Chapter 501: Jia Li is annoyed

Chapter 501: Jia Li is annoyed

Mummy, I want chocolate. Jasmine said to her mother in a soft tone. Jia Li was getting ready for work when her little daughter came running to her.

Jia Li who was sitting in front of the mirror and applying powder to her face, said to her, It s too early to ask for chocolate.

But Mommy I want some. Jasmine insisted with a slight frown on her face.

Jia Li glanced at the little girl and said to her with a frown, I said you can t have any chocolate now!

As her mother refused her again, Jasmine started to throw a tantrum. Mummy! Chocolate!

Jia Li looked annoyed at her daughter s spoiled behavior, so she said to her while picking up her nude lipstick, If you don t stop crying by the time I finish applying this lipstick on my lips, I m going to spank your ass.

Instead of seizing her cries, Jasmine cried the more and sat on the floor while kicking her legs. The little girl was going all out to protest for the chocolates she wanted.

Jia Li did not say anything and continued to apply her lipstick. Being ignored was really painful, especially to the little girl that was seeking attention from her mother.

Fu Hua who just walked into the room with a tray, frowned when he heard his daughter s cries. He was already dressed for work but he went down to get some tea for Jia Li and a milk porridge for his little daughter.

Why is Jasmine crying? Is she not with her mother? Fu Hua thought with a frown as he put the tray down before walking towards the inner room to find the mother and daughter.

When Jia Li finished applying her lipstick and Jasmine was still crying, she got up from the stool and dragged the crying little girl up and was ready to spank her ass when Fu Hua opened the door and walked in.

What are you doing? Fu Hua asked with an unbelievable expression on his face as he immediately rushed over and rescued his crying little princess from her angry mother.

Immediately Jasmine saw her father, she acted as if she has been bullied by her mother and rested her head in her father's arms and cried out hysterically when he lifted her in his arms.

Jia Li rolled her eyes at the little girl's drama and went back to sit on the stool.

Fu Hua tried to soothe his crying daughter by running his hand on her back before glancing at his annoyed wife to ask, Did you hit her?

Not yet. I was just about to do that before you walked in. Jia Li replied with her gaze on the mirror. She was busy looking at her makeup to see if it was perfect.

Why would you want to hit her, she is still a baby? Fu Hua asked with a frown.

She is not a baby, she is a toddler. She asked for chocolate and I said she couldn't have any now and she started crying. Your daughter is a little stubborn and it is only right to put her in the right place. Jia Li replied and smacked her lips thereafter.

Fu Hua couldn't believe his ears and the woman he was trying to have a conversation with.

We are adults and we also act a little stubborn sometimes but most times, there is nobody to put us in the right place. Please don't hit her, she is still too young for that.

Fu Hua believed that since Jasmine didn't get what she wanted, it was enough punishment for her and hitting her would be out of place.

Jia Li was annoyed at the father and daughter. Fu Hua just asked her not to hit their daughter when she did something wrong and this means that she does not have any right to hit her child again.

Princess, don't cry, okay. I will ask grandma to give you some chocolates later. Fu Hua said to the little girl that was sniffling in his arms, before glancing at his angry wife to say, I brought you breakfast, come out and eat before it turns cold.

Jia Li did not respond and only watched the father and daughter leave the dressing room. While waiting for Jia Li to come out, Fu Hua placed the little girl on his thighs and began to feed her breakfast.

Jia Li was about to interrupt when he picked up a piece of braised pork with his chopsticks and sent it into her mouth.

Don't talk and eat your food. Why would you want to hit the child you went through a lot of troubles to give birth to. You should pet our daughter, I'm not asking you not to discipline her but do not to hit her. Fu Hua said.

Jia Li wanted to say something but how could she do that when Fu Hua used food to stop her from talking?

After having lunch together, Jia Li went back to her office and after work that day, Fu Hua took her to meet their wedding planner, so they could make their decisions on some items that will be used on their wedding.

The Huang family left for the City immediately after visiting Huang Li's grave. And when they came back home, Old Mr. Huang was sitting in the living room waiting to lash at them or probably send them out but thankfully, he was standing alone as the others supported Old Mrs. Huang's actions.

When Old Mrs. Huang and her son and daughter came home, Old Mr. Huang stopped them.

Where do you think you are going to? Old Mr. Huang asked in a stern voice.

Father, are you not going to ask us how our journey was instead of asking that question? The First Daughter of the Huang family asked.

