Chapter 111 Siege

Three months later.

Zhang Yuhe followed Feng Xiaotian and stood on the city wall, looking at the densely packed demon army in the distance without any disturbance in his heart.

They have been preparing for this day for more than half a year.

Not only all the elite forces of Yu Fantian were concentrated in the Demon Suppressing City.

Moreover, the entire fortress was built like an iron barrel. The demons wanted to break through the city and enter the Flowing Cloud Corridor.

It's not that easy.

The Demon Suppressing City is more like a magnificent city wall than a city.

Because everything in the entire city is built around this city wall.

The city wall is ten thousand feet high and more than ten miles wide.

Both ends extend to Suiyuexu and Wuyahai, hundreds of thousands of miles long.

On the city wall, countless monks were on guard, ready to face the impact of the demon army at any time.

These monks have different levels of realm, including foundation-building monks and fusion elders.

There are also Feng Xiaotian and Zhang Yuhe, the two Mahayana ancestors sitting in charge.

In terms of defensive facilities, Dao Sheng Sect is even more prepared.

All kinds of demon-killing crossbows and god-breaking cannons were densely covered on the entire city wall.

Looking at the tight defense methods of Demon Suppression City, everyone is completely confident in blocking the demon army.

Two hundred thousand miles away from the Demon City, a majestic black palace was suspended in the air.

Mo Yuetian and a group of demon guards walked out of the palace and looked at the magnificent city in the distance without any fear.

They were mentally prepared.

After more than half a year of long journey, they finally arrived at Liuyun Corridor.

Now as long as this demon-suppressing city is broken, the entire Yu Fantian can be trampled under its feet.

For them, wouldn't it be just right for Dao Sheng Sect to concentrate its elite forces in Demon Suppression City?

Just destroy this power.

There will no longer be a strong resistance force in the entire Yu Fantian.

Mo Yuetian looked at the city wall in the distance for a while, looking at the blue light curtain rising on the city wall.

Unable to help but frown slightly, he asked a demon guard next to him.

"Gu Xiao, do you recognize this formation?"

The fifth demon guardian Gu Xiao was in the early stage of Mahayana.

With his early Mahayana cultivation, Gu Xiao was able to rank fifth in the Demon Guard, so he naturally had some special abilities.

Logically speaking, there are five middle-level Mahayana warriors among the Demon Guards.

Coupled with the fallen Wu Tian, Gu Xiao can only be ranked seventh at most.

It's just that Gu Xiao is proficient in formations and is the only ninth-level formation master in the Demon God's Palace.

Relying on his identity as a ninth-level formation mage, he was able to overwhelm two mid-level Mahayana masters.

When Mo Yuetian asked, Gu Xiao replied respectfully.

"Reporting to the Palace Master, if this subordinate is not mistaken, this formation should be the Heaven-Sealing Forbidden Spirit Formation."

"Oh, there is something special about this Heaven-Sealing Forbidden Spirit Formation."

Mo Yuetian then asked.

He didn't pay much attention to the other defense methods of Demon Suppression City.

Whether it's the monks on the city wall or the powerful-looking demon-killing crossbows and god-breaking cannons.

He didn't think that these could stop the demon army from advancing.

The only thing that worries him is the formation deployed in the Demon Suppressing City.

The magic of array formations is endless.

What if the formation in the Demon Suppressing City is too strong for them to break.

Then the so-called siege is just a joke.

Fortunately, Gu Xiao knows this formation and should know some ways to break it.

Gu Xiao looked at the light curtain on the city wall and replied helplessly.

"The Heaven-Sealing Forbidden Spirit Formation is extremely complex. This is a powerful defensive formation."

"Once we enter the range of the formation, our strength will be weakened by 30%, while the strength of the monks in the city will increase by 30%."

Hearing Gu Xiao's words, Mo Yuetian frowned even more.

Their strength was weakened by 30%, while the opponent's strength was increased by 30%.

This is a bit difficult to handle.

He turned back to Gu Xiao and asked.

"Is there a way to break this formation?"

Gu Xiao shook his head gently and said.

"The center for controlling the formation is inside the city. We can't use tricks to break the formation outside."

"To break the formation from the outside, we can only rely on strong strength. When our attack reaches the upper limit of the formation, the formation will naturally be broken."

"Okay, let's try it."

Although Gu Xiao did not give a good solution, it is also an idea to be able to break the formation with brute force.

They now still have ten Mahayana warriors, plus an elite army of eight billion demons.

Mo Yuetian didn't believe it.

This Heaven-Sealing Forbidden Spirit Formation can withstand the attacks of so many of them.

Thinking of this, Mo Yuetian waved his hand and ordered.

"Let's attack the town and the demon city together, and go straight to the Dao Sheng Sect."

After saying that, he took the lead and rushed towards the Demon Suppression City.

Mo Yuetian waved his right hand, and a black long knife, with a sharp light, struck directly towards the city wall.

"snort."

Seeing Mo Yuetian take action, Feng Xiaotian snorted coldly.

He offered a golden seal.

The seal turned into golden light and flew out of the city wall, intercepting the light of the sword.

Boom...

The seal collided fiercely with the sword, causing boundless air waves to sweep across thousands of miles.

The light curtain on the city wall remained motionless.

A group of demon guards also took action, attacking the city wall with various attacks.

Although they entered the scope of the light curtain, their strength was weakened by 30%.

However, with the strength of their numbers, Zhang Yuhe and Feng Xiaotian could not stop them at all.

The various attack methods of the demon clan kept hitting the defensive light curtain on the city wall.

The blue light curtain trembled slightly.

It's no big deal for now.

At this time, the demon army also swarmed up. They rushed directly into the area covered by the light curtain and rushed towards the city wall.

Boom...

The demon-killing crossbows and god-breaking cannons placed on the city wall quickly opened fire with all their might.

Huge arrows were flying wildly among the demon army.

Each arrow can take away a large area of demons.

Seeing this situation, the stronger demons took action one after another to intercept and destroy the arrows shot from the city wall.

The Demon Slayer Crossbow can intercept.

But the God-breaking Cannon is not that easy to intercept.

Cannonballs fell into the demon army one after another, and the shock wave caused by the explosion could take away a large area of the demons in an instant.

The monks standing on the city wall also took action at the same time.

Compared to the demons, they stood on the city wall and were protected by defensive formations.

As long as the formation is not broken, they are safe and can output with peace of mind.

They didn't need to dodge or think about defense. They directly used their magical powers to blast at the demon army.

In an instant, a large number of demons fell.

However, more demons came up again.

Mo Yuetian waved his long knife while observing the surrounding situation.

His attack was entangled by Feng Xiaotian and had no chance of hitting the light curtain on the city wall.

Although his strength is far stronger than Feng Xiaotian.

However, the opponent has the blessing of a formation, and the output is still standing, so there is no need to move and dodge.

For a while, the two of them were fighting back and forth.

Seeing a large number of demons falling, Mo Yuetian couldn't help but frown.
