Chapter 761 Bow your head

Bai Yancheng is so shrewd. As soon as Yun Chang showed his tone, he immediately wanted to understand the reason why he was cheated.

It's just that the handle is in Yunshang's hands at this moment, and Gu Shinian has performed well these years, and the whole family has recognized this son-in-law. No matter how dissatisfied Bai Yancheng feels in his heart, he can only scold him behind his back. There is no other good way to relieve hatred by saying something like a dog.

After all, a girl will always marry when she grows up. Instead of marrying a wild boar who doesn't know her background, it's better to marry Gu Shinian. Only domesticated wild boars, who know the basics, can always be at ease.

It's just that if you just confess your love to your daughter like this, it will always be a little embarrassing. Anyway, he is an old man, so he still needs face.

Bai Yancheng glanced at Yun Chang, without saying a word, and pushed the empty teacup to the middle of the table.

The corners of Yunshang's mouth turned up, and she quickly poured a glass of cold boiled water like a dog's leg, and handed it to Bai Yancheng, and then took out a hundred yuan that she had prepared earlier, and stuffed it into Bai Yancheng's pocket, "Dad, I'll give you a hundred yuan first, in case something happens, it's handy. Remember to put it in the office tomorrow, don't hide it at home. It won't let my mother find out."

I still have to leave some pocket money for Comrade Lao Bai. After going out, he is considered a big leader.

Looking at the brand new ten yuan in his hand, Bai Yancheng, who originally wanted to put on airs, bowed his head to the power of money in a sensible way.

And admit it very thoroughly.

After all, he simply saw that his son-in-law was not pleasing to the eye, and he didn't really want to tear Yun Shang and Gu Shinian apart.

At this moment, my daughter is coaxing him with soft words. If she accepts him if it doesn't work out, and if she really annoys her, then the loss outweighs the gain.

Bai Yancheng collected the money, looked at the time, endured the heartache, and waved Yun Chang away.

If he didn't leave again, he couldn't help asking for the remaining three hundred yuan, and then maybe the one hundred yuan he just got would have to fly out again.

In a good mood, Yun Chang left the study room, instead of going back to her own room, she turned around and entered the main room, nestled beside Lin Wenlan coquettishly and remained still.

"Mom, I'll sleep with you today."

Lin Wenlan was leaning on the bedside reading a book, when she heard the words, she moved inside to make room for Yun Shang, "Your dad is asleep?"

"No." Yun Shang leaned against Lin Wenlan, put his arms around Lin Wenlan's arm and said, "My dad loves his little treasury, and I guess he won't be able to sleep well tonight."

Lin Wenlan put down the book, and asked amusedly and helplessly, "Your dad probably doesn't have much money, did you leave any money for your dad?"

"I kept a hundred for my dad's emergency." Yun Shang paused after speaking, and asked tentatively, "Mom, are you really angry?"

"It's nothing to be angry about. Your dad is in his fifties, and his body is no worse than when he was young. It's better to save money than to buy cigarettes and alcohol."

Yun Chang: "... So Comrade Lao Bai has been frightened for a long time, so it turned out that he was scaring himself?

Yun Shang was speechless for a long time before she opened her mouth and said, "Mom, your acting is so good, my dad is really scared by you. Tomorrow, I will ask Second Brother Gu to find some good tea and give it to my dad. Shocked."

Otherwise, Comrade Lao Bai would be too pitiful. He was terrified and afraid that the private money he had saved for more than ten years would be gone.

No matter what, I have to get two catties of good tea to make up for it.

Chapter 762: Big Character Poster

Entering September, the sky in the capital suddenly cools down, and the blue sky above seems to be much higher, with a lofty and bright atmosphere.

Early in the morning, Yunshang put the pot refilled with tea leaves on Bai Yancheng's desk, stretched her waist into the kitchen, finished her breakfast, picked up her schoolbag that she had packed earlier, and pedaled towards the school on her bicycle ride to. ,

It was working time at this time, and there were crowds rushing to work on the street. Yunshang held the car bell all the way, and walked through the crowd amidst the tinkling of the bells, and soon saw the old gate of the school.

Liu Min got off the bus, carrying a big bag in one hand, and a stack of books in the other, and was about to enter the school gate, when she saw Yun Shang slid over on a bicycle from a distance, her yellow skirt and big skirt were swinging in the wind Flying up and down, it stands out from the gray-blue surroundings.

