

Chapter 70 Ask Her

Alyssa kept thinking about how she could find out the directors of Summit Group related to Susan while eating. Even a little information would be good, and at least it would give her a reference.

But ... she got nothing.

She finished her meal and took her pills for pregnancy preparation.

She never forgot about having a baby. No matter how important other things were, being with Leon was the most important thing in her life.

10:30 PM.

Alyssa still had no clue.

Trent and Melany had finished their work and were about to leave together.

"Alyssa, you still have a lot of work?" Melany looked at Alyssa holding her chin in a daze. Melany was a little nicer to her because she had eaten her take-out.

"Yes." Alyssa smiled at Melany. She didn't say she hadn't made any progress at all with her work. In fact, she could solve the problem simply by checking the accounts or the phone, but she didn't have that right.

"So can we help you with something?" Trent yawned and looked like he might fall asleep at any moment. But because of the warmth of her take-out, he was willing to stay and help Alyssa.

Alyssa smiled and said, "No, I'll see if there's a better way."

She sighed. In fact, she had already thought of many ways to solve the problem. She didn't think she could solve the problem even if she worked all night.

Alyssa was lost in her thoughts when her phone suddenly rang. Seeing that it was Leon calling, she hurriedly answered the phone.

"I'm all done. When are you coming back?" Leon was very dissatisfied. It was dark outside the window, and it was almost eleven o'clock.

"Then I'll go back now."

"I'll wait for you to come back."

Alyssa didn't want Leon to wait for her.

She hurriedly gathered her things and closed the computer.

The computer had just been shut down by her when Hassan walked out.

"You already found out the shareholders connected to Susan?"

"No."

"You're leaving now?"

"Yes! It's eleven o'clock. My family just called me and asked me to go back."

"Then how are you going to give me your work tomorrow?"

Alyssa thought for a moment, "I'll go to Susan and ask her tomorrow!"

She had photos of Susan and Eden. Vincent would be angry when he saw the photos. Susan definitely wouldn't want to lose Mrs. Baker's position even if she didn't love Vincent.

Anyway, she couldn't invade her privacy, so she simply didn't do it.

Hassan frowned, "I'll expect your news at the office tomorrow."

"OK!"

Hassan was suddenly a little worried that she wouldn't be able to deliver useful information tomorrow, and then she would leave like the other interns.

This intern was not like other interns.

If she did leave, he would be reluctant to let her go.

However, the person he was interested in should not be that useless. If she couldn't even find out such things, then there was no need for her to stay here.

Citic was not a place to keep idle people.

He turned around and went back to his office and continued to work.

Twelve-thirty at midnight.

Alyssa looked at Leon's cold face and smiled at him.

"I'm back."

"What time is it?"

Alyssa seriously looked at the time and lowered her head, "Twelve thirty."

Leon glanced at the time and then at Alyssa's tired face, he couldn't bear to scold her, "Have a rest."

"Hmm." Alyssa heard Leon's words and smilingly approached him, "Together."

Leon didn't say anything. Feeling Alyssa's hot breath on his face, he suddenly froze.

He was pulled by Alyssa's delicate white hands in the direction of the bedroom.

A few minutes later, they were wrapped in a quilt. The bedroom lights were turned off and the big bed shifted slightly.

The next morning, Alyssa woke up early.

She had set her alarm clock.

She planned to go to Susan.

Earlier, she had learned from the doorman that Susan had a puppy. Every morning after five o'clock, she would take the puppy out for a walk.

If she went to block Susan now, she could definitely ask something useful.

She was about to go when a pair of strong hands suddenly grabbed her hand. She couldn't move instantly.

"It's not even dawn yet, where are you going?"

"I have to go out for something."

"For what?" Leon looked at Alyssa, "You're not trying to run away, are you?"

"No." Alyssa frowned. They were fine last night, weren't they?

It had been so long, and even if what she said wasn't clear, wasn't what she did clear enough?

She looked at Leon's suspicious gaze. At that moment, the white jade amulet that he had been wearing waved out. Then she calmed down instantly.

He was worried about her leaving, but he didn't do anything to her. He just liked her too much.

Thinking about his feelings for her, she suddenly calmed down.

She looked at Leon, who was indifferent, and said softly, "Leon, I don't want to leave here. Really, I promise you I have no desire to leave here."

Leon relaxed.

Then she said softly, "I told you long ago that my most important stuff is here with you. I can't go anywhere. We haven't spent enough time together for you to believe me, but later I'll prove to you that I really don't want to leave."

"Then you can go!"

"Okay."

Alyssa turned to leave. As she walked to the door, she turned her head to look at Leon, "If it goes well, I'll be back later to take you to work."

Leon watched Alyssa's back as she left and picked up the phone to call someone to follow her.

Although he didn't know what she was going to do, he still had to get someone to follow her and make sure she was safe.

After half an hour, Alyssa successfully found Susan walking her dog.

She found an opportunity to quickly press Susan against the wall. Susan was scared and tried to scream, but Alyssa immediately covered Susan's mouth, and Susan couldn't make a sound.

After a few seconds, Alyssa brought the photos she took yesterday to Susan. When she saw the photos, her eyes widened, and when she looked at Alyssa, she started to lose her composure.

"Now, you have to answer whatever I ask. If you don't tell the truth, I will immediately release these photos. You and Eden both have families. If you really didn't care about family, you wouldn't have done it so secretly. If you don't tell me the truth, I'll destroy you immediately. I guarantee that you will be the unlucky one."

Susan immediately nodded.

"When did you and Eden get together?"

"Uh-huh ..."

Alyssa noticed that Susan wanted to talk and immediately let go of her hand.

Susan, though disgruntled, was honest, "Three years ago."

Alyssa nodded. According to the information she had found out before, Susan was telling the truth.
