Chapter 941: Domineering Brother Jiu, Wife Protection Maniac (4)

Mu Qing felt that his senior brother was right, but he also felt that something was wrong. "Senior Brother, they're... different from the people outside."

Mu Ting said indifferently, "What's different? Just because they weren't frightened by your Yin Yang Eyes, so you started to treat them with all your heart? Don't forget, we'll always be in a business relationship with them. Once we lose our value, see if they're still willing to pay attention to us."

Mu Qing opened his mouth.

Mu Ting interrupted him. "Alright, stop talking. You only have to remember yourself. The few of us are the closest people in the world. Other than me and Senior Sister, don't trust anyone else."

"Oh." Mu Qing nodded listlessly.

At night, Mu Qing was called by Yu Wan to Grandma and Old Cui's room.

Yu Wan went straight to the point. "Your junior brother hasn't woken up yet. It might be related to him being poisoned and stimulating the sorcery power in his body. Only by removing his sorcery power can we have a way to wake him up. Do you know how to resolve the sorcery power in his body?"

Yu Wan originally planned to enter the Sorcerer Clan before slowly finding someone to remove the child's sorcery power. However, if he remained unconscious, they would probably not even be able to enter the Sorcerer Clan's territory.

Mu Qing thought for a while and said, "If I remember correctly, that sorcery power came from an Earth-rank Great Sorcerer. We need to find a Great Sorcerer of the same realm to crack the sorcery power sealed in his body."

Yu Wan widened her eyes. “What? You’re saying that if an Earth-rank sorcerer can seal him, then can he still be a Sorcerer King?”

Mu Qing hurriedly explained, “My junior brother was willing to have his sorcery power sealed. Therefore, even if the other party’s cultivation level is below his, it’s not a big problem.”

In other words, his junior brother’s strength might be above the other party’s. However, wasn’t it too ridiculous to say that he was a Sorcerer King?

“Where can I find a Heaven-rank Great Sorcerer?” Yu Wan asked, fanning herself.

“There’s an island where the Sacred Clan imprisoned prisoners,” Mu Qing said.

“Why didn’t you say so earlier?” Yu Wan exploded!

Mu Qing was stunned by Yu Wan’s sudden anger. “I don’t know either. You didn’t say that you were looking for the Sorcerer King! You even suspected that my junior brother was the Sorcerer King...”

Yu Wan quickly waved her fan and said, “This kid still has the strength of an Earth-ranked Great Sorcerer even after his sorcery power is sealed. I think the chances of him being the Sorcerer King are very high. Why don’t we... turn the ship back?”

“No need.” Mu Ting walked in.

Yu Wan, Mu Qing, and Grandma in the room looked at him. He was three years older than Mu Qing, and his facial features had all grown. He had a tall figure and was handsome. He could be considered a very handsome man in Jade Nation.

However, they were used to seeing Yan Jiuchao’s divine appearance. A handsome man like Mu Ting was almost nothing to them.

The few of them looked very calm.

Mu Ting cleared his throat and said, "I've been to the sea with Master and know that there's a deserted island nearby. It's said that a Heaven-rank Great Sorcerer lives on the island. If we find him, we can remove the sorcery power sealed in Little Junior Brother's body."

"Is the news reliable?" Mu Qing asked.

Mu Ting said, "I heard it from Master. Master was told by someone else." "Ah..." Mu Qing was speechless.

Yu Wan smiled faintly. "If there's really a great sorcerer, why didn't the Sacred Clan capture him?"

Mu Ting said seriously, "The power of a Heaven-rank Great Sorcerer is unimaginable. No expert can catch him at all."

"Is that so?" Yu Wan put away her folding fan, stood up, and walked out of the door.

Mu Ting asked in confusion, "Where is Mrs. Yan going?"

Yu Wan pointed at the sea and said, "Didn't you say that the deserted island is nearby? I have to prepare to get off the ship."

"Are... are we really going?" Mu Ting was stunned.

Yu Wan spread her hands. "If not, why did you say that? Is it fun?"

Mu Ting said in shame, "I spoke too quickly, but now that I think about it, I think this move is still too dangerous. Mrs. Yan might not know, but the Sacred Clan has long targeted that deserted island, no one who went to the island returned. As time passed, the deserted island was famous for being dangerous, and no one dared to go there. Master mentioned it to me back then because he asked me to remember to stay far away if I encountered that deserted island in the future."

Yu Wan seemed to have an epiphany. "I see. Then we have to go." Mu Ting :

"Thirteen, Little Six, where's your master?" Yu Wan walked out with light steps..

Chapter 942: Domineering Brother Jiu, Wife Protection Maniac (5)

Yu Shaoqing was the one who negotiated with the boss about going to the island.

"You, you, you... what island did you say?" The boss was dozing off. When he heard Yu Shaoqing's words, he was so frightened that he stood up!

Yu Shaoqing said politely, "We're about to arrive at the deserted island. I want to implore you to stop the ship and allow us to go to the island to do something. We won't delay for too long. When the time is up, we'll return to the ship no matter what."

"How can that be..." Just as the chief was about to say "alright", he suddenly felt someone pinch his back hard. It was so painful that his veins were throbbing.

He shouted, "not okay?"

"Hehehe." The chief's smile was uglier than crying.

"In that case, you agree?" Yu Shaoqing cupped his hands happily. "You're really heroic and righteous! I thank you here!" As he spoke, he patted the Boss' shoulder. "Boss, I'm definitely going to be your brother! I see that you're older than me. In the future, I'll call you Big Brother!"

"You flatter me, you flatter me..." The Boss shed tears of joy (sorrow).

The three leaders had sailed the sea for many years and had experienced all kinds of storms. However, they had never dared to approach that deserted island. It was not entirely because of those rumors, but because their big brother had really walked on that island.

In the end, he never returned. They sent people to look for him, but they were all thrown into the sea. If there was anything more terrifying than that woman, it would be that ghost island.