Seeing Liu Min waiting for her at the school gate, Yun Chang smiled, jumped off the bicycle, put Liu Min's burden on the back of the bicycle, and asked with a smile, "When did you come back from your hometown?"

"I came back yesterday. I saw that your spirit is better than before the holiday. Did you encounter any happy event?"

Not seeing each other for a summer vacation, Liu Min found that Yun Shang's mental outlook had changed drastically. She no longer looked sickly, and the cold and alienated feeling between her brows was gone. The girl is very lively and looks very energetic.

"Is there?" Yun Chang touched her face subconsciously, and didn't say anything about her engagement in two months. She took out a few fruit candies from her bag and handed them to Liu Min with a smile, "I'm an aunt now. !"

It was a happy event for the family to have a baby, and this candy was regarded as wedding candy, Liu Min was not polite to Yun Shang, she peeled off a piece and put it in her mouth, and put the rest in her pocket, ready to take it home for the children to eat.

Today is the first day of school, and the school is full of students who rushed to report with their luggage. The campus, which had been quiet for the whole summer vacation, suddenly became lively.

Yun Shang and Liu Min were talking all the way, and they were going to put their luggage in the dormitory first. When they passed by the library, they saw a bunch of people pointing around the bulletin board and talking about something.

As a member of the student union, Liu Min knew that there was another big-character poster posted on the bulletin board, so she didn't care to say hello to Yun Shang, and immediately squeezed over with her luggage, trying to tear off the big-character poster.

After all, it is the first day of registration for freshmen. Members of the student union are obliged to cooperate with the school in receiving new students, and they are also obliged to maintain the order of the school and prevent any incidents that will damage the image of the school.

However, when Liu Min squeezed in and saw the red poster, he froze for an instant, his face was pale, and a thin layer of cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

Seeing this, Yun Chang immediately realized that something had happened, and hurried over to grab Liu Min's arm while looking at the conspicuous big-character poster.

The big-character posters were written with a brush in large handwriting, and were directed at the student union...to be precise, at Liu Min.

Accused Liu Min of entering the student union through improper means, and using his position as a member of the student union to find a job for his man in the capital...

Although the college entrance examination in this world has been advanced a few years, the movement has not yet ended, and posting big-character posters is still the main way for many people to express their dissatisfaction, or to report and expose.

Yun Shang didn't know when this big-character poster was posted, but she knew better than anyone else that the content on the big-character poster was simply nonsense.

Chapter 763

If Liu Min really used referees to join the student union to benefit her man, why did he talk to her three times and wanted to recommend her to the student union?

You know, even if she really promised Liu Min to join the student union, it's impossible to do Liu Min any favors because of this matter.

The most important thing is that before Liu Min thought about recommending her to the student union, Liu Min's man had already found a job in the capital.

Even the time is not right, isn't this nonsense?

There is likely to be the shadow of the group of students from the student union behind this incident. He probably felt that Liu Min brought people into the student union and threatened their status, so he wanted to directly destroy Liu Min and the student union members recommended by Liu Min, so as to achieve their goal of regaining control of the student union.

The trick is very sinister. But I have to say, it's very useful.

Choose to post Liu Min's big-character poster on the first day of freshmen's registration. Even if Liu Min can't be destroyed, Liu Min's character will be questioned in the hearts of freshmen.

As a member of the student union, once your reputation is damaged, even the minimum credibility is lost, how can you carry out your work in the future? How can I continue to stay in the student union?

Yun Shang has never understood Liu Min's official fan mentality, and even taught Liu Min a small lesson because of some things.

However, if you don't understand it, you don't understand it, but it doesn't prevent her from admiring Liu Min.

Liu Min was ambitious, and she never concealed her ambition. She always said what she wanted frankly and directly, and then tried every means to achieve her goal. Even if you know how to use means in the process, you still have your own bottom line and persistence, which will not make people too disgusted.

Such a person may not be pleasing enough in life, but he will never be annoying.

Yun Shang lived in the same dormitory with Liu Min for a year, and even if she didn't take Liu Min as a friend, she still didn't want to see Liu Min being ruined in such an insulting way.

What's more, the other party didn't want to destroy Liu Min alone, but Liu Min's family. Once something happened between Liu Min and her man, Liu Min's children and her man's family would all be finished.

Wanting to understand this, Yun Chang stepped forward and tore off the big-character poster, crumpled it up and threw it on the ground, then turned to Liu Min and said, "This is slander, we can't leave it alone! Let's go! Let's go to the school leader, If the school can't handle it, report it to the police, and we must find the person who posted the poster!"

