

Chapter 63 Consider Work

Leon went to his study and failed to do any work. His mind was filled with images of Alyssa.

When Alyssa brought him tea, he looked up at the sound of her footsteps.

She put down the tea and looked at Leon, feeling that Leon seemed to be lost in thought.

Leon actually got lost in thought.

She was suddenly worried that he had something on his mind. So she sat down next to him and looked into his eyes, "What's wrong with you? You look like you have something on your mind. Is it because of what happened today?"

"Honestly, are you upset?"

"How could I be! Grandpa gave me so many gifts. If he didn't like me, how could he give me so many gifts? Besides, I have to thank the injury! If those glass pieces hadn't stuck in through my clothes, you probably would have suspected that I was violated by them too! I was hurt, but it was also a blessing for me. And I'm grateful to you because you arrived in time after I called you."

Something she had experienced in her last life had taught her a lot.

Because she insisted on liking Ryan in her last life and never listened to other people's opinions, it caused a tragedy.

She thought she should try to listen to others more often.

Alyssa delivered the tea and finished what she wanted to say, so she turned to leave, but Leon stopped her.

"I don't have much work today, so I can rest early."

"Then let's get some rest! I'm really tired these days! Let's go."

Alyssa dragged Leon to rest.

Leon pretended to be pestered by her and followed her to the bedroom.

The lights in the bedroom quickly went out.

In the blink of an eye, it was the end of the semester.

Alyssa took her last exam and waited in the study room.

A quarter of an hour later.

She saw Ella running from the exam room.

Ella looked at Alyssa and smiled, "Alyssa, did you read the notes I gave you? The notes I gave you are all very useful. If you read them, you'll have no problem on this exam."

"I've read them all, so I feel like it shouldn't be a problem."

Alyssa also felt that because of Ella's notes, she wouldn't get a bad grade.

"What are we going to eat?" Ella saw that Alyssa was in a good mood, so she knew that Alyssa should do well on the exam as well.

She also thought the final exam was easy.

"How about hot pot?"

"Good."

Half an hour later.

They arrived at the hotpot restaurant.

"Delicious! Come on, try this meat." After the exam, Ella was in a good mood and took a bite of the meat, "Hurry up."

"Um." Alyssa's mouth was full of meat. She was relaxed with Ella. Moreover, they would start their holiday tomorrow, and she felt even more relieved from the burden.

She hadn't eaten hot pot in a long time and gobbled up the meat regardless of her image.

Ella heard Alyssa's muffled voice and looked up at her, smiling.

Alyssa also smiled, "Why are you looking at me and smiling? No laughing. Just eat."

The two girls looked at each other, laughing and eating, both in a very good mood.

When they had almost finished eating, Ella asked, "What are your plans for the holiday?"

"I'm going to study for the postgraduate exam. I've already bought the books, but I haven't received them yet. The books for the postgraduate exam are really too expensive!"

"You're also going to take the finance department?"

"Yes! I didn't think about changing my major, mainly because I think the finance department is quite interesting."

"That's okay! It doesn't stop you from taking an internship. I think it's better to have more experience." Ella looked at Alyssa and smiled, "You're not considering an internship?"

Alyssa hadn't really thought about it, mainly because she'd been so busy lately.

She had two more exams to take over the holidays, so she shouldn't have time for an internship.

"I'm going to intern at Lloyd Group. I've talked to my dad about it before. My dad also wants me to work at Lloyd Group and gain some experience."

"That's great!"

"I think it's boring to stay home. This year, we have a longer holiday, so I might as well help my dad at the company."

Alyssa nodded, "What you said seems to make sense. Although I have a lot of things to do, it's really boring to be at home every day. Should I try to go to my dad's company too?"

"Yes!" Ella was very supportive of Alyssa's decision.

It was good to practice more.

It was also right to gain experience.

Alyssa returned home and talked to her grandfather, but he did not approve of Alyssa's work. His reason was that Alyssa's task now was to have a baby with Leon as soon as possible.

She pursed her lips. She wanted to pursue her education! Besides, she wanted to have a baby soon, but they had been trying for a while and it hadn't worked.

She couldn't be blamed for that.

She and Leon had worked hard.

Alyssa was still a little embarrassed by the thought of having a baby. She wanted to ask Leon if she could intern at Hunter Group, but she didn't feel right about it.

It was fine for her to work at Hunter Group.

But it would be bad if Audrey said she was up to something. Leon was very busy during this time, often talking on the phone for a long time. In fact, she was a little confused as to why the Hunters didn't get to Audrey.

Maybe because Audrey still had some power in the Hunter Group.

Otherwise, last time he would have let Audrey get down on her knees and apologize, but ...

So even if she wanted to go to work, she couldn't go to work at Hunter Group.

She called Ella, and Ella gave Alyssa an idea.

"Alyssa, do you want to work for my cousin's company? My cousin's company seems to be quite short of people recently, but his company's work is quite tiring and the pay for interns seems to be low. Do you want to give it a try?"

"What does your cousin's company do?"

"It's an asset management company, owned by my cousin and his friend together."

"An asset management company?" Alyssa knew about asset management companies. She quickly thought of Mr. Wood. It was the asset management company that had helped Harvey's Technology settle its liabilities and convert its debt to equity.

"My cousin's name is Hassan, and his asset management company works with banks, so there are no worries about business. You can actually give it a try."

"Mr. Wood?" said Alyssa immediately, "I'll give it a try."

Hassan had given her a good impression.

Last time, he also tried to keep her working at his asset management company.

If she went to Hassan's asset management company now, Mr. Wood would welcome her.

And the asset management company would have more cases, which was good for gaining experience.

After discussing with Ella, Alyssa called Hassan immediately.

At this time, Hassan was busy arranging work, worrying about the lack of people to handle the company's work.

When an unfamiliar phone call came in, he answered the phone casually.

"Is this Mr. Wood? This is Alyssa. Do you still have a job opening at your company? I'd like to work for your company." Alyssa directly said her thoughts.
