183 Chance to earn more money!

God knows after how long, the men stopped hitting her. Then they forced her to wear torn clothes to make her look more pitiful.

Since then Liu Juan was wandering on streets and begging.

When she came back, the men collected all the money from her and then pleased themselves at night with her.

The same routine happened every day. Now, Liu Juan had become a dead shell. She became a body without a soul. She didn't want to live. In fact, her life had become so miserable that she had forgotten her promise to her big sister that she would come and save her.

There were multiple times when Liu Juan had tried to commit suicide. However, the coxing fox, the third man seemed to read her mind. He was always prepared to foil Liu Juan's suicide attempts. Every time, Liu Juan tried to kill herself, he came just in time and didn't let her wish to be fulfilled.

However, it didn't stop him to torture Liu Juan. In fact, the more she tried to kill herself, the more they were cruel towards her.

At one point of time, Liu Juan stopped trying to kill herself and accepted her life. Her life didn't leave any hope in her. She had no hopes - neither for a better life nor for an early end of her life.

Just at that point of time, God finally felt pity on her and send hope to her.

Today's weather seemed to be very cold. It looked like it could freeze a person's body if he didn't cover himself with the warm clothes.

Sure enough, all the people roaming on the street had covered themselves with several layers of warm clothes. No one could be seen without warm clothes. If someone was seen without the warm clothes than others would think that person must be crazy as they were asking for death wish by roaming in this street in such a manner.

Well!!!

There was a crazy girl who was roaming in the street wearing a thin layer of torn clothes rather than a single layer of warm clothes as if it was a sunny day.

Liu Juan was roaming in the street without any expression on her face like a dead body. Her right eye was swollen, while there was a mark of cut on the left side of her jaw. Her face was turned red like a tomato because of the cold, but she didn't feel anything as her body had become numb. Experiencing so much of torture made her like this.

However, her appearance became profitable to these three men, as people felt pity on Liu Juan and gave her more money.

Since Liu Juan's appearance brought more money to them, they would not be stupid by giving her warm clothes.

Suddenly...

Few black cars stopped at the signal, which caught the attention of surrounding people.

The first man's attention was also drawn there. He was standing a few steps away from Liu Juan to keep an eye on her. They feared that Liu Juan might run away or try to kill herself. They couldn't afford to lose her.

Seeing luxury cars in front of him, a fog of greed appeared in front of his eyes.

It was a good chance to earn more money!