Liu Min is not a soft persimmon. She was stunned when she saw the big-character poster before. After realizing it, she immediately picked up the big-character poster on the ground, pulled Yun Shang and squeezed out of the crowd, "Okay, I'll find someone to deal with this Things, don't go there, remember to put things in the dormitory for me..."

Before the words fell, people had already ran out.

When Yun Shang returned to the dormitory, Qiao Yu and Lin Wenhua were huddling together and whispering together, looking intimate, as if they had never had any conflicts.

When Yunshang was wondering when the two would reconcile, she saw Qiao Yu waving at her, "Yunshang, come here quickly, something serious has happened!"

Yun Shang put the burden on Liu Min's bed, and asked curiously, "What happened?"

As soon as the words finished, Lin Wenhua stood up abruptly, pointed to the baggage on the bed and asked, "Is this Liu Min's luggage? Liu Min is here?"

"Well, I met me at the school gate. Has anyone else in the dormitory come yet?"

"Not yet." Qiao Yu gave Lin Wenhua a hand, and asked anxiously, "Yunshang, so... Liu Min knows?"

Yunshang immediately realized what Qiao Yu was asking, and asked in a low voice, "Did you also see the big-character poster?"

"I see, in addition to the library, the bulletin board on the cafeteria side is also posted. Lin Wenhua and I tore up the one on the cafeteria side. There are too many people in the library, and we didn't dare to go there."

Lin Wenhua nodded in agreement at the side, and said fearfully, "A lot of people saw this morning, Liu Min is in big trouble this time. Fortunately, I didn't get into the student union last time, otherwise Liu Min would have jumped into the Yellow River and wouldn't be able to clean himself up." Maybe it will involve me and my aunt."

Qiao Yu gave Lin Wenhua a white look, and said angrily, "It's not that simple. Mr. Liu Min shares the same unit with your aunt, and you share the same dormitory with Liu Min. Someone will definitely ask you to ask questions. You'd better tell me first." Make a phone call at home and let your aunt be mentally prepared."

Chapter 764 trap

Lin Wenhua was so frightened that his face turned pale, worried that he couldn't explain clearly on the phone, so he simply borrowed Yunshang's bicycle and went directly to the factory to report.

Yun Shang packed up her things, and dragged Qiao Yuman around the campus until she confirmed that there were no big-character posters in the school, and then went back to the dormitory to wait for news from Liu Min.

Near noon, Lin Wenhua rushed in sweating profusely, drank half a teacup of water in one breath, then wiped the corners of his mouth and said to the two, "I just asked my aunt, Liu Min and her man quit before the holiday, and she said yes Find another easy job!"

Qiao Yu's face changed, she looked at Yunshang, and asked in an uncertain tone, "Yunshang, why do I feel that something is wrong? Am I thinking too much?"

"You didn't think too much, Liu Min is in big trouble." Yun Shang's face was very ugly. Seeing Lin Wenhua and Qiao Yu looking over with doubts, he paused, and then said, "If I guessed correctly, the man Liu Min The matter of changing jobs should be set by others."

"That's right! That's it!" Qiao Yu slammed the table, "I just said it's a weird idea. Liu Min and her husband are foreigners. They have no connections and no education in the capital. It's already too late to find a temporary worker who works as a coolie." If you are lucky, where can you find another job? Or light work? If there is such a job, the locals in the capital can't grab it, so how can it be his turn as a foreigner.

But it would make sense if someone used him to trick Liu Min, change his job for two months before the summer vacation, let him get to know each other well in the new unit, and then post Liu Min's big characters on the first day of school Even if Liu Min went to report to the police, the police would...not find much. "

Lin Wenhua also came to his senses at this moment, and asked in surprise, "So, Liu Min's new unit may have something to do with the members Liu Min recommended to join the student union?"

"It should be like this." Yunshang nodded, and said to Lin Wenhua, "You go and call your aunt, ask if anyone in the factory knows where Liu Min's man works, and then find out who is looking for the new job ."

As soon as the words fell, Qiao Yu also hurriedly asked, "What about me? What can I do?"

She and Lin Wenhua had more or less disputes with Liu Min in the past, and also had opinions on Liu Min because of joining the student union. Everyone bickered and gossiped behind their backs, to a girl, it was a trivial matter.

No matter what, Liu Min lived in the same dormitory with them for a year, and he was also a leader who wrestled with the senior workers, peasants and soldiers. stand on the same front.

