

Chapter 105 Leon Gets Investigated

Because of what happened at the last Lantern Festival in the Hunter's, George came with apologies. Moreover, it was his mother who forced him to come here this time. He was somewhat guilty.

Although he had been acting calmly, he still felt very uncomfortable after seeing Leon.

He knew about the quarrel between his grandpa and Leon, but he didn't want to get involved in it. But ... he still came.

"I talked to grandpa earlier. Grandpa asked me to assist you with your work. If you feel too busy, you can let me help you."

George was very uncomfortable, especially when Leon looked at him. He stubbornly looked down at the floor.

"Okay, since you're here, you have to do your best to work for grandpa. There are vacant offices outside. You can choose anyone you want."

"No need, grandpa gave me the key to his office. I'll just go to grandpa's office."

"Fine!"

Leon was cold on the surface. He didn't care about that.

George should have talked to grandpa before he came. No matter what his real purpose for coming to Hunter Group was, it was definitely not a bad thing for him that grandpa intended to vacate his position and promote George now.

People in the company must have been a little suspicious when they saw George sitting in grandpa's office. He would only be freer.

But although he was at peace inside, he now had to pretend to be unhappy.

After thinking about the whole thing, he never saw anything wrong with George's presence here. But for effect, he still pretended to be angry.

Seeing that the office door was left open, he said in a cold voice, "Okay, I'll take you there. You go to grandpa's office."

Hearing the displeasure in Leon's tone, George couldn't help but look at him.

He didn't know if it was his illusion, but he felt as if Leon was angry. But in his memory, Leon was rarely angry. Most of the time, he was very calm. Even if the company was in trouble, he would quickly solve the problem.

But today, he was obviously angry!

Was it because of what happened at the Lantern Festival?

That day, he really didn't understand the situation before he hit Alyssa. After that, he also regretted it and wanted to find a chance to apologize to Leon.

When Leon stood up, he said to Leon, "I didn't mean to target your wife at home last time. Your wife didn't get hurt either. This matter should be over, right?"

"You're apologizing to me?" Leon glanced at George coldly.

George lowered his head.

Leon turned around and walked out.

Watching Leon head out, George had to follow him.

He had always felt that Leon was not a petty person. But today he had a feeling that something was wrong.

But if he was really angry that he came to Hunter Group and sat in grandpa's office, there was nothing he could do about it.

Grandpa had told him to go to his office.

Looking at Leon's cold face made George uncomfortable, too. His stubbornness came out. He walked into grandpa's office, "I didn't know that grandpa would ask me to come here when I met with him before. There are many empty offices in Hunter Group. But grandpa asked me to come, and there was nothing I could do."

Leon glanced at George, understanding that he was explaining now.

He looked at George and finally nodded.

George said lightly, "I'll do whatever you tell me to do. I didn't expect anything else."

Leon still nodded, but in his heart, he felt that it seemed good to have such a brother, "Whatever."

He turned around and left. He couldn't have too much interaction with George, and he couldn't let George see that he wasn't actually angry.

So, he had to turn his head and leave the office.

Suddenly, he heard George's voice, "You ... we haven't finished that model yet! You have that model. When will you finish it with me?"

"I don't have time for now."

"But you promised me that you would help me finish it."

Leon turned his head to look at George, "You must know who you are. You'd better be clear about what you're doing. I'm very busy now. I don't have time to play those things that are only for children with you."

Looking at Leon's back, George vaguely sensed something. He suddenly thought of what his grandpa had said to him before he came. He finally sensed that something was wrong when he noticed the eyes of the Hunter Group employees as they looked at him. It was as if someone was watching Leon all the time.

George finally understood something.

When he returned to the office, Leon received lots of criticism from others.

The ministers of various departments seemed to work together at the same time to disagree with Leon's decisions from the previous meeting.

Their statements were coherent, which forced Leon to make concessions.

Instantly, the news of Leon's loss of power in Hunter Group spread in the circle.

Leon's poor performance on that day even became the talk of the circle.

Alyssa didn't go out, but because she had worked at Citic before, she was sensitive to the problem.

Once she searched the news, she quickly found out what was happening with Hunter Group.

Leon was having a hard time at Hunter Group.

Alyssa was not in a hurry, because Leon had already told her the truth.

She felt that the more Leon had this kind of news out, the more it meant that he was not far from success.

However, this matter still went too far. She was worried about the effect it would have on Leon.

She didn't know when Leon would be back, so she simply read her book quietly. She had an exam in three days.

Leon had been busy for several days.

Alyssa could see the news about Hunter Group at any time.

All the news was about Leon.

Alyssa was angry when she saw the news.

But there was nothing she could do.

Leon must be able to solve this matter.

Three days later, she got up early for her exam but was surprised to see Leon as soon as she got up.

Seeing Alyssa frozen in place, Leon said, "If you keep standing there, you're going to be late."

Alyssa smiled and got into the car with Leon.

"When did you get back?"

"Just now. I spent the night with the auditor last night."

"Huh?"

"Some executives said I have taken bribes. They got the auditor to check my accounts and asked me to cooperate. I've been under investigation for two days."

"And have they finished their investigation?" Alyssa didn't know about it. She looked at Leon, "I didn't know about it."

"What can you do if you know?"

"There's nothing I can do."

Alyssa lowered her head apologetically, feeling that she was useless.