Old Mr. Huang said angrily, You still have the guts to stand there and ask me questions? I told you and your mother never to return to this place if you go out to search for that worthless child!

Old Mrs. Huang cut him off immediately and said while pointing at him, Don't you dare call my child worthless! If you want me to leave this house, then I will leave with my children and grandchildren or you will rewind time and return my youth to me, so I can marry another person than to marry a heartless and wicked man like you!

Never in history has the mistress of the Huang family ever spoken this way to the patriarch of the Huang family. In fact, if it was in the past, she wouldn't dare to do anything to infuriate him, talk more of speaking to him in such a manner but today, she really proved that she was not the same coward that he got married to.

Did you say all that to me just now?! Old Mr. Huang asked with his trembling fingers pointed at her. He was so shocked that the quiet woman he married dared to flare up and use such ugly words on him, while in front of the children.

Yes, I dare to talk to you that way! You have lost my respect. You don't act like a human and you are not fit to be the Patriarch of this family! I and my children will go into our rooms and nothing will happen. But if you want to lose everything you are proud of, try and send us out of this house! Old Mrs. Huang said angrily, to the surprise of everyone present. She was really bold and courageous now and her children loved that about her.

Without waiting for her husband's reaction, she turned to her first son and said to him, Contact the Fu family and help me seek an audience with Old General Fu, tell him the matter is urgent and has something to do with his granddaughter-in-law.

Yes mother, I will do that right away! The first son replied and after receiving his response, Old Mrs. Huang's heart became at ease and she went on to walk away to the anger of her husband.

Old Mr. Huang was furious at the level of disrespect his wife showed him in front of their children and some of their grandchildren and he was sure that even the servants must have seen and heard all of the commotions.

Never has this man who has been in authority in the whole Huang family and politically ever been insulted like the way his wife just treated him.

He knew that after today, he wouldn't have that much right to command and instruct anyone again and thinking about this made him very angry.

Also, his wife threatened to leave with his dependants if he asked her to leave the house again and this made him wonder when she developed the authority to challenge him.

Chapter 503: Losing money

Chapter 503: Losing money

After Mu Keer finally realized that the ¥5,000 the Huang family had just given to her was gone, she beat her son without minding his injuries, then she cried and shouted while sitting on the dirty floor.

Mu Keer's son was already in pain because the beating he received from those thugs that snatched the money from him and hitting him again, caused him more pain but not that she cared.

Real tears came out from Mu Keer's eyes, as the money that was just taken away from her without her spending even ¥1 from it, was more heartbreaking.

More troubles came for Mu Keer when her daughter returned with one of her debtors who saw her daughter on the way and when he saw their market list, he was furious that she had up to ¥300 spend when she couldn't pay back his ¥55, so he followed her home.

No matter how Mu Keer explained that she didn't have any money and that the one someone had just given to her was snatched by thieves about 2 hours ago, the man refused to listen and carried their television away.

Mu Keer had tried to stop him when he was taking their TV because she was only owing him ¥55 and the price of that TV he was taking was worth more than the money she owed him but he said

That is the reason I have to go with the television so that you can pay up fast. But I will only give you 2 weeks before I sell it off and use the money to settle your debts, then the remaining can be given to you if there is any.

Mu Keer was helpless as the man took their TV and left. Her daughter had thought that her mother and brother were putting up a show in front of their debtor but when she too learned that the money was actually gone and that her brother received those bruises from the people that snatched the money, she wept.

Mu Keer kept screaming and throwing things around out of pain and frustration but no matter what she does, she would never be able to recover that money.

Grandfather Fu was on his way back to the Villa after an intense security meeting with the government when the Huang family contacted him through his Butler.

The conversation was money and Butler Lu was able to relay the contents of the message to Grandfather Fu.

Sir, it's a call from the Huang family. The old lady from the Huang family in  City would like to meet you to talk about an important matter which is related to Miss Jia Li.

Li girl? Grandfather Fu asked in a surprised tone.

Yes, Sir. Butler Li replied. Even he was curious as to what the Huang family had to talk about.

Grandfather Fu was quiet for only a few seconds before saying to his Butler, I am free this weekend, ask her to come over to the house, our meeting time should be during brunch time.

I will do that right away. Butler Lu replied and used the phone to send out a text concerning the meeting venue, the date and the time, after going through the old man's schedule.