For the first batch of college students after the school resumed the college entrance examination, Liu Min is everyone's face and bottom line!

Keeping Liu Min saves everyone's face. Once something happened to Liu Min, everyone's faces would be full of shame, and in the future, all the big and small matters of the student union will be decided by the group of workers, peasants and soldiers.

What Qiao Yu could think of, Yun Chang naturally thought of it. After sending Lin Wenhua away, she told Qiao Yu in a low voice, "Go around the dormitories and chat with everyone, and get rid of the possibility of Liu Min being tricked. By the way, don't talk too much, just mix the truth with the fake, got it?"

"Okay, I'm not stupid, I know how to say it."

Qiao Yu responded, without even bothering to change her clothes, carrying a lunch box, shouted around several dormitories around, calling a large group of people to eat together in the cafeteria.

At this point in time, the cafeteria is the busiest, plus a group of lesbians eat with gossip, it's a pleasure to think about it.

Chapter 765: The king first

When Lin Wenhua came back from the phone call, he didn't even have time to take a sip of water, so he quickly took Yunshang to share the news he found;

"I found out clearly that Mr. Liu Min is currently in charge of the warehouse in the printing factory. A director of the printing factory surnamed Tian helped him find this job. My aunt also called the printing factory and said that there are many people in the printing factory. know about it."

"Does your aunt know where the person surnamed Tian came from?" Qiao Yu asked.

"It's not from the same unit. I only found out that the man was called Tian Qianjin, so I don't know where he came from." Lin Wenhua sighed and asked Yunshang with a wrinkled face, "What should I do now? I don't even know anyone. We couldn't help if we wanted to."

"It's okay, you go to eat first, I'll go out and make a phone call." Yun Shang patted Lin Wenhua's arm, and hurriedly left the dormitory.

Qiao Yu's mobility was still very strong. After a meal, the old members of the student union teamed up to set Liu Min up, and news spread that Liu Min and the new members of the student union were suppressed and framed.

When Yun Shang finished the call and found Liu Min in the student union office, Liu Min had already cornered the student union chairman in front of the school leaders and comrades from the police.

I have to say that Liu Min is definitely a smart person. After a little work on Yunshang's side, she handed Liu Min a handle, and Liu Min could immediately use the handle as a knife to stab the enemy's vitals neatly.

In Liu Min's view, the other party had already used dirty tricks to pour dirty water on her, so she didn't mind using the same method to fight back.

Of course, this is the only chance that Liu Min can find and seize at present.

Wang Jianye was forced into a corner by Liu Min, trembling with anger, "Slander! You are slander! My conduct is upright, I did not post that big-character poster! I am already the chairman of the student union, so I posted yours. What good does a big-character poster do to me?"

He is already the chairman of the student union, and he will be graduating in a year. For him, the top priority is where he will go after graduation, rather than fighting with a group of people in the student union like black-eyed chickens, competing for that little right to speak.

Besides, Liu Min has only been in the student union for a few months, no matter how clever she is and how determined she is to fight for power, it will not affect his position for the time being before he graduates.

How twitchy is his mind, leaving the vast world outside the school alone, and instead having trouble with a woman who doesn't have much conflict of interest?

Isn't this nonsense!

However, Liu Min was not moved by these words at all, with a cold face, his eyes were fixed on Wang Jianye like sharp arrows, "I also want to know, what good will it do you if you sacrifice a job position and post my big-character poster? It has spread all over the school, and you are the one who took the lead in planning this! What are you planning?!"

Of course Liu Min knew that this matter had nothing to do with Wang Jianye, but she could only pour dirty water on Wang Jianye's head before she identified the mastermind behind the scenes.

The so-called capture the thief first and capture the king, who will make Wang Jianye the biggest official?

Besides, Wang Jianye's vision and skills are definitely enough to secure the position of student union chairman. Liu Min didn't know who was behind the scenes, but Wang Jianye could definitely guess.

The most important thing is that under Liu Min's pressing step by step, if Wang Jianye wants to get rid of the scapegoat, he can only help Liu Min find out the real mastermind behind the scenes.

In this way, the workers, peasants, and soldiers of the student union will fight among themselves first, and when they start work in the future, the other party will not be able to hold together to suppress newcomers like before.

Chapter 766: Solve

Seeing Liu Min pushing Wang Jianye to the corner and questioning Wang Jianye aggressively one after another, not only the people from the school affairs office and the two police officers were stunned, but even other members of the student union were also shocked.

Is this woman really so powerful in fighting?

