Section 25

That is to say, this kid used a hundred years to practice from the Qi Refining Stage to the late stage of the Spiritualization Stage.

Such a speed of practice completely exceeded his imagination.

Lu Changming opened his mouth, but didn't know where to start. After a long while, he asked.

"Have you practiced to the late stage of the Spiritualization Stage?"

"Yes, I practice hard every day and have made some progress by chance."

Zhang Yuhe answered carefully. He also felt that his practice speed was too fast, and he was a little worried that he would be caught by the old monsters of the Daosheng Sect and sliced for research.

If he didn't have the identity of a player and could be resurrected after death, he would not dare to show up in front of these old monsters.

Maybe after exchanging for the skills, he would find a deserted place to practice quietly until he was invincible in the world before daring to walk around.

"Not bad."

Hearing Zhang Yuhe's answer, Lu Mingfang nodded in approval.

Before coming here, he checked Zhang Yuhe's information and found that this kid had never gone out since entering the sect except for receiving the skills once.

Not to mention walking out of the mountain gate, this kid has never even left the mountain where he is.

Even an old monster like him who has practiced for tens of thousands of years can't compare to his spirit of seclusion and hard cultivation.

With such a character, why worry about not being able to cultivate immortals?

Of course, the more important thing is the kid's talent, which may be very amazing, maybe some kind of spirit.

It's just that when he just got started, he didn't test Zhang Yuhe's talent. Now that he has got started, it's not easy to ask.

Seeing that Lu Mingfang didn't ask in detail, Zhang Yuhe couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

He was afraid that these old monsters would dig deep, but now it seems that they didn't.

In fact, in the world of cultivating immortals, it is like this. Everyone has their own secrets, even if they are close to their teachers, they won't ask in detail.

Lu Mingfang looked at Zhang Yuhe with approval and said in a soft tone.

"Every hundred years, inner disciples need to take up guarding duties. You know this, right?"

"I know."

Zhang Yuhe nodded to show his understanding.

"Since you have cultivated to the late stage of transformation, the guarding position will be easy to arrange. The guarding disciple of Yunzhong Mansion in Hezhou is about to break through. He applied to return to the sect for retreat last month. You can go to Yunzhong Mansion to guard it."

"Okay."

Zhang Yuhe nodded. It didn't matter to him where to go, he was not familiar with any place anyway.

But it is worth pondering that Yunzhong Mansion is where he entered Yufantian.

As the saying goes, you should return to where you came from. Things in the world are so wonderful.

"Give me your identity jade card."

Zhang Yuhe hurriedly handed over his identity jade card.

Lu Mingfang took the jade card, pinched the magic formula with his fingers, and then pointed at the jade card.

The jade card changed instantly. The front was written with Taoist Saint. Yinhe Peak Zhang Yuhe, and the back was originally blank, but now it appeared "Yunzhong Mansion Guardian".

...

Chapter 25 Return to Yunzhong Mansion

Lu Mingfang reset the identity jade card and handed it back, reminding Zhang Yuhe at the same time.

"You must arrive at Yunzhong City within one month and complete the handover with the previous garrison disciples."

"Yes."

Zhang Yuhe took the identity jade card and said respectfully.

Lu Mingfang nodded, took out a jade slip and handed it over.

"These are the matters that the garrison disciples need to pay attention to. Please take a closer look later."

Before Zhang Yuhe responded, Lu Mingfang said seriously.

"Inner disciples must not lose the dignity of Daosheng Sect when they go out to garrison. At the same time, pay attention to patrolling the movements of the Demon God Sect. Once the traces of the Demon God Sect are found, report immediately. If anyone is found to be colluding with the Demon God Sect and acting as a running dog of the demon clan, they will be killed without mercy."

"The Demon God Sect is omnipresent. This is your first time to be a garrison. Don't be fooled by the Demon God Sect. Report to the sect in time when you encounter problems that cannot be solved."

Zhang Yuhe stood aside, listening to Lu Mingfang's words, nodding from time to time.

"I'm leaving first. If you have anything, please contact me through the identity jade card."

After a long lecture, Lu Mingfang turned into a stream of light and disappeared into the distance.

Zhang Yuhe held the jade slip and stood there thinking quietly.

According to the book, the demons invaded Yufantian 100,000 years ago, and a war lasted for hundreds of years.

Finally, under the leadership of the Daosheng Sect, the invading demons were successfully repelled.

But things are not that simple. Although the demons were repelled, they were not completely eliminated.