When Grandfather Fu returned, he didn't make any noise concerning the call and only asked Fu Hua to come to his Study before dinner time after he returned from work.

Fu Hua just finished a meeting with his board of directors when he got a call from his old man. His tone didn't sound urgent, so he thought the matter was not serious and maybe related to his Wedding plans.

The only people that know about Fu Hua and Jia Li s wedding in April, are the Fu family but their extended family was still unaware, to prevent the news from spreading to others.

Since this was going to be a private wedding, Fu Hua didn t want anyone to know about it, till two days or a day to the wedding, before he makes the announcement officially.

Chapter 504: Jasmynes response

Chapter 504: Jasmine s response

It was truly a happy scenario when Jasmine saw her parents walk in through the door. She immediately ran to hug their legs.

She first ran to hug her father while calling out in a cute voice, Daddy!

Fu Hua smiled and bent slightly to caress her hair while saying, Hello, Princess.

Jasmine smiled and raised her head to look at her father, before moving her gaze to her mother and then running to her side to welcome her.

Mummy! Jasmine greeted happily and hugged her legs.

Jia Li chuckled softly and asked in a happy tone, How are you, Jasmine?

I m fine! Jasmine said and slowly let her legs go. The little girl raised her hands in the air while saying to her mother, Mummy give me!

Jia Li knew what she was talking about since this wasn t the first time, so she replied, It s heavy, you can t carry it.

I can! The little girl insisted.

Fu Hua smiled and said, Just give it to her, she wants to help her mummy out.

Jia Li took out 2 heavy items from her handbag before passing it to Jasmine who has been asking for it.

Thank you! Jasmine said when her mother handed the handbag to her and she mimicked her by carrying it the same way she used to.

This little girl likes carrying things that are bigger than her. Jia Li said as she and Fu Hua followed the little girl.

I guess children of her age like doing that. Fu Hua replied. He found his little princess cute with the way she walked with her mother s handbag in her small arm.

When the family of 3 got to the steps, Fu Hua had to carry the little girl up the stairs while Jia Li took his work bag from him.

Finally, the three of them made it to their bedroom. After Fu Hua put the little girl on the bed and walked into the inner room, while she went on to play with the bag.

Jasmine, what is this? Jia Li asked while pointing at the zip of the bag.

Jasmine glanced at what she was pointing at and replied enthusiastically, It s a zip!

Good girl. Mummy bought some cookies for you, do you want it? Jia Li asked as she took the packet of cookies from her handbag and showed it to her.

Jasmine s eyes glistened when she saw the goody in her mother s hand. Yes! She said.

Do you want me to open it for you, do you want to have some now? Jia Li asked but the little girl shook her head. She didn't look like she wanted to eat the cookies now, so Jia Li handed the packet to her.

Thank you, mummy!!! Jasmine said in an excited tone as she took the cookies from her.

You're welcome, my baby! Jia Li said as she hugged her little bun. She only released her after she had left kisses on her cheeks.

Do you want to tell mummy what you learned today? Jia Li asked the little bun whose attention was on the packet of cookies in her hand.

Jasmine replied without looking at her, No, I'm tired. Jia Li didn't know if she should laugh or cry. How could that little pumpkin say she couldn't talk about what she learned from her teacher because she was tired. She found her reply funny.

Okay, since you are tired, mummy will ask you just two questions, okay? Jia Li said while gazing at her and making a sign with her fingers.

Okay. Jasmine said in agreement and Jia Li went on to point at the colors on the cookies packet and ask her their names.

Jasmine was misled by her mother who initially said she was only going to ask her two questions and ended up asking her 5 questions, which the little girl answered correctly.

Fu Hua who went in to freshen up, emerged some minutes later to see the two ladies having a conversation.

I'm going to see grandfather in his study, give her to me, so you can freshen up as well. Fu Hua said with a smile.

When I checked the Qin family at that time as well, I didn't see anything linking them up with the Huang family, although, at that time, I wasn't able to find out the family Jia Li's mother was from. Do you think the Huang family is related to Mrs. Qin? Grandfather Fu asked.

I have no idea. When are you meeting with them? Fu Hua asked. This whole thing came as a surprise to him and hearing his grandfather talk about this, reminded him of what Mu Keer had said to Jia Li a few years ago.

Saturday in the morning. I asked them to come during brunch hours. For now, keep this information away from Li girl, until we find out the purpose of the Huang family's visit. Grandfather Fu instructed.