At noon, their ship approached the island. The three leaders did not dare to get too close and let the small boat sail over.

There was a very powerful Gu worm aura on the island, and Yu Wan also boarded the ship. Yu Wan looked up and said to Mu Qing, 'Mu Qing, wait for us on the ship with your senior brothers and sisters. Shadow Six, you stay too.' Shadow Six nodded knowingly. Someone had to stay and watch in case someone drove the boat away.

Yan Jiuchao said indifferently, "Thirteen, carry Zhou Jin on your back." "Yes!" Shadow Thirteen flew into the air and carried the unconscious Zhou Jin off the boat.

Zhou Yuyan couldn't stop him even if she wanted to. She looked at the group of people underground and said, "Hey! What are you doing? The island is so dangerous. What if something happens to my junior brother?"

Yan Jiuchao ignored her.

Yu Wan smiled and looked at her. "If your senior brother isn't lying and there's indeed a great sorcerer on the island, then we'll remove your junior brother's sorcery power on the island. However, if your senior brother Mu Ting deliberately lures us to a place where we can't return, then we can only let your junior brother die with him!"

"You!" Zhou Yuyan was furious!

Mu Qing looked at Mu Ting in fear. "Senior Brother, you're not lying, right?"

There's a great sorcerer on the island!"

Mu Ting clenched his fists, gritted his teeth, and enunciated each word clearly.

"I'm not lying!"

However, he did not tell the entire truth.

It was true that there was a great sorcerer on the island, but he was not a light sorcerer who saved the dying and helped the injured. Instead, he was a dark sorcerer who killed people like flies!

This group of people had unknown origins, but they wanted to barge into the territory of the Sorcerer Clan. Mu Ting did not want them to drag them down, so he thought of a way to prevent future trouble. He knew that most of them would go to the island, so he alone was enough to deal with them.

However, he never expected that they would bring his unconscious junior brother down with them!

"I'll go with you!" Mu Ting alighted from the ship along the rope.

"I'll go too!"

"I'll go too!"

Mu Qing and Zhou Yuyan spoke in unison.

The two of them did not know Mu Ting's tricks. They were just worried about their unconscious junior brother.

Yu Wan smiled. "Unfortunately, both boats are full. Only one of you can get off."

“Wait on the ship!” Zhou Yuyan pushed Mu Qing to the side without hesitation. She was not a sorcerer, but she had martial arts. Moreover, her martial arts were not weak. With a light leap, she landed on Shadow Thirteen and her junior brother’s small boat. Mu Ting was also on this small boat.

Yu Shaoqing rode on the same boat as his daughter and son-in-law. Yu

Shaoqing and Yan Jiuchao rowed. On the other side, Shadow Thirteen and Mu Ting also rowed. Not long after, the two small boats arrived at the beach of the deserted island.

This was really a deserted island. There were no traces of human habitation within a ten-mile radius. After the few of them stopped the small boat, they walked deeper into the island.

Yan Jiuchao held Yu Wan’s chubby hand.

Was he afraid that she would get lost? Yu Wan smiled.

Yu Shaoqing looked at his daughter and son-in-law who were glued to each other and looked at the sky sadly.

On the first day Ah Shu wasn’t around, he missed her.

The second day Ah Shu wasn’t around, he missed her, missed her.

On the thirty-ninth day of Ah Shu’s absence...

“This island is so big. Did your master say where the great sorcerer lives?” Yu Wan’s clearly happy voice interrupted Yu Shaoqing’s thoughts. He looked at Mu Ting. This kid looked decent, but he was not as likable as Mu Qing!

“Look, it’s fogging up!” Zhou Yuyan said in surprise.

“This isn’t fog, it’s confusion smoke.” Yu Wan’s eyes darkened. She took out a few small medicine bottles from her purse and threw them to Mu Ting and Zhou Yuyan. “Eat one every two hours! Feed your little junior brother one too!” “Why aren’t you eating?” Zhou Yuyan asked suspiciously.

Yu Wan glanced at her and said, “I ate it before I went to the island. It’s a pill that can withstand a hundred poisons. Take it or leave it!”

Zhou Yuyan did not want to eat. Mu Ting swallowed the pill. “Senior Brother!” Zhou Yuyan was furious.

Yu Wan looked at Mu Ting with a smile. “Since there’s confusion smoke on this island, it means that someone is indeed living here. It seems that we’re quite lucky. We might really meet a great sorcerer.”

Mu Ting did not say anything. He turned his face away and looked ahead warily.

Shadow Thirteen handed Zhou Jin to Yu Shaoqing. “The confusion smoke came from that direction. Master, Young Master, Young Madam, wait for me here first. I’ll go ahead and scout the way.”

“Be careful,” Yu Shaoqing said as he took the child.

Shadow Thirteen nodded and used his qinggong. There was a large rock nearby. Zhou Yuyan’s legs hurt from standing. She walked over and was about to sit down when she heard a cold voice above her head. “Move aside.”

This voice was clearly unbelievably pleasant, but it made one shiver. Zhou Yuyan trembled and moved aside.

Yan Jiuchao held Yu Wan's hand and walked over, letting her sit on the stone.

This was the first time Zhou Yuyan had seen someone brazenly snatching a seat. She wondered what was going on, but it turned out that he wanted her to give up her seat to this woman!

Why?! So what if there are many people?!

Not long after Shadow Thirteen left, the fog became even thicker, and the visibility shrank to less than seven feet.

Mu Ting and Zhou Yuyan had no choice but to lean towards Yu Wan and the others.

Zhou Yuyan didn't have the time to throw a tantrum now. She looked at the increasingly thick fog and the panic in her heart gradually magnified. "How did this happen? Where's your guard? Did something happen to him?"

Yu Wan took out a translucent jade bottle and dusted the glowing little Gu worm inside. "His life Gu is still around, so are yours." With that, she took out a few jade bottles in one go. There was a sparkling little Gu worm in each jade bottle.

Zhou Yuyan covered her chest. "You... you poisoned us?"

