Chapter 93 Continue Procurement

The two looked for an opportunity to put the things in the car into the space and returned the car, and then they found a state-run restaurant on the roadside for dinner.

It was past dinner time, and there was not a single customer in the restaurant. The two bought three steamed buns, one small crispy pork, and one vinegared cabbage, and sat there to eat.

Gu Shinian didn't have enough to eat for breakfast, and in just a few minutes, a half-pound big steamed bun was eaten. Yun Chang was so distressed that he quickly pushed the little crispy meat to Gu Shinian.

The weather was still gloomy outside, and a large truck carrying steel mill workers roared past the door of the hotel.

Yunshang remembered the last time he heard about the construction of an aluminum plant in Fenyang on the side of the road, swallowed the vinegar and slipped the cabbage in his mouth, and whispered to Gu Shinian:

"Second brother Gu, if an aluminum plant is really built in the Fenyang area, do you think Yun Shuilian can enter?"

"It's hard to say. Now the conditions for recruiting workers in the cities are harsh, and priority should be given to recruiting urban hukou. Even if you enter a factory with a rural hukou, you can only be a temporary worker in the past few years, and the salary is much worse than that of a regular worker."

Seeing that Yunshang was a little disappointed, Gu Shinian comforted her again, "You don't have to worry, after the construction of the aluminum plant, there will be a huge shortage of workers and cadres, and a girl as old as Yun Shuilian who has gone to school is recruiting workers. Even if it is a temporary worker, she will not be allowed to be a front-line worker, at least she can do it as a workshop statistician."

Gu Shinian's words are really not nonsense. Now many female factory workers have only attended literacy classes and know a few words, which is no different from being illiterate. It is a pity for a junior high school student like Yun Shuilian to be a front-line worker. .

"Do you want Yun Shuilian to enter the aluminum plant?"

"Well, I think it is more promising to enter an aluminum factory than a textile factory. The new factory that the province strongly supports has more opportunities for promotion."

Gu Shinian nodded, "I'll talk to Grandpa Yun when I go back, and get your account out while the aluminum factory is recruiting."

Yun Chang didn't understand what the recruitment of the aluminum factory had to do with her change of household registration, so she stared at Gu Shinian eagerly, with the words 'please explain' written all over her face.

Gu Shinian glanced at Yun Chang, and said in a light tone, "Don't you shout every day that you will be recruited when you grow up, and you want to establish a household with Yun Dachuan? There is no valid reason, the Yun family can agree to give you this household registration. Move out?"

Yunshang: "... Don't bring such exposing people's shortcomings!

Yun Chang stared at Gu Shinian, her big eyes full of accusations.

Gu Shinian's expression did not change, "Yun Shuilian is now in the factory and can only be a temporary worker. If you buy a house in the county or region and put Yun Shuilian's household registration on you and Wang Widow's household registration book, As soon as she enters the factory, she is a regular worker, do you think the Yun family will agree?"

Yun Chang was stunned and asked anxiously, "Second brother Gu, can't I stay with you when I move out of my household registration? If I still live with Widow Wang, what's the use of moving my household registration?"

She always thought that if Gu Shinian moved out of her hukou, she would live with her in the future, even if she couldn't live together, at least she had to be a neighbor.

But now this is obviously not the case. Gu Shinian even wanted to send her to Fenyang. She would have to live with Widow Wang and Yun Shuilian in the future. In this case, she might as well stay in Xinglin Village.

The corners of Gu Shinian's mouth twitched, and he turned his head and asked Yunshang, "Want to leave the account behind my name?"

Yun Chang froze for a moment, then nodded.

Although unrealistic, she did think so.

"Not yet." Gu Shinian refused with a smile.

Yun Chang pursed his lips, wiped his eyes, and said bitterly: "No, no! The money is with me, I won't give you money, see what you buy a house with, see how you move my account!"

"If you don't move your household registration, you will have to go to the ground to earn centimeters in the future, and rely on centimeters for food to eat. If you don't go to the ground, others will doubt the source of your food rations. Ah Chang, you have fine skin and tender meat, and you can stand on the ground under the sun in summer. Harvesting wheat? Can you dig ditches in the freezing winter? If you can,

Then you don't need to change your account. "

Yunshang held the chopsticks, imagined the scene where she was cutting wheat in the field with a sickle, and then imagined that she was digging a ditches with a shovel taller than herself, and she was shocked.

Looking back, seeing Gu Shinian's smile, the corners of his mouth twitched, he dropped his chopsticks, rushed over and bit him hard on the face.

So annoying!

How can someone be such a big brother, and he knows how to scare her!

Gu Shinian supported Yun Chang and touched the teeth marks on her cheek. Seeing that she was still angry, he quickly picked up a small piece of crispy meat and stuffed it into her mouth.

"A-shang, move your household registration out. In addition to not letting you do farm work, you can also find an excuse for the source of your rations. Otherwise, you have not worked in the village for the past few years, and you still have rations to eat, which is too eye-catching. "

Yun Chang thought about it for a while, and felt that what Gu Shinian said made sense, so he generously forgave him.

After eating, the two strolled all the way to the department store. First, they went to the counter on the first floor to pick up a custom-made woolen coat, and then went to the place where non-staple food was sold. Slot cake.

When I was about to go upstairs to look at the bicycles, a clerk stood on the stool and shouted, "The malted milk essence has arrived! There are only 30 cans, and each person is limited to one can! Each person is limited to one can! Come and line up if you want to buy it!"

Almost instantly, the lobby on the first floor was crowded with people, and they all squeezed over to the counter.

Yun Chang subconsciously pushed Gu Shinian and shouted, "Go grab it!"

Gu Shinian quickly hugged Yunshang tightly, turned around and squeezed inside.

Fortunately, the two were near the counter. When they squeezed to the back of the line, there were only a dozen people in front.

Yun Chang eagerly looked at the red round iron bucket in the counter, his eyes could hardly move.

Malt milk! She still knew it from the novel, and she didn't know if it tasted good or not.

The team moved very fast. When it was the two people's turn, Yun Chang grabbed in front of Gu Shinian and said, "Hello, comrade, I want two cups of wheat milk essence!"

"Can't you understand people's language!" The clerk slapped the counter with the wooden board holding the money ticket. "Each person is limited to one can! One can!"

Yun Chang wasn't angry either, raised his hand to cover Gu Shinian's mouth, and said with a smile, "Hello, comrade, I want a can of malted milk essence."

The clerk collected the money, brought a can of malted milk to Yunshang, and shouted, "Next!"

Yun Chang let go, Gu Shinian raised his lips, and said to the clerk, "Hello, comrade, I want a can of malted milk essence."

The clerk was stunned for a moment, then reacted and patted the counter again and said angrily:

"You little comrade, are you trying to find fault or what! As I said, one can per person! One can per person! Why do you come out and hang out if you don't understand people's words?"

"Comrade, I naturally understand people's words, one can per person, isn't it my turn!"

Yun Chang smiled and explained to the clerk, "Comrade, you said one can per person, two of us, each buy one can, that's right!"

The clerk looked at Yunshang and then at Gu Shinian. He really couldn't tell if Yunshang was too young to be alone, so he blushed and billed the two of them again.
