Chapter 321 [V177] Mighty Little Gu Gu

It takes ten days and a half months to travel from Xicheng to the Imperial Capital. In most cases, they can find an inn before dark, but there are times when they can't enter the city in time, so they have to set up a tent on the spot.

Yu Wan woke up before dawn, and she wanted to make medicine for Yan Jiuchao.

The more you enter Nanzhao, the more humid and hot the climate is, which is not a good thing for Yan Jiuchao's condition.

"Madam, I'll come." Zi Su heard Yu Wan's movement, and hurriedly opened her eyes, lifted the quilt and sat up on the floor.

Fuling also woke up, rubbed her eyes and folded the quilt.

Yu Wan instructed: "No need, you go to the streets. I heard grandma say yesterday that we are going to take a day's mountain road, and we can't meet the inn, so you all prepare dry food."

"Yes." Shisu responded.

Nanzhao is hot, dry food is bought on the same day and eaten on the same day.

Perilla and Poria quickly tidied up the house, washed up, and went downstairs to buy dry food.

Don't look at the hurry, but in the basic necessities of life, the princess never let the prince suffer any grievances. She said that it was dry food, but it was not just as simple as steamed buns and buns. Vegetables, fruits, meat and vegetables, and green vegetables were all bought.

Ever since the prince and his wife didn't want to see that Gu Master, their meals were separated from the Gu Master.

"How much is this?" Shi Su rarely saw a scout selling hawthorn cakes. If she remembered correctly, the prince seemed to like it.

The hawker said: "The last piece, I'll sell it to you cheaply, five coppers!"

Five copper plates are not cheap, but for the sake of the last piece, I still want basil.

"Let's go buy some more crab cakes." Shisu said to Fuling.

Princess Shizi doesn't like sour, nor does she eat too sweet and greasy things, but the salty crab cake can make her eat two bites.

Fuling has no problem, she buys things from perilla, she is only responsible for carrying.

Zisu bought food according to Yan Jiuchao and Yu Wan's taste, and then the rest of the people bought some. After spending so much time together, who's appetite and taste of basil have long been familiar.

The prince let her not have to save money, what to buy and what to buy, even she and Fuling have never been searched.

Zisu is very fortunate to have met such a good master.

I am also glad that I did not listen to the owner of the museum when I left the Silk Music Museum.

She is the daughter of an aristocratic family, and she ended up being a slave because of a crime in the family, but her speech, demeanor, appearance and bearing are by no means comparable to ordinary servants. When she learned that she was going to be sold into the Young Master's Mansion, the owner of the museum said to her: "Yingying, do you know who you are going to serve? It is the master of Yancheng, you will not worry about the prosperity and wealth in the rest of your life, not only that, it is not difficult for your family to make a comeback."

She never mentioned this to anyone.

Whether the owner of the is kind or for her own benefit is unknown.

But it is undeniable that she was moved for a moment. She used to be the daughter of brocade clothes and jade food, but she became a lowly servant. Who wouldn't want to go back to the old days? Who wouldn't want to be reunited with their family?

But she didn't.

I can't tell whether she dares or doesn't want to, but in short, she killed that thought.

Fortunately, it was snuffed out.

Her two masters, if they say good, they are really good, they are good to their servants, and their feelings for each other are better; if they say bad, they can be really bad to the point of fear.

Zi Su has never forgotten how Su Yao made her concubine fall down step by step.

"Candied haws." Poria said, taking a breath.

Zisu glanced at her: "I see, I'll buy it for you."

Shisu bought ten strings of candied haws and gave them all to Poria.

Poria took a big mouthful to eat.

The two went back to the inn, and when they were passing by a rice grain store, a man with sharp eyes suddenly rushed out, bumped into Zisu, and walked away with Zisu's purse.

"Silver!" Perilla's face paled.

Fuling carried seven or eight large bundles in one hand and ten strings of candied haws in the other, hurriedly chasing after him, and kicked the little thief to the ground with one foot.

The thief had never suffered such a heavy foot before, and immediately rolled his eyes and fainted.

Shisu breathed a sigh of relief, stepped forward and retrieved his purse.

Just at this moment, another man came out of the rice grain shop, came to the little thief, looked at Shi Su who had just got the purse, a look of surprise flashed in his eyes, and politely said: "So it was the girl who caught the little thief. Thief, thank you girl."

Shisu bowed politely.

The man crouched down and searched out the purse stolen by the thief: "He also stole mine."

This is not to do with Shisu. It doesn't matter if he stole it or not, Shisu just wants to leave as soon as possible.

Zisu took Fuling's hand and walked back.

The man smiled and said, "I haven't had a good time to thank the girl, so dare to ask the girl's name."

Zisu frowned, ignored him, and quickly left with Fuling.

I thought this matter was over, but before they left, Gu Master suddenly found Yu Wan.

Yu Wan still dressed as a young master and declared her surname to the Gu Master.

In the eyes of Gu Masters, whether Young Master Yan or Young Master Yu are nothing more than worthless rich children, they are not worth mentioning in front of a Gu Master with real strength.

Therefore, the Gu Master was very condescending to clarify his purpose.

"What did you say? You want to sell my maid?" Yu Wan looked at her lightly.

"That girl named Zisu." Gu Master admitted generously.

Yu Wan laughed angrily, this person came to her early in the morning, what did she think of it? But it turned out that he wanted to sell Zisu, and he looked at him for granted, and without knowing it, he thought Zisu was a servant of his family.

"I don't sell."

"One hundred taels."

Yu Wan smiled lightly: "Do you think I look like someone who lacks money?"

Gu Master said sternly: "It's not a matter of money, do you know who is going to buy her?"

"You monarch of Nanzhao?" Yu Wan joked.

Gu Master's face froze: "Do you think that you are the emperor's concubine, will the monarch look at your maid? That is also a Gu Master, his strength is even higher than mine, this time he entered the imperial capital because his master was fortunate. Being invited to be the guest of honor at the Queen's Mansion, it is your blessing that he sees your maid, you don't know what's good or bad."

The Queen's Mansion? Are you talking about the little Diji in the rumor?

Yu Wan's impression of her is not very good.

Now let alone the maid, even a piece of rag, she will not sell it to the other party.

The Gu Master had already made up his mind to use a maid to exchange the favor of the other party. Although he was also invited to the imperial capital, the family who invited him was hardly worth mentioning when compared with the dignified Nanzhao female monarch. The other party is happy, and maybe he will have the opportunity to worship the queen in the future, so that he can flourish.

Gu Master said: "You have to sell it! If you don't sell it, you have to sell it!"

"Oh? Really?" Yu Wan raised her eyebrows.

Gu Master said proudly: "Don't forget, you all fell into my Gu, if you don't hand over that girl, I will let you all die!"

Yu Wan let out a long sigh, "Oh, it seems that my husband's vision is right, you really hate it."

What is fair or unfair? Gu Master didn't understand, but he understood the last sentence, this kid is scolding him! He is a Gu Master! How dare this kid? !

Gu Master said angrily, "I don't think I can show you a little bit of power. You all forgot who you are!"

Yu Wan looked at him calmly.

He took out a copper bell from his arms and shook it gently.

This is the control bell, every time you hear its bell, the worm will be restless, and the person who is in the gu will be like ten thousand ants, and the pain will be unbearable.

Of course, he just wanted to teach the other party a small lesson, and he didn't intend to kill the other party, so his movements were very gentle.

But this was so, and it was enough to make the other party roll around in pain.

However, what surprised Gu Master was that Yu Wan didn't even lift her eyelids, let alone rolling around on the ground.

"how so?"

Gu Master stared blankly at Yu Wan, and then at the copper bell in his hand, this time he increased his strength.

But no matter how he shook it, Yu Wan just didn't respond.

Yu Wan yawned: "Have you shaken enough? If it's not enough, continue shaking, I'm going to get in the car to make up for sleep."

"Impossible...it's impossible..." Gu Master's eyes widened in disbelief, the copper bell was about to shake him, how could the Gu worm not do anything?

"You stop for me!"

Gu Master turned around and grabbed Yu Wan's shoulder unceremoniously.

Yu Wan instinctively turned around, and a big ear scraper slapped him on the ground.

I can't blame Yu Wan, who made him suddenly attack?

Gu Master let out a shrill scream from the aisle.

Jiang Hai, Qingyan, and Yuegou were shocked by the huge movement, and the Gu Master lost all face, and immediately roared: "Get him up for me!"

Who? Yu Wan? Are you out of your mind?

None of the three moved.

Gu Master then remembered that they belonged to a group. This kid was originally the Escort's family, so they joined forces to bully him, right? Well, let these guys all taste the power of Gu Masters!

Gu Master pinched a formula, grabbed the copper bell, and jumped the big rope on the spot.

All Gu worms, awaken me!

The three of them looked at him dumbfounded.

Jiang Hai whispered: "What happened to him? Did Young Master Yu slap him into a fool?"

Gu Master: You are a fool! Your whole family are idiots!

The Gu Master jumped and jumped, blushing and panting and rolling his eyes, Old Cuitou made him quarrel, he came over with a leg of lamb, and said impatiently, "Why are you making a fuss in the early morning? People are clean!"

Gu Master is going crazy!

It's enough that a few young people can hold his Gu worms, how can even a lousy old man with one foot in the coffin be okay?

"Cut~" Old Cui Tou rolled his eyes and went back to the house.

Jiang Hai and the others gave Gu Master a pitying look and went to pack up.

Gu Master has a coachman who is also his personal entourage. He stepped forward and said, "Gu Master, it's time to hit the road."

Gu Master gritted his teeth and said, "You make them wait, I have to go to a place first."

"Yes."

Gu Master is the employer, he told them to wait, they have to wait, this is something that can't be changed, so Gu Master is not worried that they will leave him and run away, after all, they have no way to lead, they can run Where?

Gu Master went to another inn and met a man, the man who fell in love with Zisu at first sight on the main road.

This person's name is Fei Luo, a Gu Master in Wucheng. He is well-known locally. Fei Luo's strength is much stronger than Jiang Hai's three employers, not to mention Fei Luo also has a master who has become a big Gu Master.

The difference in the word is very different in strength and status.

Only after becoming a Great Gu Master can you be qualified to be a distinguished guest of the royal family.

"Lord Fei Luo." The Gu Master bowed reverently.

Feiro narrowed his long and narrow phoenix eyes and said, "Where's the person?"

Gu Master said ashamedly, "They don't want to hand over people."

Feiro snorted coldly: "It's just a mere maid, is it reluctant to hand it over? You told them seriously? How much money is enough."

"They are not short of money." Gu Master said.

"Oh?" Fei Luo raised his eyebrows, "Didn't you tell them that I am the Gu Master of the Queen's Mansion?"

Gu Master wondered: "I said, and I also used methods against them, but...my Gu worms seem to be useless to them, I don't know what happened."

Feiro smiled coldly: "What else could it be? I met a Gu Master who is more powerful than you."

Gu Master shook his head: "Impossible, there are no Gu Masters among them." If there were, he wouldn't have become his * for just a few guides.

Feiro thought for a while and said, "That is, they have a Gu King in their hands, and your Gu worm is suppressed by the Gu King."

"this....."

"I just wanted a sweet maid, but I didn't expect to meet the Gu King." Fei Luo shook the translucent jade bottle in his hand, "My baby hasn't eaten for a long time, so I should find something delicious. give it."

Gu Master was stunned the moment he saw the jade bottle.

If he is not mistaken, the head here is a Golden Toad Gu!

The most powerful Gu he has ever seen in his life is the Golden Silkworm Gu, but no matter how powerful it is, it is nothing more than a Hundred Gu King. The Golden Toad Gu is different, it is infinitely close to the Thousand Gu King!

Lord Ferro actually holds such a powerful treasure in his hand, and he really did not flatter the wrong person.

Gu Master knelt down on one knee: "Lord Fei Luo needs me to do something, but please say it bluntly, I will do my best for the Lord and die!"

said that Yu Wan and her group were all ready to go, but the Gu Masters on the left and the right did not come, and they all turned black.

Just when Jiang Hai was about to go out to find him, the Gu Master appeared with a calm expression.

Gu Master glanced at Yu Wan's carriage indifferently, and said arrogantly, "Let's go when you're ready. We must arrive at Liucheng before sunset, or we'll have to sleep in the wilderness."

Snapped!

Yu Wan pulled down the curtain.

Right when he is farting.

Gu Master's mouth twitched fiercely.

Sir Feiro will take action soon, I see how long you can be arrogant!

"Prince Concubine..." Zisu looked at Yu Wan worriedly, she knew that she was in trouble, and she shouldn't have caught the thief. When she met a disciple who seemed to be very powerful, even their employers Fated him, and now the employer is angry because the lady refuses to hand her over...

Yu Wan glanced at the little girl and said, "It's not your fault, don't worry about it, and I won't hand you over unless you want to leave."

