Section 20

Maybe it is just the beginning now, and the evolution of beasts has not shown any harm.

But as time goes by, the beasts that evolve into monsters will inevitably impact the living place of humans.

It is obviously necessary to prepare early.

However, this kind of thing should be led by the Blue Star Federal Government.

I don't know what the poster's mind is, and he spreads this information.

In Zhang Yuhe's view, as the spiritual energy gradually recovers, the world of Blue Star ushered in a major change. It is normal for some ambitious people to jump out and want to be the trend-setter of the times.

This poster should be one of them.

However, these have nothing to do with him. His goal has long been set on immortality. Blue Star is just a small pond, and the disputes in it don't need to be concerned.

As long as it doesn't interfere with his cultivation, let these people toss around.

...

Chapter 19 Rat Attack Incident

Zhang Yuhe quickly browsed other posts, most of which introduced players' experiences in Yufantian.

Many players who logged off early posted on the forum to express regret. They felt that they should have persisted a little longer.

Even if they can't enter the first level of Qi Refining, they can't waste time like this.

If they keep wasting time like this, they will soon be left behind by other players.

They plan to make full preparations tonight and try to stay for a full 100 days.

Some people also share wilderness survival tips on the forum for everyone's reference.

Zhang Yuhe even saw someone recommending items brought out from the Yufantian world on the forum.

However, most of them are animal meat and wild fruits, but there are no elixirs.

Suddenly, a video post caught Zhang Yuhe's attention.

He clicked on the video to watch it, and saw a young man sitting cross-legged, constantly pinching the magic formula in his hands.

After a while, a faint little fireball flew out from the man's fingertips.

There were exclamations of replies under the post.

"Fuck, the boss is awesome."

"Is this the fireball technique? How powerful is it?"

"Let me put it this way, the fireball technique of the cultivator is more powerful than the cannon of Blue Star."

"Zhao, it's fake, how can such a small fireball compare to a cannon?"

"Ignorant, you don't understand the means of cultivating immortals."

...

"These people know how to play."

"Should I also take a video and upload it to the forum?"

Zhang Yuhe touched his chin and thought with some interest.

If he took a video of flying with a sword and uploaded it to the forum, would the effect fascinate countless cute girls?

"Forget it, keep a low profile, keep a low profile."

Cultivate immortals in a low profile, and there is no self in the world.

This is Zhang Yuhe's true idea.

Whether in Blue Star or Yufantian, he plans to be a hidden person.

He wants others to not feel his presence, so that he can practice with peace of mind and will not be affected by the disturbances of the outside world.

After closing the forum, Zhang Yuhe went downstairs and ordered a bowl of noodles. He was really tired of eating barbecue for a hundred days, so he had some vegetarian food to slow down.

Niutai Mountain is an urban forest park spanning several districts.

Every weekend, a large number of citizens come here to check in and climb the mountain.

Walking on the mountain trail, Zhang Yuhe silently circulated the Hunyuan Tianjing and felt the spiritual energy around him.

"The spiritual energy here seems to be richer than in the room?"

Zhang Yuhe was thoughtful.

Through observation, he felt that the spiritual energy in the mountain was still thin, but much more abundant than at home.

The purpose of his coming here was mainly to feel the changes brought about by the revival of spiritual energy.

No matter how much you read on the forum, it is not as real as your own personal experience.

Just as Zhang Yuhe was lost in thought, a girl's scream came from the mountain road in front of Kong Ran.

He quickly scanned with his spiritual sense and saw a group of people running down the mountain road.

Behind this group of people, a huge rat was squatting in the middle of the mountain road with its teeth bared.

"Fuck, such a big rat."

Looking at the big rat in the middle of the mountain road, Zhang Yuhe couldn't help but be a little surprised.

This is Blue Star, can a mouse grow so big?

The mouse's eyes were red, and it was bigger than a rabbit. Is it still a mouse?

The big mouse squatted in the middle of the mountain road, its eyes kept flashing, and suddenly pounced on a fat girl who was running.

Seeing the big mouse pounce, everyone was instantly frightened and their legs went weak, and they rolled and crawled to both sides of the mountain road.

The fat girl, who had no idea that she had been spotted by the big mouse, continued to run wildly along the mountain road.

"Hey."

Seeing this, Zhang Yuhe had no choice but to take action. He couldn't just watch a young girl fall under the claws of a mouse.

He flicked his finger, and a faint sword light passed by that no one noticed.

The sword light jumped hundreds of meters and instantly knocked the big mouse jumping in the air to the ground.

Zhang Yuhe quickly turned around and left. He didn't want to be discovered.

Whether others thanked him, admired him, or envied him, it was not what he wanted.

After the matter was done, he left.

He just wanted to practice quietly.

Zhang Yuhe was not in the mood to go shopping anymore, so he quickly walked to the parking lot and drove home.

Although his spiritual energy has been revived, it is better not to do such a great thing as flying on a sword on Blue Star for the time being.

Driving is the normal choice for people to travel.

People who like to show off will eventually have no good results, and he is not a person who likes to show off.

An incident of a rat attacking people in Niutai Mountain quickly spread on the Internet, and the Forest Park subsequently announced its closure.

An insider revealed that the management found a tiny hole in the big rat through inspection.

The news spread, causing an even greater sensation in an instant.

"Zhou Cao, is there any big shot taking action?"

"It's fake. There are surveillance cameras everywhere in the park. Can someone take action and still not see it?"

"It's not surprising that immortal cultivators can kill a big mouse, but it's completely impossible to kill it silently."

"A monk at the first level of Qi training cannot even cast the most basic spells smoothly. If you want to kill the big rat silently, you must at least reach a high level of Qi training."

"So, it's impossible to be an immortal player?"

"Indeed, it's just been one night. Even if you train on a rocket, it won't be so fast."

"It must be an air rifle. Air rifle bullets are very small and make no sound."

"It's possible. I heard that park management personnel are equipped with air guns to deal with some emergencies."

"By the way, is this big rat a monster?"

"Definitely not. Monsters are much more powerful than rats."

"Hey, Blue Star is really unsafe. We can't even go to the park."

"I really envy those who are qualified and can practice."

"Yeah, it's so unfair, why not everyone can practice."

"Let's go to the "Yufantian" website to complain together. We also want to practice."

"A funny guy."

...

Zhang Yuhe did not pay attention to the aftermath of the big rat attack on people in Niutai Mountain.

To him, this was nothing more than a trivial matter.

A mouse that was not even a first-level monster was weaker than the first wild monster he killed in Yu Fantian. What was there to be concerned about?

However, the impact of the spiritual energy recovery is indeed gradually amplifying, and it has only been a day.

Rats in city parks have begun to attack humans. Are the beasts in the mountains evolving faster?

Zhang Yuhe felt a sense of crisis and had to speed up his cultivation.

He didn't want to find that when he went offline one day, he would find wild monsters all around him.

People are cultivating in Yufantian, but they are gone when they return home?

That feeling would be too bad.