In front of so many people, grabbing Wang Jianye and slamming him, this is to directly kill Wang Jianye.

Wang Jianye was on the verge of crying, he had run out of words, but Liu Min didn't listen, and grabbed a few rumors that couldn't stand scrutiny and kept putting shit on his head. This picture of pretending to be crazy and foolish was just like playing tricks on his daughter-in-law. It's the same all the time, so f*cking scary.

It's just that if he admits to being cowardly like this and helps Liu Min find out who is behind the scenes, of course he can get rid of the blame on his head, but in this way, his reputation as the president of the student union will also be slapped.

What's more troublesome is that the people under him will also have opinions on him, and the group of workers, peasants and soldiers who were originally huddled together will also fall apart.

This woman named Liu Min is really difficult.

Wang Jianye was full of worries and refused to let go. Liu Min pressed every step of the way and refused to give up half a point. The two fought like black-eyed chickens, and almost fought against the table in the corner. In the end, two police officers came forward to allow the two to temporarily cease fighting.

The people from the Academic Affairs Office began to drive away the student union members who were watching the excitement in the office. Yunshang took the opportunity to pull Liu Min aside and talked about the news he had found out.

"Director Tian of the printing factory is the cousin of Zhao Huajie, the classmate you recommended to join the student union. He is also the neighbor of Zhu Yuan, an old member of the student union. I have asked people to inquire about the relationship between Zhao Huajie's family and Director Tian's family because of the previous generation. I haven't been very close, but Director Tian has a good relationship with Zhu Yuan's family, so you can play by ear later."

"Okay, I'll cheat on Wang Jianye later." Liu Min heaved a sigh of relief after figuring out Director Tian's relationship, and the smile on his face was also a little easier, "Yunshang, wait until today, I invite you You go to the restaurant!"

The other party set up a trap for her to drill two months ago. It was already a fatal situation, but Yunshang insisted on asking Qiao Yu to launch a public opinion war without many clues, dragging Wang Jianye into the water and helping her stabilize out of the situation. Now help her find out the details of Director Tian. In this round, not only would she not lose, but she could also catch the opponent by surprise, remove some of the opponent's members, and fight for a few places for the freshmen to enter the student union.

It can be said that without Yunshang, not only their family of four would be ruined, but also Zhao Huajie, who was recommended by her to join the student union, would be ruined as well. Even the interests she had won in the student union before would have to be surrendered.

This kind of favor is too great, it is far from just saying thank you lightly on the lips, or paying for a meal, which can be repaid.

Yun Shang understood Liu Min's thoughts, so she was not polite to her, and agreed with a smile, "Okay, call Qiao Yu and Lin Wenhua, they also ran away for a long time because of your business."

The sky is dim, and the small roadside restaurants are lit with dim lights. The light is not bright enough, but it makes people feel warm.

In the restaurant, Liu Min pushed the plate of braised pork to the middle of the table. While eating, he told several people about the outcome of the big-character poster incident:

"Zhu Yuan won't be able to get into this university, and he probably won't be able to keep his job at the original unit. Before, I was worried that I would take away his right to be the propaganda minister. This time it's fine, don't worry."

Qiao Yu and Lin Wenhua's eyes lit up, they looked at each other, and quickly asked, "So, the Student Union is recruiting again?"

"Well, there are four vacant seats in the Propaganda Department. I have 'discussed' with Wang Jianye. This time, we will recruit people from freshmen, freshmen and sophomores, and don't consider workers, peasants, and soldiers."

Yun Chang asked meaningfully, "If you don't show up, Wang Jianye will notify the rest of the student union?"

Liu Min nodded, thinking of Wang Jianye's expression as if he had eaten shit when he was blackmailed in the afternoon, the smile on his face deepened.

"Wang Jianye is about to graduate, so he doesn't have much time to pay attention to the affairs of the student union. Others can't hold together now. When newcomers come in, it should be much easier to start work."

Chapter 767 Really Fragrant

Liu Min talked about joining the student union at the dinner table. Apart from helping Lin Wenhua and Qiao Yu enter the student union, the most important thing was to win Yun Shang into the student union.

Not to mention that Yunshang's ability and wrist are more than enough to cope with the work of the student union. Even if a living Bodhisattva like Yunshang sits in the student union, even if she doesn't do any work, she can deter those restless old students.