"How will we know that you're still alive if we don't use Gu?" As soon as she finished speaking, Zhou Yuyan and Mu Ting's figures were swallowed by the thick fog, as if they had disappeared into thin air.

Yu Wan looked at the two little Gu worms in the bottle and clicked her tongue.

"What did I say? Right, Yan Jiuchao?" She turned around and looked around..

"Yan Jiuchao, Yan Jiuchao... Yan Jiuchao!"

Chapter 943: The Little Fatty Who Wins Without War! (1)

A second ago, she was still talking to the person beside her. In the next second, she disappeared into thin air. There was no movement at all. It was unlikely that Yan Jiuchao would leave her behind and leave alone. Even if he left, there would at least be footsteps. However, there was nothing. Just like Zhou Yuyan and Mu Ting, he seemed to have suddenly evaporated.

“Yan Jiuchao! Yan Jiuchao!” Yu Wan stood up and called out to him loudly, but there was still no response.

“Zhou Yuyan!”

“Mu Ting!”

There was no need to guess, there was really no response.

“Dad!”

Yu Shaoqing had also disappeared. If the thick fog had only blocked their figures, then they should at least be able to hear her voice and respond to her.

“Could it be that they’ve already gone far?” Yu Wan murmured. It was really unbelievable that in the blink of an eye, the people who were originally beside her had arrived at a place where even her voice could not be heard. “What’s wrong?”

Little Gu flashed out of her arms and lay on her shoulder, patting her shoulder with its little claws.

Yu Wan rubbed it in amusement. “I know you’re the most obedient. I’m not afraid since you’re not lost. Don’t worry.”

It had to be said that she felt much more at ease with Little Gu accompanying her in such a strange place.

“You should go in. Don’t lose your way later, too,” Yu Wan said to Little Gu.

Little Gu nodded adorably and flashed back into Yu Wan’s arms.

Yu Wan looked at the thick fog and nodded ambiguously. She took out a match and blew on it, intending to light it. However, the dampness was too strong and the match was extinguished. If she remembered correctly, it was noon when they alighted from the ship. The sky was still bright, but looking at the thick fog, the sky was gloomy, as if evening was coming soon.

“You think I can’t do anything without a match?” Yu Wan touched her chin and took out a Saintess Stone. Her stomach moved slightly and the Saintess Stone lit up.

The visibility, which was originally less than three feet, instantly expanded to half a foot.

“Where’s east? Where’s south?” Yu Wan sized up her surroundings and really couldn’t find a direction. She could only walk forward based on her intuition.

After walking for a while, Yu Wan saw a big tree. There was a furtive movement behind the tree. She pulled out her dagger and carefully walked over. She walked around the tree and pressed the dagger against the other party’s neck.

“Ah—don’t kill me—” The other party squatted under the tree, covering his face with his hands, his voice filled with fear.

“Zhou Yuyan?” Yu Wan was shocked. She retracted her dagger and shone the Saintess Stone at her. “Why are you here?” After Zhou Yuyan confirmed that the person was Yu Wan, she pounced on her. Yu Wan was hugged. She covered her stomach with her hand and asked in confusion, “What’s wrong?”

Zhou Yuyan trembled and said, "I... I got lost with Senior Brother... Someone chased after me just now... I couldn't shake him off..."

Yu Wan sighed. "You usually look quite unreasonable, but it turns out you're so cowardly."

Zhou Yuyan choked on her words and let go of Yu Wan angrily. She glared at Yu Wan and said, "You're the only one who's bold! Then didn't you come to look for me?!"

Yu Wan sheathed the dagger at her waist and said, "I'm not here for you. I just happened to meet you. If you had spoken half a step later, I would have killed you."

"You?" Zhou Yuyan rolled her eyes. How could a lousy cat without martial arts kill an expert from the Jade Nation like her?

Yu Wan couldn't be bothered to argue with the little girl. She took the Saintess Stone and continued to walk forward. Since she could meet Zhou Yuyan, she might be able to meet Yan Jiuchao and Dad later.

"Hey! Where are you going? You... come back! It's very dangerous ahead!" Zhou Yuyan did not dare to walk around anymore. Just now, she had almost gone crazy from the shadow. Now that she had met Yu Wan, she only wanted to stay under the tree with Yu Wan and wait for her senior brother to find them.

Yu Wan did not like to sit back and do nothing. Moreover, the atmosphere here was strange. Staying where she was might not be foolproof. She said without looking back, "Follow me if you want. Otherwise, wait there yourself."

"You..." Zhou Yuyan stomped her feet in anger. She was unwilling to be led by the nose by Yu Wan, but she did not have the guts to stay here alone. She could only grit her teeth and follow.

Yu Wan slowly walked forward with a calm expression.

"Aren't you afraid?" Zhou Yuyan asked softly.

“Can you walk out if you’re afraid?” Yu Wan asked.

Zhou Yuyan choked again. Although these words were right, wouldn’t ordinary people feel afraid? Moreover, she was a girl and seemed to have gotten separated from her family.. Wasn’t she worried that she wouldn’t be able to see them again?

Chapter 944: The Little Fatty Who Wins Without War! (2)

Yu Wan said, “What happened just now? You disappeared just as you finished talking to me.”

Zhou Yuyan said aggrievedly and fearfully, “I don’t know, either. When I turned around, you were all gone! I called you, but you ignored me!”

Yu Wan muttered, “This is strange. Why can’t we hear each other when we’re clearly in the same place?” The fog was too thick, so it was not surprising that they could not see each other. It would be unreasonable if they could not even hear each other.

Zhou Yuyan suddenly approached Yu Wan and asked in a daze, “Do you think... we met a ghost?”

Yu Wan said slowly, “If it’s a ghost, it’ll be easy.”

“What do you mean?” Zhou Yuyan asked in shock.

Zhou Yuyan shivered!

