Chapter 341 [V197] Competing for Medicine Lead (1)

The cooked duck flew away.

Yu Wan left Dong Xian'er's house.

The little princess snorted triumphantly.

Dong Xian'er said indifferently: "You also go out."

The little county master choked.

Before he could react, Dong Xian'er also banged out.

The door slammed shut!

"You... hum!" The little princess stomped her feet in anger, but she managed to divert her attention after a few steps. She caught up with Yu Wan and raised her eyebrows, "So, you are also here to ask for the red ganoderma lucidum. , what? It took so much effort to become Dong Xian'er's guest of honor, but didn't the bamboo basket draw water in the end?"

Yu Wan said lightly: "You seem to have forgotten that the hydrangea fell into my hands out of thin air. What did I think? Did I reject your thoughts?"

The little princess was too choked to speak again.

Don't others know about her? This hydrangea was snatched away by her guards, but in the end, nothing was caught, and it was delivered to this woman by accident.

But, let this woman be so rebellious!

The little princess glared at Yu Wan angrily: "Don't be too arrogant! The red ganoderma will be mine sooner or later! Don't even think about it!"

Yu Wan didn't lift her eyelids: "Really? Then I'll congratulate you on getting Red Lingzhi first."

More, more angry!

How can this person not even quarrel? The little princess felt that every fist of her own was hitting the cotton, and she was about to be mad at herself!

When Yu Wan saw that she was unhappy, she was happy.

Yu Wan went downstairs without looking back.

Jiang Hai and others had already ended the battle and were waiting in their seats. Even though Dong Xian'er was gone, the beauties on the first floor were still emerging one after another. There were wonderful songs and dances on the stage. But he fell asleep on the table bored.

Yu Wan: She only likes to * cats and only likes to watch fights with her cubs...

Yu Wan hugged Yan Jiuchao.

"I'll come." Jiang Hai said.

"No, my husband will hug him." Yu Wan said, and under the stunned gaze of a group of people, she carried the sleeping Yan Jiuchao into the carriage.

Jiang Hai and others also left the first floor.

Yu Wan always had doubts about the little girl recognizing that she was a woman. She asked herself that apart from not being tall enough, she didn't look like a man in any other way, and she was not too short at 1.7 meters. , Could it be that the girl has the ability to penetrate walls and saw her wrapping her * in the firewood house?

"I always feel that something is wrong." Yu Wanzheng wondered, and as soon as he opened the curtains, he saw He Lianyu came out with his brother, who had fallen with gold stars, and Yu Wan's eyes moved and got off the carriage.

"Ouch!"

In a pitch-black alley, He Lianyu and He Liancheng were unceremoniously thrown to the cold ground by Yuehook and Qingyan.

"Who are you? Dare to touch us?" Helian Cheng was furious.

Yu Wan walked out from behind the two of them and looked down at the two of them: "It's you who are moving, what's wrong?"

The eyes of the two fell on Yu Wan's face, their bodies stiffened, and they said in unison, "It's you?"

"It's me." Yu Wan said.

The two brothers climbed up with fearful expressions on their faces, looking at her fiercely and fearfully.

He Liancheng just made Yu Wan fall, and now he sees her calf and still trembles a little, He Lianyu said, "What do you want to do?"

Yu Wan asked indifferently, "Can you tell the third person about who you recognize me?"

He Lianyu's eyes flashed: "No."

Moon hook raises his hand and it is a fist!

He Lianyu was so frightened that he squatted down with his head in his arms: "I said! I told the little princess!"

"Second brother!" He Liancheng suddenly changed color.

He Lianyu also understands that he shouldn't say that if the uncle finds out that they are visiting the brothel, he will definitely not spare them, and going to the brothel with the little county master in private is simply a crime plus one, but he is afraid, just that guy's fist As if with murderous intent, for a moment, he felt like his head was about to explode.

He guessed right, the moon hook was the plan.

"Which little princess?" Yu Wan asked.

"Female... the little princess of the female prince's mansion." He Lianyu whispered.

This time, it was Yu Wan's turn to be surprised. The little girl she casually ran into in the brothel turned out to be her potential nemesis with Yan Jiuchao. The consort could be the King of Yan, then this girl could be the concubine of Yan Jiuchao. Sister, since ancient times, the descendants have been at odds with each other, what is it if they are not rivals?

Of course, if the consort is not the King of Yan, everything is another matter.

Wait, King Yan? Consort?

Since that girl is the daughter of the concubine, isn't the man who sent her to the brothel the concubine himself?

"I'll pick you up at the latest Hai Shi."

The man's words flashed in his mind, Yu Wan's eyes lightened, and she asked Qingyan who was beside her, "What time is it now?"

Qingyan said: "It's almost time for Hai."

That is before Hai Shi... Yu Wan left these two guys behind and strode to the first floor.

"Hey! Awan! Where are you going?" Qingyan didn't stop her.

Yu Wan hoped that she could make it in time. She passed through the lobby, walked through the backyard, and opened the back door of the first floor. However, she was still a step late. On the silent street, there was only a carriage that disappeared at the corner.

It seems that he was waiting at the back door early in the morning. The time limit he gave the little county master was Hai Shi. If she did not come out at Hai Shi, he would find her out in person, but she came out early, and they went home early. .

It's a father's kindness and a son's filial piety...

is so good to an adopted daughter, have you ever thought about Yan Jiuchao?

He became a half-orphan at the age of eight. In order to wait for your father, he has lived alone in Yancheng for so many years, but you have a son on the left and a daughter on the right...

Yu Wan felt bad for her husband.

But soon, Yu Wan told herself that everything was just their guesses. There was no evidence that the prince-in-law was the King of Yan. Maybe they all guessed wrong.

On the carriage back, Yu Wan took the sleeping Yan Jiuchao into her arms. He breathed her breath and slept soundly.

Yu Wan unpacks...

Yan Jiuchao suddenly woke up, opened his eyes and saw Yu Wan's movements, his little brows were wrinkled: "Yu Awan, what are you doing!..."

Yu Wan: "...Oh."

I'm sorry, but suddenly there is a bit of maternity.

...

Back at the young master's mansion, Yan Jiuchao went to the room to rest, he fell asleep next to the pillow, the old lady walked over with a smile, guarding the baby grandson, and Yu Wan brought a dozen strings bought halfway. Tang Hulu, went to the yard next door and knocked on Helian Beiming's door.

"Who?"

"Uncle, it's me."

"Squeak!" The little snow fox on Helian Beiming's leg began to flutter out with his claws.

Helian Beiming held it down and said "come in".

Yu Wan pushed in the door and handed over a dozen strings of bright candied haws to Helian Beiming: "Uncle, here it is."

"Squeak!" Xiaoxuehu's eyes were stared straight!

Helian Beiming didn't let Xiaoxuehu go straight this time, he said to Yu Wan, "You can eat it yourself."

Xiaoxuehu instantly turned his back and went to play with his little tail, ignoring him.

Helian Beiming poked it with his finger.

Xuehu shook his fingers dejectedly and moved forward.

He poked again.

Little Snow Fox moved again.

Moved to the end and almost fell off his knees. Helian Beiming finally determined that it was angry with him. He reluctantly took a bunch of candied haws and handed it to Xiao Xuehu.

Xiaoxuehu remained cold and did not move.

A good baby has dignity.

Be more handsome than three seconds!

Three seconds later, Xiaoxuehu grabbed the candied haws and gnawed it without any image!

Helian Beiming glanced at the dozen or so strings of candied gourds on the plate and said, "There is nothing to be courteous to, either a traitor or a thief."

Yu Wan said, "Don't be so ugly, Uncle..."

Helian Beiming looked at her for a moment.

The God of War is worthy of being a God of War, even his eyes are lethal, Yu Wan disarmed and surrendered: "...There is indeed something to ask for, we have found the whereabouts of Chi Lingzhi, but the other party needs us to introduce a great Gu Master for her, I want to ask Does the uncle know a great Gu Master?"

"What does she need the Gu Master to do for her?" Helian Beiming asked.

Yu Wan shook her head and said, "She didn't say that, I think she must be asking the Great Gu Master."

Helian Beiming said in a cold voice, "You are not afraid that she is looking for a great Gu Master to do something that hurts the world for her."

Yu Wan looked straight into his eyes: "My husband's life is about to die, what does the general think I'm afraid of? What if he let me kill and set fire and fall into the endless hell? As long as I can save him, what do I have? dare not do it?"

"You." Helian Beiming gave her a deep look, lowered his head and stroked the little Xuehu who was nibbling on the candied fruit. Little Xuehu, seeing the candied fruit, was so obedient that he let him slap his hair.

He said: "It's okay to see her, but if she asks too much, she may not be able to agree."

Yu Wan was overjoyed: "Uncle is willing to help us?"

He Lianbei said calmly: "It's not to help you, it's better to keep everything under my control, rather than letting you search for it by yourself."

Yu Wan smiled knowingly: "Thank you uncle!"

...

Yu Wan left the yard with a smile, and Helian Beiming called Yu Gang: "Go and find out what happened."

"Yes." Yu Gang hurried away.

After a while, they reported to Helian Beiming the fact that several people had visited the first floor. It was not difficult to find out. First, they had their own eye lines; second, Yu Wan and Yan Jiuchao did not. Deliberately hide from Helian Beiming.

"The young lady didn't lie, she really went to beg Chi Lingzhi."

"The two young masters from the West Mansion also went, and the little county master was also there, and the little county master also went to Chi Lingzhi."

"The two of them quarreled over a Ganoderma lucidum plant and made a three-day appointment."

"Master, let's get involved in this matter, but we will be at odds with the little county master."

Helian Beiming helped his forehead helplessly, what trouble did he bring to the house?

Chapter 342 [V198] Competing for Medicine Lead (2)

Yu Wan returned to the old lady's yard. The old lady fell asleep with her good grandson leaning on the bedpost. Her thin old hand held Yan Jiuchao's slender jade-like hand. Unbearable to disturb.

Yu Wan thought, Yan Jiuchao was an * on the outside, but his heart was purer than anyone else. He knew whoever treated him well, even a little bit of it, he wanted to report it tenfold and a hundredfold. It only happens when it hurts, and it's normal to feel that others treat him badly.

Yu Wan thought of Shangguanyan and Xiao Zhenting, and also thought of Uncle Wan.

Because of an insult to Shangguan Yan, he killed Helianqi.

He has been lukewarm to Xiao Zhenting over the years, except that he cannot accept another man to replace his father in his heart, who can say that he is not protecting Xiao Zhenting in disguise? The emperor is so afraid of him, Yan Jiuchao is really close to him, can he still have a good life?

As for Uncle Wan, the man who brought Yan Jiuchao up through hardships and hardships violated his taboo in the case of Su Yan. He would not use him again, but he did not abandon him. He sent him back to Yancheng for retirement.

He has his coldness and his softness.

Yu Wan walked over and planned to take the old lady back to the house, but as soon as she touched her, she was awakened.

"Good grandson!"

The old lady grabbed Yan Jiuchao's hand tightly.

Then she opened her eyes and saw Yu Wan's face, she breathed a sigh of relief: "It's Awan, you're back, how did you go to see your uncle just now."

Yu Wan said softly, "Very good, grandmother, you are tired, I will help you go back to your room to rest."

The old lady reluctantly looked at Yan Jiuchao on the bed, and dragged her sluggish body to tuck the quilt for him: "The weather has turned cold these two days, you should be more alert at night, don't let him kick him. Quilt."

"I will, grandmother." Yu Wan replied.

The old lady handed her arm to Yu Wan, who helped her up.

Thinking of something, Yu Wan took out the golden post from her arms and said, "Give this to my grandmother."

"Run out?" the old lady said.

"No." Not yet.

The old lady said: "Then you take it first, and grandma will give you a new one after you use it up."

"..." Yu Wan didn't know what to say. Although the grandmother and the grandmother were short and affectionate, they were fakes after all. If this old man was domineering, it would be fine, but she would treat them with all her heart. Where is she? Are you embarrassed to lose her money?

That's all, go back and give the golden post to Helian Beiming.

Yu Wan helped the old lady back to the room. The old lady was also tired and fell asleep next to the pillow.

Before going out, the old lady's personal maid stopped Yu Wan, probably because she saw that Yu Wan was favored and wanted to win her over, she flattered her two words: "...The old lady has not slept so well for a long time. , Since the young master and the young mistress entered the mansion, the old lady has eaten a lot and her spirit has improved..."

Barbara.