Zisu knelt down: "The slave girl doesn't want to leave! The slave girl wants to serve the imperial concubine for the rest of her life!"

"Well then?" Yu Wan glanced at the curtain, "Go ahead."

Shisu understood, put the food on the plate, got off the carriage, and got into the carriage of herself and Fuling.

The carriage went all the way to the south.

For the first half of the day, the Gu Master had been urging the driver to speed up so as not to be unable to enter the city, but in the afternoon, the Gu Master suddenly had a stomachache, the carriage stopped and went, and finally missed the time to enter the city.

Chapter 322 [V178] Hanging Gu Master (1)

The city gate of Nanzhao is generally closed earlier than that of the Great Zhou Dynasty. The sunset slopes westward. At this time, the city gate closes early.

"I drove all morning in vain! In the end, I had to sleep in the wilderness!" Old Cuitou complained.

He was getting old, and it was already difficult for him to get up and down. The Gu Master was still urging him all the way as if he was rushing to reincarnate. Old Cuitou's intestines would be broken. I had a stomachache in the afternoon.

He was the one who drove the car, and he was the one who couldn't walk. Old Cuitou was going to be mad at him!

Qing Yan and the others naturally didn't look good. When they got off the carriage and passed by Gu Master, they didn't even give him a straight look.

Gu Master seemed to be a grandmaster, but in reality he had a very small mind. He secretly wrote down the disrespect of this group of people, and he felt more and more that what happened next was their own fault.

Lord Ferro said that as long as you help him get what he wants, Lord Ferro will allow him to travel with them. Lord Ferro's guards are arranged by the Queen's Mansion, and they are definitely not comparable to this group of gangsters.

And along the way, he was able to develop a relationship with Lord Ferro, and when he entered the imperial capital in the future, he could be regarded as someone who had friendship with Lord Ferro.

Because they couldn't enter the city, and they couldn't go to the village or store, they had to find an open space near the official road to camp.

After traveling for many days, a few of them were considered experienced, and they took off the tent from the carriage and set it up on the spot.

It is worth mentioning that all Gu Master's servants died and were injured when they encountered the robbers. Only one driver was left to accompany him. Thinking about it, Zuo is about to enter the imperial capital, and it is not too late to choose carefully when he is there.

The driver's ability is limited, and the tent was set up by Moon Hook. Jiang Hai and Qingyan didn't care about him anymore.

At this point, I have to mention the care and consideration of Shisu. Although it is a one-day journey, when buying dry food, Shisu has prepared for two days, but the other is raw rice and dry goods. Bad.

Poria went to raise the fire.

Perilla took the pot, washed the rice with the spare water, clamped the pot on a small stove temporarily built with a few stones, took out the dried fish and dried meat, and baked it on another fire.

Jiang Hai hunted a fresh rabbit out of nowhere, and he didn't need anyone else to help him, so he cleaned up the rabbit by himself and handed it over to Shisu and Poria.

The two took out the snowflake salt and pickles from the Yu family, and the vegetable oil was added on the way.

"Are there any chopped green onions?" Shisu asked.

"Yes, I'll go get it!" Fuling walked with strong steps, and soon came over with a small potted plant, which was planted by Yu Wan.

The basil was sprinkled with salt, brushed with sauce, and the rabbit was roasted until it was shiny. She tore off two rabbit legs and sprinkled chopped green onion for Yu Wan and Yan Jiuchao.

Perhaps it was because of the medicine, Yan Jiuchao didn't eat meat and fishy food very much recently, he didn't want rabbit legs, Yu Wan only kept one, and asked Shisu to send the other one to grandma.

The aroma of roasted rabbit meat permeated into the Gu Master's tent. Gu Master was not very hungry, so he ate some steamed buns and lay down, but as soon as the aroma came, he felt hungry.

He called the driver: "What are they eating?"

The driver was too greedy, so he swallowed and said, "It seems that Guard Jiang hunted a rabbit, and they roasted the rabbit."

Gu Master's face immediately turned ugly: "Jiang Hai is my escort! What he hunts is naturally mine! Why did he get into those people's stomachs?!"

"Then... the little ones will go and ask them for it?" If you order more, the Gu Master can't finish it, and the rest is his own!

"...Forget it." Gu Master thought of tonight's plan and resisted the urge to eat meat.

"Oh." The driver lowered his head in disappointment, the rabbit meat was really fragrant, the dried fish and dried meat were also fragrant, and the rice was put with sweet potatoes, which was fragrant!

Gu Master also felt fragrant, but isn't it impossible? Ever since he revealed his intention to sell that maid, he has completely torn apart with that group of people.

Isn't actually a maid? I really don't understand what's wrong with that? For the sake of offending two Gu Masters by one servant, this group of people is probably not mentally retarded!

goo~

The rabbit meat was so fragrant that Gu Master's stomach growled.

"What else is there to eat?" Gu Master asked irritably.

The driver said: "There are jerky and snacks."

Jerky was bought from a shop, but for some reason, Gu Master felt that other people's jerky was more fragrant than his own.

The Gu Master waved his hand and asked the driver to remove the food. The driver just opened the tent curtain when he heard the Gu Master say, "Wait, come here."

"Yes, what is your order?" The driver respectfully returned to the Gu Master.

Gu Master took out a jar of wild mountain wine from his bag: "Go and give it to them."

"Huh?" The driver was taken aback, "Why did your lord suddenly give them wine?"

Or such a fine wine?

The coachman followed the Gu Master all the way, and naturally he would not fail to recognize that this was a gift that the Gu Master planned to present to the noble family after he entered the capital. This wine cannot be bought in the market. The reason why the Gu Master got it was also a coincidence.

Gu Master has his own plans in his heart, wine is good wine, but since getting to know Lord Fei Luo, Gu Master feels that there is a great avenue in front of him, and he will not hesitate to do anything that can serve Master Fei Luo. .

"If you want to send it, you can send it, where is so much nonsense?"

"Then... if they ask, how will the little one answer?"

"Just say... use wine and exchange them for a bit of rabbit meat."

After all, you are still craving rabbit meat!

The coachman went away with the wine while groaning.

"This is a good wine that my family asked me to send." The driver said.

Good wine?

The old man snorted disdainfully, how dare you call yourself a good wine after fifty years?

Old Cui Tou: I have been in the palace for more than ten years, and I have never seen such an unscented wine.

Qingyan, Moon hook: The wild mountain wine of the ghost clan is the real good wine.

Yan Jiuchao: You don't even look down on the wine given by the royal family, where did you get the bad wine?

The fine wine and wine that Gu Master reluctantly gave up, was simply a jar of garbage in the eyes of a group of bigwigs.

The driver didn't even dare to say anything about changing the rabbit meat, and went to his master in a dreadful way with the wine jar in his arms.

Gu Master was so angry that he didn't think about the night's plan, he rushed out to clean up the group now!

The coachman wondered secretly, this adult is not very good-tempered, how did the group of people become so popular without any episodes?

Gu Master took a deep breath, suppressed his anger, and said, "You stare at that maid named Zisu, and find an opportunity to bring her to my tent."

"This..." The coachman wanted to say that he couldn't do it. Zisu was always inseparable from that big and three thick Fuling, how could he abduct her?

However, perhaps the driver was lucky, and by accident, he met the lonely perilla.

Zisu was going to the woods for convenience. It was not easy for people to follow him. As soon as he got out of the woods, he was blocked by the driver.

Shisu was taken aback!

The coachman hurriedly smiled and said, "Miss Zisu, it's me!"

Zisu fixed his eyes: "Is that you?"

Shisu took a step to the side.

The driver knew that she wanted to leave as soon as he saw her movements, and he was reluctant to chat with him at all.

"Miss Zisu." The driver said, "Can you take a step to talk?"

"What are you doing?" Shisu looked at him warily.

The driver hurriedly said: "Miss Zisu, don't get me wrong, I have no ill intentions, it's just that my master wants to have a few words with you, it won't delay you for too long, not to mention, Big Brother Jiang and the others are all here, it's better if we don't see you in a while. I came out looking for you."

This is the truth. If Gu Master really did something to Zisu, with the abilities of Jiang Hai and the three of them, Zisu could be rescued in no time.

Shisu still hesitated.

The coachman pointed his finger and said, "I swear to God that I will never hurt Miss Shisu."

Shisu hesitated, and finally went with the coachman.

Inside the tent, Zi Su saw a proud Gu Master.

Gu Master is obsessed with Gu techniques and doesn't care much about women, so although Zisu looks good, he doesn't have any bad thoughts about Zisu, which is one of the reasons why Zisu dares to come to see him.

"You go outside and guard." Gu Master said.

"Yes." The coachman exited the tent.

Zisu greeted me indifferently: "I don't know why Gu Master is looking for me?"

Gu Master said arrogantly: "You must have heard about the morning thing, an lord has taken a fancy to you, that lord is also a Gu Master, and his strength and identity are higher than mine, so I just wanted to ask you about it. I mean, are you willing to follow him?"

"I don't want to." Shisu said without hesitation.

"You..." Gu Master choked, "Don't you even think about it?"

Zisu said neither humble nor arrogant: "If that lord really likes me, he should openly and honestly ask my son for me, instead of using your hand, Gu Master, to force my son to sell me."

Gu Master snorted: "Merely maid, your spirit is quite high, do you know who that lord is?"

Perilla was silent.

The Gu Master said, "Have you heard of the Queen's Mansion? Her Royal Highness is the only concubine of the Nanzhao King, she is the future monarch, and Master Fei Luo's master is the guest of honor at the Queen's Mansion, you won't offend me. Don't worry, if you offend the guests of Her Royal Highness, you will lose more than you lose. I advise you not to be ignorant of the sky and the earth. Your son is reluctant to bear you. He is affectionate and righteous, and you yourself? Are you willing to implicate such a person who thinks of you?"

A tangled look appeared on Shi Su's face.

Gu Master knew that she had listened to her own words. Originally, it wasn't too difficult to choose. Following a mediocre little son, how could it compare to a woman who is a Gu Master?

"Sir Fei Luo's entry to the capital this time is also to serve in the Queen's Mansion to serve for Her Royal Highness. You and him will have no worries about wealth and honor, and have a bright future. Isn't it much better than following an unknown boy?"

Gu Master said what was in his heart, seeing that Zi Su still didn't let go, he scolded stubbornly, his face darkened, "Furthermore, if you don't think about yourself, you have to think about your son, right? The son offends the Gu Master of the Queen's Mansion, what else can he do?"

Chapter 323 [V179] Hanging Gu Master (2)

"But...but..." Shi Su's fingers were pinched into the flesh tightly.

How could Gu Master not see that she was already moved? People's hearts are full of flesh, if the family hurriedly sold her, she might be able to ignore it, but in order to protect her, they would not hesitate to fight against the two Gu Masters? She's not a thing anymore, and she doesn't want to see that family suffer, right?

"Okay, I won't force you, the right to choose is in your hands, I just remind you at the end that the identity of that adult is no trivial matter, and his strength should not be underestimated. When he kills your son, you will still fall. Get it into his hands, let's go, come and find it when you figure it out, I can't do anything if you can't figure it out, even though you are my bodyguards, I'm very soft-spoken and can't protect you."

Gu Master dared to say this, but it was because he was sure that Zi Su had a conscience and would never put his son in a dangerous situation.

As expected, Zisu turned around and just walked to the entrance of the tent, when she suddenly gritted her teeth and knelt down: "Please, Lord, keep my two sons!"

"Alas." Gu Master stretched out his hand, "If I knew this earlier, why was it in the first place? That's it, for the sake of your sincerity, I will do my best."

The reason why the Gu Master said this was because he didn't want to offend Zi Su too much, otherwise Zi Su would be favored in the future, and he wouldn't be able to parry to Lord Fei Luo: "You have a way to convince your son to let you go. go?"

Zisu shook his head: "The two young masters treat me like a mountain. They don't think I'm a servant. I think they can see that I'm not sincere."

Gu Master sighed: "Then we can only hide from them first."

Zi Su looked puzzled: "Master Gu Master means..."

Gu Master said: "I will quietly send you to Master Fei Luo, and when they find out, it's done, so they can only accept it."

Shiso was silent.

Gu Master said earnestly: "I said I won't force you, if you want to go back on it, there's still time..."

Zisu gritted his teeth: "No, I don't regret it! I'll go with the adults!"

"Hey, no hurry." Lord Gu Master's eyes flickered. Originally, Lord Feiro only wanted perilla, but now...

"What's the matter, sir?" Shisu looked at him puzzled.

The Gu Master said calmly: "Actually, Lord Fei Luo has the intention of killing the two young masters of your family, but don't worry, I have tried my best to persuade Lord Fei Luo, it's just..."

There is no need for Gu Master to say it himself, Zisu can also guess some doorways.