Zhou Yuyan returned to her senses and followed. On the ship, she still felt that Yu Wan had a good temper and was a pushover that she could control. But when she came here, she realized that Yu Wan was colder and tougher than she had imagined.

The surroundings were quiet, making Zhou Yuyan feel uncomfortable. Her heart was beating like a drum, but she was afraid that Yu Wan would see it. She cleared her throat and looked at the stone in Yu Wan's hand. "What is this?" "Saintess Stone," Yu Wan said.

"This is the Saintess Stone?" Although Zhou Yuyan didn't have much contact with the saints, she had heard of some things. The Saintess Stone was a crystal that tested the bloodline of the saints. Only a saintess or a sagemaster with a pure bloodline could make it shine. Zhou Yuyan's eyes instantly widened.

"You... you're a saintess! You're from the saints!"

"Does the Saintess have to be from the Sacred Clan?" Her ancestors had long parted ways with the Sacred Clan. It was barely reasonable to say that she was a descendant of the Sacred Clan, but the Sacred Clan Zhou Yuyan mentioned was clearly not the Lan Clan of the Nether Capital.

Zhou Yuyan took a step forward and pulled out the sword at her waist to block Yu Wan's path. "I was wondering why you were so kind as to save us from the island. So you're from the Sacred Clan! You must have ill intentions by going to the Sorcerer Clan!"

Yu Wan stretched out two slender fingers and gently knocked on the sword at her throat. She looked behind her and said, "There's a ghost!"

"Ah!" Zhou Yuyan was so frightened that she threw away her sword and went around to hide behind Yu Wan.

Yu Wan laughed until her shoulders were trembling. Zhou Yuyan realized that she had been fooled and was angry. Yu Wan was done laughing and said, "Alright, you can't kill me. Save your energy and go find your junior brother and senior brother "

Zhou Yuyan covered her heart that had almost exploded from fright. She remembered that this woman had poisoned her and said angrily, "If you have the ability, don't use Gu. Let's fight with real weapons!"

Yu Wan said in amusement, "If I can use Gu, why would I use knives and spears? Am I stupid?"

"You..." Zhou Yuyan was about to refute when she inadvertently glanced at a small tea shed not far away. "Look! There's someone over there!"

The tea shed was also in the fog, but it was not as thick as the place they had walked. The stall was set up by an old couple. Other than the two of them, there were also a few customers drinking tea.

"So there's someone on the island. Let's go over and ask if anyone has seen my senior brother!" Zhou Yuyan said excitedly. She left Yu Wan behind and ran towards the tea shed with light steps.

The old couple was making dumplings. She came to them and asked them across the table, "Old man, have you seen such a tall, twenty-something man in a long grayish-blue robe?"

The two of them ignored her and continued to wrap the dumplings. Zhou Yuyan frowned. "Old man, can you hear me? I'm asking you about someone." The two of them continued to make dumplings.

Zhou Yuyan thought of something and smiled. She took out a piece of gold and placed it on their table. "I want a plate of dumplings. There's no need to change. Tell me, did you see the man I mentioned just now?"

After the old man received the money, the old lady went to make dumplings for her, but they still did not answer her.

"How did this happen? Could it be that they're deaf? Mute?" Zhou Yuyan was puzzled, but she did not plan to use force on the two old men. She turned to the two young burly men drinking at the table and asked politely, "Brothers, can I ask you about someone? My senior brother is this tall, twenty years old, and he's wearing a grayish-blue robe!"

The two young burly men only drank their tea and ignored her..

Chapter 945: The Little Fatty Who Wins Without War! (3)

“Sigh—” Zhou Yuyan was puzzled. What was wrong with the people here? Were they all so indifferent? She was not ugly or shabby. She did not look like a little beggar who did not need to be ignored.

Zhou Yuyan walked towards the last auntie who was eating dumplings. “Aunt...”

Before she could finish speaking, Yu Wan walked over unhurriedly and said to her lightly, “There’s no need to ask. It’s useless.”

“What do you mean?” Zhou Yuyan asked.

Yu Wan’s gaze swept across everyone. “Didn’t you notice that they’re abnormal?”

Zhou Yuyan really sensed that something was wrong after Yu Wan said that. These people were either working with their heads lowered or eating and drinking without any movement. It was indeed too strange.

Zhou Yuyan walked back to Yu Wan’s side in fear and grabbed her sleeve weakly. “Are they evil people? Will they kill us?”

Yu Wan stroked the Saintess Stone in her hand. “I don’t know if they’re evil people. I only know that none of them are alive!”

“Ah—” Zhou Yuyan covered her mouth to stop herself from shouting.

Yu Wan found a stool to sit down on. The auntie brought over a plate of dumplings and two bowls of steaming tea. Zhou Yuyan’s face turned pale and she broke out in cold sweat. She sat down opposite Yu Wan fearfully.

Yu Wan was not in a hurry to touch the plate of dumplings. Instead, she picked up the tea bowl. Zhou Yuyan was so frightened that her hands and feet turned cold. She picked up the tea bowl with trembling hands. "How, how did this happen?" She brought the tea bowl to her mouth in a daze and took a sip with chattering teeth.

Yu Wan said indifferently, "You dare to drink dead people's tea?"

Didn't you pick it up first?!

Before Zhou Yuyan could swallow it, she hurriedly bent down and spat out the tea when she heard her words. In the end, she saw that the originally clear tea turned into a pool of blood after being spat out onto the ground. There were also a few struggling Gu worms in the blood. All the hair on her body stood on end!!!

Yu Wan slowly picked up the tea bowl and took a sip.

Zhou Yuyan was dumbfounded. "How... how dare you drink it?"

"I drank the water I brought myself," Yu Wan said as she shook the water bag in her hand.

The corners of Zhou Yuyan's mouth twitched. When did this woman... change the water in the bowl?

Yu Wan took her chopsticks and picked up a dumpling. Zhou Yuyan grabbed her wrist. "You can't eat it!"

Yu Wan smiled faintly, removed her hand, and gently took a bite of the steaming dumpling. "Oh, not bad, it's actually mutton filling."