These words are half true and half false. The old lady is happy, it is true, but it is a little exaggerated to say that she has been reborn. Yu Wan nodded with a smile, and went back to the house after being polite with the maid.

Yan Jiuchao was awake, looking sideways in the direction of the gate, his eyes widened as big as copper bells.

Yu Wan startled his resentful big eyes: "Xiang Gong?"

"I still know how to come back." Yan Jiuchao hummed lightly, withdrew his gaze and lay flat.

I...how did I provoke you?

Yu Wan felt that something was wrong with her husband, so she stepped forward and sat down beside him: "What's the matter? Are you worried?"

Yan Jiuchao asked coldly, "Where did she touch you?"

Yu Wan is confused, he? she? Which he (she)?

This sour tone would never be the old lady's jealousy. As for the others, she didn't touch her. In a flash, Yu Wan thought of Dong Xian'er.

Could this guy care about Dong Xian'er?

They are both female!

"Women can also eat each other." Yan Jiuchao said coolly.

"..." Forgetting that he grew up in the palace and the palace, this kind of thing that ordinary people would never have thought of, he might have heard of it more than once, but how could she be eating against a strange woman? No matter how beautiful Dong Xian'er is, in her opinion, she is still inferior to her husband.

"My husband is the most beautiful, how could I possibly fall in love with her?"

"Where did I touch you?"

"I'm not good at that either!"

"arm or face?"

"...shoulders."

How terrible it is for a man to be jealous, Yu Wan quickly learned it, she never knew that a person can be rude, not domineering, and only rely on gentle skills to make her so heavenly.

She was like a dying shrimp, and even her voice was trembling: "...It's... less than ten days..."

The gentle torture makes people want to die there.

The next day, before dawn, Dong Xian'er received a delicate basket covered with red silk, and woke her up early in the morning. She thought it was a treasure inside, but when she took it over, it turned out to be two plump red eggs.

Dong Xian'er: "..."

It was a sunny and sunny morning, and the three-day period arrived as scheduled. Uncle Helian entered the mansion for the great Gu Master they had found. He was a fifty-year-old elder with a plain appearance, but he was wearing the black robe of a great Gu Master. Dressed handsomely.

Helian Bei called him Lord Yue.

With Helian Beiming's current status, if he can make him call an adult, the other party's background is definitely not small.

But then again, aren't great Gu Masters only invited by the royal family?

Yu Wan's undisguised doubts fell into Qingyan's eyes. Qingyan is from the ghost clan and has a lot of contacts with Nanzhao. In this regard, the situation is clearer than Yu Wan. , but not all the great Gu Masters have entered the royal family, and there are also many hidden masters."

Obviously, this Yue Da Gu Master was a hidden master of the original royal family. I don't know how Helian Beiming invited such a number one person. After thinking about it, he was a Nanzhao general, and he knew someone. Are Gu Masters strange?

In the Ghost Clan, Gu Masters do not have a systematic evaluation system, and their strength depends entirely on the Gu Master, so there is no such thing as a Gu Master or a great Gu Master. Qingyan feels that these things are very superficial. Once a person is admitted to a Gu Master, Just like people from the Central Plains who have been admitted to scholars, can immediately increase their worth, but in fact, many of them will make their wealth go to their heads after getting used to the stars and the moon, and they neglect to study the Gu technique.

A powerful Gu Master should live a poor life, just like A Wei.

Why do you think of that kid again?

Qingyan thinks that he is not crazy, but he thinks of that kid more and more times. He is obviously a little bastard. What do you think about it?

Here, Yu Wan met Yue Da Gu Master under the recommendation of Helian Beiming.

To be honest, Yu Wan didn't have a good impression of Gu Masters, mainly because she met two shameless and self-righteous Gu Masters on the way to the Imperial Capital. One of them killed them, and the other made Helian Beiming throw them away. It died on its own halfway through.

Those two are just Gu Masters with their nostrils pointing upwards. Could this great Gu Master, who is one level higher, be more arrogant than the two of them?

Soon, Yu Wan found that she thought too much. This senior surnamed Yue was not only unclear at all, but very kind.

So it proves the proverb - a full bucket of water doesn't sway, and half a bucket of water sway to death?

"Senior Yue." Yu Wan greeted her with a smile. She was still dressed as a man today, but when Helian Beiming introduced her, she said it was her niece, and she spoke in her own voice, "You call me Ah. Wan is fine."

Senior Yue nodded politely and called Awan.

Yan Jiuchao was entangled with the old lady, and Yu Wan felt that it was okay to not come here, lest this guy would be jealous after seeing Dong Xian'er and say something extraordinary, Yu Wan introduced the accompanying Jiang Hai and Jiang Hai to Senior Yue. Qingyan, Yuegou stayed in the mansion and waited for Yan Jiuchao's dispatch.

But Yu Wan had underestimated her husband's ability. Just as she lifted the curtain of the car, someone was already sitting firmly on the seat covered with tiger skins.

Yan Jiuchao said coldly: "Oh, you want to leave this young master again? Dreaming!"

What is another? Didn't I take you with me when I went to the first floor?

Yu Wan was wronged, whether it was an illusion or something else, her current situation is really like going to a private meeting with a junior, but the main room caught a big scumbag.

The big scumbag sat down.

The face of the main room is not good-looking.

The big scumbag decided to coax the main room!

"Look at you, didn't I do it all for you? I didn't go alone, so many people are watching, what can I do? Besides, I'm worried that you will be tired. I keep you at home because I hope you can rest well. Be good. Go to sleep, and when you wake up, I'll be back."

"Humph." Yan Jiuchao didn't listen at all, stretched out her big arms, pulled Yu Wan into her arms and started to inhale.

Yu Wan looked at the roof of the car, and seemed to be overly concerned. He followed him because he was uncomfortable.

Yu Wan let him * generously.

Yu Wan doesn't think that her breath can calm the torment in his body, everything is just a psychological effect and a spiritual support.

That's probably the power of love, she thought.

Dong Xian'er sent a maid yesterday to deliver the news-this time, Biluo Mountain Villa is waiting for you.

The destination they were going to at this time was Biluo Mountain Villa, and Jiang Hai was the one who drove the carriage for her, but Qingyan knew more about the imperial capital than Jiang Hai, so Yu Wan asked the two to change, and Jiang Hai went to catch Senior Yue's carriage.

Jiang Hai's face was ugly.

From Qingyankou, Yu Wan has a general understanding of what kind of existence Biluo Mountain Villa is. It is about the same as the summer resort in the previous life. It was originally a royal forest garden, but the royal family no longer wanted it, so a wealthy businessman bought it.

Yu Wan asked, "Is the royal garden still available for sale? Is the Nanzhao royal family very short of money?" The emperor of Dazhou would not be able to do such a thing. It is mainly humiliating to say that there is no shortage of money. There is no reason to sell it only if it is rewarded.

Qingyan smiled: "It has nothing to do with Yinzi, the Nanzhao royal family is very rich, but this is the place where Concubine Yun used to escape the summer heat when she was pregnant. Concubine Yun gave birth to a disaster star, the monarch thought this Sonoko was also stained with the bad luck of the disaster star, so he sold it."

Because it is the house where the mother and daughter of the disaster star lived, it is not suitable to give it to anyone, and it can only be sold to a lowly businessman.

Chapter 343 [V199] Competing for Medicine Lead (3)

The people of Dazhou are already superstitious, and the people of Nanzhao are more than that. Otherwise, they would not believe in something illusory like Gu God.

"Since it is rumored that this garden is an ominous place, why would a wealthy businessman dare to buy it?" Yu Wan asked.

Qingyan smiled: "There are always a few brave people who are not afraid of death."

That's true, not to mention that it's a royal garden no matter what, and it's also a face to be able to hold it in your hands.

"Is there anything ominous after buying it?" Yu Wan asked curiously.

Qingyan laughed again: "There are rumors, but it's not known whether they are true or not, but there are a lot of equally daring people who come here because they have the courage to live in the villa for a day, and they can be called heroes when they go back. "

Yu Wan secretly said, is this developing the royal garden into a haunted house? How could the ancients be so business-minded?

Yan Jiuchao's head rested on Yu Wan's lap, her face was facing Yu Wan's belly, and one arm was tightly wrapped around her, as if she was sucking a cat and fell asleep

Her hands naturally fell on Yan Jiuchao's shoulders. While she enjoyed each other's intimacy, she also felt sorry for his sins. It wasn't that she was uncomfortable, and she wouldn't stick to her like the sky and the sun.

It was a long way to go, Yu Wan wanted to squint for a while, but found that she couldn't sleep at all, so she continued to chat with Qingyan.

Where did you just talk about it?

That's right, the royal garden where Concubine Yun stayed.

Concubine Yun is the biological mother of the Great Emperor Ji, and Yan Jiuchao also mentioned her, but what she said was ominous. Yu Wan only knew that she was not favored, but it was not because she gave birth to a disaster star, but it seemed that she suffered a disaster early in the morning. The disgust of the monarch of Nanzhao.

Why is this?

Yu Wan expressed her doubts.

Qingyan said: "There are also many rumors about this Concubine Yun, saying that she is a demon concubine, a fox-beautiful monarch, and a disaster for the country and the people, but as far as I know, Concubine Yun was also a woman with both political integrity and talent before entering the palace. because....."

"Just because of what?" Yu Wan asked.

Qing Yan sighed and said: "Speaking of which, this concubine Yun is also a pitiful person. She had a marriage contract earlier, but her fiance fell in love with her cousin and broke the marriage contract with her. She couldn't get the main daughter of the main family, and her mother never gave birth to a brother for her, which caused her to have no one to rely on at home, and was bullied more and more. At that time, the empress was not yet an empress, but because she had made a marriage contract with the monarch since she was a child, the emperors and empresses always regarded her as a future daughter-in-law and allowed her to enter the study room to study.

Concubine Yun was not the only companion of the queen, but Concubine Yun was the only one who was most favored by the empress. After the queen got married, she learned that Concubine Yun had made her fiancé quit the relationship. In the end, he failed to bring the beauty back, and was exiled to a small county in Nanzhao, where he could never return to the imperial capital in his life. "

This end... It's like losing my wife and losing my army.

It is not difficult for Yu Wan to imagine how the queen stood for Concubine Yun at the beginning. Yu Wan didn't feel sorry for that man, as a scumbag, she should have the consciousness of being killed, but what happened to Concubine Yun? The queen has taken so much heart and lungs for her, why is she still the concubine of the queen's family?

Qingyan continued: "Although the incident ended when Concubine Yun's fiancé was exiled, Concubine Yun was heartbroken and was in bed for several months. After the queen learned the news, she brought Concubine Yun to the palace, and then transferred the imperial capital to the imperial capital. Good men of the right age were called one by one to choose a husband for Concubine Yun, but I didn't expect... Concubine Yun would get mixed up with the monarch."

This is very annoying.

I take you as a sister, but you sleep with my man!

Yu Wan shook her head and asked, "But I still don't understand, what does this have to do with the monarch's dislike of Concubine Yun?"

Qingyan said: "The monarch drank more wine that day. I didn't know that Concubine Yun was in the queen's bedroom and mistakenly made Concubine Yun as the empress. When the monarch sobered up, he realized that the woman in his arms was someone else. At that time, the empress had already found out. , and walked away angrily. The monarch tried to hide it, but he couldn't hide it. The monarch treated the queen with deep love and righteousness. It was not because he was drunk. Why did he make such a big mistake? I hate her."

Yu Wan said: "Then it's enough to execute her, why did you include her in the harem?"

Qingyan laughed: "The emperor has been married for three years and has no children. The Manchu civil and military persuaded the monarch to expand the harem. The appearance of Concubine Yun was exactly what the ministers wanted, and some ministers tried their best to intercede for her. The monarch is the monarch, but also Not everything can go its own way, Concubine Yun ended up in the harem and was soon diagnosed with pregnancy."

Yu Wan nodded and said again: "I heard that the Great Emperor Ji and the Little Emperor Ji were born on the same day. So, the Empress and Concubine Yun were also conceived around the same time?"

Qingyan said: "Yes, as soon as the news of Concubine Yun's pregnancy came out, the queen was also diagnosed with a happy vein within a few days."

Yu Wan knew everything that happened after that - the National Teacher Hall made a divination for the monarch and his heir, and found out that he had no son's fate. One of the daughters of the queen and Concubine Yun was a lucky star, and the other was a disaster star. .

