Chapter 87 Misunderstandings

Han Weijun felt that Bai Yancheng's short-tempered appearance was too hot for his eyes. He couldn't bear to look directly, and tried his best to suppress the corners of his upturned mouth.

Just kidding, Lin Wenlan has held back his anger for two days, and it is raging at the moment, he won't rush to be cannon fodder!

Bai Yancheng is anxious, didn't this Han Weijun agree to speak for him, why did he become a traitor who escaped?

No, this Han Weijun is not even a traitor. Not only does he not speak for him, he also sits next to him and watches his jokes!

Bai Yancheng rubbed his brows and said with a cold face for the first time, "Wen Lan, I am a soldier, and you are also a soldier, if those people want to trade my life for Xiao Qi's life, I will definitely kill Xiao Qi without saying a word. Replace it for you.

But this time it didn't work. The enemy bombed the Beishan Coal Mine. Up to now, more than 70 miners have been buried underground. More than 20 of the seriously wounded rescued have not been rescued, and there are more than 30 family members in the mine. He died in the collapsed house and injured more than 200 people. Caused such a big accident, the enemy wanted to blow up the train station and the power plant. If I compromised with the enemy because of Xiaoqi, have you thought about the consequences? "

As soon as Bai Yancheng finished speaking, the teacup in Lin Wenlan's hand fell to the ground in shock. She stood up, her face was ashen, she stared at Bai Yancheng coldly for a while, and went back to the room without saying a word.

Obviously, Bai Yancheng's remarks pierced Lin Wenlan's heart. From the fact that she dropped the teacup in shock and the sad and angry expression on her face, it could be seen that Bai Yancheng's remarks had a great impact on her.

But Bai Yancheng didn't realize it yet. Seeing Lin Wenlan pushing him away, he jumped angrily and said angrily to Han Weijun, "Look at her attitude!"

Han Weijun on the side covered his face and silently ordered a wax for Bai Yancheng in his heart.

As a bystander, he almost understood that Lin Wenlan's anger seemed to deviate from what Bai Yancheng thought.

There was a lack of communication between the two and there was a misunderstanding.

Moreover, the misunderstanding seems to be quite small.

It has to be said that Han Weijun, a bystander, is far more sober than Bai Yancheng.

In fact, Lin Wenlan was angry not that Bai Yancheng did not compromise with the enemy, but that when she was threatened by the enemy, Bai Yancheng deliberately avoided her by pretending to be confused, and let her be alone for Xiaoqi. Worried and afraid.

Qi Bai Yancheng had the news of Xiao Qi last night, but he still refused to tell her the truth, angry that he gave up Xiao Qi a long time ago, and was still trying to prevaricate her with illusory guarantees.

The most important thing is that Lin Wenlan didn't know until now that the enemy's purpose was not to escape from Linyang from Chengnan Bus Station, but to use her desire to protect Xiaoqi and let her pass a message to Bai Yancheng, in order to disturb the troops and the public security. the sight of them, and strive for the convenience for them to blow up the railway station and the power plant.

Bai Yancheng knew the purpose of the enemy's special early in the morning. He could also give her a hint to let her know the seriousness of the matter, but he didn't say a word, just watched her go crazy and let her go. Called the old man Bai for help, and let her almost make a big mistake because of selfishness.

In fact, she called Bai Yancheng, and she just wanted Bai Yancheng to move the martial law in the south of the city to the outside of the city, intercept the enemy special who escaped from Linyang, and rescue Xiaoqi.

But no one told her how naive and ridiculous her idea was.

Her life was simply a joke.

Her husband didn't trust her. The child she wanted to protect the most might have had an accident. She almost made a mistake, ruined her other three children, and almost became a sinner in Quanlinyang City!

Lin Wenlan kept tidying up the gifts for the Bai family in the capital, but her tears flowed down like beads with a broken thread. Her heart was sad and angry, but she couldn't find a way to vent.

In the living room, Han Weiguo slowly frowned, "Brother Cheng, I think my sister-in-law should have guessed that something happened to Xiao Qi."

"Guess it?" Bai Yancheng was startled.

"No way, how did you guess?"

"My sister-in-law was watching your expression when I stopped Han Yang to ask questions. I guess I had doubts at that time. Coupled with what you said just now, I guess my sister-in-law has already made up her mind."

Bai Yancheng was even more confused, "What did I say?"

Han Weijun looked at Bai Yancheng sympathetically, "You said, if the special enemy trades your life for Xiaoqi's life, you will exchange Xiaoqi back without saying a word."

On the other hand, isn't it because Bai Yancheng gave up Xiao Qi's life in order to save the railway station and power plant.

Bai Yancheng reacted and patted his head fiercely, "It's over! I really can't tell now."

The two sat uneasily in the living room, watching Lin Wenlan walk out with a calm expression, put the large package in his hand on the coffee table, and told Han Weijun the division of the gifts in the package one by one.

Lin Wenlan was in a bad mood at the moment, Han Weijun didn't dare to speak to Bai Yancheng, took the package, ignored Bai Yancheng's resentful eyes, went upstairs to call Han Chen, and quickly took his son away from Bai's house.

Now the situation is getting more and more tense. Before he came over, the chief had explained that if Lin Wenlan really forgot his identity as a soldier, his mind was not clear, and he insisted on dragging the whole Bai family into the water for Xiaoqi, then he could tell what the chief said. When she said that, she beat Lin Wenlan a few words and put a little pressure on her.

But the current situation is obviously not like this. The couple have no communication at all. If there is a misunderstanding between the two, then he is still a fart.

He just cares that Lin Wenlan doesn't drag the Bai family into the water, is it possible that he has to help Bai Yancheng to coax his daughter-in-law?

Han Chen sat in the passenger seat and looked at Han Weijun's cold face. After all, he didn't say that Yun Chang was very similar to Lin Wenlan.

He was sensitively aware that Bai Yancheng and Han Weijun didn't seem to be happy to hear someone who was very similar to Lin Wenlan.

The sun had just emerged from the sky, and Gu Shinian and Yun Chang had already arrived at the hospital.

The doctor hadn't gone to work yet. Across the door, Yun Chang stretched out his mental strength to retrieve the recording pen, first threw it into the space to charge, and then glued a new recording pen to it as instructed by the caregiver. Then they went out hand in hand to find a place to have breakfast.

The door of the state-run hotel was open, and there was a large iron stove at the door. The charcoal fire inside was vigorously burning, and a large iron pot was supported on it. Half of the pot was covered with barbed wire, and a few large fried dough sticks were placed on it.

There were too many people buying fried dough sticks, and there was a long queue in front of the stove. Yun Chang quickly pulled Gu Shinian to the back of the queue.

Smelling the fragrance of the fragrant fried dough sticks, and listening to the people in front of them chatting, Yunshang realized that the fried dough sticks in the state-run restaurant can only be served once a week. But even so, every time the fritters are served, the people in the back are often unable to buy them.

The two waited in line for nearly 20 minutes, bought two fried dough sticks, and went into the store to ask for two bowls of wontons, and sat there to eat.

There is no shortage of food in the space for the two of them, and they do not compete with others for food. They just try it out. They are not like others, who rarely encounter oily food, and have to buy several at a time to satisfy their cravings.
