

The Hidden Wife Of The Cold CEO-

Chapter 508: Jia Li is annoyed

The Huang Family Visits the Fu Family-Paschalinelily-Freeuz Novel Updates

Right before Jia Li returned, Fu Hua called Butler Lu through the intercom.

Is my grandfather still awake?

Old Master just finished a conference meeting now, would you like to have a word with him? Butler Lu probed.

Yes, I will be there in 2 minutes. Fu Hua replied before ending the call. He got off the bed and picked up the gold pendant before walking towards the door in a hurry, only to see Jia Li stepping into the bedroom.

Jia Li looked surprised to see him at the door, so she asked, Where are you going to?

Fu Hua faked a smile and quickly hid the gold pendant behind him. I will be back in a minute, I have to confirm a meeting guest list with grandfather.

Since the matter sounded important and was related to the old man, Jia Li moved out of the way so he could pass, while saying to him, Don't forget to come back quickly, I got your drink for you.

Fu Hua kissed her on the cheek and said, I will be back soon. and then he walked past her, leaving her all alone in the bedroom.

When Grandfather Fu learned from his Butler that his grandson wanted to see him so late at night, he sat on the sofa to wait for him.

When Fu Hua arrived at the study, he immediately went to sit beside the old man.

I heard you wanted to see me. Grandfather Fu said with his gaze on him.

Fu Hua raised the gold pendant before him and said, Grandfather, I have found Jia Li's relationship with the Huang family.

The Huang family is her maternal family? Grandfather Fu asked with a frown.

Yes, grandfather. Jia Li's mother is the second daughter of the Huang family, Huang Li. Fu Hua said and proceeded to open the pendant and show him the pictures there, including the name that was engraved on the pendant.

Where did you get this from? Grandfather Fu asked after studying the pendant.

Jia Li. It belonged to her mother, Huang Li. Since her mother died, she has been keeping this safe and didn't know how to open it and she probably thought it was a fancy, so she didn't bother to put interest in it. Fu Hua replied.

Grandfather Fu sighed before looking at Fu Hua to ask, Does Jia Li know that her mother is from the Huang family?

Fu Hua shook his head and replied, She doesn't know her mother's maiden name and she is unaware of the kind of family her mother is from.

Your wedding is in a month, a week and a few days from today, you should be careful of what you say to Li girl. The Huang family is complicated, especially the head of the Huang family and letting Li girl know about this before your wedding night destabilizes her. Grandfather Fu said.

The old man was worried about Jia Li's emotions because he doubted that she could handle the Huang family, the past and its complications.

But Jia Li begged me to find her mother's family soon, she really wants to know who they are and the reason her mother left the family. Fu Hua said with creased brows.

We do not know the full story, wait till the Huang family come to visit and then we can find out the whole story before we can decide on when to tell Li girl about it. Grandfather Fu advised.

Fu Hua nodded in understanding before going on to reveal all the information he had about the Huang family, including the reason Huang Li left her family.

When Fu Hua returned to his bedroom, Jia Li was already fast asleep and his glass of fruit juice was left on the table and covered with something. All Fu Hua did, was to tuck her in before going to keep her pendant in the walk-in closet.

Fu Hua stayed up for an hour more studying the Huang family and their businesses, before joining Jia Li on the bed.

On Saturday, a few minutes to brunch hours, the Huang family arrived. Fu Hee was aware that the old man was expecting some important visitors as Butler Lu told her beforehand, so she had the kitchen prepare proper refreshments for them.

Author :Paschalinelily

Chapter 509: Huang Li

Chapter 509: Huang Li

For so many years, we could only think about Huang Li in our hearts since she never contacted us and we didn't know how to find her, not until we saw your granddaughter-in-law on stage, during the last completion held in December. She looked a little similar to Huang Li and she mentioned the name of her parents as Late Mr. and Mrs. Qin. My first daughter remembered that surname because the man Huang Li eloped with, bore the same surname. This matter reminded us about Huang Li who has been missing for 25 years now, so we decided to look for her, by going to your granddaughter-in-law's hometown

Old Mrs. Huang began to narrate their experiences at Jia Li's hometown, including the conversations they had with Jia Li's neighbor and her Aunt.