Zhou Yuyan: "Aren't... aren't you afraid that someone inside will poison it?" Yu Wan glanced at the blood on the ground and said, "That's not poison."

"What is it?" Zhou Yuyan asked.

“Illusion,” Yu Wan said.

“Huh?” Zhou Yuyan looked confused.

Yu Wan looked around. “To be able to create such a powerful illusion, its sorcery power is no small matter. Now, I finally believe that your senior brother is right. There’s indeed a great sorcerer living on the island.”

Zhou Yuyan said, “Are you saying that they’re all illusions? How is that possible? Even a great sorcerer at my father’s level can’t create such a powerful...”

Before she could finish her sentence, Yu Wan stood up and left indifferently. She left a Saintess Stone on the table.

The Saintess Stone flashed with golden light.

Zhou Yuyan covered her eyes with her hand. When the golden light dissipated and she opened her eyes again, there was no one or the shed. She was sitting on a bare stone.

She was stunned. It was unknown if she was surprised that the other party had created such a powerful illusion or if Yu Wan had actually easily broken through the other party’s illusion.

“Hey! Wait for me!” Zhou Yuyan only knew that her life was tied to this woman!

Chapter 946: Brother Jiu Takes Action (1)

On this side, Zhou Yuyan met Yu Wan. On the other side, Mu Ting, who had disappeared with Zhou Yuyan, met Shadow Thirteen.

The unconscious Little Junior Brother Zhou Jin was tied to Shadow Thirteen's back. The moment he saw Zhou Jin, Mu Ting's expression finally relaxed. However, he was not in a hurry to acknowledge the two of them. Instead, he said warily. "StOD."

"What?" Shadow Thirteen asked indifferently.

Mu Ting reached out. "Give me your hand."

Shadow Thirteen looked at him strangely and handed him his wrist. Mu Ting placed his fingertip on Shadow Thirteen's pulse.

"You know how to take a pulse? I'm not sick." Shadow Thirteen retracted his hand coldly.

"I just want to confirm if you're really Shadow Thirteen or if it's an illusion created by this fog." After Mu Ting finished speaking, he saw that Shadow Thirteen did not show much surprise and laughed self-deprecatingly. "It seems that you can also tell that something's wrong here."

Shadow Thirteen said indifferently, "Why? Only you sorcerers can tell that this is an illusion. Can't us sacrificial soldiers tell?"

"That's not what I meant." Mu Ting denied it, but he could not help but be surprised by Shadow Thirteen. Sacrificial soldiers walked the pugilistic world with martial arts, but martial arts were almost not worth mentioning in the face of such a powerful illusion. Therefore, he did not expect Shadow Thirteen to understand the profundity.

This also made Mu Ting even more certain that they were not simple.

Shadow Thirteen did not have the time to argue with Mu Ting. He carefully sized up the surrounding environment. Even if it was foggy, as long as he walked in a certain direction, he would definitely be able to reach the end.

Mu Ting followed Shadow Thirteen and looked at his little junior brother on Shadow Thirteen's back. "Why don't you give him to me? You focus on scouting the way."

"There's no need. Take care of yourself," Shadow Thirteen said expressionlessly.

Mu Ting had hit a nail and his expression was a little ugly. At this moment, the fog dissipated. A forest suddenly appeared in front of them, and a group of ferocious beasts rushed towards them.

Mu Ting frowned and said seriously, "Don't be afraid, it's an illusion!"

Shadow Thirteen pulled out his sword and cut off the poisonous snake that had fallen from his head. Blood splashed all over Mu Ting's face.

Mu Ting was stunned.

Shadow Thirteen mocked, "Is this also an illusion?"

Mu Ting touched the snake blood on his face and widened his eyes in disbelief. The illusion here could actually change with the danger in the forest? He was a Black-grade Sorcerer, but his eyesight was actually inferior to a sacrificial soldier.

Shadow Thirteen was a half-sacrificial soldier who had crawled out of a pile of corpses. Although he didn't know any illusions, he had an instinctive sense of danger. When the group of ferocious beasts rushed towards him, he closed his eyes and his surroundings fell silent. Only the rustling sound of crawling came from above his head, making him shiver.

Shadow Thirteen put away his sword. "This snake is real, and this forest is very likely real. Let's walk over first."

Not long after Yu Wan and Zhou Yuyan left the “small tea shed”, they also entered a forest. Zhou Yuyan looked at the towering tree above her head and tugged at Yu Wan’s sleeve. “Do you think... these are illusions?”

Zhou Yuyan followed quickly, one hand tugging at Yu Wan’s sleeve. “I’m not a sorcerer. How can I tell?”

Yu Wan smiled and said, “Your father taught such a powerful disciple. You’re the daughter of the sect master, but you didn’t inherit any of his abilities. How sad.

“I don’t want to be a sorcerer!” Zhou Yuyan snorted.

“Oh?” Yu Wan replied casually.

Zhou Yuyan sighed. “I heard from my father that powerful sorcerers can spy on the Heavenly Dao, but they often don’t have a good ending. Have you never heard of the five harms and three flaws?”

Yu Wan was focused on finding her way and ignored her. When Zhou Yuyan saw that she did not refute, she thought that she had heard her. She counted with her fingers and explained to Yu Wan in detail, “Wifeless, Widow, Orphaned, Lonely, and Handicapped’. These are five harms. The three flaws are ‘money, life, and power’. The Heavenly Dao has its own rules. If you spy on the Heavenly Dao and leak the heavenly secrets, you will suffer the wrath of the heavens!”

Yu Wan nodded. “Then has anyone from your sect been punished by the heavens?”

“How can those little sorcerers do that?” Zhou Yuyan curled her lips and looked at the forest. “Although the illusion just now was very powerful, it’s not a sorcery that can suffer the wrath of the heavens. Of course, it’s different if we’re killed.”

“How is it different?” Yu Wan asked..