If it is said that either of them gave birth to a son, this prophecy will naturally be broken without attacking, but it is true that they all gave birth to daughters, and it is true that there is a vision from heaven, which makes it difficult for people to believe it or not.

Fortunately, Concubine Yun's great emperor Ji is the star of disaster for the country. The monarch hates her so much that she exiled her daughter without a word. If it was replaced by the queen's daughter, the monarch would have to hesitate.

"Did Concubine Yun not want to make trouble?" Yu Wan felt that Concubine Yun was not a simple woman. She ruined her fiance who had changed her mind and ruined her best friend's man's sleep. At first glance, she had two brushes.

Qingyan shrugged: "It's natural to make trouble, but the more she makes trouble, the more the monarch will hate her. The more the monarch hates her, the less likely he will bring her daughter back."

"It's a pity that the Great Emperor Ji is gone," Yu Wan said.

It's a pity for you too, Qingyan said in her heart.

"The queen has been in poor health for the past few years. Concubine Yun eats fast food and recites Buddha, and it is like entering a cold palace. The only thing that can make the monarch feel gratified is Xiaodiji." Qingyan's expression was a little cold when he said this, but he was sitting outside driving Yu Wan. Wan can't see it.

Boom!

Qingyan was hit on the back of the head.

It was Yan Jiuchao who threw a fruit at him.

Yan Jiuchao said expressionlessly, "Noisy!"

Qingyan cleared his throat and stopped talking.

Nanzhao and his party Ying Thirteen and Ying Six were not there. Yu Wan was worried that Yan Jiuchao would not have a capable confidant at first, and Qingyan and the others were all from her side, which would inadvertently make Yan Jiuchao snubbed. To her surprise, several of them loved Yan Jiuchao as much as her.

Yu Wan lowered her head and kissed Yan Jiuchao's cheek, and said softly, "Don't bully Qingyan."

"Humph." Young Master Yan rolled his eyes and continued to bury his head on her soft stomach to breathe her breath.

At noon, the two carriages arrived at Biluo Villa one after the other. Dong Xian'er's maid was waiting at the door, and when she saw Yu Wan and her group, she stepped forward to say hello: "Mingxiang has seen a few young masters, and I have seen this. an adult."

The last sentence was addressed to Senior Yue.

Senior Yue nodded in response to her.

The maid was slightly surprised. Judging by the clothes, it was obvious that this person was a great Gu Master. There are very few Gu Masters who are unpretentious these days, let alone a higher-level Great Gu Master.

But what surprised the maid the most was not Senior Yue, but Yan Jiuchao.

She had never seen such a beautiful man——

"Who is this....."

"What are you doing?" Yan Jiuchao said angrily.

The maid choked and shut up wisely.

The maid led a few people to the place where Dong Xian'er was entertaining guests. It was a waterside pavilion filled with immortality. Ten steps away was an endless meadow. Dong Xian'er arrived early, but she sweated a little and went back to the house to touch up her makeup.

The maid led a few people into the waterside pavilion: "A few distinguished guests, please rest in the pavilion now, my master will be there in a while."

The pavilion is large, and there are long beauties leaning against it on all sides. Yan Jiuchao found a shady place to sit down. He doesn't like to be in the sun recently, and even Yu Wan noticed it.

Yu Wan sat down next to him, and he leaned his head back again, thinking of something, he finally could not hold back.

Qingyan asked Senior Yue to sit next to the beauty on the other side, Jiang Hai had a sore buttock all the way and didn't want to sit.

The maid brought a stone bench and a stone table and placed it in the center of the pavilion. On the table were fresh tea leaves and fruits.

"Master Yue, please, some young masters," the maid said.

Qingyan Chongyue senior made a gesture of invitation.

Senior Yue sat politely on the stone bench.

Yu Wan poked Yan Jiuchao's arm: "Would you like to go eat something?"

Yan Jiuchao turned his face away and snorted: "No."

This guy has become more and more coquettish recently. Yu Wan has no power to resist this, and her heart is so soft. Yu Wan covered the two's hands with wide sleeves and pulled his fingertips: "Then I won't go either."

Standing in front of the two of them, Qingyan who was slammed with a wave of dog food: "..."

Please poke my eyes out...

Several people waited for a while, and instead of waiting for Dong Xian'er to touch up her makeup, she waited for the little princess of the Queen's Mansion.

She was still dressed in men's clothing, and she thought that she had done a good job of covering it up. No one knew about her except Dong Xian'er and her maid, but Yu Wan and her party all knew her identity.

Holding a golden folding fan, she entered the pavilion arrogantly.

Behind her, there were several guards from the Queen's Mansion and a large Gu Master in a black robe.

This person is about the same age as Senior Yue, but he is much more expensive than Senior Yue. The robes of the same great Gu Master are embroidered with gold borders, and the steps on his feet are also more expensive and elegant. The thumb wears a priceless jade wrench.

worthy of being the Gu Master of the Lady Sovereign's Mansion, let's not mention his skills for the time being, his style is enough.

Yu Wan suddenly thought that Fei Luo, who they killed outside Liucheng, seemed to have a master who was a great Gu Master in the Nvjun Mansion. Could it be the one in front of her?

Yu Wan was thinking about it, and Senior Yue, who was beside him, said, "Junior Brother."

Everyone was stunned.

Even the little county master was stunned. She looked at the man on the stone bench, and then turned to look at her own Great Gu Master, and saw a trace of confusion in the eyes of the Great Gu Master.

Chapter 344 [V200] Nine Brothers Take Action (1)

"You know each other?" The little princess frowned.

Yu Wan looked at Senior Yue, and saw Senior Yue stand up and walk in front of the great Gu Master in the Queen's Mansion, and said as if disappointed, "After ten years of separation, I didn't expect you and I to meet each other. Seeing it like this."

A trace of complexity flashed across the eyes of the Great Gu Master: "Elder Senior Brother."

If Senior Yue unilaterally recognizes the small county master, she still doesn't dare to believe it. She would have a hard time believing what she said from Gu Master Meng at this time.

What kind of evil is this? The rescuer the other party brought in turned out to be the senior brother of his own Gu Master?

The same doubts also flashed through Yu Wan's mind, she never expected that the Gu Master invited by Helian Beiming would be involved with the Queen's Mansion.

She likes to watch Yan Jiuchao when she has nothing to do. Sometimes she just wants to watch it, and sometimes she asks him for his opinion. For example, at this moment, she has a sentence written all over her face - Who do you think will win?

Yan Jiuchao snorted disdainfully.

Yu Wan: "..."

Here are several meanings...

Senior Yue said politely, "Junior Brother Meng seems to have had a good time these past few years."

Meng Gu Master said with a hint of confidence from a superior: "Although you have inherited the mantle of Master, I also said that I will become a great Gu Master sooner or later."

Senior Yue smiled: "It seems that Junior Brother Meng has done it. Senior Brother is here to congratulate you."

Compared to his senior brother, Meng Gu Master was a little more stern: "I haven't forgotten about my senior brother's care for me, I once sent someone to write a letter to senior senior brother, inviting senior senior brother to join me in the Queen's Mansion to serve His Highness, I don't know if senior senior brother confiscated it or not. to my letter."

Senior Yue said with a smile: "I received the letter, and I also accepted the good intentions, but everyone has their own aspirations. Senior brother, I am used to idle clouds and wild cranes, and I can't follow the rules of big families."

Meng Gu Master said sternly: "With the qualifications of senior brother, if you get the help of the female emperor's residence, you will definitely be able to make a great breakthrough in the Gu technique."

The little county master came over with a rare politeness on his face: "It turns out that you are the senior brother of Lord Meng, it's a pleasure to meet you! I'm..."

She was about to say that she was the princess of the Queen's Mansion, when she suddenly remembered that she was traveling in a micro service, and changed her tone after she was busy, "I am from the Queen's Mansion, are you interested in being a distinguished guest of our Lady's Mansion? I can provide you with the best medicinal materials, the best conditions, and inexhaustible wealth and wealth. I know that you are a great Gu Master with a distinguished status, but looking at the whole world, except for the imperial palace, you can't find anything more than a female monarch. It is a place more respected by the government."

Senior Yue knew from Helian Beiming's mouth that the thorn head he met this time was the little princess, and he guessed who she was. In that sentence, everyone has their own aspirations."

The little princess pouted.

It was only for Gu Master Meng's sake that he invited him, but he didn't appreciate it?

The little princess didn't say anything about Senior Yue, and angrily found a seat and sat down.

The seat she was looking for happened to be on the other side of Yan Jiuchao. As soon as she turned her head, she met Yan Jiuchao's impeccable profile face. This was the first time she had seen a man more beautiful than Brother Sheng. His eyes froze for a moment.

But it didn't take long for Dong Xian'er, who arrived late, to interrupt.

Dong Xian'er said that it was not an excuse to touch up her makeup. She did put on a clear and energetic makeup look, but she still wore a veil, revealing only a pair of eyes that were as beautiful as colored glaze. It made her eyes look a little more charming.

She was wearing an apricot pink dress, so beautiful that there was no trace of dust, and she was different from the enchanting woman who danced barefoot that night.

But as soon as she opened her mouth, everyone knew it was her.

She smiled and said: "Are you all here? I've made you wait for a long time, these are..."

Her doubtful gaze swept over the two great Gu Masters

"This is Meng Da Gu Master from the Nujun's Mansion!" The little county master raised his chest and said.

Dong Xian'er gave a polite salute: "Meng Da Gu Master, I have long admired it, I have long admired it."

"This is Yue Da Gu Master." Yu Wan introduced, not mentioning the person invited by Helian Beiming.

"Yue Da Gu Master, this little girl is being polite." Dong Xian'er also bowed to Senior Yue with a smile, and then her gaze passed over Yu Wan and landed on Yan Jiuchao's face, "Yo, handsome son. , is it the one who went to the first floor with Young Master Yan last time? I can't really see it from a distance, but it turns out that he is such a handsome young master."

Yu Wan thought about her words on the way, and immediately said: "He is my friend, come to see the fun!"

Yan Jiuchao: "Chi~"

Yu Wan turned around and gave him a knife in the eye, don't tear me down!

Master Yan turned his face away.

I don't know if it was Yu Wan's illusion, but I always felt that his little eyes were a little wronged just now.

Dong Xian'er smiled and asked Jiang Hai's identities. Yu Wan only said that she was a guard and said nothing else.

Dong Xian'er said: "The two great Gu Masters have arrived, why don't we start, whoever has the better Gu technique, I'll give the Red Ganoderma lucidum to whoever."

She said that she was giving away, not selling. The implication was that she would not take a penny.

"No other conditions?" Yu Wan asked.

Dong Xian'er smiled and shook her head: "Young Master Yan thinks that I have some shameful motive to find a Gu Master in such a hurry? Can't it be because of my admiration for a Gu Master? You know that although the imperial capital is big and I am rich, It's rare to meet the rumored Great Gu Master."

This is true. Nanzhao people believe in Gu Gods, just like people in the Central Plains who are willing to spend a lot of money to see the champion, Dong Xian'er gave Ganoderma lucidum to see Gu Masters, it seems that it makes sense from any point of view.

But is it really that simple?

As if seeing Yu Wan's suspicion, Dong Xian'er spread her hands: "I can't help you if you don't believe me."

Believe it or not is another story, the most urgent thing is to get the medicine.

"Then let's start." Yu Wan said.

In Nanzhao, there are discussions between Gu techniques. Generally speaking, they are divided into two categories. One is the discussion of Gu insects, and the other is the competition of Gu techniques. The competition between Gu insects is similar to cockfighting and beasts, and their respective Gu insects are put into urns, it is enough to let each other kill each other, and the winner is the one who survives in the end; if the Gu technique is to be compared, the scope of dabbling will be wide.

Of course, that's a rumor, and no one has actually seen it.

Yu Wan and her group were all laymen, and the two great Gu Masters decided what to test.

After some discussion, the two decided to fight Gu, winning two out of three rounds.

Yu Wan didn't dare to get too close, fearing that her little gu would affect the gu of both parties, this kind of influence was not targeted, one would be prosperous, and one would be lost.

Yu Wan gave Qingyan a wink, Qingyan would have it, walked over to give Senior Yue a hand, and asked, "Senior Yue, what are your chances of winning?"

Senior Yue thought for a while: "Although he is my junior brother, but when he was alive, Master once praised him as a genius that he has never met in a century. If it weren't for his impetuous temperament and need to practice, he would be the one who inherits the mantle, not me."