Grandfather Fu and Fu Hua couldn't believe how shameless Mu Keer was and no matter how angry they were, they didn't interrupt the old lady.

The Huang family's first daughter and second son who went to Jia Li's hometown with their mother also chipped in a few words.

The first daughter of the Huang family looked vexed when she recounted how she found out that Mu Keer had deceived them with false information, which left them utterly confused.

Fu Hua was the person that spoke immediately after the Huang's finished speaking.

Jia Li's Aunt has a big resentment for Jia Li. And the reason is that my wife refused to give her money.

The second son of the Huang family nodded and said, Now I can tell the reason that woman would lie to us.

Please, this question is important to us, can you tell us how my daughter and her husband died? Old Mrs. Huang asked with an emotional tone.

Grandfather Fu sighed and shut his eyes. The memory of Jia Li's parents' death was not something anyone would want to remember because it was painful.

Fu Hua looked more like he didn't want to talk about it and he was grateful that Jia Li was not present in this meeting, otherwise, it would have been traumatic for her.

Now, it was clear to the Huang family that their daughter and sister must have died in a cruel way, seeing how the Grandfather and grandson weren't saying anything.

General, please, I'm begging you to tell me how my daughter died. I haven't seen her for so many years only to learn that she died over 3 years ago. Old Mrs. Huang pleaded.

Mr. Fu, please tell us what happened to our sister, I believe we have the right to know. Already, the lady we met at the graveyard told us that Mu Keer's husband had a hand in her death. The first daughter of the Huang family said and finally, Grandfather Fu decided to speak up.

It's not like we don't want to say anything but that the past memory is too bitter for us to talk about it at will. If you must know how Huang Li died, I will tell you about it. Jia Li's parents were killed in their living room when Jia Li was still with us here in this City.

As Grandfather Fu broke this news to them, Old Mrs. Huang's eyes welled up in tears, as she couldn't believe that her daughter had died in such an unexpected way.

When the second daughter of the Huang family asked how their sister was killed, Fu Hua recounted the incident to them, which caused their hearts to bleed.

Learning how Mu Keer's husband caused their sister's death and the guts she had to lie to them and to also ask them for money, the Huang family suddenly wanted to appear in front of Mu Keer and end her life immediately.

It took a while for Old Mrs. Huang to be consoled. It wasn't easy to accept the fact that she was never going to see her daughter again and now that she learned how she had died in such an unjust way, her heart was bleeding.

After their emotions were stabilized, Fu Hua showed the gold pendant to the Huang family to ask them if they knew about it.

Chapter 510: A great granddaughter's love

After the Huang Family's request, Fu Hua brought the photo album and passed it to them.

Fu Hua and Grandfather Fu quietly watched the Huang family get all emotional after seeing Huang Li's photos.

After seeing these photos, I don't doubt that your wife is truly my daughter's child. Old Mrs. Huang said as she wiped away the tears at the corner of her eyes.

Even if Huang Li turns out not to be the biological mother of Jia Li, Old Mrs. Huang would still accept Jia Li as a Huang because her daughter raised her and took her as her own child.

Please when can we meet our sister's only child? The second daughter of the Huang family asked.

Fu Hua looked her straight in the eyes and replied, Jia Li is still unaware of this matter, she doesn't know her mother's full name and which family she comes from, so you can't meet her now.

I don't want my granddaughter-in-law to be overwhelmed with emotions during this period, so you can't meet her now. Grandfather Fu said in support of Fu Hua's rejection.

The Huang family members glanced at themselves before the Old lady spoke up, General Fu, please help me to meet my granddaughter soon. No one is going to force her to acknowledge us and rest assured that my husband will not trouble her either. We just want her to know that we are her mother's family and we are sorry for not putting more effort to search for her in the past.

Lady Huang, your intentions are well known to us and we will try our best to come up with a way to break this news to Jia Li but have in mind that she may not want to meet you if she learns of how her mother left the house. Grandfather Fu said.

