

《The Mysterious CEO》

70 'sNow, would you tell me about that thing?'s

"Otherwise how can you complete with my stamina?"

Lu Lan was again speechless.

After freshen up, a family of three having breakfast, Si Li was regularly from time to time put food in her bowl.

Little Champ puffed his cheek in disappointment when he saw that his father only put food in his mummy bowl and ignore him. Even, his mummy didn't pay attention to him, not even looked at him.

Now, who would tell him that because of his father shamelessness, his mummy's face turned red that she couldn't show her face to him?

Si Li saw his son disappointment face and he affectionately rubbed his hairs and put food in his bowl as well.

At the same time, Mo Jinnan came inside his room.

"What a sight, I never knew that you are planning to become a family man" Mo Jinnan smirked.

Si Li shot him an angry looked and keep him to shut his mouth.

Although, Si Li was not happy that someone interrupted his sweet time with his family, but he knew that Mo Jinnan was here to discuss something.

Seeing Mo Jinnan, Lu Lan controlled her embarrassment and finished her breakfast fast, so that before Si Li could say something shameless again, she should leave from here, otherwise, she wouldn't be able to show her face.

Little Champ was a kid, so he didn't understand what his father was referring.

Soon, Lu Lan said goodbye and leave for office. She let stay Little Champ under the care of Si Li. I meant to take care of Si Li, after all, he is the patient.

After Lu Lan left, both Mo Jinnan and Si Li went to another room and leave Little Champ with a nurse.

"It's Jeck. He is the young brother of Robot and after his brother died, he suffered huge losses, so....".

"...So, he came to avenge for his brother" Si Li complete the sentence of Mo Jinnan.

Si Li already expected him, but he wanted to confirm first.

Mo Jinnan: "Hmm".

Si Li: "Do you plan everything?"

Mo Jinnan: "Yes, but I was waiting for you to take action".

Si Li: "Hmm...I will"

Of course, how could he leave the person who dared to attack his family?

After a silence for few minutes, Si Li finally said, what he wanted "Would you like to take my position?"

Mo Jinnan was taken aback and looked at him confusingly "What do you mean?"

Si Li shot him an unpleasant glanced "You know what I mean".

Mo Jinnan was shocked "Are you really want to leave? You are king of the Underworld and King never his empire".

"What if King doesn't want that empire," Si Li said with a deeper meaning.

"Well... It's not easy to leave your position" Mo Jinnan shrugged his shoulder.

"You don't need to worry about this. Just be prepared, whenever I want you"

"Sure"

"Now let's talk about business, what's going on?" Si Li calmly looked at him.

"You are asking me, like Mu Che didn't inform you," Mo Jinnan said.

"He did, but I have my wife"

"Really... Don't tell me, you are going to handover Si Corporation to your wife and you will go and fulfil your dreams.

Si Li was startled when he heard about his dream, he remembered that he had sacrificed his dream, only to take over his responses and let his brother Si Yan fulfil his dream.

Si Li came back to his senses and replied nonchalantly "We will talk about it later".

"Fine"

Afterwards, Mo Jinnan told him that some board members made decisions on its own and they almost think that Si Li wasn't coming back. After all, it had been fifteen days and still, they didn't hear any news about him. They even thought to appoint a new CEO of the company, but other board member rejected this decision and decided to wait for Si Li.

After telling all information for Si Corporation and Mo Corporation, Mo Jinnan thought that Si Li would take some action immediately, but to his contradictory, Si Li told him to observe the situation carefully.

However, it seems that Si Li was planning something big and Mo Jinnan had to wait for that 'something big'.

When Si Li went to his room back, he saw Little Champ was drawing something. When Little Champ saw his father, he ran towards him and showed him his drawing.

Si Li bent down in front of him and his expression was soft and he took his drawing. When he saw it, he was taken aback.

Little Champ drew a picture of three people. In which Si Li, Lu Lan and Little Champ were there. Lu Lan was wearing a white wedding gown, having a flower bouquet in her one hand and her other hand was in Si Li's arms and Si Li wore a white suit with a red rose attached on his blazer on the left side and in between them Little Champ was also standing, who also wore the white suit. They all had a bright smile on their faces.

Si LI rubbed his hairs and softly asked: "Did you draw this?"

Little champ nodded with a smile.

"Can I ask you something?"

Little champ saw serious expression on his father's face, he pursed his lips and after a couple of minutes, he nodded his head hesitantly.

"Now, would you tell me about that thing?" Si Li said softly.