Zisu begged: "Master Gu Master, please tell me, as long as I can keep my two sons safe, I can do anything!"

"It's not difficult." Gu Master took out a round bead from his wide sleeve and handed it to Zi Su, "This is a Gu bead, I'll need you to use it to find something later, that thing is in your son's hand. It's useless, but Lord Ferro likes it, if you dedicate that thing to Lord Ferro, you will definitely be able to make a living for the two young masters."

Zisu went with the Gu beads.

About two quarters of an hour later, Shisu sneaked over.

Gu Master looked at her expectantly: "Have you got it?"

Shisu shook his head: "There is nothing you said."

"Did you not look carefully?" Gu Master asked.

Zisu said sternly: "I found it. You said that the Gu beads would light up near that thing, but it didn't light up."

Gu Master murmured, "Could it be that Master Fei Luo guessed wrong? They don't have a Gu King at all?"

"Sir, what did you say?" Shi Su's eyes widened, as if she didn't hear clearly.

Gu Master cleared his throat: "It's nothing, did you find it on your son?"

Zisu lowered her head and said, "How dare I do this? In case this thing is lit up and the young master finds out, ask me what it is, how should I answer?"

From this point of view, it is possible that the two young masters... Gu Master touched his chin, whatever, Master Fei Luo originally only asked him to get Zisu over, and he was anxious to make a contribution before he wanted to get the Gu King together. After a while, Master Ferro did the same with his own hands. They are all camped here. Are you afraid of how many of them will run away?

"What should I do, my lord? I didn't get anything, is my son helpless?" Zisu asked anxiously.

Lord Ferro said with a tone of voice: "This... it depends on how you plead for your son in front of Master Ferro. You can rest assured that as long as you please Master Ferro, Master Ferro will not embarrass your son. "

Shisu bit her lips: "Then... then please lead the way, I want to meet Master Ferro."

I'm finally on the road, it's not a waste to waste a night of saliva.

The Gu Master put on a black cloak, walked through the forest with perilla, and followed the route agreed with Ferro to another tent.

This tent is much more luxurious than Yu Wan's group, almost catching up with the yurt on the grassland. It can be seen that the identity of the tent owner is extremely high.

Twenty guards were standing guard outside the tent, each of them wearing cold armor, and they did not change to casual clothes because they left the imperial capital.

"These are the bodyguards sent by Her Royal Highness." Seeing the surprise on the little girl's face, Gu Master couldn't help boasting and explaining.

"Oh." Shi Su lowered her head.

What is the reaction? Is it wood? Gu Master frowned and reminded, "I met Master Fei Luo later, be smart, don't play with your temper, remember that the life and death of your two sons are tied to you."

"Yeah." Shisu nodded.

Eighty percent of the time, this battle was frightened, Gu Master thought.

Gu Master didn't take it to heart, and let someone inform him. After a while, a little disciple came out and said to Gu Master, "You can go back, remember that everything is as planned."

Gu Master glanced at Zi Su not far away without a trace, and the corner of his lips twitched: "Please tell Master Fei Luo, everything is under my control."

"You, come in!"

After sent Gu Master away, the little disciple coldly called Zi Su into the tent.

This tent is spacious and tall, Shisu can enter smoothly without bending over, and even after entering, she can stand upright.

Her eyes fell on the man sitting on the ground. In front of the man was a small table, and the small table served fine wines, melons and fruits, snacks, everything.

Feiro is a refined and gentle man. He looks less than 30 years old. He wears a top-grade jade brocade and brocade.

If the person here is a little girl who is new to the world, I am afraid that the appearance of the other party will be confused at first glance.

The servants in the tent withdrew.

Shisu lowered her head and said nothing.

It was Feiro who broke the embarrassment between them. He put down the wine glass in his hand and looked at Shi Su with a smile: "I saw the girl again, didn't you scare the girl?"

Shisu shook his head.

Filo pointed to the cushion next to the small table, and motioned Shisu to take a seat.

Shisu stepped forward, knelt down on the mat and sat down.

Ferro gave her a meaningful look.

Zisu picked up the teapot and filled him with a glass of wine: "Sir, please use it."

Feiro's eyes softened a lot: "You don't have to be afraid of me, I have no ill will towards you, I just admire you too much, if you really don't want to, I can let you go now."

"I...I don't want to." Zisu said with her eyes lowered.

Filo took a sip of the wine she had poured.

Zisu said in a low voice, "Gu Master Yu has already told me that Master Fei Luo is an honored guest of the Queen's Mansion. Let me serve you for a long time. If you are happy, I will become an adult."

"Haha!" Ferro made her unabashed words laugh. There is never a shortage of flattering people in this world, but it's really rare to do it like this. What's more than an Israeli servant's maid who has become a high-ranking person? Good compliment? Does this not mean that he will one day be powerful?

"I really didn't see the wrong person, you are worth my effort!" Ferro did not hesitate to express his favor.

Shiso filled him with another glass of wine.

"You drink too." Filo handed her the glass.

Shisu shook his head: "I'll get a rash when I drink, can I eat?"

If the first sentence refuses to make people frown, then the second sentence makes people want to laugh.

Feiro found that the girl's words were very appealing to him, and he pointedly pointed to the things on the table: "You don't have to be restricted by what you want to eat."

Shiso peeled off a fresh big lychee and ate it happily.

These lychees were all brought from the Nujun's House, not to mention how sweet.

She was eating with a different kind of cuteness and cuteness, Gu Master pushed the plate in front of her: "Eat slowly, it's all yours."

"In the future... will I have to eat every day?" Zi Su asked with a wink.

Feiro laughed loudly and said, "As long as you follow me to the Lady's Mansion, you can eat whatever the Lady's Highness eats."

This is a big talk, but you can coax women, don't you have to brag like that? Otherwise, I would rather believe that there are ghosts in the world, and don't believe a man's mouth.

Filo greedily looked at the perilla gnawing the lychee...

"Master Ferro." Zisu suddenly looked at him and said, "Is Your Highness easy to get along with? I'm a girl from the countryside, I'm afraid I don't understand the rules and bump into her."

As Feiro, you may not be able to see His Highness the Queen, let alone a small maid. If Master didn't need one or two disciples this time, the Queen's House would not have sent someone to pick him up.

Those people outside are the guards of the Queen's Mansion, but they are not the personal guards of Her Royal Highness.

Of course, if a man wants face, he will not admit his insignificance.

Feiro said: "His Royal Highness is lenient, and I have never heard of her being punished because a servant collided with her."

"So she's so good..." Shisu murmured.

A trace of reverence flashed in Feiro's eyes: "Your Highness, the lady, has the world in mind and the people of Li, and will never embarrass anyone."

Zi Su still looked worried: "I heard... there is a concubine in the Queen's Mansion. How is the concubine?"

Feiro smiled again: "You don't have to worry about your consort, he is more generous and virtuous than Her Royal Highness."

Zisu said again: "What about their children? Is it so good?"

Fei Luo smiled and said: "You said that His Royal Highness, the eldest grandson, the female monarch is very strict with His Royal Highness, and will never let him do things that humiliate his identity, so you can rest assured, as long as you do not deliberately make mistakes, you are in the female monarch's mansion. It won't be a hard day."

Chapter 324 [V180] Hanging Gu Master (3)

No one was by his side, Feiro couldn't hold it anymore. The reason why he said so much patiently was that this girl was different from the woman he favored in the past, but she was a woman no matter how different, and Feiro was exhausted. .

"Perilla girl."

Filo slowly leaned towards Shi Su.

Zisu suddenly glared with almond eyes: "Master Ferro, have you seen the concubine? What does he look like?"

Feiro made these * eyes look a little bit speechless, and he held back the evil fire and said: "It is rumored that the concubine's appearance is detrimental, and he wears a mask all the year round, I don't know what he looks like."

"Wearing, mask, gear?" Shisu murmured.

"It's getting late, I'll tell you more about the situation in the Queen's Mansion tomorrow, let's rest first." Ferro gave Zisu an ambiguous look, and poked his wolf claws at Zisu.

As he was about to touch Shisu's body, Shisu suddenly grabbed his hand.

Fero was stunned for a moment, then thought that the other party was flirting with him, and smiled meaningfully, but soon, he couldn't laugh anymore.

I saw that the hand that clamped him was getting harder and harder, almost breaking his wrist.

He instinctively wanted to pull out his hand, but found that he couldn't.

How could this be?

Filo was stunned.

"Little, little beauty?"

Filo called her tentatively.

"Yeah." The other party responded indifferently.

is no longer the delicate and timid tone of voice before, but a hint of indifference.

Filo had seen Shisu before. He had talked to Shisu long ago. He didn't feel it when the other party deliberately lowered the volume, but once he regained his voice, Ferro could sense something was wrong.

Feiro instantly became vigilant: "You are not Shiso!"

"I just found out now?" The other party smiled lightly and took off the mask on his face in front of him, revealing a face that was more than ten times more beautiful than Shisu.

Filo was immediately dumbfounded.

Yu Wan touched her cheeks, the feeling of wearing a mask was not very good, and she didn't know what material Old Cui's head was made of. It's only seven or eight similar. Those who are familiar with Zisu can easily see the clue, but who made Gu Master and Zisu not meet a few times? Even more unrecognizable.

"you you....."

"What are you? Is the Gu Master of the dignified lady's palace a stammer? Why don't I talk for you? Do you want to ask me why I pretended to be Zisu? Naturally, I saw through your tricks. As for When did you find out..." Yu Wan smiled lightly, "The surname Yu stopped and walked along the way, do you think your acting is good?"

As early as when he deliberately urged the carriage to move forward, they suspected him. From the original inn to Liucheng, he did not need to speed up to enter the city smoothly, but he had to pretend to be anxious to get angry, in order to show everyone that he entered the city. How urgent is the heart of the city, so that when he has a stomach trouble and can't hurry on the road, people will not easily suspect him, but they don't know that there are two doctors in the eight of them. .

Yu Gu Master asked the driver to stalk Zi Su, and it was full of loopholes. How could three hidden masters be unaware of the stalking of a driver?

The driver thought it was his own * luck, but he didn't know that it was Shisu's order that was a big plan negotiated by the master and servant.

The maid who met Yu Gu Master for the first time was Zi Su, and the second time it was Yu Wan.

"You want to find the whereabouts of the Gu King with a broken bead?" Yu Wan laughed sarcastically.

Wait, broken beads, Gu King...

Feiro's eyes glared fiercely: "The King of Gu is in your hands?!"

Yu Wan chuckled: "Yes, in my hands, I have the ability to take it."

Fei Luo didn't even break his wrist, how could he get the Gu King?

Feiro's eyes turned cold, and he said sharply, "Someone!"

Yu Wan laughed.

Ferro's temple jumped: "Someone!"

Yu Wan didn't even bother to grab his wrist, and threw the person directly to the ground.

Ferro fell on his horse: "Someone-someone-"

Yu Wan looked down at him and said, "Stop calling, all your guards will be handled by my people."

Ferro refuted: "Impossible! They are the guards of the Queen's Mansion! All of them are first-class masters-"

Yu Wan smiled: "Really? Then you shouted so loudly, why didn't any of those experts rush in to save you?"

Filo was stunned.

Yeah, if they were still there, they would have heard the movement and rushed in without having to scream... After so long, no one was seen, I can only say...they were really wiped out.

But how is that possible?

He didn't hear the sound of fighting just now. Could it be that so many masters were killed in one breath?

Thoughts flashed, Ferro only felt a layer of endless cold spread across his back.

When he saw that maid, he never expected that he would kick such an iron plate.

I heard the boy surnamed Yu say that they are a group of Jianghu people who don't even have a way to lead. If so, how can they have such a powerful skill?

After a brief period of astonishment, Ferro calmed down, no matter how powerful he was? He is a Gu Master! His Gu insects are enough to kill any master!

"Okay, I originally thought that it would take a lot of work to get your Gu King, since you brought it to your door, don't blame me for being rude!"

After Feiro finished speaking, he waved his sleeves and took out his Golden Toad Gu.

His Golden Toad Gu is hungry, it's time to eat, this woman who doesn't know the heights of the sky, let her Gu King become the Golden Toad Gu's meal!

Golden Toad Gu flew out!

did not fly to Yu Wan, but to the door of the tent.

Golden Toad Gu...it wants to escape? !

Filo's eyes widened in disbelief.

The next second, an even more incredible thing happened. A white light flashed out from Yu Wan's cuff. Feiro didn't know what was going on at all. The Golden Toad Gu screamed and let the white light absorb the essence and die. .

Everything happened in a flash, even Yu Wan was stunned for a moment.

If she doesn't have dazzling eyes.

Was that the little Gu Gu who saw her just now?

It's too cool!

Lightning!

Yu Wan looked at her cuff.

Unfortunately, the little Gu Gu is nowhere to be found.

Yu Wan smiled happily.

