The Invisible Rich Man – Chapter 1712

Juno simply turned to	look at Gerald	when he heard	that and	replied, '	"What of it?"	I was simply	born	with a voracious appetite!"

Gerald simply zipped his mouth as he shook his head, afraid that if he continued, Juno would flip the table over.

Regardless, after finishing their breakfast, the two headed to Dragonblood City's training court.

Each city on the Leicom Continent had its own training court, which was used to host a variety of yearly competitions. Of course, training courts were also used as a formal training and battleground for those skilled in martial arts.

In any case, by the time they arrived at the training court, many people were already sparring.

When everyone in the room realised Juno was there, they immediately displayed respectful expressions, even offering Juno their sparring areas.

Juno continued to wield considerable power in Dragonblood City based on this alone. After all, powerful people, regardless of gender, were always respected by others.

Juno simply chose a secluded area after declining their offers, then looked at Gerald and said, "Allow me to challenge you to a duel, Gerald!"

Gerald said, "I accept!" without hesitation.

With that in mind, they stood at opposite ends of the room...

"Are you ready?" she asked, looking at Gerald.

With a nod, Gerald replied, "Ready as ever!"

Juno wasted no time after hearing this and charged straight at Gerald! Her fist was inches away from Gerald's face in less than a second, thanks to her quickness!

Juno was certainly powerful, but she was simply repeating her usual attack. With that in mind, Gerald easily avoided her punch before grabbing her arm and yanking it down!

Juno lost her balance as a result of the abrupt shift and nearly fell face first! Thankfully, Gerald quickly pulled her up and saved her from embarrassment.

Whatever the case may have been, everyone else on the scene was taken aback when they saw what had happened.

They, of all people, were aware of Juno's strength. After all, she had repeatedly challenged them in the past, and after being pummelling time and time again, no one dared to challenge her anymore. They couldn't stand up to her!

When they first saw Gerald, they assumed she had just duped some poor sap into duelling with her because she hadn't been able to duel anyone in a long time. They hadn't expected that young man to have such an easy time defeating her! It was truly awe-inspiring to witness...

Juno, who wasn't about to give up so easily, stood up and exclaimed, "Again!" shortly after.

