

《The Mysterious CEO》

153 Ten Thousand dollars per man...

Everyone's attention went towards the source of the voice and saw a girl, who was wearing a pink shirt which was up to her knees and barbie doll was printed on her shirt. Her hair was tied in a ponytail. Her face had a charming smile.

She was looking sweet and a lovely girl.

Every man wanted to protect this girl.

However, couldn't she see that a group of ten men wanted to kill a man, whose right leg was already hurt and blood was flowing out his wound?

Then why was she offering her help, instead of screaming and getting scared after seeing this scene?

What was going on this world?...

"Why aren't you guys replying? Does anyone want any help?" The girl again asked in a tender voice.

"Pfft...Hahahaha" All the men, who had pointed their gun at Mo Jiang, were starting laughing after hearing this sweet looking girl's offer.

Even, Mo Jiang also helplessly shook his head and thought that she should have run away from here instead of standing here and showing her sweet smile.

"Help? Hahaha... Why don't you ask Mr Mo.? Perhaps, he might need your help." One man out of ten men said while laughing at the girl.

That girl looked towards Mo Jiang.

Even, Mo Jiang shot her an annoyed look, how could a girl be so stupid?

"Run away from here, NOW," Mo Jiang said while gritted his teeth.

"Runaway? Now she can't go away from here." That man said and then he looked towards the girl and said with an evil smile "However, you don't have to worry. We won't kill you. You just have to please us."

Then, that man hinted his subordinate, who went to understand his leader's gesture and walked towards the girl.

However, before he could touch her, she snatched the gun from his hand and shot the bullet in his head.

'Thud!'

Before one could understand what was happening, that subordinate fell on the ground and he died.

"Ten thousand dollars per man. Do you agree with the deal or not?" That girl asked Mo Jiang.

'Ten thousand dollars per man.'

'What did she mean?'

However, before all the men could understand what deal she was talking about.

Mo Jiang instantly replied "Yes,"

As soon as, she heard Mo Jiang's reply. That girl held the gun and started firing.

'Bang!'

'Bang!'

'Bang!'

Then, they understood that she was talking about money, which she would get after killing each man.

Really!

The life of these men was so cheap in her eyes.

Only Ten Thousand dollars!

So cheap!

Within a minute, that girl shot the six bullets on the six men's forehead and all the six men had died instantly.

Her skill was so perfect that even Mo Jiang was astonished after seeing her. Not a single bullet was wasted.

Fabulous!

The leader of all men came back into his sense and started firing at the girl. Luckily, she took the dead body of the man in front of her to cover herself and in the next minute without any second thought, she finished the rest three men.

That was it!

Now, no one could dare to say that she was a sweet looking little girl.

Mo Jiang was still in the shock, what had just happened?...

A few minutes before, he thought that he was finished. However, now...

"My money." The girl opened her palm in front of Mo Jiang.

Then, only Mo Jiang came back into his sense and started asking the questions "Who are you? What's your name? From where did you learn this skill?"

"Well, the answer to your all questions is 'NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS' Now, take out the money or otherwise..." The girl said and pointed the gun towards Mo Jiang.

"Okay...Okay..." Mo Jiang said and took out the wallet from his pocket.

Sadly, he had only twenty thousand dollars in cash and it was also drenched because earlier, he had jumped into the sea.

Legally, he should have checked his wallet before saying 'Yes', however, he didn't.

Mo Jiang winked slyly at her.

In that instant, she understood and therefore, she asked in a high voice "What? You don't have money?"

"No...No... I have. How about you take these twenty thousand dollars now? I will transfer the rest of seventy dollars in our bank account."

"I want only cash and what do you mean seventy thousand dollars? I think it's eighty thousand dollars. Your mathematics is very poor, Mister. Go and take admission to the kindergarten school again."

'Kindergarten school'

What did she mean?

He was CEO of Mo Corporation, how dare did she insult him?

Mo Jiang wanted to rip her mouth, however, she had already pointed the gun at him. So he couldn't do anything to her.

What did she mean eighty thousand dollars? She killed one man to save herself. How dare did she charge an extra ten thousand dollars on him?

Before he could retort back, he heard her voice.

"Your watch."

Mo Jiang confusingly looked at her.

"Take out your watch and give me the twenty thousand dollars also, NOW." The girl ordered and pulled the rear sight of the gun and ready to shoot at Mo Jiang, if he dared to say another word.

'What watch?'

This watch cost was five hundred thousand dollars.

This girl!

It was clearly a robbery.

Sadly, Mo Jiang didn't have any other choice instead of giving his watch and money to her.

"Thank you, Mister. Okay, then. Goodbye, and take care of yourself." The girl took the watch and money from him and turned to leave.