When Fei Luo sacrificed that thing, she broke into a cold sweat, but now it seems that she is worrying too much, her little Gu Gu is so mighty, how can she let these low-level bugs kill?

Fei Luo's jaw was about to fall off, even the Thousand Gu King couldn't have such power... Could it be that the one in her hand...

"Madam." Jiang Hai walked in and saw Fei Luo staring at Yu Wan in astonishment, a trace of disgust flashed across his eyes, and he blocked Yu Wan with his body.

Qingyan and Moon hook also lifted the curtain and entered.

The guards around have let them clean up.

"What to do with this guy?" Qingyan asked.

Yu Wan thought for a while, and said, "He is from the Queen's Mansion, and keeping him would be a scourge. Instead of letting the tiger return to the mountain, it is better to make a decisive decision."

"You can't kill me! I...I...my master is..."

Fei Luo's voice did not fall, he heard a few snorts, and three long swords stabbed into his chest in unison.

It is said that the three cobblers are the top one, Zhuge Liang, and everyone else's subordinates have at least one rational persuasion. Can the three of you not have such a unified opinion...

Filo looked down at the sword on his chest, his head tilted, and he farted.

Everyone has no pity for Fei Luo. This guy forced Liang to be a prostitute. He would do anything to get a maid, and even attack Yu Wan's idea of a worm... Yes, now Jiang Hai, Qingyan and others all know about Yu Wan's possession of a sacred object. There is no doubt, but everyone also reached a consensus - since the thing has fallen into Yu Wan's hands, it belongs to Yu Wan, and no one wants to take it away.

Yu Wan snorted: "This is a complete tear with the Queen's Mansion."

Before he got the medicine lead, he had already offended the Helian family and the Queen of Nanzhao. Their luck was really not very good!

Qingyan and Yuegou glanced at Yu Wan sympathetically, did you realize that you offended the Nv Junfu? Who do you think the relic in your hand slipped away from... Alas, Madam's IQ is sometimes a little worrying...

After finished solving Feiro, the group planned to continue on the road, but at this moment, Yu Gu Master, who was originally tied in the tent, broke the rope and escaped.

It was also that the three Moon Hooks came to assassinate Ferro, and no one even went after him.

Why not kill him directly, naturally he needs to be kept as a guide.

Gu Master ran all the way.

The three of Jianghai used their light work to catch up.

With the strength of the three of them, it is absolutely impossible for the Gu Master to escape from their palms, but the Gu Master did not know what kind of * luck they had, and they encountered a caravan that was marching overnight on the official road!

Gu Master burst into tears and rushed to the team: "Help me—help me—"

The convoy stopped.

The Gu Master rushed towards him: "I'm Xicheng Gu Master! My surname is Yu! Someone wants to kill me!"

Gu Master's status in Nanzhao was aloof, and assassinating a Gu Master was an unforgivable crime. The guard at the head immediately dismounted, checked his way, and determined that he was indeed a Gu Master from Xicheng. Only then did he turn his head to the carriage, one knee. Kneeling down, he said, "Report to the general, that a Gu Master is being hunted down."

Gu Master was taken aback.

Great, Great General?

When Jiang Hai and the others caught up with the Gu Master, the Gu Master had already had the Great General's troops closely guarded.

Gu Master had been waiting here for a long time. Seeing the three figures, he hurriedly pointed and shouted, "That's it, it's them!"

Jiang Hai glanced at the opponent's battle, secretly said something bad, and was about to withdraw, but it was too late.

I saw a tall guard with the aura of a tiger and wolf, attacking them violently, Jiang Hai immediately showed his fist, and the palm of his fist was facing each other for a moment, Jiang Hai was shocked and his chest hurt, and the whole person flew out.

When Qingyan saw this, he immediately drew his sword to face each other, but he also knocked him down with one move.

The moon hook was born with divine power, and he received three punches from the opponent, and the fourth punch sent the opponent into the cracked ground.

On the carriage parked not far away, Yu Wan widened her eyes: "How could this be? Who is he?"

The old man said: "Golden masked dead man."

Chapter 325 [V181] Recognition (1)

The golden-faced dead man who only existed in rumors actually appeared in Nanzhao, and let Jiang Hai and the others meet. This luck is really unprecedented.

"I didn't expect the golden-masked dead man to be so powerful..." Apart from being surprised, Yu Wan didn't know what to say.

She knows Jiang Hai's strength the most. Even Jun Changan is not his opponent. He can walk sideways in the Central Plains. Qingyan's martial arts are not the highest, but he is first-class in lightness, and he did not avoid the opponent's attack. As for the moon hook, his internal strength is three points stronger than Jiang Hai, but he can only withstand three moves.

The old man is calmer than Yu Wan, as for whether there is no turbulence in his heart, it is unknown.

On the other side of , the Gu Master surnamed Yu scolded: "...Master Qi! They have accomplices! There are eight people in total! I'd like to lead the way for the master and take them all together!"

Yes, there is no escape.

Almost as soon as the Gu Master finished speaking, the two of them's carriage was lifted up by a huge force... It was the golden-masked dead man who shot.

The carriage was thrown on the ground in front of the team.

Yu Wan's head slammed on the door panel, cracking the door panel.

Yu Wan rubbed her head, and was about to help Grandma, who was knocking too hard, when she saw several spears swooshing in.

Yu Wan looked at the spear an inch away from her, carefully raised her fingertips, and gently pushed the spear away: "It's just old and weak women and children, isn't this battle too big?"

The two were taken off the carriage.

Yu Wan just finished pretending to be Shi Su, and didn't have time to change back to her men's clothes.

Yu Gu Master suddenly saw Yu Wan who looked like a woman, but didn't recognize it for a while, and was stunned: "You...you...ah, it's you? You're a woman?! Why are you wearing...zisu clothes?"

Rao Gu Master Yu racked his brains and didn't guess that Yu Wan was going to pretend to be Shi Su.

Yu Wan was too lazy to talk to him.

At this juncture, it is natural to not care whether gender is exposed or not.

Women are just women. Gu Master Yu didn't take it too seriously, but thought of the remaining guys, frowned and said, "No! There are accomplices!"

"Grandma, how many are called generals in Nanzhao?"

"one."

"The one from Helian's house?"

"What's the noise?!" A guard slammed his spear into the grass in front of the two of them.

"That's right, it's the one from Helian's house," the old man said.

"Please stop arguing!" The guard unceremoniously raised his spear and called to the old man.

The old man remained unmoved in the face of danger, calm and composed.

Yu Wan grabbed the guard's spear: "Dare to touch a hair of him, believe it or not, you won't see the sun tomorrow morning!"

The guard made Yu Wan's cold eyes numb her scalp, and she stopped subconsciously.

Yu Gu Master rushed over: "What are you? Dare to talk to the Great General's Long Yingwei like this! The person who can't see the sun tomorrow morning is probably you!"

He said, turned to face the carriage with the curtains closed, and said with a salute, "General, the origin of this group of people is unknown and there is no way to guide them. They not only want to kill me, but they also want to kill Lord Ferro! Also ask the general to send someone to Lord Ferro's camp to ensure that he is not brutally murdered by this group of people!"

Go at this time, and what you see must be a corpse of Ferro...

Then they could justify their charge of murdering the female monarch's mansion's Gu Master.

Yu Wan closed her eyes.

It seems that there is only one last way...

But she's not very good at this kind of thing...

do my best.....

Yu Wan took a deep breath, squeezed out two non-existent tears, and wept like a whimper:
"General, don't kill me... I'm your own niece—"

The curtains of the car were tightly closed, and outsiders could not see the scene inside, but Helian Beiming shook his hand when he heard this, and almost didn't throw the little snow fox who had been rubbing it all the way out.

And Xiao Xuehu couldn't wait to jump out the moment he heard the sound.

You throw it!

Throw the baby away!

Helianbei calmed down and brought back the fluttering little snow fox.

Xiao Xuehu was so frustrated that he sat on his lap and sighed like an old man.

"General, I'll go out and have a look."

It was the long attendant who was in the same car with Helian Beiming.

Helian Beiming nodded.

Changsui opened the curtain, bowed and got out of the carriage.

Yu Wan has been paying attention to the movement of the carriage. She was worried that she was yelling at the wrong person, but as soon as the curtain was lifted, she clearly saw the figure with a powerful aura. It was so highly recognizable that she saw it at the Xicheng City Lord's Mansion. The Great General was right.

In fact, how did she know if her father was the second son of the Helian family who fell off a cliff with no bones left? But at this juncture, it must be true, otherwise all of them would be lost.

Changsui walked up to Yu Wan with a torch, and looked at Yu Wan with the bright firelight.

Yu Wan was wearing a skirt of perilla, a white bottom and a pink robe, with a two-color belt of the same color, and pulled up an unmarried woman's back bun. She had a small face the size of a palm, fair complexion, and thick eyebrows with a heroic look, but she was not. Zhang Yang, almond eyes like water, red lips and white teeth, is a very comfortable appearance.

No one would think that the owner of such a face would be an empty talker.

But what she said just now was too absurd.

"pardon."

Chang Sui felt that 80% of the time he heard it wrong, or the little girl had lost her mind.

Yu Wan said without changing her face, "Dare to ask this lord, the general's younger brother was born in the early spring thirty-five years ago? But what happened when he fell off a cliff at the age of three or four?"

The long follower looked at Yu Wan, and then looked at the elderly man on the side. The matter of the second master has not been mentioned for many years. The younger generation does not know much about this information, but the old man has heard about it back then. bad news.

continued: "So what? It's not a secret, do you need to ask me in turn? Or, you think you know a lot."

Yu Wan said sternly: "Of course it's not a secret, but I heard that the general's younger brother fell off the cliff and ended up with no bones. Helian's family believes that he fell from such a high place and must not survive. Possibly, as for the accident, I am afraid that the beasts would have been eaten early, but is there a possibility that he did not die at all? Instead, someone who passed by was rescued?"

"Ridiculous!" Chang Sui sneered disdainfully.

"Is it ridiculous?" Yu Wan's expression was as calm as if this was the truth. She looked in the direction of the carriage, "Does the general think so too? I came to Nanzhao from a long distance to find my relatives, and I even led the way. No, I have lived and died a few times... but if the general refuses to recognize me, then I will pretend that I have never lived."

These words brought tears to the eyes, and Rao Shichang sui was stunned when he thought she was lying.

The atmosphere at the scene was a little weird.

The general did not speak, and the guards did not move.

The Gu Master with the surname Yu couldn't hold back anymore. He and this little girl had completely torn apart their faces. If she really was the niece of the Great General, wouldn't he have kicked the iron plate?

She can't be!

Must not!

Gu Master said righteously and sternly: "General! Don't listen to her nonsense! She came from Xicheng, you were in Xicheng at the time, if it was true, she came to recognize you as a relative, why Xicheng? Don't you recognize it?"

Yu Wan squinted her eyes secretly, this Gu Master looked so stupid, but at a critical moment he actually got on the road.

That's right, Helian Beiming's entry into the West City is well known, and she happened to be there again during those days. It's a bit far-fetched to say that she hadn't heard of the news.

but--

Yu Wan's lips tickled without a trace, and said aggrievedly: "It's not that I don't want to look for it, it's that I have people put in jail. Those people don't believe what I say, they just think I'm crazy."

She was indeed in prison, and you can find out by sending someone to investigate. As for what she said, there was only one jailer at the time, one mouth to one mouth, and it was hard to see who could break it.

The car curtain was opened by a slender hand like jade.

Gu Master didn't dare to look at the general's face, and hurriedly lowered his head.

Yu Wan looked at the other party without dodging, and met the gaze of the other party's reading.

It was a pair of sharp eyes that seemed to penetrate everything.

Yu Wan watched fearlessly without flinching.

"You said that your father was the younger brother of General Ben who fell off the cliff, how did you guess this?" Helian Beiming asked.

Yes, how did you guess this layer? He was taken away at such a young age, and no one mentioned his identity. Just based on the date of the accident, he guessed that he was from the Helian Mansion in Nanzhao?

However, if he can ask this, does it mean that he at least suspects that his brother is not dead?

This is much easier.

Mother Wan has been in the young master's mansion for so long, not only taught her the rules, but also taught her how to give up her face.

Yu Wan sighed and said: "To be honest, my father picked it up, the whole village knows about it, but no one is interested in finding relatives, there are many wars in our place, many children starved to death, and their parents also After death, of course, there are also those who were abandoned by their parents because they could not survive. There are not a few people like my father who survived and were adopted by good-hearted people... Until the spring of this year, an old man found his son and found us... He We thought that my father was his long lost son, and we were looking forward to it, but it turned out that he made a mistake. What I said when the old man left, he said that if he lives, he will continue to look for another day. He is old. I don't know how many days are left... I feel very sad when I look at his hunched back.