Chapter 947: Brother Jiu Takes Action (2)

Zhou Yuyan said, “Using sorcery to harm people will result in retribution. You know about light and dark sorcerers, right? For example, my father and the others are light sorcerers. They usually exorcize evil spirits, pray for blessings, save the dead and help the injured. Dark sorcerers take the money to help others resolve disasters that they shouldn’t have. Dark sorcerers will lose their lifespan!”

“Is that so?” Yu Wan muttered.

Zhou Yuyan placed her hands on her hips and said, “That’s why there are rumors on the streets that many dark sorcerers went to capture enough young people to extend their lives!”

“This works too?” Yu Wan turned around and changed her direction.

Zhou Yuyan spread her hands. “That’s what everyone says! Eh? Aren’t you going forward? Where are you going?”

Yu Wan pulled out her shining dagger. When Zhou Yuyan saw this, she hurriedly covered her mouth and lightened her steps before carefully following behind Yu Wan. It was ridiculous that she was the expert of the Jade Nation, but in the end, she was hiding behind a pregnant woman who did not know martial arts at all.

Zhou Yuyan felt that this was very embarrassing. She gritted her teeth and pulled out her sword. At this moment, Yu Wan strode over. “Come out!”

Yu Wan waved the Gu worm in the bottle. “Don’t worry, he’s real.”

Zhou Yuyan put down her hand awkwardly. “Oh, I forgot that you poisoned us with Gu.”

“Young Madam, be careful!” Shadow Thirteen took three steps to Yu Wan and supported her, who was about to step over a dead tree that had fallen to the ground.

“Are you alright?” Yu Wan smiled in relief and saw Mu Ting sweating profusely.

Shadow Thirteen followed her gaze and explained, “I met him on the way, so I came with him. Isn’t Young Madam with Young Master?” “No.” Yu Wan shook her head.

“Eldest Senior Brother!” Zhou Yuyan saw Mu Ting rushing over.

Mu Ting was about to collapse from exhaustion. He didn’t know how that sacrificial soldier could walk so quickly. He clearly had one more person on his back.

“Senior Brother, are you alright?” Zhou Yuyan looked at him worriedly.

Mu Ting held onto a big tree beside him with one hand and covered his chest that was about to explode with the other. He said breathlessly, “I’m fine... You... What about you? How are you? Why are you with Mrs. Yan?”

“I was hit by an illusion and she bumped into me.” Although she was unwilling to admit it, Yu Wan was indeed the one who picked her up. Otherwise, she would have been scared to death by the ghost shadow created by the illusion.

“The child is with you. Did you meet my Dad?” If Yu Wan remembered correctly, Shadow Thirteen had handed the child to her father before he went to investigate.

Shadow Thirteen shook his head. "No, I didn't meet Master."

Yu Wan pointed at Zhou Jin on his back. "You... brought the child to scout the way?"

"That's right." Shadow Thirteen nodded.

Yu Wan was stunned for a moment. Soon, she understood everything. She laughed self-deprecatingly. "No wonder we were still talking a second ago. When the fog came, we couldn't even hear voices. From the moment we got off the ship, we were all affected by an illusion."

Shadow Thirteen said thoughtfully, "Madam, you mean..."

"After we got off the ship, we were possessed by an illusion and went in different directions. We thought that our companions had been with us..." Yu Wan said as she looked at her hand. "After we got off the ship, Yan Jiuchao kept holding my hand. At that time, he should still be around. When did he disappear? Yes! When he went to look for Zhou Yuyan and asked her to give me the stone to sit on!"

When Yan Jiuchao went to look for Zhou Yuyan, he was already gone. After that, the Yan Jiuchao and Zhou Yuyan she saw, even Mu Ting, Zhou Jin, Shadow Thirteen, and her Dad, were all illusions!

Yu Wan smiled and brushed her bangs. She gritted her teeth and said, "I thought I discovered it early, but I didn't expect to be tricked by the other party. Damn it!"

Zhou Yuyan was talking to her eldest senior brother when she suddenly heard Yu Wan curse. She was so shocked that her heart trembled. The two of them looked at Yu Wan and saw that the woman, who was quiet and indifferent no matter when or where, was like an angry chick. Every strand of hair on her body seemed to be standing on end!

That gaze also looked like it wanted to swallow someone! "She'll get angry too..." Zhou Yuyan was dumbfounded..

Chapter 948: Brother Jiu Takes Action (3)

“Young Madam.” Shadow Thirteen considerately opened the bag hanging on his chest, took out a box of snacks, and handed it to her.

Yu Wan opened the box and only calmed down after eating seventeen to eighteen pieces of osmanthus cake. “Now, only Yan Jiuchao and my Dad are left.”

In a beautiful place with pleasant scenery, Yan Jiuchao stood quietly by the stream and looked at the waterfall not far away. Unlike the fog Yu Wan and the others encountered, Yan Jiuchao walked all the way with birdsong and flowers.

As he walked, he came to such a place that seemed like the residence on immortal.

The stream was clear to the bottom, and there were palm-sized fish swimming around. The stones underwater had been polished by the tide until they were round and smooth, reflecting dazzling light under the refraction of the stream.

Yan Jiuchao bowed and reached his slender fingers into his hand. The stream was cool to the bone. The fish that were originally swimming around seemed to have been frightened and dispersed with a whoosh.

Yan Jiuchao picked up a stone the size of a pigeon’s egg, played with it, and threw it back into the water. Not far away, the courtyard flowers were blooming and falling, and smoke curled up from the chimneys.

Yan Jiuchao followed the direction of the smoke and came to a peach forest. There was a family in the depths of the peach forest, and a fence half the height of a person surrounded a simple and elegant courtyard.

The courtyard door made of a fence was open, and Yan Jiuchao walked in. However, the moment he crossed the threshold, a row of cold arrows shot at him. Just as it was about to hit his heart, he did not even bat an eyelid and let the row of arrows pass through his body.

“Child’s play.” A certain young master ignored this illusion and walked towards the room with a cold expression.