As for Lin Wenhua and Qiao Yu, Liu Min also saw some bright spots in them from the big-character poster incident. Although the two of them don't have the ability to be independent, they can still be small soldiers who run errands and do odd jobs. No matter how bad it is, the two of them can still do some chores such as serving tea and pouring water, and cleaning up the event venue.

After all, the student union office area has to be cleaned every day.

The most important thing is that after the big-character poster incident, the few people have become a small group. She helped Lin Wenhua and Qiao Yu enter the student union. These two people will be her people in the future. This time it was the same, she was alone, and there was no one in the student union who spoke for her.

Yun Shang didn't give Liu Min an answer at the dinner table, but only said that after thinking about it for a few days, she separated from a few people at the entrance of the hotel, and rode a bicycle to the courtyard.

After arriving at the door of the house, Yun Chang saw Bai Qingming sitting under the eaves, holding a piece of watermelon and eating happily, his mouth was covered with watermelon juice, and there was a watermelon seed on his chin. From a distance, it looked like a big watermelon. Seems like.

Seeing Yunshang, Bai Qingming's eyes widened in surprise, "Didn't you go to school, why are you back?"

"If I don't come back, I won't know that you ate my watermelon!"

Yunshang parked her bicycle, went to grab a piece of watermelon, took a big bite, sighed comfortably, and continued, "Class will start tomorrow, and I can sleep at home all night. By the way, why are you back?"

"Wu Xiang's train tomorrow, I plan to go to the Normal University, and also get a little bit of your cultural spirit."

Yun Chang's face darkened.

When you came back together, you sent Wu Xiang to school, not me and my sister?

snort! This means you don't want a girl if you have a daughter-in-law?

Men are really unreliable ㄟ(ㄟ ^ ㄟ)ㄟ

Bai Qingming was used to being bullied over the years, seeing that Yun Chang's face was not right, she resolutely followed her heart.

"Xiao Qi, that... I sent Wu Xiang off by the way. Didn't I hear my mother say that you have to go to class tomorrow? I just wanted to come back and carry your bedroll or something..."

It's not that he's a waste, it's that Xiao Qi is too small-minded, he can't afford to provoke him.

When Qiuqiu first came home, he slapped Xiaoqi because of a chicken bone. Xiaoqi didn't say anything at the time, but three months later, Qiuqiu went into the kitchen and knocked over the oil bottle. Xiaoqi took the opportunity to slap Qiuqiu. After a while, he still whispered in his ear that he had avenged that slap.

When she was a child, she was slapped by a cat and she could remember the grudge for three months. How small is this mind?

Thinking of Yun Shang's narrow-minded past, Bai Qingming felt that he had better admit it.

He has a partner now, and he wants to live a few more years.

How could Yun Shang not know that Bai Qingming was talking nonsense, so she gave him a contemptuous sideways glance, dropped the watermelon rind, got up and went back to the house.

O man!

When chasing Wu Xiang back then, he kept saying that because she wanted Wu Xiang to be his sister-in-law, he reluctantly made a sacrifice to chase Wu Xiang. As a result, after only two months of hard work, I have a daughter-in-law and no longer a sister.

This face hit... really delicious!

Chapter 768 military training

Back at school the next day, Yun Shang didn't refuse Liu Min's invitation again, and happily agreed to join the student union.

After all, Little Six was bragging to her yesterday about how powerful Comrade Wu Xiang is and how capable he is. As a good friend, she can't be too far behind.

Even if he wanted to be lazy, he couldn't make it too obvious, lest Xiao Liuzi, a semi-literate boy, would turn the world upside down and taunt her vigorously.

When Yunshang joined the student union, Liu Min was the happiest. Although Lin Wenhua and Qiao Yu could help her share some of the work, those two weak chickens together were not worth one Yunshang.

No, Yunshang just joined the student union, and she helped the school connect with the military region, and directly dragged this year's freshmen to military training. This made the sophomores like them envious. Many people ran to the playground to watch the military training every day, jealous. There are still many people who write applications and type reports. They want to receive the same treatment as freshmen, and they want to participate in military training.

You know, the soldier is the most honorable profession in this era. Even if you can't be a real soldier and go to the front line to defend your home and country, it's always good to participate in military training and experience the life of the army.

Knowing that the military training was facilitated by Yunshang, the students in the class worked hard on Yunshang, and wanted her to come forward to discuss with the school and let the old students follow the military training. It's a pity that Yunshang rejected them on the grounds of lack of manpower and the school playground is not big enough (in fact, she is lazy).

Most of the people at this time were simple, and Yun Chang said that, although everyone was disappointed, no one asked Yun Chang to think of a way.