I began to think that my father may not be a child who was abandoned. He was also unfortunately separated, and his elderly parents were also looking for him... As for the Helian family, it was because of Wei Yuanda The general had been to the capital of the Great Zhou Dynasty. "

"Are you from Da Zhou?" Chang Sui was taken aback.

"That's right." Yu Wan nodded, "I'm from Dazhou, General Weiyuan had an accident in Dazhou, and his family background spread like wildfire. It's because of this that I know that General, you had a birth not long ago. The younger brother who fell off the cliff, in terms of time, coincides with the month when my father was picked up. So I have a bold guess in my heart, could it be... my father is your family? "

Chapter 326 [V182] Recognize (2)

Yu Wan continued: "The reason why I am so bold is another important reason, that is, my father is a marquis of the Great Zhou Dynasty, and he is a fierce general guarding the border! As the saying goes, the dragon begets the dragon, and the phoenix begets the phoenix. My father grew up in the countryside, but he has such a skill, isn't it because he has the blood of the * of war flowing through him?"

The words are true and false, full of emotion, and the logic is rigorous, so that people can't pick out the slightest mistake.

Senior asked himself to be in Helian's house for many years, and serving the general is not without fault, but the information that should be controlled should not be sloppy. Is what this woman said true or false? If it's true, why doesn't he know? If it's fake, it doesn't look like it...

Changsui made Yu Wan go around in a daze.

Helian Beiming said without rushing: "All retreat."

"Yes." Chang followed his orders, and he and his guards retreated from a distance of ten feet, and the Gu Master also had someone forcibly take them out.

"My grandma doesn't have to go!" Yu Wan said.

The old man let a group of dead men who didn't know the severity carry them around, and he didn't know if he died in the end.

Helian Beiming didn't mind the old man.

The old man was as calm as a bell, which made people look sideways.

But we didn't put Helian Beiming's thoughts on him, Helian Beiming looked at Yu Wan.

Although his stature is not as powerful as Xiao Zhenting's, he is also burly and strong. Although he is sitting in a wheelchair, he also has the aura of a golden horse. Ordinary people will let him look at his aura under his aura. defeated.

Yu Wan did not.

She opened her eyes as clear as water, calm and calm from beginning to end, the night wind blew through her hair, the blue silk was flying, and the skirt was graceful, like a fairy in the forest.

Helian Beiming opened his mouth dangerously: "This general's younger brother has long since died, and I buried him with my own hands. My mother insisted on seeing him for the last time. Because it was too horrible to see, she lied that there were no bones left."

Yu Wan's heart rushed over a thousand words...

That was thirty-five years ago. Helian Beiming was just a sensible child. His mother gave birth to his younger brother in the Xicheng fief. He originally planned to go to the imperial capital after the full moon. The fault, under the rollover, the younger brother fell off the cliff, the mother asked the guards to catch it in time, but the younger brother unfortunately fell to his death.

He was on the way with his father to meet his mother and younger brother in Xicheng. After hearing the bad news, he went to the bottom of the mountain with his father.

It was he who found his brother's body.

He hid his younger brother with his own hands.

Helian Beiming said: "However, because of the lie that there are no bones left, some rumors came out, including the nonsense that my brother is still alive. My mother believed it, so she thought her youngest son was not dead. ."

Yu Wan was stunned: "Then... isn't the old lady looking for him all the time?"

"That's right." Helian Beiming said.

"This is too cruel..." Accepting the news of death is just a pain in the heart for a while, but to endure the separation of mother and child for a lifetime is to put your heart in a frying pan and fry it over and over again.

Helian Beiming hasn't mentioned these things to anyone for a long time, he looked at the boundless color, his eyes became deep and distant: "My father couldn't bear her to continue to suffer, so he told her the truth, but she went crazy. "

Yu Wan was dumbfounded.

Helian Beiming said: "She can't accept my brother's death, she would rather he be alive, rather she would rather endure the pain of separation from mother and child day and night."

"What about later?" Yu Wan asked.

Helian Beiming said with an expressionless face, "Later she forgot what my father said, and she only remembered that her brother fell to the ground. I have found a lot of 'brothers' for her over the years, but she has seen through them all. ."

Yu Wan is not stupid after all, telling them such a big secret, either to kill them, or to reuse them.

After turning her mind around, she raised her head and said, "The general told me this because he hoped that I would also try to pretend to be the descendant of your younger brother...?"

Helian Beiming said otherwise: "Whether you can survive depends on my mother, she recognizes you, and all of you can live; if she sees through you, you will all be imprisoned."

Yu Wan rolled her eyes: "The punishment for assassinating a Gu Master is..."

"The death penalty."

Yu Wan closed her mouth.

Wow, so scary.

Helian Beiming's guards came back, no one knew what the general said to a little girl who suddenly rushed out to recognize her relatives, but the general ordered them to bring the little girl's family. At least for now, the general is not I plan to investigate this group of people for assassinating the Gu Master.

Ferro's body was found, and the comatose guards of the Queen's Mansion also let them find it.

Chang Sui said in embarrassment: "General... They are too daring, and they actually provoke the head of the Queen's Mansion. If the Queen's Mansion is held accountable..."

Helian Bei said indifferently: "The old lady recognized her, and my Helian family will protect her!"

On the contrary, if the old lady feels that this girl is not her own granddaughter, then Helian Beiming will be very happy to send these murderers to the hands of the Queen's Mansion.

Helian Beiming didn't ask those people's identities, origins, or the real purpose of entering Nanzhao, because if the old lady didn't recognize the girl, they were dead, and he, Helian Beiming, wouldn't be interested in information about a group of dead people.

Chang Sui said to Yu Wan, "My surname is Yu, and my name is Gang. I am the general's long attendant. In the future, if Madam Yan has anything to do, you can find me at will."

"Fish tank?" Yu Wan raised her eyebrows, how could someone call her such a strange name?

The team set off again.

Gu Master made Helian Beiming's bodyguards leave behind.

"Hey! How could this happen? Don't leave me behind!"

"General! I am a Gu Master!"

"I'm the Gu Master invited by the Yue family to the imperial capital!"

"Don't leave me—"

"In the wilderness, I'll die—"

However, no one paid any attention to his cries, and his voice gradually disappeared into the night.

The three of Jiang Hai suffered internal injuries, and it was not suitable for them to drive. Helian Beiming's long attendant arranged for several guards to be the drivers. Right now, Yu Wan was sitting on the carriage of the old man and the old Cuitou, and the three of Jiang Hai were also there.

The atmosphere is a little weird.

Yu Wan asked angrily, "What are the chances of us escaping successfully?"

Everyone looked at her with a swoosh—negative.

Yu Wan: "..."

Well, then we can only bite the bullet and go to the General's Mansion.

"By the way, does Helian Beiming know that Helian Qi's death has something to do with us?" It was Qingyan who asked.

Strictly speaking, Helian Qi was killed by Yan Jiuchao, and he had something to do with Yu Wan and Jiang Hai, but not so much with the ghost clan. into one camp with each other.

And Yuegou and the old man did not refute what was wrong after hearing this.

Yu Wan thought for a while and said, "I don't know yet, but it shouldn't be a long time to hide it."

"It doesn't matter." Qingyan said, "Helianqi is just Helian Beiming's cousin, but the old lady is his biological mother. He has a steel scale in his heart."

They carry the charges of infiltrating Nanzhao, assassinating Gu Master, offending the female emperor's mansion, and Helianqi's life. No matter how they look at it, they are all going to die. The old lady is their only life, and they must win the favor of the old man, otherwise Not to mention that Yan Jiuchao's medicine was introduced, and their little lives would be over.

Several people were talking, and Yu Wan suddenly felt hot.

Jiang Hai noticed her blushing face, and asked worriedly, "What's wrong? But what's wrong?"

Yu Wan shook her head: "No."

is hot, hot in the heart, hot everywhere.

It seemed that she had this kind of reaction after playing a small Gu Gu for a full meal, but she didn't notice much when her life was hanging by a thread.

"I, I'll go back to my carriage first." Yu Wan escaped and got out of the carriage.

The old man sees it but doesn't say it.

The rest of the people looked at each other, not understanding what happened to Yu Wan.

On the carriage, Fuling and Shisu guarded Yan Jiu Dynasty.

Seeing Yu Wan coming up, the two bowed and bowed: "Madam."

The women's clothes have been revealed, and they simply stop pretending, but the identities of the prince and the prince's concubine are still unknown.

Yu Wan glanced at Yan Jiuchao, who was sleeping soundly, her throat slid, and she said, "Just leave it to me here, you all go back to your carriage."

"Yes." The two got out of the car.

...

Tonight's plan was originally perfect, and Yu Wan did not expect to kill a general Helian halfway through the killing, but for this reason, Yu Wan also made two preparations, first let Yan Jiuchao take the medicine and sleep, and then let Yan Jiuchao take the medicine to sleep. Tuckahoe and Zisu guarded him, the plan was completed, he woke up at dawn, and the plan failed, they were able to escape with him.

Of course, the final plan was a success, but Helian Beiming was caught.

Before the old lady saw it through, their days were relatively comfortable, at least they didn't suffer any grievances along the way.

The imperial capital was more heavily guarded than any other city. Yu Wan had no doubt that if they were still following the Gu Master with the surname Yu, they would have to be stopped by the city gate, but they would not follow Helian Beiming.

All the guards were respectfully lined up on both sides, no one dared to test Helian Beiming's team, and the group entered the imperial capital unimpeded.

On the way here, Yu Wan did her homework and asked Helian Beiming's long-suffering Yu Gang about the old lady's taboos and preferences. It's the same, when it's abnormal, it's crazy, and when it catches people, it's crazy.

Yu Wan snorted and asked, "Then under what circumstances did my grandmother meet those who pretended to be my father?"

Yu Gang: "..."

Are you too deep into the play?

Chapter 327 [V183] Recognize (3)

The carriage drove into Helian House.

A few people had things in their hearts, and they didn't have the time to appreciate the scenery of the imperial capital, and they didn't savor every plant and tree in Helian's house.

Helian Beiming went to report to the old lady first.

A group of people sat in the slow carriage, and their faces were a little dignified.

This way, the more they saw the power of Helian Beiming, the more they gave up the idea of running away. The only way out for them now is to let the old lady of the Helian family recognize Yu Wan.

If Yu Wan is really the grandson of the other party, that's fine, but Yu Wan is fake, and everyone can't help but start to worry.

Jiang Hai sighed: "It's really not good, I'll hold them for a while, Qingyanyue will hook you and take the young lady and grandma away."

Old Cuitou: Mine? !

Yuegou, who has always been silent, said: "I'm strong, it's more appropriate for me to hold them back, you guys go."

Qingyan glanced at the two of them: "You can't escape from outside. Now that you have entered the Helian Mansion, are you still dreaming of running away?"

Everyone was silent: "..."

Yu Wan smiled and said, "Don't worry about all of you, I am very popular with the elders. As long as the old lady likes me, she will recognize me if she is not sure."

This is a big truth. Apart from Yu's parents, which of the village's aunts and uncles don't care about Yu Wan? Everyone tells me that this girl has grown up, is sensible, has no pretensions, has done a business and can practice medicine, has a good heart, and looks pretty, and there is no better girl than her.

If it is said that the village likes Yu Wan because they are honest and honest, then Shangguan Yan and Mrs. Xiao, the thorns who want to get along with each other, are also very fond of Yu Wan, which is enough to show that Yu Wan is a personal Charm too.

This girl is right, Mrs. Baobuqi fell in love with her and recognized her as her granddaughter?

The old lady did not know that Helian Beiming went to pay homage to his younger brother. He just thought he was visiting his nephew in the second room as in previous years. The old lady sat in the room bored and didn't think about tea and rice. This was a sign of getting sick again. .

The old lady is not sure when she falls ill. Sometimes she is in a state of lethargy, having trouble sleeping and eating, sometimes she is crazy, babbling nonsense, and sometimes she sits in a daze.

The servants reported that Helian Beiming was here, but the old lady didn't say a word.

Helian Beiming told the old lady about his "brother", and the old lady finally had a reaction.

But it was only a moment, and he looked out of the window again in a dazed way.

Helian Beiming understood that there were many "younger brothers" who had come to visit over the years, and the old lady no longer believed that he could find the real "younger brother".

"Mother, let's go and see." Helian Beiming said softly, "It's not my brother's family, I'll just drive her away."

The old lady pouted and went to the flower hall with Helian Beiming.

Yu Wan and his party also let Yu Gang bring in.

This is the first time Yu Wan has met the rumored old Mrs. Helian. The other party is wearing a plain lotus-colored brown dress, a sauce-colored silk robe, her gray hair is pulled up in a single bun, and she has two exquisite jadeite hairpins. The hairpin, and another pearl of the same color as Beizi's forehead, his face is not very good, his face is haggard, but his gestures are like a nobleman.

The old lady was supported by a maid with a beautiful face and walked in carelessly.

