter of matching Bai Qingming and Wu Xiang, no matter what, we have to wait until Bai Qingming comes back and the two meet.

After the performance, Wu Xiang took advantage of the school holiday and went to Bai's house to accompany Yunshang for a day, and gave her the things Wu Hongyu sent over by the way.

There are not many kinds of things, but the portion is quite sufficient. The dried fruit alone weighs several catties, which is enough for Yunshang to eat for a while.

Looking at the table full of things, Yun Chang pondered for a long time, and called Bai Qingzheng. In addition to asking how Bai Qingzheng and his wife were doing, he also specially asked Bai Qingzheng to treat Wu Hongyu to a meal for her. Thank you Wu Hongyu for sending thing.

As a polite and well-educated person, I have to show a little bit no matter what I have received so much delicious food from others.

When Bai Qing received the call from Yunshang, he was quite happy at first, but later heard that Yunshang said that Wu Hongyu had sent her something, and that he had written to Yunshang under his nose before, so angry that he almost smashed his hand phone.

Yun Shang on the other end of the phone didn't know that Bai Qingzheng was angry, so she specifically told Bai Qingzheng that Wu Hongyu found a lot of delicious food for her, and told him not to be stingy, and asked Wu Hongyu to order two more dishes when eating.

Bai Qingzheng's face turned black, but he dealt with Yunshang calmly, and after Yunshang hung up the phone, Bai Qingzheng went out with fists clenched.

Wu Hongyu happened to come up from downstairs, and before he could speak, Bai Qingzheng hooked his neck and dragged him down the stairs almost half-forcibly.

"Let's go, I'll treat you to dinner!"

Bai Qingzheng's face was so ugly, Wu Hongyu instinctively felt that something was wrong, and was about to refuse, when Bai Qingzheng threatened him, "I invite you to dinner, or you have a game at the training ground, you choose."

Wu Hongyu: "..."

I'm not a masochist, of course I eat with my mouth, who the hell wants to be pressed on the ground and beat!

But what's wrong with this guy?

A big old man, why is he like a little daughter-in-law, throwing face every three days?

Wu Hongyu complained secretly in his heart, but followed Bai Qingzheng to the small cafeteria non-stop.

When Bai Qing was about to order the food and the helper from the cafeteria delivered the food, Wu Hongyu's calm face turned dark.

A total of four bowls were sent over, one bowl of uncut pickled vegetables, one bowl of boiled old cabbage gangzi without any green leaves, and one bowl of common wild vegetables in the wild, plus a bowl of pot washing water.

Is this what Bai Qingzheng said about inviting him to dinner?

When other people treat guests to dinner, they don't even talk about roasted pork knuckles, but no matter what, there will be meat, but Bai Qingzheng is such a stingy guy, not to mention meat, there is not even a speck of oil in the bowl.

This is too immoral!

As if he couldn't see Wu Hongyu's black face, Bai Qing picked up a fist-sized lump of pickled vegetables and put it into Wu Hongyu's bowl, pulled one corner of his mouth, and said threateningly:

"Let's eat! The pickles in the small cafeteria are well pickled, try it."

The corner of Wu Hongyu's mouth twitched, and he asked very speechlessly, "I said, Lao Bai, what kind of style are you smoking today? I offended you again or something! You just let me eat pickles as a treat?"

"Old Wu, your thinking is wrong. During the Anti-Japanese War, many comrades-in-arms couldn't even eat pickled cabbage. We only had a few days of good life and you forgot your roots? Old Wu, you can't be arrogant."

Wu Hongyu: "..."

Chapter 729 Seven hundred and twentieth IX battle

It was time to eat, and Bai Qingzheng's words were heard clearly in the ears of the people around him. Facing everyone's curious or amused eyes, Wu Hongyu had no choice but to bite the bullet and take a bite of the salty pickles.

There's no other way, if he doesn't chew on it, he will be branded as arrogant and arrogant by Bai Qingzheng, why can't he not listen to this grandson.

Seeing that Wu Hongyu's facial features were all wrinkled together, Bai Qingzheng picked up another large piece of old cabbage and put it in Wu Hongyu's bowl, "It's too salty to eat dry, come here, just eat with cabbage. I specially told Master Wang I said hello, there is no salt in the cabbage gang."

Wu Hongyu: "..."

This is not a dinner treat, this is simply blatant persecution!

How wicked!

Bai Qingzheng didn't look at Wu Hongyu's cold face, and kept putting the pickles, cabbage sticks, and wild vegetables from several bowls into Wu Hongyu's bowl, buckling all kinds of big hats one by one, forcing Wu Hongyu to gnaw A weird smelling grass.

Of course, during this period, Bai Qingzheng would inevitably be rebelled by Wu Hongyu and grazing with him.

