

Chapter 91 Inform Leon

After Alyssa finished her call with Hassan, she felt more and more that this case was not that simple.

Chloe's father worked at Hunter Group. Coincidentally, Hunter Group's design was leaked. There might be a mole in Hunter Group too.

If there was a mole in the Hunter Group, did Leon know about it?

Alyssa was suddenly a little worried that Leon did not know about it, which meant he would encounter more trouble afterward. She didn't hesitate and hurried back home.

When she got home and saw Leon in his study, Alyssa knocked on the door and said directly at the door, "I'm home. I have something very important to tell you. Can I come in?"

Leon had been waiting for Alyssa for a long time today. He called her and learned that she didn't have time to go along with him to pay a New Year visit. In fact, yesterday he was just being polite. He still wanted to see those people with Alyssa. That way, he could spend more time with Alyssa.

But Alyssa said she was busy, so she didn't even have time to take him off work.

Now it was almost ten o'clock at night and she was just back. Although he still felt some anger in his heart, it had disappeared.

The fact that she saw him as soon as she returned at least proved that Alyssa had him in mind.

Alyssa couldn't hear the voices inside and knew that Leon was probably angry that she hadn't joined him for the New Year's visit today. She was suddenly a little sorry.

She wanted to comfort Leon. She thought that if she said something honest, Leon would not be so angry. Then she said to the door, "Leon, I know it's bad that I didn't join you today. But I'm really kind of busy today. I'm sorry, don't be angry!"

Leon actually stopped being angry a long time ago.

He really wanted to see Alyssa. He hadn't seen her all day and missed her a bit.

So, he hurriedly said, "Come in."

When she heard Leon's voice, Alyssa knew he wasn't angry anymore. She hurried in and sat across from him, "I encountered something today. Do you know Derick?"

Leon froze.

Alyssa told Leon everything she had seen at the Jones Group today.

After hearing Alyssa's words, Leon nodded, "I know Derick's daughter is a designer, but I don't expect her to work in the design department of Jones Group. The design that was leaked earlier was her daughter's work. This is a coincidence."

"It's not a coincidence. I suspect that there is a mole in Hunter Group, and Derick is very suspicious. Leon, you ... should be more careful."

"You're worried about me?"

"Yeah!" Alyssa looked at Leon, "You're my husband. Of course, I care about you!"

Leon was happy to hear Alyssa's words. At the same time, he was a little smug, "I've noticed Derick a long time ago. I have been discussing this with grandpa. After the New Year, Hunter Group will make a big move."

"So you have already noticed. Then I'm relieved."

Leon said, "You may be in danger when you enter the Jones Group. You should be careful."

"It's okay. I'll handle it carefully. I still think the design department is the problem and Chloe is definitely suspicious. If I'm right, I should be able to finish this soon. Mr. Jones doesn't like me. He probably thinks I'm young and not capable. That's good. I'll be able to take everyone's guard off."

Alyssa braced her head. Although she was tired, after seeing Leon, she wasn't tired at all. She was also willing to share what happened today at Jones Group with Leon, "I can leave Jones Group after Mr. Wood finds out what happened. I feel that Chloe is quite mysterious. It is all on Chloe too."

"Let's go get some rest." Leon moved forward but noticed that Alyssa hadn't moved. He turned his head only to see her frowning. He was worried again, "What's wrong?"

"My back hurts and I can't stand up."

Leon immediately ran to her and helped her up. His face was grim, but his movements were careful.

Alyssa felt that Leon was angry because of her back pain, "I'm just kidding with you. In fact, my back doesn't hurt at all. I was just worried that you were angry. Watching you hold me up, I know you're not angry."

Hearing Alyssa's words, Leon really wanted to let go of his hand immediately. But looking at Alyssa's face, he couldn't let go.

He could only use some strength when he held her. But when he touched her waist, he couldn't help but be a little gentle. He was worried that if he used more force, he would break her waist.

Alyssa sensed Leon's caution and moved closer to him.

She sensed that Leon didn't dare to come close to her, so she simply took the initiative to move closer.

Leon was forced to touch Alyssa's waist. Seeing Alyssa wink at him, he understood what Alyssa meant.

"Turn off the lights." She prompted him.

Leon had long understood Alyssa's intentions and obediently turned off the lights. They soon wrapped themselves together.

"Oops! Be gentle. It hurts."

Alyssa complained.

"Where does it hurt?"

"My waist."

"Didn't you just say it didn't hurt?"

Alyssa realized that she had blurted out. Staring at Leon through the dark air, she didn't know what to say for a moment.

Suddenly, she felt Leon's hand gently touching her waist. He didn't have the same force as before, but just gently kneaded her waist.

She felt comfortable and soon relaxed. Suddenly, she felt her body lighten a little. She turned her head and was taken into Leon's arms.

At this moment, they were nose to nose and could feel each other's breath completely.

Alyssa raised her head slightly and touched Leon's lips.

Leon moved over and kissed Alyssa without hesitation.

Alyssa couldn't stand Leon's passion and quickly responded to him.

This time, they did not rest until late in the night.

Early the next morning, Alyssa received a call from Hassan.

She sat up at the sound of the phone. But as Leon's hand circled her waist, she startled, naturally waking Leon beside her.

"What's wrong?" Hassan frowned.

"Nothing, I accidentally twisted my back. Go ahead, Mr. Wood."

"I found out Chloe's information. The information about Hunter Group was leaked by Chloe, and her father Derick was behind it, but this should have nothing to do with the mole we're looking for. I don't want to make more trouble. Since this matter has already passed, you should leave it alone."

"So you're saying that Chloe isn't a mole in the Jones Group?"

"Yes, she's just a designer. She doesn't have that kind of ability yet. Someone with that kind of ability should be at least mid-level. Alyssa, I went in the wrong direction. You should investigate Alice, the head of the design department, instead of Chloe, who was forced to leave."