Qingyan hurriedly said, "Senior Yue doesn't need to be so modest."

Senior Yue shook his head: "It's not that I am too modest. Back then, he was in the sect, so his Gu technique was not under mine. Over the years, he has entered the Nvjun Mansion again. There are too many, so I think his Gu technique must have made a lot of progress."

"Senior Yue means...you will lose?" You can't lose, if you lose, Yaoyin will be gone!

Senior Yue smiled: "Don't worry, although I'm not talented, but I have been kind to him in the early years, and he will return this favor to me today."

Meng Da Gu Master was not gregarious since he was a child, but he also had extraordinary talents. Those people both hated him and envied him, and secretly made things difficult for him. As a senior brother, Senior Yue helped Meng Da Gu Master more than once. The Great Gu Master came from a poor family, and when his mother was seriously ill, it was Senior Yue who paid for the medicine for him. That was why Meng Great Gu Master wrote a letter to his senior brother after he made his fortune, inviting him to go to the imperial capital to enjoy the blessings together.

Qingyan doesn't know what the temperament of Meng Da Gu Master is, but looking at his arrogant appearance, he thinks that he is not a good person to be with, and he can invite him to enjoy happiness. He can only say that he really owes Senior Yue a lot.

So Qingyan is relieved.

Qingyan made a gesture of winning at Yu Wan.

Yu Wan nodded secretly and patiently watched the fight between the two sides.

As expected, Senior Yue won the first round.

The little county master stood up and said incredulously: "How could this be? Are you not very powerful? Why can't even a large Gu Master from the people be comparable?"

Meng Da Gu Master said in a perfunctory manner: "He is my senior brother, and his Gu skills are worse than mine, so he won't inherit the mantle of my master."

"I don't care! In short, you have to give me a win! If you dare to lose, I will..." The little county master threatened half, glanced at the eyes that were cast at her, and snorted coldly, "In short, you have to win!"

The release of water should not be too obvious. In the second round, Meng Da Gu Master made a comeback.

The little county master raised his eyebrows and smiled, and glanced at Yu Wan proudly: "I said, Ganoderma lucidum is mine!"

Yu Wan smiled lightly: "There is one more round, don't talk too soon."

Yan Jiuchao didn't like watching bugs, so he wandered around the village.

Walking around, he actually let him meet someone.

An acquaintance.

Chapter 345 [V201] Nine Brothers Shot (2)

The other party was wearing a Gu Master's robe, but it was a little worn out, and he was described as very embarrassed, with unkempt hair, chapped lips, and a full face of stubble.

Yan Jiuchao didn't recognize who this ugly monster was at first sight, but the ugly monster recognized Yan Jiuchao.

Yan Jiuchao's skin is so unique that it's hard to forget it, not to mention that the other party has been with him, and he has already kept his facial features and figure firmly in his mind.

"It's you!" The other party yelled through gritted teeth.

Yan Jiuchao raised his eyebrows: "We know each other?"

The other party brushed away the messy hair in front of his forehead, pointed to his face that was more than ten years older than before and said, "Open your eyes and see who I am!"

Yan Jiuchao: I see it clearly, but I don't know it.

other side:"!!!"

The other party's eyes were splitting and he said: "Xicheng! Dragon Gate Escort Bureau! Yu Gu Master! How dare you say you forgot?!"

"Oh." Yan Jiuchao remembered after saying that, he looked at the other party strangely, and asked innocently, "Aren't you dead yet?"

Yu Gu Master almost choked to death.

He's seen someone angry, but he's never seen someone so angry. Did he forget what these * did to him? To ask him so frankly if he died? !

That's right, he was a Gu Master with no power to tie a chicken, and was thrown outside Liucheng in the middle of the night.

What's even more cruel is that he lost his Gu Master's jade card. No one knows how he got to the imperial capital all the way. He no longer just wants to join the family in the capital, he wants revenge! He's going to be ashamed!

"You swindlers, you can deceive others but not me. You are not relatives of the Helian family! General Helian made you lie! I want to report you!"

When Yu Wan rushed out to recognize her relatives, Gu Master Yu was stunned by this scene, but after thinking about it, she realized something was wrong. If they really were relatives of General Helian, why didn't they go there when they were in Xicheng? To meet General Helian? They keep a low profile, lest people see through their identities... Does this look like they have a backer?

Yu Gu Master can almost conclude that they have teamed up to deceive the general.

Yan Jiuchao didn't lift his eyelids: "Oh, is that right?"

Gu Master Yu said with a fierce face: "Don't pretend to be indifferent! Not only will I report you to the Helian family, but I will also report you to the Queen's Palace! How do you think I found this place? I've been to the Queen's Mansion! They told me that Meng Da Gu Master went on a trip and came to Biluo Villa! I met Meng Da Gu Master in a while, and I told him that you killed his most beloved apprentice!"

Yan Jiuchao frowned strangely.

Yu Gu Master smiled coldly: "Don't tell me that you even forgot Master Fei Luo! Ha! It's the Gu Master who likes your maid! You kill him! Meng Da Gu Master won't let you go! Mistress! The government will not let you go!"

Yan Jiuchao looked innocent: "Well, that old man is that trashy master."

Yu Gu Master akimbo laughed: "Ha, are you afraid? It's useless to be afraid! Even if you kneel down and beg me, I won't let you die! You are all waiting-" go to hell!

Yan Jiuchao put one hand on the back of his neck and pushed him down the steps.

Yu Gu Master was like a thin, shriveled winter melon, rolling down the bone, knocking his head against a stone, and gasping for breath on the spot.

What does it mean to die before you get out of your apprenticeship, that's it.

Obviously it was a script with lofty ambitions to seek revenge, and abruptly made a young master play it as a dungeon to send a blood. Yu Wan, who witnessed this scene not far away, silently shed tears of sympathy for a certain Gu Master.

You said it was not good for you to threaten anyone, but if you had to threaten Yan Jiuchao, who was to blame?

Yu Wan doesn't think her husband is too much. She doesn't know how many times she has escaped from death. Now, saying "Oh, my God, I can't bear to see this scene", isn't it like saying "How can I eat rabbits, rabbits?" Rabbits are so cute" as disgusting?

This person is here to kill them, but he is unable to do so himself, and wants to use the hands of Meng Da Gu Master and the Queen's Mansion.

Either he died or they died, so naturally it would be more appropriate for him to die.

Yan Jiuchao took out the white handkerchief and wiped the hand that had touched the Gu Master.

He looks dirty.

After wiping off the handkerchief, he threw it on the ground together with the fire handkerchief, and started to burn.

Yan Jiuchao returned to the waterside pavilion with an indifferent expression.

The third round of the battle was also coming to an end. Both sides sacrificed a hundred Gu Kings. The Gu Master of Meng Da Gu Master had the upper hand. it!"

Seeing that he was going to kill Senior Yue's Gu King, who would have expected a sudden change at this time, Meng Da Gu Master's Gu King suddenly became stunned. Although it only stayed for a second, it was enough for its opponent to counterattack. .

When the little county master came back to his senses, his own Gu King had already killed the opponent.

The little princess was struck by lightning: "What, what's going on? It's about to win! Did you do something?!"

She said, looking coldly at Senior Yue and his party.

Jiang Hai said coldly: "Aren't you watching all the time? You don't know if we are doing anything?"

"That's right, if you are willing to admit defeat, don't you want to repay your debt?" Qing Yan rarely vented his anger with Jiang Hai.

The little county master glared at Meng Da Gu Master in embarrassment: "The Queen's House has raised you for so long, and you only have this ability? Even a private Gu Master can't fight! What's the use of you!"

This is really cruel, especially in front of so many people, it can almost be regarded as a kind of humiliation.

Meng Da Gu Master's brow furrowed, and quickly relaxed, not bothering with the little county master.

Dong Xian'er clapped her hands happily: "The outcome is already divided, the two great Gu Masters live up to their reputation, wonderful, wonderful!"

What's so exciting? She has all lost!

"It's all your fault!" The little county master glared at Meng Da Gu Master angrily and walked away without looking back!

Dong Xian'er looked at Yu Wan with a smile: "So, son, go with me to get Lingzhi?"

"Okay." Yu Wan smiled and went with her.

Senior Yue rushed to junior brother and bowed his hands: "Thank you junior brother for accepting, I am really sorry that junior brother has damaged two Gu Kings."

Although they were acting for the little county master, neither of them showed their ability to look after the house, but the King of Hundred Gus was also very rare. If two pairs were damaged at once, it would be impossible for anyone to change without feeling distressed.

Meng Da Gu Master sternly said: "Senior brother's love, I have already paid it off. From now on, my brother and I owe nothing to each other. When we meet again, you and I may be the real opponents."

Senior Yue nodded shyly.

Meng Da Gu Master turned around and left.

"Junior brother." Senior Yue stopped him, "You upset the little princess, will she embarrass you? At first... I didn't know it was you."

Meng Da Gu Master was not surprised by the fact that the other party saw through the identity of the little county master. That girl only had the words that she was the county master written on her face, so that a fool would not be able to see it.

He turned his head and said, "The person I owe allegiance to is Your Highness the Queen. Today's matter is nothing more than a farce of the little princess. Your Highness will not take anger on me, senior brother, please take care."

Senior Yue bowed his hands: "Junior and brother take care."

"Senior Yue, thank you very much." Qingyan stepped forward and thanked him solemnly.

Senior Yue said politely: "It's nothing, it's what I should do, my junior brother is the Great Gu Master of the Queen's Mansion, not to mention his status, but his Gu technique is not blown out of thin air, and it will not be a last resort in the future. You must not be against him."

Qing Yan nodded, although he is not a Gu Master, but after spending time with A Wei, he can see some ways. The strength of the great Gu Master surnamed Meng is probably not inferior to A Wei, and he really does not hope that they will meet each other one day. on him.

When they got the two herbs, they quickly returned to the clan, and everything here would have nothing to do with them.

But Yu Wan went with Dong Xian'er to an elegant courtyard nearby.

Before, my mind was full of fights, and I didn't care to appreciate the scenery of the villa. At this time, I walked along the way, only to find that it is stacked with stones and water, the scenery is beautiful, and there is a good smell of flowers floating in the air, which makes people feel an indescribable feeling. of heart and soul.

"Young Master, have you heard that an ominous person once lived here?"

Dong Xian'er suddenly spoke.

Enjoying nature was interrupted, and Yu Wan looked at her in a still unfinished look: "Huh? Ah, Miss Dong said this, why? Does Miss Dong also believe in nonsense?"

"Does your son believe it?" Dong Xian'er asked with a smile.

Yu Wan shook her head: "I don't believe it."

Dong Xian'er's eyes flashed a hint of admiration: "As expected of the person I like Dong Xian'er."

Yu Wan touched her nose angrily.

Don't talk nonsense about these words, and it was another gentle torture in my husband's ears.

This topic was lost halfway due to Yu Wan's uninteresting "unbelief". Dong Xian'er didn't make fun of herself and continued. She led Yu Wan around the corridor and entered an elegant and chic wing: "Ganoderma lucidum is inside."

Finally got the medicine, Yu Wan was a little excited.

Dong Xian'er turned her back to Yu Wan, bent over to open a large box, and rushed at her hips and waist in slow motion, Yu Wan had every reason to believe that she was seducing her.

"Cough!" Yu Wan opened the folding fan in her hand and fanned it.

"It's boring." Dong Xian'er snorted, and came to Yu Wan with a small jeweled box, "Here, Chi Lingzhi is in it, open it for inspection by yourself."

Yu Wan looked at her: "There's no mechanism in this box, right?"

Dong Xian'er rolled her eyes at her, and instead held the box with one hand, opened it in front of her, and asked angrily, "Is there a mechanism?"

Yu Wan sneered, and bowed her hands: "It's Xiaosheng who took care of a gentleman's belly with the heart of a villain. I'm here to make amends for Miss Dong."

"Stinky man!" Dong Xian'er rolled her eyes and shoved the box into Yu Wan's hand.

What Yu Wan did not expect in her dreams was that an incredible scene happened, and the beads embedded in the box all lit up!

Yu Wan's mind froze for a moment, and she blurted out, "Gu Zhu!"

Chapter 346 [V202] Shocking Secret (1)

Yu Wan has seen Gu beads, but she has never seen so many Gu beads, and they are all set in a box. Does this mean that you have bought all the Gu beads in the world?

Gu beads are actually no different from ordinary beads, the only difference is that they glow in her hands.