After the two of them finished their poisonous dinner, they both felt that they had lost money. When they passed by the training ground, they went in to fight with a tacit understanding, and finally ended the inexplicable banquet with a small victory for Bai Qingzheng.

Sitting on the sofa, Cheng Anan was watching TV while knitting a sweater for the child in her stomach. When she saw Bai Qingzheng coming back with a bruised nose and swollen face, she was so frightened that she almost threw away the knitting needle in her hand.

"What's the matter? Are you fighting with someone?"

Bai Qingzheng nodded, sat down opposite Cheng Anan, and sighed, "I just did a few tricks with Old Wu."

Cheng Anan: "..."

The corners of the eyes and mouth are covered with bruises. With your skill, how many tricks have you gone through? It takes hundreds of tricks!

Also, didn't you invite Lao Wu to dinner tonight? Why did you eat it on the training ground?

Clamping fists is the dinner for both of you.

"Then did you invite Lao Wu to dinner?"

The expression on Bai Qingzheng's face froze for a moment, and he said reluctantly, "Please."

Three dishes and one soup, the specifications are high enough.

Cheng Anan was annoyed and funny when he heard it, and threw the freshly wrung wet towel on Bai Qingzheng's face, "It's all dinner, why are you two fighting again?"

Treat someone to a meal, and then pull them out and beat them up after they're done. What kind of showmanship is this?

While wiping his face, Bai Qing suppressed his anger and said, "Wu Hongyu hooked up with Xiaoqi under my nose, heh..."

With Xiao Qi protecting him, he couldn't beat Gu Shinian, so could it be that he couldn't beat Wu Hongyu?

Dare to seduce Xiaoqi with a letter from left to right under his nose, it's fine if he doesn't break his hand directly, so what if he punches him a few times.

Cheng Anan didn't expect this to happen, so he was stunned for a long time before he asked, "Didn't Xiao Qi have a date, the one who is tall and very good-looking, why is he related to Wu Hongyu again?"

"Xiao Qi has nothing to do with him!" Bai Qing said with a frown, and then added, "Xiao Qi was only seventeen the year before last, what do you know? The surname Wu wrote every day to ask about his sister's situation." How could Xiao Qi know what Wu Hongyu was thinking."

"...Then, after you started at night, did you say that Xiao Qi has a date?"

"Needless to say." Bai Qingzheng's mouth curled up, and his tone was very calm and authentic, "I just used the excuse of exchanging lessons with him for a few tricks, and I didn't say anything else. However, the person surnamed Wu is going to be transferred to Gu Shinian's house." It's over, I called Yicheng in the afternoon, and I will ask Gu Shinian to take care of that grandson later."

Chapter 730 Strange Little Six Sons Audio Novel Listen Online

Kong Changzheng ran up from downstairs like a gust of wind, patted the table and complained to Gu Shinian, "Why do you think this Wu Hongyu came from? We are a good partner. Why did the higher-ups put this person on us? The key is still Let this person be your deputy, what about me? What am I doing?"

I worked hard in the muddy water for three years, and finally followed Gu Shinian to train the tiger company, and finally a peach-picker came halfway.

The point is that the peaches I picked were still Lao Tzu's, so this is not bullying him, Lao Kong.

Naturally, Gu Shinian didn't like Wu Hongyu either, not to mention anything else, just the fact that he took aim at Yunshang three years ago and tried to coax Yunshang by writing letters is enough to scare people.

After all, Wu Hongyu tried to hook up with Yunshang three years ago, and Yunshang was right under his nose at that time, but he didn't hear any news. This incident was like a huge slap, slapping Gu Shinian hard. In his heart, he was a little dazed.

Anyone who knew that someone secretly made him a fresh green hat a few years ago would probably be stunned.

Gu Shinian's mind is much more mature than his peers, although it won't delay his cooperation with Wu Hongyu because of personal matters, but it doesn't prevent him from causing Wu Hongyu a little trouble.

"Old Kong, I don't have any loss from Wu Hongyu's transfer, it's just a matter of changing partners... It's a pity, I thought you would be able to move up this time." As a result, the organization transferred Wu Hongyu over, You took the seat that was supposed to belong to you.

Kong Changzheng's face turned green when he heard it, and he slapped the table loudly, "Mother Xipi! The peaches that I have raised for three years have been picked!"

Waiting for the grandson to come over, I will beat him up eight times a day, sooner or later he will be beaten out of the tiger company!

How could Gu Shinian not know what kind of temper Kong Changzheng was, so he put down the documents he was looking at, and told Kong Changzheng in a very calm tone, "Old Kong, you will be punished if you do something in private in the company. After Comrade Wu Hongyu comes over, you Better be quiet."

Kong Changzheng became angry when he heard this, stared at Gu Shinian, and said, "I said the surname is Gu, where are you from? I have been your partner for three years anyway, why are you turning your elbows all the way out!?"

