

HOW TO THRIVE IN THE '60S

Chapter 12 Red Sleeves

Yun Chang slapped Yun Erchuan on the shoulder with one hand, and pointed at the street corner where Gu Shinian disappeared, and his small body fluttered out:

"Go there! Go there... quick... follow..."

Noticing that Yun Erchuan didn't move for a long time, Yun Chang struggled even more with his legs, so strong that Yun Erchuan almost couldn't hold her.

"Shangnan, you, what's the matter, don't scare the second uncle..."

Yun Erchuan was startled by the tears on Yun Chang's face. Before she could react, her whole body almost threw out. If it wasn't for Yun Erchuan's strength, Yun Chang would have to fall out of his arms.

"Go! Go! Go there, chase..."

Yun Chang was still desperately struggling and urging her tears to fall down in series. At this time, she couldn't care about anything, and there was only one thought in her mind, that is to catch up with Gu Shinian.

It was the first time that Yun Erchuan saw a child crying so hard. He was thinking about whether to listen to Yun Chang and chase after him, but Yu Guang caught a glimpse of a man with red sleeves walking towards him on the street. Not daring to delay any longer, I hugged Yunshang tightly and chased after him.

It was just that Yun Erchuan was holding the child in front of him and carrying a big bamboo basket in the back. How could they outrun the group of half-sized boys like calves, they turned the corner, and there was no one in front of them.

Yun Chang was more than disappointed at this time, she was almost lost.

Before Yun Erchuan could speak, the man with the red sleeves had already chased over, grabbed Yun Erchuan, opened his mouth and scolded:

"What are you doing! What are you sneaking around for? What's going on?" Hong Sleeve pointed at Yun Chang's face and asked.

At this moment, Yun Chang's face was still covered with tears. From the perspective of the red sleeve, he looked like a lost and cowardly quail, pitiful. Thinking of how she had cried horribly on the road before, she even believed that Yun Erchuan was a kidnapper who stole children, and she held his hand even harder.

Yun Erchuan's nervous forehead was sweating coldly. He knew too well how intractable these red sleeves patrolling the streets were, otherwise he wouldn't have just subconsciously run away.

The red sleeve in front of him is not very old, but he has a lot of power. He has been caught at this moment, and a cross-examination is indispensable. If one fails, he will have to be detained, and then the village chief will come to the county to arrest him. redeemed.

At this time, Yun Chang also regained his senses, looking at the fierce look of the red sleeve, and then looking at Yun Erchuan, his face turned white with fright, he immediately froze in his heart, pouted and cried.

Without chasing Gu Shinian, Yun Chang was disappointed and sad in her heart, and she didn't need to act. The tears fell down like she didn't want money, and soon a cloud of water stains appeared on the bluestone road.

"Speak! Is this your daughter! Are you in a panic and want to sabotage..."

Before the man could finish speaking, Yun Chang cried and rushed over and punched him.

"You are not allowed to hit my second uncle!"

Small looks fierce.

Yun Erchuan quickly grabbed Yun Chang's hand back, and smiled at the red sleeves, "Comrade, I am from Xinglin Village, this is my niece."

Hong Sleeve probably didn't expect that Yun Chang not only was not afraid of him, but also punched him in turn, opened his mouth, looked at Yun Erchuan, who was submissive, and looked at Yun Chang, who was fierce and fierce, and suddenly laughed out loud.

These uncles and nephews are really interesting. The five big and three thick men are more cowardly than the little girl in his arms, so they are suspicious.

"Little girl is quite brave, is this your second uncle?"

Yun Chang pursed his lips and nodded.

"Little girl, do you know why your second uncle ran away when he saw me? What did you guys do in the county today?"

Hong Sleeve bent down, looked at Yun Chang with a smile, his eyes were shining, and his left hand grabbed Yun Erchuan's shoulder, as if Yun Chang's answer made him dissatisfied, he would take Yun Erchuan on the spot.

Yun Chang was shocked and scared in her heart, and she couldn't help regretting that she was too reckless and put herself and Yun Erchuan in a dangerous situation.

It's just that his face didn't show it at all at this time.

"Come to the county... to see grandpa. The second uncle didn't run away, the second uncle chased after the elder brother, the wowotou... gave the elder brother food, the elder brother didn't want it, and ran away."

The words are intermittent, but the meaning is clearly expressed: please don't be sentimental, we didn't see you at all, we were just rushing to chase people!

The expression on Hong Sleeve's face froze for a moment, and the hand holding Yun Erchuan slowly loosened.

At this time, Yun Erchuan was still stunned, but he knew that he would follow Yun Chang's words and say:

"Comrade, I brought my niece to visit relatives in the county. I met a few half-year-old children just now. This girl presumably recognized the wrong person, so she made a fuss to come and see."

The red sleeves cross-examined the two of them carefully again, but he couldn't ask any questions, so he turned around and left with an unwilling face.

Yun Erchuan let out a long sigh, and touched Yun Chang's head with a look of fear, "Shang Nan, next time I don't dare to cry outside, let the red sleeves catch it, and the old village chief has to go to the county to redeem the people. It's scary to be able to go back."

Yun Chang nodded randomly, pointed to the empty street in front of him, and motioned Yun Erchuan to continue walking.

She knew in her heart that she had little hope of finding Gu Shinian today, but Yun Chang would not be reconciled if she didn't turn around the street.

Yun Erchuan also had a headache at this time. He found that the child was too ambitious and too clever.

Facing the red sleeves just now, she was not stage fright at all, she just opened her mouth to talk nonsense, a child who was only 5 years old, bluffed two adults around, what if it was bigger?

Yun Erchuan felt that she couldn't let Yun Chang be like this anymore. She had to let her know what she could do and what she couldn't do. She had to be fearful in her heart, so that she would not act recklessly in the future (a second uncle had already forgotten that he had seen the red sleeves.

Reckless act of running away!)

At the same time, he was also very strange. Today was the first time Yun Chang left the village, so when did she meet the children in the county?

"Shangnan, tell the second uncle, why are you chasing those older children, and when did you know those people?"

Yun Chang shook her head and was silent for a while before answering:

"I only know one brother, who gave me meat buns before." He also raised me for 6 years.

Yun Erchuan realized instantly, thinking that the child should have met Yun Chang when he was visiting relatives in Xinglin Village.

"Second uncle, let's go and see, there are bad boys chasing that brother."

Yun Chang could see clearly that the group of people just now were not friends of Gu Shinian, they were chasing after Gu Shinian at the time.

Each one of them is fierce and vicious. It is definitely not a good thing, but I don't know if Gu Shinian has run away. If he doesn't run away, with so many people on the other side, will Gu Shinian suffer?

Yun Erchuan carried Yunshang from the street to the end of the street, and glanced at all the small alleys, but still did not find any trace of Gu Shinian.

Yun Chang was almost desperate in her heart, but when she turned around, she saw Gu Shinian's figure turning out of the street again.