Also, it will not be easy breaking this news to my wife because she doesn't have a strong heart, so I will only let her know about this when I'm sure she can handle the news. Fu Hua said.

Fu Hua was worried about Jia Li breaking down emotionally when she learns of her mother's real story and the reason she left her family and eloped with her father.

Taking Jia Li's emotions into consideration, the Huang family agreed to wait till whenever the Fu family informed Jia Li of her mother's true stories.

Immediately the Huang family left, Jia Li returned with Jasmine and Fu Meixu.

Mummy, I want to go and see Ocean, Avery and Archie. Jasmine said immediately after Jia Li carried her out from the car.

After lunch, you can go and see them. Jia Li said as she took her small fingers.

But I want to see them soon. Jasmine responded with a frown. At the children's park, she had seen someone with a dog and they made her remember Ocean and her kids.

Jia Li glanced at the little girl that was in the mood to make trouble and said to her, Don't worry, you will see them soon. Let's go and have lunch first.

When the mother and daughter were still arguing, Fu Hua came out to welcome them back and Fu Meixu quickly disappeared from the scene.

Fu Hua lifted the little girl in his arms and kissed her chubby cheeks.

Princess, what did you buy for me? Fu Hua asked with a cheerful smile.

Jasmine smiled and answered while pointing at her mother, Mummy bought something for you. The little girl looked pleased to announce that.

Mummy bought something for me? Fu Hua asked with a surprised gaze at the little girl in his arms and she nodded in response.

Mummy bought something for Daddy but what did little Da Xia buy for Daddy? Fu Hua asked again with a bright smile.

The mature father liked to have conversations with his little princess.

Jasmine was silent for a while before replying thoughtfully, I picked some cookies, chocolates, biscuits for you but mummy paid for them.

Chapter 511: Jia Li learns of her mother's past

It was such a heartwarming scene to see the old man and the little girl enjoy a plate of ice cream together. Jasmine was so attentive that she continued to feed her great grandfather each time she noticed that he wasn't moving his lips and Grandfather Fu would in turn feed the little girl as well.

After taking the Ice cream, Grandfather Fu finished a glass of water because of the sugar content in the ice cream he just took, before taking the little girl to the dog kennel because she wanted to see Ocean and her kids.

When Jia Li learned that her little girl was playing with Ocean and her kids, she sighed and asked Mei to bring her inside after an hour time, so they could go through her classwork together.

A few days later, after Fu Hua had spoken to grandfather Fu concerning letting Jia Li know about the Huang family and he allowed him to do so, Fu Hua prepared to tell Jia Li about them.

After reviewing the take-home work Sunny had given to her in the study, Jia Li left for the bedroom.

On seeing that Jia Li was not looking tired and this was the weekend, which was the perfect opportunity for her to take care of her emotions before Monday came, he called her to come and sit beside him on the sofa.

Jia Li noticed his serious gaze and felt that he had an important matter to talk to her about, so she came to sit beside him and asked, Is everything alright?

Fu Hua did not reply to her question and went straight to ask, Do you remember that you said you can handle the news of your mother's past?

Have you found news about my mother's family? Jia Li asked immediately as she grabbed his hand.

Yes, I have. Are you ready to hear her story? Fu Hua asked with a serious gaze on her.

I'm ready! Jia Li said immediately. She looked impatient and couldn't wait to learn her mother's story. As for whether she was ready, that was not an important question to her.

Fu Hua looked her in the eye before gently releasing his hands from her hold to pick up the gold pendant that was on the table.

Your mother's name is, Huang Li and she is from the Huang family in * city. Fu Hua revealed.

Huang Li? How did you find out her real name? Jia Li asked with a curious gaze, then Fu Hua proceeded to show her the name engraved on the pendant.

I saw this name engraved here and I guessed that was your mother's name, so I used that to find information about her and truly, she is Huang Li from the Huang family in * city. The Huang family is wealthy and the amongst the Top 10 wealthiest family in China. Fu Hua said to her.

Jia Li who looked relieved to finally get information about her mother clutched Fu Hua's arms and asked him more questions about her mother and the reason she left her family.

