

《The Mysterious CEO》

65 'she don't want to meet you's.

It had been 15 days, but still, Si Li was still unconscious.

It was around 2 AM in the night, but still, lights were on, in the Si Corporation, because Fan Corporation had leaked secret information of Mo Corporation. Mo Corporation was in crisis and the absence of Si Li already affect Si Corporation. Even board members started to question about Si Li's health and started to make decisions on its own, as if they already knew that Si Li wouldn't be awakened.

Song Tianxin, Lu Lan and other trust people were still trying to management most of the things and even Mo Jinnan was trying to management Mo Corporation. Seeing the crisis of Mo Corporation, Mo Jinnan's father broke the engagement of Mo Jinnan and Song Tianxin.

The worst part was both of them even didn't have time to think about themselves. Seeing this, Lu Lan was getting more depressed as if she hated herself to born. When relatives of Lu Lan's parents were saying the same to her. She didn't take them in her heart and think that they were simply jealous of her, but now she thought they were right.

Lu Lan involved herself completely in the work until Si Li come to consciousness. Afterwards she decided to go back to Country M as it was the best thing she could do.

As usual, it was 2 AM in the night and Lu Lan was still doing her work. Suddenly, her phone rang. It was Madam Si. Madam Si daily called Lu Lan to inform about Si Li's health, as currently, she could only do this thing as a mother.

It was strange that she already called her in this afternoon but why would Madam Si calling her again, might be something serious happened to Si Li. So she hurriedly received the call.

"Mom... How happened?" Lu Lan worriedly asked.

"Xiao Lan... Come to the hospital... Xiao Li has awakened. He wants to meet you" Madam Si was saying in between of sobs.

She was so happy that Si Li had awakened and he was fine now. Finally, she could sigh relief.

Lu Lan was startled, as she couldn't believe what she just heard. Until now, she successfully avoided him and no one forced her against her will, but how could she going to face him now.

Soon Si Yan, Mu Che, Mo Jinnan and Song Tianxin came to the hospital, after they heard that Si Li was awakened.

After two hours, Lu Lan still didn't show up in the hospital. Everyone knew why she was not here, but still, they behaved like nothing had happened. However, from Si Li's eyes, nothing could be hidden.

"Where is Xiao Lan?" Si Li said, his body was weak but his voice was still powerful.

Everyone look at each other, they knew that Lu Lan hadn't left the office even after receiving the call.

"Mu Che?" SI Li called out.

Mu Che came forward and hesitantly replied " She was still in the office. She-she don't want to meet you because of that incident".

When heard Mu Che words, he understood why she didn't want to meet him.

After silent for a few moments, Si Li said in a firm voice "Get the car".

Everyone was stunned, but his doctor stopped him hurriedly "Sorry, Mr Si. As a doctor, I can't allow you to leave".

Si Li got off from his bed "Don't worry doctor. It's my body and I know how to take care of it. I will be back".

"Hey...Hey... Relax...I will go and get her, Okay?" Mo Jinnan tried to stop. He knew that it was impossible to stop him, therefore he found out another way.

"No Need, instead help me to get there" Si Li rejected him. He knew no one could win against Lu Lan's stubbornness and now he couldn't wait to meet her.

"Fine" Mo Jinnan reluctantly agreed.

Soon they reached Si Corporation, Si Li's body was weak, so Mu Che and Mo Jinnan support him, as he hated to sit on a wheelchair.

Some of the employees were still there, so when they saw their boss, they were startled. Si Li also saw them without the expression. He still had his cold aura even if his body was weak.

Soon they reached outside Lu Lan's cabin because she was handling many projects, so management allocated a cabin and appointed her manager.

"Wait here," Si Li said without looking at Mu Che and Mo Jinnan.

They just nodded their head.

After call received from Madam Si, Lu Lan was still sitting in her chair. She tried to focus on her work again, but she couldn't do that. Tears were falling from her eyes and her mind had all the thoughts of Si Li.

'How's he?'

'Is he still having pain?'

'What is he thinking about her?'

'Is he angry on her?'

Lu Lan was in her thoughts that she didn't realise that someone had come inside her cabin.
