

Chapter 104 Feud

She wore the ring and hugged Leon, "I can't wear such a big diamond. People will see it."

"Then I'll buy you a small one tomorrow, okay?"

"Okay." Alyssa came over, "I want the most beautiful one."

"Okay, I'll take you to choose then."

"Hmm." Alyssa smiled, "Do you think I can pass the exam tomorrow? I've heard that this exam is very rigorous every year. I'm a little worried. I've been reading at home for so many days, but I'm not sure I'll be able to pass."

"It's no problem! You're so smart, and you'll definitely pass it."

He believed Alyssa. Wendy said that she had been studying very hard all this time.

He knew she was serious about her studies. Now it was holiday time, so she could use the daytime to study. Otherwise, she would definitely stay up at night studying until the early hours of the morning.

Alyssa fell asleep quickly. She didn't know what Leon had told her later.

The next morning, after eating a few bites of food, she couldn't eat anymore.

Watching Alyssa eat extremely slowly, Leon brought her favorite milk to her. He asked softly, "What's wrong? You don't like it?"

"Well, I can't eat anymore, probably because I'm a little nervous. I'll be fine after I stop being nervous later."

Leon looked at Alyssa's nervous look and suddenly laughed.

"What are you laughing at?"

"I'm laughing at the fact that you still have your nervous moments."

Alyssa smiled and took a few sips of milk. Then she frowned and glanced at Leon, "This milk tastes so weird."

"Weird?" Leon took a sip of the milk and thought it tasted fine.

"Maybe it's my illusion. I'm too nervous."

"I'll take you to the exam room later. Don't be so nervous. This kind of exam doesn't happen only once. Even if you fail this test, you still have a chance."

Hearing Leon's reassuring words, Alyssa really didn't feel that nervous, "Okay, I know. I'll try my best."

She wouldn't have any problems as long as she tried her best.

To relieve Alyssa's stress, he drove Alyssa to the exam room himself.

Alyssa walked to the exam room. Looking at Alyssa's back, Leon was actually not worried. Before that, she had been studying hard at home. She should not do badly in the exam.

After such a long time, Leon could see that Alyssa's study ability was still very strong.

Although she didn't say so, he could see that she had the ability to study on her own.

He had some work to do today. After watching Alyssa's figure disappear, he drove away.

Leon soon arrived at the office.

As soon as he arrived at the office, he saw his grandpa. They had a few words in the office and started to quarrel.

Word of their quarrel was spread. While they were arguing in the office, the news spread in Hunter Group that the chairman and president of Hunter Group had a feud.

That evening, all the major media papers reported that something was wrong in Hunter Group.

When Alyssa got home in the afternoon, she found out about Leon's fight with grandpa.

The Internet was full of news about it.

In the evening, Leon came home not too late and looked as usual.

Seeing Leon now, Alyssa had long forgotten about the morning exam. She hurried to the door, "What's going on?"

"What?" Looking at Alyssa's anxious look, Leon knew what she was asking about. He said softly, "Let's talk inside."

A few minutes later, they sat in the study.

Leon told Alyssa what had happened at Hunter Group today.

"So this was planned by you and grandpa?"

"Your guess?"

Alyssa nodded, "Earlier you told me there would be changes at the top of Hunter Group in the future. You were trying to get people to focus on you and grandpa by using the fact that you and grandpa quarreled?"

"Yes, there have been problems with the company's finances. I wanted to check it before, but I just couldn't find out what was wrong. It is a good opportunity for me."

"It's good that you and grandpa don't have any conflicts. Let's eat!"

Leon looked at Alyssa, "You have an appetite? It seems like you did pretty well on your exam."

"Not bad! I think I can handle this exam."

Alyssa was indeed not sure before. But after the test, she found that all those questions were in the question bank Ella had given her. Occasionally, she came across a few questions she hadn't seen before, but she knew how to answer them.

After she came out of the exam room, she regained her confidence. She felt that it was easy to get the banking certificate.

She smiled and looked at Leon confidently, "You're good at comforting me. If you didn't comfort me, how could I learn so fast?"

"Well, so I'm still useful. Since I helped you succeed in the exam, how are you going to thank me?"

"I'll make it up to you tonight."

"Okay, let's go eat first. You need to eat more and store some energy."

Alyssa blushed at Leon's words.

His meaning was clear.

After dinner, they went to the room to rest.

Then, they didn't stop for a long time.

That night, Alyssa couldn't sleep.

They had been together all day since the Spring Festival. So the chances of her getting pregnant should be high. She had also been taking folate. But why was she still not pregnant?

Today her stomach hurt a little. She felt like her period was about to come.

Because she was too tired before, her period was totally out of order. She couldn't tell when it was normal for her to have her period.

Last time the doctor told her that according to her health condition, her period might be disordered for a short time. However, after the disorder appeared, she should go to the hospital to have a check.

She was a little anxious.

She was hesitant whether she should go to the hospital tomorrow to get some Chinese herbs to adjust her body.

Early the next morning, Alyssa went to the hospital to get some medicine after sending Leon to work.

When she got home, she gave the medicine to Wendy.

"This is ..."

"This is what I just brought back from the hospital. I've been feeling a little sick lately and I need to take some Chinese medicine." Looking at Wendy's nervous look, Alyssa smiled, "It's not a big deal. This is the way to make the medicine. Wendy, I'll leave this to you. I'll drink it when you get it done in the morning."

Wendy nodded, "Okay, I'll boil it in the morning."

Alyssa smiled and turned to her bedroom to continue her studies.

Ten o'clock in the morning.

Hunter Group.

Leon was sitting in the president's office reading papers. At that moment, there was a knock on the door. He looked up and saw George standing outside the door.

Seeing George, Leon felt that something was wrong.

He naturally understood that this matter had changed.

He asked George to come in. George then walked in.
