

“Who are you to tell me what I should do?” Hu Yue glared at the pretty Public Relations executive furiously. “Now, it’s your responsibility to deal with the problem instead of questioning me for no reason. You have no right to question me, you good-for-nothing fool!”

The Public Relations executive felt deeply wronged when Hu Yue humiliated her in public. However, she knew that she certainly couldn’t talk back to Hu Yue because solving the problem was indeed part of her job.

Nevertheless, she had no idea on how to solve the problem at that very moment.

Just then, she saw Lu Chen and Lin Yijun coming in; she immediately stepped forward to greet them. “President Lu, President Lin.” She looked quite nervous, as she was uncertain of Lu Chen and Lin Yijun’s response.

“Just resolve the issue by telling the truth,” instructed Lu Chen.

“Huh?” The Public Relations executive was stumped. How on earth was she supposed to tell the truth?

“Just tell the reporters that Hu Yue was bluffing just now—she has no background in medicine at all,” said Lu Chen.

“You’re the one bluffing here! Who do you think you are? This is none of your d*mn business!” Hu Yue blew her top at once. She turned to Lin Yijun, saying, “President Lin, you must give me an explanation for this, or I won’t endorse your company!”

“Get lost then. I’ve wanted to remove you as the spokesperson since a long time ago,” said Lu Chen in a grim tone.

“Who is this guy, President Lin? I want him to apologize to me right now. If not, just deal with the problem yourselves!” said Hu Yue to Lin Yijun. Her chest heaved up and down with rage.

Her words infuriated Lin Yijun as well, for she had never seen such a shameless woman, much less a superstar. What a fool she was making out of herself!

“He is my husband, and his words represent mine. I am here to officially inform you that this is the end of our company’s collaboration with yours,” said Lin Yijun coldly.

Hu Yue panicked upon hearing Lin Yijun's response, which was out of her expectation. Never did she expect Lin Yijun to have such a forceful side.

She thought that Lin Yijun had a soft attitude since she always attended to her demands; without a doubt, Lin Yijun had been treating her nicely since early on. Little did she expect Lin Yijun to be more resolute and decisive than she had imagined.

Assistant Liu panicked as well. This problem was indeed their fault, since it was Hu Yue who shot off her mouth in the first place; it had nothing to do with Dong Jia Electronics. Even if they took this matter to court, they wouldn't win the case.

Yet, as Hu Yue's assistant, Assistant Liu had to speak for Hu Yue.

"President Lin, this is only a misunderstanding. You see—"

However, Lu Chen cut off Assistant Liu before she could finish. "There's nothing to see about the matter. Just get lost."

“You!” Hu Yue was infuriated at once, for she did not expect Lu Chen to ask her to get lost repeatedly. “Well done, two of you. Just wait and see!”

Then, she let out a snort before taking out her cell phone. She posted a status on her social media, saying that she was going to claim justice from Dong Jia Electronics because the company’s boss bullied her while she was endorsing its new product.

As soon as she posted the status, countless fans replied under the post. Nearly all the messages were condemning Dong Jia Electronics, with many of her fans threatening to boycott Dong Jia Electronics’ products and lead them to bankruptcy.

“Hmph, this is the power of my huge fan base! I’d love to see who would still buy or endorse your products!” Seeing the replies from her countless fans, Hu Yue showed the screen of her cell phone to Lin Yijun with smugness and arrogance written all over her face.

Her message was obvious—she would make anyone who messed with her regret their actions.

Assistant Liu breathed a sigh of relief as well. She said, "President Lin, this matter can still be settled if you apologize to Hu Yue."

Lin Yijun gave them a look of contempt as she felt that these two women must have gone insane. She was about to have the security guards chase them out, but Lu Chen stopped her.

He took a step forward and looked at Hu Yue. He mocked, "Since you love playing tricks, I don't mind playing with you."

As he spoke, he took his cell phone out and called Wang Wei. "Contact the group of celebrities who attended last year's annual dinner immediately. Have them come to Chongqing to endorse some products for me, and send a special plane to pick them up."

"Yes, do it tonight."

After hanging up on Wang Wei, he made a call again to Xu Shuting.

"Put your job aside for now, and use whatever means possible to buy up all the trending topics immediately. Just spread the news that popular idol Hu Yue was shooting off her mouth, and that she bluffed about her having learned medicine and showing her expertise in her previous TV series despite having no background in it at all.”

After hanging up on Xu Shuting, Lu Chen called a mysterious phone number. “Tell the Three Rivers Management Company to have Hu Yue, their artist, apologize to the Dong Jia Electronics’ boss at once, or I’ll make their company go bankrupt.” With that, he hung up the phone.

He rarely lost his temper, but Hu Yue was way too reckless. She was nothing but a petty artist, yet she dared to throw her weight around on his territory, which was no different than digging her own grave.

That was right—Lu Chen decided to screw her up today.

Hu Yue panicked at first when she saw Lu Chen making a phone call after another, but when she heard Lu Chen say that he wanted to make her management company go bankrupt, she couldn’t help but laugh.

Dong Jia Electronics was indeed wealthy, but her management company was far wealthier and more well-known than the former. She didn't think that a small electronics company like Dong Jia Electronics could fight with her management company.

"Are you going crazy out of anger? How dare you make me apologize to you?" mocked Hu Yue.

Assistant Liu said sarcastically as well, "Who do you think you guys are? How dare you want to bankrupt our company? Did you drink too much fake liquor?"

"Assistant Liu, make a call to the company right now. Tell them that Dong Jia Electronics insulted our company and threatened to make us bankrupt," said Hu Yue viciously.

To be fair, she was the one at fault in this matter, but she didn't expect Lu Chen to be so witless by giving her a chance to fight back.

She could also use this chance to turn the tables on Lu Chen and shift all her blame onto him. Even if they went to court for this matter, it would have nothing to do with her anymore.

“Okay.” Assistant Liu nodded and took out her phone to call the company; she then amplified the matter over the phone by exaggerating and shirking all responsibility to Lu Chen.

Then, she handed her cell phone to Lin Yijun gloatingly. “President Lin, our manager wants you to answer the phone.”

Lin Yijun took the phone and put it on speaker. Then, a woman’s voice was heard on the other side of the phone, saying, “Are you President Lin? We were informed that your company has bullied our artist. I will regard what you said about bankrupting our company as bullsh*t, but we’ll see you in court for your bullying our artist, Hu Yue.”

As soon as she finished her sentence, the woman hung up the phone without giving Lin Yijun a chance to respond.