Fu Hua first pointed out the other people in the picture, before going on to tell her about her mother and the Huang family.

When Jia Li finally learnt the reason her mother left her family, she feels hurt that her mother was treated unjustly by her father.

Jia Li feels that her mother's father was a very mean man for him to control his entire family and instruct them on every step to take, including their career path.

Since Jia Li was yet to acknowledge the Huang family as her maternal family, Fu Hua was careful with the way he addressed them. He didn't address Old Mrs. Huang as her grandmother.

Your mother's father had a stronghold and authority over all his children and grandchildren, including his wife, until recently when his authority was shaken.

Fu Hua went on to tell her how her Aunt, Mu Keer tried to deceive the Huang family when they came searching for answers and Jia Li forgets her anger with her mother's unfair treatment and transfers the anger to her Aunt.

Sometimes, I wonder how my father was related to this kind of woman! They were born from the same parents but they both have very different values and upbringing. Jia Li said in an annoyed tone.

To Fu Hua's surprise, Jia Li's reaction was not extreme, she was an emotional person and he thought she would cry when she learned of her mother's past but she didn't.

Jia Li was furious that her mother suffered in a family that was supposed to love and protect her. Since the rest of the Huang family suffered because of the rules of the head of their family, Jia Li didn't blame them, instead, she blamed Mr. Huang. And to think that he refused to accept her as a member of the Huang family.

Who told him I would want to be a member of the family my mum ran away from? Jia Li said with gritted teeth.

Fu Hua could tell that Jia Li was angry but if this was not a serious situation, he would have laughed at her because she looked funny when she pouted her lips in complaint.

At least, Fu Hua was grateful and relaxed that Jia Li's reaction was extreme.

Darling, your grandfather is the kindest old man I've met after my dad's father. He is so good to me. Without him, I'm not sure I would have all of these today. Jia Li said and heaved a sigh of relief.

Fu Hua cuddled her in bed and said, My grandfather is your grandfather and even if he didn't take a quick action in the past, fate would have still brought us together, since I had my eyes on you back then.

Grandfather is the best! Jia Li said with a smile. Anytime she remembered the past and all of Grandfather Fu's help, she would feel indebted and want to do things for him because of his great help.

What about me? Fu Hua asked with a tint of jealousy in his tone.

You're also the best!!! Jia Li said to him.

Fu Hua wanted to ask between him and his grandfather, who came first in her heart but he didn't want to hear her response, so he didn't ask.

Your grand I mean, your mum s mother said she kept all of her things from childhood till the time she left. So if you want to see them, she will show them all to you and let you take the items you would want to keep. Fu Hua revealed.

Jia Li who was quiet for a while asked, Since the old man from the Huang family won t let me step foot into that house, how am I supposed to see my mother s things? Surely, I wouldn t see them through pictures right?

Leave that to grandfather to settle. Fu Hua said with a confident smile after thinking about a scene.

Jia Li sat up immediately Fu Hua mentioned the old man. Are you saying that grandfather will tackle Mum s dad?

Yes. We will go with him and when Mr. Hang sees my grandfather, he won t have the guts to drive him away. I can still settle this matter without involving grandfather but I m avoiding being disrespectful to an elderly man, who is also related to you. Fu Hua said.

Since with Grandfather Fu s presence, she could step into the Huang villa to take a look at her mother s belongings, then there was no need to delay the matter. She immediately asked Fu Hua to talk to grandfather Fu about it, before speaking with the Huang family in preparation for their visit.

When Fu Hua met his grandfather and told him about this matter, Grandfather Fu said, The Patriarch of the Huang family is stubborn and hot-headed and it will be good if I went with you. When do you want to go?

As soon as possible. Fu Hua replied.

After speaking with his grandfather, Fu Hua contacted the Huang family and talked about Jia Li's agreement to see them and when they would come.

I thought we would pick a date when my husband will not be around for her to visit but since you said you will settle it, I can rest assured. Old Mrs. Huang said through the phone.

