Section 33

With the information he has, maybe he can join the garrison.

Thinking of this, Wang Guofeng organized his words seriously and said solemnly.

"I have the information you want, but the conditions I need will be very high. I guess you can't make the decision. Can you trouble me to introduce me to the person in charge of the garrison?"

Zhang Yuhe didn't feel strange about Wang Guofeng's words.

After all, the cultivation he showed now is only the middle stage of foundation building.

In Wang Guofeng's view, with such cultivation, maybe he is just a miscellaneous role in the garrison.

It is a big matter related to the Demon God Cult, so he can't tell him easily. He has to tell someone with weight in the garrison.

But Zhang Yuhe didn't mind. Who in the whole Yunzhong Mansion can be more important than him?

He just said lightly.

"Oh, do you have any requirements? Can you tell me?"

"I still say that as long as the information is reliable, you can set any conditions."

Wang Guofeng looked at Zhang Yuhe's expression and felt helpless.

Originally, he wanted to bypass Zhang Yuhe and contact Yunzhong Town Guard House directly.

But now it seems a bit difficult.

First, he didn't know other people in the town guard house, and second, his information was completely his own speculation without any real evidence.

If he ran to Yunzhong Town Guard House and said that he guessed that a certain place was the secret base of the Demon God Cult, he would probably be beaten out as a lunatic.

"It's a bit difficult to deal with."

Wang Guofeng thought about it and said.

"I want to join the Daosheng Sect. If it doesn't work, I can join Yunzhong Town Guard House."

Wang Guofeng opened his mouth. Regardless of whether it works or not, he raised the conditions first.

Didn't Zhang Yuhe just say that he could make any conditions? Now he has made it, can you accept it?

If you can't accept it, it's better to let him meet the person in charge of the town guard house.

That way he can seriously negotiate the conditions. If someone introduces him, he doesn't have to worry about being beaten out.

Wang Guofeng's original intention was to bypass Zhang Yuhe and contact the town guard house directly.

He didn't mean anything else, but he felt that Zhang Yuhe's status was too low, and some things were not easy to discuss with Zhang Yuhe.

Zhang Yuhe was a little surprised when he heard the conditions offered by Wang Guofeng.

He originally thought that Wang Guofeng might ask for skills or magic weapons.

After all, these resources are basically in the hands of the major indigenous forces.

Players often have to pay a great price to obtain them.

But after thinking about it, Zhang Yuhe felt that the conditions offered by Wang Guofeng just now were more brilliant.

If you can join the Daosheng Sect, or even just join the garrison, will there be a lack of skills and magic weapons?

Of course, this is just a lion's mouth. Wang Guofeng just set the conditions high, and he doesn't necessarily take it seriously.

Zhang Yuhe tapped the table with his fingers and fell into deep thought.

Wang Guofeng wanted to join the Daosheng Sect, which was naturally impossible.

Although as an inner disciple, Zhang Yuhe has the right to recommend others to join the sect.

But it's not that anyone can be recommended. The recommended person also needs to meet certain conditions.

For example, spiritual root qualifications, origin, and the time of cultivation cannot be too long.

Dao Sheng Zong obviously will not accept people who have practiced for too long.

The reason is very simple, they cannot be trained.

After thinking for a while, Zhang Yuhe said seriously.

"Joining Dao Sheng Zong is not possible at present. If you want to join Yunzhong Town Guard House, there is no problem at all."

At present, he cannot bring Wang Guofeng into Dao Sheng Zong, but when he breaks through to the Refining Void Realm and becomes an elder of Dao Sheng Zong, there will be no problem at all.

Elders can bring people into Dao Sheng Zong, but they are not disciples of the sect, but personal followers of the elders.

Dao Sheng Zong has no other requirements for the personal followers of the elders, as long as they are not people with bad intentions.

As for joining the Guard House, it is not a problem at all.

Yunzhong Town Guard House is short of people, and he is looking for some helpers.

But before that, Zhang Yuhe did not plan to recruit players into the Guard House.

In his opinion, players are people who can't stand loneliness and like to make trouble.

If there is really a mess, he has to come forward to calm it down, right? He has no time to clean up after these people.

However, after seeing Wang Guofeng, Zhang Yuhe changed his mind.

Not only because Wang Guofeng looks steady and reliable, he doesn't seem like someone who likes to stir up trouble.

More importantly, the eight-clawed sea monster today touched him greatly.

Originally, Zhang Yuhe thought that players could obtain resources in Yufantian and have a relatively good cultivation environment.

Then the players' cultivation speed must be much faster than the evolution speed of the monsters on Blue Star.

As a result, a sea monster appeared today that the players couldn't handle.

Since there was a first time, there might be a second time.

Although Zhang Yuhe rarely took action on Blue Star, it doesn't mean that he doesn't care about the stability of Blue Star.

Putting aside feelings, people who cultivate immortals talk about cause and effect. He was born on Blue Star and cultivated in Yufantian.

In other words, he has a great cause and effect with Blue Star and Yufantian.

In layman's terms, he owes a debt to Blue Star and Yufantian.

Within his ability, he has the obligation to try his best to calm down the unrest in these two worlds.

This is also his responsibility.

Zhang Yuhe had never taken action on Blue Star before, but he thought that other people could handle it and he was not needed.

Now it seems that the strength of the players on Blue Star is still a little bit weaker.

"Perhaps the player's strength can be appropriately improved."

Zhang Yuhe thought.

Once he flies to the fairy world and there is any turmoil in Blue Star, players will be able to better deal with it as their strength increases.

Wang Guofeng couldn't help but be shocked when he heard that Zhang Yuhe could let him join the Yunzhong Guards.

He said with a slight frown.

"You can let me join the town government? Brother, are you kidding me?"

"Come with me."

Zhang Yuhe didn't talk nonsense. After he finished speaking, he rolled up his sleeves and instantly took Wang Guofeng and flew towards the governor's mansion.

Chapter 34 News about the Demonic Cult

Being led by Zhang Yuhe and flying quickly over Yunzhong City, Wang Guofeng was so shocked that he could not speak.

He opened his mouth and was about to speak, but saw that they had arrived in front of a magnificent mansion.

When the two guards at the gate of the mansion saw Zhang Yuhe arriving, they quickly shouted respectfully.

"I've met the Lord Guard."

Zhang Yuhe nodded, then walked through the gate and entered the mansion.

Wang Guofeng was completely numb. He didn't know when he had followed Zhang Yuhe to a lobby.

Zhang Yuhe said to him with a smile.

"Sit down and talk."

Wang Guofeng sat down blankly and asked Zhang Yuhe with a look of disbelief on his face.

"Are you the guardian envoy?"

Zhang Yuhe smiled and nodded gently.

"how can that be possible."

Looking at Zhang Yuhe sitting at the top, his whole body exuded an aura as deep as the abyss.

Wang Guofeng muttered to himself, he couldn't believe it was true.

As a Blue Star player, how could Zhang Yuhe practice so quickly?

And he also became the guardian of Yunzhong Mansion, which is simply unimaginable.

Is he really a player?

Wang Guofeng expressed some doubts.

Could it be that a native is pretending to be a player and wants to find out about the possible entrance to Blue Star from him?

Thinking of this, Wang Guofeng asked quickly.

"Are you really a player?"

"right."

After hearing Zhang Yuhe's answer, Wang Guofeng still didn't want to believe it.

The reality of Zhang Yuhe's current situation completely broke his understanding.

Wang Guofeng thought quietly for a while, and then asked.

“What is Blue Star’s national treasure?”