Dong Xian'er's reaction was more surprising than hers. Her eyes were fixed on the group of shining beads. The box belonged to her, so she naturally recognized these beads. Her eyes told Yu Wan that no one could put all the beads. "Light up".

"You..." Dong Xian'er looked solemn.

Yu Wan quickly took out the Lingzhi, put the box on the table, and said without changing her face: "You didn't see anything, your eyes were dazzled."

Dong Xian'er was stunned at first, but after hearing the words of three hundred taels of silver in this place, she burst out laughing.

"What are you laughing at?" Yu Wan asked, wrapping the red ganoderma lucidum in a handkerchief and stuffing it into a small interlayer with wide sleeves.

Dong Xian'er sat on the chair slowly, took a sip of tea, and said slowly, "I'm laughing, I seem to have discovered some great secret."

"Oh."

"You don't want to hear?"

"In no mood."

"I want to tell you."

This guy!

Dong Xian'er said with a smile: "There are actually quite a few rumors circulating in the imperial capital, one of which is that there is something tricky about the crown prince position of Her Royal Highness, although you are not from Nanzhao..."

This also made you see it?

The ex is horrible!

I especially want to go home!

"But you must be no stranger to the name of Her Majesty the Queen. You should know why she took the position of the Queen." Without waiting for Yu Wan to answer, Dong Xian'er continued on her own, "She found the Wan Gu King for Nanzhao. The Wan Gu King was regarded as Nanzhao's sacred object, and the sacred object recognized her as the master. She became the emperor's daughter who was blessed by the Gu God, and the monarch named her as the heir. It can be said that it is what everyone hopes to return, or it can be said that it is a matter of course, but there is a gossip that...the holy relic is gone. The holy relic that recognizes the Lord will not leave the owner casually, unless...the recognition of the Lord is false. "

Yu Wan's face was written with "I really don't want so much", "I just want a Lingzhi", "I beg my ex to let me go".

Wait, why did she tell herself this?

Yu Wan's heart filled with an ominous premonition.

Dong Xian'er stood up, walked gracefully in front of Yu Wan, stretched out her pale fingertips, and picked Yu Wan's chin: "Do you know how many Gu beads are on this box? One hundred and eight, no matter how powerful a Gu is. Wang can't let half of them shine."

Yu Wan said lightly: "You don't know yourself, don't blame others for not being able to do it."

Dong Xian'er smiled: "Do you know how many great Gu Masters I've found to try?"

So this predecessor didn't just find a great Gu Master to play with, right?

"It may also be that your beads are broken." He firmly refuses to admit that he has the King of Ten Thousand Gus!

Dong Xian'er approached Yu Wan and said ambiguously, "Or maybe you have the Nanzhao holy relic in your hand."

"You can eat rice indiscriminately, but you can't talk nonsense. The sacred objects of Nanzhao belong to His Royal Highness. You put a hat on me indiscriminately, hoping to use His Highness's hand to avenge the revenge that I did not favor you?" Yu Wan asked. I like to quarrel, but when I quarrel, it is literally bloody.

As expected, Dong Xian'er choked on this remark, and she didn't know how to refute it for a while.

Yu Wan walked out of the room with her head held high while she was stunned.

Dong Xian'er came back to her senses, looked at Yu Wan's back and squinted her eyes: "Is it a sacred relic of Nanzhao, I will always find a way to figure it out!"

After getting away from the yard, Yu Wan let out a long sigh of relief, this oiran is not as difficult as it looks on the surface! Fortunately, I slipped fast and didn't tell her to catch the evidence, otherwise, once it was spread, Yaoyin would not be found, but it would be bad if the female prince was brought in to kill her and get the Gu.

When Yu Wan brought Chi Lingzhi back to Shuixieting, the small county master and his party had already left, and Senior Yue had something to say goodbye.

Yu Wan was horrified. She didn't expect that this seemingly unremarkable Meng Da Gu Master would be so powerful. Fortunately, Yan Jiuchao had dealt with Yu, otherwise he would have killed Fei Luo. In front of Meng Da Gu Master, they probably won't be able to get this Red Lingzhi today.

Yu Wan told Qingyan and Jiang Hai what happened to the surnamed Yu, both of them were stunned, so dangerous? Is Fei Luo the apprentice of Meng Da Gu Master?

Yu Wan said: "It's okay, the surname Yu has been resolved."

Qingyan pondered for a moment, and went to dispose of Yu's body before he drove Yu Wan and Yan Jiuchao back to Helian Mansion.

A day of near misses has finally passed. Chi Lingzhi was successfully obtained. The first thing Yu Wan did when she returned to the house was to find old Cui Tou and let him identify the true and false of Chi Lingzhi.

Old Cuitou put down the half-eaten radish, grabbed the red ganoderma lucidum and studied it for a while.

Yu Wan made him confused: "Don't tell me it's fake!"

Old Cui frowned and murmured, "There really is a second Red Ganoderma lucidum in the world..."

Yu Wan narrowed her eyes dangerously: "What do you mean by that? Do you know where there is Red Lingzhi?"

"Cough!" Old Cuitou couldn't wait to tear his mouth, how could he be unable to control his words at the critical moment?

He said, "King Jing once had a red ganoderma lucidum in his hands."

She didn't think of that person for a long time, and Yu Wan was stunned when she heard the name, but then she realized that he was referring to Yan Huaijing, and she felt a balance in her heart. With Yan Huaijing's thoughts towards her, she might as well go to Dong Xian'er. Take chestnuts from the fire in your hand.

"Okay, I've put away the things. Ganoderma lucidum has spirituality, so don't touch it." Old Cui Tou said, found a box made of white jade, covered it with red silk, and put the Ganoderma lucidum in it carefully.

Thinking of something, the old Cuitou said again, "Also, Helian Beiming has helped a lot this time, you have to thank them for a long time."

Yu Wan nodded. She didn't need to remind him, she would also thank Helian Beiming. After all, if it wasn't for him to find Senior Yue, it would be very difficult for them to get Chi Lingzhi.

How can I thank him?

Yu Wan touched her chin: "By the way, old Cuitou, you are so skilled in medicine, can you cure my uncle's leg?"

"Your uncle's legs are already healed..." Old Cuitou was halfway through, realizing that the uncle this girl was referring to was not uncle he, he glared at her, "It sounds smooth! He's not sick, he's injured, his tendons The pulses are all broken, and there is no cure for the past."

In the dead of night, Helian Beiming sat alone in the study, with several new memorials presented by his subordinates by his hand, but his eyes did not fall on the memorials. A picture was rolled out in front of him, and on the portrait was a man who shared five or six points with him. A similar teenage boy.

He stroked the boy's face with his fingertips, and his eyes became complicated.

"Uncle!"

Yu Wan's voice came from outside the door.

Helian Beiming took the painting and inserted it into the basket on the side, and said softly, "Come in."

Yu Wan walked in with a tray in hand: "I guessed that Uncle didn't rest. I just went to the kitchen to make a few side dishes and brought them to make a late-night snack for Uncle."

"Aren't you going to rest?" Helian Beiming asked indifferently.

"I'm happy, I can't sleep." Yu Wan curved the corners of her lips.

"It's just a red ganoderma lucidum." Helian Beiming said carelessly.

Yu Wan said: "But it's hard to get hold of. Uncle doesn't know who we met today, that little county master..." Having said this, Yu Wan paused and looked at him with rolling eyes. With a glance, "Have I not mentioned to my uncle that the small county of the female prince's manor is mainly robbing us of Lingzhi?"

Helian Beiming gave her a look of "What? Do you think you're hiding it well?"

Okay.

Yu Wan cleared her throat. She has been dizzy recently, and her brain is not enough. They are in Helian Mansion, how can their whereabouts be hidden from Helian Beiming's eyes? I'm afraid that before asking Senior Yue, he knew who they had messed with, but despite this, the man still took action. So far, Yu Wan's gratitude to Helian Beiming has increased by three points.

Yu Wan and Yourong Yan said: "The Great Gu Master of the Queen's Mansion is very powerful. By chance, he is Senior Yue's junior brother, and he sold Senior Yue's face."

Where in the world are there any coincidences? However, Helian Beiming had guessed who the person was coming, and also knew the relationship between the two Gu Masters, so he invited them out. As for Senior Yue, he was indeed kept in the dark.

But these, Helian Beiming did not say.

Yu Wan put the tray on the table: "This is chestnut cake, poured with rose brine, this is crab cake, this is almond barley porridge, I used honey instead of sugar, I won't fall asleep after eating it."

This is still what Yan Jiuchao learned from cooking. Yan Jiuchao liked her craftsmanship for ten minutes. As long as she made something, he could eat it without any leftovers, but sometimes the sugar content was too high, which made it difficult for him to sleep. If she doesn't sleep, she doesn't want to sleep either. That little ancestor has a thousand ways to drive her crazy.

"Also, if you are not good at sweetness, there is this." Yu Wan juggled herself and took out a big meat bun that was bigger than a face plate.

Helian Beiming had never seen such a mighty and domineering bun, and he felt his eyelids jump.

Yu Wan smiled: "Then... Uncle, eat slowly, I'll go back to the yard first."

The old lady, Yan Jiuchao and Zisu put together a table of leaf cards, three are missing and one is missing!

Yu Wan walked away in a hurry!

Helian Beiming looked at the dim sum in front of him. Once upon a time, when he read at night with the lights on, someone would always bring food to his room, but since his wife was sent to be a nun, no one dared to break into his study in a grand manner.

Aside from the scary big bun, the food on the side is quite delicate, the golden pastry, the red rose juice, the scattered sweet cakes... just looking at it makes people eat.

Helian Beiming's mood suddenly improved.

"Squeak!"

The little snow fox on his lap woke up.

Xiaoxuehu smelled the familiar aroma, and with a tuft of dull hair on his head, jumped on the table and snatched the big meat bun into his arms.

Xiaoxuehu hugged the big meat bun and rolled over and over on the table with a contented face.

Helian Beiming was in a better mood.

The kid was a gracious person, and he made snacks to honor him.

Helian Beiming picked up a chestnut cake dipped in rose brine and fed it into his mouth with joy.

The next second, the paralyzed general jumped up!

Hemp eggs!

Why is it so unpalatable!

What about the gift of gratitude?

This is revenge! ! !

Hahahahahahahahaha

Chapter 347 [V203] Shocking Secret (2)

Four herbs have been cited, and the next one is Snow Toad.

At dawn, Yu Wan went to Qixia Garden and said to the old man meditating under the porch, "Mother? Where is Snow Toad?"

The old man slowly opened his eyes.

The old man did not expect that the Red Ganoderma lucidum would come so easily. The progress in his imagination was more than doubled. The reason for this was that luck accounted for most of it. Thinking that this girl can even get the sacred relics of Nanzhao in a confused way. Not surprising.

Luck is something that other people want to envy.

"Also in the Imperial Capital." The old man answered Yu Wan's question, "The last time I heard about the Snow Toad was a few years ago, when it was enshrined in a Gu Temple, I don't know which Gu Temple is. Remember, you have to go and find out."

"Gu temple." Yu Wan stroked her chin. She has been in the rain and wind in Nanzhao these days. She has learned a lot about the customs of the imperial capital. Naturally, she knows what this Gu temple is. It is similar to the temple in the Central Plains. The difference is that the temples in the Central Plains worship Bodhisattvas, while the Gu temples in Nanzhao worship the Gu gods.

Well, in my two lifetimes, I haven't been to the Gu Temple yet.

"Then we should go to Juxian Tower to inquire about news?" Yu Wan asked the old man.

The old man nodded.

The reason why they didn't inquire at one time was because the connection of the two medicine leads would make it easy for people to guess that they wanted to detoxify the poison of thyme. This kind of poison is not something that everyone has. on the head.

Yu Wan's lips curved slightly: "Then I'll call Qingyan and Jianghai."

Yuegou walked out with a dark face. He said that he was going too, and he always left him in the house. He was about to come out in his spare time.

Yu Wan could choose to take Yan Jiuchao with him, so that no one would have to stay in the mansion, but last night Yan Jiuchao slept late, Yu Wan didn't want to wake him up, and after some thought, she left Qingyan behind.

Jiang Hai raised his eyebrows and glanced at Qingyan: Haha.

Yu Wan said to Jiang Haidao, "You stay too."

Jianghai: "..."

Yu Wan put on men's clothes and went out with Yuegou. Yuegou talked less and traveled with him the cleanest.

