Section 18

Zhang Yuhe didn't think that he could do what others couldn't do.

He wasn't that arrogant.

There should be a certain degree of fit here. Only if it meets the requirements of this technique can it be possible to practice successfully.

Suddenly, Zhang Yuhe had a flash of inspiration.

"Hunyuan Tianjing, Hunyuan Daoti."

"Does practicing this technique require a corresponding special physique, such as Hunyuan Daoti?"

Instantly, Zhang Yuhe felt that he had thought of the key.

Chapter 17 Foundation Building, Dantian Like the Sea

Zhang Yuhe quickly called up the personal attribute panel. When he saw the column of special physique, he became more determined.

Hunyuan Tianjing with Hunyuan Shengti, isn't this just right?

This is definitely not the literal meaning.

According to the introduction in the booklet, if you want to practice Hunyuan Tianjing, you must have eight kinds of roots. He has all eight spiritual roots.

And he has a bold guess about why he has eight top spiritual roots at the same time.

It is because of his special physique, Hunyuan Daoti.

After spending more than a month in the library, Zhang Yuhe is no longer a novice in the world of immortal cultivation.

Although he did not find any information about the Hunyuan Dao body in the library.

But he saw an introduction to special physiques in one of the books.

According to the book, people with special physiques occasionally appear in the world of immortal cultivation.

They are naturally close to certain attributes, born with heavenly spiritual roots, and when they reach a certain level of cultivation, they will also awaken special magical powers.

The book calls this special physique a spiritual body.

Heavenly spiritual roots are not necessarily spiritual bodies, but spiritual bodies must be heavenly spiritual roots.

Zhang Yuhe guessed that since there are spiritual bodies, are there also holy bodies and Taoist bodies?

Holy bodies correspond to holy spiritual roots, and Taoist spiritual roots correspond to Taoist spiritual roots?

If this is the case, it completely explains why he has eight kinds of Taoist spiritual roots.

"Just choose this Hunyuan Tianjing."

After some serious thinking, Zhang Yuhe finally made up his mind.

If he doesn't dare to gamble with such an opportunity, then what's the point of cultivating immortals.

He said respectfully to the old man with a long beard.

"Senior, I choose Hunyuan Tianjing."

"Are you sure? Young people should not be too ambitious. Have you read the introduction above? No one in Daosheng Sect has succeeded in cultivation for millions of years. Do you think you can do it?"

Hearing Zhang Yuhe's choice, the old man with a long beard persuaded him seriously.

At this time, the old man seemed to have forgotten his previous unhappiness, perhaps because he didn't want Zhang Yuhe to go astray.

"Sure."

Zhang Yuhe answered firmly, there is nothing to worry about, just take some time to try.

If it doesn't work, just find an opportunity to change the method later.

Hearing Zhang Yuhe's answer, the old man couldn't help shaking his head. Almost every once in a while, there will be such stubborn disciples who think that what others can't do, they may be able to do.

Until they get hurt, they know to repent.

He has been guarding the Sutra Tower for countless years, and such things have long been commonplace, so he didn't persuade him again.

It's hard to persuade a damn ghost with good words.

The old man waved his hand to take back the booklet, and then said lightly.

"Since you are so determined, go ahead."

After saying that, the old man waved his sleeves, and Zhang Yuhe disappeared instantly. At the same time, a soft light shone on the ninth floor of the Sutra Building.

Zhang Yuhe looked around and saw a tall stone tablet standing in front of him.

The stone tablet was as black as ink, and no words could be seen, but after careful sensing, it seemed that there was an extremely vast aura emanating from it.

"Could this be the Hunyuan Heavenly Scripture?"

"There is not a single word. How can I learn this? Could this stone tablet be a large jade slip?"

Zhang Yuhe sat cross-legged, released his spiritual consciousness, and silently sensed the aura on the stone tablet.

Boom...

When the spiritual consciousness touched the stone tablet, countless contents instantly flooded into his mind, like a revelation.

Zhang Yuhe was immersed in it, and he didn't know how long it had been before he found himself outside the Sutra Building.

"Since you have seen the exercises, why are you still here?"

Seeing Zhang Yuhe standing there in a daze, the old man with a long beard shouted unhappily.

Zhang Yuhe finally came to his senses. He bowed to the old man and said goodbye, then released his flying sword and flew towards Yinhe Peak.