A few more rows of arrows shot at him, but he did not dodge at all. Just as he was about to step onto the corridor, another arrow shot over. This time, Yan Jiuchao attacked. His eyes narrowed, and a powerful internal energy burst out, shattering the arrow.

The arrows in front were all illusions, and the last one was real. However, after being deceived by illusions many times, ordinary people would think that the last one was also fake. It was not only because of inertia, but also because they did not have time to screen and judge.

“Young man, how did you see through my illusion?” An old voice came from the room.

As this voice fell, the scene around them changed. The courtyard that was originally filled with peach blossoms was gone, replaced by a dark and cold Yin residence. The bright and beautiful sunlight also dissipated at this moment. The sky was gloomy, as if the sky was about to change.

Yan Jiuchao’s eyes flickered as the door to the Yin Manor opened. Yan Jiuchao strode in.

“You really have the guts to come in?” The old voice sounded again.

Yan Jiuchao said casually, “If I don’t come in, how can I capture you?”

“You still want to capture me?” The owner of the voice seemed to have heard a huge joke and laughed out loud in the room. That cold laughter was like a malicious ghost from hell.

Yan Jiuchao was not frightened by his laughter at all. He only looked around indifferently and said, “Your house is very ugly. I don’t want to stay any longer.

Do you want to come out yourself, or should I capture you?”

“It’s been a long time since I’ve met such an arrogant person. You’re quite capable to be able to find this place. You have to know that those people who trespassed on the island in the past all died halfway! You’re so powerful that I can’t bear to kill you. Why don’t you stay and accompany me? Kowtow to me three times in the courtyard and I’ll accept you as my disciple!”

“What benefits are there in being your disciple?” Yan Jiuchao asked indifferently.

“That depends on your comprehension. If you make me happy, I might teach you all my skills.”

Yan Jiuchao nodded. “You’re talking about these illusions that look good but are useless?”

“Kid!” The old man was furious. The central room of the Yin Manor suddenly opened, and dozens of poisonous arrows shot towards Yan Jiuchao.

Yan Jiuchao flicked his sleeve and shattered the poisonous arrow.

“Longevity Technique? Kid! You’re from the Sorcerer Clan? No, you have the aura of a Saint King! What... what’s your relationship with the Sacred Clan?!”

“None,” Yan Jiuchao said.

“The people of the Sacred Clan actually barged into my territory. It seems that they still don’t think that teaching them a lesson is enough! I originally wanted to take you in as my disciple on account of your outstanding talent, but since you’re from the Sacred Clan, I can’t keep you..”

Chapter 949: Brother Jiu Takes Action (4)

Yan Jiuchao picked up a stone on the stone table and weighed it in his palm.

“Old man, stop dawdling. If you want to fight, come out. If not, kneel down.”

“How dare you!!!” The old man was furious to the extreme. After an angry shout, a powerful pressure swept out. At the same time, a shadow flew out of the central room. It was a white-haired old man. He was sitting in a wheelchair that landed heavily on the ground.

From his voice, he was at least seventy or eighty years old, but his appearance was as young as he had imagined. He seemed to be less than fifty. He looked at Yan Jiuchao angrily. Yan Jiuchao’s young and handsome face and strong body made him narrow his eyes slightly.

Yan Jiuchao glanced at the wooden blocks by the wall and said, “Did you suck these people dry to help you extend your lifespan?” As soon as he finished speaking, the wooden blocks instantly turned back into skulls.

The old man’s eyes became even deeper. “I really can’t hide my illusion from you.”

Yan Jiuchao said arrogantly, “Illusion. To put it bluntly, it’s a smokescreen. Coupled with knockout medicine, it will make people feel that something is wrong. What’s so difficult to resolve? My Yu Ah Wan can casually make a few large jars of your knockout medicine for you. If you want it, I’ll give it to you for free.”

“You!” The old man was so angry that his veins were throbbing. The old man did not know if the person he mentioned could concoct such a knockout medicine. He only knew that he had been successfully provoked. He took a deep breath and suppressed the urge to slap him to death. He smiled coldly and said, “I pity you for being a genius. I’ll give you a chance. If you win, I’ll let you go. If you lose, leave your life to me!”

“Okay.” Yan Jiuchao agreed.

The old man looked at Yan Jiuchao deeply and said, “I thought you would negotiate with me. If I lose, I’m willing to leave with you.” Yan Jiuchao looked at him strangely.

The old man said impatiently, “Aren’t you here to capture me?”

“Ah, this.” Yan Jiuchao nodded in enlightenment. “Whether you’re willing or not, I’ll capture you.”

The corners of the old man’s mouth twitched! He had seen arrogant people before, but he had never seen someone so arrogant. This kid probably did not know that he was a Heaven-rank Great Sorcerer. Those illusions just now were just a small trick. He had yet to use his true ability!

The old man pushed the wheelchair to the stone table and used his internal energy to take out three cups from the room. He placed a Sorcerer Stone the size of a copper coin into one of the cups. Then, he turned the three cups upside down.

He looked into Yan Jiuchao’s eyes and said, “Watch carefully, young man. Don’t blink.”

Yan Jiuchao nodded indifferently.

The old man began to change the position of the cup. His movements were so fast that only a few afterimages were left. In the end, he stopped the cup and asked Yan Jiuchao, “Which cup is the Sorcerer Stone in? You only have one chance. Answer me after you’ve thought it through.”

“There’s no need to think about it.” Yan Jiuchao looked at him steadily. Under his provocative gaze, he stretched out his slender fingertip and poked it into his eye socket, digging out his right eyeball.

The bloody eyeball instantly turned into a cold Sorcerer Stone, and the old man in front of him fell to the ground with a bang, turning into a scarecrow wearing an outer robe.

Yan Jiuchao said in disdain, “Tsk, I thought it was a powerful smokescreen. It’s only so-so. I’m afraid even my son can’t be deceived.”