Several people came to Juxian Building. Since it wasn't dinner time, there were not many guests in the building. Yu Wan asked for a seat in the lobby and ordered a table of thin bean noodles for Yuegou.

Yu Wan only came to Nanzhao to know that there is such a snack. The thin bean flour is made of peas. First, soak the peas for four or five hours and grind them. Separate and grind for the second time, the obtained is clear pulp, add water and vegetable oil to the clear pulp, stir and boil with a wooden stick, until it can be practiced, and a bowl of delicious thin bean flour is freshly baked.

Thin bean noodles are mostly salty and can be paired with chopped green onion and special pickles for a first-class taste.

Yuegou was strong and strong, and Yu Wan thought he liked drinking in a big bowl and eating meat at first sight, but only later did he find out that he did not drink a drop of alcohol and was vegetarian.

Yuegou hurriedly ate.

Yu Wan was not used to thin soy flour, so she ordered a few plates of vegetarian cold dishes and dim sum.

The little Er who entertained them today is not the original one, or it doesn't matter. There are so many guests in the Juxian Building, and the little Er may not remember them.

"Guest officer, the dishes are ready for you, do you think you need anything else?" Xiao Er put the cold dishes and snacks in the tray on the table one by one.

Yu Wan's eyes fell on the dishes: "I didn't order so much, did I?"

Xiao Er smiled and said, "Someone invited me."

This is weird. They first entered the imperial capital and didn't make a single friend, but Liangzi made a lot of them. Who would invite them to dinner?

Yu Wan looked in the direction Xiao Er pointed, and saw a girl wearing purple clothes and a purple veil standing on the second floor by the railing, who was it if it wasn't Dong Xian'er?

Dong Xian'er looked at Yu Wan with great interest, and gave Yu Wan an incomparable wink.

Yu Wan didn't dare to underestimate her anymore, after all, what kind of ordinary person could be a person who could decorate a box with a hundred Gu beads in one go?

Qinglou oiran?

I'm afraid it's just a cover.

But since we ran into each other, it would be unreasonable not to say hello.

Yu Wan said: "Yuegou, let's go upstairs."

Yue hook didn't waste it, Yue hook dried up the thin bean flour in the bowl in one breath, wiped his mouth, and went upstairs with Yu Wan.

Yu Wan has not acted so affectionately enough to think that Dong Xian'er is stalking her, which is indeed the case. Dong Xian'er came to Juxian Tower to wait for an old friend, but she didn't wait for her old friend to meet Yu Wan.

"Young Master, we meet again." Dong Xian'er gave a polite salute.

Yu Wan held the folding fan and bowed in return: "Xiaosheng has seen Miss Dong."

Dong Xian'er smiled sweetly: "Why does the young master have to be so outspoken? Just call me Xian'er."

Yu Wan: Uh...

"Please take a seat." Dong Xian'er pointed to the chair opposite the Eight Immortals table.

Yu Wan sat down with Yuehook.

Dong Xian'er glanced at Moon Hook and said with a smile, "Young Master's guards are stronger than each other."

Yu Wan said politely, "I've won the prize."

Dong Xian'er raised her slender hand and poured two glasses of wine for the two of them. Yu Wan took the cup from Yuehook: "He doesn't drink, I'll drink it for him."

Dong Xian'er said, "Young master is so indulgent with the guards around him, how come you don't see your son hurting Xian'er?"

is here again, it's scary for a woman to act coquettishly. Moon hook is not only her bodyguard, but also her family's little digger, can she not cherish it?

Fortunately, Dong Xian'er didn't hold on to this, she forgot to ask, leaned beside Yu Wan, and said softly, "I haven't asked for your son's surname yet?"

"My surname is Yan." Yu Wan said at a distance from her.

"Young Master Yan." Dong Xian'er smiled, as if she didn't mind her dodging, and continued to lean on her, "It's not time for dinner, what is the son doing at Juxianlou? Are you making an appointment or seeking information?"

"So Xian'er has an appointment?" Yu Wan would not be led by her nose.

Dong Xian'er didn't expect that her unintentional words would reveal her thoughts, and she didn't expect that such a flaw that no one would notice would be caught by the other party keenly, Dong Xian'er was stunned, and said angrily: "So what? But the person I was waiting for didn't come, you men are indeed a virtue!"

It turned out to be a man waiting.

Dong Xian'er put on a smile again: "Young Master Yan hasn't told Xian'er what you are here for? If you want to inquire about the news, you may as well ask me. I know, not necessarily less than Juxianlou."

"Really?" Yu Wan took a sip of wine calmly. This woman is too cunning, and she can make people fall into her trap if she is not careful. Of course, Yu Wan is not a vegetarian, and the same somersault is enough. , It's not that easy to want her to be planted a second time.

Yu Wan said sternly: "To be honest, I first came to the imperial capital, I don't know what interesting places in the imperial capital, I have been to Biluo Mountain Villa, is there any one that is as famous as it?"

Dong Xian'er couldn't hold back, and laughed while shaking her shoulders.

Yu Wan: Ex, your smile is a little low...

Dong Xian'er laughed enough, and said with high spirits: "Is Biluo Mountain Villa interesting? Young Master Yan is afraid that he has never been to a good place. The most famous one in the imperial capital is the Gu Temple."

coming.

Steady.

"Does the emperor have many Gu temples?" Yu Wan had a normally curious tone.

Dong Xian'er smiled: "Of course, but there are only two or three of the most famous ones. Which one the son wants to go to, Xian'er will accompany you."

Yu Wan said with a distressed expression: "I don't know which one to go to. Are the gods enshrined in these Gu temples the same?"

"It's not the same." Dong Xian'er said, "There are people who worship the King of Gu, and there are people who worship the Queen of Gu. Have you ever heard of Xue Toad?"

You mentioned this yourself, Yu Wan said without changing her face, "Never."

Dong Xian'er smiled and said, "Snow Toad is a Gu Queen, enshrined in the Gu Temple in Xiling Mountain."

West, Spirit, Mountain!

Dong Xian'er looked at Yu Wan's expression, and said with a smile: "Young master seems to be interested in this Gu temple. It's better to choose a day than to hit the sun. Let's go now."

Woman, you say wind is rain!

The matter of medicine introduction should naturally be sooner rather than later. Yu Wan took the moon hook and set foot on the carriage to Xiling Mountain with Dong Xian'er.

The carriage stopped at the foot of the mountain, and it took a few people more than an hour to climb up the Gu Temple, but when Yu Wan saw the golden "Snow Toad" enshrined on the desk in the center of the hall, she was dumbfounded: "This is , Is this the Queen Gu you said?"

Dong Xian'er nodded reverently: "Yeah, isn't it very beautiful? Actually, it was also a Gu King, and it was praised by the world as a Gu Queen because it was too beautiful."

Yu Wan felt a thunder flash over her head: "Is it fake?"

Dong Xian'er said with round almond eyes, "Really, it's made of real gold!"

Yu Wan supported her forehead and panted: "No, I mean, I climbed up to my death from a long distance, and I saw such a... statue?!"

Dong Xian'er was stunned for three seconds, then clutched her stomach and laughed, laughing so hard that she couldn't straighten herself up, she could almost roll all over the floor if she wasn't supported by a pillar.

Yu Wan's face darkened, is it so funny?

Dong Xian'er laughed until her stomach hurt: "...Have you seen the real Guanyin in the Guanyin Temple, and the real Guangong in the Guangong Temple?"

Yu Wan: "..."

I refuse to answer your question.

At this moment, Dong Xian'er finally understood that what Yu Wan wanted to see was the living queen, but because she was so happy, she didn't link the two herbs together, she held her stomach that hurt from laughter, and said, "Live... the living queen. Not here."

"Where is that?" Yu Wan said coldly, that small appearance, especially Yan Jiuchao!

Dong Xian'er wiped the tears from her smile: "In Gu Mountain, however, Gu Mountain is not a place that everyone can go to, not even the female monarch, except for the monarch and the elder Gu."

Gu is always the elder among the Gu Masters, and his strength is even higher than that of the great Gu Masters, and the Gu elders in the entire imperial capital are no more than one-handed.

Dong Xian'er smiled: "The Meng Gu Master brought by the little county master is an old Gu, just to cater to the little county master and deliberately hide his strength, if you want to see a live Gu, you might as well go to him Well, don't you know his senior brother? Just let him help you one more time. But I advise you to act fast, because the Nanzhao sacred relic is gone, the Queen Gu is the only one who can replace it. Do you think Her Royal Highness will not? Will you hit it?"

It's the Queen's Mansion again!

Did they have enmity with the Queen's Mansion in their previous lives? In this life, they have faced each other again and again. The fact about the concubine has not yet come true. The female monarch will also have a beam...

That's not right, he had already made a relationship with her.

The little Gu Gu that the female monarch is thinking about is in her hands.

Yu Wan covered her heart.

Well, I can't give it back to her.

I can't say any reason, I just don't want to pay it back.

Several people went down the mountain.

Just when they were halfway up the mountain, one of Dong Xian'er's maids rushed over and whispered a few words in Dong Xian'er's ear. "I'll be there in an hour."

"Yes." The maid rode away.

Yu Wan had no intention of eavesdropping, but her ears were too good, so she pretended not to hear anything.

Dong Xian'er walked over gently and pulled Yu Wan's sleeve tenderly: "I'm leaving."

Yu Wan nodded: "Walk slowly."

Dong Xian'er threw Yu Wan's sleeves and stomped her feet: "Elm lumps!"

Yu Wan: What have I done, my elm lump! ! !

Dong Xian'er got on the carriage angrily, everyone got into the carriage, and suddenly jumped down, stuffed a shampoo into Yu Wan's arms, and under Yu Wan's confused gaze, she got on the carriage with an emotional expression.

Alas, woman, your name is Dramatic.

If nothing happened at Biluo Mountain Villa, Yu Wan would have thought that this oiran had just begun to fall in love with her. She had only a lot more secrets than them, so she would easily fall in love with her as a fake man?

"Awan." Yuehook suddenly spoke.

Yuegou speaks few words, and is extremely silent most of the time. If Yu Wan asks what he answers, if Yu Wan doesn't say anything, his mouth can be closed like a clam shell.

So when he said a word, Yu Wan immediately attracted attention: "What's wrong?"

"Look." Moon hook waved his hand.

Yu Wan looked at the situation and saw a luxurious carriage parked under a mountain opposite. It was because of their good eyesight that they could see it so easily. .

"Our mansion?" Yu Wan stroked her chin oddly, "Who came out? My uncle or Yan Jiuchao?"

Yuegou said: "I've seen that coachman from the West House."

Yu Wan raised her eyebrows: "How come they are around here? Could it be that our whereabouts have been exposed? Let's go and have a look."

The two went to the foot of another mountain. The coachman leaned against the door to take a nap. He lifted the moon hook and looked at it. There was no one in the carriage.

Yu Wan looked around and made a gesture to Chongyuegou. There was actually a nunnery on the halfway of the mountain. The nunnery looked dilapidated, and the door was deserted. It didn't look like there were pilgrims patronizing her.

Could it be that the people from the West House went there?

That's weird isn't it?

Instead of going to the Guwang Temple, which is full of incense, he went to an almost deserted nunnery.

What the * is Xifu playing?

Yu Wan said to Yuegou, "I'll go take a look, you wait for me here, and watch the carriage by the way, don't let anyone go along."

Their carriage was parked at the foot of the Guwang Temple, which was naturally observed with Yuehook's eyesight, and it was only a few dozen steps away from the nunnery. If Yu Wanzhen was in danger, Yuehook would be able to help her in time.

Moon Hook nodded in response.

Yu Wan went to the nunnery.

The door was locked from the inside.

Yu Wan became more and more puzzled. There was no village in front of this place, and no store in the back. If the people from Xifu really went up the mountain, the only place to go is this nunnery.

Mysterious, there must be no good thing!

Yu Wan climbed up the wall with a towering tree. Her legs were on the branches and her upper body was lying on the wall. She could clearly see the courtyard of the nunnery, which was simpler than her courtyard in Lotus Village, except for a water tank, a clothesline and nothing else.

"What about people?"

Yu Wan muttered.

Suddenly, a yin and yang voice came from the room: "I'm really not worth it for you. You said that if you didn't make a mistake in the past, why did you get kicked out of the house and suffer in such a place?"

is Lee!

Who is she talking to? The one who was kicked out of the house... the nunnery...

Yu Wan's expression froze.

Could it be Mrs. Tan who put a green hat on Helian Beiming?