She was glad that her granddaughter accepted to see them after a short while. She since been preparing her mind for the worst but this good news came, so she was happy.

Whose daughter did you say she is? Old Mr. Huang asked with a big frown on his face.

The first daughter smiled and walked over as she replied to her old man, Father, this is Jia Li. She is Mr. Fu Hua's wife and she is Huang Li's daughter.

Hearing that name, Huang Li infuriated the old man a lot. To him, his second daughter who ran away from home was the black sheep of the family and a total disgrace to his prestige, so hearing her name being mentioned, had a way of resetting his brain cells.

I told you never to bring that girl to my house, so what is she doing here? Immediately send her away! Old Mr. Huang said in a raised tone while pointing towards the entrance.

Jia Li who has heard stories of the Old Mr. Huang still couldn't believe her eyes after she saw his actions just now. And she concluded in her mind that there was no way she could live with him with that kind of personality she had. She felt her mother did the right thing by running away.

Fu Hua frowned at the old man's rudeness and was about to intervene when they all heard the aged male voice coming from the entrance, so they quickly turned their gazes towards the entrance.

Mr. Huang, my granddaughter-in-law is not someone for you to drive away. Grandfather Fu said as he appeared before them with a smile. Butler Lu was seen walking closely beside him.

General Fu? Old Mr. Huang called out with a frown. He was truly surprised to see the old Major General in his house. He has no idea that he came with them.

Grandfather Fu did not stop smiling until he got to Jia Li's side. The rest of the Huang family members who were in the sitting room, greeted the old major General, respectfully.

Mr. Huang, you can not throw my grandson and his wife away, at your will. They came to see the memories Huang Li left behind, so allow them to go in. Grandfather Fu said.

But this is my house, I can decide who can come in and go out. Old Mr. Huang said.

Fu Hua's frown deepened, as Jia Li's hatred for the old man deepened further.

Grandfather Fu chuckled softly because he knew that the Patriarch of the Huang family was stubborn and wouldn't let them do what they wanted in his house.

Mr. Huang, you are one stubborn person I know that has refused to change for good. How long do you think you have left on this earth for you to hold grudges for so many years? You are already so old but you don't act like an elder. Do you think you can survive for a week if you drive everyone away? Grandfather Fu asked.

Old Mr. Huang was annoyed that Grandfather Fu was teaching him. He was a man with so much pride in him, so how could he stand being lectured in front of his family?

Old General, I appreciate your lectures but I still can not allow the child of that girl to step foot into my house. I should have burned her things a long time ago if I knew it would result in today's scenario.

Grandfather Fu immediately interjected, Since you haven't burned them, allow my granddaughter to go and see the memories of her late mother, while we talk about her painful story.

As Grandfather Fu said that, Old Mrs. Huang asked Jia Li and Fu Hua to come with her to see Huang Li's things.

As Jia Li was leaving with Fu Hua and Old Lady Huang, she glanced at Grandfather Fu who winked at her.

Don't worry about grandfather, he can deal with that old man. Fu Hua whispered to her ears before squeezing her palms to comfort her.

Don't you want to know how your daughter, Huang Li died? Grandfather Fu asked.

Old Mr. Huang rolled his eyes and went to sit on the couch. I'm not interested because I don't have any daughter with that name.

Grandfather Fu smiled and went to sit on the same couch as him.

Author :Paschalinelily

Chapter 514: Dog Lover

Chapter 514: Dog Lover

Whether Old Mr. Huang agreed to what he said or not, Grandfather Fu was done advising him. At least what grandfather Fu understood from this, is that Old Mr. Huang must have been heartless and hated his daughter to the point that he didn't want to hear her name. But no matter the level of hatred, he was not so heartless as to order for her things to be thrown out even after he found out that his wife has them locked up in the store.

On their way back home, Grandfather Fu made this known to Jia Li and Fu Hua. He said that Old Mr. Huang was a stubborn man who had a lot of pride. Even if he was wrong, he would never admit that.

Just like the death of his daughter, it's possible that he must be pained at heart but he would never let anyone know about it because he still wanted it to seem that he didn't care about her, even after death.