When Fu Hua went back to the bedroom, he saw Jia Li lying there with a wedding magazine in her hands.

Fu Hua's mood changed for the better as he went to join her on the bed, Are you preparing for our wedding?

Jia Li smiled and replied, Why not? I'm looking for the style for my bridesmaids dresses. I want them to have a particular style, so I've got to make an effort to find the best design for it.

You are a fashion designer and you are looking for styles? You can just design something and give it to the stylist to make use of. Fu Hua said as he joined her in looking at the styles on the magazine.

I know, I want to combine the style I have with something else. Latest, these dresses will be ready in 2 weeks from the production date. Jia Li replied.

Fu Hua thought of something and said, Can I see your childhood photo album ?

Why would you be interested in my childhood photo album, are you trying to make fun of me ? Jia Li asked as a slight smile appeared on her face.

Fu Hua pinched her cheeks and said, You should be confident in your looks and besides, I have seen a few of them.

Who said I m not confident in my looks ? Actually, indeed, I m not a sort after beauty but I was quite cute as a baby. Wait here, I will get the photo album for you. Jia Li said as she closed the magazine and passed it to him, before jumping off the bed and running into the inner room.

Fu Hua smiled at her childish acts and said in a low tone, Why is she so excited to show her baby pictures to me ?

Jia Li was not very beautiful like the supermodels but she had her own charm. And she even became prettier after she gave birth to Jasmine. Jia Li s most proud photos were the ones taken when she was a baby because she was chubby and looked more cute then.

The smile on Fu Hua s face slowly disappeared when he thought of the possibility of Jia Li s mother being related to the Huang family. But he quickly changed his facial expression when Jia Li returned to the bedroom with a big photo album in her hands and with an excited smile on her face.

I m going to show you how cute and calm I was as a baby. Jia Li said as she sat on the bed and opened the first page of the photo album.

There were four pictures on the first page of the album. Jia Li pointed at the first picture there and said, My mum was 4 months pregnant here but you wouldn t know unless you see her bare stomach, at least that s what she told me.

She looks pregnant to me. Fu Hua replied with his gaze on the first picture.

How? Jia Li asked with an interested gaze on him. She really wanted to know how he could tell her mother was pregnant from that picture that didn't give much information.

Because I have gotten someone pregnant before and I lived with her throughout the 10 months pregnancy before she gave birth. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Jia Li chuckled hard at the way he chose to explain that he knew about the changes in a pregnant woman.

Chapter 506: Gold Pendant

Chapter 506: Gold Pendant

My parents have already discussed and concluded that they would only have one child, so my mother fed me breast milk for a long time but we are different from my parents. We are not having just one child, we will have more later, so I was cautious about how long to breastfeed Jasmine. Jia Li said.

You keep saying that you took breast milk for a long time, no wonder you remained chubby till adulthood. If Jasmine learns that you were unfair with her food when she was still a baby, she would prosecute you. Fu Hua said as he lay on the bed and turned to hug her waist.

Jia Li felt tickled by his hands and only adjusted her sitting position before replying, I didn't treat her unfairly and besides, she sucked my breasts till they lost their original texture. She has to be a little considerate for her younger siblings that will come in the future.

Let me see how the texture of your breasts changed. As Fu Hua said this, his hands went behind her back and unhooked her bra speedily, to her great surprise.

You naughty man, what are you trying to do, when it's almost time for dinner. Jia Li said as she hugged her chest.

Fu Hua took her hands off her chest and replied, I just want to admire what belongs to me for a bit, is that too much to ask.

We were watching my childhood photo album just now, when did you become interested in my boobs? Jia Li asked as she tried to stop him from unbuttoning her shirt but the struggle was real. She couldn't overpower him.

I have always been interested in it. Fu Hua replied as he completely unbuttoned her shirt before parting it. When he saw the glory of her bosom, he licked his lips seductively.

You are acting creepy. Jia Li said as she adjusted her sitting position. The way he licked his lips seductively, made it look like he was preparing to devour her.

Am I? Fu Hua asked as he quickly brought his lips to her left breast and licked her nipple once, next he moved his face away and watched her nipples become erect.

Jia Li already knew that she wouldn't be able to stop him from having what he wanted, so she just asked, When will this be over?

If you don't arouse me, I promise to be quick. Fu Hua said with a satisfactory gaze on her.