"I've made a lot of money this time."

Along the way, Zhang Yuhe couldn't hide the joy on his face.

Back at Yinhe Peak, he quickly entered the pavilion and sat cross-legged on the training platform.

Calling up the game system to check the properties, a virtual panel appeared in front of him.

Name: Zhang Yuhe

Sect: Daosheng Sect

Realm: Great Perfection of Qi Refining

Spiritual Roots: Gold (Dao Pin), Wood (Dao Pin), Water (Dao Pin), Fire (Dao Pin), Earth (Dao Pin), Wind (Dao Pin), Thunder (Dao Pin), Ice (Dao Pin)

Special Physique: Hunyuan Dao Body

Luck: Good Luck

Comprehension: ???

Gongfa: Hunyuan Tianjing (Volume 1)

Magic skills: Fireball, Gengjin Sword Finger, Wood Prison, Water Arrow...

Hundred Arts: Introduction to Alchemy, Introduction to Weapon Refining, Introduction to Formation, Apprentice of Fu Dao...

After more than a month in the library, in addition to enriching various common sense of immortal cultivation, he also took a general look at various basic magics, and then he knew it, and it felt very simple.

He even read a lot of the knowledge of the hundred arts in the library, and quickly learned the basics. Now all he needs is to practice.

For people with explosive comprehension, learning things is so easy.

But the most exciting thing is the technique. The original Qi-inducing Art has disappeared, replaced by the Hunyuan Heavenly Scripture (Volume 1)

"It turns out that only the upper volume is collected in the Sutra Building."

Zhang Yuhe silently recalled the contents on the stone tablet, according to the above statement.

The Hunyuan Heavenly Scripture is a special technique from the fairy world, divided into two volumes.

Normal techniques can only cultivate a single attribute, while the Hunyuan Heavenly Scripture can cultivate eight systems at the same time.

The spiritual energy in the world is mixed with various attributes. When practicing, the cultivator needs to exclude the spiritual energy of other attributes and can only absorb the spiritual energy of the corresponding attribute according to the technique.

This is actually a very strenuous thing, so every time you practice, everyone has to be careful and can't be disturbed.

Once you accidentally inhale the spiritual energy of other attributes, it is easy to damage the meridians.

However, the Hunyuan Heavenly Scripture is completely different. This technique can absorb all kinds of spiritual energy at the same time, taking the meaning of Hunyuan returning to one.

Of course, this looks beautiful, but in fact it is completely impossible.

This kind of practice that violates the normal rules of cultivating immortals has never been successfully practiced by anyone.

This is not like a practice created by humans, nor does it look like a practice for humans to practice. It is very different.

"Am I not a human?"

Looking at the four big characters of Hunyuan Tianjing clearly displayed on the practice item of personal attributes, Zhang Yuhe didn't know what to think.

If it is displayed on the attribute panel, it means that he has indeed learned it. Next, he just needs to practice step by step.

"Try it."

Zhang Yuhe sat cross-legged on the practice platform and slowly practiced the practice according to the guidance of Hunyuan Tianjing.

In an instant, the surrounding spiritual energy quickly rushed to him, and gathered from the meridians to the dantian.

Because he had already reached the great perfection of Qi training, his dantian was already full. If he did not break through the realm, he could not accommodate more spiritual energy.

However, as Hunyuan Tianjing continued to operate, spiritual energy was still pouring into his dantian.

Boom...

Suddenly, a silent roar sounded in Zhang Yuhe's mind. His Dantian seemed to have broken through some kind of limit, expanding rapidly, and then being filled with the spiritual energy pouring in.

Zhang Yuhe kept running the exercises, and his Dantian was always in this state of expansion, filling, and then expanding and filling again.

I don't know how long it took, but the spiritual energy pouring into the Dantian suddenly turned into a drizzle, slowly dripping into the Dantian.

At the same time, the spiritual energy originally in the Dantian was also rapidly liquefying.

Zhang Yuhe did not dare to be careless at all. He concentrated on running the exercises and paid close attention to the changes in the Dantian.

Now he is not a novice in cultivation, and he knows that he is in the process of building a foundation.

Building a foundation is an important stage in cultivation. Only by building a good foundation can you go further on the road of cultivation.

Normally, every cultivator will make various preparations in advance before building a foundation.
