

《The Mysterious CEO》

144 Disappointment...

Si Li's hand trembled and the body became stiff.

Mu Che looked at Si Li, who had stopped asking the questions and was staring at his phone.

"President, what happened?"

"He is back." Si Li murmured under his breath.

Mu Che wasn't able to hear what Si Li had just said.

Si Li looked at Mu Che and instantly said: "I have to go."

"Where, President? And what about Madam?" Mu Che asked and looked towards the door.

Si Li also looked at the door. He wanted to be here, but he couldn't be able to wait for even a single second to go there.

"I have something important work to do. I have to go. You look after her and make sure to send her home safely. I will talk to the doctor later." Si Li hurriedly said and without waiting for Mu Che's reply, he walked away and left.

"But...President..." Mu Che wanted to say something, but Si Li already disappeared from his sight.

Mu Che helplessly sighed and wait outside.

After half an hour, all the tests were done and they went to the doctor's cabin. The doctor happily gave Lu Lan a good news "Congratulations, Mrs Si. you are pregnant. It's been only one week."

'Pregnant...'

'I am pregnant...'

Lu Lan subconsciously touched her belly, joy was felt in her heart. Her face showed a bright smile.

'It is her and Si Li first child.'

She never expected that there would be a day when she felt a blessing given by the heavens. A warmth felt inside her and her bright eyes were little watery.

Of course, these tears were of happiness...

The doctor was about to explain further precaution, which Lu Lan had to take care "Mr Si, from now on..."

However, Lu Lan interrupted her "Doctor, can you please wait for a few minutes? I want to give this news to my husband first."

Of course, Lu Lan didn't forget, how much excited Si Li was.

She wanted to give this good news to him as soon as possible.

He should be the first person, who had the right to know this good news apart from Lu Lan.

"Okay." The doctor said. As she had already experienced, this kind of excitement which every couple showed after knowing that their child would be going to come in this world. So as the doctor, she understood.

Lu Lan immediately strode out of the room.

"Hubby..." Lu Lan happily called out.

However, Si Li was nowhere.

"Where is Si Li? Lu Lan asked.

Seeing Lu Lan came out of the room and her face was showing a bright smile. Mu Che immediately understood that it was good news for his president.

However, now he didn't know what to say to her. He hadn't had the heart to take away happiness from her by telling her that Si Li had gone.

Where?...

He also didn't know...

"Madam...that...President...." Mu Che stuttered while trying to find the appropriate words.

"What's about him? Where is he? Tell me." Lu Lan anxiously asked. Now all the excitement had vanished away and fear mustered up inside her.

Since she learned about Si Li's background, there were a few times she got nightmares where enemies were attacking at him.

"Actually, he has important work and he has gone for it." Mu Che said in a low voice.

'Important work.'

'What could be so important than hearing the news of their child?'

'Wasn't he excited about the good news?'

'Doesn't he want their child?'

All kind of thoughts were coming in her. The more she thought, the more disappointed she was feeling.

She came here excitedly only to give him the good news and there, he had gone to do some 'important work'.

Lu Lan dishearteningly went back inside the room and to listen to what precautions the doctor wanted to say.

Lu Lan tried to compose her face in front of the doctor for not showing disappointment. However, the doctor had understood when she didn't see Si Li with Lu Lan. Nevertheless, it was not her matter to mind in other business.

Afterwards, she started prescribing the multi-vitamins and calcium medicines which Lu Lan required to take and precautions, which she needed to take care.

However, things in Diamond Hills were different. Where, Si Li showed less interest, Elder Si and Madam Si were very excited.

When they heard that Si Li and Lu Lan were going to the hospital for Lu Lan's checkup. Their imagination had gone wild and fortunately, their imagination was right.

A new little monster was going to come to their home.

Elder Si couldn't wait for them to come home. So he was continuously calling Mu Che to get updates and when Mu Che confirmed that Lu Lan was pregnant. They were on the cloud nine.

Madam Si immediately orders servants to prepare the spontaneous feast to celebrate this news. She even called Si Yan to come.

Fortunately, when Little Champ heard that his little brother or sister would be going to come, he became excited as well.

He immediately took his tablet and started searching the best names because he didn't like his name. He wanted to have something different name. Since he couldn't change his name now. He decided to think a different name for his little brother or sister. As he didn't even know whether it was his little brother or sister. So he started searching the names, both for girls and boys and busy himself while waiting for his mommy.

During searching, he had searched most of the girls' name and only a few of the boys' name because he wanted that it should be his little sister. So he was waiting for his mommy to confirm whether it was his little sister or brother.