A stubborn man who had a lot of pride and feels that his decisions are right and the best, is always hard to change. Just like right now, Old Mr. Huang was beyond repair and could only be managed like that.

Jia Li heaved a sigh and said, At least I feel rest assured that I could see my mother's things intact. I had no idea that she wanted to be a fashion designer

I think you got that talent from her. Don't feel too bad. We can't always get what we want. Your mother didn't get to follow her career path but she got to be with the man she loved, even after death. Fu Hua said.

Jia Li smiled with tears in her eyes as she rested her head on Fu Hua's chest.

Grandfather Fu glanced at them and sighed and moved his gaze away. He wanted to live the remaining span of his life without regrets so that when he joined his wife, he would be proud to assure her of how well he took care of their family and brought them together in her absence.

When they got back home, the rest of the Fu family who has been waiting for their return, felt relieved at their return.

Jia Li spent some time with them and recounted their visit to the Huang family, including how stubborn her mother's father was and how he had refused her to step into his house if Grandfather Fu did not intervene.

After Jia Li carried the little bun that wouldn't let go of her even for a minute to their bedroom, she told Fu Hua of her intentions to invite the Huang family to their wedding.

You don't need to ask for my permission, you just need to tell me who you would like to invite and their names will be printed on the invitation card. Fu Hua said to her with a smile.

Thank you! I will show Jasmine my mum's photo album while you go have a shower. Jia Li said with a smile.

Fu Hua kissed her cheeks and the little bun, before taking into the inner room.

Jasmine, do you want to see my mum's photos? Jia Li asked with a smile as she brought out the old photo album she took from the Huang family and placed it on the bed.

Grandma? Jasmine asked as she came to her side to sit on her thighs.

Jia Li smiled and held the little girl with one arm. There was enough space for her to sit beside her but she chose to climb into her arms.

The mother and daughter spent a lot of time going through all the pictures in the photo album and when Fu Hua came out from the inner room dressed in his nightdress, he joined them.

While Jia Li went to wash up, the father and daughter spent some time together.

The next weekend, Jasmine dragged her mother out of bed to go and see Ocean and her grown kids.

It looks like you have been having a good time with them in my absence. Jia Li said to the little bun as she lifted her to go to the bathroom. She wanted them to at least brush their teeth and wash their faces before going outside the house.

Thankfully, Winter was over, so it wasn't that cold outside. Jasmine was truly in a hurry to go and see Ocean because immediately her feet touched the ground, she ran towards the dog kennel while calling out to Ocean, Avery, and Archie.

Since FangSu was present, she was able to try on her dress, which fitted her perfectly. When FangSu got into the dress and saw how beautiful it was, she didn't want to take it off until Jia Li begged her.

Sister-in-law, you are truly a good fashion designer. You have eyes for good things. FangSu praised Jia Li after she changed back into her dress.

Thank you! I think we can leave now. We will stop by at another store to get the special gifts I prepared for my bridal train. Jia Li said with a smile.

FangSu wasn't able to tell what gift Jia Li had prepared since it was packaged by the store attendants where she went to pick it up.

Can you at least tell me what you prepared for us since you are not ready to give them out? FangSu begged Jia Li when they got into the car.

Jia Li didn't bulge. You will get to see the gifts after I have packaged them and sent yours to you. For now, you only have to curb your curiosity and that way, you will live longer.

What? FangSu said with a surprised gaze. This was not Jia Li's speaking style in any way. She was really surprised when she spoke to her that way. She wasn't annoyed, just surprised.

Jia Li smiled and changed topics, Let's stop by the supermarket to buy some fruits. Jasmine is going to ask me what I bought for her since I refused to take her out with me.

FangSu thought for a while before saying in agreement, Fruits, that's a good idea. She has been eating a lot of sweets lately.

And who is the one that has been giving them to her? Jia Li asked as she spared her a glance.

FangSu stopped talking and looked out through the window out of guilt.

It wasn't easy for FangSu to curb her desires for a few more days before Jia Li sent her the bridesmaid's package.

