Section 134

For example, Yu Fantian's Suiyuexu and Wuyahai.

Everyone knows that in such a strange environment, a heavy treasure must be born.

Even Suiyuexu and Wuyahai are manifestations of the power of some kind of heavy treasure.

Despite this, millions of years have passed, and no one dares to break Yuexu and Wuyahai's ideas.

The reason is simple, no one wants to die.

However, this Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick is different. This treasure does not emit any power.

Even if he reaches out and touches it, it's completely fine.

I don't know if the Demon God Palace has discovered the existence of this important treasure before.

Why wasn't the Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick taken away?

Zhang Yuhe believed that he could see that these golden lines were characters in the fairy world.

People in the Demon God Palace can definitely see it.

After all, they can communicate with the fairy world and understand the words on the pillars, so there is no problem.

But that doesn't matter anymore.

The Demon Palace of Cangyun Realm has become history.

This valuable treasure is destined to belong to him.

Zhang Yuhe looked at the golden lines on the pillars and silently understood the magic formula.

If this resource inadvertently infringes upon your rights, please notify us to delete it promptly.

After a while, he stretched out his hand and pressed it gently on the pillar.

The mana in the dantian surged out like a tide and quickly poured into the Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick.

The black pillar began to emit a faint spiritual light.

However, a long time passed.

This Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick is like a bottomless pit with no bottom.

Zhang Yuhe's dantian and the sea have almost dropped by less than half.

This valuable treasure showed no signs of being refined.

"Zhuo, you can't handle it, right?"

Zhang Yuhe looked slightly anxious.

Even if all the mana in the dantian is exhausted, this Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick will not be refined.

That's nonsense.

You can't wait until the Mahayana is complete to collect this Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick.

...

Chapter 124 The Yin and Yang Reversal Formation of Heaven and Earth

Time passed slowly.

When the mana in Zhang Yuhe's dantian was about to be exhausted.

The Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick suddenly bloomed with dazzling light.

Seeing such a situation, he couldn't help but feel happy.

"Finally the refining was successful."

Zhang Yuhe stretched out his hand.

The Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick that originally shot straight into the sky quickly shrank and landed in his hand.

Looking at the Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick that was about ten feet long in his hand, Zhang Yuhe was extremely excited.

He silently felt the power of this treasure.

A vast and boundless aura emitted from the Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick

Zhang Yuhe gave it a rough try and found that he could not activate this treasure now.

In other words, it cannot be fully activated.

If used forcefully, it can only exert part of the power of the Nine Heavens Flying Stick.

Despite this, once he sacrifices this innate treasure, it will inevitably explode with power that will destroy the world.

Innate things are extremely precious.

According to records in the classics, each interface in the lower realm can only produce at most one innate object.

The innate thing may be a finished spiritual treasure, or it may be a special material.

No matter which category it belongs to.

As innate things, they all have a common characteristic, that is, they can grow by themselves.

In other words, the Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick in Zhang Yuhe's hand.

At present, it is only the top-level Tongtian Lingbao, but as long as he provides enough materials for it to devour.

It is very likely that he will be promoted to an immortal weapon.

Of course, due to the restrictions of the rules.

It definitely won't work in this lower realm.

Immortal weapons cannot be born in the lower realm.

No matter it is refined by monks or generated by heaven and earth, it will not work.

This is a rule cap.

Zhang Yuhe put away the Nine Heavens Flying Spirit Stick.

He raised his head and looked around, only to see that the whole world was covered in gray.

A strong demonic energy enveloped the entire world.

Cangyun Realm is a demonic realm. There is only demonic energy in this world, and no spiritual energy exists.

Ordinary human monks simply cannot survive in such an environment for a long time.

"I don't know if there is any way to reverse the demonic energy that fills the world into spiritual energy suitable for monks to survive."

Zhang Yuhe thought silently.

Demons can plant demonic trees in Yufantian to convert spiritual energy into demonic energy.

So, can they convert all the demonic energy here into spiritual energy?

Zhang Yuhe carefully recalled the various knowledge about cultivating immortals that he had read in the library.

However, no suitable method was found.

"Forget it, let's ask Feng Xiaotian later."

After all, he has only been practicing for more than a thousand years, and his knowledge is far inferior to that of Feng Xiaotian, a ten-thousand-year-old monster.

Maybe Feng Xiaotian can find a way.

Thinking of this, Zhang Yuhe continued to search for treasures in the Demon Palace.

Although he had just obtained an innate treasure, who could have too many treasures?

Get more good things, and you can concentrate on practicing in the future.

After all, such an opportunity to make a fortune is basically unlikely to happen again.

Time passes quickly.

Three days later, Zhang Yuhe and Feng Xiaotian reunited.

At this moment, Feng Xiaotian's face was full of joy, and he had obviously made a fortune.

He asked Zhang Yuhe with a smile.

"Senior brother, next I plan to move the monks and people from Yufantian to completely occupy this world."

Zhang Yuhe nodded and agreed.

They have destroyed the Demon God Palace, and the demons in Cangyun Realm no longer have the power to resist.

In this case, wouldn't it be a waste not to occupy this part of the world?

It's just that the world is full of demonic energy, but I don't know how to deal with it.

Think of this.

Zhang Yuhe asked.

"Sect Master, this world is full of demonic aura, but there is no spiritual energy at all. I wonder if the Sect Master can solve it?"

After hearing Zhang Yuhe's question, Feng Xiaotian said proudly.

"This is not difficult, it just takes a little more time."

After finishing speaking, he took out a golden jade slip and handed it over.

"Senior brother, please see, this is the formation inheritance left by the original master. There is a formation in it that can completely reverse the demonic energy in a world into spiritual energy."

Hearing this, Zhang Yuhe couldn't help but be a little surprised.

Is there such an awesome formation?

He took the jade slip and looked at it slowly.

The multi-door formation is recorded above.

For example, the Great Formation of Sealing Heaven and Forbidden Spirits in Demon Suppressing City came from this jade slip.

Zhang Yuhe looked all the way back, and soon he saw the formation that Feng Xiaotian was talking about.

The yin and yang of heaven and earth reverse the formation.
