Chapter 89 Opening the door to a new world

The woman's eyes slanted towards the cake to indicate to Zhou Mingjuan, "Where else do you think this cake came from?"

Zhou Mingjuan was completely stunned, opened her mouth, and asked dryly, "Chen, Sister Chen, you mean... This cake was given to you by your stepson?"

Mom, why is this stepson more filial than his own son?

Such a rare cake was delivered to the stepmother without blinking. How can this relationship really work?

"Yeah, as soon as I got this cake, my stepson sent it to me from the capital."

The woman smiled dignifiedly, and sat there with a pitiful look on her face, "My stepson and daughter-in-law are also honest and filial, that is, I have a good heart, and I can't bear to let her die at such a young age. Girl, you brought it here."

They are all smart people. It doesn't need to be too clear. Zhou Mingjuan understands it immediately. The stepson who co-authored only brought the cake to the woman, and didn't care about his daughter-in-law. It's more important!

What is the origin of this woman, and why is she so powerful?

The stepson and his daughter-in-law are like dough in this woman's hands, she can do whatever she wants.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have a disdainful and proud look on her face when she talked about her stepson and her husband, and she wouldn't point out the stepson's filial piety and the honesty of the stepson's daughter-in-law.

Now it seems that the couple are more than honest and filial, they have been trained as obedient domestic dogs by this woman.

What kind of heart can't see that the stepson's daughter-in-law died at a young age, but she was afraid that the new daughter-in-law that the stepson would marry after the stepson's daughter-in-law died would not be able to handle it, so she came to find medicine to save her life.

Presumably, the stepson and daughter-in-law also know that this woman came out with the cake to find a relationship. In case Penicillin can be found and the little daughter-in-law's life can be saved, when they go back, the stepson and his wife will not take their lives and filial piety to her?

And this matter will definitely be spread through the people in the unit. At that time, others will only praise this woman for her kind and motherly heart, and who can see the vicious calculations under her kind heart.

Thinking of this, Zhou Mingjuan felt a little contempt for this woman.

At the same time, there is a faint envy of this woman's means in my heart.

She always felt that there was a magical door opening to her at this time, and as long as she stepped in, her life would undergo earth-shaking changes.

Moreover, this change is still in her favor.

Zhou Mingjuan made a decision almost instantly, she wanted to help this woman!

"Sister Chen, can I ask, how did my niece-in-law get injured? Is it in our hospital? Or I'll go take a look. If it's not serious, maybe she can survive without other medicines."

"...Sister, isn't this the shortage of beds in the hospital? I asked the doctor yesterday and said that as long as there is penicillin, you can take one and rest in the hostel for a few days. You are still working, right now. If you go out, it will be bad if you delay the hospital."

The woman refused, and her expression flickered, revealing a faint guilty conscience.

Zhou Mingjuan's eyes flashed and she didn't ask any more questions.

"Sister Chen, there is really no penicillin in the hospital now, and the above is tightly transferring the goods from other places. If you can wait, I will find a way to keep one for you?"

"Then I will thank you girl!"

The woman thanked her very happily, and then frowned and complained softly, "Oh, but I'm worried to death, how can you say that there is such a stupid person who can fall downstairs when he wakes up in the middle of the night to go to the toilet. , it's the second floor, if the floor was a little higher, wouldn't I have to explain it on the spot?"

Zhou Mingjuan pursed her lips and smiled, comforting her in a warm voice, "It's also Sister Chen, you have a good heart. If you leave this to others, you won't be buying medicine to save your stepson and daughter-in-law. It's not many that you can have such a good relationship with your stepson. See."

The woman smiled reservedly, "The relationship between this person and other people is always out of it, I am an elder,

In addition to trying our best to feed and dress the children well, they must also teach them the principles of how to behave in the world. Even if they are working, they should also be under the nose to help them. After a long time, even if they are not biological, the children can be Know who is really good to him. "

Zhou Mingjuan still doesn't understand, this is better than the mother's treatment of the child, so that the stepson can really filial piety to her wholeheartedly?

How could she not believe it!

Zhou Mingjuan hesitated for a while, and in the woman's unpredictable eyes, she finally spoke with difficulty, "Sister Chen, I want to ask you something."

"I'm how old you are. Since you called me sister, you can just say it directly. What do you want to ask for advice?"

"Before you came to see me, you probably heard about me. My man plans to bring the son in front of him to his house after the new year, so I just wanted to ask, how do you usually get along with your stepson? Head... can you relax?"

The two sons that Zhang Chunni gave birth to were a thorn in Zhou Mingjuan's heart, which could not be pulled out or changed.

But she has been unhappy for more than ten years and has been unable to give birth to a son. Now Gu Huaiqing has exhausted her patience, and she can't stop Gu Huaiqing's plan to bring a son back.

Thinking that there will be another annoying presence in the family after the new year, Zhou Mingjuan's meals are not fragrant every day.

The woman put away the smile on her face and sighed, "Sister, you can't be confused!"

"You think, if you don't agree with your man to bring your son back, he won't have to think about it every day? It's been a long time, and it will affect the relationship between your husband and wife. I can't guarantee that he will still be behind your back to seek for your son's future. If it is true In this case, the mother and son quietly took the benefit when you didn't know it, but the wicked let you be the one. You said that you were mean to your stepson, not letting your stepson enter the door, and that the husband and wife were divorced, and they were not wronged. ?"

Zhou Mingjuan made up her mind that Gu Huaiqing carried her outside to seek a future for Zhang Chunni's three children, and then Zhang Chunni did not care about anything and became the shopkeeper, enjoying the filial piety of her two sons, eating well, dressing well, and living a good life. Comfortable and comfortable, his face turned black immediately.

Just relying on Zhang Chunni's vulgar appearance, is she worthy of enjoying such a beautiful life?

Without Gu Huaiqing, Zhang Chunni would have been digging dung all her life!

Her little cubs also have to inherit their mother's business and do disgusting work, how can they enjoy a good future!

"Sister Chen, were you in the same situation as me? I'm just a daughter, I have to make plans for my daughter... You teach me, what should I do? How can I be like you, with my stepson... A good relationship?" Most importantly, how can a stepson be domesticated as a guard dog!

Zhou Mingjuan has completely moved her mind now. Since she can't stop Zhang Chunni's son from entering the door, she will learn the woman's method and domesticate Zhang Chunni's son into an obedient dog. She will bite whoever she asks him to bite in the future. , even if that little brat bites Zhang Chunni, he has to pounce on him and bite down a piece of meat!
