

Chapter 61 Admit

"So fast?"

After thinking about it, Alyssa suddenly felt that something was wrong.

It seemed that three days had passed. It was actually quite normal for him to take three days to solve this matter.

"Okay then, I'll call you after the exam."

Then she ran to Ella directly and walked into the building with her.

Leon watched Alyssa's back as she left, parked the car in a quiet place, took out his iPad, and started working.

Alyssa met Ella and talked to Ella about the exam.

Ella saw that Alyssa was nervous and said with a smile, "Are you all ready? Last time, I was told by my sister that this exam was actually quite easy. Don't worry, there will be no problem. Mr. Hunter sent you here today, right? I know that's Mr. Hunter's car. There aren't many cars like that in the entire A City."

Alyssa was a little embarrassed, "He gave me a ride here. I got up too early and he probably thought I was too slow. About the exam, do you think I can really do it?"

"Of course, you've gotten the fifteenth place in the speaking competition before. You'll be fine. You have to believe in yourself."

After hearing Ella's words, Alyssa really felt more confident and not as nervous as before.

Soon the test started.

Alyssa and Ella took the test separately.

Three hours later.

Alyssa and Ella came out together.

"Well?" Ella looked at Alyssa with a normal face.

"I think it's okay."

"Huh? Alyssa, that's Mr. Hunter's car, isn't it? I remember that you got here in that car this morning. It's still over there."

Ella saw Leon's car right away. She looked at Alyssa and smiled, leaning into her ear and whispering.

Alyssa's cheeks turned red at Ella's words. She glanced into the distance and sure enough, she saw Leon's car.

"Maybe he happened to arrive on time. Then I'll go first." Alyssa knew that Leon was going to take her to the old house. However, she was still a little shy in front of her friends, so naturally, she was embarrassed to admit this.

"He must have come to pick you up. Alyssa, Leon is quite nice to you."

"Yes." Alyssa thought of his thoughtful service this morning, and her heart warmed up, "Then I'll go first."

"Okay, I'm going back too. Tomorrow is Sunday, you should rest at home. Your face doesn't look good."

Alyssa nodded, turned, and ran in the direction of Leon's car.

Leon had seen Alyssa long ago, even though he was in the car.

He had been checking the reversing mirror every few seconds since some people came out of the building half an hour ago, so he noticed Alyssa's return the first time.

After Alyssa got into the car, he quickly started the car and drove in the direction of the Hunters' old house.

Half an hour later.

Leon took Alyssa to the Hunters' old house.

Kevin sat on the side, looking at Emily with a serious face.

Audrey looked at Emily with a look of obvious displeasure on her elegant face.

The two men standing in the hall, one tall and one short, finished their sentence, their heads bowed and their bodies trembling.

"Emily, what else do you want to say?" Leon looked at Emily and his face was calm.

"Leon, I don't know these two men. I don't know why they recognized me, but it had nothing to do with me."

Emily was scared, but she knew she couldn't admit it.

Even if they recognized her, she couldn't admit that she had asked them to hurt Alyssa.

Once she admitted it, she would have no room to backtrack.

"Miss Cole, you were the one who sent us there in the first place. How can you deny it now! I still have the transfer records. You're the one who paid us to do this. Otherwise, why would we go after Miss Graham when we have nothing to do with her?"

"I have never done such a thing. You should have the wrong person. Someone wanted to frame me, so they took my name and instructed you to do this."

"What are you talking about? Even if we have never met, we are not stupid and can still recognize your voice. You want to wash your hands of it now that you are in trouble? No way! You are the one who asked us to find Mrs. Hunter's trouble!" The short man pointed at Emily.

Emily's face turned black when she heard the short man's words.

Now there was no use for her to say anything, and it would even lead to unnecessary trouble. She simply didn't say anything.

"Emily, did you really do this?" Audrey looked at Emily, pretending to be upset, but in her mind, she was thinking of how to get rid of Alyssa. She used to think that Alyssa was a troublemaker, and now she was even more dissatisfied with Alyssa.

If Alyssa remained at the Hunters, she might still get into trouble.

Emily had always been quite clever, but this time she was too careless.

Now, she could only punish her a little.

She knew Kevin's temper. He was very strict when he was young, but now he was old, and he didn't care about the trivialities of the company anymore. He wasn't as harsh as he used to be.

Her position as the head of the family could not be shaken. Without waiting for Emily to retort, she immediately said, "It's Emily's fault. What the hell is wrong with you? Hurry up and apologize to Leon and Miss Graham!"

When Emily heard her aunt's words, she knew that she didn't want to help her. Since they had already recognized her, there was no need for her to deny it.

Anyway, now that the evidence was clear, it was useless for her to deny it. She might as well admit it, at least she could still be easily forgiven. So she nodded grievously, "Yes, I told you to teach Alyssa a lesson and tell her not to be so arrogant. But I didn't tell you to do that to Alyssa. You guys did something shameless like that, and still want to frame me?"

"What do you mean by that? It's you who asked us to do that. How can you deny it now?"

"What proof do you have that I let you guys do that to Miss Graham? Don't frame me."

"Before, you meant for us to do that."

"Don't talk nonsense if you don't have proof ..."

"That's enough!" Audrey was upset on the surface, but knew that Emily had come to her senses now. Just as they mentioned this, she looked at Alyssa, "Miss Graham, my niece is ignorant. Don't take it personally. My niece also said she didn't ask anyone to offend you. So, were you really offended?"

"Of course not." Alyssa looked at Audrey and said calmly, "Well, Mrs. Hunter thought that I should be offended?"

"That's odd. These two men are still no match for you?" Audrey laughed, "That's so weird. I saw some videos earlier. I also heard that Leon paid a lot of money to withdraw the news. Leon, Miss Graham should not be clean, right?"