Jia Li didn't trust his words, because he was good at lying especially when it came to having fun with her body. Don't forget we can't be absent during dinner.

Some minutes later, Jia Li who was conscious of the dinner time, was totally lost in passion and it was Fu Hua who stopped before he could take things too far.

Jia Li and Fu Hua needed a few minutes to recover from their little exchange and to calm their raging hormones down.

My nipples are sore because of you. Jia Li complained.

Did I bite on it too hard? Let me see Fu Hua said as he moved her arm away from her breasts before taking a good look at her red nipples.

Seeing how red they were, he apologized. I m sorry, next time I will be gentle.

After dinner, Jia Li and Fu Hua continued to watch the photo album till the end.

I was born in the same hospital my mum worked in and since I was little, I have been a popular child there, since my mum would take me there during my holidays. Jia Li said after she closed her photo album.

What was your mother s name? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her.

Her name is Li, Qin Li. Jia Li replied.

Fu Hua shook his head and said, I know that her name is Li and Qin is the surname she took after getting married to your father. What was her family name before marriage?

Jia Li sighed and said, I don t know. My mum refused to talk about her family and neither she nor my dad mentioned it and when my grandfather was alive that time, he too never mentioned it. Her attitude made me think that she was adopted or grew up in the orphanage. But when I found out that she didn t like talking about the family she came from, I stopped mentioning it to her.

Chapter 507: Her Origin

Chapter 507: Her Origin

When Fu Hua opened the pendant, at last, Jia Li was happy and immediately snatched it from him to have a good look.

Oh my goodness, this young lady looks like my mum and is this her mother and sisters? Jia Li asked in surprise while staring at the picture of the older women and three younger ladies.

The young lady sitting in-between the other two young ladies looked very much like Jia Li's mother and in that picture, she looked like she was 18 years.

When Fu Hua saw the four women, it was only one that he felt looked familiar, as for the others, he didn't seem to know who they were.

The pendant had two sides. The first part was the picture of Huang Li and her three sisters and mother, while the other side had just a picture of Huang Li.

Darling, I just remembered something. My mum sent a voice message to me some hours before she died. In that message, she said something about her family but I can't remember. Oh, wait! I still have the voice note in my phone, let me find it. Jia Li said and immediately reached out for her phone.

Her fingers worked very fast and quickly, she went to the chat she had with her mother and the voice message was the first thing she saw and so she played it to Fu Hua's hearing.

Jia Li skipped the VN towards the last part where her mother talked about her family.

Jia Li, your father and I love you so much. I want you to know that you are special. If you meet my family one day, it will be fate. Take care of yourself and I

My mum said it will be fate if I meet her family one day. Darling, I have a strong conviction that this is her family, can you please help me look for them with this pendant, I really want to find them! Jia Li said with an emotional gaze.

Finding things out about her mother, made her recall the hurtful past which she didn't want to remember and now, she really wanted to find her mother's family and ask them so many questions pertaining to her mother.

Are you sure you want to find out about your mother's family? Finding out about them, would mean you will know about the ugly past and the reason she left home and refused to talk about them. Are you ready to bear the burden of the past? Fu Hua asked.

I don't know if I can bear the burden of the past, I just want answers to my questions. I need to find my mother's family. Jia Li said with a frown as the hunger to know more about her mother, possessed her.

Fu Hua held her arms and said, I will help you to get information about your mother, but you have to promise that you will prepare your heart and mind to accept whatever past your mother had. You know she had a reason she never mentioned her family to you and I think you should know about it.

Obviously, Jia Li's mother never mentioned her family to her because she didn't want her to worry and transfer anger and hate to them.

I will do that but please you have to try your best to find out something about her. Jia Li said in an urgent tone.

I promise. Can I take the pendant with me? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her. He already had an intuition of who her mother's family was but he didn't want to say anything until he had confirmed his thoughts.

You can have it. I need to use the bathroom, I will be back. Jia Li said as she got off the bed in a rush. When she left, Fu Hua continued to explore the pendant, and that was when he found something interesting.

He was caressing Huang Li's picture with his thumb when he discovered that the picture could move and so, he took it out only to see Huang Li name engraved on the pendant.

Huang Li? Fu Hua thought as he immediately whipped out his phone from his pocket to check for the Huang family on the net. He saw the biography of the Huang family but that wasn't what he was looking for. He was looking for the family tree, so he could trace the name, Huang Li on it.