And when she and Meixu got theirs, they immediately tried them on and came to flaunt them in front of the rest of the family.

In the Bridesmaid's package Jia Li sent out to her 4 bridesmaids and 1 chief bridesmaid, it included a pair of shoes, perfume, beauty products, earrings, necklaces, pouch, the dresses, and a handwritten card.

When Jia Li's three friends got their packages they immediately tried on their dresses and called Jia Li on a video to call to show them to her.

The dresses are pretty, and thanks for the expensive gifts I would never be able to afford in my lifetime. Chang Chang said in an excited tone.

The dresses fit perfectly and need no amendment. But what was more shocking was the gifts included in the box, thanks so much! Daiyu said with a big smile.

Jia Li, we are going to treat you to a nice lunch when we come over a few days to your wedding. DanDan said.

Alright, I'm happy that I was able to put smiles on your face through this. Jia Li said with a smile.

Daiyu pushed DanDan and Chang Chang out of her view before saying to Jia Li, I'm not going to be jealous because you chose DanDan as your chief bridesmaid, I am already happy that I get to attend the wedding of the trending couple and a wedding of the century. I may find my Mr. Perfect there.

DanDan and Chang Chang came back to their rightful positions as Jia Li in surprise, Daiyu, I'm really surprised that you are thinking about dating.

Why do you think like that? Daiyu asked with a frown.

You looked like the one that will be the last to date amongst our circle. DanDan said with a low chuckle.

Daiyu glanced at them and asked, Was I that bad?

You didn't know? You were always talking about beating up the boys, so we thought you had no affection for them but who knew that you would one day be interested in them. Chang Chang teased.

Daiyu rolled her eyes at them and said, Who says I don't want to have a perfect marriage like Jia Li? I also want to be loved by a man, as have an adorable daughter like Jasmine. Oh! Where is our pretty little girl, where did you hide her?

Chapter 516: Little Bridesmaid's Dress

Fu Hua was at home when the wedding dress arrived but unfortunately for him, he was not allowed to see the dress or see Jia Li in it.

When he tried to go into the room with them to check the dress out and see how perfectly it fit his wife, his mother pushed him away and said, Don't be in a hurry to see your wife in her wedding dress, the wedding day is the perfect day to enjoy her glory.

Fu Hua couldn't believe his ears. He was not allowed to see his wife in the wedding dress he designed for her to be sure it fitted perfectly.

Inside the room, the Fu family female members surrounded Jia Li with smiles on their faces. Seeing her in the beautiful white wedding dress that was in line with her curves and shape, caused a tinge in their hearts.

Jasmine who was present took a good look at her mother's dress before asking for hers.

Mummy, my dress? Jasmine asked in her cute voice as she looked up with a slight frown and her palms spread out in demand.

Fu Hee and Jia Li chuckled softly with a hand over their mouth.

It looks like Da Xia is jealous and wants to bask in the same glory as her mother. Fu ChunHua said with a smile.

Da Xia, this is your dress, would you like to try it on? FangSu asked the little girl while showing her little bride's dress to her.

Yeah!!! Jasmine shrieked in excitement as she ran to FangSu to try out her dress.

A few minutes later, the little girl stood side by side with her mother, in her little bride's outfit. She looked really cute in that dress. And in order not to stain the white dress, Jia Li asked FangSu to take it off after 5 minutes but that's exactly when hell came.

When Jasmine wanted to be stubborn, she could be very annoying. After 5 minutes was up and FangSu called her so she could take off her dress, she refused and moved backward, while saying, No

Da Xia, you have to take off your dress or it will become dirty. Fu Hee said to the little girl that wouldn't even budge.

No! Jasmine said and went to stand in front of the mirror to admire herself.

Fu ChunHua sighed and said, I think we have to leave her for a few more minutes. She really loves her daughter.

Glancing at her little daughter who was staring at herself in the mirror happily, Jia Li smiled and let her be. All she just had to do was to keep her eyes on her, so she wouldn't get dirty or pluck out the stones and fancies on her dress.