Gu Shiyou stabbed Kong Changzheng's chest in a fluttering manner, "Comrade Wu Hongyu will partner with me in the future, not an outsider."

Kong Changzheng: "..."

What do you mean by turning your face and denying people, what do you mean by crossing rivers and tearing down bridges, look, this bastard in front of you is just that!

Fortunately, he still wants to continue to work with him as a team, just this virtue, bah! I'm not serving you anymore!

And Wu Hongyu who kicked Lao Tzu away, don't think about it, they are all in his Kong Longzheng's territory, if he doesn't clean up, he will cry his father and mother, and his surname will not be Kong!

Kong Changzheng slammed the door angrily and left. The corner of Gu Shinian's mouth twitched, and he stuffed the hidden document arranging Kong Changzheng to study in the bottom drawer, and decided to postpone it for another half a month.

After entering June, the weather became hotter day by day. When Yunshang was thinking about whether to have lunch at school at noon every day, so as not to run back and forth to tan her skin, Bai Qingming went home to visit relatives.

Of course, in Bai Qingming's words, he was threatened by Bai Yancheng and went home to be beaten with bamboo sticks and shoe soles.

Although Yunshang was very sorry that Bai Yancheng didn't beat Bai Qingming, and she couldn't eat watermelon to watch the big show, but the Erha at home was back, and she was still very happy.

Especially on weekends, when Yun Shang dragged Wu Xiang home with deceit, and tried to get her to meet Bai Qingming, she felt even happier.

Well, when Little Six met Wu Xiang, he knew he had to put away his Erhat. This shows that Little Six attached great importance to Wu Xiang's first impression of him.

And after Wu Xiang met Bai Xiaoliuzi, facing Yun Shang's teasing and expectant eyes, even the roots of his neck turned red, which shows that Wu Xiang is not disgusted with Xiaoliuzi.

These two people have a door!

Bai Qingming could stay at home for ten days this time, after Yun Shang introduced the two to each other,

He dragged the two of them to the street for a stroll, and after a few hours, the two became old acquaintances.

Yunshang also worked hard to match the two. In order to allow the two to have more contact, Yunshang even went to the Normal University every day and forcibly dragged Wu Xiang to eat and live at home.

Of course, Yun Shang only wanted to create opportunities for the two of them. As for whether Bai Qingming had enlightened, or whether he could seize the opportunity after enlightening, Yun Shang was not quite sure.

That night, Yunshang finished washing early as usual and was about to go to bed when she suddenly heard the sound of a heavy object falling outside. Stretching out my mental strength to look, I happened to see a figure climbing up from the base of the wall and tiptoeing towards the guest room.

Yun Chang was taken aback, Wu Xiang slept in the guest room!

Just as she was about to call for someone to catch the thief, she felt that the figure over the wall was a little familiar. When Yun Chang took a closer look, her mouth almost twisted in anger.

What is Little Six doing nonsense?

He even climbed over the wall to come in after returning to his own house. Did he consider himself a thief, or did he really plan to be a thief?

Also, after he came in, he didn't make any noise to let the family know that he came back from wandering around, why did he go to the guest room sneakily?

Yun Chang was so angry that she jumped up from the bed, and while putting on her clothes and shoes, she muttered and scolded Bai Qingming:

"Well, you little six! You usually pretend to be the same as Erha, but you really have the guts to do such a thing!"

"You bastard! Knowing that Wu Xiang is sleeping in the guest room today... I will beat you to death!"

...

Just when Yun Shang rolled up her sleeves and was about to come out to beat up Bai Qingming violently, Bai Qingming squatted under the window of the guest room and tapped lightly on the glass window a few times.

"Who?"

Wu Xiang was awakened immediately, turned over and sat down on the bed, and when he was about to go out to have a look, he heard Bai Qingming whispering outside the window: "Comrade Wu Xiang, I have someone write a poem today, Read it to you..."

No matter what Wu Xiang's reaction was when it was over, he squatted under the window and started reciting poems.

"One pole with two frames, one hero with two gangs..."

Wu Xiang: "..."

Yun Chang originally thought that Bai Qingming wanted to play hooligans, and was holding a clothes drying rack as a weapon, and was about to go out and beat Bai Qingming. Seeing Bai Qingming's coquettish operation, he staggered and stumbled out of the threshold.

Bai Qingming was working hard on reciting poems, when he saw his sister fall from the house into the yard, she was so frightened that she sat down on the ground.

"Xiao Qi! You, you, you, you haven't slept yet!"

Yun Shang got up from the ground coughing again and again, gritted her teeth and said, "If I fall asleep, can I watch this good show!"

Is this really a fool?

Chasing girls actually has to turn over the wall of their own house in the middle of the night, and put it under the window to read nonsense folk sayings, which is called poetry.