In Beijing at the beginning of September, it was the time when autumn tigers were rampant. Every afternoon, the sun shone unobstructed on the playground, and it was almost enough to burn people into oily flowers. It can be seen how poisonous the sun is.

Yunshang was a wimpy child, always watching the excitement of the freshmen by the side of the playground in the name of the student union caring for the new students and delivering water to the new students.

The cat was in the shade of the tree, nibbling cream popsicles, watching the freshmen sweating during training, and from time to time took out a snow-white handkerchief to wipe off the sweat that didn't exist on their foreheads, smiling with squinted eyes, Not to mention being annoying.

At first, Liu Min thought that Yun Shang really cared about the situation of the freshmen's military training, but after looking at her sneering appearance in private, no matter how she looked at it, she felt that there was a good-natured smile on her face, a gloating smile.

Otherwise, how can you laugh so hatefully?

Liu Min was speechless, couldn't see it several times, and dragged Yunshang away.

This thing is so sleazy, if you don't get rid of it quickly, the freshmen who are oily from the sun can stab her to death with a knife in the eye.

Not to mention that Yunshang came up with the idea of the military training and brought it together. If the freshmen know that the 'culprit' is this black-bellied guy who puts popsicles in the shade every day to watch their jokes, and is appointed to form a group to trap her sack.

Yun Shang swallowed the last popsicle, wiped the corners of her mouth, and told Liu Min about her suggestion for the work of the Propaganda Department:

"The Propaganda Department is the mouthpiece of the student union and one of the main bridges for students to obtain information. We can't just do some small work to convey information about various school activities, but we should also keep up with the ideological education of the students and cooperate with the organization to be a good member of the league. Educational work. I suggest that the next work of the Propaganda Department should focus on the ideological and political work of the whole school, and the advantages of our department should not be wasted."

Liu Min nodded, looking at Yunshang with burning eyes, "To be honest, I'm worried about this, what advice do you have?"

"run a school newspaper, run a radio station."

Chapter 769

Liu Min was stunned for a moment, "run a school newspaper? Can the school agree? And where can I get the broadcasting equipment? How can I solve the funding problem?"

"I've inquired about it. The school has an old printing machine. It can be used by someone to repair it. It's enough for the school newspaper. It's just that the broadcasting equipment needs to be looked for by someone."

In the past few years, the school was too damaged, and the college entrance examination has only been resumed for one year. These universities are all cleaner than their faces, so they can only reach out to ask the organization for funds and manpower to build and repair the school.

Given the current poor state of the school, it should not be so easy to apply for funds to buy new broadcasting equipment. Besides, there is no need to buy new broadcasting equipment for a small school broadcasting station, it is too wasteful and not worth it.

Yunshang thought about asking someone to go to some big factories to see if they could buy a set of old equipment at a low price, which would save the school a little bit.

"It's a good idea. The old equipment will work just fine. After a few years, the school will have enough money to replace it with a new one."

Liu Min nodded, seeing that Yunshang had walked out of the shade of the trees, she pulled her back, and continued, "It is a good thing to run a school newspaper and a radio station. We can apply to the school after asking for the price of the broadcasting equipment. As long as the price It's not outrageous, the school should be able to pass. It's just that I'm not familiar with the boundaries of the capital, and I don't have any connections, so you have to inquire about the broadcasting equipment."

"Success, I'll ask someone to find out, and I think there will be news in two or three days."

When I got home in the evening, Yun Shang mentioned at the dinner table that she wanted to help the school find the broadcasting equipment. Bai Yancheng was about to take over the job and put it in front of her daughter to perform well. Unexpectedly, Lin Wenlan raised her eyelids and said first, "You don't have to look outside. The regiment has just replaced new equipment in the first half of the year. The old ones should still be in the warehouse, and they can be used after repairing them. If you don't get the money together. If so, I can borrow it from you first."

Yun Shang was not very excited, and frowned slightly, "Mom, is this going to happen? Let's spend money to buy it. It won't be good if it doesn't affect you."

These days, although various units will borrow and exchange things from each other, it is still rare for military regions to borrow things from other countries. The news got out, and those who knew it said that the army was helping the university, but those who didn't know thought that Lin Wenlan was playing favoritism for her, and it would not be good if it got out.

Besides, running a radio station is a business matter, so she doesn't need to ask Lin Wenlan to ask for favors just to save money.

Not worth it.

