

《The Mysterious CEO》

216 Freedom ? Part-2

The next morning, the big boss got information that his villa was attacked by the enemy and Xin Chao got injured. Not only this but last night, Liu Juan had also been ferociously taken away by the doctors back to the hospital with a saying that she was not fully recovered. All of this was planned by Bo Xiao so that the big boss would leave this villa alone.

Even though the man was the big boss, this villa was owned by Bo Xiao and all the men were hired by Bo Xiao himself so it was obvious that all the men here were loyal towards Bo Xiao and did as he commanded. His orders were absolute in their eyes and anyone else was not to be followed.

However, they didn't know that they had made a mistake by showing their loyalty towards Bo Xiao which would cost them their lives. This, of course, would happen later on.

At present, the big boss had left the villa alone though, he knew what was happening. Right now, he wanted to let Liu Juan get closer to her freedom as much as she could. Once, she was one step away, the man would cut her legs for that one step so that she would never ever again think about her freedom for the rest of her life. She was his and he would never let her leave his side. Ever since the day he adopted her she belonged to him.

Liu Juan was confined in a room for a whole night. It was not that she couldn't get out of the room, she stayed in the room only for one reason and that was, she had been informed that it was part of Bo Xiao's plan to send the big boss away.

Since she had given him the time till tomorrow morning, she decided to trust them. If they dared to betray her again, then she would make sure to turn their life like a living hell. There was no way she would allow them to do anything to her again this time.

Liu Juan was sitting inside the room while being extremely vigilant that she didn't sleep even for a second. She knew that she couldn't trust Bo Xiao again, thus it would be better to stay alert rather than sorry. The sun had risen and she was patiently waiting for Bo Xiao or his men to come and to tell her the news about the big boss' departure.

With every passing minute, Liu Juan's patience limit was getting thinner and to the point that she decided to stop waiting and started to find a way to leave this room. She was absolutely not going to be tricked by anyone.

'Click'

At that moment, the door of the room opened and a shadow of the figure had been seen. In the next second, Bo Xiao's figure came in front of Liu Juan's sight.

Seeing him here, Liu Juan somehow knew that he had completed his task. Still, she stared at him without any expressions on her face and waited to hear the confirmation from his mouth.

"I did what you wanted. Big Boss has left. We will leave for the next mission tomorrow morning. Go and let your big sister know about it!" Bo Xiao said sternly. He was still angry to see her face as last night her threat replayed in his mind, but he tried to control his temper at least for now until he could let her pay for it.

"Okay." Liu Juan nonchalantly replied as usual.

"Since I have done all the things as you wished, I want that recording!" This was the only reason Bo Xiao personally came here to tell her the news, otherwise, he would not have wanted to see her face and directly executed his plan against her. He was absolutely going to teach her a lesson for what she had done.

"You will get that record once I get my freedom till then you have to wait!"

"This can't happen! I have done all the things which you said last night! I have sent our boss away from here and organized the mission for tomorrow morning, so you have to give that recording to me now!"

"But I didn't get my freedom. So you have to wait whether you like it or not! There is no way I am going to trust anything from anyone, especially from you, so no I will hold onto this recording until everything has gone smoothly and I have my freedom."

"You!"

After that, Liu Juan didn't bother with him anymore and left to catch up with some sleep. After all she needed to talk to Liu Ruolan and clear all of the misunderstandings between them so that her plan for their freedom could be executed smoothly.

Bo Xiao also left as he already knew that Liu Juan wouldn't handover that recording to him but still he wanted to try. Nevertheless, he had his trump card which was Liu Ruolan. Liu Ruolan had blindly trusted him unlike Liu Juan, so he had already manipulated her against Liu Juan.

Now he had to sit and watch these twin sisters going against each other. He honestly couldn't wait to see the show between them and how blown up it would get. He already knew how each of them felt for the other and knew how it came about that way.

Whereas Liu Ruolan seemed to have agreed with Bo Xiao but she had already made a plan with the big boss as she already got to know about Bo Xiao and Liu Juan's initial plan for their freedom and Bo Xiao's feelings for Liu Juan which had hurt Liu Ruolan deeply.

So initially, Liu Ruolan had planned only to deal with Liu Juan but now she had decided to teach Bo Xiao a lesson as well to let him know that only she was perfect for him and no one else!