The great sorcerer of the Yin Manor was completely enraged. An even more powerful pressure attacked Yan Jiuchao. Yan Jiuchao realized that there was nothing fun to do, so he couldn’t be bothered to deal with him. He rose into the air and flew into the central room. He grabbed an old man’s neck and pulled him out.

However, things did not end there. The moment the dark sorcerer was brought out of the room, the entire ground trembled violently. Immediately after, Yu Wan and Zhou Yuyan's exclamations came from not far away.

"Hehe..." The dark sorcerer laughed sinisterly. "Who asked you to capture me? Now, you've triggered a mechanism! Only one of them can live. Otherwise, they'll all die! All of them!"

After Yu Wan, Shadow Thirteen, and Zhou Yuyan passed through the forest, they also discovered the deep pool with a waterfall. Yu Wan saw the footprints Yan Jiuchao had left on the ground. Just as she was about to follow the footprints, she was caught under the tree by a large net that appeared on the ground.

Zhou Yuyan was also almost caught in the net. Mu Ting pushed her. Although she avoided it, Zhou Jin, who was on Shadow Thirteen's back, suffered..

Chapter 950: Brother Jiu Takes Action (5)

The net still carried a sharp blade as it forcefully cut off the rope binding Zhou Jin.

Of course, Shadow Thirteen, Zhou Yuyan, and Mu Ting's situation was not any better. After the mechanism was triggered, the ground split open and their feet fell into quicksand. The more they moved, the faster and deeper they sank. No matter how deep their internal energy was, it was useless.

Soon, Yan Jiuchao realized that not only was there quicksand there, but even the ground of this Yin Manor was covered in falling quicksand.

The dark sorcerer smiled crazily and pointed at a small lake under Yu Wan and Zhou Jin. "Do you see that? That's the array core below. One of them has to fall down and block the array core. Otherwise, the entire island will collapse!"

Yan Jiuchao narrowed his eyes. "You mean... one of them is enough to block the array core?"

The dark sorcerer was stunned. What was that supposed to mean?

“Is this difficult to choose?” Yan Jiuchao asked.

The black sorcerer chuckled. “Young man, stop pretending to be calm. Do you think I can’t tell that you’re poisoned? You need that child to detoxify you, but you can’t bear to part with that woman. Do you think your own life is more important or that woman’s life? Ah, right, your choice isn’t important. That woman has a dagger on her. If she cuts the rope herself, she can fall down and block the array core!”

“It seems that this array core has to be blocked.” Yan Jiuchao sneered. He grabbed the dark sorcerer and threw him towards the array core.

The dark sorcerer widened his eyes in disbelief. “You, you, you... Don’t you still need me—Gulp... Gulp...” Before he could finish speaking, the dark sorcerer fell into the water and was sucked into the array core at the bottom of the water in the blink of an eye.

The commotion on the island stopped. Yan Jiuchao flew up and saved Yu Wan and Zhou Jin. Yu Wan was carried down by him, but Zhou Jin was not so lucky. He fell onto Zhou Yuyan!

“Ouch Zhou Yuyan cried in pain.

Yan Jiuchao pulled Shadow Thirteen up, and Shadow Thirteen pulled Mu Ting and Zhou Yuyan out.

“That was close.” Mu Ting wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. Just now, he really felt like he was about to die. No wonder so many people couldn’t return after coming to the island. That dark sorcerer was indeed too terrifying.

“However.” Mu Ting looked at the small lake that had already fallen silent. “Is that person... the great sorcerer on the island? If you kill him, what will you use to remove the sorcery power sealed in Little Junior Brother’s body?”

Yu Wan and Shadow Thirteen also looked at Yan Jiuchao. Although they understood that he would never sacrifice Yu Wan or an innocent child's life for their own survival, it was still a pity that the great sorcerer they had obtained was gone.

"It's all your fault!" Yu Wan glared at Mu Ting.

"Why is it my fault?" Mu Ting was stunned.

Yu Wan said resentfully, "If you hadn't dawdled, we would have entered the courtyard long ago and wouldn't have happened to be trapped in the array core!"

"Ahem!" Mu Ting covered his cough with his fist. He was indeed deliberately dawdling, but it was definitely not to harm them. They were already on the island and were in the same boat. Moreover, his junior sister and junior brother were both there. How could he deliberately harm them? It was because he knew that the person living on the island was a dark sorcerer, so the closer he got to the dark sorcerer, the more afraid he was. He was just instinctively afraid.

Yu Wan narrowed her eyes at him. "Mu Ting, did you know from the beginning that the person living on the island is a dark sorcerer? You lured us here to trap us on the island forever so that we won't be a burden to you, right?"

"I didn't!" Mu Ting denied!

Yu Wan could not be bothered with him. She grabbed Yan Jiuchao's hand with an aggrieved expression.

Gone, the Great Sorcerer they had obtained was gone...

"Come out," Yan Jiuchao said as he rubbed her head and looked in the direction of the courtyard.

"Huh? There's someone else in the house?" Yu Wan turned her head strangely and saw a stumbling figure slowly walk out of the messy house.

Yu Wan's mouth fell open. "This is..."

The owner of the figure staggered to Yan Jiuchao and bent down with difficulty. In an old and hoarse voice, he said, "I've been locked up by that beast for twenty years... I never thought that I would see the light of day again..."

"Thank you for saving me, Young Master..."

So it was the person who was locked up by that old thing. He had been locked up for so many years and was quite pitiful. Yu Wan sized him up. "Who are you?"

The old man smiled weakly and cupped his hands at Yu Wan. "I'm not talented.

I'm from the Wei family of Jiangdu, Imperial Secretary Wei."

"Imperial Secretary... Wei?" Mu Ting's legs went limp and he knelt down.

Even though he was born so many years later, he had still heard of the other party's famous reputation—the most talented great sorcerer in the Jade Nation, the Divine Master of Jiangdu whose status was comparable to the Sorcerer King! Wei Xuan! Imperial Secretary Wei!
