Chapter 230 - Lost Consciousness (Part-1)

The man took a photo from the envelope and showed it to Liu Juan. "The man is called Mo Jiang. Your next mission is to kill him."

The man stood up and explained while strolling back and forth as if he was telling some story. "Mo Jiang is well very known in the European Underworld. Unfortunately for him, I want to rule on European Underworld as well." The man smirked as his greed was reflecting in his eyes.

"Sadly, he is interfering in my path and you know how much I hate when people don't follow my words. I'm sure you know that, don't you Liu Juan? So, Liu Juan, you are the best person for this mission. You would go and get the relevant information from him and smoothly remove him from my path and from his life as well. Isn't it an interesting mission?"

The man came to stand in front of Liu Juan where his eyes were clearly showing what exactly he wanted her to do.

He wanted her to use her innocent appearance and if the situation would demand, to use her body as well to complete this mission. After all, Liu Juan wasn't pure anymore, was she?

And this was the first time that Liu Juan understood what was running in this man's mind which made her heart sink deep in her chest...

Her past was a stain on her heart and her mind which she couldn't erase and this man was poking her wounds to increase her pain before he could kill her.

Liu Juan knew that once she would complete this mission, her death wouldn't be far away; neither would she mind that, to be honest.

However, the thing which she would mind was the death of her big sister. Liu Ruolan wanted to live so she would live.

Though this time Liu Juan's plan had flopped, this wouldn't happen again.

Liu Juan closed her eyes. With this promise to herself, now it didn't matter whether the man would read her thoughts or not. She just knew that she would get the thing that she wanted.

"Bo Xiao, you will help her. And you, Liu Ruolan..." The man sneered, "You are the useless one so you can continue to be one...but also start praying to not to be a scapegoat..."

Though Liu Ruolan was feeling insecure because of Liu Juan's presence as she knew she wasn't capable enough, this was the first time that she was deeply hurt for being incompetent where her life was dependent on the person whom she hated the most.

However, the man didn't bother about this trivial matter. He was just pleased with his entertainment.

"Sure Miss Lee, you can go, but make sure you go to the finance department to clear your salary." Mo Jiang threatened her which made her freeze.

'What?' 'Clear her salary?'

'Is she going to be fired on the first day of her new job?'

Liu Juan was frozen but only for a fraction of a second.

Liu Juan replied indifferently. "Fine, President Mo."

She disappeared from there without looking back at him. Not even once as she didn't care about it because what mattered to her the most was her big sister.

Liu Juan soon reached the place where Liu Ruolan had called her.

As soon as Liu Juan saw Liu Ruolan, she couldn't help but run to hug her "Big Sis, you don't know how much I have missed you."

However, as usual, Liu Ruolan didn't hide her hatred for Liu Juan. "Liu Juan, how dare you to touch me? I haven't called you here to have a chit-chat with you."

"Big sis..."

Again, disappointment spread in her heart. The excitement and joy she had felt in her heart when she saw Liu Ruolan's message to meet her that she didn't think about anything and just wanted to rush here, was all gone in a second. It was the first time that Liu Ruolan had contacted her since the day when she lost her and her big sister's freedom again.

And again, reality sucks!

Nevertheless, she knew that once Liu Ruolan would come to know the truth, she would love Liu Juan again as her precious little sister.

She just wanted Liu Ruolan to be safe and live her life in happiness, maybe with Bo Xiao or without Bo Xiao.

"Enough! What the hell were you doing last night? Do you know you killed all our men last night? Liu Juan, don't forget, the success of this mission will decide whether we will be alive or not. Ohh...Right, you never wanted me to live, correct?"

"No Big Sis, it's not like that." A quick reply came out of Liu Juan's lips against Liu Ruolan's accusation.

However, would it be enough to convince Liu Ruolan of Liu Juan's true intentions?

"Shut up! Don't try to play with me. I know what you really want but remember Liu Juan, if something happens to me, I won't let you live peacefully either." With that, Liu Ruolan turned to leave.

Liu Juan wanted to stop her big sister, but she couldn't.

Last night, the men who attacked Mo Jiang's ship were her team members. However, last night's attack was just a bluff to gain the trust of Mo Jiang which Liu Juan and Bo Xiao had planned.

Unexpectedly, Liu Juan killed her own team members to gain the trust of Mo Jiang and she was successful in it as she got a job as Mo Jiang's secretary.

Dismally to her, she had just lost her job.

Now she didn't know what to do.