Yu Wan knew that the moment of fate had come, and whether she lived or died was up to her to pass the test.

In fact, Helian Beiming gave her a token to prove her identity, which was the swaddle wrapped around his younger brother, but it is said that he gave this token to the "brother" who came to "recognize relatives", but the old lady didn't recognize all of them. .

So even Helian Beiming couldn't understand how the old lady thought those people were fake.

"Maybe blood is thicker than water."

These are the original words of Helian Beiming.

If this is the case, then Yu Wan's chances of winning are not great, but the arrow has to be shot on the string, Yu Wan took a deep breath, wiped a handkerchief with the chili already dipped in the corner of her eye, and said to the old lady with red eyes: "Grandma—"

The old lady was so frightened by the sudden voice that she trembled twice.

Then the old lady turned around in a daze.

Seeing the other party looking at her, Yu Wan cried harder and harder. Her poor acting skills were not half as good as Jiang Shi's.

Unexpectedly, the old lady threw off the maid's hand and walked towards this side in a daze.

The old lady stretched out her arm, and her excited appearance was clearly about to recognize her relatives!

Yu Wan's heart was filled with ecstasy, and she also stretched out her arm to the old lady: "Grandma—"

The old lady beat her and walked over...

Yu Wan: "..."

"My grandson—"

Yu Wan was taken aback, who, who is your grandson?

Yu Wan looked back and saw that the old lady was hugging her husband with tears in her eyes!

Yan Jiuchao, who was stunned in place: "..."

People who are more confused than Yan Jiuchao: "..."

Helian Beiming was stunned, as if even he did not expect such a situation, it was not the same as he imagined...

"What, what, what's the situation?" Old Cui Tou asked Yu Wan in a low voice.

Yu Wan said resentfully, "How do I know what's going on? I'm a monk two feet taller than you and can't figure it out!"

She remembered every taboo and preference of the old lady. She remembered that her brain was big. Yan Jiuchao did nothing, ate, slept, slept and ate. How did he become the "grandson" of the old lady in the end? !

This ready-made cheap, how did he pick it up? !

Old Cuitou cleared his throat: "Cough, I said this old lady, did you admit it wrong? He is not your grandson."

The old lady hugged Yan Jiuchao tightly, and gave Old Cui a furious look: "I'm not mistaken! He is the best looking! It looks like my grandson!"

"..."

So those people in front were seen not because of lack of blood, but because they were ugly...

I feel the truth, and everyone in the room is messed up...

goo~

Yan Jiuchao's stomach growled.

The old lady's face changed greatly, and she said distressedly: "My dear grandson, are you hungry?"

I'm hungry, yes.

Good grandson, no.

Yan Jiuzao looked blankly at the old lady who was hugging her: "Let go."

A room full of people's temples throbbing, talking to the old lady like this, will you die?

Those who came to recognize relatives, who didn't flatter the old lady to the sky, but you dare to speak coldly to the old lady!

The old lady obediently let go of her hand.

Everyone once again: "..."

But soon, the old lady stretched out her hand again, this time she didn't hug Yan Jiuchao tightly, but only pulled Yan Jiuchao's sleeve and said with a smile: "What do you want to eat, grandmother will give it to you. you do!"

The old lady personally ordered, and the kitchen was busy without stopping.

Two quarters of an hour later, a table of steaming food was placed on the table.

Old Cui Tou and others had no intention of staying to join in the fun, so Yu Gang took it to another hospital where he lived temporarily, and Yu Wan stayed.

The first time Yu Wan saw the old lady, she thought she was a normal old grandmother, but at this moment she finally believed that she was a little crazy, or else? How could Yan Jiuchao be recognized as his own grandson?

Helian Beiming is the eldest son of the old lady, and it is reasonable to say that it can hurt to the bones, but since she recognized her grandson, the old lady stopped looking at her son.

The old lady asked Yan Jiuchao to sit beside her.

Helian Beiming sat on the other side of her.

Yu Wan walked over and was about to sit down next to Yan Jiuchao.

The old lady frowned: "Who are you? Who let you sit?"

"She is my daughter-in-law." Yan Jiuchao said.

The old lady's face changed in a second, and she smiled and said: "So it's the grandson's daughter-in-law? Then sit down!"

Yu Wan sat down with a dark face.

The "grandmother" is obviously hers, so let her "grandmother" come!

The old lady gave Yan Jiuchao a big chicken leg. Look, there is still a difference between grandson and grandson-in-law!

The old lady kept adding vegetables to Yan Jiuchao's bowl, and piled his bowl out of a small hill, but she didn't eat it herself, and looked at Yan Jiuchao with such joy.

Helian Beiming gave Yan Jiuchao a wink and motioned him to order some dishes for the old lady.

Yan Jiuchao picked up another pair of clean chopsticks and grabbed a piece of tenderloin.

This is Yu Wan's favorite food.

Yu Wan and Helian Beiming had the same look.

The first taboo of the old lady - do not eat red meat.

The next second, the two of them were stunned, only to see the old lady devoured the crispy meat!

After the old lady finished eating, she looked at Yan Jiuchao expectantly, as if waiting for her good grandson to serve her dishes.

Yan Jiuchao picked it up indiscriminately again. Eight of the ten items were not touched by the old lady on weekdays, but the old lady took all of them according to the order.

The old lady has never eaten so full, and she has never laughed so full.

Yu Wan sighed secretly, so she remembered the use of half-death, not worth the handsome face of this guy.

The old lady did not recognize Yu Wan, but recognized Yan Jiuchao, which was beyond everyone's expectations, but no matter what, the old lady had obtained the death-free gold medal, and they lived in the general's mansion. .

Helian Beiming was about to begin to understand the details of the group. He originally planned to interrogate Yan Jiuchao first, but Yan Jiuchao was occupied by the old lady, so he had to ask someone to call Yu Wan.

Yu Wan went to Helian Beiming's study.

The window of the study room was wide open, and the movement in the yard could be clearly seen from the inside. The old lady was walking in the yard with Yan Jiuchao.

Helian Beiming retracted his gaze from the courtyard and looked at Yu Wan quietly: "Who are you?"

Yu Wan pondered for a moment, then said truthfully: "Yancheng Prince, Prince Concubine."

Helian Beiming's eyes tightened slightly, and he could see that he was a little surprised, but it was not exaggerated.

"Where are those people?" he asked.

"They are the servants and guards of Prince Yan's mansion." Apart from the old Cui Tou and the two maids, Jiang Hai and A Wei's family are all people with a history, Yu Wan didn't want Helian Beiming to suspect them because of this.

Helian Beiming took a deep look at Yu Wan, his expression was not suspicious, and asked, "What are you doing here in Nanzhao?"

"My husband was poisoned and needs some medicines."

"What poison?"

"Thyme."

Chapter 328 [V184] Loving Sun Kuangmo (1)

The thyme Helian Beiming has been heard. This is a strange poison from the Western Regions. It is named after the smell of the poison resembles the fragrance of flowers.

Helian Beiming didn't ask how Yan Jiuchao was poisoned. , this poison has no solution, and half of the four herbs it needs can no longer be found."

Yu Wan said sternly: "If you can't find it, you have to find it. In short, I must cure my husband's poison."

The little girl is not very old, but she has a domineering arrogance that will not admit defeat.

If he entered Nanzhao just because of this, then there was nothing he could not accept.

only--

Helianbei meditated on something, and his eyes became deep: "Yanwang's mansion... Yanwang's mansion related to Xiao Zhenting?"

Yu Wan's heart skipped a beat, it was time to come, and they couldn't hide the fact that they killed Helian Qi.

The cause of Helianqi's death was hidden from the rest of the world, but Helian Beiming. As early as when the group helped the coffin to return to China, they took out the biggest suspect, Yan Jiuchao. If you want to die, you should die in the hands of the monarch of Nanzhao.

Yu Wan solemnly said: "General, I admit that Helianqi's death is related to the Yan Wangfu, but what kind of virtue is Helianqi, as his cousin, you can't know everything, I don't know what happened to you. How much do you know? You must have heard about the humiliation of Marshal Xiao with his battle armor. Have you heard about the fact that he almost sully my friend? He kept saying that he wanted to seize Mrs. Xiao for a whole night. Didn't you hear it? The hatred of humiliating my mother is undeniable.

Not to mention that we just killed him, even if we threw him to ashes, it would be cheap for him! If you want to punish us because of this, then I have nothing to say Say!"

Helian Beiming had no children, and Helian Qi was the next head of the Helian family, so he was damaged in the hands of Yan Jiuchao. It is impossible to say that Helian Beiming did not have a trace of anger. The enemy of the family was brought into the mansion and sent to the mother.

Knowing this, he should have asked the identities of several people earlier, instead of waiting to be sure that they would survive.

"My good grandson, let's eat it for you!" In the yard, the old lady peeled a fresh orange and handed it to Yan Jiuchao.

But if he had asked earlier, he probably wouldn't have this "good grandson" right now.

Helian Beiming murmured: "My mother, has never been so happy as today."

Yu Wan looked at Yan Jiuchao who made the old lady slap her hair a little, and smiled knowingly: "Yes, the old lady really loves Yan Jiuchao."

"He is not Yan Jiuchao." Helian Beiming said.

"Huh?" Yu Wan looked at him puzzled.

Helian Beiming said word by word: "From today, he is no longer the prince of Yancheng, and you are not the prince's concubine, you are from Qinghe Town, your name is Yan Wan, his name is Jiang Chao, and now... it's Helian towards."

Even the identities were fabricated, and it seems that they do not intend to hand them over.

Yu Wan breathed a sigh of relief, but at the same time she couldn't help but wonder: "Is no one suspecting that Yan Jiuchao is fake? I mean, your brother has been buried, how could he have a son?"

Helian Beiming looked at the old lady in the yard who was smiling so hard that he couldn't see his eyes and said, "I buried my brother with my own hands. Only my father and I knew about it. My brother is dead, and some people believe that my brother is just missing, and I have brought back a lot of people who recognize my relatives over the years, so your appearance is not abrupt."

So Yu Wan was relieved. With the identity of Helian's family as a cover, no one doubted that they came to find medicine.

Of course, the purpose of this trip is not only to have a simple medicine introduction, but also to check the truth of Nanzhao's concubine.

The story of the old lady's retrieving her grandson spread in the mansion that night. The official statement was this: the second master fell off the cliff and was picked up by a passing hunter. The child was seriously injured, and the hunter sent the child to him. In the medical center, I happened to meet a kind-hearted couple. The couple had no children. They paid for the treatment of the second master and adopted him.

The couple are from Qinghe Town. The second master grew up in Qinghe Town. He married his wife more than 20 years ago and had a son with him. The name was Jiang Chao. Jiang Chao was the only son of the second master. Died of illness.

If it wasn't for Helian Beiming's trip to Xicheng this time, he happened to meet the hunter of that year, and listened to him in the restaurant talking about the past of picking up a child in the valley back then, Helian Beiming would have missed his little nephew.

As for why the second master and his wife have passed away, a fake grandson is hard enough to find, so where can I get a fake second master? In case of self-defeating, the old lady sees through the fake second master, and even sees that Yan Jiuchao is a fake, they will all fall short.

The Helian Mansion is divided into the East Mansion and the West Mansion. The East Mansion lives in the room of the eldest grandfather. The old lady and Helian Beiming live in the old mansion after the eldest grandfather passed away. , Although they built their own mansions after they got married, they were next to each other, and strictly speaking, they were still a family.

Helianqi belonged to the West House.

The group was arranged in Qixia Garden, which was closest to the old lady. This yard was originally built for the second master. After so many years, we finally got its owner, even though it was a fake.

The old lady was reluctant to Yan Jiuchao, and she had to keep him by her side no matter what, so Yan Jiuchao's luggage was moved to the old lady's yard.

Old Cui Tou, as his personal doctor, also moved in together.

Yu Wan stayed in Qixia Garden. Qixia Garden is all her own and it is convenient to do things.

"Perilla and Poria, go outside and guard."

"Yes."

Two maids, one standing at the door of the house and the other standing in the yard, were alert to the movement around them.

Yu Wan talked to Jiang Hai and Awei's family about business affairs, one was about Yaoyin, and the other was about how to better avoid Helianqi's family: "...such a big thing happened in the East House, the West House's People will come to the door to ask for news, Yan Jiuchao and I have both shown our faces at King Cheng's banquet, and I don't know if Helianqi's subordinates will recognize it."

Qingyan said: "Don't worry about it, I just inquired about it. Helianqi died in Dazhou, and all his subordinates were angered. They died, and the distribution was distributed. No one stayed in the imperial capital."

Yu Wan nodded: "That's very good. There is another thing, I heard... Helian Beiming has no children, and the Helian family's family business was originally to be inherited by the second room, but now Helian Qi is dead. , but he still has a son, so if we came out of nowhere, wouldn't we be a target for the second room?"

