

TOP TALENT, GAME UPGRADE

Section 14

In addition to opportunities, cultivating immortals also depends on talent and personal efforts...

Chapter 13 Yinhe Peak

"Let's go, I'll take you to handle the entry procedures."

After Elder Lu finished speaking, he rolled up his sleeves and disappeared at the reception desk with Zhang Yuhe.

Zhao Qingqing, who was at the scene, still had an envious expression on her face.

"Hey, I don't know when I can become an entry disciple."

"It seems that I have to work harder. As long as I advance to the Nascent Soul stage, I can apply to join the inner sect."

Zhao Qingqing silently encouraged herself, and then sat cross-legged directly at the reception desk.

Elder Lu took Zhang Yuhe away from the reception desk and soon came to the door of a hall.

A green-clothed cultivator hurriedly walked out of the hall and shouted respectfully.

"Disciple Cheng Xujing, meet Elder Lu."

The white-robed old man nodded, then pointed at Zhang Yuhe next to him and said.

"Handle the inner sect status for him."

"Inner sect?"

Cheng Xujing asked in a low voice to confirm.

If the person who was speaking opposite him was not an elder, he would have wanted to slap him.

Judging from Zhang Yuhe's aura, he was obviously only in the Qi training stage. How could Daosheng Sect have inner disciples in the Qi training stage?

What's more, Zhang Yuhe is not even an outer disciple at present, and he joined the inner sect directly upon arrival.

Isn't this too much of a joke?

Even if he is a descendant of the old ancestor of the sect, he can't use the back door to such an extent.

And I haven't heard that any descendant of the old ancestor wants to join the sect recently.

Who is this immortal?

"Yes, from now on, he is an inner disciple of Daosheng Sect. I will report this matter to the sect master. You just do what I say."

The old man in white robe obviously didn't want to explain.

Cheng Xujing couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed.

Seeing this, Zhang Yuhe quickly eased the atmosphere and bowed to Cheng Xujing.

"Brother Cheng."

"I don't deserve it, I don't deserve it... Just call me Cheng Xujing or Brother Cheng."

Cheng Xujing waved his hands quickly. He was just an outer disciple of the Daosheng Sect.

As a sect steward, he worked in the steward's hall.

In the Daosheng Sect, outer disciples need to do all kinds of chores.

For example, he was in the steward's hall, and Zhao Qingqing was at the reception desk outside the mountain gate.

But inner disciples don't need to do these. They either stay in the sect to practice or go out to guard a place. It can be said that they are very free and easy.

Zhang Yuhe will soon become a formal inner disciple, and Cheng Xujing dare not be arrogant.

Although he has entered the Jindan realm, his strength is much stronger than Zhang Yuhe.

But in many things in the world of immortal cultivation, in addition to strength, identity is also very important.

Even if Zhang Yuhe is just an outer Qi training cultivator, but with the identity of an inner disciple of the Daosheng Sect, no one dares to despise him.

Cheng Xujing was very curious, how could Zhang Yuhe, a small cultivator in the Qi training stage, enter the inner sect in one step.

But Elder Lu did not mean to explain, so he could only suppress his curiosity for the time being and get down to business first.

He asked Zhang Yuhe respectfully.

"What's your name, senior brother?"

Cheng Xujing took out a book-shaped magic weapon and prepared to record information.

"Zhang Yuhe."

"Age?"

...

After completing the identity record, Cheng Xujing took out another jade slip and handed it over.

"Senior Brother Zhang, inner sect disciples can choose an independent mountain as their own cultivation cave. Please choose the mountain you want on it?"

Hearing this, Zhang Yuhe couldn't help but look happy.

There is such a good thing?

An independent mountain as a cultivation cave sounds very high-end.

He took the jade slip and looked at it, and a vast map appeared in his field of vision.

This is the map of the mountain gate of the Daosheng Sect, which not only depicts countless mountains, but also rivers and lakes.

The size of the mountain gate of the Daosheng Sect is beyond his imagination.

However, there are so many colors on the map, and some are blank. What does this mean?

Zhang Yuhe was confused and scratched his head.

"Junior Brother Cheng, how should I read this map?"

If you don't understand, ask. It's not shameful to ask for advice humbly.

"The green part is the outer gate area, the purple part is the inner gate area, and the red part is where the elders practice."

"Then what are these black areas?"

The map is marked with four colors in total. Cheng Xujing only mentioned three and didn't mention the other one.

So Zhang Yuhe could only ask again, so as not to go to the wrong place and commit taboos in the future.

"I don't know either, but the sect has a rule that all disciples are not allowed to enter the black area."

Well, maybe it's some secret place. Zhang Yuhe is not very curious. Just don't go to those places in the future.

He continued to ask.

"Junior Brother Cheng, please give me some advice. How to choose this mountain cave."

There was no instruction manual on the map, so he didn't know how to start.

"The blank areas in the purple area indicate that no one lives there for the time being. Senior Brother Zhang can choose a mountain that he likes from these places."

Zhang Yuhe nodded to show that he understood.

He took out the map again to check. There were quite a few blank areas in the red area. A rough count showed that there were hundreds of them.

"Which location should I choose? Let's choose here."

Zhang Yuhe made a choice quickly. He found a relatively remote mountain with a small lake below it.

With mountains and water, it looks very comfortable.

Cheng Xujing took the map back, saw the location Zhang Yuhe chose, marked it, and asked him.

"I wonder what name you plan to give your mountain?"

"Galaxy Peak."

Zhang Yuhe answered without thinking.

He is a player from Blue Star. It is the dream of every Blue Star player to go to the sea of stars.

"Okay."

Cheng Xujing put away the map and walked into the hall. After a while, he came out with a ring.

He handed the ring to Zhang Yuhe and said.

"Brother Zhang, this is your thing. Please keep it."

Zhang Yuhe took the ring and probed into it. There was only a jade slip, a few clothes and a jade token in the ring.

Seeing that they finally finished the matter, Elder Lu next to him spoke.

"I'm leaving first. Practice well. The inner sect of Daosheng Sect is not so easy to stay. This is a responsibility."

After that, he disappeared into the distance as a stream of light.

Seeing Elder Lu leave, Cheng Xujing breathed a sigh of relief. The elder's aura was too strong, which made him a little nervous.

He said to Zhang Yuhe with a smile.

"Brother Zhang, the Yinhe Peak is a little far from here, how about I take you there?"

"Then I'll trouble you, brother."

Hearing this, Zhang Yuhe hurriedly bowed his hands to express his gratitude.

To be honest, the gate of the Dao Sheng Sect is indeed a bit too big. With his cultivation in the Qi training period, it would take him half a day to fly to his own territory.

Weak strength is embarrassing, and you have to practice quickly.

Otherwise, you may have to take a ride with others when walking in the sect, which is a bit cheap.

"Brother, you are polite."

Cheng Xujing waved his right hand, and an exquisite flying boat appeared in front of him.

The two stepped on the flying boat and flew away quickly.

"Can I ask how did you join the sect?"

Standing on the flying boat, Cheng Xujing finally couldn't help his curiosity and asked Zhang Yuhe.

"I was lucky. I got a token by accident. With the token, I was fortunate to join the Dao Sheng Sect."