"Why don't you talk? My sister-in-law thinks I'm an eyesore. Are you not happy that I came to visit you?"

Hearing Mrs. Li's name, Mrs. Tan didn't run away.

Yu Wan craned her neck to see what Mrs Tan looked like, but the room was so deep that she could only see a shadow cast on the ground.

That shadow is very thin, and Tan Shi also describes it as thin.

Mr. Tan did not answer Mr. Li.

Li Shi gradually got a little annoyed. From the beginning, I came to visit you, but I ignored you. Later, it became that you were already kicked out of the house, and what kind of thing dared to ignore me inside.

Yu Wan felt the smell. Mrs. Li was so angry that she made a special trip to find Mrs. Tan to vent her anger.

This is too much, not to mention that the Tan family is no longer from the Helian family, so what? The person she was sorry was Helian Beiming, not the Xifu and the Li family. The Li family was clearly angry at home. She was angry with her maid, and she didn't dare to let out her anger at her son. That's why she found the one who held her back in the past. Sister-in-law.

It's not that the whole family doesn't enter the house. Wei Dao and Helianqi are husband and wife. They are basically like each other.

But Mrs Tan's forbearance was beyond Yu Wan's imagination. Mrs Li scolded a lot of unpleasant words, but Mrs Tan didn't reply a word.

"...Sister-in-law, I'm really not worth it for you. I think that you were also married to the elder brother, who was carrying a big sedan chair, and was married. You were at home with your husband and son, and served your in-laws. You have no credit and hard work, but the old lady said nothing. I chased your mother and son away. This is not giving you a way to survive. Now, there is a country boy who claims to be the flesh and blood of the second brother. , the eldest young master has called the old lady and grandmother for so many years. It is time for a dog to develop feelings. Why is the old lady so cruel? I think she is not only cruel, but also confused. I hate a liar from outside!"

This Mr. Li, his mouth is too poisonous, and he is trying to provoke misunderstandings to Mrs. Tan.

Yu Wan's eyes turned cold, and Mrs. Li came out. She came out without warning. Yu Wan suddenly retracted her body, but the soles of her feet slipped, and her whole body fell from the walls and branches.

Seeing that she was about to fall and bloom, she was supported by a strong arm, and then she turned around, fluttered, and subconsciously hugged that arm.

After Yu Wan stabilized her figure, she realized that the other party was a monk in green clothes wearing a hat, she hurriedly pulled back her hand: "Thank you, Master."

After saying that, he suddenly felt something was wrong and looked up at the other party.

Isn't this the monk you've seen twice in Xicheng? She lived next to her when she was in the inn, and she shared a cell with her when she was in prison. I didn't expect to meet her here.

"Big....."

Yu Wan was about to speak when the monk in Tsing Yi bowed with one hand and left.

Yu Wan didn't even see what he looked like, but with that outfit and that hat, Yu Wan was sure that she was not mistaken.

Did you not recognize her? Or do you recognize something you don't want to know?

Yu Wan shook her head and did not force it.

Yu Wan didn't delay for too long, and hurriedly went to find Li's bad luck.

She hurried to the carriage in front of Li's, took out a dagger and moved her hands and feet on the wheel.

In the afternoon, Yu Wan walked into the old lady's yard on the front foot, and the old lady's confidant maid came to report with a look of shock: "Oh, the old lady is not well, the second lady's carriage broke down in the middle of the road, the wheels rolled out, the whole The carriage is overturned!"

"Then what happened to my second aunt?" Yu Wan asked with concern.

The maid said: "Second Madam's waist is flashing! She is still flashing at this age. The doctor said, I'm afraid I won't want to get out of bed in three or five months!"

Yu Wan calmly took a sip of tea and acted as a demon, then continued.

The old lady went to visit Mrs. Li. The old lady knew that Mrs. Li didn't want to see her good grandson, so she didn't bring the two of them with her.

Yu Wan took the opportunity to go to Yan Jiuchao's room, Qingyan and Jiang Hai were also there.

A few people didn't ask anything, it's just a Li family, what does life and death have to do with them?

Yu Wan told them about her encounter with Dong Xian'er and the news about Snow Toad and Gu Lao she had learned from her mouth: "...It seems that the Queen's Mansion has also made Xue Toad's idea, and there are only two ways at the moment. : One is to hand over the sacred relics of Nanzhao, so that the lady can dispel her thoughts about Xue Toad; the other... is to not hand over the sacred objects and forcibly grab Xue Toad, what do you think..."

Everyone said in unison: "Second!!!"

Yu Wan: "..."

Are you really not bandits?

Chapter 349 [V205] The most powerful little fat boy! (Twenty-eight more)

Yu Wan is the only hostess in the group, even she herself thinks that she should be a group pet, but she is not, Yan Jiuchao is.

Along the way, although everyone was at peace with each other, Qingyan and Jiang Hai were secretly disgusted with each other. .

Everyone can spoil her in everything, but she is resolute in some decisions.

"Grandma~"

"Not negotiable."

"Yan Jiu Dynasty~"

"Humph."

"Qingyan~"

"Ah."

"Jianghai~"

"You can't think about it."

"Yue..." Moon Hook probably doesn't need to ask. He is the one who listens to grandma the most, and is grandma's good baby. Grandma always said to grab it, so he must rush to the front to grab it.

Why are you so guilty about robbing things for Mao? So natural!!!

That's it, the arm can't twist the thigh, and one fist can't beat the four hands. Now that you have decided to grab it, then think about how to grab it.

"The safest way is to enter Gu Mountain." Yu Wan said, "But Gu Mountain is a forbidden area of Nanzhao, and non-gu masters are not allowed to approach, non-gu elders cannot enter, where are we going to get a Gu elder now?"

"There is another way." Qingyan said, "Didn't they also have the idea of Snow Toad? Then let them find it, and when we find it, we will grab it from them."

Yu Wan looked at him with an unbearable expression, do you really know who the target of your robbery is? Even my uncle's golden-faced dead man can't take a punch. How long do you think you can last from the Queen's Mansion?

"You can also steal." Moon Hook said.

Yu Wan was taken aback, I really couldn't believe that such words came from the mouth of the good baby Yuegou!

But it doesn't seem to be bad. They can't do it clearly, but it's not necessarily impossible for them to be yin!

Jiang Haidao: "I'll go to the Queen's Mansion first to inquire about the news."

Qingyan nodded: "I'll go with you."

The decision of the two people who are looking at each other is surprisingly consistent at this moment, what else can Yu Wan say? Just let the two go.

The two chose a dark and windy night, put on night clothes, and quietly went to the Queen's Mansion.

The Queen's Mansion was heavily guarded, and the two waited for a long time before they caught a guard-changing gap and jumped over the wall of the Queen's Mansion with light work.

Neither of the two expected that there was a thorn under the wall, and there was a poisoned sharp knife hidden in the thorn. If they were ordinary assassins, they would have been stabbed to death here long ago, but Jiang Hai suddenly kicked on the wall. With his feet, he jumped out a zhang away by force, and Qingyan was grabbed by him, and he also landed on a cobblestone-paved path with him.

Qingyan tentatively stepped on the grass in the direction of the wall, and was surprised to find that the grass was soft. He was shocked when he heard Jiang Haidao: "It's a swamp pit."

No wonder Jiang Hai had to jump so far, he still wondered, but he was just hiding from sharp knives and thorns, couldn't he get closer? It seems that it is really not good at the moment. This kind of swamp pit is full of venom, and once it falls in, there is no way to survive.

Qingyan pinched a cold sweat in fear.

Strange way, no one dares to trespass into the Queen's Mansion, where is this mansion, it is basically the Palace of the King of Hell.

Qingyan looked at Jiang Hai: "How do you know about these institutions? Have you been to the Queen's Mansion?"

"No." Jiang Hai said expressionlessly.

"So you've seen it somewhere else?" Qingyan asked.

Jiang Hai did not say anything.

Qingyan is unrelenting.

Jiang Hai said coldly, "I didn't ask about your origins, so don't ask me."

Qingyan subconsciously wanted to say, that's not possible, who knows if you have any disagreement with Awan and Jiu Chao? When the words reached his lips, he suddenly remembered that they seemed to have come to kidnap Awan and Jiu Chao to the ghost clan, ahem, almost forgot such an important matter.

Fifty steps do not laugh a hundred steps, no one speaks!

The Queen's Mansion is much bigger than the Biluo Mountain Villa. The two of them wandered around in it and almost didn't get lost. Finally, when the two of them were almost detouring, they found the figure of Meng Da Gu Master.

He is being led by a well-dressed maid and seems to be going somewhere.

Qingyan and Jiang Hai exchanged glances and followed quietly.

Meng Da Gu Master was led to an octagonal pavilion bathed in the moonlight and the fragrance of birds and flowers.

"Master Meng, please." The maid held the lantern with one hand and opened the curtain for Meng Da Gu Master with the other.

Meng Da Gu Master stepped into the pavilion.

Qingyan and Jianghai found a roof, leaned over the tiles, and blocked their figure with the eaves, revealing only two pairs of eyes that looked like fire.

There is a person sitting in the pavilion, a woman.

Because of the curtains, the two of them couldn't see it very clearly. They could only vaguely see Meng Da Gu Master bowing respectfully to the other party, and then the other party raised his finger to the stone bench opposite, and Meng Da Gu Master sat down.

The two raised their ears to the extreme and monitored their conversations.

"The little girl is naughty and wronged Lord Meng." The woman said.

Jiang Hai and Qingyan exchanged a wink, almost at the same moment, two words flashed in their minds - female gentleman.

Meng Da Gu Master said: "It is an honor for Meng to serve the county master."

The lady said genially, "That child spoiled me and the concubine, and I can't do anything right all day. You don't have to take what she says to heart. I will discipline her when I look back, and let her admit her mistake to Lord Meng."

As expected of a high-ranking person who has been sitting for many years, her tone and actions are very gentle, but there is a dignity and majesty that cannot be provoked.

Meng Da Gu Master said: "Tong Yan Wuji, Your Highness broke me."

Childish words without taboo? Jiang Hai and Qingyan rolled their eyes together. They were only one or two years younger than Awan, who was much more sensible than her!

The conversation between the two continues.

The lady said: "I called you to come here late at night, in fact, I want to discuss with you about the snow toad. You also know that the holy relic has been missing for a long time. I heard that it was in the Central Plains. I sent people to the Central Plains to find it. I've got nothing, I'm worried that the holy relic may have already suffered an accident, if I can get the snow toad, it can be regarded as a kind of compensation, I understand that your strength is already old Gu, it's just a jade card."

This is true, Meng Da Gu Master has already possessed the strength of Gu Lao, but Gu Lao also has levels, the lowest is the first rank, and the highest is the ninth rank.

Meng Da Gu Master wanted to eat into a big fat man in one go, so he was not in a hurry to test it.

But now that the lady has spoken, he will not wait any longer, but Zuo But with his current strength, he is confident that he can test the highest level ever.

Meng Da Gu Master said: "I will go to the Gu Palace tomorrow to get the jade medal."

The lady smiled and picked up a glass of wine: "Congratulations to Elder Meng Gu in advance."

The Gu Palace is located at the foot of Gu Mountain. There is only one entrance here, and there are two golden-faced dead soldiers guarding the entrance. Therefore, Jiang Hai and Qingyan, who had planned to continue to follow Meng Da Gu Master, had to give up and return to Helian Mansion to wait for news.

Meng Da Gu Master entered Gu Mountain under the leadership of a special person.

There are only three kinds of people in Gu Shan: Gu Master, Gu Daughter, and Dead Warrior.

Of course, the Gu Masters referred to here include Great Gu Masters and Gu Elders, but the Great Gu Masters who come to test are not seen at all. The Gu Elders are all sitting in an empty room with a crystal clear glass in front of them. , This colored glaze has its own mystery, which cannot be seen from the outside, but can be clearly seen from the inside.

The five Gu elders sat on the chairs, staring intently at the passage in front of Liuli. These passages may seem unremarkable, but in fact, there are poisonous Gus everywhere. You need to use skillful Gu techniques to control them so as not to be attacked by them.

The Gu girl who led the way introduced the rules of the test to Meng Da Gu Master. Entering the passage, every zhang is a level. So far, all the steps have been completed to 9 zhang. conceited.

The people who can come here are the best among the great Gu Masters, and each of them is extremely rare, and it would not be worthwhile to lose it on the way to the test, so the Gu Nv advised Meng Great Gu Master to do what he could.