"Helian Beiming originally had a son." The old man said suddenly.

"Huh?" Everyone's eyes fell on his face invariably.

His old monk said generally: "It was just because of a crime that he was kicked out of the house. Mrs. Helian couldn't stand the blow, and she became a nun in a fit of anger. Helian Beiming became a loner."

Yu Wan suddenly realized: "So there is such an inside story..."

Perhaps because of Dad and Xiao Zhenting, Yu Wan always took care of the men on the battlefield. Thinking that the man who had been in the army for half his life ended up with crippled legs, lost his martial arts, and had a bleak evening scene, he couldn't help but take his place. Heartbroken.

Wife and children are all there, but they are not.

"Then grandma, do you know that Young Master Helian was kicked out of the house because of what he did? The old lady loves her grandson so much, will she allow her grandson to suffer this kind of grievance?" Yu Wan asked.

The old man said: "It is said that the old lady ordered him to be expelled."

Everyone was dumbfounded.

With the old lady's affectionate temperament, she really can't see that she would do such inhumane things to her grandson. Could it be that she is insane? But her madness is good and bad, and when she recovers, she will be able to bring her grandson back.

The old man said without anger and arrogance: "What exactly was committed, there are many rumors in the outside world, some say that it collided with the old lady, and some said that it was a naughty nature and caused people to die, no matter what, this is not something we should worry about. It is up to the Helian family to decide who is the heir of the Lian family, our purpose is to lead the medicine, and we will leave Nanzhao when the medicine is introduced."

Leaving Nanzhao...

Easy to say, is the old lady willing to accept Yan Jiuchao?

It seems too early to worry about this now, because no one can tell if the old lady is ill before she recognizes Yan Jiuchao as her grandson. Maybe one day her old man wakes up and shoves them all out of the house.

So grandma's words are right, they have to find the medicine as soon as possible.

On this side, Yu Wan, Jiang Hai, and Qingyan went to the Juxian Building in the mouth of the grandmother to inquire about the whereabouts of Yaoyin, and on the other side, Xifu also received news that a group of people came to recognize their relatives.

In the flower hall of the West Mansion, the second old man, who was still in good spirits despite his age, sat on the throne. Below him were Helianqi's wife, Mrs. Li, and several stewards of the West Mansion.

"Father." Mrs. Li said with a frown, "Big brother has brought back another person who recognizes his relatives from the East Mansion. This time, it's not a son, but a grandson! He even let the old lady recognize him! You said that person is real. Yes, or is the old lady sick again?"

"What do you want to say?" the second old man said in a deep voice.

Mrs. Li pouted and said, "Before the corpse of Xianggong was cold, Dongfu recognized a grandson of a direct relative. How can there be such a coincidence in the world? Isn't this obvious?"

"It's obvious!"

The second grandfather warned her not to talk nonsense, but Mrs. Li didn't hear the warning, and pretended that her father-in-law was really asking her, and said what she was thinking: "Don't let us inherit the family business!"

"Shut up!" The second old man stopped Li.

Mrs. Li is Helianqi's first-wife. She has a good appearance and background, but unfortunately she has no brains. Otherwise, she would not be able to look down on her husband, causing Helianqi to cause a lot of ridiculous debts outside.

Helianqi's sudden death in Dazhou was known before and after, and he could almost guess who died in the hands, but he couldn't justice for his son in an open and honest way, because his son's death was not wrong.

As the saying goes, marrying a wife should be a virtuous one. In the eyes of the second grandfather, the son did not have a calm and dignified main room like the daughter-in-law of the Dongfu, so he became more and more restrained after marriage. wrong.

Chapter 329 [V185] Loving Sun Kuangmo (2)

Mrs. Lee didn't do well in front of her father-in-law, so she resigned unwillingly.

As soon as he came out of the flower hall, Mrs. Li elongated her face.

She understood that her father-in-law didn't like her, and he always thought that she didn't control Helian Qi, but her father-in-law didn't think about it either. Even if he was his father, he couldn't control him. How could she be just a wife? Helianqi's romantic debts can't be counted for three days and three nights. Isn't she the most wronged?

How many illegitimate children has he produced outside these years?

He died when he died. Anyway, she began to be a widow many years ago. She has a son and a daughter, so she doesn't have to worry about it in the rest of her life. Isn't it the same for Xianggong? Not yet at ease!

Mrs Li thought so in her heart, but she didn't dare to show the slightest on her face, otherwise her father-in-law would see that she was gloating and eating her good fruit again.

"Madam, are you going back to the yard?" asked Mama Wang who was beside her.

Mrs Li paused: "No, go to Dongfu."

Wang's mother asked: "It's getting late, what is Madam going to do in Dongfu?"

Li snorted: "A young master has come out of thin air, I can't go to check if it's true or not!"

"..." Mother Wang couldn't persuade her, so she had to let her go.

Mrs. Li was not too rude, so she asked Wang's mother to prepare ginseng bird's nest and send it to the young master in Dongfu in person. At this moment, the old lady just finished feeding the baby's heart with dinner. Literally, the old lady took it seriously. Holding the bowl, spoon by spoon to feed Yan Jiuchao.

Yan Jiuchao's face turned black.

The old lady watched the baby eat it carefully, one bite at a time, not to mention how happy she was.

"Old lady, it's time to drink the medicine." The maid brought the old lady's medicine bowl.

The old lady frowned and said displeasely: "What to drink? My grandson is back, and I am cured! I don't need to drink medicine!"

The maids persuaded for a long time to no avail, so they had to take the medicine down.

Not long after, Old Cuitou also brought a bowl of medicine, which belonged to Yan Jiuchao.

Yan Jiuchao's poisoning was naturally concealed from the old lady. She only told her that she had a weak disease in her mother's womb, and she needed to be carefully adjusted on weekdays, and she was not sloppy at all.

Yan Jiuchao's stomach was so stretched that he couldn't drink it.

The old lady thought he was too bitter and didn't want to drink it, so someone brought her own medicine: "Grandma accompanies you to drink it."

...I don't know who is with whom.

In short, the old and the young have all finished their medicines, and then they can hear the report: The second lady is here.

Yan Jiuchao's eyes paused.

The old lady patted his hand and said kindly, "Don't be afraid, it's your second aunt."

It was the second aunt who had to be "feared", after all, the other party was Helianqi's first wife.

Because of the old lady's love for Yan Jiuchao, Yan Jiuchao could easily dismiss the other party, but he couldn't hide for a while. These "relatives" in Helian's house would eventually be seen.

The old lady asked her servants to call Mrs. Li in.

Nanzhao was still a little hot in September, and the grandparents and grandsons sat under the porch to enjoy the shade.

Mrs. Li saw the old lady's precious grandson in the mouth of the next person at a glance. The other party was wearing a plain white robe, with a long body, black hair like ink, and facial features like jade. I don't know if it was because of the illness, and his face was a little cold. Bai, his left hand was tucked into his wide sleeve, and his right hand was holding a white jade cup. The slender fingertips were icy clear, which complemented his appearance, and he held an immortal-like appearance.

If she said that this was a liar who came to fool the old lady, she would not believe it.

This unique appearance in the sky and the earth is not something that ordinary people can give birth to, and the nobleness that radiates from the femur is three points more noble than his own son, and he looks like... a royal family.

Li spit, she must be crazy, how could the other party be the royal family?

However, this kid is different from anyone who has recognized his relatives in the past. Could it be that the grandson of the old lady's direct relative is back?

"Come here." The old lady waved to Mrs. Li.

Only then did Mrs. Li realize that the old lady was smiling like a child. She had never seen the old lady smile like this before. If it wasn't for a real grandson, how could it be possible to achieve such a virtue?

Mr. Li couldn't help but look at Yan Jiuchao again.

Having glanced at him from a distance before, he was already shocked. Now that he is close, he only thinks that this man is so good-looking and unreasonable.

Judging from his appearance alone, he doesn't look like a member of the Helian family; but if he wasn't from the Helian family, how could he be born so good-looking?

Mrs. Li asked Yan Jiuchao a few non-painful questions, where did he live, how did he come from, who are his relatives, and the servants in the yard answered them one by one, which was exactly the same as Helian Beiming's remarks. , As for Yan Jiuchao herself, she didn't even give her a straight eye.

Mr. Li is in a hurry, this kid is too arrogant!

"Oh, don't keep talking to my good grandson!" The old lady was unhappy, she didn't say enough, why is this niece-in-law so lacking in eyesight, I didn't see her face already written you hurry up and don't disturb Me and my good grandson?

Mrs. Li wanted to ask more questions, so the old lady was blown away.

The old lady Jiang Chen was a little impatient and asked: "What's the matter?"

Yan Jiuchao hummed, "I don't like her staring at me all the time."

The old lady said without thinking, "The grandmother doesn't like it either! We won't see her in the future!"

Lee's plan to find another opportunity to find out the truth and the fake was just strangled in the cradle.

"Mother Wang." Mrs. Li was on the way back to the West Mansion, constantly thinking about the appearance of Yan Jiuchao in her mind.

"What's the matter, ma'am?" asked Mama Wang.

"Do you think that child looks familiar, as if he's seen it somewhere?" The more Li Shi thought about it, the more so, especially those eyes.

How dare Mama Wang look directly at her master's face? He only said: "It's the Helian family, no wonder Madam feels familiar."

"Really?" Li Shi felt that those were not the eyes of Helian's family, but whose eyes were they? Li can't remember.

...

On the busy street, a carriage stopped in front of a lively pavilion. On the golden plaque, there were three big characters written in flying and phoenix - Juxian Building.

Yu Wan lifted the curtain of the car and looked at it: "This is where Grandma asked us to come?"

"Yes." Qingyan jumped out of the carriage and reached out to help Yu Wan.

Jiang Hai coldly avoided his hand and handed over his arm.

Yu Wan didn't care about Jiang Hai's small movements, but she didn't go to support his arm. At this height, she easily jumped down.

Qingyan snorted with amusement.

Jiang Hai ignored him, silently withdrew his hand, and handed the carriage to the doorman of Juxian Tower.

In order to travel conveniently, Yu Wan changed into men's clothes and shook a folding fan in her hand, just like a handsome young man.

Helian Beiming changed her name, so she was Young Master Yan.

She swaggered into the Juxian Building.

There is a little Er who greeted him with a smile: "The three young masters are looking at their faces, but the first time you come back to Juxian Building?"

Yu Wan lowered her voice and said, "Yeah, this is the first time, but I'm not here to eat, I'm here to ask you for news."

"Inquire about news?" Little Er was taken aback.

Yu Wan shook her folding fan and said, "I heard that you can buy news here, right or not?"

Xiao Er smiled and said, "Yes, we have a lot of guests going from south to north, and we are well informed. You don't need to spend money to buy it. As long as we know it, we will tell when the guests ask."

It turned out to be like this, so this store is too good at doing business, right? But thinking about it, there is no loss, but a few exchanges of information can make people willing to buy a table of expensive wine and vegetables, but they still earn.

Xiao Er smiled and said, "A few guest officers are sitting in the lobby or going upstairs to the wing."

Yu Wan said, "The wing room."

We have mines at home, so money is not bad!

Little Er led the three upstairs. The business of Juxian Building was booming. Only the last wing was left. The minimum consumption was fifty taels.

Several people entered the house.

Yu Wan said to Xiao Er, "If you have any good wines and dishes, just bring them up."

Little Er nodded like garlic: "Yes! Yes! Little one will go!"

Guests who do not bargain are rare these days!

Xiao Er went to the ground.

After a while, a large table of delicious food and wine was presented one after another. It has to be said that it is not unreasonable for the consumption of Juxianlou to be so high.

The three people who originally had no intention of drinking alcohol, were stunned to eat their stomachs.

Looking at a large table of plates, Yu Wan finally did not forget the business of the night, she called the young second, and asked him: "I heard that the imperial capital sells Lingzhi, and one of them has a flavor of Fire Lingzhi, I don't know if it is True or false."

"Huo Lingzhi..." Little Er had an embarrassed look on his face.

Yu Wan threw him a piece of silver.

Xiao Er's eyes rolled.

Yu Wan threw him another ingot of gold, and the younger brother took the gold and silver into his arms and said to Yu Wan, "We have to ask our shopkeeper about this, Young Master wait a moment, I'll call the shopkeeper right now!"

The shopkeeper came quickly, and bowed his hands to the people in the room.

"It's alright, it's alright, the virtual ceremony will be avoided." Yu Wan tapped the table with the folding fan, "I'm here to ask about Huo Lingzhi."

The shopkeeper stroked his beard and said thoughtfully, "Huo Lingzhi has been sold."

Yu Wan frowned: "What does it mean to sell?"