There are still some demons hiding in various places in Yufantian. The Daosheng Sect spent 100,000 years and still failed to eliminate them all.

More importantly, the remaining demons encouraged the natives of Yufantian to establish the Demon God Religion and believe in the Demon God. It is actually growing stronger.

Zhang Yuhe can occasionally see players discussing the Demon God Religion through the chat channel and the Skynet of the Blue Star Xiuxian Alliance.

Obviously, these remaining demons and the Demon God Cult did not hide honestly, but often came out to make some small moves, seriously threatening the ruling position of the Daosheng Sect.

That's why Lu Mingfang specifically mentioned this to him, in case the Demon God Cult made trouble in Yunzhong Mansion during his guarding period.

"I hope it won't affect my cultivation."

Zhang Yuhe thought silently.

For him, guarding Yunzhong Mansion is just a change of place to practice.

If you really meet a guy who makes trouble, then kill him one by one, and kill two by two.

If you meet someone you can't beat, run away quickly and call for support.

After returning to the pavilion, Zhang Yuhe packed up and turned into a stream of light and flew towards the mountain gate.

While flying, he checked the precautions in the jade slip.

The main task of the inner disciples who went out to guard was to monitor the four directions.

The first was to prevent people from breaking the rules and destroying the rules and order set by the Daosheng Sect.

The second was related to the demon clan and the Demon God Cult. Once someone was found to be colluding with the Demon God Cult, they would be killed and never tolerated.

From this, it can be seen that the Daosheng Sect is very vigilant against the demon clan and the Demon God Cult.

Monitoring the movements of the Demon God Cult and the demon clan is almost the first priority of these guarding disciples.

As for the local indigenous forces, they are not very important, after all, these people have their roots there.

Once something out of the ordinary is done, they cannot bear the thundering wrath of the Daosheng Sect.

Simply put, the guarding disciples usually only need to pay attention to the changes in local forces, and keep a close eye on the demon clan and the Demon God Cult that may appear at any time.

In addition to these two things, the guarding disciples do not need to do too much. When they are free, they can stay in the guard house to practice with peace of mind.

Zhang Yuhe used all his strength to activate the Tianhuang Feixian Technique. He was as graceful as an immortal, but at a very fast speed.

After a while, he flew out of the gate of Daosheng Sect.

He flew forward quickly all the way. When he arrived at Zhongzhou City, he did not stay there. Instead, he showed his identity jade card, took the teleportation array to Hezhou, and then teleported to Yunzhongfu City.

This time, he not only did not need to pay, but also did not need to queue.

As an inner disciple of Daosheng Sect, he had countless privileges when traveling abroad.

Free teleportation was just a small matter.

"I'm back here again."

Walking out of the Yunzhong City Teleportation Hall, looking at the slightly familiar environment in front of him, Zhang Yuhe couldn't help but sigh.

A hundred years have passed. At the beginning, he just passed through Yunzhong City and then took the teleportation array to leave.

Back here again, his identity is very different at this time.

"Let's go to the garrison to complete the handover first. The original garrison disciples probably can't wait."

According to Lu Mingfang, the original garrison disciples are about to break through and need to return to the sect to practice in seclusion, so he was asked to come here to replace them.

When inner disciples go out to guard, it doesn't mean that they must stay in the same place for a hundred years.

In fact, they can leave the station at ordinary times, as long as the time is not too long.

If they need to leave for a long time, they have to report to the sect, and the sect will arrange other inner disciples to replace them.

Of course, they need to make up for the guard time they didn't complete next time.

...

Zhang Yuhe stood up and flew quickly to the garrison. There is a no-fly ban in the city of Yunzhong Prefecture, and cultivators cannot fly in the city, but that is for ordinary cultivators.

As the garrison commander of this place, he is naturally not affected by the formation. Zhang Yuhe quickly flew over Yunzhong City.

To the north of Yunzhong City, a mountain peak stands abruptly, and a stone staircase path winds up to the top.

The Yunzhong Garrison was located on the top of the mountain.

When Zhang Yuhe passed the foot of the mountain, a loud shout was heard.

"Who is it?"

A team of golden-armored monks quickly ran down the mountain road, releasing their magic weapons at the same time, and looked at Zhang Yuhe in the air with vigilance.

Zhang Yuhe picked up the identity jade card and threw it out. The jade card quickly magnified countless times, and several large, glittering characters instantly appeared in the sky.

[Yunzhong Garrison Envoy]

"Greetings, Lord Garrison Envoy."

The golden-armored monk saw the jade card and hurriedly saluted him and shouted.
