Section 135

Once this formation is successfully arranged, the aura of a world can be completely reversed.

There is indeed no problem in converting demonic energy into spiritual energy.

It is just that to arrange the heaven and earth yin and yang reversal formation, ninety-nine eighty-one, top-grade Tongtian Lingbao are needed as the formation base.

Seeing this, he couldn't help but frown slightly.

This requirement is a bit high.

Zhang Yuhe turned back and asked Feng Xiaotian.

"Master, to arrange the heaven and earth yin and yang reversal formation, eighty-one top-grade Tongtian Lingbao are needed. Does the sect have so many reserves?"

Feng Xiaotian shook his head and said.

"No, top-grade Tongtian Lingbao is extremely precious, and there are basically not many reserves in the sect."

"But this time, we got a lot of materials in the Demon God Palace."

"Refining eighty-one top-grade Tongtian Lingbao is not a problem at all."

Zhang Yuhe nodded.

The Demon God Palace has been passed down for millions of years, which is even longer than the Dao Sheng Sect.

The various treasures accumulated in it are indeed exaggerated.

Although most of them are items used by the demons and are not suitable for cultivators.

But so many materials.

There is indeed no problem in refining eighty-one high-grade Tongtian Lingbao.

There is even a lot of surplus.

It just takes more time.

"Let me do it. I will refine these high-grade Tongtian Lingbao."

"Master, please notify the sect and let the Demon Suppression Army enter the Cangyun Realm as soon as possible."

Hearing this, Feng Xiaotian couldn't help but be a little surprised.

"Brother, you can also refine weapons?"

"I know a little."

Zhang Yuhe nodded.

"Okay, then I'll trouble you, brother."

After Feng Xiaotian finished speaking, he handed over a storage ring.

The ring was filled with various rare materials.

Arranging the heaven and earth yin and yang reversal formation is a major event for the entire Daosheng Sect.

Naturally, Zhang Yuhe can't be asked to do both the work and the materials alone.

Zhang Yuhe took the ring and said.

"Then I'll go and get busy first. Master, return to Yufantian as soon as possible and mobilize the army."

After speaking, Zhang Yuhe took off into the air and soon came to the Demon God Palace Refining Hall.

Feng Xiaotian looked at Zhang Yuhe's departing figure.

He also flew up and flew quickly into the distance.

Cangyun Realm and Yufantian are separated by two realms.

Without the establishment of a cross-realm communication array, he could not directly contact the elders in the sect.

If he wanted to mobilize manpower, he had to return to Yufantian from the passage first.

Fortunately, Zhang Yuhe had captured two teleportation arrays before.

He could go directly to the vicinity of the passage through the teleportation array.

Otherwise, he would have to spend a lot of time to fly to the vicinity of the passage.

Chapter 125 Planning for the Future of Blue Star

Three years have passed.

After destroying the Demon Palace, Feng Xiaotian quickly returned to Tianxinghai from the passage.

He sent a message to Lu Mingfang to mobilize billions of demon-suppressing troops to enter Cangyun Realm.

Although there are still a large number of demons in Yufantian at this time, they have not been wiped out.

However, those demons are completely rootless duckweed.

As long as more time is spent, they will be wiped out sooner or later.

But the Cangyun Realm is different.

This is a real demon world, and the number of demons living in this world exceeds hundreds of millions.

Even if Zhang Yuhe has been controlling three thousand incarnations to sweep across the world.

But he can't rely on himself to kill all the demons in this world.

If they want to completely control the Cangyun Realm, they must mobilize a large army to enter.

Under the command of Feng Xiaotian, the Demon Suppression Army went to key nodes in various parts of the Cangyun Realm.

They built a city fortress and rearranged the teleportation array to connect them.

Then, using the city as a base, they slowly cleared out the indigenous demons in the Cangyun Realm.

After three years of hard work, Yu Fantian's cultivators have completely established their foothold in the Cangyun Realm.

Although there are many remaining demons, they are completely unable to compete with the Demon Suppression Army.

They can only retreat into the wilderness and survive with difficulty.

The top of Cangyun Peak.

On the site of the former Demon God Palace, a huge array platform stands on the top of the mountain.

The entire array was extremely large, covering an area of dozens of miles.

Zhang Yuhe and Feng Xiaotian stood on the array.

The sky was still gray.

The whole world was filled with strong demonic energy.

But all this would soon be over.

Zhang Yuhe turned to Feng Xiaotian and said.

"Master, I'm going to start."

"Okay, I hope you can succeed at once."

After Feng Xiaotian finished speaking, he flew out of the array.

Zhang Yuhe stood on the array, holding a mysterious array plate in his hand.

After three years of hard work, he had already refined eighty-one top-grade Tongtian Lingbao.

These Tongtian Lingbao were buried in various places in Cangyun Realm according to the requirements of the array.

Now, as long as the array is activated, the demonic energy in this world can be completely reversed into spiritual energy suitable for the survival of cultivators.

As Zhang Yuhe kept pinching the magic formula.

A dazzling light shot up from the array.

The light spread rapidly in all directions, like the sunlight at dawn, dispelling and reversing the evil spirit that enveloped the Cang Yun Realm.

Strands of spiritual energy began to slowly grow from the earth.

Seeing this, the demon-suppressing army below the array platform let out a thunderous roar.

With the existence of spiritual energy, they can stay in the Cang Yun Realm for a long time in the future.

This world is truly under their control.

Zhang Yuhe stood on the formation platform.

Watching the light shining in all directions, the originally gray sky began to become brighter.

Seeing this, he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

"Finally done."

After reversing the evil spirit of Cangyun Realm, he had nothing to do here.

It took three years.

Now he can finally practice with peace of mind.

Feng Xiaotian flew onto the formation platform and said to Zhang Yuhe excitedly.

"Brother, we succeeded."

"Yes."

Zhang Yuhe was also very happy.

From now on, Daosheng Sect will become a super existence spanning two realms.

With the resources of this realm.

He believes that Daosheng Sect will usher in greater glory.

In this way, he can rest assured when he ascends to the fairyland in the future.

Thinking of this.