The shopkeeper said: "Oh, originally, Fire Lingzhi was the treasure of Chunhui Hall, and then a rich boy bought it and gave it to Dong Xian'er, the florist on the first floor. If you want this Fire Lingzhi, I'm afraid that Go to the meeting with Miss Dong."

"Where is the first floor?" Yu Wan asked Qingyan next to her in a low voice.

Qingyan Road: "The brothel."

Yu Wan: "..."

The first floor is not only a brothel, but also the most famous brothel in the imperial capital. It is carved with beams and painted buildings, like a fairy palace. As for Dong Xianer, the shopkeeper's mouth is the most unreachable oiran since the first floor opened.

She has won the top of the Oiran Competition for three consecutive years, and is worthy of the title of the first beauty in the imperial capital.

It's just that she is so beautiful, and her temper is notoriously bad. If she wants to steal something from her, she is afraid that she will not be able to do it. If she is tough, each of her four masters is in her own hands. The golden-faced dead man.

After listening to the shopkeeper's popular science, Yu Wan sighed in her heart, is this the rhythm forcing her to enter the kiln again?

Chapter 330 [V186] Mighty Little Fat Boy

Yu Wan asked the shopkeeper about the time and rules for the oiran to pick up customers.

The shopkeeper said, "Miss Dong picks up guests once a month on the first and fifteenth day of the lunar month, and only one young master is honored to be her guest at a time."

Yu Wan touched her chin: "Today is neither the first day of the new year nor the fifteenth day, what should I do?"

The shopkeeper smiled and said, "Young master can wait."

Yu Wan shook her head: "Can't wait."

One more day delay, Yan Jiuchao will have more risk of poisoning, and they will also have more risk that their identity will be seen through.

"This..." The shopkeeper paused, showing hesitation.

Yu Wan gave him a piece of gold.

The shopkeeper shied away and said, "Young Master has rewarded enough, it would be unconscionable to take it for the younger ones. I hesitated just now because that method was too difficult."

"What method?" Yu Wan asked.

The shopkeeper pondered, "This girl Dong admires Gu Masters very much. If any of you are powerful Gu Masters, you can go directly to meet Girl Dong."

There are doctors, killers, and priests among them, but there is no Gu Master.

Yu Wan sighed: "It seems that you can only wait fifteen?"

Qingyan: For the Nth time, I regret leaving Awei in the village...

The reason why A Wei was left at the beginning was because this kid was always holding his back, and they didn't expect such a severe thing to happen to Lu Yin. It was clear that the road was going smoothly... So the experience of this thing is sometimes uncountable. .

Jiang Hai persuaded: "Forget it, at least I found out the whereabouts of Huo Lingzhi, seven days later it will be fifteen, then go see Miss Dong, I hope no other Gu Master will take Huo Lingzhi from her before that. ."

This is the only way to do it now, or they use this time to find a powerful Gu Master, but they are new to the imperial capital, and they are not familiar with life. Where can they find a reliable Gu Master?

While Yu Wan was worried about Gu Master and Huo Lingzhi, she didn't know that A Wei and her three little fat boys were also embarking on a journey to Nanzhao.

Awei only found the three little black eggs hiding in the carriage after rushing for two days. Awei was worried that the little black eggs would find out that he was gone, and arguing for his family to catch up, so he went crazy all the way. He seemed to be in a hurry, day and night, and even his vigilance was not as high as before.

It was easy for him to get off the car, and so did the three little black eggs, and they got back to the carriage earlier than he did.

He eats, and the little black eggs also eat in it.

吭哧吭哧, 吭哧吭哧.

Hmm...I always feel like there are little mice.

Until the third day, Xiaobao ate a lot of dried sweet potatoes, let out a small fart, and blew a thunderbolt, so frightened that Awei, who was driving the carriage, almost fell from the carriage!

The three little black eggs were picked up by the master.

Three pairs of big eyes stared at him with a cute expression.

Awei: "..."

Awei: "!!!"

Awei is about to collapse!

The little stinky fart that I finally got rid of, how did it keep up with me again? !

Awei died on the spot for three seconds!

He rushes too hard, he has already left Lotus Town far behind, and it is impossible to send the three little black eggs back. After all, the smell left in the air is time-effective. I'm afraid that the insects can't sense the breath of the grandma and the others.

The idiot Awei himself can't go home.

Awei had to bring three little black eggs with him.

They traveled during the day and rested at night. Since most of them stayed in the carriage, the three little black eggs were nothing, but Awei suffered.

The painting style of the first villain of the ghost clan now looks like this:

Awei, I'm hungry!

Awei, itchy back!

Awei, take a bath!

Awei, wipe your ass!

...to drink grandma!

... Be sleepy!

I want... I'm dying to...

The group finally went out of Da Zhou, and when they arrived at Qinghe Town, the little fat boy made a circle again, but A Wei was miserably thin... thin...

It was also a coincidence that the inn they stayed in was the same black shop where Yu Wan and Yan Jiuchao and their group stayed. The black shop was looted once, and their vitality was severely damaged, but they did not die. After some repairs, they made a high-profile living again. .

Awei's carriage stopped in front of the inn, he pulled the back door of the carriage, and three little black eggs walked down with a fat white ewe.

This is a milk-producing sheep bought for them by A Wei who saved rations halfway through and spent fifty taels of silver.

It was quite thin when I bought it, and somehow the three little guys were fed as fat as they were.

One big and three small, plus a ewe, entered the inn with high spirits.

Ah Wei didn't have much money on him. It was fifty taels that the whole family earned together earlier. It was originally intended to be used for entanglement. To Awei.

The three little fat boys have a lot of appetite, and the fifty taels have already spent seventy-eighty-eight, so now A Wei is very poor, but the shopkeeper doesn't think so, sitting in such a good carriage, it looks like a big family came out, Fat sheep, big fat sheep!

The shopkeeper exchanged glances with a few juniors, who laughed wickedly.

After Ah Wei and the three little fat boys went upstairs, the shopkeeper immediately went to the firewood house in the backyard to discuss the plan with the little two and the thugs.

"That young man looks like he has martial arts."

"What are you afraid of? We have sweat medicine!"

"Are you stupid? Can Menghan medicine do anything? When I met those masters last time, people were caught before Menghan medicine was used!"

Referring to the painful lesson last time, several people still have lingering fears.

The firewood room was silent for a moment.

A thug opened his mouth: "What do you say about the shopkeeper?"

The shopkeeper said: "I have sweat medicine."

Everyone despised the face: Isn't that still medicine? !

The shopkeeper said: "However, we don't have to wait until midnight. They have to have dinner. If they put the medicine into the meal, forgive him and he won't notice."

When everyone thought about it, it was a good idea, so let's do it!

The people who made up their minds were busy preparing, but when they turned around, they saw three little black eggs standing there with cute faces. This is more terrifying than seeing adults, Nima, where are the little black devils? ! A few people almost screamed goose!

I remembered, it wasn't a ghost, it was the little sheep they planned to slaughter.

"The shopkeeper, what should I do if they hear it?" a junior asked.

"Get rid of it." Another junior said.

"Wait." The shopkeeper gave a stop gesture, walked towards the little guys suspiciously, bent down and asked, "What did we just say, did you hear it?"

The three little guys looked at him cutely.

The shopkeeper said again: "Look to the right, there is candy to eat."

The three of them still looked at him cutely.

"He, are they fools?" the first little boy asked.

The shopkeeper snorted coldly, "Have they ever talked since entering the inn?"

Little Er and the thugs shook their heads.

The shopkeeper smiled proudly: "I'm afraid it's deaf and dumb."

The shopkeeper said a few more words, but the little guy didn't respond at all. Now, everyone was convinced. Just when a few people stopped thinking about silence on the spot, a machete fell out of a thug's sleeve.

Everyone looked at the three little black eggs!

I saw the three little black eggs stretched out their hands in unison, their eyes were dull, and they walked back blindly.

People: "..."

Uh...not only deaf, but also blind?

The three "little blind men" stretched out their hands to touch the road and slowly went upstairs.

"It's alright, alright, don't look at it! Hurry up and prepare!" The shopkeeper told everyone to disperse, and he himself went to the kitchen to put medicine in the meals sent to A Wei's house.

As soon as he left, three chubby little fat boys walked in, and exchanged A Wei's rice with that of the shopkeeper and others.

That night, the shopkeeper and others who had great ambitions to make a big vote fell into a drowsy state.

The little black eggs opened the drawer, stood on tiptoe and took out all the banknotes and money!

The inn was looted again...

It is easy to come to Qinghe Town, but it is not so easy to enter Xicheng.

Awei didn't know where to go to lead the way. After all, when he went to Dazhou with his grandmother, everything was done by Qingyan and the others. He just followed obediently, but his Gu worm tracked the breath of several people and arrived Dragon Gate Escort.

The deputy dart head asked him: "This little brother, do you want to be a dart or a dart?"

Awei said: "I want to enter the city."

"Enter the city, go out and head south."

"I have no way to lead, and also, where is the south?"

Deputy dart head: "..."

The deputy dart head settled down: "So, you are here to take darts. Unfortunately, there is no Gu Master to enter the city today, you can come back tomorrow."

"I am the Gu Master." Awei said.

The deputy dart was stunned for a moment, no wonder he was stunned, it is true that the Gu Masters are always in Nanzhao.

But the deputy dart head traveled south and north, eating more salt than ordinary people eat rice, he understands the truth that people can't look good, although he doesn't look like a Gu Master, what if he is? I can't offend the Gu Master.

"Do you have a Gu Master's jade card?"

Awei shook his head.

"Since you don't have a jade card, how dare you pretend to be a Gu Master?"

"I am the Gu Master, the most powerful story in our clan."

The deputy dart head made this kid laugh at his ignorant words. He didn't even have a jade card, so what about the most powerful Gu Master in the clan? They probably don't have a second Gu Master in their clan.

The deputy dart smiled and said, "You are a disciple, so, there is a Gu Master's guild nearby, I will lead you to the test, if you pass, you will be given the Gu Master's jade card on the spot. With the jade card, You can enter the city."

The jade card is also a guide, but it is a high-level guide, and only Gu Masters are qualified to obtain it.

"Wait." A Wei couldn't keep the three little apprentices here, so he went to the carriage and took the three little guys down.

When he saw the three cute little fat boys, the deputy dart head was stunned for a moment. Three or three triplets are really rare, and they are so beautiful.

How could they follow a...

The assistant dart's puzzled gaze swept around A Wei several times: "They are..."

"My apprentice." Awei said.

You are a half-assed person, and you actually put away your apprentice?

It wasn't that the three of them were sticky all the way, Awei, and the assistant dart almost suspected that he had kidnapped such a beautiful child.

The deputy dart took A Wei to the Gu Master Guild.

The assistant dart only took him away because of Gu Dao's enthusiasm, but he didn't think A Wei was really a Gu Master. Even if he had learned from others twice, the jade card was not so easy to obtain. This is similar to Zhongyuan. Just like the human science examination, it is one in ten thousand, which is even more difficult.

Awei went in with three little fat boys.

They came out fast.

The deputy dart shook his head, knowing that there was no drama.

Gu Masters are not a bad guy, how could he be able to successfully become a Gu Master if he ran into a kid at random?

"Sir, please walk slowly, please accept our sincerity."

"No, no, no money, you are a great Gu Master and can enjoy the bounty from our guild. This is the amount of the bounty, please take a look."

"Also, please wait a moment, the robe will be changed for you later."

Isn't it? How many people came to get jade cards today? A great Gu Master appeared?

In Nanzhao, if a Gu Master is an existence that ordinary people admire, then a great Gu Master is an existence that people look up to. It is like a Gu Master is a talented person, and a great Gu Master is a master, and his status is no small matter.

The deputy dart head wanted to see who that great Gu Master was, and if he had a chance to get to know one or two, he was surprised when he took a closer look!

This, this, this is not the poor boy who just lost a layer of skin from the sun?

Is he a Great Gu Master? !

"We only have the jade card of the Great Gu Master here, but I believe that with the ability of Lord Awei, there will definitely be better breakthroughs. I will wait for the good news of Lord Awei." The once defiant guild president, The attitude is as pious as a grandson!

The deputy dart was stunned.

Even more stunned is still to come.

A few little fat boys also came out with their heads held high, and they also got their own jade cards!

In the guild, Gu Masters are not uncommon, there are a lot of them in one catch, but the youngest is seventeen or eighteen years old, only two years old, the future is simply limitless!

The guild leader turned his head and looked at the three little fat boys with a smile: "Little Gu Master, your robes are already being made, and they will be delivered soon."

The three little fat boys raised their chins and nodded proudly!

After half an hour, the Gu Master's robe, which represented his identity, was changed.

Awei and the three little fat boys all put on their own robes and cloaks, looking very cool!

The guild leader said flatteringly, "Lord Little Gu Master, where are you going, we can send someone to * you."

The three little Gu Masters threw out a sign with the words written on it - Imperial Capital!