After changing out of her wedding dress, Fu Hee opened the door and the wedding dress was handed over to their laundry servants for cleaning. As for the little bun, she still had her dress on and refused to take it off.

When Fu Hua saw his little princess in the outfit, he was full of smiles and immediately went to lift her and throw her in the air.

Jasmine giggled happily while letting her father throw her up in the air. Her adorable voice was heard around the hallway, as she seemed overly excited.

Later, Fu Hua got the little bun to take off her dress before giving it to the laundry to clean. Currently, Fu Hua was trying to dress the little girl up.

Did you pee in your diaper? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her.

No. Jasmine replied.

Are you sure? How about you let Daddy check for you? Fu Hua asked and the little bun nodded in agreement.

After checking her diaper to ensure she hasn't wet it yet, Fu Hua proceeded to help her back to her home outfit.

Jia Li who was sitting on the bed and replying to her Emails would sometimes glance at the father and daughter with a smile.

Our reception outfits will be here in 2 days. Fu Hua notified Jia Li.

That's a perfect coming. Mother said that I will have to move out a week to our wedding to be taken care of. Jia Li revealed as she put her phone aside.

A week before the wedding, all the female family members moved out of the Fu villa and went to live in Jia Li and Fu Hua's duplex which has already been cleaned up by the servants.

Before leaving for the last day of work before her wedding, Jia Li packed her bags by herself before leaving the Fu mansion. Her mother-in-law had already told her that she would bring her bags along to the place, so she didn't have to carry them to work.

Thinking that they would not see each other till 6 days later, Jia Li gave Fu Hua a deep hug and smooched him all over his face before leaving for work.

During the lunch break, Jia Li gave out her wedding invitation cards to her colleagues she had a close relationship with and they were shocked that she was having a wedding.

Wtf! I thought you were married! I mean, I thought you have already done a wedding. One of them said in shock while staring at Jia Li.

I am surprised as well with this invitation but I am happy for you, Linda said with a smile.

Yes JL, we are super happy for you. At least you are inviting us to such a high-profile wedding we may never get to attend. Another one said with a smile.

But why do I not hear anyone talking about this big wedding? I mean, this is not a small occasion and it should occupy the headlines and billboards for a month! One of the males said with a proud smile.

Jia Li seemed to have recalled something and she immediately said to them, Please, don't tell the outsiders about the wedding, I will officially announce it a day before wedding, I don't want too much attention.

Oh! JL, you are too humble for my liking. If I were to be in your shoes, nobody will rest, I will make sure to stress the whole world. One of the ladies said while making big gestures.

Linda smiled and replied, That is why you are not JL. and the others chuckled heartily.

Thanks to this wedding, I can finally show my good fashion sense out to the world. Another female said with a wink.

JL, you have to make sure the media attention is on us, cause I have to show off the dress I made.

JL, you have to introduce me to any handsome single brother out there

Just like that, Jia Li's colleagues started bugging them about her wedding but she was patient to listen to them rant about her big day.

It was really fun listening to her colleagues talk about how they would prepare for the wedding, like the bags and shoes they would order and where to get their hair and makeups done.

Since Marié's ugly act online, she has not been associating much with the others but she was still as audacious as she was. Right now, she was not with them because she was still working on something in the office.

Jia Li did not need to give Sunny an invite because Fu Hua would do that himself. After work, Fu Hua kidnapped her forcefully in the underground park and asked Zimo to send her car back home, while he took her out for dinner.

You really have your way in all things. I just told you that mother was preparing dinner for me but you still did what you wanted. Jia Li said with a sigh.

Fu Hua smiled and said, Don't you want to spend an evening with your husband? Thinking about how I'm going to sleep alone on that big bed for 6 more times makes me want to go crazy.

You just have to wait for 6 days, it's not long. Jia Li said.

It was just 6 days of not being in each other's arms and she didn't think it was that far. Besides, it's not like he would be alone in the house, there are male family members to keep him company at home.

You just said that 6 days is not long? Have you ever missed me before? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her.

Of course, when you go on business trips and I feel your absence because you have left for some days. Jia Li replied immediately.

Author :Paschalinelily