Chapter 85 Visiting the Bai Family

Yun Chang looked at the person lying on the ground. It was an unfamiliar face that he had never seen before. He was about twenty-one or two years old. He was not tall and thin.

It can be seen that this person should have been starving for a long time, with high cheekbones on both sides, and no flesh on his face. He was lying curled up on the ground at this moment, and blood was bubbling out from the deep bone wound, staining the thin, sharp-pointed stone at his hand.

This thin stone should be the weapon he used for robbery. The sharpest part of the top is still stained with black blood stains left after seeing blood. It is not much, but it makes people feel cold.

Gu Shinian also knew that this man was not a good person, and had no plans to give him medicine. He tore a piece of cloth from his cotton-padded coat, bandaged the injured area, and dragged his collar to make him lean against the wall halfway. Only then did she quickly leave the scene with Yun Chang in her arms.

When such a thing happened, the two of them no longer wanted to buy a stove. They squeezed onto the tram at the street corner and hurried back to the guest house.

Yun Chang's face was still white when she returned to the room. Gu Shinian went downstairs to get hot water and washed her face. Yun Chang's fear in the bottom of her heart was much better.

"Ah Chang, are you better?"

Gu Shinian knew in his heart that the reason why he and Yun Chang were being watched was most likely because he kept gnawing on the twist at the gate of the theater school, and that was why Yun Chang was implicated. He should be more careful. Fortunately, there is only one person on the other side, otherwise the two would not have been able to escape so easily.

Yun Chang did not miss the self-blame and worry in Gu Shinian's eyes, and opened her arms around Gu Shinian's neck, comforting both Gu Shinian and herself, "Second brother Gu, I'm not afraid! If you can't beat that person, I will I can use my mental power to help you fight, if I can't fight again, I can go into the space to escape, and it will definitely not happen."

Gu Shinian patted Yunshang's head, "Ah Chang, the second brother didn't think carefully about this matter today, and he won't do it again in the future. Also, space is not everything, you should be more careful when you are alone, don't do it again. Make the same mistake as the second brother."

Today's incident really sounded the alarm for Gu Shinian, and it also made Yun Chang's heartstrings that were gradually loosening after meeting Gu Shinian suddenly tightened again.

"Second brother Gu, why don't we...we won't buy stoves for the time being, and we won't be able to buy bicycles anymore. There are not many bicycles in the county now. If we bought them, it would be too eye-catching. Let's wait for a few years. ."

Yunshang can be said to be bitten by a snake at one time, afraid of the rope for ten years, thinking that the iron stove weighing 70 to 80 catties cannot be carried by the two of them, and then thinking that if they have a bicycle, they dare not ride out at will. Frozen doesn't dare to attract people's attention anymore.

"A-shang, I still have to buy a stove. In winter, the house can be warmer. Even in summer, you can put the stove outside and use it as a stove."

"But how do we get the stove back, or do we wait until we go back to the county to buy it?" Before she thought about buying the stove, the two carried the stove to a remote corner and put it in the space, but what happened today, Yun Chang no longer dared to take chances.

"The county can't even buy an iron pot, and where can I buy a stove? Even if it is sold, we have to be lucky enough to come across it."

Yun Chang hesitated for a while, and then let go after a while, "Second brother Gu, let's go and have a look tomorrow. If we can move it, we'll buy it, okay?"

"Alright, I'll take you to the hospital in the morning and buy a stove in the afternoon."

Speaking of the hospital, Yun Chang then remembered that Zhou Mingjuan still had a recording pen glued to her office. She raised her hand and patted her forehead.

"Second brother Gu, Zhou Mingjuan's office has a voice recorder...!"

"Well, I'll find a chance to get it back tomorrow." Gu Shinian stood up and closed the door, then looked out the window and saw that the sky was already dark, he turned back and asked Yun Chang, "Ah Chang, I'm hungry. Right? Shall I take you out to dinner?"

Yun Chang doesn't want to go out at all now,

Shaking his head like a rattle, he quickly jumped out of bed and put food on the table, "I'll eat in my room, I'll go to bed early after dinner!"

Gu Shinian held back his smile, carried Yun Chang to the only chair in the room, and the two of them had dinner at the table.

It was just off-duty time, and the number of pedestrians on the street gradually increased, rushing home against the whistling north wind.

In the courtyard of the Provincial Military Region, Han Weijun was taking Han Chen as a guest at Bai Yancheng's house.

At the dinner table, Bai Yancheng and Han Weijun were eating and talking about the military affairs. The three children of the Bai family also lowered their heads and ate sweetly. Only Han Chen and Lin Wenlan frowned and stared at Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue from time to time. Look, the other one is in a trance, holding his rice bowl in a daze from time to time.

"Hey, why do you keep looking at me?" Bai Qingyue put down her chopsticks and stared at Han Chen.

Han Chen was only twelve or thirteen years old, and when the little girl asked this in front of everyone, her face was a little overwhelmed, and she immediately denied it, "I didn't look at you! A friend of mine is very similar."

Bai Yancheng held the chopstick's hand for a while, then quickly looked at Lin Wenlan. Seeing that she hadn't heard the quarrel between the two children, she turned back and glared at Bai Qingyue, "Xiao Wu, why are you talking to the guests?"

"I'm not wrong, he's just looking at me." Bai Qingyue lowered her head and muttered in a low voice.

The dinner table became quiet again. Lin Wenlan put down his chopsticks and asked Han Weijun, "Weijun, how long can you stay here this time? I have prepared a gift for the old man, and you can bring it back to me when you return to the capital."

This was Lin Wenlan's first sentence at the dinner table, and Han Weijun quickly put down his chopsticks, "Sister-in-law, I have a mission here this time, and I can't go back until the mission is completed. I can't say for how long I can stay here."

Lin Wenlan lowered her eyelids and continued in a flat tone, "Did the old man send you here? Wei Jun, Bai Yancheng doesn't tell me the truth. Tell the truth to your sister-in-law. Do you have news about Xiaoqi?"

As soon as these words came out, not only Bai Yancheng slowly put down his chopsticks, but even the three children of the Bai family put down their chopsticks together.

In the Bai family, Xiao Qi is a taboo existence. As long as the word 'Xiao Qi' is mentioned, Lin Wenlan will definitely have a fight with Bai Yancheng.

This has been the case for years, without exception.

Bai Yancheng looked a little embarrassed and a little embarrassed. Obviously, in front of Han Weijun and several children, he didn't want to quarrel with Lin Wenlan.

"Wen Lan, what are you doing? We're eating, and the guards are the guests. What can I say after dinner?"

Lin Wenlan raised her eyelids, looked at Bai Yancheng very calmly, picked up the chopsticks without saying a word and continued to eat, and the table became calm again.