Meng Da Gu Master has confidence in his Gu technique. Hundreds of years ago, Nanzhao's Gu technique was popular for a while, and there were many Gu elders of the eighth and ninth ranks. People can walk six zhang, and the most powerful six zhang Gu in this dynasty is already high in old age, and is enshrined in the Gu Palace for old age, but Meng Da Gu Master is so sure that he can walk seven zhang by himself.

In fact, he did.

When he entered the passage without any pressure, several Gu elders who were sitting behind the glass to observe showed excitement and anticipation, and he really did not disappoint them after that.

It is worth mentioning that Gu Shan encountered a ground movement a few days ago, and the passage behind it was blocked. I am still trying to dig it out, so the current passage is only seven feet long.

Of course, this is also the limit of Meng Da Gu Master. He can't move any further, his Gu technique is no longer enough to control more powerful Gu insects.

But that's enough of a surprise, isn't it?

He became the only seven-zhang Gu elder in this dynasty!

He is less than forty years old!

He is still young!

There are many possibilities for his future!

At this moment, Meng Da Gu Master forgot everything, completely immersed in the surprise of victory, he went out of the passage, he was not in a hurry to meet a few old Gu, he found a place where he could live his life and regained his excitement.

Finally, he came to the hall where he received the jade card.

"Congratulations to the old man Qizhang Gu!"

Before he entered the door, the group of people congratulated, and lo and behold, this is the treatment of the favored man!

Great Gu Master Meng raised his head proudly. Suddenly, he smelled a warm milk fragrance. He frowned and looked in the direction where the fragrance came from. He saw a man wearing a Great Gu Master's cloak crouching there. In a corner of the yard, milking a plump ewe.

His movements were very skillful, and he squeezed a big bowl in no time.

A small makeshift stove was set up beside him.

He poured the squeezed goat milk into the pot, added some firewood, and patiently boiled it.

A trace of disdain flashed in the eyes of Great Meng Gu Master. The dignified Great Gu Master did not do his right job, but he boiled goat milk in such a sacred place. Are you a nanny? This kind of person, even if he is lucky enough to become a great Gu Master, his future cultivation will probably stop there.

Meng Da Gu Master will not waste his extra energy to pay attention to an ineffective junior, he strode across the threshold.

"Senior Gu, please take your seat—" Someone shouted.

Take your seat? Meng Da Gu Master smiled and rolled his eyes, strode away from the crowded crowd, and walked over to the awesome chair that was placed in front of the crowd.

Unexpectedly, just as he was about to sit over, he was suddenly pulled away by a pair of arms that stretched out from nowhere.

is a Gu girl.

Gu girl fiercely said: "What are you doing? This is also where you can sit?"

Meng Da Gu Master was about to say, open your eyes and see clearly, I asked you to invite the seven-zhang Gu Master, but suddenly, three dark little figures walked over majestically!

The three of them were dark and dark, wearing miniature versions of the Great Gu Master robes, but the old Gu emblem was already hung on their chests.

The Gu girl instantly changed to a pious smile: "Congratulations, Mr. Little Gu!"

Meng Da Gu Master's temple jumped suddenly, little, little old Gu? Just these three black eggs? !

Not only is the Gu girl so devout, but even several senior Gu elders with excellent qualifications have come to congratulate them. It's not like they haven't seen the seven-zhang elder Gu. The man walked extremely hard, not to mention his age.

Have you seen the three-year-old Gu Lao? Still seven feet! Can you estimate how limitless their future is?

That man was able to walk seven feet because his strength was only seven feet, and these little black eggs were able to walk seven feet because the end was seven feet.

Therefore, it is also Qizhang, but can it be the same?

Meng Da Gu Master's limelight made a few little guys grab it!

Everyone forgot that there was another seven-zhang Gu old here.

The Gu elders personally awarded the jade medal to Nanzhao's youngest seven-zhang little elder, and gave them the most delicate and delicious cakes. The little black eggs took the things and ran out without saying a word!

They ran into the yard, came to the young man who was boiling goat milk, shoved the jade plaque and cakes into his arms, and then put their little hands behind their backs, tilted their heads, and looked at him cutely.

Awei, aren't we great?

Awei [helpless face]: He only walked seven feet, and it really is a waste.

Chapter 350 [V206] The Most Powerful Little Fat Boy (2) Monthly Pass Plus Update

Meng Da Gu Master... Now Meng Gu is old.

Old Meng Gu just watched a few talented little old Gu jump up in front of the young man who he disdained, with a look of excitement, as if waiting for the young man to praise them.

Really loses identity!

Awei naturally didn't boast, there's nothing to brag about, but he just threw a few scraps of wood into it to play.

Awei put the goat milk that had been boiled and cooled for a while into a small feeding bottle for the three of them.

The three of them grabbed their respective small bottles with both hands and started drinking.

Awei packed up his things, carried the bag in one hand and the sheep in the other, and left the place with three useless apprentices.

"Wait!"

Old Meng Gu couldn't help chasing after him.

Awei turned around, the three little black eggs gave him a perfunctory look with their bottle mouths in their mouths, and continued to drink milk.

Old Gu who stole his limelight turned out to be several unweaned children. This realization made Old Meng Gu feel very unhappy. However, he could not make trouble here. As a staff member of the Queen's Mansion, what can he do?

Old Meng Gu took a deep breath and asked Awei with an expression as usual, "Who are you? Who are they?"

Elder Meng Gu seriously suspects that these people have cheated, but he has no evidence.

If it is easy for Elder Gu to cheat for the Great Gu Master, but the strength of the Great Gu Master is not good, how could it be possible to help others pass the test of Elder Gu through additional means?

"What are you doing?" A Wei said bluntly.

Old Meng Gu sucked in a breath of cold air. He was just a big Gu Master, and he dared to be so arrogant in front of him, a seven-zhang Gu old man. If he changed the past, he would not have to take action. The people who had his own Gu Palace taught him a lesson, but But this young man stood beside this young man with three seven-zhang Gu elders, three to one, he didn't dare to find fault with others.

The little black eggs impatiently talked to this lousy old man, took A Wei's hand and left.

Elder Meng Gu wanted to ask something else, but was persuaded by A Wei's indifferent look.

Every old Gu is a treasure of Nanzhao, not only has bonuses, but also monthly silver, and there is a spacious and atmospheric courtyard, and people who eat royal food properly.

Nanzhao's Gu Lao is more precious than the Central Plains champion. After all, he can produce one in three years, but Gu Lao is unlucky and may not be able to produce one in 30 years. Today, three out of three——

Meng Gu is crazy: Did you forget me! ! !

These three are brothers again... Brothers who have not been weaned, it is not easy to live separately, so after asking their master's consent, they temporarily handed over the other two houses to Gu Temple, and they lived in the best one in the area. .

This is best in relative terms. In fact, the three houses are all located in the prime locations of the imperial capital, and all the top dignitaries live around them.

So, with the father and mother still "under the fence", the three little black eggs already own three prime real estates.

"Lord Awei, here are the salaries of the three little Gu elders, where should they be placed?" A Gu Palace steward who accompanied him pointed to the large box carried by the two attendants.

He is also a great Gu Master, he is more than ten years older than A Wei, and his qualifications are more profound, but who made A Wei teach three apprentices to be old Gu all at once? Regardless of luck or what, he didn't dare to be disrespectful to A Wei.

Awei pointed to the room: "Carry it inside."

"Yes!" Gu Palace manager hurriedly instructed the waiter to carry the box in.

Awei and his three little apprentices stayed happily.

The one who is happy is the little apprentice, Awei is not happy.

He's a villain, and villains don't like children.

The three little apprentices stumbled over, raised their heads, and stared at him with lamb-like eyes.

Hungry.

Awei went to the kitchen to cook in a second!

Gu Lao Palace made a splash for discovering a few genius Gu Masters, but Meng Gu Lao was not happy at all. For nothing else, today was supposed to be the most memorable and show-off day in his life. One person congratulated him, and it was only when the sun was down that a Gu girl suddenly reminded the old Gus: "Oh, isn't there another old Gu? Where did he go?"

Old Meng Gu is finally reminiscent.

Meng Gu received the jade card he longed for in a depressing mood, but he could not wait to throw it away.

He always felt that this was not true, how could there be such a young old Gu? He seriously suspected that they had done wrong, but the people in the Gu Palace agreed that everything was the will of the Gu God, and it was the Gu God who protected them, so the poisonous Gu in the passage did not attack them.

It doesn't matter whether they can use Gu techniques or not, they are the people blessed by the Gu God, that's enough.

Meng Gu was still arguing about something, but the big Gu said: "Don't forget, Your Highness is also a person protected by the Gu God, you said that the protection of the Gu God is false, and the implication is that the female monarch surrenders the sacred thing. Is there something strange too?"

Old Meng Gu closed his mouth for a second.

Old Meng Gu got on the carriage and returned to the Queen's Mansion.

The female monarch learned that he went to the Gu Palace today and was waiting for his good news in the mansion early. The reason why the Gu Palace is called the forbidden area of Nanzhao is because no one except the monarch can put their claws in there. What the result will be, the lady really doesn't know.

After Meng Gu got off the carriage, he asked the maid of the lady to lead him to the flower hall.

"Meng Mou has seen His Highness." Elder Meng Gu bent over and gave a salute.

The lady's eyes fell on the old Gu emblem on his robe, and the smile gradually overflowed from the corner of her eyes: "Congratulations to Mr. Meng, I wonder how old Mr. Meng is?"

Meng Gu said: "Meng is not talented, seven feet."

The lady stood up excitedly: "Master Meng is worthy of being the number one Gu Master in Nanzhao, and even the Gu elders of the Gu Palace are definitely inferior to you."

Old Meng Gu bowed his head and said, "Your Highness has praised me wrongly, and Meng Mou is ashamed to be worthy of it."

If in the past, this was a polite remark, but now it is true, he was defeated by four unknown masters and apprentices, what about Nanzhao's number one Gu Master?

He didn't want to talk about this matter, so he didn't mention it to the lady, but after three or five days left, the people from the Gu Palace entered the palace to meet the monarch, and Her Royal Highness naturally knew about it.

The lady found that Meng Gu was not very interested, she just thought he was exhausted, didn't think deeply, and quickly said the business so that he could go back to the room to rest earlier: "Since Meng Meng is already a very old Gu, he must be qualified. Entering Gu Mountain, I wonder how much Master Meng is sure of getting the Snow Toad?"

Old Meng Gu said firmly: "Don't worry, Your Highness, I am 100% sure that I will help you get the Snow Toad!"

The lady raised his hand in satisfaction and patted it gently: "Then I will rely on Lord Meng."

But he said that a few little black eggs were eating the fragrant rice made by A Wei, and they were a little tired, and their stomachs were bulging. A Wei went to the kitchen to wash the dishes, and a few little black eggs were strolling in the yard.

They first fed the ewes grass, and fed the sheep round and round, and then led the sheep for a walk.

walked out of the yard.

It's not their fault. In fact, when they lived in Lianhua Village, they often walked around the village. No one restrained them.

The three little black eggs led the ewe to the road, surrounded by large mansions, separated by small alleys.

Three people and one sheep are walking around in the alley, and they can't find their way home when they are dressed.

Awei said that if he couldn't find his way home, just wait for him where he was, and he would find him.

The three little black eggs found a closed door, walked to the steps and sat down.

At first, they kept their spirits high, but in the end they were exhausted during the day, and they fell asleep against the wall after a while.

The rope tied to the ewe came loose, but the ewe did not run away. The ewe knelt down and wrapped her fluffy body to keep the three little black eggs warm.

The old lady came out from the West Mansion to visit Mrs. Li, and this is what she saw.

Originally, the east and west houses were connected, and you could walk directly there. However, the two houses are too big and the distance is too long, so it is better to go through the hutong.

The maid who supported the old lady said, "Oh, who's child? Why are they sleeping at the back door of our East Mansion?"

The old lady stepped forward and took a look, oh, what a dark child! But why is it so beautiful in black? Look at that chubby little face, it's almost the same as when Niudan was a child!

"Old Madam, let's... ah!" Halfway through the maid's words, she saw that the old lady, who had to be supported to walk, suddenly threw her crutches, and she didn't know where she got the strength to pick up one of the fat boys.

The maid exclaimed: "What are you doing, old lady?"

"Shh~" The old lady told her to shut up, looked around, and said with a frown, "Hurry up, pick them up and steal them home to be my little great-grandson!"
