

TOP TALENT, GAME UPGRADE

Section 12

Zhang Yuhe fell down not far outside the city.

Since there are no guards at the city gate and there is no need to pay city tax, it is very open-minded.

After entering the city through the city gate, you can see rows of orderly buildings on both sides of the street.

The streets were bustling with people, and from time to time there would be monks with strong auras, passing by him quickly.

It's a pity that Zhang Yuhe was not in the mood to appreciate the customs and customs of these other worlds at this time, but ran quickly to the north of the city.

Although Zhang Yuhe didn't know that people from the Wu family were following him.

But he understood that after killing Wu Laoliu, there would definitely be trouble.

But it's hard to say how big the trouble will be and when it will come.

Zhang Yuhe felt that when the situation was unclear and the strength was not strong enough, the best way to get out of trouble was to run far away.

In the world of Yufantian, if you want to run far in a short time, what is the best way?

Of course it's a teleportation array.

Through the teleportation array, he can reach thousands of miles away in an instant. What kind of trouble can chase him so far?

Of course, what's more important is that he has to go to the Holy Sect through the teleportation array.

As long as he could join the Dao Sheng Sect, he wouldn't even look at the so-called Wu family in Feiyun City.

After passing through the streets, a magnificent building appeared in front of Zhang Yuhe.

The plaque on the door of the building has the three characters "Transfer Hall" elegantly written.

There was a golden-armored monk standing at the door of the hall, and outside the door a group of people were lining up quietly.

"No way, do you have to queue up to take a bus in the world of cultivating immortals?"

Zhang Yuhe complained silently, and then hurriedly ran to the end of the queue to queue up.

He didn't quite know what kind of rules there were for sitting in the teleportation array in Yu Fantian's world.

But it doesn't matter, just follow others if you don't understand, and just ask when it's their turn.

The efficiency of the teleportation hall is much faster than Zhang Yuhe imagined.

After a while, he came to the golden-armored monk at the door.

The golden-armored monk asked.

"Where to go?"

Zhang Yuhe quickly answered.

"Go to Hezhou City."

"Five hundred spirit stones. After entering, take the middle passage. Remember to take this with you."

After the golden-armored monk finished speaking, he handed over a piece of talisman paper.

Zhang Yuhe nodded in thanks and then walked forward along the middle passage.

Soon, a huge magic circle appeared in front of him, with a group of people standing on it in the middle of the magic circle.

This group of people was obviously traveling with him and taking the teleportation array together.

Zhang Yuhe quickly walked onto the teleportation formation.

After a while, people walked onto the teleportation array one after another.

When the number of people reached one hundred, the teleportation array suddenly lit up with dazzling light, covering all the people on it.

The talisman in Zhang Yuhe's hand instantly ignited, followed by a sudden spin, and they disappeared.

"Fuck, I feel more dizzy than flying on a plane."

The feeling of teleportation was so uncomfortable that he almost vomited.

Zhang Yuhe discovered that they appeared on a larger teleportation array.

Others had begun to walk outside one after another, and he followed closely.

Then they queued up again and were teleported to Zhongzhou City.

"Awesome."

After walking out of the teleportation hall of Zhongzhou City and looking at the scene in the city, he could only describe the magnificence of the city in these two words.

As the largest city in Yu Fantian, Zhongzhou City is said to be thousands of miles in circumference.

The city has wide streets and towers that reach into the sky.

Of course, there are countless monks with powerful auras.

This is not a city at all, but a continent dotted with various magnificent buildings.

Walking on the streets of the city, Zhang Yuhe felt like an ant walking on the road, feeling very small.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but shake his head.

"Let's go to Dao Sheng Sect first."

At this time, Zhang Yuhe had no intention of staying in the city. He was eager to get to Dao Sheng Sect as soon as possible.

Spending five spiritual stones, he bought a map near Zhongzhou City on the street, and then immersed himself in running towards the south of the city.

...

At this time, Wu Wei and Liu Yihe had arrived outside Yunzhong City.

"Brother Liu, can you still trace the murderer's location?"

Liu Yihe shook his head.

"No, the atmosphere in the city is mixed, and it is no longer possible to determine the specific location of the murderer."

Wu Wei was not surprised when he heard Liu Yihe's answer.

Although the Thousand Miles Tracking Technique is unpopular, it is only a low-end spell and has many restrictions on its use.

Moreover, Liu Yihe is only a foundation-building monk. Being able to lead him to track the murderer to Yunzhong City is already very good. Don't expect too much.

But he didn't pay too much attention. As long as the murderer was still in the city, he would have a way to find it.

Wu Wei waved his sleeves and said.

"Let's go to Fengxin Tower."

Fengxin Tower is located next to the south street of Yunzhong City. It mainly does some inquiry business. It is quite famous in the entire Yunzhong Mansion.

Seeing a customer coming to the door, a woman in a green dress came forward with a smile on her face.

"Distinguished guests, please come in."

After sitting down with tea, the woman in green skirt asked Wu and Wei.

"I wonder if you two need Fengxinlou's help?"

Wu Wei didn't talk nonsense. He waved his right hand and a portrait of Zhang Yuhe appeared in front of the three of them.

"Look for someone. This person should have just entered the city. Check his whereabouts."

The woman in the green dress took a closer look at the portrait, then nodded and said.

"Please wait a moment, both of you."

She took out a jade token and pointed at it, as if to check for information.

After a while, the woman in the green dress put away the jade token and said to Wu Wei.

"This person has indeed just entered the city, but we don't have much information. Five thousand spirit stones."

Hearing the price offered by the woman in the green dress, Wu Wei paid without hesitation.

He was eager to find out where Zhang Yuhe was going, and then stared at him.

The woman in the green dress put away the spirit stone and said with a smile.

"This person has left Yunzhong City through the teleportation array."

"What?"

Hearing this, Wu Wei immediately stood up from his chair and frowned and asked the woman in the green dress.

"Do you know where he was teleported to?"

"Sorry, the teleportation hall is under the jurisdiction of Daosheng Sect, and we have no corresponding information."

The words of the woman in the green dress made Wu Wei very angry. The person was teleported away, and he didn't know where he went, but she dared to charge him five thousand spirit stones.

Even robbing money is not so cruel.

More importantly, now he has no idea where the murderer is, how to avenge his son?

After a while, Wu Wei asked in a deep voice.

"Do you know where this person came from?"

Since the murderer cannot be found for the time being, it is okay to know his origin.

A person can't just appear out of thin air, there must be family members.

If the murderer cannot be found for the time being, then kill his whole family first.

However, the woman in green skirt shook her head and said.

"This person's origin is unknown. We don't have any other information about this person. We only know that he just entered the city today and then teleported away."

Hearing this, Wu Wei was so angry that he almost trembled, thinking that the woman in green skirt was lying to him.

With the strength of Fengxin Tower, there is nothing in Yunzhong Mansion that they don't know. The woman in green skirt said this just to make another fortune from him.

Thinking of this, Wu Wei said with a strong temper.

"Tell me the origin of this person, I can add money."

Unfortunately, Wu Wei was destined to be disappointed. Zhang Yuhe was a player from Blue Star, and today was the first time he appeared in front of the natives.

No matter how powerful Fengxinlou was, it was impossible to find out his origins.

The woman in the green skirt could see that Wu Wei was very anxious, but unfortunately she did not have more information about Zhang Yuhe. Even if Wu Wei offered more spirit stones, she could not do anything.
