

Top Student: Experience Infinite Occupations

Chapter 4: Unappreciated Kindness

“Li Chengqian, I feel that you are very different today.” His deskmate, Jian Qingli, looked at Li Chengqian in surprise.

Unlike before, Li Chengqian was speaking to Liu Daqiang boldly just now.

Another point was Li Chengqian’s gaze. She realized that Li Chengqian seemed especially energetic, and his eyes were sparkling like stars.

Li Chengqian was shocked but he didn’t show it. “Really?”

“Yes!” Jian Qingli nodded affirmatively.

“Li Chengqian, are you serious about what you said to Liu Daqiang just now?” Jian Qingli asked curiously.

“Of course I am!” Li Chengqian nodded. After his Intelligence Stats reached 14 points, even if he was chatting with Jian Qingli, it wouldn’t affect his ability to memorize words at the same time.

Jian Qingli looked at Li Chengqian in surprise.

She thought that Li Chengqian was just kidding Liu Daqiang.

There were only 100 days to the college entrance examination after all. With Li Chengqian’s foundation, even if he worked hard now, the chances of him getting into university were extremely slim.

“That’s good too. Even if we can’t get in this year, we can still prepare for the repeats next year.” She was Li Chengqian’s deskmate. She knew Li Chengqian’s results the best.

She didn’t believe that Li Chengqian would be able to get into university this year.

Li Chengqian shook his head but didn’t explain.

“Forget it. The monthly exam is only a week away. When the results are out, Jian Qingli will believe me.” He knew that no matter how he explained, Jian Qingli wouldn’t believe him.

In fact, the beautiful Jian Qingli was the person he had a crush on in his previous life. It was just that Li Chengqian didn't manage to get into university, and his parents got into a traffic accident. Li Chengqian fell into a state of depression, so he basically cut off all contact with Jian Qingli.

It was seven years after their high school graduation when he next heard news about Jian Qingli.

At Jian Qingli's wedding, her ex-boyfriend, Bi Jialiang, publicly exposed intimate photos of the two of them together.

The wedding was then called off on the spot, and the two families were disgraced.

Jian Qingli couldn't take the blow and the humiliation. She chose to end her young life.

"We're classmates and neighbors. I should remind her, lest she falls into the abyss and ends up in a miserable state." Li Chengqian glanced at Jian Qingli. She was tall, had a curvaceous figure, fair skin, and beautiful facial features. She was indeed a great beauty.

"I heard that Jian Qingliu and Bi Jialiang got together in their third year of high school."

"The students who attended the wedding said that the video and photos were taken at the end of the college entrance examination."

"As long as Jian Qingli heeds my advice, her future tragedy will not happen. At least her life will not end in tragedy." Li Chengqian collected his thoughts and focused his energy on memorizing the words.

"Jian Qingli, come out for a moment!" a boy with a mischievous smile shouted from outside the classroom. He had a layered haircut, and was wearing ripped jeans with a white shirt.

"It's Bi Jialiang!"

"I heard that Bi Jialiang has been wooing Jian Qingli recently," a girl said sourly.

"Bi Jialiang is so handsome and his grades are so good. He's my idol, but he only has his eyes on Jian Qingli," another girl said enviously.

Not only was Bi Jialiang very good looking, his results were also top-notch. He came in the top 20 of Tianyi High School for every mock exam.

If nothing unexpected happens, he would definitely be able to enter a good university. If he was lucky, he might even be able to enter a top school.

Li Chengqian scored 280 marks in the mock exam, while Bi Jialiang scored 650 marks!

Amidst everyone's hushed discussions, Jian Qing's beautiful face flushed red, and there was a hint of shyness in her eyes.

"Jian Qingliu, you have to watch out for Bi Jialiang. He's not a good person." At this moment, Li Chengqian thought of Jian Qingli's fate in her previous life. In his frenzy, he reminded her without thinking.

He regretted it the moment the words came out.

As all the bad things would only happen in the future, he had no basis for warning her.

He might be misunderstood by Jian Qingli.

Sure enough, after hearing Li Chengqian's words, Jian Qingli's face immediately turned ice-cold. "Li Chengqian, in the past, I always felt that you were an honest person. I was wrong. I now know that you would actually maliciously badmouth others behind their backs."

In his previous life, Li Chengqian had even gone to Jian Qingli's grave to pay his respects.

However, it was impossible for him to tell anyone about his rebirth. Even if he did, no one would believe him.

"Li Chengqian, you need to be able to substantiate everything. If you say Bi Jialiang isn't a good person, then show me the evidence." Jian Qingli stared into Li Chengqian's eyes.

Li Chengqian was still unable to answer Jian Qingli's question. After all, this was something that would only happen in the future. He naturally couldn't produce any evidence.

"Li Chengqian, I'm so disappointed with you." Jian Qingli's voice became extremely cold, just like the first time she met Li Chengqian.

After saying that, Jian Qingli walked out of the classroom with a straight face. She stood with Bi Jialiang and held onto the railing. Soon, peals of laughter came from the two of them.

"No one would've thought that this b*stard Bi Jialiang looks good, but he's actually a pervert..." If Li Chengqian hadn't been reborn, he wouldn't have thought that this guy with thick eyebrows and big eyes would be so evil.

Bi Jialiang put up a really great front, be it in terms of appearance or grades.

However, he actually exposed the intimate photos of the bride and another man at her wedding with all the relatives and friends present. How perverted was this!

However, that was exactly what the handsome and kind-looking Bi Jialiang did!

He had just been reborn. He only felt that Jian Qingli's fate in his previous life was too tragic. He didn't want to see Jian Qingli repeat her miserable fate in this life.

In his haste, he didn't think before he said those words to warn Jian Qingli.

However, Jian Qingli didn't believe him at all. It even caused Jian Qingli to misunderstand and dislike him.

"Forget it. When there's a chance in the future, I'll remind her once. Even if you're intimate, don't take photos. This way, you can avoid the fate of your previous life." However, Li Chengqian felt that he might be misunderstood as a pervert for reminding a girl not to take intimate photos with her boyfriend!

Unless there was really no other way, he definitely couldn't say these words.

"It's better to read in peace and change my own fate first." Li Chengqian shook his head and focused on the book, silently memorizing and reciting.

...

[You have read for 9 minutes. You have received 9 Experience Bars. You have 43 Experience Bars left in the Experience Pool.]

When the bell rang, Teacher Wang Jianjia walked in and started the class.

Li Chengqian put down the textbook and listened attentively.

Then, he realized that he could understand most of the English classes that sounded like Greek in the past. He could also solve the grammar questions easily.

He realized that the biggest problem now was that he didn't have enough vocabulary.

As long as he brushed up his vocabulary, English was no longer difficult for him.

While he couldn't guarantee a perfect score, there was definitely no problem with passing the test.

So during the course of the lesson, Li Chengqian had a smile on his face the whole time. He could clearly feel the improvements and changes, "I, Li Chengqian, will definitely be able to change my fate!"

After the bell rang at noon, Teacher Wang Jianjia specially glanced at Li Chengqian. In this class, she could feel Li Chengqian's seriousness and hard work.

But Li Chengqian's foundation was too weak. "If only Li Chengqian had started working hard when he just began his third year of high school, he might have had a chance to get into university."

"It's too late now!"

...

"If he can maintain such a learning attitude, he might be able to get into university next year." Wang Jianjia sighed in her heart and walked out of the classroom.

As for Jian Qingli, she simply ignored Li Chengqian. She didn't even look at Li Chengqian during the lesson.