The daughter was so caring, Lin Wenlan smiled even more, and said happily, "You can buy it with money, and I will say hello to the group later, and let the school deal with it cheaper."

The broadcasting equipment was in place, and as soon as Yunshang arrived at the school, she took Liu Min to the school youth league committee to make a report and apply for the opening of a school newspaper and a radio station.

When the members of the Youth League Committee heard that the two had even found the broadcasting equipment, and the price was very cheap, they were very supportive.

After all, running a school newspaper and radio station is a good thing. It allows students to subtly improve their political thinking while studying, and it can also provide students with two positive ways of pastime.

In case these students have nothing to do after studying, they just think about some bad things.

There are some weak-willed students who have finally been admitted to university, not to mention studying hard, but even want to sneak in a girlfriend. There are even some people who conceal their marriage history, abandon their spouse and children in the countryside, and want to find a like-minded revolutionary comrade again.

It's just too outrageous.

Therefore, school newspapers and radio stations can be run, and they must be run as soon as possible.

Chapter 770 ball accident

With the support of the school, the people in the propaganda department are busy.

First, taking advantage of the approaching National Day, I chose the theme of praising the motherland and praising the new society, and solicited manuscripts for the school newspaper from all students in the school. Poems and articles are fine. At the same time, the Propaganda Department will invite teachers from the Chinese Department to select some excellent articles and put them on the school radio station for publicity. Individual extremely excellent articles will also help to be submitted to large newspapers outside. If they can be published, they can also get a little manuscript fee.

These days, in addition to studying, college students still have very poor spare time life, so the school radio station recites poems or articles every afternoon, as well as the red song after the recitation, like a stone thrown into a calm lake, making the originally calm and serious campus Suddenly it got lively.

Students actively participate in it, write articles in their spare time, submit articles to the school newspaper, watch their articles printed on the school newspaper and read by the whole school, or read to the teachers and students of the school by the school radio station. The feeling of harvest is full, which makes everyone fresh and proud, and feels that their spare time life has become more colorful.

The school leaders thought that the students would experience some setbacks in running the school newspaper and radio station, and the results would not be realized so quickly. I didn't expect that just a simple essay call would make such a big movement. All teachers and students in the school actively participated in it, and the atmosphere in the school became better.

Seeing that the cadres of the new student union are becoming more and more reliable, the school leaders are gradually relieved. What activities will the Propaganda Department carry out after that, as long as Liu Min and Yunshang take the lead, the school leaders will no longer stare at everything like before. on.

After the essay contest ended, Yun Chang took advantage of the weekend to sleep until noon. She wanted to go to the Normal University to see Wu Xiang after dinner, but Bai Qingming ran back from the army again, and didn't even care about eating. I took Wu Xiang to watch a movie.

Looking at the appearance of Bai Qingming's rush to go out, Yun Chang felt that the big buns in her hands were no longer fragrant. While scolding Xiao Liuzi as a big pig's hoof, she comforted her own brother who was unreliable, and she also had a very reliable second brother Gu. Woolen cloth. After dinner, she would call Gu Erge, so she didn't need to envy Xiao Liuzi.

However, Yunshang's call was not made after all.

Mao Qiu jumped in from outside the door, ran gently to Yun Chang's side, buried his head in her lap and whimpered.

Yun Chang swallowed the last bun, rubbed Mao Qiu's head and asked, "Mao Qiu, why are you back, Qiu Qiu?"

The two cats went out early in the morning, and now only Maoqiu came back, looking sad and sad, Yunshang thought Qiuqiu was educating Maoqiu again.

"Ooooooooo~"

It's okay if you don't ask, but when she asks, the furball whimpers louder, biting Yunshang's trousers and dragging her out the door.

Yun Chang's heart sank a little, thinking that Qiuqiu was not in good spirits since last year, and in recent days he has not been able to go out every day, and his heart sank to the bottom in an instant.

"Maoqiu, is something wrong with Qiuqiu?"

Ball is sixteen years old.

If it is in a few decades, she can give Qiuqiu cat food, various canned foods, nutritional creams, vitamins, and regular medical examinations for Qiuqiu. She is confident that Qiuqiu will live to be 20 years old.

But in this day and age, even though she often fed Qiuqiu all kinds of meat, Qiuqiu could live to be sixteen years old, which was considered a very long-lived cat.

Yun Chang had a premonition that something had happened to Qiuqiu, but before she could find Qiuqiu, she still held on to a 10,000th hope that Qiuqiu was just injured or taken away, instead of leaving forever. took her.
