Chapter 79 Arrest

It was only then that Yun Chang realized that she couldn't detain these things. If there were no explosives and pistols, the two enemy agents could fool the public security and exonerate themselves with just any reason.

For example: I lost the letter of introduction, I wanted to sneak up to sleep, another example, I was hungry and wanted to come over to find something to eat...

Thinking of this, Yun Chang was a little disappointed, and asked Gu Shinian very reluctantly, "Second brother Gu, where are the two pistols, can I keep one?"

Gu Shinian was stunned for a moment. He didn't seem to think that Yun Chang would be interested in pistols. Seeing her staring at him again, his heart softened and he nodded in agreement:

"...Yes, then keep a handful and put the other things in your clothes and put them back!"

Yun Chang immediately understood what Gu Shinian meant, nodded excitedly, and ran into the room in a flash.

Second floor, room 205.

The two enemy agents were frightened for a long time by the strange scene, and then they were frightened by the sudden kick of the door and the police officers who broke in with guns.

Scarface rolled over and got out of bed, pushed open the window, and wanted to take the explosives in his hands to threaten the police, but he didn't find the explosives bag for a long time, and was shot by the police who mistakenly thought he was jumping out of the window on the leg.

And the little man lost his weapon, and saw the police fire mercilessly and directly, he was startled, turned over from the bed, huddled at the head of the bed with both hands, and kept begging for mercy:

"Don't shoot! Don't shoot! Comrade Public Security, I, I, we are just here to find some money to spend... Comrade Public Security, I don't dare anymore, I know it's wrong, I really know it's wrong..."

Scar's face was stunned for a moment, but also reacted immediately.

Yup! The gun is gone, the dagger is gone, and the explosives are gone. As long as he insists that he is here to steal, there is no evidence that he is an enemy agent.

Thinking of this, Scarface also covered his leg and screamed, and even opened his mouth to buckle the hats of the two police officers, shouting that this is a new society, and the police broke in and shot people without asking. They are blatantly persecuting the good people!

At this time, several people in room 105 and the aunt also ran over. When she heard the words of Scarface, the aunt cut away the crowd and slapped him:

"Bah! What kind of good people are you! The two bad cowards who have been sabotaging everywhere are not enemy special agents, but also labor prisoners with cases on their backs. They have the shame to say that you are a good citizen? Why don't you say that you are also in our revolutionary ranks. comrade?"

When the two police officers saw Wu Yangyang surrounding seven or eight people, they immediately put away their guns, handcuffed the scarred face and the little man, and pushed them out of the room. some time.

The furniture in the room is very simple, a table with high legs, a chair, two canopy beds, two quilts with blue quilt covers are rolled at the head of the bed, and there is a slightly shorter small bed in the middle of the two beds. Square table.

At a glance, the things in the room are simple and clear at a glance, and there is nothing inappropriate.

The police first opened the desk drawer, which was empty.

Then I opened the drawer of the small square table, which was also empty.

Finally, I lifted the sheets and looked under the bed, but it was still clean, and I couldn't find any mouse droppings.

When the aunt saw that the two police officers had been looking for the wrong place, she was anxious, lying by the door frame and shouting:

"I'm talking about you two! This enemy doesn't even wear a padded jacket, so things must be hidden. Look carefully, there's nothing in the drawer, isn't there a quilt, it must be hidden in the quilt!"

After speaking, the two police officers, who were still muttering, looked like newbies, inexperienced, and they couldn't even find the wrong place when they searched.

The two looked at each other, and one shook a quilt, but the quilt on the right bed really hid a padded jacket.

When I opened the jacket again, I saw a row of explosives inside, a pistol in the pocket, and an inconspicuous pocket sewn on the chest, with a few household registration documents stuffed in it.

There are also several blank letters of introduction, stamped.

As for the money and various bills, none of them were taken away by Yunshang.

The people outside were all looking inside with their heads hooked. When they saw that the police had found guns and explosives, they were fried in a flash. When they turned back to face the two enemy agents who claimed to be thieves, they beat them in the face.

As soon as he moved his hand a few times, a watermelon knife with a cold light and a few bullets fell out of the little man.

The little man was dumbfounded, whose knife is this?

How could it be on him?

who put it?

Damn, this hostel isn't really haunted, is it?

Otherwise, how to explain this series of events at night?

The thing disappeared inexplicably and came back inexplicably, and he could put the knife on him unknowingly.

If this is not pleasing to his eye, give him a knife, and he can only be a fool even to death!

Thinking about it this way, the little man immediately felt that it was good to be arrested by the police, so that he could leave this strange and ghostly hostel quickly.

The two police officers pulled away the furious crowd and escorted the two enemy agents downstairs. When they passed the counter, they saw the little comrade who reported them sitting next to the counter, holding a pale girl in their arms.

The older police officer motioned to his colleagues to escort the enemy out first, then walked up to Gu Shinian and saluted:

"Little comrade, thank you very much for this matter today. If it weren't for you, we wouldn't have caught the enemy so easily."

Gu Shinian replied very politely, "Comrade Public Security, no matter who it is, there is no reason to stand by when such a thing happens. It's a coincidence for me."

The smile on the police's face became more and more obvious, "Little Comrade, my surname is Liu, you can just call me Comrade Liu. You have helped us so much, I will report it truthfully when I go back, and you will stay here for the past two days. Guest house, when the case is over, the government will reward you..."

"Uncle Liu, we're going home in the next few days!" Yun Chang answered in a milky voice.

The military region also intervened in the matter of the big explosion. If Gu Shinian was commended in the provincial capital, then Gu Huaqing would have known that he had come to the provincial capital, and he would not know what kind of moths would be born by then.

It would be a pity to just give up the commendation.

After all, she and Gu Shinian also made a lot of efforts to capture the enemy this time. This is a real honor, and it can also be recorded in Gu Shinian's personal file in the future. This kind of good thing, Yun Chang is really reluctant to give up.

"Liu Gongan, my sister is right. We are almost too busy with things in the provincial capital. It is estimated that we will not wait for the case to be closed."

Liu Gongan was stunned for a moment, and quickly came up with a new solution, "Well, leave me an address, and when the case is closed, we will let the local government commend you, what do you think?"

Before Gu Shinian spoke, Yun Chang was dissatisfied.

Can the commendation given by the Qinghe County Government be compared with the commendation given by the Linyang Municipal Government or the provincial government?

At least the gold content can't be compared!
